

TRY TO EXTEND USE OF WHEAT COMMONS' HECTIC DEBATE OVER BEAUHARNOIS

The city...king bids for Douglas fir...umber for use in local construction. It is claimed is better lumber and will last longer than spruce, hemlock or cedar which are produced locally.

It is claimed by the managers of the local mill that spruce or hemlock will last just as long as Douglas fir in this climate and that the carload of lumber would keep local men employed in the cutting and would help the mill to tide over a difficult period, whereas nothing would be gained by importing fir from the south.

This is a case in which experience is the only test. Prince Rupert has been here over twenty years and since the early days much lumber has been in use. There ought to be some way of deciding definitely if local lumber is as good as the imported. If it is, it should be used.

We suggest that those who have definite knowledge on this subject come forward and make their information public. We want to know definitely. If spruce or hemlock or cedar will last for ten years on local sidewalks we contend that it should be given the preference but if Douglas fir is much better and will last much longer, no more can be said.

Incidentally, we are of opinion that local lumber can be purchased for less than the imported variety. We suggest quick action in regard to this as the contract for the lumber is to be let at once.

PARTICULARS OF FATALITY

Bridge Over Boundary Creek Near Silver Heights Easy to Fall Over

Further particulars of the untimely death of Jack Crawford, in Boundary Creek, near Silver Heights Salmon River, last weekend have been received. Crawford, aged 53, a packer in the employ of the Crawford Transfer Company, at the time of the accident, was apparently on his way from one of the road houses at Thirteen Mile on the Salmon River road, to the bunk-house of his employers.

The bridge is not railed in and on a dark night without a light is very difficult to negotiate. The deceased evidently stumbled against the low guard rail (for wagons) and fell over into the creek, a distance of from fifteen to twenty feet and was rendered unconscious by his head coming in contact with the rocks. This coupled with exposure to the elements and the ice cold waters of the creek resulted in his death. Dr. Robinson of Premier, who examined the body found bruises on the skull which, however, was not fractured. Subsequent post mortem examination revealed the fact that one of the kidneys was fractured.

Clay Porter, well known Portland Canal mining man, is a passenger aboard the Prince Rupert today returning to Stewart after having spent the winter in the south.

Premier Makes Announcement Regarding Beauharnois Power Development Project

Bitter Attack

Many Serious Allegations Made Over St. Lawrence Deal

OTTAWA, May 20.—In the House of Commons yesterday, Premier R. B. Bennett announced that he would refer the whole question of Beauharnois power development to either the parliamentary banking and commerce committee or a select committee of the House of Commons.

The Premier said that the contention of Robert Gardiner, United Farmer of Alberta member for Acadia, that a canal being constructed by the company was not in accordance with the order-in-council was incorrect. Mr. Gardiner precipitated the Beauharnois discussion when he moved adjournment of the House "to discuss a matter of urgent public importance." It developed into one of the most hectic days of the session. Mr. Speaker George Black on many occasions called members to order for using extravagant language and for other transgressions of the debating rules of the House.

The whole Beauharnois project was held up as a gigantic conspiracy to secure for private interests the entire flow of the St. Lawrence River for hydraulic purposes. Allegations of fraud, misrepresentation and improper dealings were levelled against the promoters. Charges were made that members of the Senate were interested in the power scheme. It was insinuated that Beauharnois officials had attempted to corrupt the judiciary of the province of Quebec.

Rt. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King, Liberal leader, welcomed an investigation because some members of the United Farmers of Alberta, Labor and Progressive groups "will get a chance then to make good some of the general statements they have been making on the floor of this House about judges, members of parliament and everyone else who does not happen to be one of their number."

Mr. Gardiner quoted Senator Wilfrid L. McDougald as telling the Senate that he did not own stock in the Beauharnois company. Mr. Gardiner declared that he had evidence to prove that Senator McDougald was interested in the promotion of the Beauharnois Light, Heat & Power Co. and that he had received securities valued at $30,000,000 by the Beauharnois company.

Mining Merger at Stewart Planned — Gold Ore in Big Missouri — Activity in Chickamin

Reports of a proposed mining merger in the Salmon River section are exciting much speculation in Stewart. The companies mentioned in the consolidation are the Woodbine, Premier Extension and Alaska Canadian. If such a deal were consummated, it would be a good thing for mining in that district. The three companies control property amounting to some five hundred acres and extend about a mile and a half along the main gold zone of the district. Hugh McGuire, managing director of the

B. C. SILVER IS CLOSED

Entire Crew, With Exception of One Man, Laid Off

STEWART, May 20:—Acting on instructions from the head office of the company, D. H. Rae, superintendent of the B. C. Silver Mines Limited, laid off the crew, with the exception of one man who remains as watchman, last Saturday.

