OTTAWA, May 6:—Premier R. B. Bennett was under fire in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon by Liberal and prairie members for his attitude toward the farmers.

Hon. W. R. Motherwell, former minister of agriculture in the Mackenzie King government, took the Premier to task, charging that he was trying to bully the house just as he was trying to bully the farmers.

Mr. McMillan, another Liberal member, declared that the Premier had gone to the relief of the bankers rather than that of the farmers in his action in regard to the Wheat Pool.

Ketchikan Airplane Tragedy Came as Angling Party Was Taking Off Lake to Go Home

Further details of the airplane tragedy on Sunday at Karta Lake on Prince of Wales Island outside of Ketchikan which cost the life of Steve Selig, veteran northern fisherman and canneryman, were brought to the city yesterday afternoon with the arrival from Ketchikan of the rescue plane, the Alaska-Washington Airways monoplane Sitka, which effected the rescue.

Monday. The accident occurred as the ill-fated plane was attempting to rise off Karta Lake where the party had spent the day trout fishing. The plane was heavily loaded with the four men and water is believed to have leaked into the after compartment of the pontoons. After the ship had climbed off the lake and gained some elevation, the pilot attempted to bank in order to avoid a low mountain.

Karta Lake, where the crash occurred, is a popular fishing resort, being located not far from Kasaaan. The wrecked plane had made many trips with Ketchikan angling parties.

Steve Selig, who died six hours after the crash without regaining consciousness, had both legs and arms broken and head crushed.

PREPARE FOR THE FAIR

Those who plan to exhibit flowers or garden or farm produce at the fall fair should prepare now in order to be in a position later to compete successfully. A number of local garden enthusiasts have purchased bulbs, tubers or flower seeds with a view to landing a knockout when the first week in September comes. In the meantime they will carefully nurture their growing plants, pruning and fertilizing in order to secure the best possible results.

Last year was by far the best flower exhibit the fair has ever known. This year, if the weather conditions are right, there should be a much better exhibit. Local flower growers are planning to build on the experience of last year. Some of them have been spending money freely in their efforts to make a good showing and they will receive the backing of the fair board in their efforts.

WELCOME TO MINISTER

Today we are glad to welcome to the city one of the active members of the Tolmie Government, Hon. Joshua Hinchliffe, minister of education. He is showing a great interest in the schools of the city and a program is planned that will give him a pretty good insight into the educational institutions of the city.

While he is here we should like to impress upon the minister the need of the city in the way of highway facilities. Doubtless he will be given authority to drive as far as Galloway Rapids and as a member of the cabinet will have a say in regard to expenditures here. He will realize how cramped the people of the city feel and that the extension of the highway to connect with outside points would be one of the greatest educators the city could have.

We are glad to know that work has recommenced on this highway but, at the present rate of progress, it will be many years before the objective is reached.

PLEASURES OF LIFE

Sometimes we hear parsons preach against a person leading a life wholly devoted to pleasure. Yet that is the chief aim of every person. Some people think to get pleasure from debauchery, others from frivolities of social life while yet others devote themselves to sports, to art, to music, to uplift work, to religion, to self-denial. It is all a matter of likes and dislikes. Some take pleasure in their work and others take pleasure in watching the clock which tells them when to stop work. To them work is drudgery. Every person does as he likes. Educate the likes and dislikes and the best type of man is evolved.

Radio Association Requires Felix Batt to Close Down

May Endorse Move

Considerable Discussion at Meeting—Toronto Expert is Speaker

A meeting of the Prince Rupert Radio Association was held in the city police court last evening, being presided over by President F. W. Wesch.

A matter of considerable importance to Prince Rupert was up for discussion namely the application of Felix Batt for the Association's endorsement of his project of a broadcasting station for the city. Mr. Batt had already asked the city council, the Chamber of Commerce and the Trades and Labor Council to endorse this project and, in every case, the matter was left in abeyance until such time as the Radio Association passed on the matter.

Mr. Batt outlined his proposition to the meeting and, when asked if the station would cause any interference to local reception he explained that he did not think so. He said he was applying for a station to operate on a wave length of 870 k.c. and it was his opinion that, by using a crystal set, it would not interfere with any other station. Pressed closer by several members as to whether it would interfere with KOMO station (No. 920) he said that he did not think so but was not certain. This caused several members who were not too sure what to do about the matter to come out and say that, if it would interfere with KOMO, they were not at all in favor of the scheme. They all stated that they did not want to block the way of any person who was progressive enough to put in such a station but that, if same was to spoil the reception of other stations now received, they were not in favor of it at all.

Finally, it was put plainly up to Mr. Batt that the Association would endorse his scheme if he would guarantee not to operate the station after 7 p.m. until such time as it was proved conclusively to all members that there was no interference caused by the broadcasting. Mr. Batt stated that he would like time to think over the matter as he considered that by shutting down at 7 p.m. he would lose the best time of the day. He asked the Association to allow him until 8 p.m. This the Association would not do as it was left with Mr. Batt that, if he would write to the secretary and state that he would agree to shut down at 7 p.m., the executive would meet at once and, if agreeable to that body the endorsement would be granted to him immediately.

