Canadian Pacific Vessel Struck Cambrae in Firth of Clyde—Is Believed to Be Badly Holed

GLASGOW, Scotland, March 21:—Two hundred passengers were landed safely on little Cambrae Island in the Firth of Clyde today after the Canadian Pacific trans-Atlantic liner Montclare, inward bound for Greenock, grounded on a hidden reef on the northwestern side of the island in a dense fog this morning. The ship developed a dangerous list as the tide receded, and the passengers were disembarked in lifeboats and taken ashore to the island.

It was feared that the ship had a bad hole.

SEATTLE DISPUTE

Efforts Being Made to Circumvent City Council Empane

SEATTLE, March 21—Interests outside the city council, particularly among the clergy and financial and business interests, are endeavoring to mediate in the impasse which has developed between Mayor Frank Edwards and the city council over the dismissal by the mayor of J. D. Ross, superintendent of the city light department.

The mayor stands resolute by his action in dismissing Ross while the council threatens to impeach the mayor unless she reinstates Ross.

The pastor of First Presbyterian Church yesterday urged that Mayor Edwards reinstate Ross and thus bring the dispute to a close.

Great Enthusiasm Marks Annual Liberal Meeting; T. D. Pattullo Is Hailed as Coming B.C. Premier

Great enthusiasm marked the annual meeting last night of the Prince Rupert Liberal Association in the Metropole Hall. Prospects of the party, particularly in the provincial field, were considered most bright by several speakers. That T. D. Pattullo, the local member, would be the Premier of British Columbia just as soon as the present government ventured to have an election was a commonly expressed opinion. Among the speakers were A. J. Prudhomme, John Dybhavn, H. F. Glassey, W. J. Greer, F. W. Hart and others.

RENO, Nevada, March 21—Wide open gambling became permissible legally in this city and state yesterday with the signing by the governor of the Gambling Bill which had been passed by both houses of the legislature. This does not mean, however, that gambling had not been rife here before.

Leading personally one of the biggest games in the city, Mayor Gray yesterday was triumphant at the success of his "eight-year fight to allow people of Reno to do what they want providing they do not infringe upon the rights of others."

Ratepayers' Association, in Letter to Council, Tells Why Court House Block Should Be Sold

Following is a copy of a letter which has been sent to the city council by the Ratepayers' Association:

"We are advised that the provincial government have again refused to sell the old court house block because they do not consider the time opportune. We submit that the time is most opportune. The government needs the several thousand dollars that a sale would realize and the city needs the additional $4,250 of annual taxes that is now lost. The public, and especially the business element, want the property so that mercantile houses may be centralized in a compact district. As this block stands at present it is an eye-

VANCOUVER, March 21—The Tolmie government is requested to resign and give the people of the province an opportunity to approve or reject the proposed imposition of one percent, income tax in a resolution adopted by the Vancouver Women's Liberal Association.

The resolution adds that, "if such taxes as are now proposed be levied upon the people without their consent, payment of all such taxes shall be refused."

Outlines Scheme For City Work

Spending of About $80,000 Provided For in Council Plan

At a meeting of the city council last night, with the Mayor and all the aldermen present, the city engineer outlined a proposal for local improvement work this year which seemed to meet with favor from the council but which was referred to the Board of Works for report at the next meeting. This plan provides for the spending of about $80,000 during the season for which bonds would be floated. As bonds are being retired during the year amounting to over $100,000 the financial position of the city will be improved by the end of the year.

TO PROCEED WITH WORK

Eleventh Avenue Grading and Surfacing to be Completed Under Local Improvement Bylaws

The city council at a special meeting last night decided to proceed as soon as possible with the completion of Eleventh Avenue under the bylaw recently passed. This will give employment to the regular public works staff of over twenty men who have families here and who otherwise would be out of employment.

The bylaw provides for the grading of that part of the street between McClymont Park and Canrad Street and was partly completed under the unemployment bylaw, the cost of which was partly paid by the Provincial and Federal Governments. This work now to be done is under the local improvement plan and the total cost will be borne by the property owners abutting thereon.

NEAR CALL ON BRIDGE

Only Miracle Saved Taxi Driver From Going Over Hays Creek Span Last Night

J. Challenger, driving a taxi car, had a narrow escape from serious injury, if not death, about 9 o'clock last night when his car skidded against the guard railing of Hays Creek bridge and tore away about 25 to 30 feet of the railing, the vehicle miraculously staying on the roadway instead of plunging over the side.