No information can be obtained here as to the future policy of the company. Speculation is rife as to whether the company has come to an understanding with the Premier Gold Mining Company, which adjoins the property and who hold a 38% interest in the B. C. Silver. Negotiations have been in progress for some time, it is reported, to operate the B. C. Silver holdings on a basis mutually agreeable to the owners of both properties.

Work Resumed On Lucky Lake In Usk District

Work on the Lucky Lake group at Usk has been returned by Mr. Glover of Seattle who will be foreman. Last year the company did a lot of assessment work and this year will go after development on a somewhat larger scale.

Columario Is Working Now

Good Deal of Work Being Done on Two Veins of Ore in Usk Property

SMITHERS, May 20:—Capt. John Willman of Usk, superintendent of the Columario mining property, was a visitor to Smithers recently. He reported a good deal of work being done on the Columario on two veins of ore.

Woodbine Gold Mining Co., has admitted that such a proposal has been considered and that more details would be made public after the annual meeting of his company which is to be called soon. Charles Lake has also been in Vancouver lately in connection with the affairs of Woodbine.

William Bunting, formerly of Premier mine, is now mining in Alaska and is planning for an early start north this season.

Development of the Metcalf-Fendley property on Banded Mountain in the Chickamin Glacier area is beginning, the necessary finances having been provided by C. L. Hibbard of Seattle. George Lemmons, C. N. Crone and W. W. Metcalf of Hyder have joined Joe Fendley, Bert Bobo and Ole Twedt at the property.

Recent arrivals from the Portland Canal district have displayed ore from the Big Missouri mine which indicates an important gold strike. Mining men consider this most important because the Big Missouri has been believed to be a huge complex ore proposition. While official information regarding the recent strike of gold ore is lacking, the samples speak louder than could any official report. It is stated that a strong vein of this high-grade ore has been struck and development is disclosing extraordinary values to the great satisfaction of the owners.

S. P. Fitzgerald, who returned to Stewart recently after wintering in Vancouver and Seattle, looks for an early revival of activity in the Portland Canal district especially if the price of silver rises to a reasonable mining figure. Some assessment work is to be done on the Independence property with Mr. Fitzgerald in charge with the possibility that regular operations may be resumed before the end of the year.

LOOKS FOR REVIVAL IN STEWART MINING

VANCOUVER, May 20:—Al Pratt who is spending most of his time just now in Vancouver, looks for an early revival of interest in the Bear River area.

I was feeling very much run down in health, and was so weak I could scarcely do my housework, in fact, I would have to lie down in the afternoon for an hour or so. Poses as Stranger When His Victim is Found Dead

Finger Print Betrays Him

A man was seen running towards a motor car which had crashed into a tree in a park in London. He told the police he was hurrying to give assistance to a man in the car who later was found to be dead.

The police arrested him on suspicion. They took his finger prints. He was a well known automobile thief. Then the police searched the car for finger prints and found one on the driving wheel. It corresponded with the thief's. The dead man had been a victim of careless driving on the part of the crook, who was held without bail by a coroner's jury on a charge of manslaughter.

These are finger prints used to protect society and to bring arrest and conviction to criminals.

Your Danger Prints on Foods

You may be surprised to learn that your finger prints are just as dangerous to you—in another way. Not through crime because you are not a criminal—but through disease germs—many kinds of them.

Your fingers pick up germs all day long from things which other hands have touched. These other hands may have checked a cough or a sneeze and so become covered with germs. Then when you touch some article of food your fingers leave on it these germs which enter your mouth and so attack your system. Life Extension Institute has shown that germs of 27 diseases—some very deadly—may be passed around in this way—among them, "flu" and colds.

The Pleasant Way to Safety

These germs must be removed from your hands many times a day—and always before meals. Germs are stubborn things—they resist heat and cold—but one thing they cannot resist—and that is the germicide in Lifebuoy Soap.

Laboratory tests proved it killed even virulent germs when other soaps had no effect on them. Think what a service this is to find in a soap—especially how important for children who are even more thoughtless about what they touch than adults. Yet Lifebuoy is a pleasant—a delightful soap to use.

Brings Beauty Aid

With two fine palm oils as its base, Lifebuoy is also a beauty soap, its creamy, luxurious lather brings health and beauty to the complexion as well as safety from germs. Why not take advantage of both these important factors? Millions all over the world do, every day. You will note a refreshing scent of safety—not a perfume—in Lifebuoy, which vanishes soon after use.

