DAILY EDITION Saturday, Nov. 21, 1931

THE UNEMPLOYED

For nearly a month a number of men have been kept at Cloyah Bay at the expense of the country but not engaged in any productive work. This is a mistake. The men would be better and happier working and the country would be getting something for the money expended.

Another thing in connection with the camps is that the men living there are penniless and in this weather suffer from lack of proper clothes. If they were working they would earn sufficient over and above their board to pay for their clothes.

When the work was shut down no protest was made because it was thought that the condition was only temporary. Now it has come to a stage where protest is necessary. A letter published today from the Unemployed Association sets forth the grievance of the men and is worthy of every consideration.

While it is said by some that the men are lucky to be well fed, as they are at present, it also becomes necessary in this climate that suitable clothes should be provided. The old clothes wear out, even if the men are not working.

It seems that this is the time for pressure to be brought to bear on the governments concerned to have the work on the highways in various parts of the country proceeded with instead of continuing the present objectionable system. The men are tired of idleness and the taxpayers are tired of paying for something for which they get no return.

DRASTIC ACTION

The British government is taking drastic action to put the country on a sound financial basis once more and incidentally to make an effort to bring about a more united Empire. Prior to that drastic action had been taken in Russia, although unconstitutional and accompanied by much bloodshed. Drastic action was also taken in Italy where a strong leader arose at a time when the country seemed without a leader. Other countries have seen firm action taken and if the present condition continues it may be necessary for a radical change in Canada and particularly in British Columbia. It is possible that we may muddle along in the old way without anything serious happening but at present there seems to be a policy of drift which pleases nobody and which is dangerous. People are becoming uneasy and many are looking around for a man who will lead the country out of the stagnating morass in which it finds itself.

Man in the Moon

This is the time of year when people "catch cold." Mostly they do so because they take too great care of themselves.

Tablets and gargles, pills and sprays. Open windows and careful diet, Brisk massages and violet rays, Calisthenics and absolute quiet—These are the aids on which we call. But the autumn sniffle survives them all.

Soothing sirups and and healing oils.

Daily dozens and icy showers, Tepid baths and electric coils, Bitter powders and regular hours Science summons to give us ease; But sooner or later comes the sneeze.

Helpful hints in the daily papers, Household remedies ages old, Strict avoidance of midnight capers All are mustered against the cold. Nevertheless, we croak and cough. When the fires are on, and the leaves are off.

The old folks used to say that troubles were sent to try them. Now Jake says the cold spell was sent to try the furnaces.

Policeman—Hey, come out of that. No bathing allowed here Dignified Man (in pond)—Pardon me, I'm not bathing—I'm drowning.

I was planning to buy some five cent Christmas cards to send to my friends but the cold spell came and the money is all gone up in smoke.

In case anyone wants to send me a Christmas present I want to say right here that I need cash more than anything else in the world.

Wouldn't I like to have money? Wouldn't I like to have time, To spend a few thousand dollars Without having to pinch each dime?

Jake says he does not care anything about the pound coming back but he wishes that dollar he invested in oils last year would come back.

The way to get a better job is to keep on friendly terms with the one you have.

CLOYAH BAY UNEMPLOYED

Editor, Daily News: What appears to be a serious condition is prevalent in the local road camp at Cloyah Bay, and to the mind of the relief workers needs airing in the columns of the Daily press.

It is to be understood that these workers are human and have acted in all instances as desirable citizens and consider rightly or wrongly, that they are working in a sacrificial capacity, willing to do work of a permanent and beneficial nature, at reduced wages, realizing that they should meet the emergency, facing the Government from a 50-50 angle.

When actual work was being carried on, conditions were none of the best, but they were able to receive some of the essentials necessary to raise them from the level of the brute, to the realm of the human, and now that the work has been stopped for well on to a month, the situation is becoming acute indeed.

It is commonly accepted that man shall not and cannot live by bread alone, and to be perfectly frank, the government has been "gracious" enough to feed the men still at the camp.

