VIEWS HEARD ON PROPOSAL TRADE ALASKA PANHANDLE

Ottawa Is Amused at Swapping Plan Urged by New York Chamber

Dominion Has No Power to Dicker With Territory of Provinces—Suggestion is Called Preposterous By Seattle Official—Ketchikan Facetious

OTTAWA, Dec. 9:—The proposal of the Rome, New York, Chamber of Commerce to trade the Alaskan Panhandle to Canada for land south of the St. Lawrence River belonging to Canada caused some amusement here. It was pointed out that the Canadian constitution was not framed in a manner enabling the Dominion to trade territory of one province for territory which would go to another. In order to effect such a trade as has been suggested, land would have to be taken away from Quebec while that to be acquired would go to British Columbia.

SEATTLE, Dec. 9:—To trade the Alaskan Panhandle to Canada as proposed in Rome, New York, would be preposterous, Charles D. Garfield, Alaska secretary of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce, said yesterday. From potential wealth of that portion of Alaska, the United States could take enough to purchase the coveted land along the St. Lawrence River without missing the purchase price, he said.

Ketchikan Facetious KETCHIKAN, Dec. 9:—The Ketchikan Alaska Chronicle newspaper yesterday quoted the business men of Ketchikan as saying that the proposal of the Rome, New York, Chamber of Commerce to trade the Alaskan Panhandle to Canada was too late as, due to the low price of fish, "negotiations are already under way to give the country back to the Indians."

VANCOUVER IS VOTING

Municipal Election on in Victoria Tomorrow—Five Candidates For Mayoralty

VANCOUVER, Dec. 9:—Today is municipal election day in Vancouver and tomorrow in Victoria. In Vancouver not a great deal of interest has been taken owing to the fact that there is no mayoralty contest, Mayor L. D. Taylor having another year to serve. Elections are being held in six of 12 aldermanic wards as well as for school board and parks board seats.

In Victoria there are five candidates in the field for the mayoralty in succession to Mayor Herbert Anson, who has retired. Voting will also take place in the capital for city council, school board and police commission seats.

Candidates for mayor of Victoria are E. B. Andros, David Leeming, Frank Leroy, W. H. Sargent and E. S. Woodward.

Secretary of Agriculture Blame Wheat Seeds Planted Years Ago for Distress Among Wheat Growers

Has Been Bad Year

Seldom Has More Extreme Example of Overproduction Existed

WASHINGTON, D.C., 9.—The annual report of Secretary of Agriculture Arthur M. Hyde made public yesterday contains the following summary of the wheat situation:

"This has been a disastrous year for wheat growers, but the first seeds of the trouble were planted many years ago. They were wheat seeds and led to world-wide overproduction. When the war deprived Russia of its customary wheat market in western Europe and also curtailed all European wheat production, the wheat industry was enormously stimulated in the United States, Canada, Argentina, and Australia. Our own wheat area decreased after the war but rose again to 61,464,000 acres in 1929, and was only about 6 per cent. below that figure this year. In Canada, Argentina, and Australia, after a spurt during the war period and a temporary decline afterwards, wheat acreage climbed similarly. The aggregate increase for these three countries between 1924 and 1929 was no less than 10,000,000 acres. Russia began expanding its wheat acreage in 1923 and reentered the world's wheat market in 1930 with a wheat production equal to or greater than its pre-war production. The wheat area in Russia harvested in 1931 was officially reported to be 92,400,000 acres, an increase of 8,600,000 acres over the 1930 wheat acreage. Including the estimated production of Russia but not that of China the world's wheat output in 1931 was nearly 4,900,000,000 bushels, compared with a pre-war record of about 4,100,000,000 bushels in 1913.

"Seldom has a more extreme example of overproduction existed in modern agriculture. It is a cumulative, and not merely a seasonal condition. This is shown by the mounting world carry-overs, which demonstrate that more wheat is produced annually than is consumed annually. On July 1, 1931 the world carry-over of wheat was estimated at 679,000,000 bushels as compared with 578,000,000 bushels on July 1, 1930. These figures include, for the United States, an item not formerly included, namely, an estimate of wheat stored by mills for other interests. Leaving out this item, and estimating the carry-over on the old basis, the world's carry-over on July 1, 1931 (Continued on page six.)