Challenger was driving into town with an empty car. He struck the railing on the north side of the bridge, the height of which is thirty or forty feet above the rocky creek bed. The car sustained some damage.

For permitting the operation of a bawdy house, King Tai was fined $20 by Magistrate McClymont in city police court this morning.

Earnest Plea Behalf Of Workless Voiced by Grit Leader in House

Holds That Vote Made to Meet Situation Is Inadequate—Attorney General Scoffs

VICTORIA, March 21:—An earnest plea that the government take steps towards appraising and seeking a solution for the unemployment problem in British Columbia was made by T. D. Pattullo, Liberal leader, in the Legislature Friday when estimates were under review. He argued that the $100,000 in the estimates was utterly inadequate and that Attorney General Pooley's proposal to raise any further funds by special warrant was illegal. Dr. H. C. Winch asked that the Legislature be entitled to pass upon the appropriation.

In view of the government's complete failure to recognize there was any permanent problem, Mr. Pattullo said, the $100,000 would prove insufficient, thereby adding probably $1,000,000 or more to the already great deficit. Mr. Pooley's conduct in laughing and passing jocular remarks as Mr. Pattullo strove to impress the government with the seriousness of the situation was described as insulting and the chairman called the attorney general to order for the remarks he passed. Mr. Pattullo instanced as an example of the manner in which the estimates had been improperly drawn up that only $6,000 instead of $20,000 as last year had been voted for care of grounds of public buildings that would not provide for cutting grass. He hoped the government building in Prince Rupert in which the citizens took great pride, would not be allowed to suffer in appearance. He predicted the government would have to spend more

Solid Government Vote Passes Bill Alleged to Bring Mother Pensions Under Party Control

VICTORIA, March 21—Led by T. D. Pattullo, the Liberal opposition in the Legislature yesterday moved a six months' hoist to Hon. Joshua Hinchcliffe's mothers' pension bill, transferring control of that act from the present board to an official under political control of the provincial secretary. Mr. Pattullo said the government had put in a clause to allow pensioners to hold $2000 of property instead of $1500 so they could say the opposition had voted against this increase, but that was paltry compared with compelling widows to trundle to politicians to obtain the pensions.

G. S. Pearson said that in Nanaimo, already a leading Conservative woman claimed to be in charge of mothers' pensions.

A. M. Manson, charged the government could not even keep humane relief out of party patronage clutches.

Objection was also taken to the clause that requires an applicant to live in British Columbia for three years instead of 18 months to be eligible. The solid government majority voted for the bill.

(Canadian Press) VICTORIA, March 21:—Criticizing the move as one which would cut down the usefulness of the Mothers' Pensions Act and put it under political control, A. M. Manson, Liberal, Omineca, headed a hot drive against a government bill to amend the Act in the Legislature yesterday. "This is the most vicious piece of legislation that has yet been introduced by the government," said Mr. Manson of the amending bill which was up for second reading.

T. D. Pattullo, Liberal leader, moved a six months' hoist to the bill but the government was sustained on the division 31 to eight.

"About five years ago I was troubled with palpitation of the heart, caused by a shock, and my nerves were all gone, and I could not sleep. I read about Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and decided to try them. After I had taken three boxes I was feeling fine again. TITLES FOR CANADIANS

Apropos of the proposal being made once more to reintroduce the system of granting titles to prominent Canadians, an editorial writer in the Winnipeg Free Press says:

"It is all very well to say that it is right and proper that men who have rendered distinctive service should be given a distinctive title. The argument is a cheap one in any case, for if a man cannot be lured into the performance of public service without dangling a title in front of him the country would be just as well off without his services. But, admitting that such a case can be made out, the fact remains that the thing does not work out that way. One grows a little tired of the incessant and uncritical admiration of all British institutions merely because they are British. Anyone who knows much about the bestowal of titles knows perfectly well that the quickest way to get one is to cough up a large sum for the right political party chest. British politicians are high-minded men, to be sure, but they all know that bread cast discretely upon the waters has a way of coming back buttered on both sides. Similarly, a cheque of sufficient magnitude returns to its donor endorsed with a peerage. The big cheques draw the big rewards.

