Famous Socialist is Killed In Italian Strike Troubles

Socialist and Anarchist Flags and Banners Carried at Funeral of Zampa; Cessation of Work is General Throughout Italy.

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
ROME, December 5.—Ten persons dead and more than 100 wounded and 1,000 under arrest sums up the result of the general strike in Italy, called by Socialists as a result of demonstrations against them on Monday in Rome at the reopening of Parliament. In addition shop windows were broken and shops were sacked in Milan.

Resentment over the strike has spread throughout the country. Notwithstanding this, however, and contrary to the announcement in the Chamber of Deputies by the Socialist Deputy Treves that there would be a cessation of the strike at midday, Socialists continued to walk out today in Rome, as a sign of mourning for the Socialist, Zampa, who was killed during the disorders.

Socialists and anarchists carrying flags and banners participated today in the funeral of Zampa.

GOVERNMENT STEAMER ASHORE ON ST. MARY'S ISLAND IN THE GULF

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
HALIFAX, Dec. 5.—The Government steamer Aranmore went ashore on St. Mary's Island in the Gulf of St. Lawrence while racing to supply the government posts in the vicinity of Belle Isle with provisions for the winter. The message stated that the crew had got away in boats and inferred that they were hauling the steamer off. The loss would entail considerable hardship for residents of the Labrador coast.

The Gurvich liquor case was up in the police court again yesterday morning and was again adjourned until the finding of the government analyst is received. The hearing is now set for tomorrow morning but it is expected that the case will be adjourned.

Lieut. Wilfred Macdonald left for Victoria last night where he will go into the Military Hospital and complete treatment for wounds received overseas. He has been spending a couple of weeks' furlough at his home here.

By special arrangement, Mary Pickford in "Daddy Longlegs" will be run Saturday Matinee only from 3:30 to 6, for the benefit of those who failed to see this great production.

Prince and Peers Watch Carpentier Knock out Big Joe Beckett in London

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
LONDON, December 5.—Georges Carpentier, the French champion, knocked out Joe Beckett, champion of England, last night in a brief one-sided fight for the heavyweight championship of Europe and to decide whether Carpentier or Beckett should meet Jack Dempsey, the United States champion, in June next.

From the moment referee Angland called time, Carpentier had the fight entirely in his own hands. Beckett never had a chance of hitting the Frenchman, who landed blows with enormous strength whenever he felt inclined.

Amid absolute silence most of the spectators could hear the terrific crack of the swing that put Beckett to sleep.

There was a roar of cheering as Carpentier assisted Beckett to his corner where the Englishman opened his astonished eyes and saw his opponent being carried on the shoulders of some of the spectators around the ring.

Distinguished Audience.
The fight was attended by the Prince of Wales, peers and peeresses, members of the House of Commons, high officials of state and many women, most of them in evening dress.

Joe Beckett entered the ring weighing fourteen pounds heavier than Carpentier. Odds were given to the big Englishman on the strength of his greater weight and greater height and reach. The Frenchman, however, had skill and dash to fight against the ruggedness and endurance of the Briton.

Their Records.
Carpentier has not had a ring engagement since 1914 of any importance and served all through the war with the French army but seemed to have led a charmed life.

SIR D. HAZEN FOR CABINET

That is Rumor in Ottawa Today Where the Chief Justice is Visiting.

SIR GEORGE FOSTER
HIGH COMMISSIONER

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

OTTAWA, Dec. 5.—The presence in Ottawa of Sir Douglas Hazen, chief justice of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick, and of R. W. Wigmore, M. P. for St. John, has revived the rumor that Sir Douglas will return to the cabinet of Sir Robert Borden, which he left for the bench some years ago. The fact that they are here adds circumstantiality to the report, especially since it is stated that they were summoned here by the premier.

There is a vacancy in the cabinet at present. The department of customs was left without a head when Hon. A. L. Sifton succeeded Mr. Carvell as minister of public works.

Lloyd Harris is about the capital and his name is once more connected with the portfolio of trade and commerce. This presumes the retirement of Sir Geo. E. Foster, a veteran of five governments and one opposition. It has been taken as a matter of course that Sir George would succeed Sir George Perley as Canadian High Commissioner in London.