TO RELIEVE DISTRESSED

Gyro Club Decides to Raise Fund of $500 to Be Used After New Year—Officers Nominated

The Prince Rupert Gyro Club, at its monthly business luncheon yesterday, decided to raise the sum of $500 to be used in relief work in the city after the Christmas and New Year season at which time it is expected the need will be great. As one means of raising the funds, the club decided to hold a Charity Ball on December 17. It is also planned to hold a turkey shoot. Should the objective of $500 not be raised within the specified time, it is proposed to take the balance required from the club's trust fund for public service work. The club proposes to form a special committee to administer the relief fund.

This matter and nomination of 1932 officers of the club were the principal items of business at yesterday's luncheon. It was decided to cancel the regular monthly open meeting which would fall on the Wednesday of Christmas week.

The nominations for 1932 officers were made as follows:

For President, William Cruickshank and William Mitchell.

For Secretary, A. S. Nickerson and C. E. Starr.

For Treasurer, S. J. Jabour and W. M. Watts.

For directors (two to be elected) H. A. Breen, T. W. Brown, Frank Dibb, Dr. L. W. Kergin, William Mitchell, M. M. McLachlan and W. H. Tobey.

The election of officers will take place on January 12 and installation on January 26.

All People Will Have To Pay Bigger Levies In Southern Country

President Hoover Tells Congress of Seriousness of Situation—Thirty-Month Limit on Revised Scales is Proposed

WASHINGTON, D.C., Dec. 9:—The administration recommended today that Congress raise taxes next month for nearly the entire people. President Herbert Hoover submitted a budget bordering on $4,000,000,000 and stressed the fact that, unless action is taken, the government would pile up a deficit of almost $4,500,000,000 by the end of next fiscal year.

The proposed new levies would take effect next month to apply on this year's incomes. The president urged a thirtymonth limit on the revised scales.

Earl of Durham Closes His Home

Heavy Taxation and Succession of Death Dues Makes It Necessary

LONDON, Dec. 9:—The Earl of Durham, owing to heavy taxation and a succession of death duties following the deaths of the two late earls within a short period, has decided to close Lambton Castle, his ancestral home, six miles from Durham, and sell most of the contents.

A stately pile of the River Wear, the castle was built in 1797 from the plans of an Italian architect. The ruins of an old castle stand on the opposite bank of the river.

The third and fourth earls of Durham died within four months of each other in 1929, and in that period the estate, estimated at $10,000,000 paid $5,000,000 in death duties.

Mother of Six Children Is In Dire Need of Clothing; All Under Six Years of Age

Money is still coming slowly for the Salvation Army fund, yet the number of people who should be helped is greater than ever before. Captain Steele has many requests for help both from people in the city and outside. Here is an example. A mother of six children, one of which is three months old, writes: "I wish you could help me out a little as I am in debt over my head on account of hard times and doctor's bills. We all need stockings, underwear and shoes." She then goes on to give the sizes ranging from three months to six years.

This is only one example and is one that must be answered. Who can help?

Money should be sent either to the Salvation Army or to the Daily News and will be all accounted for. Clothes or shoes should go to Army headquarters.

The following are acknowledged.

Bob Ives, $5.00. George Woodland, $5.00. Mrs. Denny Allen, sack of potatoes.

Sharp Pains In His Heart Nerves In Bad Condition

Mr. Fred J. Chase, Thomson Station, N.S., writes:—"I have used Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills with wonderful results. My heart would beat so fast I would have to sit down when at work chopping in the woods. I had sharp pains in my heart when I would lie down at night. My nerves were also in a very bad condition, but after using two boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I feel just fine, and am fourteen pounds heavier than I have been for years."

UNITED STATES DEFICIT

For a number of years while all the rest of the world was suffering financially as a result of the war United States was showing annual surpluses and there seemed plenty of money in the country for all purposes. Now things are being reversed. The message to Congress of President Hoover yesterday was anything but an optimistic document. The deficit of two billion and the intimation that next year would show another two billion on the wrong side of the ledger was anything but encouraging. Also the need of federal action to meet the present emergency was admitted and Congress was invited to bring into being an emergency reconstruction corporation.

It is a new situation for the statesmen of the republic to have to grapple with, something of which they have had little experience. It will be interesting to note how they meet it.

TRADING THE PANHANDLE

Another proposal is being made to hand over the Alaskan panhandle to Canada in exchange for other territory. This time the suggestion comes from the American side.

