DANGER AT SALT LAKE

Little Girl Nearly Lost Her Life in Wading Pool on Dominion Day

The danger of the children's pool at the Salt Lake, during the absence therefrom of a boom which used to mark the start of deep water but which had disappeared this season, was illustrated on Dominion Day about noon when Dorothy Fraser, daughter of School Inspector and Mrs. Fraser, had a narrow escape from drowning, being saved only by the presence of mind of Government Agent Norman A. Watt, who happened to be nearby. Mr. Watt was paddling on the sandy bottom near the beach with his children and the little Fraser girl was also there. Mr. Watt happened to see the girl bob up above the surface and then down again. Immediately, he plunged into the water, clothes and all, and pulled her out to safety. It is stated by on-lookers that the girl had already been down a couple of times before she was pulled out.

ITALY AND THE SOVIET

One of the most friendly nations to Russia, the home of communism, is Italy, the home of fascism. It is curious that after Italy had been saved from communism by the fascist revolution, under a former socialist leader, that country should be one of the first to hold out the hand of friendship and extend trade privileges. Only two years after Mussolini took control of the country as an absolute ruler he recognized the Soviet Union. Today the two countries have a trade agreement which is resulting in huge quantities of Russian goods being sold in Italy and is providing Italy with a market for instruments of production which Russia needs under her five-year plan and also provides work for Italy's shipbuilders.

There is a great similarity between the governments of Italy and Russia. In Russia the country is ruled by the communistic group with Stalin at its head. The party is a small section of the population of the country yet it holds supreme control. In Italy the country is ruled by the Fascisti with Mussolini practically an autocrat. There is no democracy in either country today. The average man has little say as to how or by whom the country shall be governed.

The lesson that Canada may learn from the action of Italy in making a trade agreement with Russia is that here is a nation that can take our manufactured goods and with whom we might trade advantageously. If Italy can make money by close association, we might do the same. The country cannot afford to turn any good customer away no matter what its religious or economic beliefs. Russia is our neighbor, connected with us by the Pacific Ocean and Prince Rupert should be particularly keen in trying to keep on good terms with her.

Royal Russian Chorus to Sing Here July 9, 17

Brilliant Program to Be Provided By Outstanding Organization Under Local Auspices

The outstanding feature of the local musical season will undoubtedly be the concert to be given here by the world-famous Royal Russian Chorus on July 9 and 17 at the Moose Hall under the management of the Gyro Club. With Princess Aerevena Slaviansky, as conductor, this remarkable group of singers and dancers will give our music and dance lovers a brilliant and thrilling program. Their National tour is being personally directed by Laurence A. Lambert, the well known New York and Hollywood impresario.

Although the choir is famous for its choral harmony, their work is not confined to singing, as they are very versatile. Half a dozen brilliant dancers are included in the organization, and a group of six of them will furnish orchestral accompaniments on the balalaika, those queer shaped, but beautiful sounding Russian stringed instruments that resemble the American mandolins, guitars and banjos, for some of the dance numbers.

Historic Choir
The organization of the original choir dates back to 1840, when Prince Dmitry Slaviansky was

Russian Chorus Coming Here Next Week

The group of musicians shown above will be heard in Prince Rupert on July 9 and again July 17 in Moose Hall, under auspices of the Prince Rupert Gyro Club.

commissioned by the Russian Czar to draft 100 of the nation's best singers from the Imperial Opera House and Conservatory to form a choir.

An interesting feature of the present choir, a continuation of the original, is that some of its members have been affiliated with the organization from childhood, several of them being direct descendants of members of the original choir.

When Prince Dmitry died in 1908, the leadership of the choir was taken over by his daughter, who will appear here personally with the choir, and who is one of the few internationally recognized women conductors. Kusic critics and audiences have acclaimed her everywhere, as a genuine Princess, of regal mien, gracious personality and superlative musical ability.

Their local concerts on July 9 and 17 at the Moose Hall are made possible by the admirable enterprise and civic spirit of the Gyro Club, and it is anticipated that music lovers throughout the entire district will take advantage of this opportunity of hearing the wonderful program to be given by this distinguished group.

Miss Helen Hibbard has arrived in the city from her school teaching duties in the interior to spend her vacation here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hibbard.

Max Schmeling in Action

Two pictures of German heavyweight champion of world who many fans think will lose his title tonight at Cleveland to Young Willie Stribling.

YOUNGSTER IS WINNER

Ralph Wells Causes Sensation at Jasper Park Horse Races

JASPER PARK, July 3.—A nine-year old lad named Ralph Wells, stole the glory of the sixth annual field day of the Jasper Park Rodeo and Turf Club, and some of the hardest riding cowboys in the west were forced to bow before the superb horsemanship of the youngster. A splendid crowd of more than 500 attended the rodeo which proved so successful that the club officers have decided to stage a second event in August.

Young Wells, with an eye for opportunities that would have done credit to a veteran jockey, booted three horses home to victory in the three feature races of the day and he picked off the place position in a fourth event. His riding earned him the Kingsland Trophy, for the mile course, and the McDermid Cup, for the half-mile junior 14.2 and under. His outstanding ride was in the free-for-all when he was left at the post, but pulled his horse, Ruby up fast to go through the entire field of 14 and win by a length and a half.

The many visitors were most interested in the bucking contest which was won by Bert Long, on the notorious bronco, Dimples. Long defeated Phil Hagenson, Dan Bowen and Louise Joachim in the finals after six other prominent western riders had been eliminated.

Take The DAILY NEWS with you When Going on Summer Holidays

Nearly everybody likes to keep in touch with Prince Rupert when away for their holidays. The best way to do this is to order the paper sent during that time. If it is only for two weeks, the News is a welcome visitor and the mails during the summer months are carried almost daily to most points.

Recently a number of Scandinavians have given up the local fishing for the summer and gone on an extended visit to their former homes. In almost every case they order the Daily News sent them while they are away. Several subscribed for a year, others for shorter periods.

No time is too short for us to look after our patrons.
