Winnipeg Mayor Appeals For Spuds

Asks Farmers and Truck Gardeners to Let Needy Dig Their Potatoes

WINNIPEG, Oct. 29.—Mayor Webb, of Winnipeg, appealing to local market gardeners to permit needy families to dig potatoes they were leaving in the ground because of low prices, said:

"I understand there are lots of farmers and market gardeners in the vicinity of the city, who, owing to the low price of potatoes, are leaving acres of them in the ground. Winter will soon be here and then the potatoes would be frozen in the ground. There are lots of families who would go out and dig them for themselves if owners would give this permission."

The mayor said he would welcome information as to farmers or market gardeners willing to adopt his suggestion.

ROBBERY IN HOTEL

Two Men Not Only Alleged to Have Stolen Watch But Are Said to Have Assaulted Occupant

About midnight last night Louis Wesley and John Morrison were arrested in a downtown hotel on a charge of theft.

The call of the police at the hotel followed the receipt at the station of a message that a robbery had occurred. It was alleged that Wesley and Morrison entered the room of another man named Andy Gavin and, after assaulting Gavin, stole his watch. Special Constable Allen answered the call and took Wesley into custody in a corridor in the hotel. Wesley is alleged to have entered the room by way of the transom and opened the door for Morrison.

Wesley and Morrison will appear before Magistrate McClymont in city police court today on a charge of robbery.

J. W. Jones to Take Over Finance Portfolio and Bruhn Will Go to Public Works With Loughheed In Lands Office According to Report

Further Changes At Later Date Are Believed Possible

Five By-Elections Will Have to Be Held Soon If Reported Changes Prove to Be Authentic

VICTORIA, Oct. 29.—Premier Tolmie started yesterday to reconstruct his cabinet by asking for the resignations of all his ministers. He made no announcement of the changes to be made but it is authoritatively stated that they will involve four changes as follows:

Hon. W. C. Shelly, minister of finance, to become president of council.

Hon. J. W. Jones, present Speaker of the legislature to become minister of finance.

Hon. R. W. Bruhn, present president of the council to become minister of public works.

Hon. N. S. Loughheed, present minister of public works, to become minister of lands.

Hon. F. P. Burden, the present minister of lands, it is rumored, will go to London as agent-general for British Columbia succeeding F. A. Pauline.

Other members of the cabinet, it is believed, will be reappointed to their present portfolios.

H. D. Twigg, M. L. A. for Victoria, is expected to succeed Mr. Jones as Speaker. He is now deputy speaker.

Further changes at a later date are regarded as possible.

With the forecast of cabinet changes, British Columbia is facing five by-elections. J. W. Jones in North Okanagan and Hon. R. W. Bruhn would have to go to the electors on taking positions of emolument and Hon. F. P. Burden's seat in Fort George would be vacant. In addition, there will be a poll in North Vancouver on November 5 and another will be necessary in the Islands Constituency to fill the seat of Col. C. W. Peck V. C., M. L. A., who will resign soon to become a pensions judge.

ALTERATIONS IN RIDINGS

A special despatch to the Vancouver Province from Victoria predicts that, immediately after the 1931 census, the problem of redistribution of British Columbia legislative seats will be undertaken. It is suggested that the riding of Omineca may be eliminated and joined with Fort George on one end and Skeena on the other while a new riding would be created in the Peace River which, by reason of increased population, will be entitled to separate representation for which the district has clamored for some time.

Should the riding of Omineca, which has been represented by A. M. Manson K. C. since 1916, be abolished, the suggestion is made that Mr. Manson may seek election in Prince Rupert seat while T. D. Pattullo might offer himself in Victoria.

The County Court case of Tom Rasmussen vs. Queen Charlotte Syndicate et al in which a claim of $665 was made has been settled out of court. Patmore & Fulton were counsel for plaintiff and McLellan and White for defendant.

Cabinet Changes Are Assailed by Pattullo In Vancouver Speech

Provincial Liberal Leader Predicts That Stage Is Now Being Set For General Election In British Columbia

NORTH VANCOUVER, Oct. 29.—Assailing the reorganization of the Tolmie cabinet, T. P. Pattullo, Liberal leader for British Columbia, Hon. Ian Mackenzie M. P. and E. H. Bridgeman, Liberal candidate, opened the Liberal campaign for North Vancouver provincial by-election last night. The transfer of Hon. N. S. Loughheed to the department of lands was criticized by Mr. Pattullo who declared that Mr. Loughheed, in his roads program, had been one of the most extravagant ministers in the history of the province.