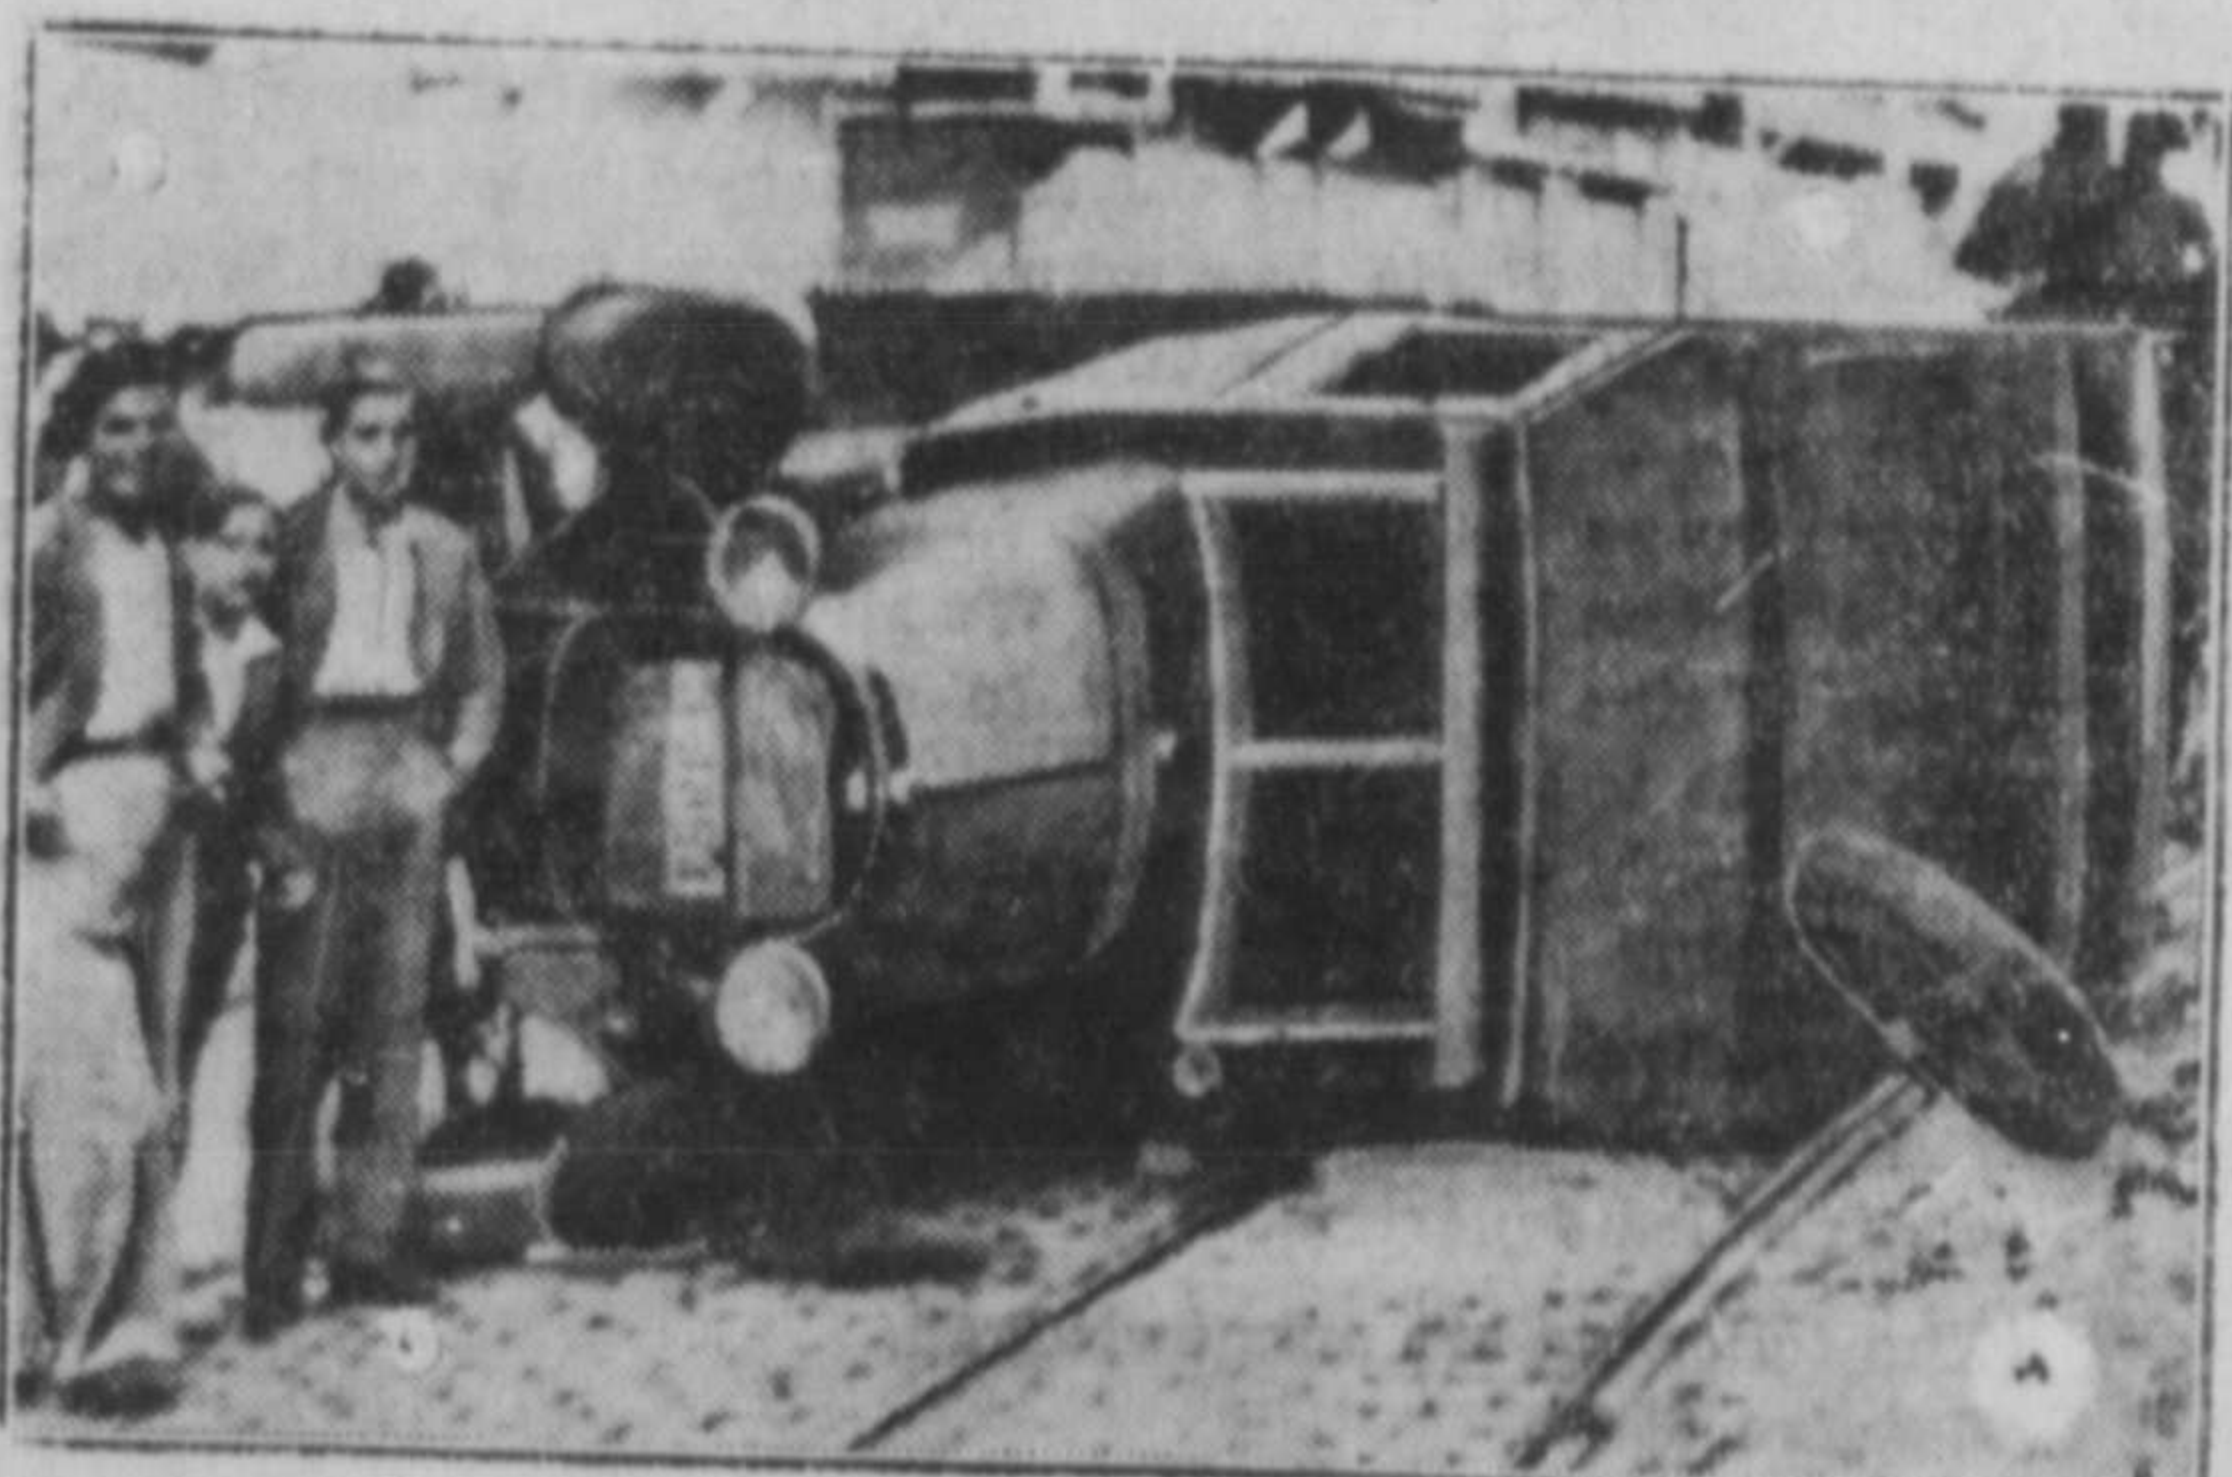

While we do not think the exchange proposal is feasible, it would be heartily welcomed by Canadians in this part of the country. It would be a great thing for British Columbia because it would give access to a huge country that is at present hampered by customs restrictions.

Probably the exchange would be a good thing for the Panhandle as well as for British Columbia. Prince Rupert would stand to gain because it would bring the towns of Northern B. C. and Alaska into much closer touch than at present.

ONE OF THE DIFFICULTIES

One of the difficulties in connection with the settlement of the Indian question is the playing for power of the great religious sects in that country. The Moslem, the Sikh and the Hindu cannot agree and, there seems no hope of future agreement. Each at the Round Table Conference played for position in connection with the proposed new constitution. Then there is keen opposition to the federal system on the part of the great southern states unless some definite guarantee is given of the price they have to pay for becoming part of a great Indian federation.

REPORT OF ENGINEERS

Findings on Peace River Outlet Expected to Be Presented By End of Year

