MINISTER OF LABOR TO MAKE UNEMPLOYMENT SURVEY

"Lavishness and Desire to Spend," Charged by Hackett of Stanstead With Beaubien of Provencher Replying—Dickie Sees Prosperity

OTTAWA, June 6.—J. C. Hackett, Conservative member for Stanstead, Quebec, during the budget debate yesterday, charged "lavishness" and "desire to spend" on the part of the management of the Canadian National Railways, thus imperilling the national solvency. A. L. Beaubien, Liberal member for Provencher, Man., declared that he was convinced that Hackett was "a gramophone of the Canadian Pacific Railway" and that he was reminded of a lawyer "boosting his own organization by knocking another."

C. H. Dickie, Conservative member for Nanaimo, predicted prosperity as a result of the Bennett budget.

EMPLOYMENT INSURANCE

Chamber of Commerce Files Letter From B. C. Committee

The Chamber of Commerce last night filed a letter from the British Columbia committee on unemployment and relief which reported having submitted a plan to the federal government for contributory unemployment insurance on a basis somewhat similar to that of workmen's compensation. The chamber felt that its views as to unemployment insurance had already been made clear and there was nothing to do but file the communication.

LEASE ON ELEVATOR

Winnipeg Shipper Not Interested, Commerce Chamber Hears

A communication from E. A. Warren, vice-president in charge of western lines, Canadian National Railways, Winnipeg, read at last night's meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, stated that he had had the opportunity of seeing Mr. Leach, Winnipeg elevator operator, in regard to possibly taking over the local elevator. Mr. Leach had, however, stated that he was not interested in the matter as he was not contemplating operating elevators on the Pacific Coast at this time.

The letter was filed, President B. J. Mellish explaining that officials of the Wheat Pool had given assurance that the local house would, at least, not be used less than it had been in the past.

Data in connection with the census of merchandising and service establishments was presented to the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce in a letter from the Dominion Bureau of Statistics read last night. Copies of the circular are being struck off and will be sent to members of the Chamber.

General contract for building a new $22,000 Masonic Temple in Prince Rupert was awarded last night to John S. Nelson and John Currie, local contractors. The new temple will be two storeys in height with basement. The superstructure will be of frame construction with California stucco finish and there will be a concrete foundation.

OUTLET KEY TO PRESENT SITUATION

R. J. Cromie Says We Are Paying For Our Period of Romancing—Sees Way Out

"It's twenty years since I was here. Those were the days of financial romance when great figures were made and tens of thousands of dollars were squandered," declared R. J. Cromie, publisher of the Vancouver Sun, who arrived in the city this morning and will speak at the Moose Hall tonight. "Unhappily, we have to pay for our romancing and just now we are doing that," he continued.

"The great hope in coping with the situation is the carrying out of some creative undertaking such as the building of the western outlet to the Peace River country. I have been in practically all the great valleys of the world and I have seen nothing like the Peace with its two million acres of rich lands. There many thousands of people could make a comfortable living if only transportation were provided for them. The western outlet is the key to the situation."

Urges to Attend Cromie Lecture

Chamber of Commerce Council Meeting Distinguished Publisher This Afternoon

At the meeting of the chamber of commerce last night, President B. J. Mellish drew the attention of the members to the lecture which was to be given tonight in the city by Robert J. Cromie. The visiting publisher was an important man in journalistic circles and doubtless would prove interesting, and he felt sure most of the members of the board would be present. He also stated that arrangements were being made for the council of the board to meet Mr. Cromie this afternoon.

Peter Rorvik, formerly of this city and now interested in fishing, on the West Coast of Vancouver Island, arrived in the city on the Prince George this morning from Vancouver and will be a visitor here for the next few days.

Federal Government's Policy Will Again Be One of Assistance to Provinces and Municipalities

OTTAWA, June 6:—A survey of actual employment conditions throughout Canada will be conducted personally by Senator Gideon D. Robertson, minister of labor. Civic Finance Was Under Discussion

At a rather lengthy meeting of the city council last night, the whole question of civic finance came under review. A conference was held with the city's banker, and frank discussions took place. Finally, it was decided to carry on as at present and to float a loan covering all outstanding local improvement work later in the year.

CERTIFICATION OF INVOICES

A letter from the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, read last night at the meeting of the local chamber, told of a referendum that was being taken on a system of certification of foreign invoices. A ballot was enclosed for the local board to deal with, a lengthy statement of the case for and against accompanying same. The matter was referred to the trade and commerce committee.

Smothering and Fainting Spells Everything Would Turn Black

Mrs. Andrew Black, Harcourt, N.B., writes:—
"I had been troubled with smothering and fainting spells and everything in front of me would turn black, and I would fall down in a faint and be unconscious for several minutes. I did not know what to do, until one day I was reading where Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills had helped so many people and decided I would give them a trial. I used four boxes and found they help me wonderfully."

LECTURE ON THE ORIENT

The lecture to be delivered tonight by Robert Cromie of Vancouver promises to be an outstanding event. Mr. Cromie, who is editor and proprietor of one of Vancouver's leading newspapers, recently made a tour around the world and spent some time in the Orient. He tells of what he saw and heard while there and he has a way of telling it that proves extremely interesting.

We commend this event to those who can get away tonight.

PLENTY OF MONEY AVAILABLE

There is plenty of money in the world available for investment if only those who possess it can be shown that they will receive interest on the investment and be assured of being able to get back the principal when they need it. That is why they buy government bonds. Both in Canada and United States there is a scramble for these securities when they are offered with the result that more and more people every year become interested in carrying on the government of the country.

Where the selling of government securities will end no one can say. There seems to be no thought of ever repaying the debts incurred, but simply of continuing to pay the interest on the loan.