For freedom from body odour trust to the refreshing Lifebuoy lather. For protection from germs—a great service—keep a cake of Lifebuoy always on the wash basin. Teach the children to wash regularly with Lifebuoy. It is the Health Soap for all the family. Get a supply from your dealer today. Lever Brothers Limited, Toronto

BILLY TOWNSEND BEATS PORTILLO

Seattle Boy Made Poor Showing in Fight Against Vancouver Boxer

VANCOUVER, May 20.—Billy Townsend, welterweight, scored one of the most unimpressive victories in his career recently when he outpointed Tony Portillo of Seattle in a 10-round bout. Townsend was given the unanimous decision of the judges and referee, but the verdict was greeted with boos from the fans. Portillo actually took only the third round, walloping his opponent from side to side with a two-fisted attack. The rest of the time the Seattle boxer was on the defensive.

AMERICAN ELIMINATED

WESTWARD HO, Eng., May 20.—George Voight of New York, the last United States contender, was eliminated today in the fifth round of the British open amateur golf championship by Syd Roper, the British star, by a margin of one up.

SPORT CHAT

About a score of thoroughbreds will go to the post in the seventy-second renewal of the King's Plate at Woodbine Park in Toronto this Saturday. They will be contesting the oldest horse race run continuously on the continent. The King's Plate (it was the Queen's Plate then) had royal patronage from its beginning in 1860, and has come to be the classic of the Canadian turf, with the same appeal in this part of the Dominion as the Derby at Epsom Downs or the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs.

And like all great horse races the King's Plate has its glorious uncertainties. For a time during the winter it looked as though the 1931 Plate would be a walkover for R. W. R. Cowie's fine colt Frothblower. Frothblower, by Cudgel out of Chrystoberil, won four starts and was second four times out of his eight races as a two-year old last season. The only horses to beat him were the Seagram Stable's Spherette and Connie Smythe's Rare Jewel. And both Spherette and Rare Jewel died during the winter. Frothblower, however, will face strong opposition when the barrier is sprung and the field is off on the mile and an eighth race which has $10,000 added and the King's 50 Guineas waiting at the finishing post. The Seagram Stable holds a strong card in Freethinker, Golaider and Tee Dance. The Thorncliffe Stable, winners with Shoreline two years ago, have a promising pair of contenders in Bronze and Oil Rite. R. H. New, winner last year with Aymond, pins his hopes on the four-year old Par Excellence and the three-year old Royal Guest. Besides the eight named, there is always the possibility of surprise from the lesser known runners.

WINS FOR FIRST TIME

Round House Defeats Offices 10 to 8 in Softball Game

Round House won its first game in the Canadian National Recreation Association's Softball League last evening by scoring a 10 to 8 victory over Offices. At the start of the eighth inning, Offices had a lead of 8-7 but the Round House was able to score three runs in that stanza. Try as they would, the Offices were unable to top this lead of 10-8 in the ninth and so the game ended with a fair enough win for the Round House.

Wicks and Tulloch were the pick of the Round House team while Hibbard and Allen starred for the Offices. Batteries were Tulloch and Peterson for Round House and Boulter and Arney for Offices.

The standing to date is as follows:

| | W. | L. | Pts. |
| Station | 3 | 1 | 3 |
| Offices | 2 | 2 | 2 |
| Round House | 1 | 3 | 1 |

Big Crowd At Entertainment

Even more persons were in attendance last night at the Canadian National Recreation Association's Monte Carlo entertainment than on the first evening. All present had a very enjoyable time. The whole affair was very successful financially and otherwise.

WAS FIRST B.C. MOTHER

Bodies of Mother and Babe in Nameless Grave On Queen Charlotte Islands

In a nameless grave on a hillside of the Queen Charlottes was found the skeleton of a young mother and her new-born babe—the first white mother of whom there is any trace in British Columbia.

According to N. de Bertrand Lugin, who tells her story in "Pioneer Women of Vancouver Island," she came to the Pacific Coast more than 150 years ago. A fur trader's ship, overtaking a sinking vessel, found only two persons left alive—the captain and his beautiful daughter.

"The father died soon after, leaving his child in the care of the master of the rescued vessel," wrote Miss Lugin, "who had promptly become enamoured of her and urged his suit. But she was very young and the thought of mating with a man of middle age was repugnant to her. Besides, the gallant and handsome second officer was also very much in love with her, and he was little more than a lad."

The story goes on to tell how the cruel captain got his revenge by thrusting the young girl and her lover out on the North Pacific in an open boat. Weather proved kind to them, and they eventually drifted ashore on the Queen Charlotte Islands, where the Indians took the fair-haired girl for a goddess.

For a time she moved about among the Indians, helping to nurse their sick and care for their children, but when her own baby was born she died. Such is the legend of the first white mother to come to this coast.

