LETTERS FROM SANTA CLAUS

North Pole, December 2, 1931

Dear Young Folk:— December is here once more and you ought to see how busy I am. They tell me times are quiet, but that is mostly imagination. I shall be with you just as usual and judging from present indications my packs will be just as large as ever. You see, it's this way. Christmas is always the same. Young people are always the same and people who give are always the same. There is the same Christmas spirit every year no matter whether business is brisk or slow. My factories have been working steadily making Christmas presents and people are sending me thought messages telling me what they would like. People are just as kind today as they were last year, perhaps a little kinder. That is why I know my packs will be large. I know my people.

NO TIME LOST

The Northwest Telephone Company seems different from many other organizations. It moves promptly. No sooner had the company signed an agreement with the city of Prince Rupert to install a radio connection with the outside than it set to work and within a few weeks it should be possible for local people who have the price to call up their friends in Vancouver or Victoria and converse with them. It is possible that Christmas greetings may be extended by radio telephone this year.

MADE GOOD PROGRESS

During the past ten years British Columbia has made good progress. The population of the province has increased and there is every indication that much greater progress will be made in the next ten years.

During the same time much progress has been made in Prince Rupert and the surrounding district. When the previous count was taken there was shipbuilding going on in the city and much artificial inflation. Shacks were occupied which later were abandoned and a big shipyard boarding house was running full swing.

Since that time Prince Rupert has been improving her position. The old plank roadways have been replaced by permanent streets. New sidewalks have been built, sewers constructed, lighting system installed, permanent buildings erected, highway commenced and the foundations laid for a city that will be a credit to the country.

Visitors coming to Prince Rupert for the first time express surprise at the progress that has been made here under difficult conditions.

The country around is also being developed and much more is known about it today than was known ten years ago. The provision of a plentiful supply of power near the city is also a great step forward, possibly one of the most important moves ever made by the city.

With this solid base to build on, future progress should be much more rapid. Even in this dull year the building permits have so far reached the not insignificant sum of one hundred and fifty-six thousand dollars and there is another month to hear from. While the amount is not large, it indicates that people here still have faith in their city. Take the case of Robert Gordon who has built a fine store on McBride Street, a place that would be a credit to a much larger city. This has been done while some have been talking blue ruin. That is the spirit that wins. As long as Prince Rupert has men such as those who have invested their money here in new buildings, there is no fear for the future. We are bound to win out.

AUTONOMY UNDER SAFEGUARDS

India is to be offered autonomy under safeguards. That means that the people will not all at once control their own foreign policy and there will be some restrictions on their financing with a view to protecting the British money already invested in the country. Defences of the country, which means control of the military, would also continue to be handled by Britain until such time as the country was in a position to take over.

It will be remembered that it is only a few years since the British Navy was withdrawn from Canada. Up to that time Britain retained naval stations at Esquimalt and Halifax, which controlled the gateways from the east and west. Canada did not object to this. Instead, the people welcomed it. British money was spent there which benefited Canada. So in India there must be British control for some years to come. As the country shows its ability for self-government that will be extended. But with self-government must go education of the masses.

NORTHERN B. C. NEWS

NEW HAZELTON

Contractors of the central interior have heard that the Canadian National Railways are to contract this winter for 2,000,000 ties. If the report is true, it means that employment will be afforded a large number of men.

Plans for the annual Christmas tree and school concert were made at a meeting on Thursday evening of the citizens of New Hazelton.

While getting out wood in the bush last week R. J. Morrison received a nasty cut on the side of the mouth from a flying stick. It was necessary to put in four stitches in order to close the wound.

Efforts are being made to establish a skating rink in Hazelton this winter. Prospects are that the winter will be sufficiently cold to permit of this being done.

Snow and cold has come to this district earlier than usual this fall. It would be surprising if it lasted throughout the winter.