A commissary was established at the camp with the cognizance and approval of the Government, which contains sufficient of other necessities to make life liveable, and this letter is written for the specific purpose of drawing to the attention of the public that there are many in the camp, who are in dire need of clothing to protect them from the rigours of the winter weather. What is needed and what must be found is that the Government must make arrangements whereby these men can go to this commissary, obtain credit for these supplies, with the assurance that he himself, can liquidate this incurred debt, by a guarantee of work in the near future.

These men are not beggars and desire merely accommodation and facilities created by the powers that be, to enable them to get these supplies that are on the spot. The Commissar is willing to give the credit, if the Government will guarantee that the men will be afforded sufficient work to liquidate the debt, they may incur.

Furthermore it must be realized that tobacco and similar essentials to good conduct are within their grasp, yet far removed, a most exasperating state of affairs. Failing the Government, which may have no soul, is it not possible that a welfare fund could be started to meet these conditions, but permit these men to pay for their own way in the ultimate, and not to be objects of charity.

BASKETBALL IS EXCITING

Panthers Pulled Themselves Together and Beat C.N.R. 28-22 Last Night

FINE EXHIBITION
Merchants, Amazons and League of Nations Win Games

Senior—C.N.R. 25; Panthers, 28
Intermediate—Tuxis, 16; Merchants, 26
Ladies—Cardinals, 6; Amazons, 10
Junior—Japanese, 9; League of Nations, 14.

The game last night between C.N.R. and Panthers was probably one of the best senior basketball games that has been staged here for some time. It was a tough game for the Trainmen to lose for during the first half, they played brilliant basketball, finishing the half ahead 15-10. Their team play was excellent, and they flashed an exhibition of passing and concerted effort that was perfect. Possibly there has never been a better brand of basketball in senior games in the city in recent years. The whole team was co-ordinating beautifully and though the Panthers were working hard and flashing at times, their play was not as consistent, and their team play was marred by too much individual effort and long shooting that kept losing them possession of the ball. All through the game the play was clean and fast.

During the second half the fans were treated to one of those inexplicable reversals that come in every game, and which adds the thrill for the audience. McNulty and Kelsey went on a rampage of shooting that knocked down the five-point C.N.R. lead and kept the score tied during most of the second half with first one team to be lead and then the other. These two players, Kelsey and McNulty, simply ran wild, throwing in shots from the most impossible and unexpected angles. Such skill and good fortune combined cannot be explained, but it gave the Panthers renewed courage. They came to life, played toe-to-toe with the Trainmen, holding their lead, and pulling the game out of the fire. They were lucky to win to the tune of 28-25. However, the Trainmen, possibly a bit over-confident, missed an enormous number of shots in that second half. If Dan Morrison alone had sunk one-quarter of his attempts, the C.N.R. would have won by an easy and comfortable margin. For C.N.R. no one player was outstanding, all continuing in an effort that was a treat to witness, though Walter Johnson found his shooting eye and banged in ten good points.

For Panthers—Cross, Irvine, and Kelsey were the backbone of the team, while McNulty was high scorer. It was a lucky game for Panthers to win and a tough one for the Trainmen to lose. The teams:

C.N.R.—Styles 3; Smith 4; Morrison 4; Johnson 10; Stalker 4;—Total 25.

Panthers—Cross 4; Irvine 2; Macdonald 4; Kelsey 6; McNulty 13;—Total 28.

Referees—J. W. Plommer and H. Menzies.

Other results of the evening were as follows:

Intermediate
Tuxis—J. Morrison 2; R. Morrison, Thurber 9; Smith, Hanson, Nakamoto 6; Morley, Total 16.

Merchants—Pierce 6; E. Dingwell 14; F. Dingwell 2; Comadina, Currie 4; McNulty, Birrell, Total 26.

Ladies
Cardinals—Irvine, Gilchrist, Stone 2; Rivett, Lowe, Krikevsky 4. Total 6.

Amazons—Eoddis 2; Harvey 4; Morgan, Morris 2; Pritchard 2. Total 10.

Juniors
Japanese—Suehiro, Kishimoto 5; Ohata 2; Kanaya 2; Nakamoto, Condo, Total 9.

