City Council Decides To Help Unemployed In Demands for Work

Delegation Lays Case Before City Council and Asks For Their Co-operation in Pressing For Relief

A delegation of six men representing the mass meeting of the previous night, met the city council last night and requested that the city press upon the federal and provincial governments the absolute necessity of coming to the relief of the men now out of employment in the city. They asked for work rather than doles but urged that an allowance be made them until work be provided, such an allowance not to be less than $5.50 a week.

Mayor Orme told of having sent several telegrams already and that the local Government Agent had been instructed to pay the 40c a day relief money to all who were in real need.

The delegation was headed by Ex-alderman Larsen who stated the case for the men. He said they realized that the city was unable

Million Dollars Are Given For Political Purposes at Ottawa

OTTAWA, July 17.—Approximately $1,000,000 was contributed to political campaign funds by the Beauharnois Company and its president, R. O. Sweezy, according to evidence given today before the Parliamentary committee investigating the project.

Mr. Sweezy himself gave Senator Haydon and Senator Raymond between six and seven hundred thousand dollars for the Liberal party. Company contributions to the Liberals might have been $100,000.

The sum of $25,000 in Victory Bonds was given to John Aird jr. of Toronto for the Ontario Conservative party, Mr. Sweezy said.

Mr. Aird said the bonds were given to himself in payment for advice and he kept them.

Smaller sums had been given to both parties and individuals in them.

T. D. Pattullo Made Trip Through Interior Twenty Years Ago and Tells of Change

PRINCE GEORGE, July 17.—In his address to the Prince George Board of Trade at its recent luncheon, T. D. Pattullo, head of the opposition and member for Prince Rupert talked interestingly of many things. He said in part that:

Twenty years ago he had made his first trip through the Central Interior, proceeding out of Prince Rupert to the end of steel and from there by the employment of a couple of cayuses. Looking back to that trip he could not fail to be impressed with the very great development which had taken place. At Round Lake at the time there was but one family in residence as compared with the very extensive settlement and development of the present day. There was perhaps more money in circulation at the time but it was money which had been brought into the country incidental to railway construction. What was true with respect to the Round Lake vicinity was equally true with regard to settlement and agricultural development throughout all the central interior adjacent to the line of railway, and in the great majority of cases the settlers had reached the point where they could count upon making their living off their lands.

No Apology

From an agricultural standpoint no one need make any apology for the central interior. It is a great wide country with room for thousands of settlers and they will not be required to accept the isolation which attended farming in the older provinces of the dominion as they could enjoy means of communication with the outside world not dreamed of by the pioneer settlers of the eastern provinces. British Columbia has acquired prominence by reason of its mining activity and by the extent of its timber industry, but it should be kept in mind these are more or less

Inspector of Animal Husbandry Back in Victoria After Trip

VICTORIA, July 17.—Dr. Gunn, inspector of animal husbandry, was favorably impressed with the country contiguous to the Canadian National Railway from McBride to Croydon and Dunster. There appeared to be less shortage of moisture than in other parts, and he found alsike clover knee deep in the middle of June. The settlers appear to be contented, but are badly in need of roads as in many places one can only get around on horseback. They have good foundation stock and raise excellent vegetables and are largely self-sustaining, so that there was little evidence of the prevailing depression. It is an aspen poplar country, and the clearing is comparatively light.

DEATH COMES TRAGICALLY TO LOCAL MAN

Harvey Fraser Collapses on Baseball Diamond and Passes Away Soon Afterwards

The death occurred with tragic suddenness last evening of Harvey Fraser, a pioneer resident of Prince Rupert and one of the well known men of the city. He was taken ill at the baseball game and died a short time later on his way to the hospital.

It seems that Mr. Fraser, who was managing the Old Empress team, was watching the play from near the bleachers. The scoring was close and there was some excitement, the Native Sons being one run ahead. Then a run was made by the Old Empress, bringing the score to a tie. It was at this moment that Mr. Fraser was seen to collapse. Friends ran to his aid and tried to revive him but with little success. They put him in a car and started for the hospital but when he arrived life was extinct. He had passed away peacefully as a result of heart failure.

Harvey was known to nearly everyone in the city and his genial good nature and natural exuberance made him popular everywhere. He was a sheet metal worker by trade, a keen sportsman and a good fellow all round. In politics he was a keen Liberal and was a great supporter of Fred Stork whom he was planning to visit in Ontario this year. However, he never let politics interfere with his friendships. Baseball was his favorite sport and he had been managing the Old Empress team this year with considerable success.