PRINCE GEORGE

Harry Bowman, agricultural representative and colonization agent for the Canadian National Railways with headquarters here, was the speaker at a luncheon of the Prince George Board of Trade last Wednesday afternoon. He expressed the opinion that livestock production was possibly the most profitable line of agricultural endeavor for this district.

George Johnston and Richard Latman, two youths, were last Wednesday sentenced to three years imprisonment in penitentiary by Judge H. A. Robertson for the recent robbery of registered mail containing a good deal of money from the local post office. The two young men, who were arrested in a shack in South Fort George and were committed for trial by Police Magistrate N. P. Moran, pleaded guilty to the charge on appearing before Judge Robertson. Johnston was a former employee at the post office.

The city council is faced with the necessity of replacing the water tank on Connaught Hill which fills the city mains. The estimated cost is $16,000. The necessary bylaw will be submitted at the municipal election in January.

Harry Bowman, agricultural representative of the Canadian National Railways, has two more car of breeding stock booked for the central interior under the federal government's free freight policy for such stock.

Judge H. A. Robertson and A. McB. Young, local barrister, left on Saturday for Pouce Coupe where a man named Gerald Berrington is to be tried on a charge of breaking and entering and theft of 240 bushels of grain. Mr. Young will act as crown prosecutor.

The musical playlet "Goldilock's Adventures" was staged in the Princess Theatre here on Friday night last by a cast of 68 voices of local school children.

TERRACE

All the local sawmills are now closed down for what looks like an indefinite period.

Mrs. Swain had the misfortune to sustain a badly cut arm while chopping wood on Friday.

Orville Kenney has returned from the south where he has been in the employ of the B. and B. gang of the C. N. R.

News has been received that, owing to the elimination of nightwork at Chilliwack, Harry Creelman, formerly of Terrace, has been temporarily laid off.

The colder weather, which has prevailed for a fortnight, has resulted in the freezing over of all the open water in the district and skaters have been having a merry time.

BURNS LAKE

Wilson Muirhead, for some years a popular member of the local staff of the Royal Bank of Canada, has been transferred to Smithers. He will be missed by many friends whom he made during his stay in Burns Lake.

Mrs. Shelton of Wistaria, who has been a patient in the Burns Lake Hospital suffering from severe burns, is progressing favorably and will soon be able to leave the institution for her home.

Mrs. Blanch of Bald Hill and son, Gerald McPhee, returned here last Thursday after a five weeks' holiday visit in Burnaby where Mrs. Blanch was the guest of her daughter.

Arthur Shelford returned to Burns Lake on Thursday last en route to his home at Wistaria after disposing of a carload of cattle in Prince Rupert for which $997 was paid.

The Lakes District Young People's Association, at a recent meeting here, elected officers for the year as follows: Honorary President, Rev. F. S. Fleming; president, Nohr Hauer; vice-president, K. Engstad; secretary, Miss L. H. Adair; treasurer, W. J. McKenna; pianist, Mrs. E. S. Fleming. Various committees were also appointed.

VANDERHOOF

Various matters of local interest were taken up last night at a general meeting of the Vanderhoof and District Board of Trade.

The 1931 output of the Nechako Creamery here under operation by the Valentin Dairy of Prince Rupert was 44,404 pounds of butter and about 500 gallons of ice cream. It has been announced.

Art Embley has been busy during the past few days flooding the local skating rink which will soon be in use for the winter.

The road crew working on the new McKenzie highway is now up to the 39-mile post. The work is being carried out under the foremanship of D. H. Hoy.

Last week the Nechako Farmers' Institute shipped 19 head of beef stock and 49 hogs to Vancouver. Louis J. Preston was in charge of the stock.

Miss Daisy Cole of the Mapes district, suffering from blood poisoning, spent a few days at Mrs. M. Hunt's nursing home here. She has now returned home.

The provincial department of public works has completed the building of the new bridge over Stony Creek near town. The bridge makes a great improvement in the highway.

Due to road conditions the stage connection between Prince George and Quesnel for the Pacific Great Eastern Railway has been temporarily suspended.

