BENNETT PLANS TO ASSIST FARMERS

WINNIPEG BUSINESS MAN SAYS RUPERT LOGICAL OUTLET

Canadian Premier Intends To Offer Direct Grants In Order to Help Agriculture in the West

Appropriations Will Not Be In Nature of Loans or Mortgages But Will Be Made Outright—Amount Depends on Premiers of Prairie Provinces

TORONTO, Dec. 30.—The Mail and Empire this morning published a special dispatch from its Parliamentary correspondent at Ottawa in which is indicated the intention of Premier R. B. Bennett to offer direct relief to the farmers of the west. It states that he will offer a large contribution to supplement advances made by the provinces. He will propose to give two or three dollars for every dollar to be contributed by the provinces. The total amount so offered will depend upon the provincial premiers who meet him in Regina tomorrow. The dispatch states that advances to the provinces for this purpose will not be in the nature of loans or mortgages; nor will they be deducted from provincial subsidies but will be granted outright as was the $20,000,000 for the relief of the unemployed.

CHILDREN ARE DEAD

MONTREAL, Dec. 30.—Six of the nine children of Henri Labelle, butcher merchant of St. Janvier, Que., were burned to death last night when fire destroyed their home.

An Afternoon On the City Bread Line; 235 Men Get Meal Tickets In Single Day; Many Nationalities

Yesterday there were 235 men each given two 25-cent meal tickets to keep them from going hungry for another day. Most of them were fine young men anxious to work, but others were loafers, "bums," men who are perennially broke no matter what they earn. The writer of this article saw them all and spoke with some of them. They were mostly men who had drifted into the city. About one-third called themselves Canadians but they were Norwegian-Canadians, Swedish-Canadians, American-Canadians. One admitted that he was born in Ireland of Scottish parents

Rich Gold Find Made In South Of Province

REVELSTOKE, B.C., Dec. 30.—A gold brick and coarse gold exhibit valued at $2700 from French Creek, in the Big Bend country, scene of the great gold rush of 65 years ago, is attracting much attention here. The exhibit represents the product of 900 cubic yards of pay dirt struck recently on the old river channel workings. It required a season's work of eight men to drive a heavy rock cut through the glacial intrusion to secure drainage and tailage for the pay ground above, and this will be driven five feet lower to get the best results. The gold is coarse, the largest nuggets going $6.20, and has a fine assay value of $18.50 per ounce.

The Weather

Triple Island—Southeast breeze, sea smooth, clear with light clouds. Dead Tree Point—Rain, fresh southeasterly wind, barometer, 29.74; temperature, 44, rough sea. Langara—Overcast, light easterly wind, sea calm. Prince Rupert—Calm, cloudy, barometer, 29.90; temperature, 48; calm sea.

and claimed to be Scottish but this claim was not allowed. Only thirty of the number were married and three were widowers. One Irishman was proud of being a Free States Irishman, with accent on the "Free State."

Several of the men, announced that they would be at work tomorrow and seemed proud of the fact. These men were not loafers. They seemed anxious to get off the bread line. They were being put on the city road gang for their turn at the work they were anxious to do. Among the nationalities represented were:

Canadians	79
Norwegians	32
Scottish	20
Swedish	17
English	17
Finnish	11
Irish	8
Welsh	7
Ukrainian	6
Polish	4
Russian	4
Czecho-Slovakian	4
Italian	3
Esthonian	3
Roumanian	3
Dane	2
American	2
Jugo-Slav	1
Swiss	1
Austrian	1

Getting Their Meals The men are allowed to use the tickets at any restaurant they wish and most of them go to the Chinese places because they say they get more for their money there. The better class restaurants do not want them. They say they get good meals for 25c. Some of them said they got two eggs and bread and butter or toast for breakfast or a fish dish. For other meals they could have soup and stew, fish or hamburger (Continued on page two.)

DROWNING IN NORTH

Double Tragedy On Stikine River When Hand Made Boat Capsized

VANCOUVER, Dec. 30.—Two men, John Ensor, aged 59, and John Campbell, 63, were drowned in Cottonwood Rapids in the northern interior when their hand made boat capsized, it was learned here today. Claude Irving survived and walked 100 miles to Telegraph Creek with the first word of the tragedy. The three men were traveling to McDames Creek where they owned a placer gold claim. A wire from Irving gave October 11 as the date of the drowning but police believe that it should have read November 11.