Harvey Franklin Fraser was born in Ontario 41 years ago. He came to Prince Rupert 23 years ago from Fernie. A brother is a prominent building contractor at Qualicum Beach and another brother lives in Vancouver.

The Elks will have charge of the funeral arrangements and the funeral will be held after the arrival of the brother from Qualicum.

Premier Bennett is Forced by Attacks to Withdraw Income Tax

OTTAWA, July 17.—Income tax changes announced in the budget with the exception of the corporation tax were withdrawn by Premier Bennett in the House of Commons yesterday.

The Premier declared to a surprised chamber that in view of personal attacks made on him both in the House of Commons and outside, he must ask leave to withdraw the income tax resolutions.

The Premier said he had been charged by Hon. Fernand Rinfret, former secretary of state, with relieving himself and his wealthy friends of 25% of their income tax. The statement was untrue, declared the Premier.

Mr. Bennett further said that the withdrawal of the resolutions did not necessarily mean that similar legislation might not be introduced next year as applicable to 1931 incomes.

The resolutions withdrawn would have reduced the income tax from 49% to 25% on very large incomes.

Governor's Son Ends Tour at Jasper Park

JASPER PARK LODGE, July 17.—Lord Duncannon, son of Canada's governor-general, has succumbed to the delights of Jasper National Park and has changed his itinerary to give him an extra four days in the beautiful forest and game preserve. Instead of leaving this morning for the Pacific Coast, as he originally planned, His Lordship will remain at Jasper Park Lodge until the evening of July 22, when he will leave via Canadian National Railways for Winnipeg, and thence to Ottawa.

During their stay at Jasper Park Lodge, Lord Duncannon and his cousin, Arthur Ponsonby, together with the aide-de-camp, Major Bolan, have enjoyed many interesting trail trips. One of the high lights of their visit has been an all-day fishing trip to Beaver Dams and Lake Wabasso, where they enjoyed excellent sport.

Yesterday, the party climbed Whistler Mountain, which rises to an altitude of almost 9,000 feet. They rode to the timber line and climbed the remainder of the way to the summit where they obtained a splendid view of the Athabasca Valley.

Visit to Totem Hill Park, Kept Up By Canadian National Railway, Is an Inspiration and Delight

W. E. Funnell Tells of Work He Is Doing In Growing Flowers Adapted to This Climate and Shows Results

Almost all the tourists that come to Prince Rupert pay a visit to Totem Pole Hill Park, partly to see the totems which through the joint action of the city and the railway company have been erected there but also to see the flowers, which under direction of W. E. Funnell have beautified the place to such an extent that it is now one of the chief attractions of the city.

Totem Pole Hill is a miniature park owned and maintained by the Canadian National Railway as a tourist attraction and is a very important civic asset. It is admired by all who see it and especially by those who are fond of flowers.

A Daily News representative visited the park this week and Mr. Funnell very kindly pointed out the things of interest and told about the difficulties and successes in connection with his work. The flowers are an object lesson of what may be done under ordinary conditions in varied soils and on a northerly slope in the way of beautification. Most of the flowers are raised from seeds in cold frames or in the little glass house on the remote side of the hill. For instance, there were dwarf single dahlias in bloom that had been raised from seed this year, beautiful little plants very showy and effective.

Sweet Peas

Sweet peas line one side of the new bowling green at the foot of the hill. These are very fine and are already in bloom. The seedlings were raised in boxes and transplanted about six inches apart. Now the plants are a mass of foliage. The ground on which they are growing is shallow and not over fertilized. Mr. Funnell says peas should not be over-fertilized because they make too much vine under those conditions. The same applies to dahlias. He thinks the custom of digging deep and filling the bottom of the trench with manure is not the proper method. Instead, he mixes a small amount of bone meal with the soil. Passing around the gardens the stocks were the most showy flowers. They were all in full bloom and very fragrant. Following them will be the snapdragons and then the asters. All look well and give promise of a large amount of bloom. The Canterbury bells were about over but what remained showed that they had been very large and showy.

Rustic Work

Possibly the outstanding display just now in the rustic grove formed of old stumps and roots decorated with a wonderful showing of foxgloves which just now are in full bloom. Everyone stops to admire this as it is somewhat out of the ordinary in the way of floral decoration.