Before the end of the year, according to reports from Ottawa, engineers of the two major Canadian railways will have presented their reports and recommendations on route for Peace-to-Pacific railway lines, says the Financial News of Vancouver. Recipient of this advice will be the Dominion government.

While the report will be largely scientific and technical, dealing primarily with the subject of construction problems, it should be considered in conjunction with the general facts of progress in the Peace River country, much of which has been made during the period in which the report has been under preparation.

Just 20 years ago the Province of Alberta grew 29,066,000 bushels of wheat. This year the Peace River country has a wheat harvest estimated at 20,000,000 bushels. It is one area where the railways are deriving more agricultural tonnage this year than a year ago.

In the history of the Peace River country there has never been a drought and never a crop failure. Only once—in 1916—was there an early frost and this hazard, with the harder wheat varieties of today, is no longer a serious menace.

Development possibilities are greater in the Peace River district than in any other part of the prairies. The assurance of crop success through adequate fall of rain is more constant than in any other prairie region, and the climate is less rigorous in winter, holding forth the hope of a more stable population than elsewhere on the prairies where severe winters generate amongst most settlers the hope of eventual removal to a mild climate.

Regardless of its coal, its timber, its waterpower, its non-metallic minerals, the record of wheat and mixed farming production in the Peace River country in 1930 and 1931 when the rest of the prairies suffered from drought rust and other damage, has justified the belief that in Peace River the railways of Canada have today their most promising prospect of great and consistent agricultural tonnage.

Speculators Justified

Peace River stands today where Southern Alberta stood 20 years ago. In 1911 the railway companies considered that money spent on branch lines in Alberta was an eminently satisfactory investment in the future of a rich agricultural country. They were right. How much more justified they would be today in speculating optimistically on the future of the Peace River country.