John Strombeck Continuing Work on Alice Arm Property

ALICE ARM, May 20.—J. Strombeck, a pioneer prospector of the Alice Arm district, has freighted supplies over the Dolly Varden railway for transportation to the upper Moose property in the Upper Kit-sault country. Mr. Strombeck, with his brother Gus, located and sold the Toric property in the Alice Arm district. The lure of the high grade is as strong as ever, says the report.

PAMPHLET WAS HOAX

Document Regarding English Boys Coming Here Believed to Have Been Practical Joke

Recently there was circulated around the city a pamphlet which purported to be supporting a campaign for the bringing in of 30,000 boys from England to take the jobs of Canadians. The following from Vancouver Sun in regard to same is of interest:

A hoax perpetrated by an unknown Vancouver resident caused a stir in the Trades and Labor Congress in Toronto last night.

To the congress was read a pamphlet, purporting to be issued by "J. T. Brown, Canada Hall, 1640 Alberni Street," and urging that 30,000 English public school boys be placed in Canada in preference to Canadian-born boys.

There is no "J. T. Brown" and no "Canada Hall" at that address. The city directory lists Nielson Gilbert, card writer, as the occupant of 1640 Alberni.

The Vancouver Sun learned that the pamphlet was prepared and issued as a species of practical joke.

CREDIT BUREAU

The chief matter of discussion at the dinner meeting of Prince Rupert Retail Merchants' Association was the proposed establishment in the city of a retail merchants' credit information bureau. A committee was appointed to go more fully into plans for such an establishment and to recommend action at the next monthly meeting.

Inspired by recent burglaries, there was also discussion of the policing of the city during the early morning period. It was decided to interview the chief of police to ascertain if it would not be possible to have more men on after 3 a.m.

The dinner was presided over by John Bulger, the president, and there was a good attendance of members.

Charles R. Settemeier, pioneer Dawson newspaperman and now interested in mining at Mayo, was a passenger aboard the Princess Alice this morning returning to the Yukon after having spent the winter in the south.

Terrace Man Not Guilty of Keeping Liquor For Sale

TERRACE, May 20.—Before Magistrate Kenney on Monday L. Chretien was summoned on a charge of keeping beer in his house for sale.

Constable McKenney told the court that he had seen two men leave the defendant's place under the influence of liquor and, when he spoke to them, they told him they had had a drink with Chretien. As a result he obtained a warrant and searched the premises on which he found 299 bottles containing beer.

Under cross-examination he admitted that he judged the contents of the bottles was beer because of its appearance and smell.

For the defence several witnesses were produced, all of whom stated that they had had drinks with Chretien at his home as friends but that they had never paid for the drink and had never been asked to pay.

Defendant stated that he made the decoction himself because he found it cheaper than tea or coffee, and that now and again he shared it with his friends.

The defendant was adjudged not guilty and the prosecution gave notice of appeal.

PLAN FOR FLAG DAY

Lillian Jones is May Queen With Audrey Parkin and Inez Pettenuzo, Maids of Honor

On June 3, the Prince Rupert Elks, with the assistance of the Ladies of the Royal Purple, are crowning their seventh May Queen.

The May Queen elect this year is Miss Lillian Jones, aged 15 years, and the daughter of Mrs. R. Jones, Second Ave., of this city. The Maids of Honor are Miss Audrey Parkin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Parkin and a pupil of Miss Mills of Borden Street School and Miss Inez Pettenuzo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Pettenuzo and a pupil of the Catholic School, Borden St.

The crowning of the May Queen this year will take place at the Exhibition Hall on the evening of June 3. The Elks have again obtained the services of Miss Halliwell in training the Maypole Dances and this feature will again be one of the most interesting on the program.

The Flag Day program will start at 1 o'clock in the afternoon when a monster parade of school children will be started off from the Westholme Theatre. The Boys' Band will be in attendance and there will be also the usual Flag Day clowns along with other interesting features. On the arrival of the parade at Acropolis Hill, a sport program will be carried out and that is one item of the day which will be more attractive than ever.

In the evening, after the crowning of the May Queen ceremonies, there will be a dance.

WHEN price counts—there is no need to buy cheap, cut-price tires which are not backed and serviced by a reputable company. Buy the Dominion Endurance—made, sold and serviced by Canada's oldest rubber organization, with dealers everywhere!

The Dominion Endurance is a low-priced tire—although it is built of materials that are of typical Dominion standards of quality, and that give extra wear.

If you want to keep your tire investment to an absolute minimum, buy the Endurance—it is the finest tire that can be made to sell at its very low price.

Dominion dealers will sell you Dominion Tires and Inner Tubes and give you good service when you want it. When you buy, buy Dominion quality.