Mrs. David Hagerdon returned to Vanderhoof at the end of last week from Edmonton where she recently underwent a serious operation at Royal Alexandra Hospital. She has made a good recovery.

The snow plow has been busy at work on the Prince George end of the highway between here and that point. Arrangements are being made to have a snow plow working at this end in the near future. It is the intention of the government to keep the main highway open throughout the winter if at all possible.

A "Woolworth Tea" was held by the United Church Sunday School on Thursday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. J. W. Campbell. The affair was a decided success.

The subject of Rev. R. G. Dunbar at Sunday evening's service in the local United Church was "The Unfavorable Environment."

The Fixit Shop on Stewart Street has been refitted and made much more comfortable for the winter months.

tion is finished. Temporary antennae will also be installed.

Partial Service

For a start there will only be a daytime service. When the plant gets in permanent operation, there will of course, be 24-hour service. The system will be entirely automatic and calls will be handled through the city telephone exchange in the same manner as ordinary long distance calls are handled.

Eventually, Mr. McLean explained, the permanent directional antennae may require some ten acres of land. The plant being installed at first is the permanent one, being merely situated on temporary sites for experimental purposes. The full efficiency of the plant will be in excess of all the radio broadcasting plants of British Columbia combined.

Mr. McLean stated that the possible sites for the temporary locations were being gradually narrowed down. The locating men have been working at the east end of the city along the Kalen Island highway and Mr. McLean suggested that the sites would probably be in that vicinity.

The temporary transmitter and receiver will probably be about a mile apart, Mr. McLean said. Eventually, it is planned to have them in the same building if conditions will permit.

Desirable Sites

It was essential, Mr. McLean stated, that the receiver should be in as quiet a location as possible. The transmitter must be far enough off so as not to interfere with ordinary household radio reception.

The new radiophone system will be tested on a wave length of about 66.6 meters or about 4505 kilocycles. The ordinary household radio sets operate at from 200 to 600 meters or 550 to 1500 kilocycles. While it might be necessary eventually to increase or cut down the wave length of the commercial system, Mr. McLean gave assurance that it would not interfere with ordinary radio reception in the city.

With the small radiophone set on the power cruiser Belmont, where the locating engineers make their headquarters, communication is had with Vancouver regularly three or four times a day. Good results have been obtained.

The local radiophone plant is now on the way from Montreal and is expected to arrive within a day or so.

Mr. McLean is accompanied here by R. Smyth, radiophone engineer, and C. J. Couture, who is skipper of the Belmont. In about a week's time, Mr. McLean will return to Vancouver and B. R. Tupper, another radiophone engineer, will come here to carry on the installation work along with the others.

Connect With District

Experiments are to be conducted with a view to connecting up district points, which desire such communication, with the central Prince Rupert plant, Mr. McLean revealed. The cost of the local plant, it has been stated, will be about $25,000.

Howard D. Barrett, chief clerk in the office of the divisional superintendent of the Canadian National Railways for the past year or so, will sail tomorrow on the Prince Rupert for Vancouver to which city he has been transferred. Mrs. Barrett is already in Vancouver. Mr. Barrett's successor here is F. M. Davis of Kamloops.

BASKETBALL LAST NIGHT

Tremendous Excitement and Enthusiasm in Senior Game—Big Crowd Went Wild

Senior League—Panthers, 34; C. N. R., 31.
Intermediate—Tuxis, 33; Merchants, 23.
Ladies—Amazons, 9; Cardinals, 5.
Junior—Rovers, 10; League of Nations, 21.