Mr. Pattullo also assailed the appointment of Hon. F. P. Burden to the post of agent-general in London. "Can you imagine what the people of Fort George would say to Burden going to London? Why, it's tragic."

In regard to the appointment of Hon. R. W. Bruhn as minister of public works, the Liberal leader said: "Mr. Bruhn was a great helper to Mr. Loughheed in his orgy of expenditure and we shall have to keep an eye on that department in future."

Mr. Pattullo asked: "What has happened to Vancouver's ministers? Hon. R. L. Matland has been given no portfolio and Mr. Shelly has been demoted to president of the council."

"The government has gone from bad to worse and I prophesy that, if they can get some sort of a Pacific Great Eastern deal fixed up, they will go to the country next year."

CHANGES AT VICTORIA

The shake-up at Victoria comes rather suddenly but it is not altogether surprising for it has been known that conditions in the cabinet have not been all that could be desired. There have been reports of ministers working at cross-purposes and of others being not well suited to the positions they occupied. The satisfactory feature is that Premier Tolmie has had sufficient strength to take the matter in hand and deal with it.

Doubtless the change has been in view of the possibility of an election reverse in North Vancouver next week when E. H. Bridgeman is opposing the government candidate and is said to have a pretty good chance of being elected.

There has been a good deal of talk of a general election after the next session of the legislature, the government taking advantage of the prestige to be gained by having got rid of the P. G. E., but the P. G. E. is not yet off their hands and no one seems to know what is going to happen next.

Possibly the present changes will allay the feeling of unrest in Vancouver but Vancouver seems to be losing rather than gaining from the changes. The only positions to be held by Vancouver men under the suggested line-up would be of an honorary nature, Shelly being president of the council and R. L. Maitland minister without portfolio.

Mayor Orme, who has recently visited the capital and who is in close touch with government affairs, this morning stated that the shake-up was not unexpected. He gathered when he was in the south that changes were likely to occur soon.

A. M. Manson, former attorney general, who is now living in Prince Rupert, said he did not think the changes would be the end of the trouble. Neither did he think the forecast of the changes likely to prove a true one. He intimated that he knew there had been trouble brewing in government circles for some time past.

PROVINCIAL ELECTIONS

The despatch from Victoria hints that there may be five elections in the near future, one of which will be in North Vancouver next Wednesday.

It was the opinion here that the new law passed at last session of the legislature would make unnecessary bye-elections in connection with cabinet changes. If Burden goes to London there will have to be an election at Prince George and it is probable that the Islands constituency, now held by Colonel Peck, will also be vacated. The others do not seem as sure.

Should the government meet with reverses in these elections, it is difficult to say what action Premier Tolmie would take. He has undoubtedly found the premiership difficult and possibly his most difficult time is just now. It will be followed by a difficult session of the legislature and possibly by a difficult election.

With hard times almost everywhere any government would find it difficult to steer a united party through a successful election but with a party more or less divided, it is difficult to say what may happen.

THIS YEAR'S MAYORALTY

Mayor Orme has announced that he will be again in the field as a candidate for the mayoralty. We suggest that as he has done good work this year and may be in a position to do even better next he be returned by acclamation. The two-year period for the mayoralty is generally accepted as being advantageous to the city. These are trying times and not suitable for experimentation.

MINGLING OF CULTS

Friend of Gandhi and Tagore Opens Rigid School in Himalayan Forest

TORONTO, Oct. 29.—Like his friends Tagore and Gandhi, the Christian mystic, Stanley Jones, has founded an Ashram or forest school where his followers withdraw for prolonged fellowship. The results are now coming to light.

Writing to his Toronto correspondent, Rev. A. E. Armstrong, concerning first experiences in the new Ashram, Dr. Jones says:

"In the Ashram proper, a picked group of about 25 Indians and foreigners have lived together in simple Indian style wearing Indian clothes and eating Indian food, which was vegetarian. We banned meat as the Hindu usually leathes it and we have had Hindus with us.

"Americans, Indians, English and Anglo-Indians have lived together for nearly four months on a basis of equality and, as far as I know, there has not been a single unkind word or clash of any kind. We represent many types of Christian from the High Churchman to the Quaker and yet we were able to discuss everything with utter frankness and come to real conclusions.

Christian Barriers Broken

"When we faced the partaking of Communion, we were able to take it regularly with the High Churchman and the Free Church clergymen alternating in giving it on a basis of equality. One Sunday Bishop Abraham of the Syrian Church gave it to us. We showed that church unity has been accomplished as far as we are concerned."