It is well within the realm of possibility that Peace River will equal Alberta's present wheat crop of 133,000,000 bushels in less than a decade. And when that time comes the country drained by the Peace will be growing another 30,000,000 bushels or more of coarse grains and will be producing many other kinds of farm products in abundance.

The speed with which this development takes place will be governed by two considerations. One will be the provision of adequate and low cost transportation. The other will be general market conditions. Of the two the former is by far the more important. For even with continuing low commodity prices it is conceivable that increase in Peace River settlement will go on, and the migration thence from less favored parts of the prairies will be continuous.

To the casual mind it may seem an approach to folly in considering a large scale railway project for the Peace River country at present. But a little analysis and common sense reasoning would suggest that there can be no better investment for all Canada than to spend the necessary money to give Peace River low cost access to a Pacific port and to further develop branch lines in that province, encouraging development of greater export and consumptive tonnage there.

It is to be hoped that the forthcoming report by railway experts will serve to bring this entire project well forward in the Canadian mind, as one of present urgency in the interest of national prosperity.

TRIBUTE TO CAPT. TROUP

Death is Mourned of Steamship Man Who Was Known From 'Frisco to Rupert

Flags are half-mast today at the taffrails of the gallant "coast fleet," and the word has gone from ship to ship of them all, says the Vancouver Province editorially. Captain James Troup is dead. Shipmaster and shipbuilder, son and father of seamen, he is done with the sea at last and come to his ultimate port. He was known "from 'Frisco to Rupert," and down in Montreal, and along the ways of the Clydebank shipyards, but best of all—and there he will be most greatly missed—among the men and the craft of the coastwise shipping of British Columbia. He was commodore of the finest coastwise fleet of the steam passenger vessels in all the world, and far more than any other man's, it was the work of his hands and brain and heart. Captain James W. Troup, dead in his seventy-sixth year, built his own memorial.

It was in the first year of the new century, thirty years ago, that he came to the service of the Canadian Pacific Railway, when that company took over the old fleet of the Canadian Pacific Navigation Company. The old Charmer, now tied up at the wharf at Newcastle Island, was of that fleet. The others, Islander, Amur, Teer, Yosemite and the rest, are now only memories and names. But that fleet, was the nucleus and beginnings of the splendid succession of fast and beautiful vessels which has made the name and reputation of the B. C. Coast Service second to none in all the seven seas, and the credit for them belongs first of all to Captain Troup.

He laid the foundation of it with the Princess Victoria ("The Old Victoria"), his own design and the pride of the fleet for twenty years. He was a complete master of ships. He knew what they were for, and how they should be built, and he knew how they should be manned and found and managed when they were built. He was in harness until three years ago, and he served ships and shipping faithfully and well, for upwards of fifty years.

They like to tell a story about Captain Troup in the wheelhouses and the forecastles of the coast fleet. It is the story of the trial run of the splendid new Princess Kathleen, coming up the Sound from Seattle to Victoria, and overhauling the old Princess Victoria fast enough to beat her into port—the old Victoria, first of the Captain's own boats and the pride of his heart. "Slow her down," said Captain Troup to the skipper of the Kathleen, "and don't let her pass the old Victoria." And that was how it was. He was a straight man, a man of his word, and a dour man, sometimes, but he had that in him. He played a sizeable part in the making of British Columbia, and we ought to salute him as he goes over the side.

Twenty Years Ago

In Prince Rupert

December 9, 1911

Opposition was expressed at a meeting of the Property Holders' Association in the Presbyterian Church Hall last night to the proposal to divide the city into three aldermanic wards. W. H. Montgomery was among those who spoke in opposition to the proposal. Under such a system it was held that Sections One and Five would have six aldermen while Sections Six, Seven and Eight would have only three between them. The Hays Creek sewer question was also discussed by the meeting.

In France only 28% of the working population are industrially employed. Of the estimated 21,000,000 workers, 8,590,000 are farmers, and of these, 5,000,000 own their own little farms.

PLANS FOR CONSERVING OF HALIBUT

International Fisheries Commission Believes Further Action is Necessary in Order to Protect Pacific Halibut Stocks

VICTORIA, Dec. 8.—Recommendations of the International Fisheries Commission, under which Canadian and United States halibut fleets operate in North Pacific waters, which are likely to embody a definite set of proposals for the conservation of the halibut fisheries on this coast and afford a greater measure of protection against fast depleting supplies on the fishing grounds, will be forwarded to the Federal Governments of the two countries in the course of the next few weeks. It is understood here.