Stanley Mercer, a radio expert from Toronto gave a very interesting talk to the meeting taking as his subject interference as found in Prince Rupert. He explained the great necessity of keeping the ground wire spotlessly clean and that same should be cleaned up every two months. Also he strongly recommended not to use the water pipes as a ground as this in most cases caused trouble. A pipe of rod driven into the ground and kept moist was the best way. Several other ways and means were explained to stop interference, and Ray Love and Mr. Mercer got into a very learned discourse on various ways of clearing interference, but it was so far above the local reporter to write it down that the public must be satisfied that it was said.

It is hoped to have another meeting in the near future and that some other feature of radio will be discussed then for the benefit of the members.

Against Work Dredging Channel Metlakatla Bay

In his report to the city council last night Mayor Orme mentioned Metlakatla bar dredging. The engineer had reported unfavorably of this work. The cost was understood to be about $18,000 and additional work would be required each year to keep it open.

Some discussion followed in regard to this and the matter will be taken up further.

TOTAL OF TEN HEARINGS MAKES DOCKET HEAVIEST IN SEVERAL YEARS HERE

His Lordship indicated that the two murder cases would be tried first by sending out the Grand Jury first with these bills of indictment. One case is that of Rex vs. Sigurd Jussila alias John Emilson, charged with the murder of Charles Henry Yoch, Houston farmer, on or about September 3 last. The other is that of Rex vs. Samuel Douse, who is charged with the murder of Silas Brown at Kitwano Indian village on or about January 10.

In the Jussila case, the judge pointed out that evidence was of circumstantial nature. The body of Yoch was found badly beaten in his cabin and later accused was found by the police in a rude sort of dug-out nearby in possession of deceased's rifle, clothes and watch. His Lordship commended the bravery of police officers in this case in capturing Jussila after they had been faced with a gun in his hands.

In the Douse case, evidence is more of a direct nature. Crown witnesses, the judge pointed out, would testify that accused was in possession of a gun at the time Silas Brown was shot early one morning at Kitwano. Eye witnesses of the affair would give evidence.

The case of Rex vs. Jussila will be heard first and will be followed by that of Rex vs. Douse. Less serious criminal cases will be heard at the conclusion of these.

Will Work Out Daily During Absence of St. Louis Cards

CHAMPION IS WINNER

Maxie Rosenbloom Outgenerals Leo Lomski in Portland Bout

PORTLAND, May 6.—Fighting a crafty defensive battle, Maxie Rosenbloom, the light heavyweight champion, last night held off the aggressive attack of Leo Lomski of Aberdeen, Washington, and took the decision in a ten round bout. Lomski put up a hard battle but Rosenbloom was in control of the situation at all times and gave a pretty exhibition of ring generalship.

Lomski put up a better showing than might have been expected and was on the attack all the way. Some of the experts figured wrongly that Rosenbloom had a clinch on his hands. Lomski looks far from being near "the end of the trail."

WIN AGAIN IN SOCCER

Borden Street Takes Handsome Lead in Junior League

Borden Street defeated the High School by 1-0 in their second victory of this half of the Junior Football League series. This win, added to that over Booth School on Saturday, gives them a handsome lead.

The outstanding player of the game was Morgan in goal for Borden. Borden's back game was stronger than the High School's because the former were always quick to clear the ball from the danger area in front of their goal by quick vigorous kicks to the side lines. They were never guilty of kicking the ball across their own goal mouth. Nakamoto and Harold Fisher were strong defensive players for Borden.

While Suehiro, the High School goalkeeper, gave a good account of himself, the rest of the back division was not working together as a unit. This lack of cohesion allowed the High School goal to be left wide open to attack several times. Good goal-keeping and weak Borden shooting on these occasions were the only things that saved High from a severe beating. At such times the High back division were very slow to rush in and clear the ball out of danger. At other times their kicks were not well placed for they tried for length rather than to pass the ball to some definite member of their forward line.

Cross played the best forward game for High School. Although he shot weakly, he passed the ball well, and he attacked persistently. More vigorous support from his inside men would have resulted in several scores.

Real action began towards the middle of the second half when Borden forwards, led by Dungate and Wilson, began repeatedly to penetrate the High defence. Wilson broke quickly and threatened twice. Hardy went in on a clear goal but shot weakly. Then Wilson was allowed to repeat the same thing. He went in close and outgassed Suehiro to score the winning goal. High School now attempted desperately to even the score but they did not have the punch. Borden did not make the mistake of playing a defensive game. They held their lead by a strong offensive combined with their persistent habit of clearing the ball to the side lines when play was dangerous to their goal.

SOFTBALL IS PLAYED

General Office and Round House teams both made their first appearance of the season in the Canadian National Recreation Association's Softball League last night and the former won by a score of 21 to 6. It was rather one-sided yet not a bad game. General Office was always in command of the situation.

Batteries were Boulter and Arney for General Office and Tullgech and Peterson for Round House. Round House and Station are scheduled to meet in the next game Friday evening.