"No honors list, of course, is ever composed purely of such favors. Men who have rendered real service are also included, and you will observe that these citizens draw down the humbler marks of distinction. A great musician or distinguished doctor will be given only a knighthood; while some gentleman who has conducted a mammoth meat packing business will receive a baronage that will place him, his heirs and successors forever, in a position from which they can look down on their fellow men with emotions appropriate to their exalted state. This is the way a rather silly business works out in practice. It appears to please the people of Great Britain, and they have as much right to that custom as they have to serve all their vegetables soggy. In neither case are we bound to follow their example. We can love them anyway."

MOTHERS now learn value of MAGNESIA

Because it is so helpful in keeping babies and children healthy and happy, every mother should know about Phillips Milk of Magnesia.

This harmless, almost tasteless preparation is most effective in relieving those symptoms of babies and children generally caused by souring food in the little digestive tract, such as sour-belching, frequent vomiting, feverishness, colic. And a mild laxative, it acts gently, but certainly, to open the little bowels in constipation, colds, children's diseases.

A teaspoonful of Phillips Milk of Magnesia does the work of half a pint of lime water in neutralizing cow's milk for infant feeding, and preventing hard curds. Its many uses for mother and child are fully explained in the interesting book "Useful Information." It will be sent you, FREE. Write The Chas. H. Phillips Chemical Co., Windsor, Ont.

In buying, be sure to get genuine Phillips Milk of Magnesia. Doctors have prescribed it for over 50 years.

FAREWELL WAS HELD

John McLean Honored By Scottish Friends Last Night on Eve of Departure For Old Land

Members of the old St. Andrew's Society, to the number of about thirty, gathered at the Commodore Cafe last night in a farewell dinner for John McLean, secretary of the society up to a short time ago, on the eve of his departure for Glasgow, Scotland, to reside.

Howard Steen was in the chair and fitting remarks were made by several speakers. Great regret was expressed at the impending departure of Mr. McLean but the hope was voiced that the future would hold happiness and prosperity for himself and family and that they may return to Prince Rupert some day to resume residence among their many friends. Speakers included Ald. S. D. Macdonald and Ald. James Black.

There was also an informal musical program which included vocal solos by Alex McLeod, Ben Ferguson, W. M. Brown, J. McPhee and the guest of honor and humorous recitations by A. A. Connon.

One of the happy features of the evening's proceedings was the presentation to Mr. McLean of a handsome leather club bag with the best wishes of the friends assembled. The presentation was made by Mr. Steen and Mr. McLean responded suitably.

Mr. and Mrs. McLean and son and daughter left on this morning's train for St. John, N.B., where they will embark for Glasgow.

The Prince Rupert local of the International Union of Operating Engineers heard an address last night by Frank Healy of Niagara Falls, Canadian representative of the International Union of Operating Engineers, who is making a tour of the west. Mr. Healy, who spoke interestingly on trade union principles, arrived from Vancouver on Wednesday and left on this morning's train for Edmonton. There was a record attendance at the meeting.

W. S. Hammond, president of the local, was in the chair at last night's meeting.

FAIR PLAY REQUESTED

sore and tourists are continually asking for an explanation.

The city council every year makes a tax levy just large enough to pay the cost of governing the city and maintaining our civic institutions. All public utilities around this block must be kept in efficient condition. The legitimate share of the carrying charges that should have been borne by this block since our incorporation, with interest at 6%, is over $140,000. As the place was serving a useful purpose until 1922, the city's actual loss has been almost half the amount just quoted.

Some years ago the provincial government built a new court house in Vancouver. The site of the old building valued at $2,000,000 was presented to that big and wealthy city. The provincial government there did not profit one dollar from the sale of the original town-site, but had, on the other hand, to make very large expenditures to secure sites for court house, normal school, industrial home and other institutions.

The provincial government has fared well in Prince Rupert. At a sale of Rupert lots held in Vancouver and Victoria in 1909 the government made almost $800,000 out of an aggregate of over $3,000,000.

Shortly after this $200,000 was added to this amount from a $600,000 sale in section 2. Then again in August, 1912, the government sold lots to the extent of $1,191,628. This shows that the government has found the real estate business here fairly profitable. That they did better than they expected is proven by the fact that the amount just quoted as realized at the last sale was almost three times the upset price established of $450,975. But the city, the corporate body of Prince Rupert, received none of this enormous profit. All we inherited was the legacy of a widely scattered city with the resultant increased expense of upkeep.