WILL APPRECIATE VISIT

If Colonel Lindbergh and his wife decide to make a stop off at Prince Rupert on their flight to the Orient, they will receive a hearty welcome from the people here. They have been so much in the public eye that everyone seems to know them. Try as they will they cannot escape from the eye of the world.

If the aviators come to Prince Rupert they will turn the eyes of the world in this direction and the name of Prince Rupert will be telegraphed to all the leading centres.

The Canadian people like a man who does things. Lindbergh made a lone flight across the Atlantic, thus winning for himself affluence and fame and possibly the greatest prize was his beautiful wife. We sincerely hope he will come to this city.

MINISTER IS COMING

The Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce decided last night to defer until after a visit to be paid here in the near future by the minister of public works, Hon. R. W. Bruhn, action in connection with a proposal by V. S. Moore to have a petition circulated in the city and district calling upon the provincial government to expedite as soon as possible the construction of the highway connecting Prince Rupert with Terrace and the rest of the central interior. Mr. Moore gave three principal reasons why the work should be proceeded with without delay. First, it would connect Prince Rupert and the interior; second, it would provide needed employment, and third, it would open up and develop the resources of the north.

President B. J. Mellish thought no action should be taken until after the minister had been here. S. E. Parker thought it was a matter that might fittingly be taken up with the Associated Boards of Central British Columbia.

A letter from Mr. Bruhn announced that he expected to be here shortly when he would be pleased to confer in regard to the agitation for lower charges on automobiles on the railway between Prince Rupert and Hazelton and other matters.

It has been suggested that the government might absorb some of the cost of transporting automobiles between Prince Rupert and Hazelton.

NO RUNNERS TURNED UP

Disappointment Expressed Over the Failure of Track Event Last Night

There was considerable disappointment over the failure of the sprinters to turn up for the finals of the hundred yards handicap in connection with last night's football game. The sprinters are themselves to blame. The recently formed Spartan Club is fostering track events, yet the Football Association puts on an event and the runners do not take advantage of the chance. Walters was ready but there was no one else.

The final will take place next Tuesday evening at the interval of the football game between the Regiment and the Legion. If no other runner turns up, Walters will be given the prize and the second prize will be withheld.

BIG TIME AT EAGLES

Variety Program Including Boxing Given Last Night at Lodge Room

There was a big time in the Eagles' Lodge room last night when an interesting variety program including several boxing numbers was carried out with great credit. There was a large attendance and the event was kept up until well on toward midnight. Chief interest centered in the boxing contests which were well staged and in the very clever Oriental sketch "Matrimonial Trouble," by Dick Ford and Harry Astoria.

Glen Hebb presided while the committee in charge consisted of R. G. Ford, (Chairman) Len Brewerton, James Brown, Paul Boykin, Peter Gamula, William Rothwell, Henry Smith, and Claude Symes. Charles Balagno was at the piano and R. G. Ford at the door while Douglas Frizell refereed the boxing bouts with the exception of the noxiously boxing when Roy Barnes officiated.

The program follows: Opening selection—"O Canada." Accordion selection—Julius Walters.

Comic Song—Mr. Funnell. Cornet Solo—Robt. Greenfield. Song—Ray Scherk.

Accordion solo—J. Colussi. Three rounds boxing contest—Chuck vs. Pat Clanton.

MERCHANTS WIN AGAIN

Made it Two Straight in Gilhuly Cup Series by Beating Regiment Last Night

The Merchants added another win to their record last evening when they beat the Regiment two goals to nil in the Gilhuly Cup. The game was well contested throughout with both teams showing clever football to the satisfaction of an appreciative crowd.

The first half was evenly contested, play swinging from end to end but no goals being scored. Chenoski missed a couple of good chances. Albert Dickens was shooting well and Laidler did well to cover a couple of hard drives. Kelsey and Watson had a misunderstanding that let Amor through for the Merchants but his finishing shot went over. Fong went close for the Regiment and then Wingham put behind. DeJong stopped Dickens and Watson completed the clearance.

The second half was mostly in favor of the Merchants. Shortly after the resumption, Dickens turned a cross from Chenoski past Laidler for a neat goal. Play then brightened up and Fong and Wingham combined neatly but the latter's centre was missed. Chenoski had another try that went wide. Then Currie just shot over. Thurber cleared and sent his wing off but Menzies just got to Wingham's shot to save at the expense of a corner. Smith failed to stop Chenoski after Lyons had crossed the ball back towards his own goal and Nick's centre was snapped up by McKay who beat Laidler with a fine drive. Fong and Wingham got away again and forced a corner that Wilson took well but Menzies cleared it and fulltime found the Merchants winners by two clear goals.

Teams

Merchants—Menzies; Stiles, Douglas; Hill Currie, S. Dickens, Amor, H. Dickens, McKay, Chenoski.

Regiment—Laidler, Watson; Kelsey; C. Smith DeJong, Thurber; Wilson, Lyons, Carroll, Fong, Wingham.

Referee—W. Willisroff; Linesmen—A. Clapperton, G. Blake.