One of the mottoes on the walls of the Ashram is: "Leave behind all class and race distinctions yet that enter here," and Dr. Jones testifies that literally it has been done.

Stripped of Titles
 "And the resulting brotherhood has been of the tenderest and deepest kind," he writes. "We were stripped of all titles, too. We left them at the door. We became 'Brother Biswas' or 'Brother Stanley' etc. It made us choke a bit at first to call staid professors and prominent men and bishops this way, but it was soon easy and natural.

"While India has seethed with class and strife, our Ashram has been a haven of brotherhood," he adds.

ABYSSINIA CONTRASTS

Dr. Mercer of Trinity College Finds It is Strange Land

TORONTO, Oct. 29.—Rev. Dr. Mercer of Trinity College, just returned from Abyssinia, says of the strange contrasts in that land. They have no roads, but they have automobiles and one just bumps over trails. They have radios and listen in on concerts in Vienna, London and Paris, but they have no electric lights. Natives must be in at dark and the visitor must carry a candle or kerosene lamp when he walks abroad at night—he must carry a spear, for ravenous dogs, the country's scavengers, have to be guarded against. They have phonographs but no water. The visitor must take his own means for a bath. Leprosy and fevers are common for the people have not the slightest conception of cleanliness.

"They are a most hospitable and generous people, and although one of the oldest known civilizations, are one of the most primitive. At the Imperial Hotel in Addis Ababa, the capital, the floor was never swept. Dishes were spit upon and wiped with the shirts of the natives. Raw meat is their greatest delicacy. When a stranger comes they bring gifts of sheep, chickens and a sort of beer which they brew. The sheep is killed and the host, with the guest at his right, drops a piece of the blood-warm meat into the mouth of his guest and the feast begins."

Dr. Mercer ate raw meat in Abyssinia because they were so friendly and he could not offend. When he came away His Imperial Majesty, Taffari Maccanen, who on Nov. 2 will be crowned Emperor gave him a ring of friendship. "Take this ring," he said, "and if you are ever in trouble invoke it." The Emperor is a man of 44, with great ambition to educate the 13,000,000 in his kingdom.

Hour of Silence Prescribed

Beginning at 5.15 a.m. daily, corporate devotions on the hilltop proceed for an hour in silence. An hour of manual labor followed morning tea. There followed a forenoon of close study of Christianity and the faiths of India, with breakfast of rice and curry at 11 o'clock. Smaller and less formal groups met in the afternoon until an hour of Indian music at 4.30. Evening devotions beside a lake were followed by a period of silence, then the last meal and discussion.

"We have faced the finest that the Indian religion can offer and we have done it with sympathy and understanding," says Stanley Jones, concluding with these words. "At the end we are surer than ever that in Jesus Christ alone is the world's need met and met adequately. I am now more ready to face India in this year of upset and strife with the Gospel of Christ."

Despite Disturbed State of India Princes Will Erect Statue of King-Emperor

NEW DELHI, India, Oct. 29.—Despite the disturbed state of affairs in India the ruling princes are making arrangements, with the approval of the Viceroy, Lord Irwin, to erect at New Delhi an equestrian statue of the King-Emperor to commemorate His Majesty's recovery from his serious illness. An appeal for subscriptions towards meeting the cost of the proposed statue has been made by the Maharajah of Kapurthala and has met with prompt response.

In order to make it possible for all the Indian princes to take part in the monument a maximum subscription has been fixed. The site of the statue and other details will be discussed by the Maharajah of Kapurthala and the Viceroy at New Delhi during the coming winter.

The Maharajah, who was in London recently, in an interview with The Times said the disturbed condition of India was a matter for deep regret. He hoped that more peaceful days were coming and that the round table conference would be fruitful of good results. However disturbed the atmosphere might be, the Maharajah said, the Indian princes would not swerve from their attachment to the person and throne of the King-Emperor. They held fast by their connection with the British Empire; the one thing they wished was severance therefrom.

Alberta Sugar Crop Very Large

EDMONTON, Oct. 29.—Alberta farmers are expected to produce approximately 24,000,000 pounds of sugar this year, according to figures that have been secured by the provincial new industries committee investigating the possibilities of sugar-beet growing in this province, the Edmonton Journal states. In its work the committee has ascertained that the soil of the Edmonton district lends itself as favorably to this line of agriculture as others in the province where sugar beets are now grown extensively.

At the present time sugar beet acreage in the province of Alberta is 14,000 acres, and as a result of recent investigations the northern areas are to be recommended for the industry.