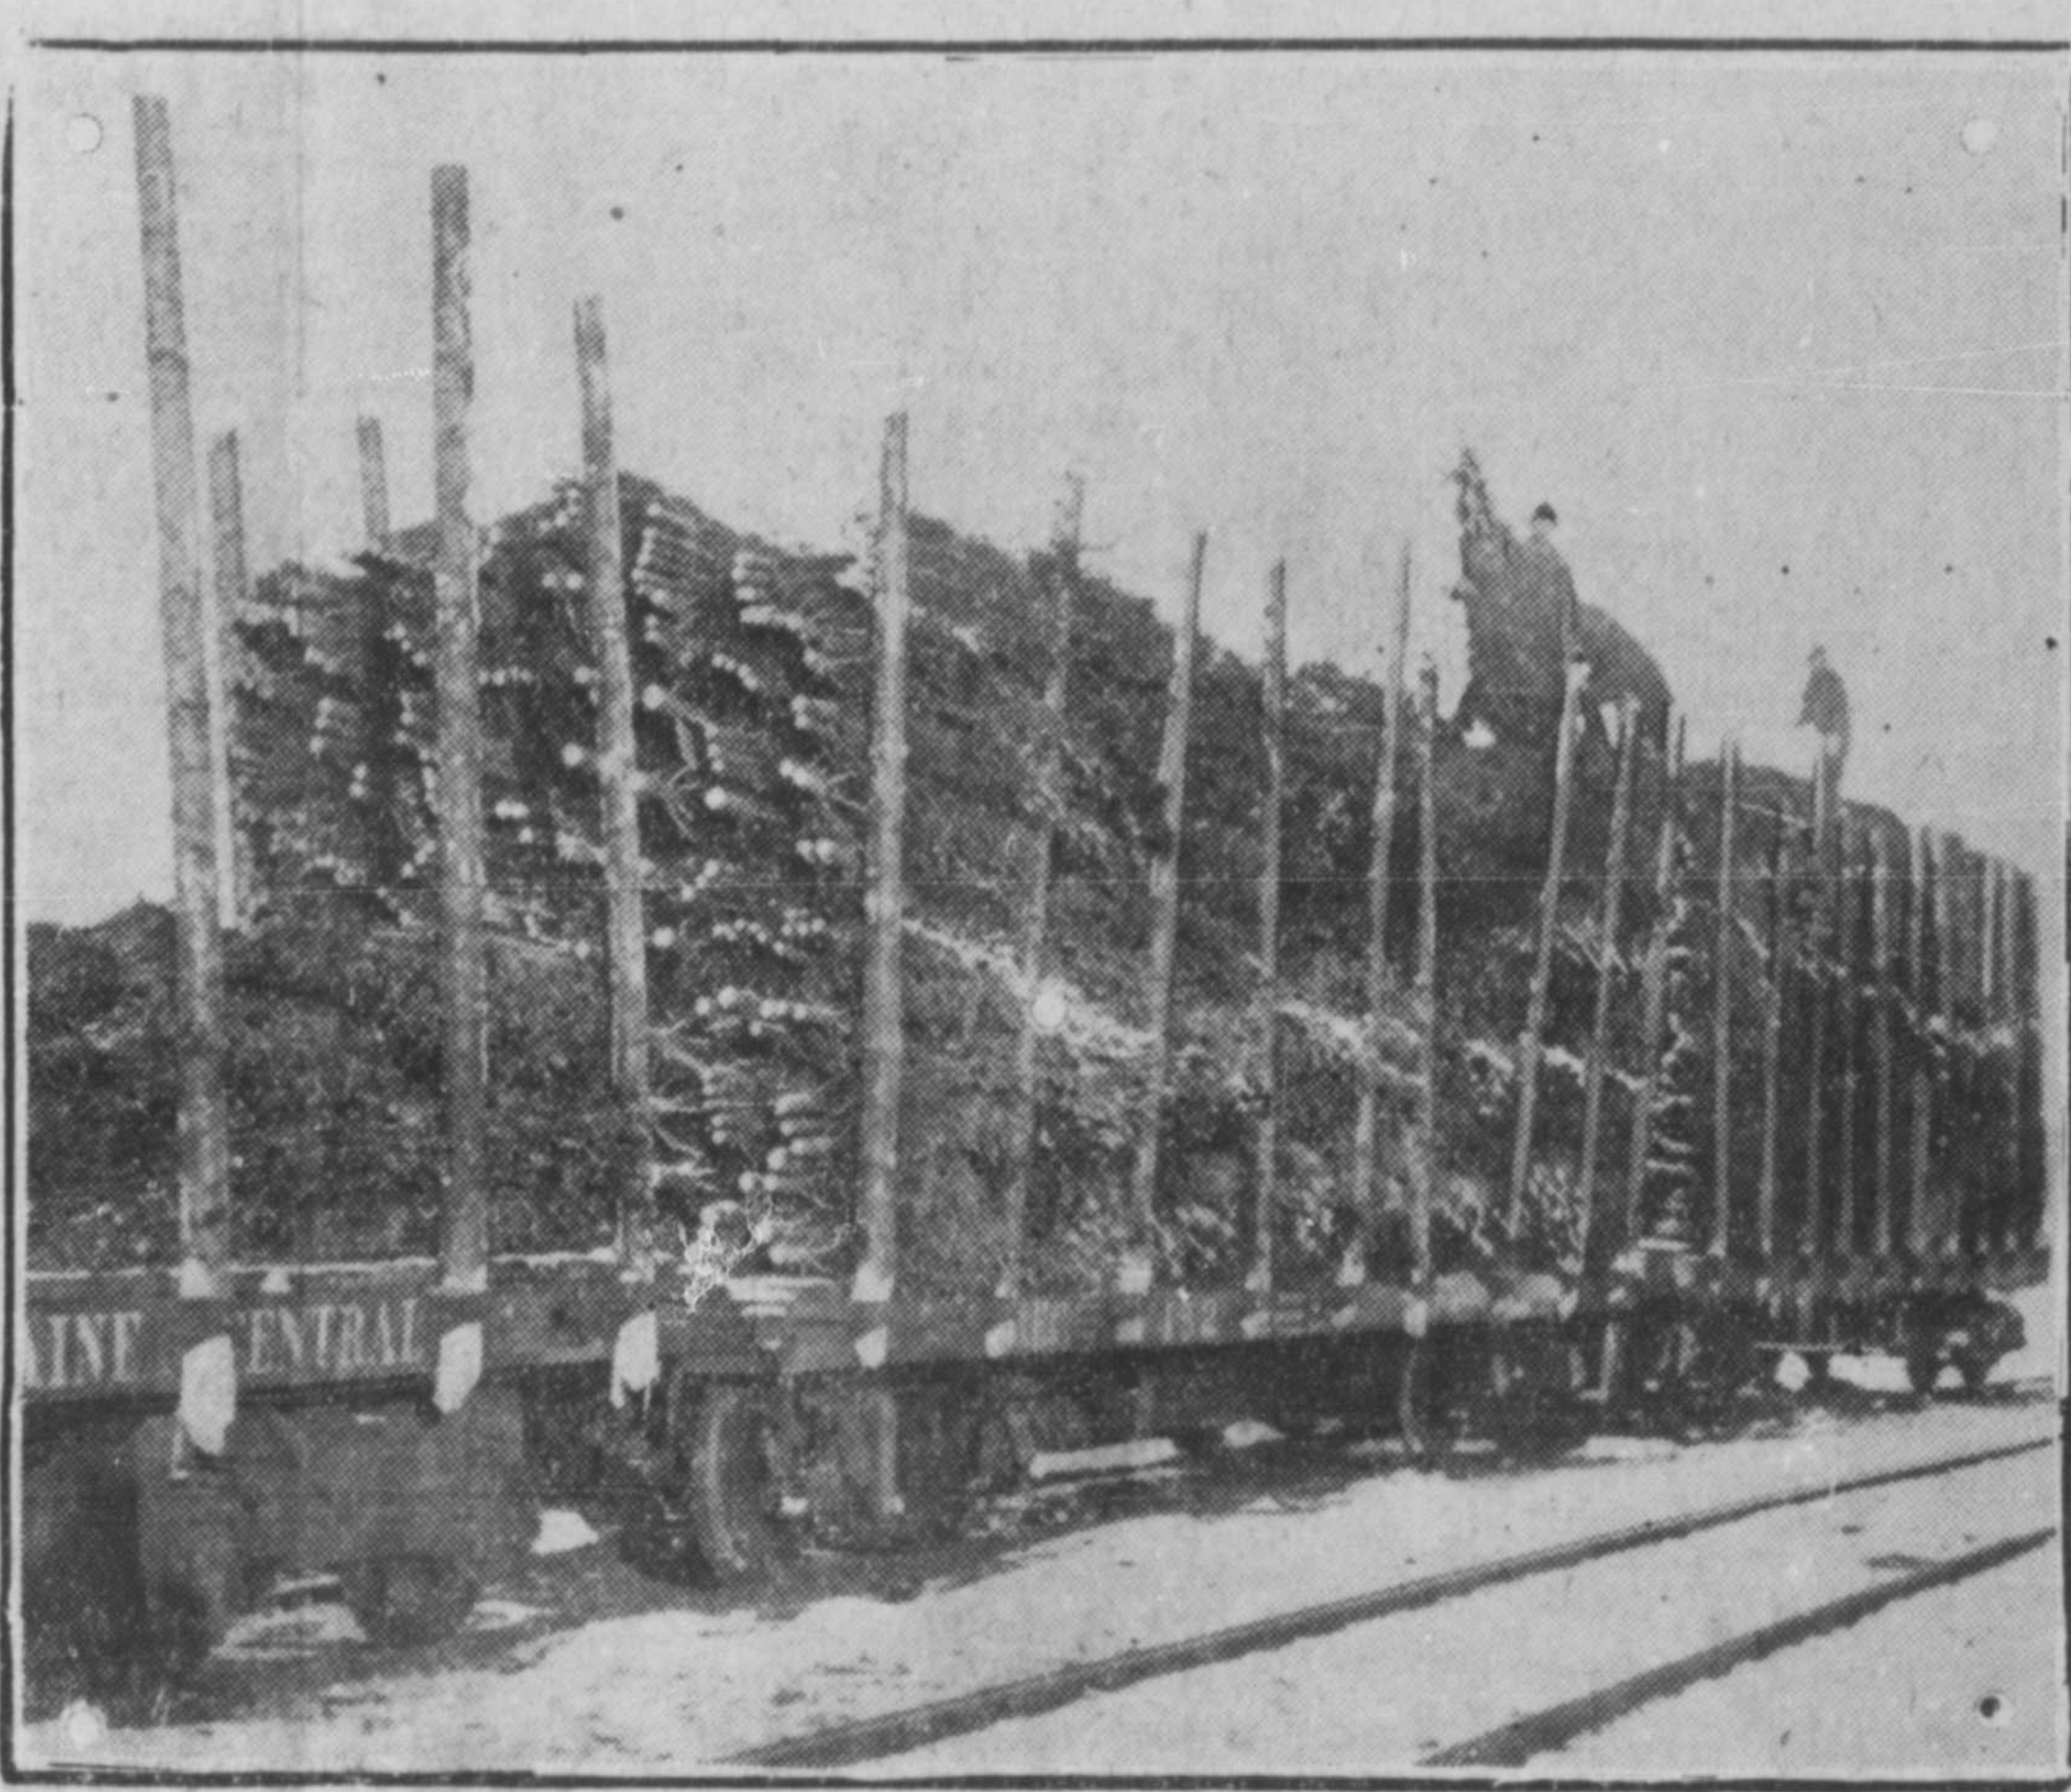

NEW YEAR'S GREETING OF OLOF HANSON

To the residents of Skeena Constituency, one and all, I extend my heartiest wishes for a Happy and Prosperous New Year. The year nineteen hundred and thirty leaves this district along with the remainder of the Dominion, in fact the whole world, battling against the culmination of many un-natural post Great War conditions, with resultant suffering from hardship, but in the opinion of those repated to be able to judge, less so in Canada, than other parts. It is my belief that we have already experienced the worst, and that with the exercise of sound discretion and good common sense, we shall again quickly pilot ourselves into that sea of prosperity we have been accustomed to enjoy. OLOF HANSON.

Between Fifty and Hundred Indian Rebels Are Killed In Fierce Clash In Burma

RANGOON, Burma, Dec. 30.—Savage rebels of the rice swamps and the jungle met British soldiers in a fierce battle through harawaddy Forest today, melting into the woods under withering machine gun fire but fighting on in crazed bravery of desperation. Fragmentary reports from the fastnesses where the men of the jungle clad in picturesque uniforms which look like blue pyjamas had barricaded themselves indicated that the insurgents had lost between fifty and one hundred men with many more wounded. No casualties were reported by the government forces. The British were said to have surrounded the rebels in a wild, hilly region where there is little food and less water.

Proximity of Port To Orient is Main Factor Favoring This Centre

William A. Gunn Sets Forth Case In Article He Writes For Winnipeg and Western Grocer—North Country Is Vast

"Undoubtedly Prince Rupert is the most logical ocean port for the Peace River country, not because of its grain elevator facilities and its fine harbor, but because it is five hundred miles north of Vancouver and is much nearer to the teeming millions in the Orient than any other Canadian or American city," says William A. Gunn, representative of a large Winnipeg business house, writing in the Winnipeg and Western Grocer. "And when we consider that the Peace River country is larger than the six New England states, consideration also must be given to the possibility of this Utopia becoming a new Canadian province, with the western boundary extending to the coast and Alaska,

Home of Wheat King