League of Nations—Antonella 2; Gillis 6; Arney, Allen 2; Yager, Dominato 4; Hill, Total 14.

Junior Play

The Junior game played between the League of Nations and the Japanese student was a hard fought struggle. The game was marked with strong checking and

"For more than 18 years I have smoked not less than 6 ounces of tobacco every week, so you can imagine how I felt, when a few months ago, every pipe I filled and smoked was distasteful. I changed my tobacco a dozen times, tried blending my own, smoked old pipes and new ones—all with unsatisfactory results. Three or four weeks passed before I got around to Turret pipe tobacco. Maybe it would give me back my happy days. From the very first whiff I knew that I had struck lucky—the flavour, to my mind, is its finest asset. And it lasts long too. I don't remember a pipe tobacco with such long burning qualities."

Very Enjoyable

Men's Recreation Association Staged Affair in I. O. D. E. Hall—125 Are Present

The Men's Recreation Club staged a very enjoyable Scottish dance last night in the I. O. D. E. Hall. There were about 125 persons in attendance and a splendid time was enjoyed by all.

The affair was in progress from 9 p.m. until 2 a.m. and music was dispensed by an orchestra consisting of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. MacKay, James L. Lee, John Bremner and James Watt. J. Haddon was master of ceremonies.

At midnight delicious refreshments were served.

NO BILLIARDS ARE PLAYED LAST NIGHT

No games were played last night in the scheduled Billiard League fixture between Elks and Canadian Legion. Neither was the postponed game of William Mitchell vs. Geo. Waugh in last Tuesday night's Express vs. Grotto match played.

as a result, the score was low. During the first half the Japanese had the better combination but the League of Nations were the more accurate shooters. The second half was a continuation of the defensive play of the first half. Play was clean but was not as fast as in previous games. Gillis was good for the League of Nations for he used his advantage in size and weight with great effect. Near the end of the game the League of Nations gave an exhibition of accurate shooting and increased their lead.

Intermediate Game

The Intermediate game was a good exhibition of fast and clear play. The Merchants had the advantage of size and weight where the Tuxis were superior in speed and team-work. During the first half the Tuxis played a defensive game and they succeeded in intercepting almost every play engineered by the Merchants. Their forward line for the Tuxis, while Eric Dingwell was a dead shot for the Merchants.

The second half of the game was probably the best. Nakamoto set an extremely fast pace for the Tuxis and although they were encouraged by the cheering fans yet they were unable to break through the stalwart defence put up by Currie and Dingwell for the Merchants. Finally the Tuxis began to tire and they again resorted to a defensive game. Roy Morrison worked tremendously hard around but the Tuxis team gradually wearied, probably due to the lack of weight. Towards the end the Merchants had it pretty well their own way.

Ladies' Game

The girls' game was played exceptionally well. It seems that every game they play they develop a better brand of basketball. Their team-work and shooting have certainly been vastly improved. The game last evening was clean and was played with remarkable speed and as a result scoring opened early in the game. Both teams were evenly matched and showed great accuracy in scoring long shots. Almost every basket was a fast basket. Sue Boddie played exceptionally well for the Amazons while Lillian Lowe was the backbone of the Cardinals. Towards the end of the game play became extremely fast and before the final whistle the Cardinals had reduced the Amazons lead to two points.

Married or Single Life Discussion

Last evening the Anglican Young People's Association met in the Cathedral Hall. There was a discussion on the subject of "Married or Single Blessedness." Much merit was afforded by the speaker, Miss L. Halliwell, Mr. Bailey and W. N. Appleyard.

Following the meeting refreshments were served by Miss Winnie Tucker.

21—Count 'Em—Perch on Ford Body

The strength of the Ford steel body was strikingly demonstrated in this photograph caught by a newspaper cameraman during the recent American Legion convention in Detroit. Twenty-one persons perched on this Ford coupe to view the parade. Thirteen are on the top of the body, one each on the right fender, hood and cowl, two on the rear deck and one each on the left running board, left rear fender and spare tire. Can you count them?

