Street Fighting Art Advocated In Missive Sent To This Country

Further Unique Evidence is Adduced By Crown in Trial of Nine Communists Charged in Toronto With Conspiracy

TORONTO, Nov. 7:-A thesis on Communism written by E. Vassiliev of Moscow was filed by the crown yesterday in the trial of nine Communists here on conspiracy charges. Vassiliev noted that the comrades in Canada did not know the tactics of street fighting and were easily broken up by the police. He suggested that they should practice stone throwing morning and evening in place of gymnastic exercises so as to attain accuracy in the use of this weapon.

SIGNS OF CHANGE

Saturday, Nov. 7, 1931

A local citizen points out that in the past improved conditions have always followed an increase in the price of commodities. Wheat is moving up steadily. In other lines there is a stiffening of prices and, following all precedents, there will be a great improvement in industrial conditions.

Ex-Mayor Newton, who has just returned from the east, speaks with confidence of the future and others who have recently returned have all spoken of the generally improved tone in the past few weeks.

The local citizen who drew this to our attention says we have been deluged with generalities about conditions but until quite recently there have been no real indications of betterment. Now the turn has taken place and we may all feel more cheerful.

WHY IT IS DONE

People often ask us why we publish certain letters or other material which is objectionable to them and with which they are sure we are not in agreement. Sometimes they take a hot shot at this paper, at capitalists or at something else in which the writers may be interested. Yesterday we read in a magazine the reason why we do this. It is contained in an article by Bruce Barton as follows:

"One Sunday afternoon a few weeks ago I took my three children into Hyde Park in London to listen to the orators. The British Empire is wiser than we are in dealing with agitators. Its long years of handling human beings have taught it that talk, like any other gas, is dangerous only when compressed. Thus, in Hyde Park on Sunday afternoons, any man who believes himself to have a message may stand up on his soap box and harangue his fellow citizens to his heart's content. No one interferes. No one gets !

"As we drew near one impassioned orator, a high-priced motorcar came up to the curb and its occupants descended, leaving the engine running. A policeman stepped up and touched the chauffeur on the arm.

"'You will have to stop that engine,' he said. 'These people want to listen to that Communist, and your engine is making too much noise."

This is the very opposite to the Russian method which pressed.

Just another convent girl-'s fact. Lupe Velez from convent in San Antonio graduated to music il comedy in Mexico City, just to show there was no ill-feel ng. Then came the movies.

Another Armistice Day

By Very Rev. J. B. Gibson, Dean of St. Andrew's Cathedral On Wednesday next an Empire will stand at attention, its activities arrested, its speech silenced, its thought concentrated, not upon the victory won, nor even upon the warfare ended in November, 1918, but upon the men who is that the people shall read and hear only that which the gave their lives to make this victory and peace a possibilgovernment wishes them to read and hear. Others are sup- ity and upon what their supreme sacrifice means for us

> At Armistice time we try to rear nemorials afresh in our hearts and recall with love and gratitude the names of those we once knew.

Also we try to bear in mind the great number of those who were inthe wa ris not ended with themthousands of men who were so mutilated that they have not been able to take up their lives again in the way they lived them before they took part in the great conflict. We do well to remember them, and do all we can to help them and let them know the country does not for-

Looking back on the facts and realizing the position today what is the message the dead give to us, the living? I believe the real message of those who died in the war for us the Kingdom of God!" What they say to us essentially is this: "You involved us in a war and you sent us to die because you first sought the Kingdom of Earth. We did what you told us and we died but we died in vain unless you learn to seek first the Kingdom of Heaven. Seek the right Kingdom, serve the right King. We lie here dead because you failed to do this. Learn the lesson now

What the Kingdom of Heaven we gradually realize when we begin to think and to live close to God. The Kingdom of Heaven, after all, is simply the recognition of God as the Primary Fact, ordering human life according to His Will. This is not an exclusively Christian message. It is that of thinking man everywhere and always. Marthings, you will fail in your behav- yesterday afternoon's mixed train. iour towards men," and again: "Evthings another, and his neighbor, a on the Cardena last evening.

third." That is the judgment of the best thought man ever had before Christ came. If the Divine things are neglected, the human things will never be right. Unless we attend to the three claims-our own capacitated. We little realize that body, God and our neighbor-life will fail. When Christ taught us that that Divine Cause of which Marcus Aurelius spoke is Our Father in Heaven, when He taught us that that Great Cause of things is not a cold indifferent principle, but the heart of the Father and when He taught us that we might find our Father, and order our lives in harmony with His great principle and respond to His love, He set us on the right way. The Kingdom of Heaven becomes in Christ's teaching and by Christ's principles and spirit almost like a divine family where to interpret and apply is "Seek first the father rules the children and the children obey for love of the father. That is the central principle, so central that we cannot evade it. or escape it, or forget it. It is the logic of the Kingdom of Heaven.

As we observe the two minute silence on Remembrance Day let us make our own the prayer:

"In the remembrance of those who made the Great Sacrifice, O God make us better men and women, and give us peace in our