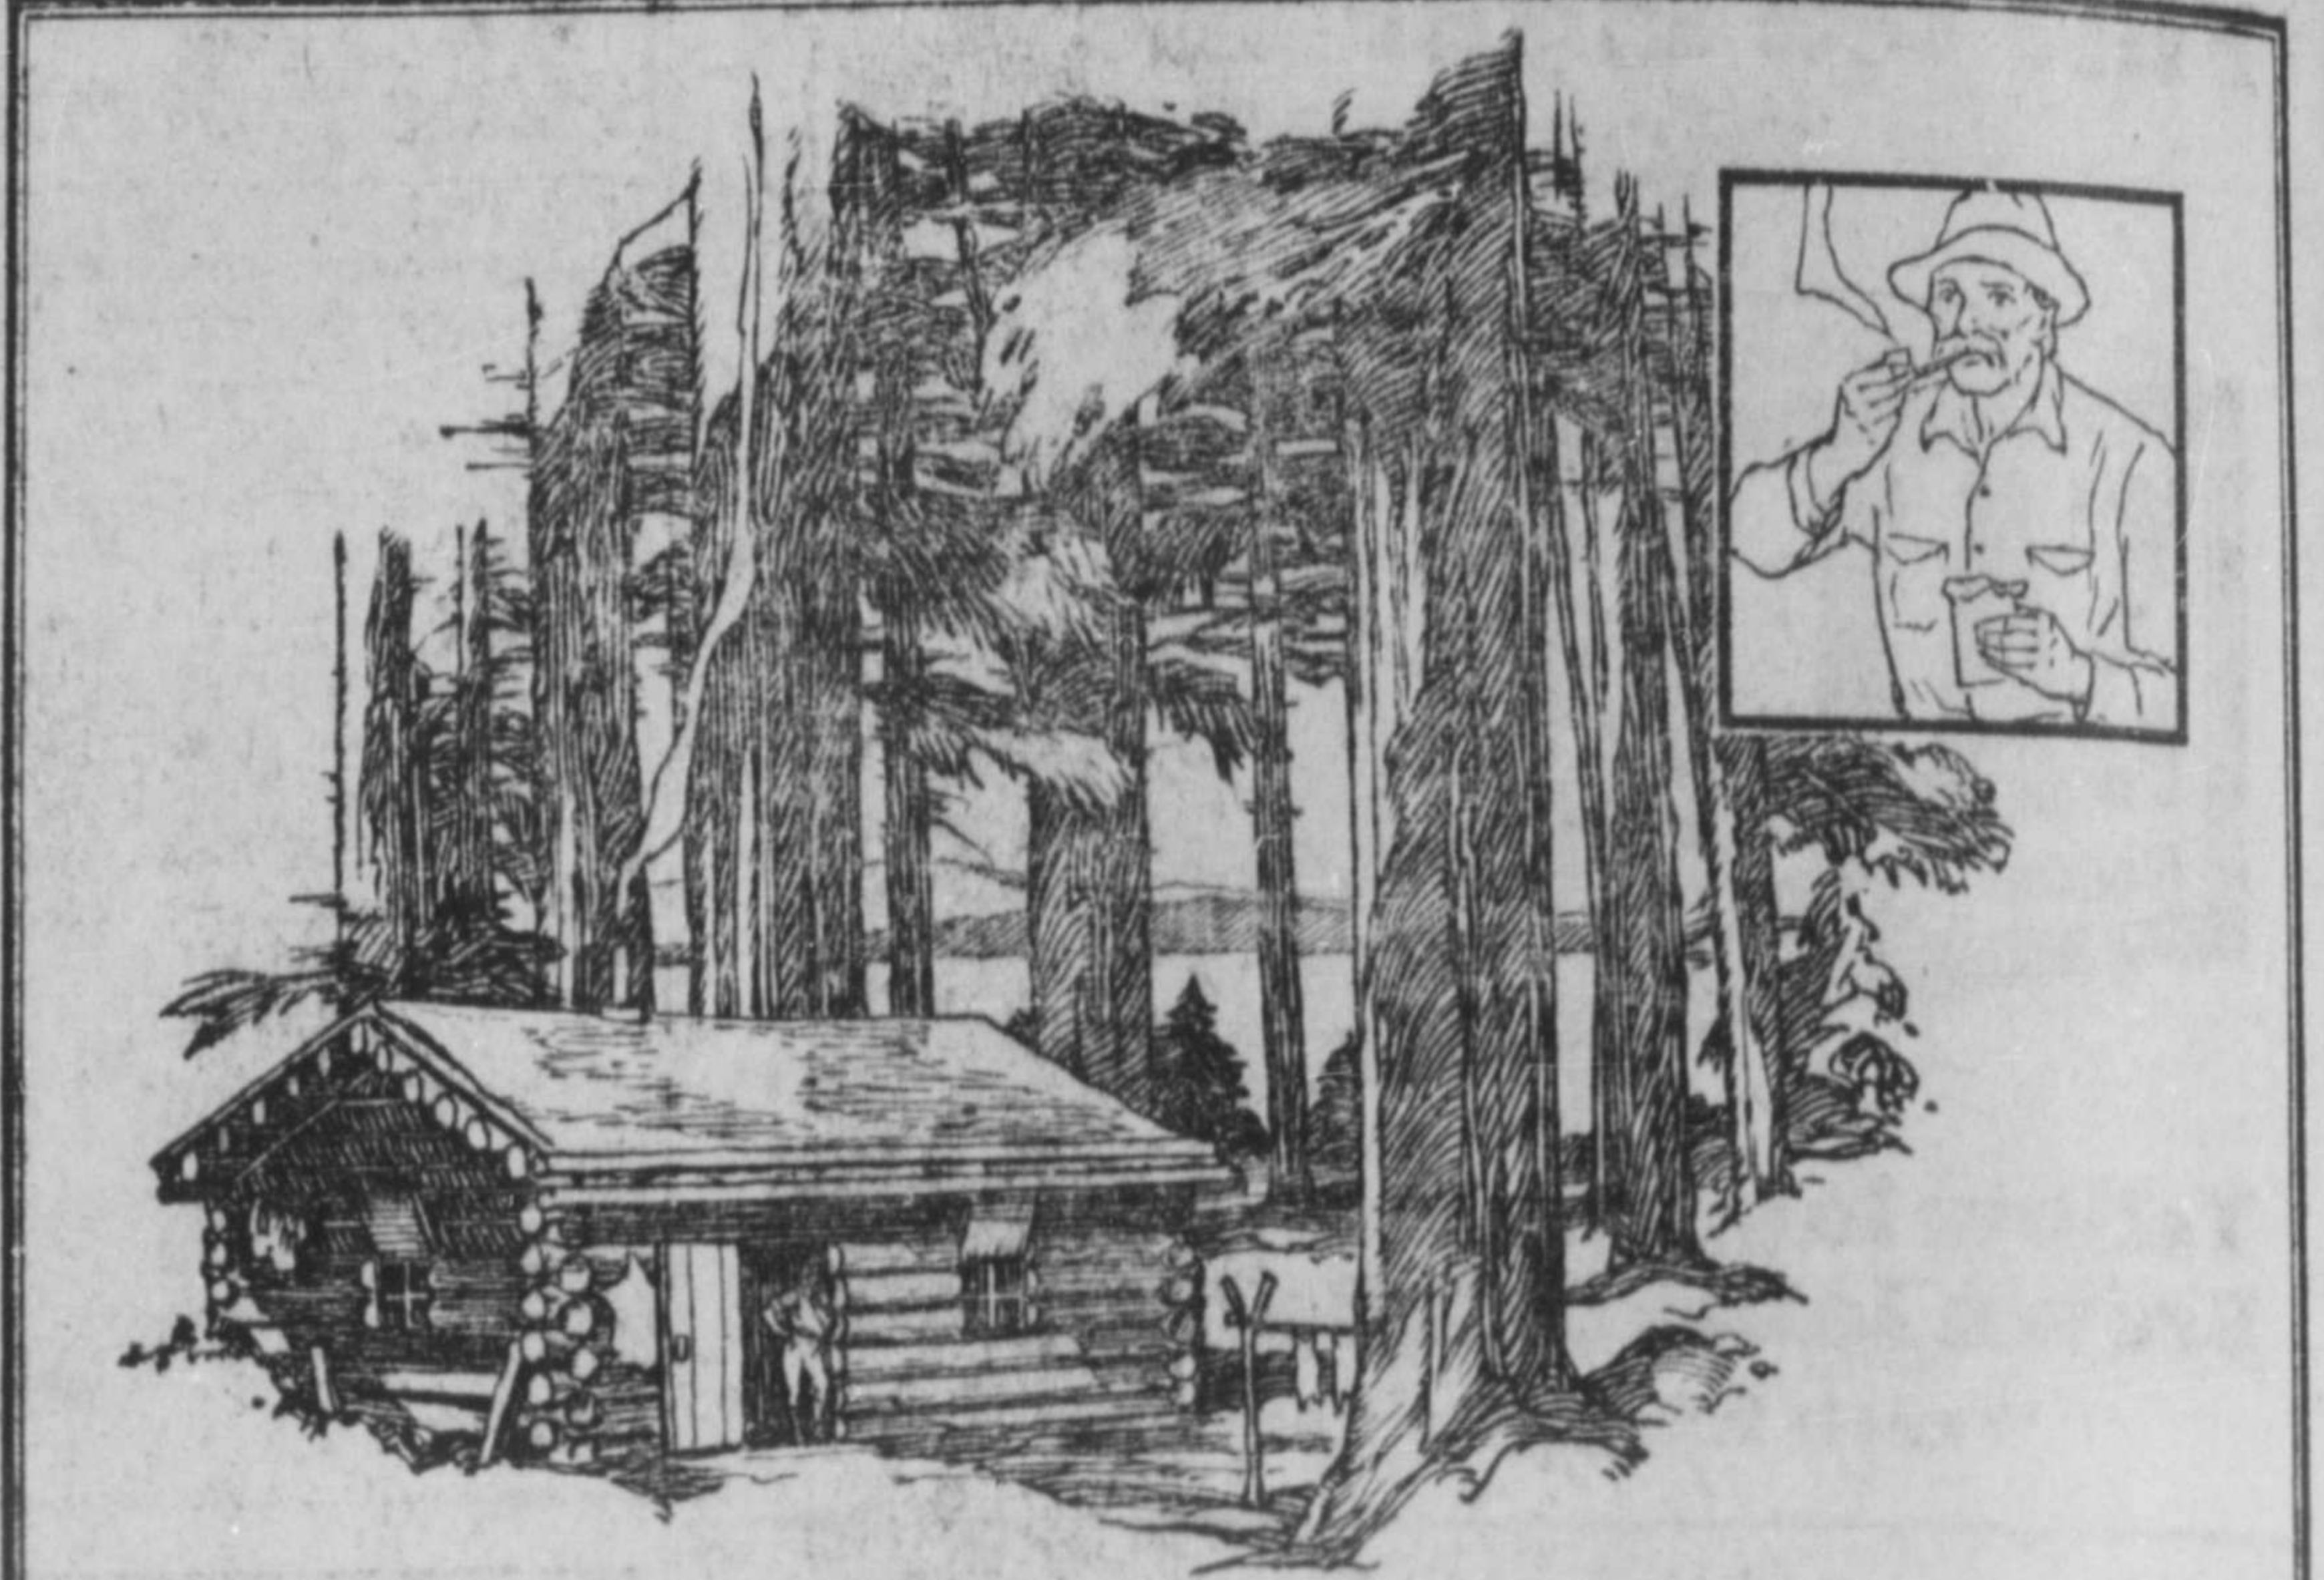

Comments on Game

The game was interesting one to watch. The Merchants had their regular team out. Menzies was not severely tested but he saved a couple that might have counted. Douglas and Stiles were safe with Douglas kicking better. Currie again was the best half on the field. His tackling was well judged and he opened out the play with passes that forwards could take easily. Hill found he had his hands full watching Fong and Wingham. S. Dickens was fair but surely he can learn to throw a ball in properly. Amor showed speed but still lacks ball control. H. Dickens is clever but wastes time and does not help his team by his silly antics. A. Dickens turned in a good game and was always dangerous. McKay and Chenoski combined well but they had an inexperienced half against them. Nick centered well.