At the time of the sale in Section 2, the government was so elated with the result that they, in conjunction with the G. T. P. prevailed upon the city to agree to the building of a $90,000 bridge, each party to pay a third of the cost. Eventually the present bridge was built but the city paid the entire cost. Surely this unkept pledge should in itself be enough to influence the government to grant our request that the old court house block be sold. We are not asking for a present of it.

"When the law giving the government a quarter interest in new townsites became effective, we were assured that the 'land-grabbers' could no longer hold land for purely speculative purposes in spite of public inconvenience. Many wild land taxes have been suggested and even passed to help curb this evil.

Even the poor struggling pre-emptor is not immune. He must prove up or go. In conclusion we submit that the government can conveniently use a few thousand dollars and that justice to the city and convenience to our citizens demands the immediate sale of this block."

The foregoing letter was approved at a meeting of the executive of the Ratepayers' Association last night. It was decided to call a public meeting in the near future to advocate the sale of the block without further delay.

Unemployment was also discussed at last night's meeting.

YOU CAN'T OUT-TRADE A TRADER

Motorists are learning to be frankly skeptical of too high an allowance on Used Cars

SOME DAY SOON you will need a new automobile and one of the first questions you will ask your dealer will be—"How much will you allow me on the old car?"

It is natural that you should want to get as much as possible, yet you know the old car isn't as good as it once was. It has gone ten, twenty, perhaps thirty thousand miles. Years of operation have depreciated its value. The best part of its useful life is behind it.

Have you ever stopped to consider why one dealer will offer you $250 for it—another $300 or even $350? It's the same car, yet here is a difference of $50 to $100 in the estimates of experienced automobile men.

Has one dealer made a mistake? Can you flatter yourself on having fooled him as to the condition of the car and made a good trade? No—there is little chance of that. It's the dealer's business to know car values.

When a dealer buys a used car from you, he does not buy it to keep. He takes it off your hands as an accommodation. He would be glad if he never had to take a used car in trade.

If he pays you more than your used car is worth, then one of two things must happen. He must re-sell it to some one else at too high a price (which is not fair or just) or he must make up the difference on the new car. The dealer cannot afford to take a loss. The money must come from somewhere.

Before you enter the showroom, the big trade dealer knows you are going to be looking for a large allowance and that you will not buy his particular car unless you get it. So he is all set to give it to you. There is nothing casual or accidental about it. The dealer follows a plan that has been carefully worked out for him in advance. He will gladly give you $50, $75 or even $100 more in trade allowance because he makes just that much more on the new car. The dealer's profit in selling has been purposely increased to make that large allowance possible.

The Ford dealer does not need such methods to sell the Ford car. He is an authorized representative of the Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, and he does business on a fair, straightforward basis. He does not seek to take advantage of the public's known weakness for a "bargain."

The lower first cost of the Ford, the lower cost of operation, up-keep and service, and the added value of the shatterless glass windshield, four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers, fully enclosed four-wheel brakes, more than twenty ball and roller bearings, and Rustless Steel amount to far more than any seeming difference in trade allowance.

NINA GURVICH IS KAYOED BY BENNY WENDLE IN EIGHTH

Double Fisted Attack on Jaw Ended Fight Last Night After Loser Had Made Good Showing

After carrying the fight to his opponent much of the way and earning at least an even break in the matter of points on the first seven rounds, Nina Gurvich was felled by a vicious double-fisted attack on the jaw by Benny Wendle in the eighth round of a scheduled ten round bout at the Empress Social Club Arena last night. Be it said for Nina that he turned in an excellent performance in this first ten round affair he has essayed and, although beaten, was accorded a good hand by the fans. Had Gurvich taken things a bit easier in the earlier rounds, the outcome might have been different. He was outsmarted, however, by Wendle whose experience and coolness stood in good stead.

In the opening round, Nina put some hard right jabs on Benny's face and made his lips bleed. Benny responded in kind but his blows did not seem very hard, not as hard as Nina's. It was Nina's round for aggressiveness. Benny got more into the picture in the second. After missing, he placed some lefts on Nina's face but they hurt little if any. In close quarters, Wendle delivered some right jabs on Nina's body. It was Benny's round by a shade.