John P. Babcock, chairman of the commission and assistant provincial commissioner of fisheries, has returned to the city from Prince Rupert where conferences were held with the industry, in company with W. A. Found, Deputy Commissioner of Fisheries for the Federal Government, at Ottawa. Mr. Babcock declined to anticipate what the report of the International Fisheries Commission to the respective governments would contain, but reiterated a statement made by members of the commission on many previous occasions that further action to conserve halibut stocks would have to be taken.

He thinks the government is

BASKETBALL LAST NIGHT

Panthers Defeat 32 Taxi By Score of 28-18 in Senior League

Intermediate Close

Margins in Other Games Were Rather Wide

Senior League—Panthers, 28; 32 Taxi, 18. Ladies' League—Cardinals, 18; Comets, 6. Intermediate League—Merchants, 19; High School, 17. Junior League—Boy Scouts, 22; Rovers, 9.

Last night's senior basketball game started slowly. Each team was playing cautiously and depending entirely upon individual effort and long range shooting. As usual, of course, they realized that, without a little team play, it would be a very tame and uninspiring affair. Panthers had tough luck in their shooting and, although they occasionally sank one, it was soon noticed that the efforts of Menzies, Ratchford and Gurvich were giving 32 a lead that might be hard to overcome. There were flashes of combination with Mitchell engineering one or two pretty endeavors for the Panthers. Both teams failed to converge their play towards the basket. Long shooting, or even shooting of any kind, is useless unless provision is made for snaring the rebounds. And the Panthers kept losing possession of the ball by failing to make this safeguard. The halftime score saw the Taximen comfortably ensconced in a 12-7 lead.

Resuming play, the Panthers turned to combination, open play and short well-timed passing. Macdonald, however, fumbled many passes and spoiled several fine united efforts that looked very dangerous. The Panthers were gradually overtaking their opponents, chiefly due to the steady influence of Mitchell who, after starting several exciting plays, threw in a nice overhead loop and brought the score to 16-15 for the Taximen. The pace increased, with Panthers getting the best of the play due to some fine work under the basket on the part of Cross. Irvine was also shooting often and played hard but managed to tally only two field baskets. The Panther combination now equalled any that the C. N. R. team, which has led the way in organized play, has ever exhibited. Mitchell was the outstanding player and scored under the basket to put Panthers on the carefree end of a 19-16 score. S. Gurvich substituted for Frizzell who hadn't been fitting in so well, but it was of no avail. After several really brilliant combination efforts, Irvine scored and Cross dropped in two more in quick succession to finish the struggle at 25-18 for the Panthers. For the Taximen Menzies, D. Gurvich and Ratchford were the best, but in the second half they lacked good co-ordination of play.

Panthers—Cross (8), Irvine (6), Kelsey (3), Mitchell (6), Macdonald (2), Lyons, total, 28. 32 Taxi—Frizzell (4), Stalker (1), D. Gurvich (4), Menzies, Ratchford (7), Wrathall (2), S. Gurvich; total, 18.

Ladies' Game

The girls' game was quite a hectic battle and brought forth some exciting and strenuous play. The first half saw the two teams evenly matched, battling evenly all the way with Lowe showing well for the Cardinals, and with Roberts and Harvey strong for the Comets. In the second half, though, Comets lost Steen who was badly shaken up in a scrimmage. Connery subbed for her. With their opponents thus weakened, the Cardinals hastened to take their advantage. Lowe went on a scoring spree and dropped in five field baskets. Irvine and Krikevsky garnered two more, while the Comets got only one after some fine playing by Roberts. Harvey worked hard and effectively but failed to score. Steen returned to the game and the Comets improved but were unable to stop the confident Cardinals who were combining well and flashing good team play and shooting. The game ended 18-6 for the Cardinals.

Cardinals—Lowe (13), Irvine (2), Stone, Krikevsky (3), Rivett; total, 18. Comets—Steen, Roberts (2), Harvey, Jack (2), Gurvich (2); total, 6. Referee, Walter Johnson.

Intermediate Game

The Intermediate game of the evening staged between the Merchants and the High School was alone worth the price of admission. A finer exhibition of real basketball could hardly be wished for. The game was of lightning speed from start to finish. The teams were evenly matched and at no stage in the game was either team in the lead by more than three points. Referee Bill Mitchell kept the game clean by permitting no unnecessary roughness.