For the past month basketball enthusiasts have been treated to some very closely contested and thrilling games but the senior game, which brought C.N.R. and Panthers together last night, climaxed an evening and a month of interesting play. At first it just looked like "another" basketball game with the C. N. R. probable winners. Their deadly combination started to grind from the start. However, they found that the Panthers had added another claw to their attack in the form of Alex Mitchell who paired up with Allan Cross to form an almost perfect defence. These two men worried opposing forwards all the time and they were on every rebound and intercepted numerous passes. Even then, Styles helped himself to 17 points, and rebounds are his "meat." Ten minutes from the start the Trainmen had tallied 12 points, but the Panthers came to life and scored two points, only to weaken before another C. N. onslaught which netted them seven more points. This left the half-time score at 23-12, giving the Trainmen a very comfortable lead.

The pace quickened; the Panthers opened up their play; the forwards, Macdonald and Kelsey, played a close man-to-man offensive; both teams worked a pretty combination and, finally, the Panthers opened up by scoring quickly. With three minutes to go, Kelsey scored, giving the Panthers the lead. By this time the crowd was in a frenzy and, with half a minute to go, Cross sank a foul shot and tied the score. Had Mitchell sunk one of a series of four fouls which were awarded as the whistle blew, everything would have been "hotsy-totsy" for the Panthers. But he didn't and thereby hangs a story which five minutes of torrid overtime finally told. Mitchell played a wonderful game, being on every play, while the whole team worked as one. The score was again tied, and finally, Kelsey sank a basket and then followed with a foul shot to end the game at 34-31 for Panthers. Thus ended one of the finest exhibitions of hoop-tossing that has ever been staged in the city. To pick individuals would be a waste of time but, now that the Panthers have agreed on team play, the senior division games are going to be alone worth the price of admission. The teams: Panthers—Macdonald (1), Irvine (10), Cross (7), Mitchell (7), Kelsey (8), Lyons (1), McNulty; total, 34. C. N. R.—Smith (4), Styles (17), Morrison (2), Stalker (6), Lambie (2), Johnson; total, 31. Referee, R. B. Skinner.

Intermediate Game
The Tuxis Boys proved to be the stronger quintet as they defeated the Merchants by a score of 33-23. The Tuxis, as usual, maintained control of the ball by their good combination and speed. Nakamoto was centre of all the plays engineered by the Tuxis and he proved his ability by scoring 13 points. At the end of the first half the score stood 20-7 for the Tuxis.

In the second half the Tuxis played their substitutes who were not quite as effective as regulars and the Merchants in a final mad dash almost caught up to the Tuxis but they soon grew tired and the game ended 33-23 for the Tuxis. Tuxis—Morrison (8), Morrison, Nakamoto (12), Thruber (5), Hanson, Allen (6), Moxley (2); total, 33. Merchants—Dingwell (5), Dingwell (8), Pierce (6), Bacon, Currie (2), Comadina (2), Birrell; total, 23.

Girls' Game
Amazons and Cardinals got together again and staged an exciting and well matched battle from which the Amazons emerged with a 9-5 victory. This game did not reveal the same brand of basketball that the last girls' affair produced.

Fast Action in Basketball

This fast bit of action took place when aspirants for positions on the varsity basketball team at New York university turned out en masse for the first practice of the season, staged aboard the U.S.S. training ship, Illinois.

It was rougher, though quite fast. However, as the pace quickened the play improved with Sue Boddie working her head off for her team. Emyd Morris, though, was probably the outstanding player of both teams. As the season progresses she improves continually and has all the makings of a first-rater. Pritchard was bottled up by the Cardinal defense and failed to indulge in her usual scoring spree, so Morris stepped in and helped herself to seven of her team's nine points. For Cardinals Gilchrist showed up well and played very nicely with her more experienced and cagey captain, Lillian Lowe. The second half saw the pace increase and Cathie Irvine played hard to score, but the Amazons seemed stronger and fresher, holding them at bay. With but a minute to go the Cardinals played toe to toe with their opponents, and though holding their scoreless, were unable to locate the basket. The teams: Amazons—Boddie (2), Pritchard, Morris (7), Morgan, Ritchie, Kach; total, 9. Cardinals—Lowe (4), Irvine (1), Krikevsky, Stone, Gilchrist; total, 5. Referee, H. Lyons.