Nina made some wild swings in the third and Benny got the best of the exchanges. His hammerlike rights jarred Nina's head. Blood appeared on Nina's cheek. Nina was wild and it was Benny's round. Nina appeared to lose steam at the start of the fourth and was holding on. Benny got in some light hooks in close quarters. Toward the close of the round, they opened up and did some slugging. They were looking for knock-outs and the round was lively and pretty even though Benny's punches were cleaner. Nina led off in the fifth round. He landed as Benny started to cover. Benny delivered some light jabs to Nina's chin but Nina had the round. The sixth opened up lively as they slugged toe to toe. Nina had lasted longer than Benny expected. It appeared, Nina rushed in and slugged him hard and made Benny cover. Then Benny held Nina at left arm's length and socked him in the face with rights. They lacked steam else Benny should have knocked him out. Aggressiveness gave Nina the round by a shade.

Nina was tired but led to win the seventh round. Benny was slowing up too. Benny bent over and let Nina wear himself out slugging him on the head in the eighth. Then Benny uncorked a stinging right and left attack on Nina's jaw. Nina staggered backwards and leaned against the ropes. Wendle continued the punishment and down Nina went. He was through and had to be carried to his corner after the count.

Winner Challenged

Before the main event, Pete Holm was introduced to the fans as challenger of the winner. Jack Ainslee and Harold Dahl provided a three-round opener and were rewarded with a shower of silver.

PUTNEY-ON-THAMES, Mar. 21

For the eighth consecutive year, Cambridge defeated Oxford today by two and a quarter lengths in the annual boat race covering the course in 19 minutes and 26 seconds, a rather slow time. Cambridge has now won 42 of the boat race contests with Oxford since 1829 while Oxford has won 40. Since 1900, however, Cambridge has won 19 to eight for Oxford. The last time Oxford won was in 1923. Cambridge having won five straight just before that. The time last year was 19 minutes, nine seconds.

The big boat race was broadcast on the radio by the National Broadcasting Co. at 6:15 this morning but there was some difficulty in picking it up here, reception conditions being rather unfavorable at that time.

Ben Baggen and Babe Dutton boxed five hard rounds to a fair enough draw in the semi wind-up. They slugged and rocked each other and the end of each round saw both of them groggy with the fast pace. They both worked so hard that neither had enough pep to deliver a knock-out when occasion presented. It was a wide open affair and the crowd liked it. R. B. Skinner refereed all bouts and Max Heilbronner was time-keeper. The arena was well filled with interested fans who were well satisfied with the card.

Fears Too High Tariff Here As in United States

H. C. Walby, president of the Sandvik Canadian Limited and also of the Sandvik Saw and Tool Corporation of Montreal, went east this morning on the train following a trip up the coast. He says he thinks the United States is suffering today largely from high tariff and he warns Canada that if the tariff is made so high as to cut off other countries from doing business in Canada, that it will reflect on the purchases of other countries in Canada.

BRINGING UP FATHER

Now-remember! While I'm out—don't let Fifi get out of your sight.

By golly! I wish I could get her out of my mind.

Well—now that Maggie is out—you're gonna stay locked up.

Ah! Thank goodness—I don't have to look at that mosquito-faced dog.

For the spirit of Ali Baba? That poodle crawled under the door!

Halibut Landings Are So Far Very Light — Vera Beatrice Forced Back to Port — New Kergin Boat Nearly Ready

Although the most of Prince Rupert's Canadian fleet has been out for a week or more, the week passed without seeing the season's halibut landings commence in any appreciable quantity. However, it is expected that another few days will see large numbers of the local boats back with their first catches of the season. The American fleet is still tied up over the dispute between boat owners and fishermen in the matter of what should constitute the "boat's share" and only a few American boats are on the banks, practically all of these few...

THE FISH CURE

"The one thing that could properly be called a national dish today was fish and chips.

"The substitution of the less stimulating but highly nutritious fish for the beefsteaks and roast beef of Old England is a most important thing for the preservation of our health."

Significant pronouncements made at a recent luncheon at Olympia to medical officers of health:

What is Britain's foremost need? Fish 'n' chips! What supports the bulldog breed? Fish 'n' chips!

What keeps Britain's foes away? What preserves us from decay? Raise your voice and shout 'Hooray! Fish 'n' chips!'

What should feed the bold and brave? Fish 'n' chips! From the cradle to the grave... Fish 'n' chips!