That the development and future potentialities of the Peace River country are without an equal in the world has been partly proven by Herman Trelle, whose sample of hard spring wheat this year was the most uniform and the heaviest ever shown at the International, crowning him once again the world's wheat king. The Peace River itself is a major link in the McKenzie River system, which, with a length of 2,525 miles, constitutes the largest river system in Canada. The writer does not wish to go as far as Sir Henry Thornton, who, when speaking of the Peace River country, said, "An empire in the making." Rather be it said "A province in the making," to include one seaport city.

Manchester Textile Workers and Miners of South Wales Threaten to Go Out

MANCHESTER, Dec. 30.—Spokesmen for 200,000 workers in the weaving industry today delivered an ultimatum to the mill owners threatening a general strike in the industry unless the employers receded from their recent more-loom-per-weaver edict.

CARDIFF, Dec. 30.—Miners' delegates this afternoon rejected the owners' terms for extension of the temporary wage and working schedule agreement and a strike in the South Wales coalfields seems inevitable.

Vancouver City Council Urges Federal Government to Keep Up Search For Missing Air Party

VANCOUVER, Dec. 30.—In accordance with a resolution adopted by the city council, Mayor W. H. Malkin last night forwarded a telegram to Premier R. B. Bennett urging the Dominion government to continue the search for Pilot Robin Renahan, well known air pilot, and two companions, Sam Clerf and Frank Hatcher, who became

OLD CITY IS FOUND

NURZUK, Tripoli, Dec. 30.—The discovery of a walled city in the wild German district of the Southern Tripoli desert has been announced by Langston Moffett of Washington, D.C., on his arrival here. Moffett is a member of the Prorok-Roselli expedition. "A vast Paleolithic walled city in an almost perfect state of preservation," is the way he described it. Count Byron Kuhn de Prorok is leader of the party.

FOUR MEN ARRESTED

Serious Charge Involving Fifteen-Year Old Girl Laid By Police

Leo Contoli, Spiro Gurvich, Roy Fisher and William Murray were placed under arrest by the city police yesterday afternoon on charges of contributing to the delinquency of a juvenile. Later Contoli was released on bail of $5,000 while Gurvich and Murray were given their freedom on $3,000 bail. Fisher was unable to raise his bail and is still in the lock-up. Preliminary hearing is set for tomorrow morning. A 15-year old girl is involved in the case.

WILLINGDON IS LEAVING VERY SOON

OTTAWA, Dec. 30.—Announcement that the Governor General and Viscountess Willingdon will leave Canada on January 16 for England and subsequently for their new post in India was made at Government House today. Their Excellencies will leave Ottawa at noon on January 14 for St. John, N.B., there to board the steamer Montclair for England.