J. F. Marten had a nasty shaking up this morning when he slipped on the sidewalk at the corner of Third Ave. and Second St., in front of Harry Atkins' Butcher shop. He was carried stumped into Baggie's furniture store where he regained consciousness in a few minutes.

Coal Famine Grows Acute Everywhere

Hamilton is on Rations and Border Towns are Seriously Affected by Shortage; No Fuel Coming From States.

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
HAMILTON, December 5.—Hamilton is facing the most acute coal famine in the history of the city. Many commercial and industrial concerns are short of bituminous coal and the schools are on a ration basis.

WINDSOR, Ont., December 5.—The fuel situation in the border cities was never so serious as it is today. The natural gas supply also seems to be giving way.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 5.—The Federal Grand Jury has been called for next Monday morning to investigate the charges that the coal operators are in league with the miners in a conspiracy to violate the Lever Act.

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—With the closing of thousands of the less essential industries and the throwing out of employment of 20,000 men and the adoption of a six and a half hour business day for stores and offices, Chicago yesterday felt the first practical effects of the coal famine. Theatres are limited to five evening performances a week and one matinee. Services on the local train and suburban roads have been cut down to minimum requirements.

OTTAWA, Dec. 5.—The fuel section of the Canada Trade Commission received no notification that the movement of coal from the United States is under way. The central coal committee of the United States administration has allotted 150 cars of soft coal a day to the Dominion, but so far none of this coal has been received in Canada. Dominion authorities claim that Canada is now short two million tons of her normal supply.

DANGER POINTS IN THE EAST

Germany's Adventure in Baltic States is Ended and She Must Evacuate.

BOLSHEVIST ACTIVITY
REPORTED IN TURKEY

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

LONDON, Dec. 5.—Germany's adventure in the Baltic states may be considered ended from a military point of view, according to the War Office summary of the week's events. The situation of the Germans who are being attacked on three sides by Lettish and Estonians is critical, says the summary, and it is hard to see how they can longer delay evacuation.

Another threat of potentially grave possibilities is in Turkey where Bolshevist activities are reported to be increasing. The Taskent Government has sent a commissary to Moys, in Russian Trans-Caspia and it is also stated that Lenin, the Bolshevik Premier, has despatched some German Orientalists from Moscow to spread Bolshevist propaganda. A number of these have gone to India, Persia and the Far East.

METHODIST CHURCH

On Sunday next, December 7, the Rev. W. H. Barraclough, B. A., of the Central Methodist Church, Moncton, N. B., will speak in the interests of the Inter-Church Forward Movement.

In the morning Mr. Barraclough will preach in the Anglican Church and in the evening at the Methodist Church.

A hearty invitation to attend these services is extended to you. You will be delighted with the speaker.

O'DONNELL IS DISCUSSED IN THE COMMONS

Arrest of Priest Showed Unfair Circumstances But Not Calling for Apology.

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

LONDON, Dec. 5.—Joseph Devlin, Nationalist, asked for the passage of a motion for the adjournment of the House of Commons to discuss the arrest in Ireland of Father O'Donnell, the Australian chaplain, on a charge of using traitorous and disloyal language.

Father O'Donnell was acquitted by the court martial before which he was tried.

Devlin's resolution declared "the intolerable outrage against Father O'Donnell calls for the immediate reprobation of the House of Commons and the dismissal of officials responsible." Discussion of the case developed no sensational incidents.

Winston Spencer Churchill, the secretary for war, defended the Government from any motive of animosity. He admitted that there were some unfair circumstances but nothing that called for an apology.

Devlin's motion was talked out and no division was taken.

DRUNKENNESS IN GLASGOW

Increase of 400 per cent. Said to Be Due to Using Canadian Whiskey.

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

LONDON, Dec. 4.—A great increase in drunkenness in Glasgow is reported by the police, who estimate the number of arrests have increased by 400 per cent. of late. They believe the larger allowance of spirits has had less effect than the importation of whiskey from Canada, which is described as worse than raw grain spirits.

By special arrangement, Mary Pickford in "Daddy Longlegs" will be run Saturday Matinee only from 3:30 to 6, for the benefit of those who failed to see this great production.