What's the manna that supplies Beauty with her lustrous eyes? What's the fare that thinkers prize? Fish 'n' chips!

Who said oysters? Better far Fish 'n' chips! Try, instead of caviare, Fish 'n' chips!

All the things that doctors praise, Vitamins and violet rays, Centre in that noble phrase Fish 'n' chips!

Lo! What odor haunts the air? Fish 'n' chips! That aroma, ripe and rare; Fish 'n' chips!

Let me go and dine in state, From a bag or off a plate, Where the wiser sort await Fish 'n' chips!

—Lucio, in "The Manchester Guardian."

A recent progress report issued by the Biological Board of Canada contains an article by Robert H. Bedford of the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station in which the use of salt for control of the discoloration of halibut is further discussed. There is also an article by Louis F. Smith on "Large Scale Production of Fish Glue."

The Petersburg halibut boat Lancing, well known in Prince Rupert, is ready for another season's operations after having had a 44 h.p. Washington diesel engine installed during the past winter at Seattle in place of her former gas engine, at the same time having a new keel, new engine bed and new planing put in. The vessel also shipped a new gurdy and winch.

Committees have been appointed by both halibutters and trollers at Ketchikan to support the movement for the improvement of Keku Strait to accommodate all classes of small craft including cannery tenders, purse seiners, trolling boats and halibut vessels. It is being urged that the channel be deepened to a minimum depth of twelve feet over a width of at least seventy feet.

The new halibut boat Lane, built at Seattle this winter for Capt. Rasmus Kvinge, reached Seattle recently from her initial trip with 4,000 pounds of mixed cod. She struck a strong market and sold her fare for 8 3/4c to the Whiz Fish Company, which was near the top of the winter market. Capt. Kvinge took his boat with her 30 h.p. Atlas diesel engine cod fishing in advance of the halibut season to break the boat in before the season opened. She is a seine-type 46-footer.

Only 44,000 pounds of halibut was landed here during the past week, all of it being from Canadian boats. The landings per boat were as follows: Helge H., 7,000 pounds; Ingrid H., 7,000; Pair of Jacks, 7,000; Toodie, 3,000; Onome, 7,000; Viking I., 5,000; Volunteer, 3,000.

Billy Richards and Gerard Esaulo have gone into business in the Cow Bay machine shop. They have been employed in a similar line here for years and are well known and popular. Their many friends will wish them luck in their undertaking.