Laidler had little chance with either goal. Watson and Kelsey defended well. DeJong played hard but did not open out the play nor feed his forwards as Currie did. Thurber was good. His tackling and judgment were sound and while he still kicks too hard at times he often fed his wing with well-judged passes. Smith was a trier. Fong and Wingham were the best forwards combining neatly and playing clever football. Carroll got few openings and Lyons had an off night. Wilson had a couple of chances but did not show up particularly.

The refereeing left a lot to be desired. Some decisions, particularly one against Thurber in the first half and another against Wingham, were quite uncalled for. There in the first three chances. There was much time wasted on throw-ins. Unless the referee can keep up with the play, there is always sure to be disputes over the offside rule. Clapperton was all right on the line but Blake should be replaced by a more experienced linesman. This is of course up to the teams playing and if they do not see that proper linesmen are ready the association should take action.

Misses McLeod and Hancock of Calgary, who arrived in the city earlier in the week by train, sailed this morning on the Princess Mary for Vancouver.

PIPE TESTED by a TRAPPER

"Upon arriving at our cabin, we found a trapper camped for the night. I gave him a package of Turret pipe tobacco. Later in the week, our trapper friend walked in and wanted to know if I would sell him some Turret pipe tobacco. He said that, in all his years of trapping in the north woods, he had never used a tobacco he liked better, that lasted longer and gave such a cool smoke."

For relaxation or work there is no finer pipe tobacco than Turret pipe tobacco. Always sweet and fragrant—slow burning and cool smoking.

MATRIC BANQUET

Graduating Class of King Edward High School Entertains

Last night the annual matric banquet and dance, given by the graduating classes of the King Edward High School, was held in the Federal Tea Shoppe. About 45 students and guests were present.

Among the speakers, Mrs. Spencer, chairman of the school board, expressed the hope to the students present that graduating from high school might be but the prelude to further successes, and that many present might continue their studies in the higher branches of education. To all, whatever the walk of life chosen, Mrs. Spencer wished complete happiness in their surroundings and work.

The principal, D. H. Hartness, after welcoming the visitors, spoke of the achievement of the school. The present graduating class was pleased to have as guests members of past high school classes. All were pleased to see them succeeding, and were glad to feel they still remembered their high school. Some of them were already on well defined roads, which would lead to worthwhile objectives, and while some might yet be marking time, still all had taken the step from high school into the wider world around.

The graduating classes of the high school were indeed the high school itself. The principal reviewed their three years' work. Besides a very little knowledge and a matric certificate, they would carry with them from the high school the ability to work independently, and to think clearly and consecutively. Their football, basketball and other sports would help to build them sound bodies. These things were essential to success. They stood at the parting of the ways. From now on, they would become increasingly dependent on themselves, and should remember always to keep before them a broad plan of action which should insure their finally working in the walk of life most congenial and most suited to each one of them.

Lloyd Monroe, the president of the student council, reviewed the year's work of that body. Its objectives were to promote school spirit, initiate school activities, and set a high standard of behaviour and achievement. For the school, the year had been a busy and successful one. At Christmas a very successful concert had been held and later a Valentine dance, much enjoyed by everyone present. The basketball season, closing with a trip to Terrace, had seen unusually keen competition, the high school teams splendidly maintaining the prestige

SPORT CHAT

Two issues of a school paper, edited and printed entirely by the students, had been made. Badminton, softball and football leagues had all been popular sports among the students. The Rochester Football Shield had again been won by the high school team.

Miss Muriel Vance, president of the girls' club, spoke of the club's activities, especially the "get acquainted" tea held for the Grade 9 classes in October, and the success of the badminton tournament this spring.

Soon after nine the room was cleared, and the students enjoyed dancing till midnight.

Murdo McArthur, formerly with the staff of M. McArthur's shoe store, has now gone into the shoe repairing game for himself, having opened his shop a few days ago in the Westholme Theatre Block.

Sons of Canada and Elks, at the Acropolis Hill grounds tomorrow afternoon, will renew the clash which was put off on Thursday evening because of rain. As said before, it will be the first appearance of the Lodgemen on the diamond this year and considerable interest will be taken in their initial performance. If fine weather, which seems impending, materializes, there should be a large crowd of fans on hand to see the boys perform.

And NOW the FUTURE Beckons

THE 42,500 ton Empress of Britain, which arrives at Quebec this month on her maiden voyage, embodies a superlative achievement which crowns the efforts of fifty years, and in her also Canada is typified, in her length and breadth and height, with ample room for her population.

On the Empress you might be living on a swift-moving island, where now and again you stroll by the sea. Your private apartments are roomily luxurious with all the pleasures of a country club a deck or so away. On no ship in the world has the individual passenger more living and play space, nor a greater number of diversions gathered closer for his enjoyment. Five days at sea are all too short, but next December the Empress of Britain will set sail to encircle the world on a cruise lasting over four months. What better way to spend a winter of leisure?