Apparently, there will be an interval between the departure of Lord Willingdon and the appointment of his successor, during which an administrator will act. Indications now are that the next session of Parliament will open before Canada's new Governor-General will have assumed office. It is generally expected that Parliament will open by the middle of February.

THERE IS A DIFFERENCE

There is a difference between the position of Prince Rupert and the southern cities in regard to the use by the railway company of the big shipyard and dry dock here. The railway owns this dock but it does not own the Yarrow Shipyard at Esquimalt or the Wallace Yards at Vancouver or any of the other yards that get work from the company.

Any private concern owning a big shipyard and dry dock would utilize it to its fullest possible capacity. If the C.P.R. owned it, there would be all kinds of work going on there. It would be the natural thing for them to do the work at their own yards and no one would question it.

We are not criticising the administration of the dry dock at Prince Rupert. Those in charge seem to have done excellent work and they have secured a fair apportionment this year considering it is operated under a political system that is not always just. The dock here is particularly suitable for the overhaul of large ships such as the Prince Rupert and this would be the natural place to have the work done economically but the political situation has to be taken into consideration and so the contract goes to Esquimalt.

PROPERTY OWNERS' ASSOCIATION

The formation of a property owners' association in the city is a very proper move. Labor has its Trades and Labor Council always alert and the retail merchants are also organized to look after their own interests. Owners of property have certain other interests that deserve attention. With a good list of officers they may well serve the city by drawing attention to matters which seem to them deserving of action. We welcome the organization of such a body as that proposed.

CHANGES IN INDIA

India has for many years been fretful under British rule. British officials have had to be autocratic in their methods because of the type of people with whom they have had to deal. Natives have not always been treated with that consideration which is their just due as the original occupants and owners of the country. The result has been that the men whom the British people have educated have been the leaders in a movement to oust the British from the country or at least to curb their power.

A measure of autonomy has been proposed which it is possible may be temporarily acceptable. But it will be only a temporary expedient. The agitation will undoubtedly continue until the country attains full Dominion status. In the meantime the people will be getting experience in managing their own affairs.

steak, with plenty of bread and potatoes and at some places butter and pudding, as well as tea and coffee. All who were asked seemed well satisfied with the meals.

That at least one was not satisfied is shown by the fact that he went to one of the better restaurants ordered beer and eggs and presented two meal tickets in payment. Doubtless he had other resources.

A few of the faces were familiar around town. They were men who were down on their luck and were ashamed to have to accept the doles from the city.

Commandant Kerr of the Salvation Army, who hands out the tickets and takes the names each day of those who receive them, said that one or two new faces were seen every day while others disappeared. One man in the line admitted getting odd jobs occasionally but not enough to keep him. In almost every case the married men had wives in the Old Country. Only one or two had their wives here. People with wives in the city were mostly given work on the road gangs.

One interesting case was that of a big man who asked if he could cash his ticket at a grocery. He said that five of them lived in the same house and the others remained in bed all morning because they were given only two meals. He said that if they could get the groceries he could feed them three meals a day with the money because they could rustle clams and crabs and fish and live pretty well on the money. Also they would get up in the morning and rustle for jobs.

One man came to see the Commandant about some bed clothes. He said the big Swede with whom he had been had got a job in the road camp but had to take the blankets so he was left without any. He is still without blankets in order that his buddy might take the job. Anyone with a spare blanket or old comforter could reach this man through the Salvation Army.

It was found on questioning the men that many had been in the country from five to twenty years yet had never taken citizenship papers. The ten dollar fee had been the chief stumbling block. Each of these was urged for his own good to become a citizen of the country.

Most of the men who applied yesterday were real workers who would like work and need only the opportunity. When times are good they are good spenders and help to make what is known as good times. Now they are up against it and the country is feeding them. Prince Rupert pays one-third of the cost and the federal and provincial governments the other two-thirds but this will not last long. What will happen then?

RELIEF WORK

Editor, Daily News:—

The by-laws passed and we may expect higher taxes. It will give employment to a certain amount of men and that is all right if those who need it the most get it. But we have too many who apply for work and get it, who are past masters at pleading poverty. In some cases they have made good money this last summer and their wives working steady at a wage that a man with a small family would be glad to receive. That class of Rum Dums or money hoarders or wasters are in large enough numbers to penalize people who have a small income and have scraped and saved to own their home and pay their way. Personally, I have not made over $500 in the last 18 months and my reserve from previous years was debted. I have not called at the city hall to interview the city fathers. I know it is no use because I do not happen to be so unfortunate or fortunate as to have a wife, and of course a single man does not need much.

Those who are in charge of giving public aid we know have a difficult task. I have had conversation with business men and other respectable citizens and they quite agree a good many are on relief work who do not need it. If the names of those who are on relief were published in the local newspaper from time to time there might be less abuses.

SPORT CHAT

William H. Terry of New York won the batting championship of the 1930 season in the National League with a percentage of 401. Terry made the most safe hits, 254, and led in one-base hits with 177. Charles H. Klein of Philadelphia scored the most runs, 158, and had the most total bases on hits, 445, as well as the most two-baggers, 59. Gommonsky, Pittsburgh led in three-base hits with 23. Lewis R. Wilson of Chicago made the most home runs, 56 a league record. In team batting, New York led the league with an average of 319; Philadelphia was second with 315, and St. Louis third with 314.

Charles J. Grimm, Chicago, was the leading first baseman with a percentage of 9946. Hugh M. Critt, Cincinnati-New York, was the leader among the second basemen, with 9742. Earl J. Adams, St. Louis, headed the third basemen, with a mark of 9666. Walter J. Maranville, Boston, was the shortstop leader, with a percentage of 965. Walter H. Roetger, New York, had the highest average of the outfielders, with 992. Charles L. Hartnett, Chicago, led the catchers in fielding, with 989, and had the most passed balls, 10. Twenty-two pitchers fielded for 1,000, but Raymond C. Phelps, Brooklyn, was the leader, handling 53 chances without error. Charles H. Klein, Philadelphia right fielder, set a new league record for assists, with 44. The former record was 39, made by Michael F. Mitchell, Cincinnati, in 1907. New York led in club fielding with a percentage of 974. Cincinnati was second with 9733 and Chicago third with 9728.

Arthur C. Vance of Brooklyn was the leading pitcher of the league with the lowest average of 2.61 runs earned per nine-inning game, it being the third time he has led the league in this respect. Vance and Charles H. Root of Chicago pitched the most shut-out games, four each. Fred Fitzsimmons of New York was the leader on the basis of games won and lost with 19 victories and seven defeats. Harold W. Elliott of Philadelphia took part in the most contests, 48. Percy Malone of Chicago and Ervin Brame of Pittsburgh pitched the most complete games, 22. Remy Kremer of Pittsburgh tied with Maloney for the most victories, 20. Benjamin Frey of Cincinnati lost the most games, 18. Grover Alexander, playing nine games this year, marked his twentieth season playing in the National League with a total of 696 games and 373 victories, a new league record.