It is impossible to tell of all the very effective beds and of the varieties of flowers seen, but outstanding among them may be noted one of the Prince of Wales peonies which is now nearing the end of its blooming season. Some of the plants set out a few years ago did not do very well but here is one that is a success.

Among the other flowers is a new one imported recently from England and the first to be grown in Prince Rupert. It is a peacock's eye daisy with white petals, a purple centre and with the outside of the petals dark. It closes at night. The plant spreads out and is only a few inches high. Just now it is covered with bloom.

Any Prince Rupert people who wish to see how flowers may be grown under difficult conditions should visit this place and have a talk with Mr. Funnell. It is a splendid object lesson.

Advice to Gardeners

Asked for a little advice that might be useful to young gardeners who propose to raise flowers in the city, Mr. Funnell said he would advise that wherever possible the gardener should raise his own seedlings. The cost was very small and was much more interesting and effective than buying seedlings. The new varieties should be chosen as they were almost invariably better than the old.

The staple annuals of any garden should be stocks, asters and snapdragons and lobelia for edging. Stocks should be planted in the foreground, snapdragons next and the asters behind. That is the order in which they bloom. Mr. Funnell advises buying dwarf stocks, medium sized snapdragons and rather tall asters. The lobelia must be sown quite early or it will be late in blooming. Seedlings should be transplanted when quite small into a second box and then later to the beds. Marigolds are showy and seed themselves each year. Asters do best if there is a change of ground each year.

For perennials Mr. Funnell advises foxgloves, delphiniums, Canterbury bell, sweet william, geum and gillardia. They all succeed well in this climate.

In dahlias, the dwarf kinds are the best and they should not be over-fertilized. To fertilize too much is as bad as too little.

Asked about roses, this gardener said there had been a lecture on rose culture given recently and he was diffident to offer advice. Here, too, overfertilization was sometimes fatal. Pruning should be done with judgment. Some bushes he had seen had been spoiled by over pruning.

Possibly the best thing for a novice today would be to visit this and other gardens, talk to the gardener and try to adapt what he sees and hears to his own particular conditions. In no two places are the conditions exactly alike. Also each person has his preference and his hobby and it is well that these should be allowed full sway. In any case a visit to the C. N. R. gardens is an inspiration and a joy.

DOG WINS A COLLAR

Bravery of Canine Saved Life of Mistress at Grassland, Alta.

EDMONTON, July 17.—A "Gugnunc" collar, inscribed with the words "For Bravery," will be awarded to the dog owned by Miss Frances Sutton, 16, Grasswood, Alta., who saved her life by dragging her from creek beds three times on May 7 last.

The award will be made by the London Daily Mirror when official confirmation of the occurrence is received by them. Definite details are being prepared for the newspaper.

The Gugnunc collars, in blue Morocco leather, bear the Gugnunc badge in silver and enamel, with the words "For Bravery." They are awarded to dogs that have saved human life at the risk of their own. A certificate describing the deed is also sent to the owner.

Miss Sutton was lost when she was returning to her home near Grassland, and wandered through a badly swampy land. Three times she fell in creek beds and was dragged out by her dog, which assisted her through the sucking mud in safety at a farm home. She recovered in hospital from exposure.

transitory while agriculture represented a permanent development. The value of the agricultural crop of British Columbia, taken at $60,000,000 did not represent a crop of this value for ten or twenty years but in perpetuity, even if not another acre were brought under cultivation, and if the country could be filled with successful farmers they would stimulate other industries which would make for the prosperity of the province.

There surely was no reason for discouragement in the matter of the agricultural development. Many of the developments hoped for had not come but even this did not represent a total loss since most of the pioneers extracted some fun in seeing how much they had missed their mark, and they had the satisfaction of knowing they had done their duty in sticking to the country although much of the profit in its development might be passed on to a succeeding generation.

