JAPANESE TROOPS ADVANCING STEADILY ON CHINCHOW

THE NEW YEAR

The Daily News wishes all its readers a more prosperous year for 1932 than was 1931.

In the year just closing there have been many disappointments. Financial conditions have been gradually becoming worse but the concensus of opinion is that the worst has been passed and that the future is full of hope.

Prophecies as to the future are not worth much but possibly the most hopeful local feature of to-, day is the prevalent expectation that the market for fish will be much better in the coming year than in the past. As fishing is the chief industry of Prince Rupert it naturally follows that condi- 4 JAPANESE TROOPS tions in the city should improve. + Today we are suffering from the failure of the fish market of last

Looks Like Next Move Will Be Upon China's Final Stronghold of Authority in Manchuria-Foreign Troops Are Forty Miles Distant Now

MUKDEN, Dec. 31:-Five regiments of fur-clad Japanese infantry marched into Kowpangtze, forty miles from Chinchow, today and took the town without trouble, camping there for the night. It looked as though the next move would be against Chinchow, China's last stronghold of authority in Manchuria, where evacuation by the Chinese forces has already commenced.

NEW YEAR RESOLUTION

Glen Gulick, editor of "Rotary Fillets" suggests as a good New Year resolution subject:

"When talking about "getting even" with people, why do you always have reference to someone who has done you a real or fancied wrong? Haven't a whole lot of folks been kind to you and done you favors? Why not devote your spare time to "getting even" with them. Here then might be a resolution:

"When I get even with someone it will always be by paying a debt I owe and not by paying off a real or fancied wrong by committing another wrong."

Another resolution which naturally goes with the other might read something like this:

"I will always try to remember the pleasant things OWN HOMES; people have said and done and will ignore and try to forget the unpleasant things."

SIR GEORGE FOSTER

Until the past few years Sir George Foster was one of Christian Science Monitor Discusses the best known Canadians. He took a prominent part in any cause with which he was connected and his opinions were listened to with respect. He was very prominent in political life as a Conservative and was greatly opposed to the use of liquor. He espoused the cause of prohibition as being the best means of reducing the amount of liquor consumed by the people of Canada.

During the past few years Sir George retired to the which, probably without intention, Senate where, amid the calm of the senatorial atmosphere he indulged from time to time in less caustic debates and espoused the cause of world peace.

Sir George Foster was a splendid Canadian and he came very near to being numbered among the great.

APPOINTMENT

Problem Arising Out of Unemployment Relief

While President Hoover's Conerence on Home Ownership still is fresh in thought there have come for Vancouver later. to notice two instances of a condiometimes places a penalty on home ownership, says an editorial in the Christian Science Monitor.

A woman in a Pacific Coast state whose husband, a carpenter, has had only a few days' work in many months, applied reluctantly at last to the county welfare board for aid. This couple owned a home which were property owners.

True, the county offered the man some work on the roads, but two weeks in these circumstances is a long time to wait for a pay envelope. Owners of a house were preumed to have resources, but they could not eat or wear the house. and if they used the rent from it for their own needs they would lose the home by foreclosure.

Deserve Consideration

Surely: if those who undertake the responsibilities of home ownership are valuable to a community; -and there is no doubt that they are—their stability should entitle them to consideration in time of adversity. The case just described is almost duplicated by the experience of a New England family. Theirs is a three-family house. One suite is vacant. The second brings no income because members of that family, like themselves, are out of work. Again, official regulations stand in the way of aid. And taxes must be paid on the house.

Legislatures might well consider whether relief laws ought to draw such rigid lines against the person who, for all his ownership of a certain kind of property, may be in actual want. But laws and ordinances can hardly be changed at once. The many unemployment relief committees which have just raised or are raising funds by private contribution all over the United States can meet this exigency more readily than official bureaus. To them is commended as being especially meritorious the case of the family anywhere, that is trying, at the cost of adequate food and clothing, to hold its slender, mortgage-ridden thread of title to a home.

Sir George Foster Played Part of Note and Usefulness in Life of Canada For Nearly 50 Years.

Charles Tupper, lasting from 1892 to 1896, Sir George continued to hold the finance portfolio.