Junior Game
The opening hoop game of the evening was a fairly fast and clean game although it did not measure up to the calibre of previous junior games. The first half was the hardest fought period of the game. The League of Nations throughout the whole game were the superior players. In the second half, the forward line of the League of Nations flashed brilliantly and through the remainder of the game the League of Nations maintained their comfortable lead. Dominato was effective for the League, while McKinley strove hard for the Rovers.

Rovers—McMeekin, Bremner (2), McKinley (8), Willseroff, McRae; total, 10. League of Nations—Yaegar (6), Dominato (5), Gillis (4), Hill, Antonello (3), Allen (2), Arney (1); total, 21.

Jump in Silver Heartens Mining Men of District—Finances of Columario—Future of Premier Discussed

Mining men of the north are looking at the fluctuations of the silver market with a great deal of interest. There is a well-justified feeling that if the price of silver continues to rise, it will result in the reopening of work on a great many mining properties in the district. This is essentially a silver district and it has been on account of the low price of silver that there has been so little mining activity during the past couple of years.

Holdings of the Columario Gold Mines, which is planning to raise finances for the erection of a mill, consist of approximately 1,000 acres on Kitselas Mountain on the south-east side of the Skeena River about three miles south of Usk. Development has been carried out through a series of tunnels driven into the mountain side and ore reserves are now placed at approximately 75,000 tons from the known ore shoots. The company is without cash and it now proposes further financing in order that a mill can be constructed and the property placed on a producing basis.

According to an eastern authority, Premier Gold Mining Co. Ltd. has been paying dividends steadily since 1921, having disbursed over $15,500,000 to the shareholders in that time. It has pursued the policy of building up a capital surplus and depreciation and depletion accounts has enabled it to continue dividends in excess of its nominal earnings now that production is reduced through depletion of the property. The Premier gold property, consisting of 34 claims and equipped with a mill of 400-ton daily capacity, has been developed through a series of adits driven into the mountainside to intersect the veins. Officials report that the ore shoot carrying commercial values bottomed slightly above the fifth level, indicating that the mine is fast nearing depletion. Total ore reserves on December 31 last were shown at 369,205 tons, averaging 9.55 in gold and silver. Production has been steadily declining since 1927 and further declines in output are expected this year. Earnings in the immediately preceding years have been greatly in excess of dividend requirements, before depreciation and depletion but write-offs have brought the net earnings down and dividends have been paid through a special account set up for depreciation and depletion and, therefore do not reflect the true operating earnings of the company. Dividends were reduced from 24c to 12c annually early this year and are now payable four cents a share every three months. While the producing property is regarded as being near depletion, the company maintains an exploration staff in search of properties of merit and, in addition to the Porter Idaho, Silverado and Prosperity groups of claims, all silver properties at Stewart which are now idle it holds an option to purchase and is further exploring the Toburn gold mines in the Kirkland Lake area, Ontario. The company has a strong liquid position and, on December 31 last, had a working capital of $1,804,710. The future of the company, when operations at the Premier property are finally completed, rests with some of its various subsidiaries or properties under option developing into profitable producers. It is through the acquisition of these properties that the company hopes to perpetuate itself as a mining enterprise. The following table gives a summary of production since the commencement of operations at the Premier property proper:

Year	Mined tons	Bullion recovered	Recovery per ton
1919	488	$ 165,000	$338.00
1920	799	124,000	155.19

Public Buying Turns Upward

Syndicate Index Shows Sharp Gains in Home Building, Insurance and Retail Trade

Sharp gains in home building and insurance, a moderate increase in retail buying, and an apparent end to the decline in living costs feature the changes in consumer habits since last month, according to statistical organizations.

The upturn in home building comes as a pleasant surprise at this time of year, since the trend is normally downward. The upturn in insurance buying, coming at the same time as a decline in savings, again indicates an interesting change in consumer habits, since insurance buying had been steadily declining, while savings had been making new highs on successive months.
