Head of Powell River Mill Optimistic Over Future For Business On Coast

"There is a definitely genuine sign of improvement in business conditions which is very hopeful for the future," declared A. E. McMaster, general manager of the Powell River Co., who was here yesterday on his way to Anyox and Stewart, making the round trip on the steamer Prince Rupert.

Mr. McMaster said that, while his HALIFAX, Nov. 19:-Expressed company with all others was suffering as a result of the depression, he felt that it was good for the world to have the setback and that the effect would in the long run be good. They had very considerably increased the size of their plant at Powell River and when the change came they would be in a position to handle the business offering.

Mr. McMaster spent a good deal of time yesterday meeting old acquaintances and was pleased to see so many of those he had formerly known here. He, it was, who opened the present C. N. R. offices on Third Avenue in the early days of the company over twenty years ago.

ON CARR CHARA

A course in baseball for girls as an aid to housework is advocated by Dr. Edward L. Cornell, professor of Northwesten University of Evanson, Ill. The idea, he explained before a group of child welfare workers was that if girls know how to handle a ball, they wouldn't be as apt to drop carelessly a baby on McNulty (P) the floor or break their best china. "Many a child," he said, "has been ruined for life by fumbling in handling. If playing ball will give mothers better control, and I think it would, I'm in favor of making all girls take up the game."

Six years ago a little black colt. named Flying Ebony in the racing records, pounded around a sloppy Churchill Downs course to win the premier trophy in United States thoroughbred horse racing circlesthe Kentucky Derby Gold Cup. Earl Sande, then rated the greatest jockey in that country, rode the black hued thoroughbred to victory. Sande secured the mount on the victor when the late Gifford A. Cochran, wealthy sportsman and patron of the arts, entered Flying Ebony, not in the hope of winning the coveted prize but just to give Sande a mount in the race. Now. nearly a year after Cochran's death Flying Ebeny's gold cup is to go on the auction block. Announcement of the sale of the historic trophy. caused a near sensation in United States racing circles, because never before had a derby trophy been offered for sale.

"My occupation as a radio specialist requires deep concentration. Naturally I get much consolation from my pipe. Unfortunately have a very sensitive taste-my tongue burns easily and my throat gets sore readily.

About a month ago I tried Turret pipe tobacco. I then and there decided that it was the tobacco I was looking for-a fragrant, cool smoke that did not burn my throat or tongue. Now that I have found a tobacco that I can smoke day in and day out without bad effects, I find it more economical to purchase the half pound tins. I would advise any person who wants REAL PIPE SATISFACTION to try Turret pipe tobacco".

Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication. Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. AT ALICE ARM

Question of Where Relief Money Should Be Spent Results in Much Discussion

Recent visitors to Alice Arm discovered that a keen controversy was taking place in regard to how the relief money should be spent in trolling the expenditures were successful in arranging for the money to be spent on the commencement of the road to the Upper Naas River country while most of the miners were clamoring to have it spent on the building of a road up the Kitsault River where most of the mining properties are located.

The matter was brought up at the meeting of the Alice Arm branch of the Chamber of Mines when the cussed at any length. It seemed to be the most discussed subject in the camp, some going so far as to say that 95% of the people wanted the mining road.