Lewis R. Wilson, Chicago, headed the sluggers with a percentage of 723. Wilson has the largest total of runs batted in, 190, establishing a new record. He had set the previous mark in 1929, with 159. He drew the most bases on balls, 105, and struck out the most times, 84. Hazen S. Cuyler, Chicago, was hit by pitched ball most often, 10 times. Of the regular players, Clifford R. Crawford, New York-Cincinnati, struck out the least number of times, 12 in 101 games. After having batted in 100 or more runs for six consecutive seasons, James L. Bottomley, St. Louis, failed by three to make 100 during 1930. Lewis R. Wilson, Chicago, batted in more than 400 runs for the fifth consecutive year. Seventeen players had 100 or more runs batted in, a league mark, passing the record of 16 made in 1929.

Man in the Moon

Tomorrow sees the Old Year end
The eve of New Year's Day
It is a great occasion so
Let's dance at Hogmanay.

Poor old much-abused year,
Many will be sorry to see you go,
Old 1930, but you were not so very bad in your days we get the gambling craze which was a mighty good thing for the world.

New that most of the new tops have been discarded and the old dolls have come back to favor here is still time to try again to tempt the youngsters from the old favorites.

How about an election for a new mayor of Seal Cove? It can't always go the way the city election seems likely to go this year.

What I like about living in Prince Rupert is that I don't have to buy my Christmas trees. There's always something good about every place.

A fraternity had sent its curtains to be laundered. It was the second day that the house stood unveiled.
One morning the following party arrived from a sorority across the street:

"Dear Sirs: May we suggest that you procure curtains for windows?
We do not care for a course in anatomy."

The chap who left his shaving to read the note answered:

"Dear Girls: The course is optional."

DEPARTMENT OF TRADE AND COMMERCE
OTTAWA, CANADA

December 27th, 1930.

To My Fellow Citizens,
Everywhere in Canada.

Ring Out the Old, Ring in the New!

Another few days and 1930, with whatever it has brought us of success or of failure, will have passed into history, and our thoughts will be centred on a new year, and on the better times we sincerely hope it has in store for us.

While the opportunities of the past are gone beyond recall, the future is ours to make of it what we will. And we can make it a far brighter, a far more prosperous future, for ourselves individually and for Canada as a whole, if we all resolve to profit by the lessons our experience has taught us.

Among those lessons, surely we have learned how dependent each of us is for his own opportunities and his own advancement upon the well-being of Canadian producers as a class, and how much better it would be for every one of us if in our daily buying we were all to favour Canadian products.

If you believe that "Produced-in-Canada" doctrine is sound common sense, that it points the logical way not only to relieve unemployment but to lay broader and deeper the foundations of our national prosperity, why not make the practice of it one of your foremost resolutions for 1931?

Celebrate the new year by ringing out old habits of carelessness in buying and ringing in the new resolve henceforth to be studiously careful. For 1931 let this be your creed:

"I believe in Canada.

"I love her as my home. I honour her institutions. I rejoice in the abundance of her resources.

"I glory in the record of her achievements. I have unbounded confidence in the ability of her people to excel in whatsoever they undertake. I cherish exalted ideals of her destiny as a leader among world nations.

"To her I pledge my loyalty. To the promotion of her best interests I pledge my support. To her products I pledge my patronage. And to the cause of her producers I pledge my devotion."

If you are willing to embrace this creed, a copy of same artistically executed in colours, and on heavy stock suitable for use as a wall hanger or for framing, is yours for the asking. Just clip and fill in the coupon herewith. Address your envelope as shown on the coupon. Mail it without affixing stamp, for this particular letter will be carried free.

Very sincerely yours,

A. H. Stevens

FAST MAIL OVER WEST

Air Letters Posted in Edmonton in Evening Will Reach Winnipeg in Morning

EDMONTON, Dec. 30.—In connection with the proposed night flying with air mail on the new route from Edmonton to Lethbridge, linking up with the line to Winnipeg, which is expected to begin about the middle of January, the Edmonton Journal says that under the present plans the mail aeroplanes for the south will leave this city at 7:00 p.m. daily, which will mean that the mail will be delivered to Winnipeg at 7:00 the next morning. This will be a gain of more than 24 hours over the mail service by railway. The incoming mail, under the proposed schedule, would arrive in Edmonton at 5:30 a.m., in good time for the first morning delivery in the city.

The new route will link this city with Winnipeg via Calgary, Lethbridge, Medicine Hat, Moose Jaw and Regina, thus taking the place of the present night route under which Edmonton is served from Moose Jaw by way of Saskatoon and North Battleford, the Journal states. Under the new schedule Saskatoon will be served from Regina by night service. The equipping of landing fields is being undertaken by the Department of National Defence and probably will be completed early in the New Year.

How to Assist the Digestion

The most dictatorial digestion is open to argument if you only select the right argument. Thus, many a man has found a virtue in "White Horse" taken just before or just after lunch or dinner. And, of course, you know that "White Horse" Whisky is non-gouty.

"White Horse" is so richly matured, so safe and so sound and so certain in the good it does. A more genial, mellow and delightful whisky does not exist.

IMPORTANT IN BANKING FISHERMEN ARE VOTING

Late Edson L. Pease Started at Bottom and Rose to Top Today Is Election Day For Agents Here and at Seattle—Other Officials Get Acclamation

In addition to being vice-president of the Royal Bank of Canada of which he was formerly general manager, the late Edson L. Pease, who died yesterday in France, was a director of the Montreal Trust Co. and of the North British and Mercantile Insurance Co. He was a former president of the Canadian Bankers' Association.

Born at Coteau Landing, Que., September 2, 1856, and educated in his home town, Mr. Pease started at the bottom in banking, entering the service of the Canadian Bank of Commerce in Montreal in 1874. In 1883 he joined the Merchants Bank of Halifax, the name of which was afterwards changed to Royal Bank of Canada, as accountant. He was moved to Montreal in 1887, and became a branch manager that year. The year 1897 brought him promotion to the post of joint general manager and three years later he became general manager. In 1907, he was elevated to the directorate of the bank and in 1908 was named vice-president.

The Tug-of-War of CANADIAN INDUSTRY

Which Side are YOU on

SUCCESS.

VICTORY!

Fired with unquenchable faith in Canada's destiny, the constructive elements of Canadian business life are slowly but surely gaining victory over the forces of Indecision, Inertia, Inefficiency, Delay, False Rumor, Foolish Hoarding and Fear.

With taut muscles and tightened belts Courage, Foresight, Good Advertising, Competent Management, Honest Values, Wise Spending and Faith have taken an unyielding grip on the tug-of-war rope.

Every ounce of energy is summoned to the contest. This is a struggle in which no Canadian is neutral.

It affects the welfare of everyone. Which side are YOU on?

NOW—All Together for "Better Business!"