Economic Impasse

On the present trip Mr. Pattullo said he would cover a large part of the province. He admitted his visit had its political aspect. He desired to know what the people of the province are thinking about and what their requirements are. He realized the people of British Columbia as well as of Canada had come to what might be described as an economic impasse, and that they will be seeking for leadership, for a road out of their difficulties, but they must learn human beings are peculiar animals. There are no two alike and few who could say with any certainty just what they would be doing a few years hence. Circumstances over which they have no control force material changes in their plans. However a serious conditions of affairs faced Canada as a whole. A time when measures must be taken to relieve a threatening situation so that there be no room in Canada for communist or revolutionary activities. Canadians must keep their feet on the ground and strive assiduously to keep their country on an even balance. He felt confident conditions in Canada are improving, but the only safe way out of the present difficulty would come through education and co-operative international action. There were not only economic values but moral values as well to be taken into consideration. To his mind world conditions are on the mend, and within a few years the relative prosperity which Canada was enjoying a short time ago will appear insignificant to that which is immediately ahead of its people.

Miss Wadea Mussalem left today for Stewart where she will spend her holidays and incidentally take part in the celebration.

LACROSSE FAIR WEEK

Two Native Teams Expected to Be Given Strong Opposition When Here in September

Lads Practising

Considerable Skill Being Developed By Local Boys Who Are Training Regularly

Lacrosse promises to be one of the important features of the fall fair this year. Two Native teams are reported to be coming, one each from Kincolith and Aliyansh. These with the local team will make pretty good material for a three-team series that would attract considerable attention.

The local boys practice every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock and whenever possible on Wednesday evenings. Some of the younger lads are developing a good deal of skill with the stick and the promoters of the game here say they will have a much better team than last season, and they are hopeful of winning from the visitors when they play during fair week. They have been training for a month or two.

REGIMENT LINEUP

The following players will represent the Regiment Football Club for the League Game with Canadian Legion tonight:

Laidler, Watson, Thurber, Edgumbe, Dejong, Wingham, Wilson (Captain), Lyons, Fong, Colussi, and Norrrington. Reserves—Kelsey, Doherty, and Bond.

Seventh Inning Rally Wins Game For Old Empress

Hotelmen Take First Contest For Second Half By 10-9 Score In Exciting Match

STYLES STARS WITH STICK

Commons, Pinch-Hitting in Final Frame, Makes Two-Bagger and Scores Tying Run

Old Empress stepped out in front for second half honors in the local baseball league last evening, when they downed Sons of Canada, first half winners and champions last year, in a close and hard hitting game by a score of 10-9.

With the score 9-8 against them, the Hotelmen entered the last half of the seventh, and when Vic Menzie and Smith were both retired, it appeared as though the game was practically over. However, Ray Commons, pinch-hitting for Harry Menzie, slammed the first ball to left for a double. Redman, who had not connected safely all evening, followed with a hard drive to right. Commons scored on the hit and Redman went to second when Comadina made a slow recovery of the ball. It was just at this point when Harvey Fraser, manager of the Old Empress team, collapsed. He appeared to revive somewhat, and was taken to the hospital in a car. Kenny drew a walk and Redman went to third on a passed ball. Hibbard came to bat and then Redman scored the winning run on another passed ball. Frizzell was catching at the time, Roberts having injured his finger when going after a low pitch.

Styles led the attack for the Sons with a triple and two singles and a walk in four trips to the plate. Eddie Smith, in his first game since he was injured on May 24, collected two scratch hits in four attempts. Hibbard, Wendle and Vic Menzie each hit safely twice in four attempts, the latter clearing the bases in the first inning with a drive to left field which might easily have gone for a homer. Stalker put one through the left field fence but was held on third by fast fielding.

Nelson pitched for the winners and was touched for 10 hits and walked three men. Lambie was on the slab for the losers and allowed 11 hits while he walked two men.

SPORT CHAT

It is hoped that lacrosse will develop in this neighborhood for it is a spectacular game and one worthy of the best efforts of any young man who likes a game of skill, speed and endurance. Brick Skinner and the other men who are coaching the lads deserve every praise for their efforts.

New York hockey gossip has it that Dutch Gainer, dashing left wing of the Boston Bruins, will wear a Ranger uniform in next season's N. H. L. campaign. The story of the purchase of the Ottawa forward line of Finnigan, Kilrea and Lamb has also been revived. Col. Hammond, president of the Rangers' club, figures he is going to get at least one of them. It's a long way to hockey, but some startling developments are expected before the end of this month. Connie Smythe, manager of the Toronto Maple Leafs, is reported after two members of the Montreal Maroons.