STRIKE LEADER IS ON TRIAL AT WINNIPEG

Crown Sets Out to Prove Three Charges Against R. B. Russell.

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

WINNIPEG, Dec. 5.—In the trial of R. B. Russell, strike leader, charged with sedition, A. J. Andrews for the crown said that what he wanted to prove was that the intentions of the accused and those connected with him were:

1. To stir up strife.

2. To set class against class with the object of starting a revolution.

3. To bring about in Canada a sort of general strike.

Mr. Andrews claimed that it was absolutely necessary to submit evidence regarding meetings which had been held throughout the country. On the other hand he intimated that the defence would endeavor to prove that the arrest of the strike leaders was for the purpose of breaking up the strike and not for any criminal offense.

FORCE GERMANY TO SIGN TREATY

As Says Andrew Bonar Law Speaking for British Government at Glasgow.

HAVE THE POWER AND WILL EXERCISE IT

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

GLASGOW, Dec. 5.—Addressing a political demonstration here yesterday, Andrew Bonar Law, the government leader in the House of Commons, alluded to Germany's apparent attempt to evade ratification of the Peace Treaty owing to the delay of the United States Senate in adopting it.

Bonar Law said he spoke for the Government and he believed for the Allies in declaring that they had the power and if necessary would exercise it to insure the ratification by Germany of the treaty.

MANY BOATS IN FOR FISH SALE THIS MORNING

Alaska Forced to Clear for Seattle With 75,000 lbs. on Account of Car Shortage.

Car shortage is again causing worry to local fish firms and loss to the port of Prince Rupert. This morning the largest of the many boats in for the fish sale was forced to clear for Seattle to sell. This was the Alaska with 75,000 pounds from the Yakutat banks. This happening makes the fishermen dissatisfied with the local market. Thirteen cars were necessary to handle the fish offered this morning, but only nine were available.

Fishing has been excellent on the banks during the past two weeks and the weather has been very favorable. The halibut are schooling and the boats are enabled to make record catches in a short time. The larger boats are fishing on the Yakutat banks and the smaller ones in the nearer banks. There were 325,000 pounds of fish in this morning and this included a number of smaller boats. It was the biggest sale for nearly two months.

Following are the catches and prices for this morning's exchange:

Orient, 14.9c and 10c, for 55,000 pounds sold to the Pacific Sea Products Co. The fish for this company is still being handled by the National Independent at the Government wharf, while the new company's plant is being completed at Seal Cove.

Seattle, 65,000 lbs., 14.9c and 9.9c, to Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co.

Senator, 45,000 lbs., 15c and 11c, to Pacific (San Juan) Fisheries.

Omaney, 60,000 lbs., 15c and 9.1c, to Atlin Fisheries.

Fisher, 14,000 lbs.; Marguerite, 3,000 lbs.; Nuba, 4,000 lbs., and Mayflower, 4,200 lbs. These boats sold to the Booth Fisheries for 15.5c and 12.1c.

Ingrid, 4,000; Kinmount, 500; Ethel June, 1,500; Chatham, 500 pounds. These boats sold to the Royal Fisheries at 15.2c and 10.5c.

The Alaska cleared for Seattle with 75,000 pounds.

Defensive Alliance Britain and France.

Great Britain is to form a defensive alliance with France whether the Peace Treaty is signed or not by the other powers. Since the attack by Germany, the British and the French have fought side by side. There is a bond of fellowship established between the two countries that will not easily be broken.

With Britain and France united there will not be much chance of German aggression. With her fleet gone and with her diminished army it will be many years before she will be in fighting trim again. The publication of the decision to sign a pact between the two countries is doubtless for the purpose of offsetting the refusal of Germany to sign the protocol and to show that country that even if the United States is not at one with them they will enforce its terms.

Trial by Jury Not Always Best.

Anyone who is in the habit of attending the sittings of the criminal and other courts in this country is bound to admit that the method of trying people by jury is not always a success. It does not always make for justice. Juries are easily influenced by sentiment. It takes a judge, who is in the habit of trying cases, to see below the surface and give judgment according to the merits of the case.