The daily newspapers of Canada believe in the future of this country. No substitute has yet been devised to take the place of good newspaper advertising. Experiments may be made in devious channels, but they lack the sales effectiveness that the daily newspaper always has delivered, and is delivering to advertisers to-day.

Treatment Of Tuberculosis

New Plan Devised By Dr. Lapp of Tranquille

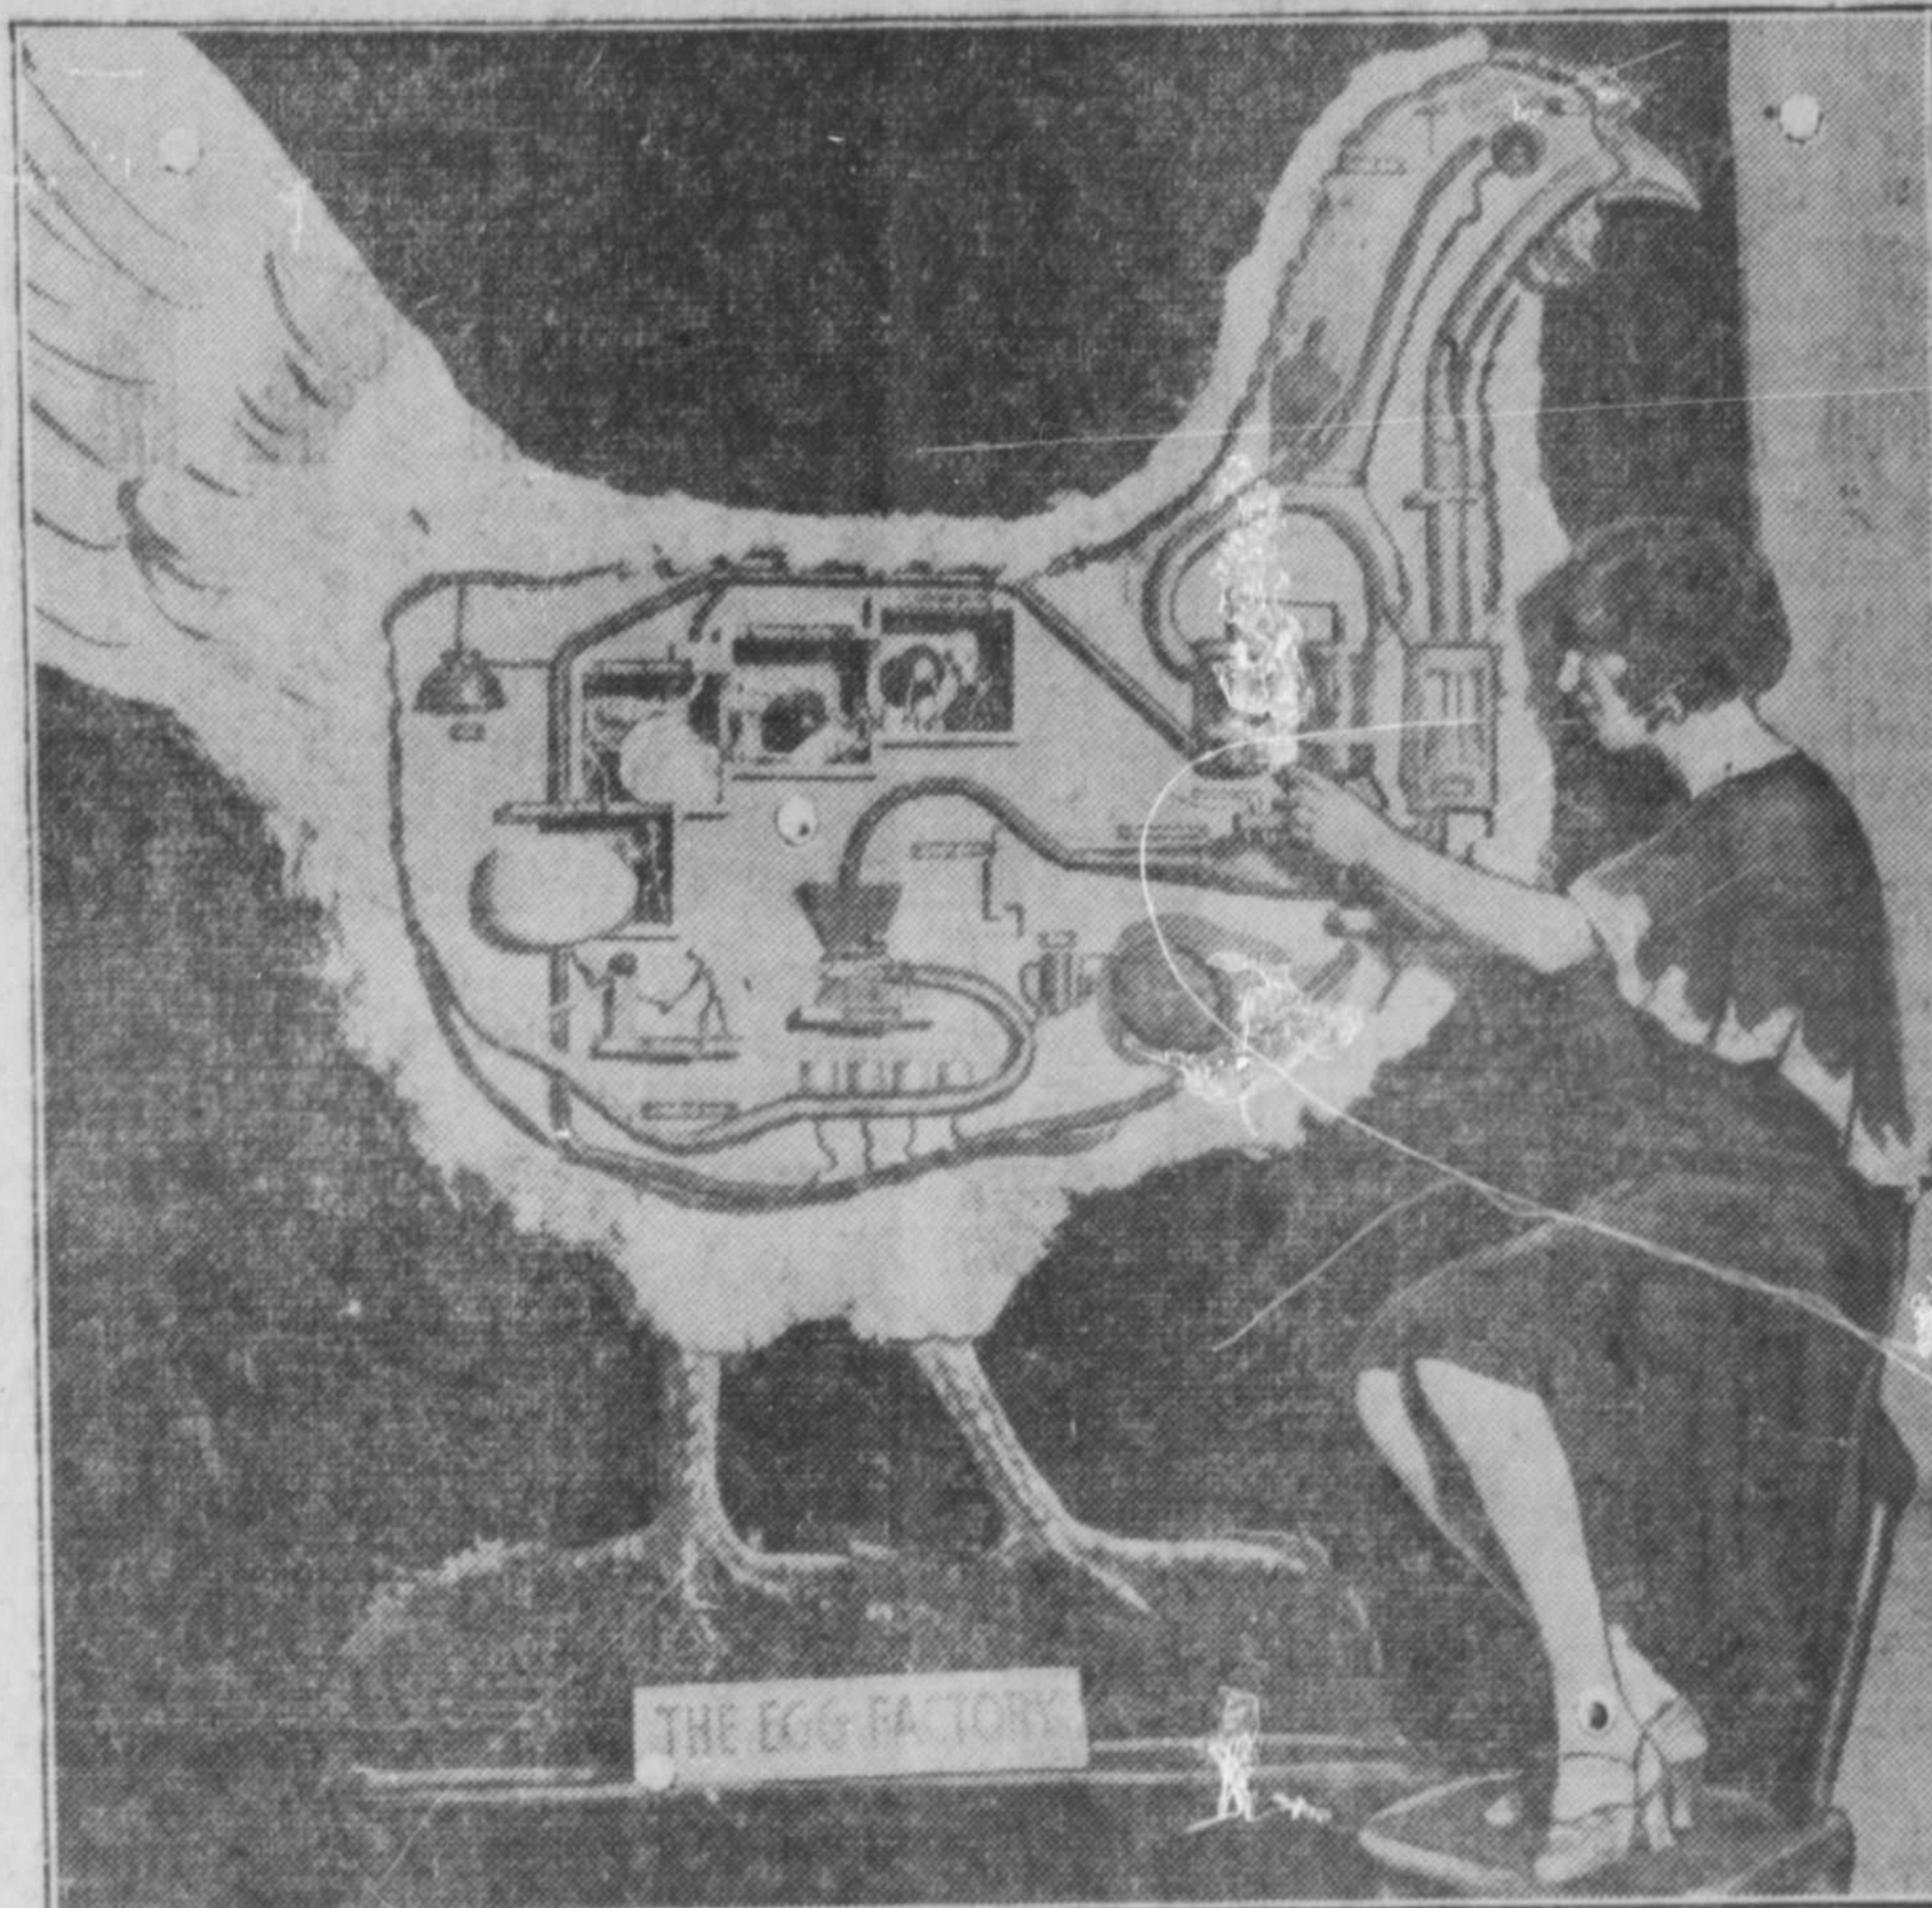

KAMLOPS, Dec. 30.—A new plan for the treatment and education of tuberculosis patients which may set a pattern for many provinces of Canada was outlined recently by Dr. A. D. Lapp, superintendent of the provincial sanatorium at Tranquille, near here.

"To my mind," said Dr. Lapp, "there is a far cheaper and more effective method of dealing with the tuberculosis problem than the program of beds and more beds. This is the limitation of the stay of the patient in the sanatorium and the provision of machinery for the sanatorium to reach out to the patient in the home, both before and after his period of education in the sanatorium."

"This would make the sanatorium a real educational centre for the training of patients as well as nurses and doctors in the proper methods of treatment and prevention. To carry out such a plan the sanatorium should become the centre of all tuberculosis activities. This is important, so that uniform policies can be carried out."

"The province would be divided into districts of such a size that all active cases and new contacts could be seen once a month by the clinic physician, who would be accompanied by a nurse and would carry an x-ray outfit. They would work in co-operation with the family physician. All new cases would be sent to the sanatorium for a period not exceeding six months if possible for educational purposes as well as expert treatment."

"This plan, in my opinion, would greatly increase the efficiency of the institution by making it of service to a great many more cases than is possible at present."

ACCEPT THESE GIFTS WITH OUR COMPLIMENTS

DO YOU think of your newspaper merely as a means of finding out what the famous people in the world are doing, saying, thinking? As an impersonal record of events which do not concern you at all? We have something more than that to offer you. For instance:

Please accept today with our compliments these things as a gift throughout the coming year, which you'll find in our pages: New and better ways of performing old household tasks . . . means of savings steps, time, effort . . . labor-saving devices . . . short-cuts to efficiency . . . money-saving. "Why," you say, "you're probably talking about the advertisements!" Just so—we are.