Canadian Growers to Make Strong Showing at International Grain Show Pat Renahan Unreported On Flight Up Coast—Wires Down to Atlin

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Canada is again expected to make an impressive showing in the International Grain and Hay Show, to be held at Chicago November 29 to December 6, in connection with the International Live Stock Exposition. Already entries are being received, some from the most distant parts of the earth. Three samples of wheat have arrived from New South Wales, according to the management.

Distinction for having made the first entry in the rye and wheat classes of the exposition this year goes to a Saskatchewan grower, James A. Paur of Langham. In the rye classes of the 1929 exposition, Paur's sample ranked high.

Other successful Canadian exhibitors at the last exposition, who are expected to take part this year, were George Avery of Kelso, Sask., who had reserve championship on a two-rowed barley sample at the 1929 show; W. G. Gibson of Ladner, B.C., and William Darnbrough of Laura, Sask., who had champion and reserve champion respectively on field peas; Joseph H. B. Smith of Wolf Creek, Alta., and S. Lacombe of Birtle, Man., who ranked first and second with samples of Red Spring wheat; Eddie J. Enquiry by wireless this afternoon to Alert Bay elicited no information as to the whereabouts of Pat Renahan who left Vancouver yesterday afternoon with a Leekheed-Vega plane en route to Atlin to join in the search for Capt. E. J. A. Burke. No word has been received here regarding Renahan since receipt of the news that he had hopped off for the north.

Wire trouble has also prevented news coming through since last night as to the search of Frank Dorbrandt for Burke.

AROUND PRINCE RUPERT

Ore Zone One Mile Wide In Tulsequah Is Developed; Woodbine Strikes Ore; Gold Found In Upper Kitsault Valley

Neil Forbes, well known Alice Arm prospector, who returned there recently after spending much of the past summer in the Tulsequah district, was engaged for the greater part of the season in the new district developing and close prospecting a property owned by himself and partner. On this property is located an ore zone fully a mile wide. The principal metal is gold and samples assayed have given as high as $24 to $25 per ton in gold. The ore also carries silver and copper values. Gold values in varying quantities are found across the entire zone and Mr. Forbes states that it has greater possibilities of developing into a mine than anything he has so far seen in the north. It is his intention next summer to continue development work on the property which is located 14 miles up the Taku River and only two miles from the bank of the river.

Unofficial reports from the Woodbine mine at Stewart are to the effect that ore has been struck in the mine. No accurate information is available as to the assays obtained but the strike is important in view of the fact that it shows a continuance of the ore bodies to a depth below the main level. Hugh McGuire, managing director of the Premier Gold Mining Co. Ltd., is expected back in Stewart shortly from a business trip to Vancouver.

The season's work on the holdings of the Kitsault River Mining & Development Co. near the Kitsault Glacier in the Alice Arm district has developed a considerable body of ore carrying good gold values in addition to copper according to A. Smith who recently made an examination of the property. Mr. Smith was greatly enthused over the body of gold copper ore that has been developed this year by J. Fiva and brothers. Work was concentrated this year on what was known as the spar vein. This vein was stripped for several hundred feet and it was found that it connected with another vein on the north which was discovered some years ago. Samples from this latter vein are reported to have given as high as $48.50 in gold and 31% copper per ton. Owing to the dry warm summer in the upper Kitsault country which was favorable for development in the vicinity of the glacier, it was decided to explore this vein. Development work showed the vein matter to be 18 feet wide with an abundance of chalcocyanite copper. Large nuggets, carrying free gold, were also found. In addition to this splendid ore body, samples taken from the Fox tunnel at a lower elevation have given assay returns of $26 per ton in gold. The discovery of gold, both free and in pyrites, in what is known as the upper Kitsault copper belt will probably be instrumental in opening up an important new property independent of silver which in the past has been the predominant metal in the development of the camp.

J. Strombeck, who has spent considerable time during the past summer close prospecting the Moose property in the Alice Arm district, has discovered a vein of solid galena ore carrying good silver values. The vein has been traced for several hundred feet and has a width varying from 18 inches to six feet. Samples show it to be massive high grade ore. An ore showing composed of high grade copper was also discovered and it is expected that further work will show the two veins merge. Mr. Strombeck plans to further develop the new discovery this fall by means of surface stripping and open cuts. The Moose adjoins the Wolf property in the upper Kitsault country and is owned by Strombeck and Miles Donald. Considerable development work has been done on the property at various times by tunnels on the larger ore bodies in which silver is the predominating metal. The results of development have been very encouraging but the present low price of silver does not encourage further development on an extensive scale.

A Daily News want-ad will bring results.