Alaska Trollers Had Bad Year—Big Fleet Gathers at Dry Dock—Conference Next Week

This has been a tough year for trollers, according to E. H. Frederickson of Ketchikan, vice-president of the Alaska Trollers' Association, of the power boat Ketchum II, who has quit fishing for the season. "Many of the trollers," he said, "are up against it for the winter. It is a serious question with some of them how they will get through and support their families. Some of them did not make enough to buy gasoline for their boats to return to Ketchikan. When you hear about big money made by trollers at any time just put it down as a 'pipe dream.' During favorable years when the price is good possibly a few boats do make good money but you can count them on the ends of your fingers. The majority have a hard time to make both ends meet for the season's work." Mr. Frederickson will leave Ketchikan soon in his boat for Seattle to pay a visit to his aged parents near Bellingham. At an election held in September the Alaska Trollers Association elected officers who will assume their new duties. M. J. Nordstrom of Ketchikan was re-elected president; Peter Jensen of Ketchikan was re-elected secretary and S. A. Walker of Craig was elected vice-president.

Experimental Shipment
The first regular shipment following the experimental shipment of quick frozen fish across Canada was made from Prince Rupert shortly before the close of the 1931 fishing season. The fish was dispatched for consumption in the United States and Canada and is understood to have reached the East in good shape.

Quite a fleet is assembling at the local dry dock for winter storage, the coastal steamer Prince George, which moved in Sunday afternoon, being the latest addition to the vessels that have been tied up there for the next few months. Already there were the ocean freighters Canadian Seigneur and Canadian Spinner and the coastal ships Prince Charles and Prince William. Welcome repair work will be carried out on the coast boats before they go out next spring. The ss. Prince Rupert before spring will come in to the yard for overhaul, the Prince George going out to take her place. Before the winter is over the Prince John will also come into the dock with the Prince Charles going out to take her place. There have been numerous rumors that the Canadian Seigneur had been sold by the Canadian National to Japanese interests and would soon be leaving the yard. No move has, however, been made as yet by the vessel and no official information on the matter is available here.

Long Hunting Trips

Hunting trips of a week or so duration in larger boats to more remote points in the district have been the order of the day lately. Hunting parties have been meeting with pretty consistent success, particularly in the matter of deer hunting. While the deer seem to be possibly more plentiful than ever, the bird hunters have not been having as good luck as usual so far. Bags of geese and ducks have been considerably below average.

Those doughty huntsmen, Bill Watts, Tom Beattie and Alex Finlay returned home at the middle of this week following a ten-day hunting trip to Porcher Island. They had a bag with which they were, apparently satisfied although it is reported that the batting average was not so hot with at least some of the trio. In any case, they had a fine outing under weather conditions which were ideal the most of the time and all feel benefited as a result of the trip and change of scene.

Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock saw the return of the fish packer Tedway, Capt. Johnny Hartlin from a five-day trip to Stewart, Anyox and Alice Arm with Olo Hanson, M.P., Ald. J. H. Pillsbury, Ald. H. F. Pullen, John Dybband and M. P. McCaffery on board. The travellers reported that weather in the north was distinctly on the cool side. It being around zero at some of the points visited. Seas were rather rough on the trip north but apart from that, the hunt proved an enjoyable one for each of the quintet.

Preparing Case

Considerable interest attaches itself to the conference which will be held here next week in regard to various phases of the fisheries. W. A. Found, deputy-minister of fisheries for Canada, and by the International Fisheries Commission Mr. Found, at a public session on Wednesday, will hear matters particularly pertaining to the salmon fishery. On Thursday the International Fisheries Commission will sit to deal more specifically with the question of future halibut conservation measures. At the conference with Mr. Found the Northern British Columbia Fishermen's Association is planning to take a leading part while the Canadian Halibut Vessel Owners' Association will have in hand the case for the halibut men at the session of the International Fisheries Commission.