Think of the advertisements—and read them—as news. News of the world of goods and things . . . news of scientific achievement accomplished for your benefit . . . news that concerns you far more directly than an account of boundary disputes in Baluchistan can ever concern you.

Read the advertisements regularly, and use them as millions of other people are doing—to save you time, effort, money, trouble, when it comes to buying the things that make life a little easier . . . a little brighter. Reading the advertisements will keep you in step with the rapidly advancing standard of living in Canada today.

Every day there's something new in the advertisements as well as on the front page. Be informed on all sides!

London Clerks Lose Bonuses

Have to Give Them Up Because of Depression in Trade This Year

LONDON, Dec. 30.—Thousands of clerks in the city had to go without their usual Christmas bonuses this year owing to the depression in trade. The chairman of the Australian pastoral company of Dalgety & Co. at the annual meeting recently expressed regret that it was deemed inadvisable to distribute the customary staff bonus this year. This firm alone distributed $300,000 in bonuses amongst its staff last Christmas. On the Stock Exchange, 1930 is to be a lean year. The partners of several large firms, however, are contemplating the payment of bonuses out of their private fortunes to alleviate hardship among the clerks.

Mobilization Of Servants

New Unit In British Labor Party Is Being Planned—Million Votes Estimated

LONDON, Dec. 30.—Mobilization of the British servants class into an effective political unit is planned by the Labor Party.

This vast wealth of ballots estimated at more than a million, is seen by leaders as controlling the balance of power in districts generally averse to labor candidates. A manifesto to be used in propaganda work among this section of the electorate denounces the "long working day," pointing out that early morning tea and late dinner make for extraordinary long hours.

The proposal suggests a six days of eight hours as a weekly time limit.

VILLAGE WEDDING

Miss Kate Lewis of Metlakatla, B.C. Becomes Bride of Oscar Haldane of Metlakatla Alaska

Yesterday afternoon at the neighboring native village of Metlakatla, Canon W. F. Rushbrook performed with the full accompanying native ceremonies the marriage of Miss Kate Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis of Metlakatla, B.C., and Oscar Egbert Haldane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Haldane of Metlakatla, Alaska. The nuptials took place in St. Paul's Church which was handsomely decorated in connection with the Christmas festivities. There were six bridesmaids and six groomsmen and the wedding was very colorful. After the wedding ceremony, there was the usual feast which was enjoyed by practically all the people of the village.

In accordance with native custom, the couple will take up residence at Metlakatla in the home village of the bride.

Liquor Permit Was His Want

Ontario Man Gave His Wife His Bank Account In Order to Get It

BRANTFORD, Ont., Dec. 30.—One of the first things a local man and his wife, who had been dependent on the city relief, did after getting some financial aid from an unexpected source, was to refund to the city relief association the sum of $23 and ask for the husband's liquor permit. The relief officers, acting on orders from the city council, had declared the permit forfeit prior to the granting of the orders for groceries, etc. The wife of the man bargained with the relief officers to get the permit and then exchanged the permit to her husband for his bank account. The money is now in her name and he will have to depend on his wife's generosity to allow him something for liquor.

December 30, 1910

Ald. T. D. Pattullo, Ald. J. H. Hilditch and Ald. V. W. Smith are the only members of the past year's aldermanic board who are seeking reelection to the city council. Other possibilities as candidates are G. W. Kerr, Dr. W. S. Hall, John Currie, J. A. Kirkpatrick, M. M. Stephens, W. S. Benson, D. H. Morrison, G. C. Emmerson, E. H. Mortimer, S. M. Newton and C. W. Peck.

Yesterday afternoon Constables Mansell and McArthur found a tiny girl wandering on Sixth Street, evidently lost. The youngster was later identified and taken home to her anxious mother.

Prince's Dog Grows Feeble As Age Tells

LONDON, Dec. 30.—Growing old and rheumatic, the Prince of Wales' Cairn Cora no longer is able to hop up on the Prince's bed to a special pillow where she sleeps, but has to proceed up a set of "stairs" made especially for her.

Cora will not go to South America with her royal master, but will be left at home with the Duke of York, although she has been wont to accompany the Prince wherever possible. But recently, the jump up to the Prince's bed has been too much for her brittle legs. Attempts to lift her met vigorous disapproval. So the Prince has had a set of little wooden steps built and Cora can trot up them by herself. Another royal dog, Snip, King George's cream-colored cairn terrier, frequently is mentioned in British newspapers. Accompanying her royal master to Sandringham recently, Snip was being led along to the train by a footman when she saw the crowd behind the barriers. Immediately she sat down on the platform and with lifted paws began to beg, much to the delight of the crowd. It was only by force that the footman induced her to leave "her public" and enter the King's private car.

SAFE PLACE FOR HUBBIE

Start Young and Keep Him On the Farm—There Wifie Is His Real Partner

TORONTO, Dec. 30.—"I know where my husband is almost any time of the day," declared Mrs. J. Alex Wallace of Simcoe, amid laughter, at the U. F. O. convention in Hygeia Hall. Mrs. Wallace was upholding the farm as the ideal background for successful marriage. "On no place but the farm," she said, "is the woman more nearly the partner of her husband that God intended her to be."

Japanese Women May Be Allowed Municipal Vote

TOKYO, Dec. 30.—Japanese women soon may be given a taste of political power. The sample will be the right to vote in municipal elections, and it is accompanied by the implicit promise that if it is taken with no ill effects, within a few years the full feast of politics—equal rights with men to vote and hold office—will be spread before more than 15,000,000 female subjects of the Mikado.

At the fifty-ninth session of the Imperial Diet meeting this month, a bill to permit women to vote in elections for village, town and city assemblies and to hold offices in those governments is to be considered. Backed by the overwhelming majority held by the government party, the Minseito, the bill should pass the lower house without difficulty. There may be opposition in the more conservative House of Peers, but the chances are the measure will become law.

The bill stops short of admitting women to participation in national and prefectural affairs. It will not allow them to vote for members of the 46 prefectural assemblies nor for members of the national house of representatives, the highest elected officials, in the Japanese political system. Political leaders believe it will be ten years before women of Japan will have the same voting and office-holding rights as men.

BARLEY WAS FIRST PLANT

Is Believed to Have Been Earliest Food to Be Deliberately Cultivated

LONDON, Dec. 30.—Barley was probably the earliest plant cultivated by man and the rise of civilization can be dated from the time it was first deliberately sown. Dr. E. S. Beaven says. Origin of all the present races of cultivated barley, he told the Institute of Brewing, was the wild form still to be found in Palestine, Syria and Persia. Barley 7,000 to 10,000 years old has been found by explorers in Egypt, he said.

World's First Telegram Found

"He Died Today" Is Cryptic Inscription On Ancient Missive

OXFORD, Eng., Dec. 30.—What may have been the world's first telegram—a fragment of stone with a message cut in it—was shown here recently. It bore a cryptic inscription, "He died today," and presumably was carried by "express" messengers 1,300 years ago.