Not that a judge is always right. Judges are human, and they are sometimes carried away by their prejudices. Lawyers know what kind of treatment their clients are likely to get from certain judges, and for that reason they secure adjournments in the hope that some other judge may take particular cases.

There is no such thing in this world as justice, but the nearest to it is trial by a judge or a group of judges.

Everybody Loves A Good Fighter.

Everybody loves a fighter. That is generally acknowledged. That is why everyone is interested in a prize fight. That is why anything in the nature of a row is always news.

The Liberal party of Canada is out to fight, according to a telegraphic despatch received yesterday. They are intending to put a man in every constituency in Canada. They say they have a policy that is democratic and worth fighting for.

That is the sort of spirit that wins. There has been little real pep in politics since the beginning of the war, for winning the war was the big thing. Now conducting the affairs of the country in an intelligent manner is to be the big thing.

MADE MISTAKE ON A PULLMAN

Story Told in Prince George Paper of two Local Contractors.

The following story of an amusing incident occurring on a Pullman car on the Grand Trunk Pacific Railroad between here and Prince George is told in a recent issue of the Prince George Herald:

Two railway contractors boarded the train near Prince Rupert. They had secured lower berths, opposite each other, in the sleeper. The younger of the two was tired and retired early in the evening. The elder remained reading in the observation car quite late.

Just before he was about to turn in, the train stopped at a small station and a girl entered the observation car. She was young and she was beautiful. Soon the sleeping car conductor entered. The beautiful lady requested a lower berth. Alas! they were all taken.

Innate Chivalry. Anyone familiar with railway contractors will readily surmise the immediate awakening of the contractor's innate chivalry, which is so characteristic of the big-minded men who build railways. He had heard the lady's plea. Could he sit calmly by whilst this charming person, on the verge of tears, contemplated clambering into an upper berth? No, a thousand times no! He would sooner sleep in one of his own steam shovels.

In a few well-chosen words he placed his own lower berth at the lady's disposal and accepted her upper, which happened to be directly overhead. She offered him radiant thanks. He gallantly made light of the exchange. They bade each other good-night, and shortly afterwards were both wrapt in the arms of Morpheus.

So the night passed. Morning came, and the young contractor, ignorant of his friend's concession to beauty in distress, awoke like a giant refreshed, and seated on the edge of his berth, drew on his shoes.

A Form. Suddenly opposite to him a form appeared moving behind the curtain of his friend's berth.

Being full of joie de vivre, etc., he leaned over and struck what he took to be a well-defined portion of his friend's anatomy a most resounding smack outside the curtains.

Immediately a terrible falsetto scream sounded through the car. The young contractor was trained to think fast in an emergency. He ducked back into his berth and closed the curtains before the enraged beauty had opened her own, and stood, a charming picture of virtuous indignation, "en deshabille," in the aisle.

Piercing Scream. The elder contractor was awakened from a deep slumber by a piercing scream below him. In an instant his head peered forth. Below him the curtains were agitated by a furious lady who finally emerged, looked at him with a terrible regard.

"You hit me!" she cried furiously. "Oh, you hurt me! You brutal! Oh, Oh, Oh!"

The dining car conductor, attracted by the lady's cries, hastened to the spot.

"He hit me," she cried, aiming a denunciatory finger at the bewildered gentleman on the top shelf, with one hand, while she gently pressed the other to the scene of the attack. "Oh, he hit me so hard! He's a brute!"

"Did you?" queried the conductor. "I don't know what she's raving about," replied the victim.

The conductor tried to pacify the lady. Nothing could shake her faith in her benefactor's guilt. It quite ruined his trip.

And in the dark recesses of the opposite berth the culprit lay doggo, half a pillow stuffed in his mouth, convulsed with silent mirth.

Th dirty dog!

"THE MAN HUNTER" AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

William Farnum in Play That Shows Wealth and Poverty by Contrasts.

"The Man Hunter," in which William Farnum is the star, and which will be shown for the first time tonight at the Westholme Theatre, runs from a high social plane to the lowest depths of life. The story itself is thrilling as it relates directly to Mr. Farnum, but in addition it has some fine touches of varied phases of life. Types of all kinds are seen in it, from wealthy men and women and their debutante daughters to pick-pockets and blind beggars, who can see well enough to count their "pickings" at the end of the day.