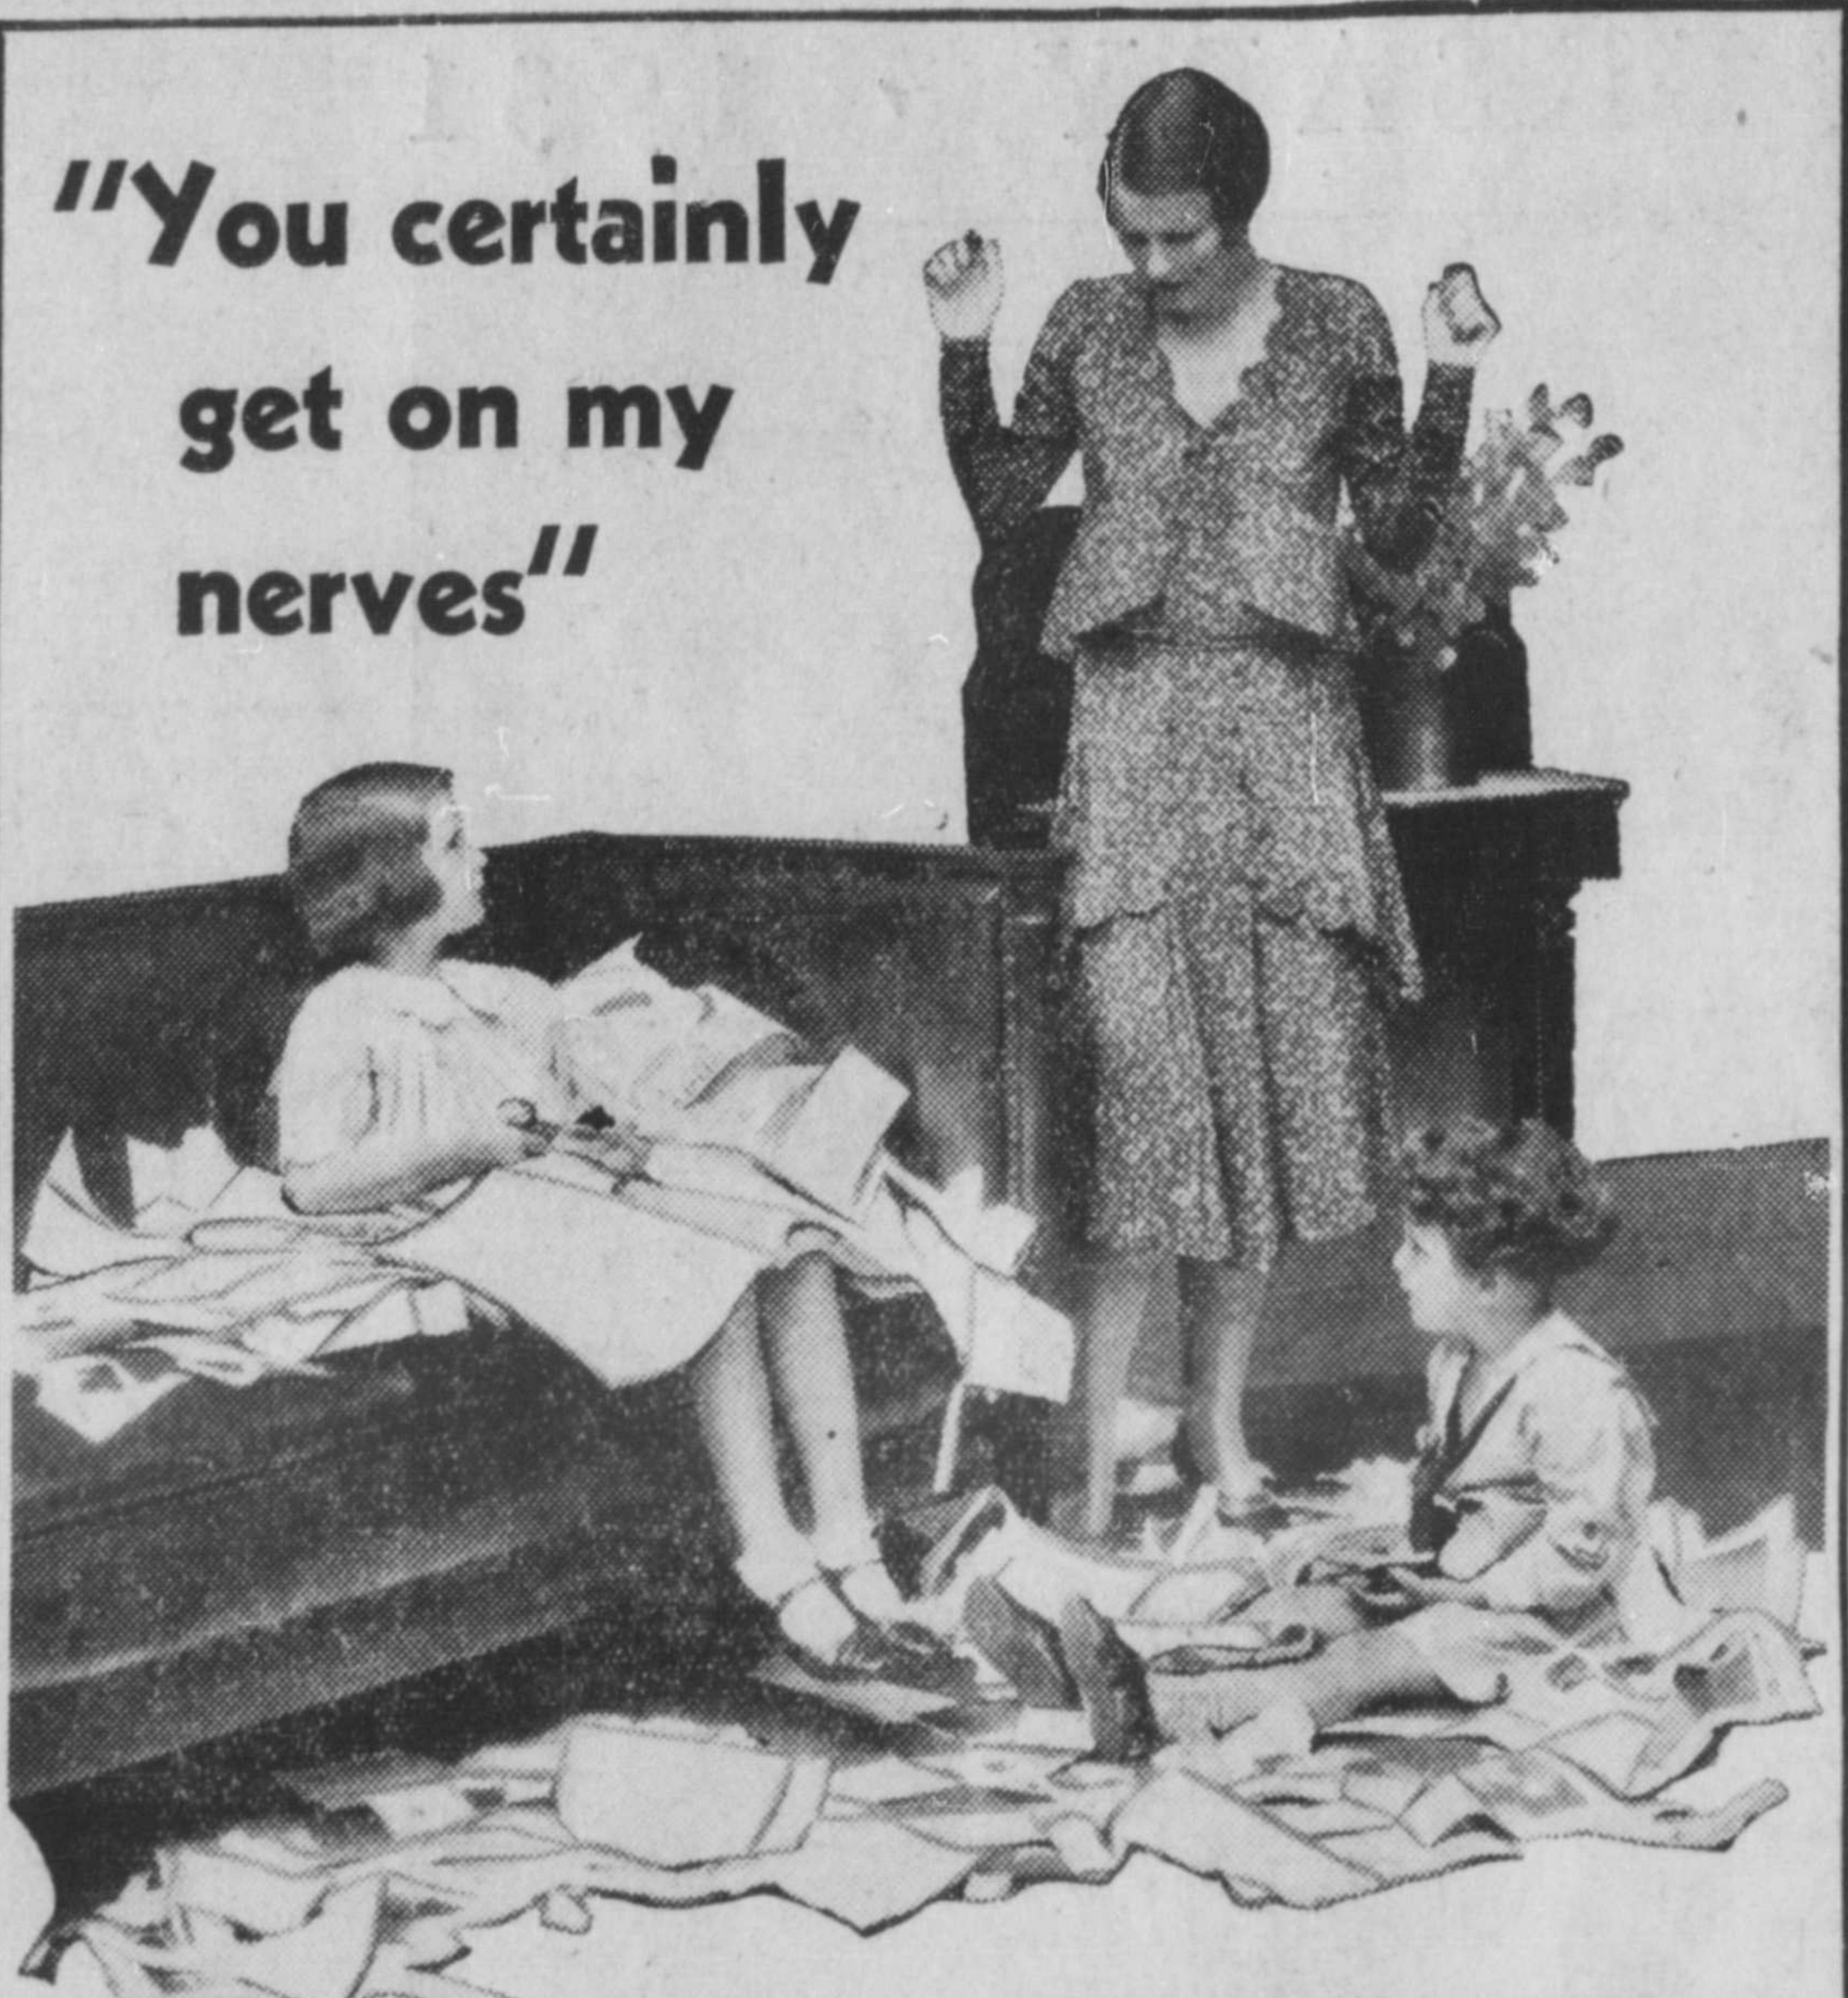

FIFTY years have welded the Canadian Pacific into one harmonious organization effective alike on land and sea. It is the significant transportation system of a nation that is becoming a world power, with an export trade which is being extended to every country on the globe. The red and white chequer'd flag on Canadian Pacific Steamships carries around the world the story of Canada's growth.