Commercial fishing in Babine, Chapman and Fulton Lakes near Telkwa has been opposed by the Smithers District Chamber of Commerce. It is reported that a Francois Lake the supply of food for the resident population has been seriously depleted through the activities of commercial fishing firms. It was decided to have a petition drawn up and signed opposing the carrying on of commercial fishing operations in these central interior lakes.

A fishy old fisher named Fischer fished from the edge of a fissure; A fish with a grin Pulled the fisherman in, Now they are fishing the fissure for Fischer.

Fishermen's Views

The quota system, of attaching Japanese licences to canneries in District No. 2 came in for considerable criticism at a conference a few days ago in Vancouver between south coast fishermen and W. A. Found, deputy minister of fisheries in Canada. It was asserted that although 16 Skeena River canneries are allotted Japanese licences, only seven operated last season and these quotas still remained a valuable asset to the owning company which "under protection of present laws can traffic with impunity in this modern slavery. One of the eight companies which operated on the Skeena River this year had no allotment but it is alleged that Japanese licences were sold or bartered to them in exchange for other privileges." Purse-seine and gill-net fishermen clashed on some of the suggested amendments which would permit seiners to operate in areas now exclusively used by gill-netters. The latter were anxious that no change be made while the seiners claimed that some of the best fish were escaping the nets and they should be permitted to fish for them. William Sykes, Bella Coola gillnetter, alleged that already "purse seine boats were lining up at the mouths of the rivers like battleships. No fish are spared at all. Almost every law in the catalogue is being evaded." A recommendation that purse seining be permitted in Ogden Channel will be further discussed at the meeting to be held next week in Prince Rupert.

Mysterious disappearance of salmon fishermen's nets on the Naas River which for years has baffled all explanation has at last been solved as a result of investigations made by Dr. E. H. Martin of the University of Toronto at the instance of the Biological Board of Canada. The innocent jellyfish are blamed by Dr. Martin for the phenomenon. Mud on the nets was found by Dr. Martin attached to gelatinous fibres of jellyfish and other marine organisms which, though killed in fresh water, retained the dirt, filled the webs of the gillnets and had overcome the buoyancy of the floats sufficiently to sink the valuable nets. It was ascertained that the phenomenon occurred when marine life was most abundant, especially in July and August, and preceded exceptionally high tides which rapidly mixed river water with sea water containing the abundant marine life.

Cruises Around World After First Season

Tired, like any debutante after the hectic gaieties of her first season, the young lady who, immediately after her presentation at the Court of King Neptune last May, became a leader of society, leaves shortly for a leisurely cruise around the world.

The young lady in question, the 42,500-ton Canadian Pacific liner "Empress of Britain" has just concluded her first Atlantic season during which her parties, amongst the most brilliant ever held on the Western Ocean, have been attended by more representatives of rank and fashion than Ward McAllister dreamed of.

Princes, Ambassadors, Earls, Viscounts, Baronets, Knights of many of the highest orders of chivalry and their ladies have vied for her favour; and the highest aristocracy of North America, the noble Iroquois Indians, paid their homage when they conferred Chieftainship upon Captain R. G. Latta (niet) commander of the Empress of Britain, and Commodore of the Canadian Pacific fleet.

Regaining the Blue Ribband of the Atlantic for the British Empire on her second voyage by making the crossing to Father Point, Quebec, in four days 12 hours, 30 minutes, thus breaking the previous continent to continent record by four hours and 36 minutes, the Empress of Britain did not rest on her laurels, and since that date has broken her own record on five other occasions. On her final voyage of the season she crossed in seven hours and 49 minutes less than the best record between Cherbourg and New York.

Starting December 3rd, from New York, the Empress will visit 39 ports before, after a complete circle of the world, she returns to the Atlantic. Her guests will bring back with them when they reach New York again, April 8th, 1932, fragrant memories of Madeira, Gibraltar, Algeria, Monaco, France, Italy, Greece, Palestine, Egypt, India, Ceylon, Sumatra, Java, Straits Settlements, Federated Malay States, Siam, the Philippines, China, Japan, Hawaii, Panama and Cuba.

She will be the largest and fastest vessel ever to cruise around the world.