Daring Thief Raids Warehouse in Daylight

Finger Print Caught Him

In Detroit some months ago a young man noticed some packing cases in the doorway of a clothing warehouse waiting to be expressed. On walking round the corner he saw an express delivery truck standing idle.

It was lunch hour and everyone was away. Jumping into the seat he drove back to the clothing warehouse. Calmly signing the express book he loaded the cases on the truck he had stolen and drove away—with several hundred dollars worth of clothing.

So daring was the theft that he might never have been traced but experts found a finger print on the same page as his fake signature in the express book. It proved to be that of a well known gangster. Throwing out their drag-net the police soon caught him.

His finger print was the means of sending him to jail for a long term.

Your Prints on Food—Danger!

This story is not told to warn you against stealing. You are not a thief, you do not need a warning. But you do need to be told of the dangers in finger prints—your prints. They may bring a dangerous disease to you—in this way. When you touch some fruit, a chocolate or a biscuit, your prints leave germs on the food. In your mouth these germs multiply a million fold and quickly attack your system.

These germs come from touching things other hands have touched—money, a book, a telephone or some playing cards. All day long you run this danger. Life Extension Institute lists 27 diseases which may be spread by the hands in this way. Colds are among them.

Avoid this Danger— with Lifebuoy

While we cannot avoid coming in contact with germs we can avoid the danger of infection by washing our hands with the right soap many times a day and particularly before meals. Not a wash with just any good soap but with Lifebuoy—Lifebuoy contains a germicide. Laboratory tests prove that it will kill or make dormant even deadly germs, where other soaps fail.

Once you have used Lifebuoy, you will realize why millions of people the world over use it for this splendid protection. And Lifebuoy is a wonderful help in caring for your complexion. It is a blend of two delightful palm oils and its soft, abundant, healing lather penetrates deeply into the pores of your skin, making it glow with health.

Protection against Odours

There is no perfume in Lifebuoy, just an extra-clean scent of safety which disappears at once but tells you it purifies and protects. A bath with Lifebuoy before you start the day's work assures you against body odours for many hours.

Why not use a soap which combines so many advantages? You will find it particularly good for children, for it helps to heal cuts and scratches which otherwise might become infected. Keep it always on the basin and for the bath. Let everyone in your home enjoy it and learn to adopt the Lifebuoy habit.

Get several cakes from your dealer to-day so that you will always have some on hand.

The RECORD SPEAKS for ITSELF

In a cigarette, as in a horse race, quality tells! Thoroughbreds that have the right blood in their veins, are the ones that win the richest stakes. And cigarettes like Turrets, that are exactly right in quality and flavour, are the ones that hold the records for popularity with discriminating smokers. After all, nothing can replace good, honest tobacco; grown and ripened right out in the field under nature's own sunlight—nothing artificial about that—and the high quality is "inbred."

The winnings of Gallant Fox in 1930 were the greatest of any thoroughbred in turf history for a single season—the world's record for successful racing.

both legs above the knees, one shoulder and arm shattered and side crushed.

C. J. Alexander had both legs broken below the knees while Pilot James Dodson sustained one broken leg and broken nose. Alexander and Dodson will recover providing infection has not set in.

The three survivors of the crash are now in hospital at Ketchikan where they were reported yesterday to be holding their own. The three injured men as well as Selig's body were taken to Ketchikan by the rescue plane which went out to search Monday morning after the Dodson plane had failed to return as expected.

Al Dano and C. J. Alexander were both cannery managers for the Alaska Salmon Packers' Corporation. The plane Sitka was here last night enroute down the coast to meet the motorship Northland and take off that vessel Gil Skinner, president of the Alaska Salmon Packers' Association, who is coming from Seattle, and rush him to Ketchikan.

Arrangements had not been completed yesterday at Ketchikan for the burial of Steve Selig, a former resident of Prince Rupert. Selig's father and several others of his brothers are said to have also met violent deaths including a brother, William Selig, who was run down and killed by a train at Cow Bay here several years ago. News of Selig's death came as a shock to many friends in Prince Rupert yesterday.

The wrecked plane, reported to be a total loss, was a Stinson Junior monoplane belonging to the Pioneer Airways of Ketchikan. It was well known in Prince Rupert.

The rescue plane, belonging to the Alaska-Washington Airways, was piloted by Gene Meyring with Frank Wadman as air engineer. It is the same plane which Pilot Anceel Eckmann used in the Renahan search last winter, being a sister ship of the one in which Pilot Renahan and his party were lost last fall. The Meyring plane, which arrived here yesterday afternoon from Ketchikan, continued down the coast this morning, expecting to meet the Northland today between Butedale and Bella Bella.

High praise will be voiced for the valour of Pilot James Dodson in so valiantly attempting to rescue his passengers despite the agony of his own broken leg. None but one of great strength and courage could have accomplished his feat of dragging the three helpless men to the beach from the wrecked plane, splinting his own leg and then starting to paddle away for help. It was another of those epics of courageous young aviators.