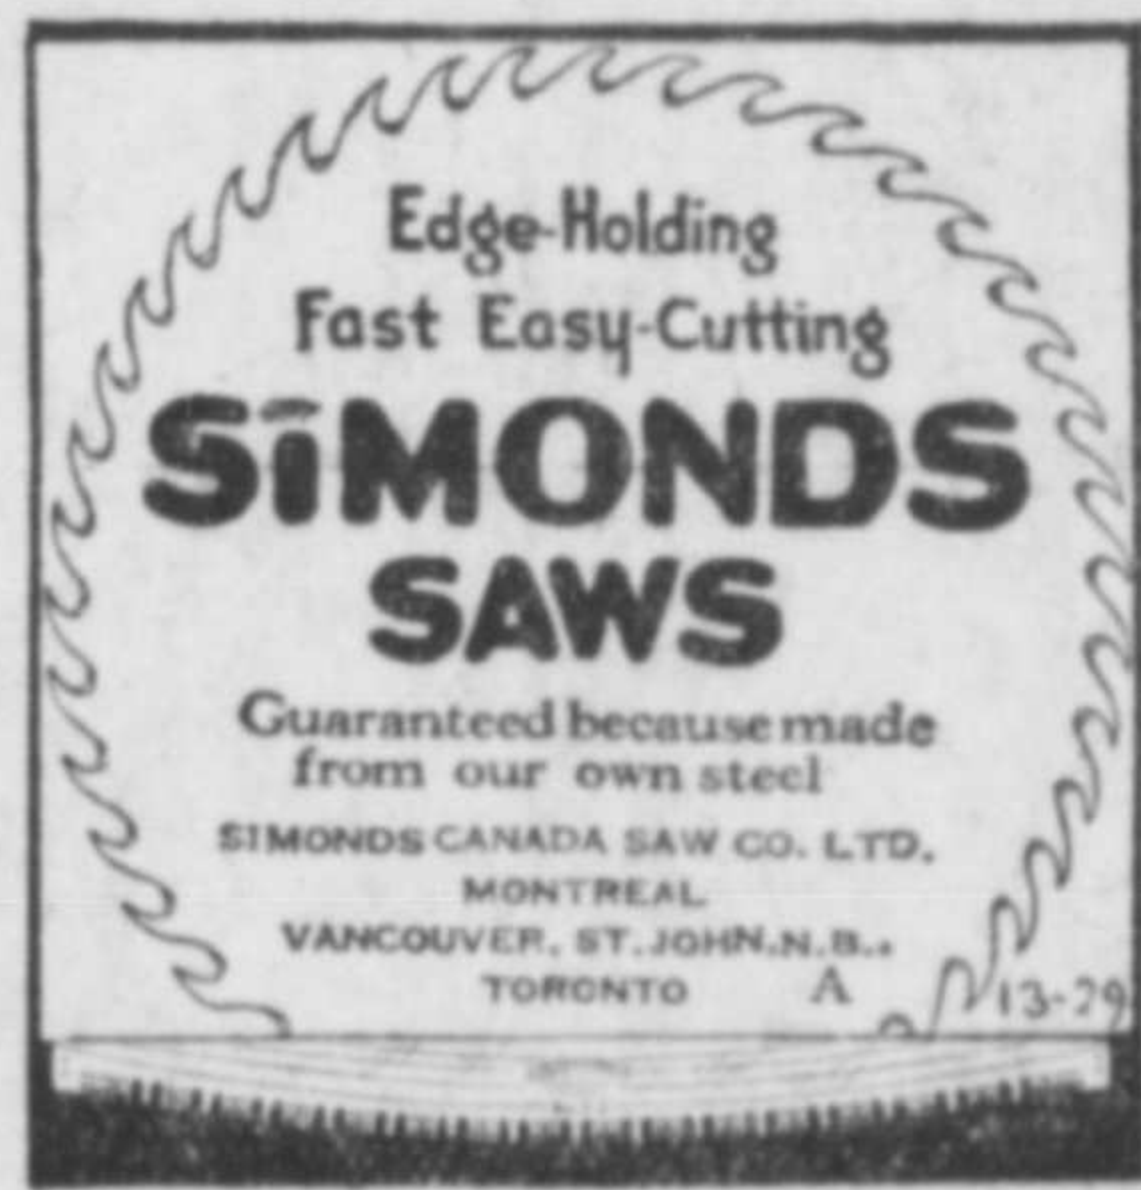

In the current issue of the British Columbia Fisherman appear brief articles on angling possibilities on the Tachi River, which flows into Stuart Lake, north of Vanderhoof, months ago, when it attacked him while in a small open gasboat. This time the cougar took to another member of the Arnet family, but a boat that this time was much too uneven a match for it, the Cape Beale being an 85-foot schooner. The members of the cougar family on the west coast apparently have an old grudge against the Arnet family. The seineboat Allema also sailed for Prince Rupert, where she will operate for the next few months purse-seining herring to supply fresh bait to the halibut fleet sailing out of Prince Rupert. The herring are caught and kept alive in large wire-netting ponds, being sold to the halibut fishermen in ton lots. There is always a good demand for live herring bait in preference to the frozen bait generally used. Karl Arnet and Hubert Elk, the two owners of the Allema, in the respective capacities of captain and engineer, took the vessel north, accompanied by three other fishermen comprising the crew.

On account of slackness of fishing operations on the West Coast of Vancouver Island, the United Church mission boat, Edward White, is being transferred from Cape Mudge district to Bella Bella where Dr. Darby will take charge of its work. This will release the Thomas Crosby, Capt. (Rev.) R. C. Scott, for other duties this summer.

While running north last week from Vancouver to the halibut banks off the Queen Charlotte Islands, the Vancouver halibut boat Nordland, well known here, was rammed and sunk in Malaspino Strait by an unknown vessel. The captain and owner, Capt. S. Nordhus, and his crew of two, J. Johnston and G. Petersen, escaped miraculously with their lives, taking to their skiff as the Nordland started to go down, sinking finally in 80 fathoms of water. The men rowed two miles to shore and proceeded to Pender Harbor. The boat and everything on board was lost.

Herbert Hampton returned to the city this week from a trip to Vancouver.