CANADIAN PACIFIC

CANADIAN PACIFIC TODAY

The Empress of Britain is Canada's Challenger on the Atlantic. For the first time in Atlantic history a ship has been built with every first-class bedroom an outside one with natural light and air. To Canada belongs this innovation . . . The Canadian Pacific Railway runs from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean. Its liners sail from Vancouver and Victoria to Japan and China, and from Montreal, Quebec and Saint John to Great Britain and the Continent. It operates winter cruises to the Mediterranean, the West Indies and Round the World; summer cruises to Norway; a winter service to Bermuda, and a coastal service to Alaska. Its chateaux and hotels represent the latest word in comfort and luxury. Its telegraph service employs 225,000 miles of wire. Its express travellers' cheques are current all over the world. Canadian Pacific offices and agents are to be found everywhere.

"You certainly get on my nerves"

It is impossible to avoid Irritability and Worry when the Nervous System is Run Down

IRRITABILITY like worry wastes the nerve force at a tremendous rate. Fits of anger and excitement put an unbearable strain on the heart and nerves especially when these organs are already in a weakened condition. Disorders of the nerves do not right themselves but tend to become worse because of the exhausting effect of sleeplessness, loss of appetite and indigestion. New nerve force must be restored to the system by the use of such treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. By this means the building up process is established and health and vigor are gradually and certainly brought back.

WATERFRONT WHIFFS

To Settle Seal Question—The Matter of Fish Prices—Halibut Landings

Seeking evidence to settle the question whether the fur seals of the west coast of British Columbia are a menace to the salmon industry, an investigation of the seals' diet will be made during the coming summer. The tests will be carried out by the department of fisheries in co-operation with the department of Indian affairs. W. E. Ditchburn, commissioner of Indian affairs, is arranging for Indian seal hunters to examine the contents of the stomachs of fifty of the fur seals. Under the Pelagic Sealing Treaty passed in 1911 only Indians, armed with spears, are legally entitled to hunt fur seals off the coast while the herd proceeds northward to the breeding grounds off Alaska. The use of gasboats is banned, too, so the natives must do their hunting from canoes. Provisions will be made to have the stomachs examined at a time when the salmon are running on the coast. The Indians will be paid $5 per stomach, and these will be placed in receptacles with formalin preparatory to being shipped for examination by the biological branch of the fisheries department. For years it has been a matter of controversy as to whether or not the fur seals actually accounted for a serious loss of the salmon. Fishermen have contended that the seals are the chief destructive agency in the salmon industry and that they should be slaughtered off in order that the fish run be protected. The serious inroads made upon the salmon by the hair seals, of much less commercial value than the fur seals, are well known and accordingly the government has carried on a campaign of extermination against that species. The fur seal, however, has been protected. If it is found that the fur seal is really an important cause of destroying the salmon, it will probably be a matter for arbitration between the nations involved in the Pelagic Sealing Treaty to decide whether the seal or the salmon shall be saved. On the other hand, several authorities contend that the seals are a minor source of trouble and that they should be left alone to multiply. The fur seal industry, as at present carried on under severe restrictions, is an important revenue producer.

which is presented for what it may be worth. On the present trip of the schooner Dorothy, to the northern halibut banks, with scientists of the International Fisheries Commission on board, a study is being made of the drift of larvae, particularly with the idea of determining whether the banks along the British Columbia coast receive larvae from westward spawning grounds. An effort will also be made to determine which spawning grounds are of the greatest value. After the charter to the International Fisheries Commission has been filled, the Dorothy will return to Seattle to take over a charter to the Fishermen's Packing Corporation.

Following a recent serious operation, P. B. Gill, secretary of the Deep Sea Fishermen's Union, was recently recovered sufficiently to resume the active duties of his office. No announcement has been made as to who is to be the new permanent director of the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station, succeeding D. B. Finn, who resigned a year ago to join the service of the B. C. Packers. It is expected that the choice will soon be made known.

Inspection of boats to be used for fishery patrol service during the coming salmon season was in progress this week under the direction of John W. Allen, superintendent engineer for the fisheries department. Many boats have been put in for the work this season. It is understood to be the policy of the department to use, as far as possible, boats that are employed in bona fide fishery operations. There will not be as many pleasure boats as usual out on the patrol service, it is understood.

Halibut Landings
Halibut landings at the port of Prince Rupert for the 1931 season up to and including yesterday totalled 5,567,940 pounds as compared with 8,452,100 pounds at a similar date last year. Canadian landings so far this year have totalled 2,543,800 pounds as against 2,741,300 pounds, the big decrease being in American landings which, so far, have aggregated but 3,023,340 as against 5,710,800 pounds. Prices during the whole week continued at a low ebb, the top bid for American fish being 8.4c and 4c which was paid the Bonanza for 16,000 and the low 6c and 3c which a few boats were paid. The high

Prince Rupert salmon trollers are being faced with a low price difficulty just such as the halibut fishermen are experiencing. Indeed, many of the trolling boats have felt compelled to tie up, contending that they cannot even pay expenses at the present low level of prices. May and June are usually the big months of the year for trolling activity but, with so many boats tying up, it does not look this year like there will be the usual volume of production although there is reported to be an abundance of fish.

ASSOCIATED BOARD MEET
Central British Columbia Trade Body to Meet in Burns Lake In August
The Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia had a letter before the local chamber of commerce last night drawing attention to the fact that it was proposed to hold the convention of the associated boards in Burns Lake on August 4 and 5 next. A report was expected to be forthcoming soon on resolutions that had been passed at the last convention. Meantime, the associated boards suggested that the time might be ripe now to formulate resolutions for the forthcoming convention.
The local chamber decided to remit its fees to the associated boards amounting to 50c per head of the local membership.