Tasted Defeat

In 1896 the Conservative government went forth into the wilderness, where it remained for 15 years. Twice contesting seats in that period, once in Saint John, N.B., in 1900, and again in Northern Ontario in 1903. Sir George tasted political defeat. But in 1904 he returned to the House of Commons, sent thither by the constituency of North Toronto, Until his elevation to the Senate in 1921 he sat for this riding, not again courting the political favors of his native New Brunswick,

When the government of Sir Robert L. Borden succeeded that of the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier following the Reciprocity Election of 1911. Sir George was given the portfolio of trade and commerce.

During the Great War, Si George, with other members of the Canadian parliament, visited the Western Front. There they were conducted to a number of Canadian battalions in reserve positions, Si George delivering brief speeches of encouragement to the troops and meeting the officers. During 1916 he attended the allied economic conference at Paris, as one of the four representatives of the British government, and in that year he was appointed a member of the Imperial Privy Council-a distinction which carried with it the title of "Right Honorable."

Following the war, Sir George accompanied Sir Robert Borden t P. J. Ryan will sail tonight on the peace conference. Two years later, in Sir Robert's absence from Ottawa, he became acting prime minister. His elevation to the Senate in 1921 was just prior to the dedian Mounted Police, having been feat of the Meighen administration recently appointed to the position in which he had again held the of-Mr. Ryan is one of the real pio- fice of minister of trade and comneers of the north country and merce. Police court fines in the city of The funeral of the late Mrs. There was a good deal less work in on Monday morning of last week sent by many friends in Prince Rupert of deceased and her family.

> All members of the late Mrs. Dalby's family were in attendance at the funeral, some of them having come from considerable distance to be present at the obsequies. Norman came from Edmonton. Arthur Dalby from Des Moines, Jowa, Herbert Dalby from Watino, Alberta, Miss Evelyn Dalby and Stanley from Prince Rupert. Another daughter. Mrs. Arthur Wootten (formerly Miss Annie Dalby) resides at Royal Oak.

The son from Des Moines, Iowa, flew from that Middle West city to Dickie. Oregon. From the latter point to Victoria he had to travel by train and boat owing to the stormy weather.

Mr. Dalby, sr., who was able to leave hospital in Vancouver the day before Mrs. Dalby's death, is much improved, according to word received in the city, but still has to use crutches. He intends to re-$9,785.50 $5,285.00 main for some time at Royal Oak with his daughter, Mrs. Wootton. Miss Evelyn Dalby and Stanley Dalby are expected to return to the city on the Catala Sunday evening accompanied north by their brother Herbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Dalby. sr., were in Prince Rupert for Christmas when the sudden demise of the latter occurred.

COMEBACK DOUBTFUL

Chances of Jack Dempsey to Regain Heavyweight Championship Discussed

NEW YORK, Dec. 31: - Jack Dempsey's ability to stage a comeback in the heavyweight ring is doubted by the most of expert observers. It is four years ago new since Dempsey had his last fight with Jack Sharkey. His legs, it is recalled, were none too good then and can hardly be expected to have improved since that time. In any case, he has reached the age where such improvement is usually impossible.

The only thing that might be taken to favor a Dempsey comeback is that the present stock of heavyweights is far below par in general average.

Promise Yourself

To be strong, that nothing can disturb your peace of mind. To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet. To make all your friends feel that there is something in them. To look at the sunny side of everything, and so make your optimism come true. To think only of the best, and to expect only the best. To be as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own. To forget the mistalies of the past and to press on to the greater achievements of the future. To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature a smile. To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others. To be too big for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.

May the New Year Bring Prosperity

The time seems opportune, at the close of the year, to express our appreciation to all those customers who so generously favored us with their patronage. We have made every endeavor, during the past year, to place commodities in the hands of the consumer at the lowest possible cost and it is our intention to carry out this same policy during the coming year, which we sincerely trust will be a happy and prosperous one for all.

In "Caught Plastered" at Capitol Theatre

Robert Woolsey and Bert Wheeler. famous comedy team, are twofisted, hard-riding knock 'em dead drugstore cowboys in their latest comedy triumph "Caught Plastered," now showing at the Capitol Theatre. They lasso gags, bulldog bonmots and ride laughter all over the place when they take over the operation of a small town apothe-

"Caught Plastered" is the strongest story yet attempted by the duo; and ranks probably as their finest The comedians gambol ludicrously into good samaritanism, save an old lady from the poorhouse, put a bankrupt business on its feet and foil the plot of a suave villain.

The current program at the Capitol Theatre also offers an exceptionally fine set of "shorts."

Afternate Thursdays following her return there from the Alaska voyage, the Princess Mary will