It is a play that gives the star a fine opportunity to display his rare ability. His make-up of the various characters he portrays in this picture reflects admirably his long experience on the stage and screen. In a way it seems a pity to lose that fine Farnum voice, yet the screen has needed not only his splendid acting, but also the wonderfully strong and whole-some pictures he selects for the public view.

BEATTY FAMILY MOVE TO LONDON

Admiral's New Powers in Office; Wife Takes Active Part in London Society.

There was some trepidation at the Admiralty office when Lord Beatty arrived to take up the reins of office as First Sea Lord of the Admiralty. He comes to Whitehall with greater powers than ever have been granted to any one holding that position before him. One of his first duties will be to consider the future organization and distribution of the fleet, and to decide how far expenditures may be safely carried out. It does not appear that the hero of Jutland has the same ideas along certain lines of re-organization as First Lord Jellicoe holds.

At the official residence of the First Sea Lord, Lady Beatty has been busy installing effects and

BEWARE OF DECEPTION

Statistics show that when egg albumen is used as a constituent of baking powder, the amount so used is too small (usually 15/100 of 1%) to affect the quality or effectiveness of the baking powder containing it, and when so used, is plainly for the purpose of fraud. Intelligent buyers will not permit themselves to be deceived by the water glass test.

UNEMPLOYMENT ON THIS COAST

Several thousand Already Out of Employment and Number Increasing.

(Special via U. T. P. Telegraphs.)
OTTAWA, Dec. 5.—The general question of unemployment during the present winter is engaging the attention of the Government. As a matter of fact the part of the Dominion in which there is serious unemployment is British Columbia. In the coast cities it is estimated that there are several thousand out of employment and that with the gradual diminution of work in the shipyards that number is being increased.

This brings up another national problem. During the war Canada embarked on a shipbuilding program which initially called for the construction of 55 vessels of an average tonnage of about 5,000. As a consequence a capital, estimated to total $47,000,000 has been vested in thirteen yards on the Atlantic, Pacific and Great Lakes, and at the present time upwards of 20,000 persons are employed while the number of people dependent upon that employment total something like 17,000.

ENJOYABLE DANCE AT MILL HOTEL

Employees of Spruce Plant Entertain Their Friends Last Night.

On the invitation of the employees of the Prince Rupert Spruce Mills, about forty couples gathered last night in the dining room of the mill hotel at Seal Cove. The occasion was the holding of the first of, what is hoped to be, a series of dances at the east end plant.

The arrangements for last night's dance were first rate and everything went off with a swing. The floor of the dining room makes an excellent place for dancing. The room was prettily decorated with hangings symbolic of the Christmas season and music was provided by Harvey's three-piece orchestra. The general committee in charge consisted of D. Loughheed, mill superintendent; A. A. Ewart, manager; F. Cartwright, E. Hudson, A. D. Gray and G. Campbell, the last mentioned acting as floor manager.

At midnight abundant and dainty refreshments were served by the dining room staff in charge of Chef Quayle, assisted by Mrs. Atkinson and Mrs. Golden. During the supper interval Mr. Greenwood sang two comic songs which were much appreciated. At 2 o'clock a line of cars provided by the millmen, appeared to take the city guests home. All voted the affair most enjoyable and it is probable a similar affair will be held before long.

FRANK BENNETT HAD BAD CONNECTIONS

Was Associated with Hold-up Gang in Vancouver and Has Prison Record.

Frank Bennett, who was arrested on suspicion here two weeks ago and last Sunday went down to Okalla Farm to serve a six months' term for vagrancy, has a long criminal record. Yesterday his history with the Vancouver police department was received. He has served several terms there for vagrancy and possession of drugs and in 1915 was connected with a hold-up gang. The leader of the gang, George Davis, went to the penitentiary for seven years in the same year.

Frank Bennett's brother, Joe, is also in the city lock-up serving two months for vagrancy. His case is a pitiful one as he seems hopelessly addicted to the use of drugs and is continually begging the officers for them. He is in the care of the city doctor who is attempting to break him from the use of drugs.