Baseball writers in the press box had to ask what his first name was and how he spelled his last name when 19-year old Wallace Hebert of the St. Louis Browns was given a starting assignment recently against the Philadelphia Athletics. Since then the amazing rookie southpaw from Lake Charles, Pa., has beaten the Athletics more than once—a feat no other pitcher has been able to perform this year—and stopped the singing bats of the mighty Yankees.

Victoria is all puffed up over winning the cricket championship this year and thus taking the Con Jones Trophy. The team went through cricket week without a defeat and secured nine points out of a possible ten.

BIG SIX STANDING

There was but one change in the Big Six standings last night when Eldridge, who went hitless, was replaced by J. Comadina who made one hit in four attempts, to drop to .292 from .300, but still get into the standing. It is the first time this year that a player with less than .300 has been up there. Jack Nelson, who was tied with Bill Harold with .333, dropped to .321 with one hit in four attempts. Following is the standing:

| Player | G. | AB | R. | H. | Pct. |

New Postal Block To Be Erected On New York Corner

NEW YORK, July 17—The famous corner of Wall and Nassau St., where the grim Doric columns of the Subtreasury have been pointed out to every visitor for years is due to make more history. The United States Post Office Department recently announced plans for replacing the Subtreasury building with a new postal building to be an exact replica of old Federal Hall, which stood on the same site and in which George Washington was inaugurated as president in April 1789. The Subtreasury replaced Federal Hall in 1812, and as much as $250,444,000 in gold and silver has been stored in it at one time.

"TILLIE THE TOILER" By Way of Diversion —By Westover.

"How do I keep my figure?"

"I eat Shredded Wheat but instead of cream I use whole milk—just as it comes from the bottle. That kind of meal gives me pep and strength. It's delicious and nourishing, and easily digested. Sometimes for variety I add sliced bananas or other fruits, but I like it any way at all."

SCHOOLS HERE ARE SUPERIOR

Toronto Woman Speaks Highly of Canadian Institutions

TORONTO, July 17.—After visiting open air schools in Greece, Italy, Germany, Belgium and England, Mrs. Frederick Minkler, newly elected president of the Home and School Club at Victoria Park, declared at the annual meeting of that organization that Toronto's Forest schools surpassed them all. "After seeing all the schools," she said, "I can say that nowhere have I seen a school which for natural beauty and loveliness of location can compare with the Victoria Park School. We see the children come down to the Victoria Park Forest school at the beginning of May, below weight, under par, and in a few weeks their rosy cheeks, dancing eyes and added weight are abundant evidence of the benefits to be derived from this type of education."

Mrs. Minkler visited an out-of-doors school in Italy which she characterized as "Mussolini's pet school and one which he often visits." The school is situated just outside of Milan, and has accommodation for 1,200 children. It is equipped with a swimming pool, outdoor gymnasium and a model real-size house where the girls are taught house-keeping and domestic science.

The woodwork for the new foot-path up the hill beside the Metro-pole Hall to the Anglican Cathedral is completed and the path may now be used although it is not fully finished. The new path is built wholly on city property.

French Spoken C. P. R. Steamer

University of Montreal Party Was Met This Morning By Local People

A number of local French-Canadians were at the Government Dock this morning to greet members of the University of Montreal touring party who arrived at 6 a.m. on the C. P. R. steamer Princess Charlotte on their way to Alaska for the round trip. The party numbered 83 but on the dock and on board the ship the French language seemed to predominate.

The ship brought 206 passengers in all but only D. C. McKechnie and W. C. Sigerson left her here. Most of those aboard were bound for the round trip to Skagway.

MAKE PLANS FOR MINE

Geologists Making Expert Examination of Big Missouri and Big Development Expected

STEWART, July 17.—An expert examination of the Big Missouri mine is being made by geologists and mineralogists with a view to deciding what action to take now that the small mill recently erected has proven a success and has shown that the ore has good milling value. It is stated unofficially that as soon as the present examination is completed it is possible that a big development scheme will be commenced prior to the erection of a large mill.

Just now the face of the ore is being washed down and Dr. Hanson, assisted by two Dominion Government geologists and two geologists from the Consolidated, are checking up on the formation with a view to initiating a policy of development. The new mill, when erected, will undoubtedly be built at some distance from the mine in order to secure a proper supply of water.

The local airplane is leaving tonight with one passenger to take part in the celebration at Stewart and Hyder tomorrow, Sunday and Monday.