The players were so encouraged by the cheering spectators with a result that they put every ounce of possible strength and energy into the game. Towards the end of the game cheering became so great, that the referee was obliged to demand quietness so that the whistle might be heard.

The Merchants easily played their best game of the season. Their defence and forward line played perfectly together. Their passes were short and most of their shots were from under the basket. As a result, they took an early lead in the game. The tremendous speed and energy displayed by the Merchants from the start entitled them to win. Their only danger lay in maintaining this pace throughout the game. However, at the end of the first half they held the lead by one point.

The second half was still more spectacular than the first. The players were wound up and prepared for action. Vance was a rigid guard for the High School and this permitted the High School forwards to direct almost all their attention to shooting and they took the lead. For a period of ten minutes right up till the final whistle it was anybody's game. The crowd was almost mad and they expressed their emotions by shrieking and howling wildly.

With less than two minutes to play High School was in the lead by one point, then Pierce scored for the Merchants and Comadina scored a penalty which gave the Merchants a victory by two points. To pick out individual players would be unnecessary for they all played equally well.

Merchants—Currie, Pierce (6), Eric Dingwell (6), Comadina (3), Fred Dingwell (2), J. McNulty (2), F. Morrison; total, 19. High School—Walters (4), Vance (2), Wingham (3), Unger (8), Forbes, Ross; total, 17. Referee, Bill Mitchell.

Junior Game

The Junior game between the Boy Scouts and Rovers was rather one-sided. The Rovers were weak and their only player was McKinley. The Rovers defence was weak and the Scouts found it easy to shoot as often as they pleased. The Rovers were also very inaccurate shots. The Scouts maintained their usual good team work and played circles around the Rovers. The Rovers simply weren't able to catch themselves and the Scouts practically made the game a shooting practice. The score was 22-9 for the Scouts.

Scouts—Calderoni (10), Wilson (8), Santuranbe (4), Viereck, Miller, Smith, total, 22. Rovers—McKinley (6), McRae (2), McMeekin, Bremner (1), Williscroft; total, 9.

SPORT CHAT

Basketball is now played by at least 10,000 girls in New Zealand. The sport is well organized and is controlled by the New Zealand Basketball Association. At the annual meeting of this association, which was held just a few weeks ago, a proposal was launched to the N. Z. B. A. to invite the Edmonton Commercial Grads to that country. The idea was taken up with interest by a committee but it was decided to wait till things brightened up a little before sending the invitation. With over 60,000 miles to their credit since the team was organized several years ago, the Grads have already qualified as globe trotters extraordinary. However, a trip to New Zealand with a possibility of returning via China and Japan, in both of which countries the game is already firmly established, would be something out of the ordinary.

The National Ski Association of Japan is sending strong ski-ing and skating teams to take part in the winter Olympic at Lake Placid, next February, and also to show their wares at Montreal and Ottawa. The teams will sail from Yokohama December 24, arriving at Vancouver on January 4. The skating team will comprise four speedsters and two fancy skaters. The ski-ing party numbers nine and will be captained by S. Iwasaki, accompanied by a trainer and manager. From Vancouver the Japanese party will proceed direct to Montreal and Lake Placid.

American airplane pilots are warned to keep clear of all bird sanctuaries insofar as possible.

PIPE TESTED by a SKI-ER

"My idea of recreation is a brisk, bright winter day, a pair of good ash skis on my feet, and a pipe of good tobacco between my teeth. I always stuck to ash skis, but used to vary the tobacco, until a fellow ski-er offered me a pipeful of Turret pipe tobacco. Its mildness and fragrance was a revelation to me, because I thought I knew all there was to know about tobacco. Now I wouldn't be without Turret pipe tobacco—I buy it in the half-pound humidor tin—and carry a full pouch with me wherever I go."

Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.

Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication.

Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.

Interested In Rupert Library

Librarian of Nanaimo Tells Library Association About the Work Done in This City

Some interesting correspondence in regard to library work in Prince Rupert was produced at the meeting of the Prince Rupert Public Library board last night telling of a request made by Miss Jean Whitman of the Nanaimo library for information about the library in Prince Rupert. This she incorporated in an address given before the British Columbia Library Association at its recent meeting. Miss Cruikshank was unable to go, so she forwarded the information as requested. In answering this Miss Whitman said: "Thank you for your very interesting account of the history and progress of Prince Rupert Public Library. You are much to be congratulated upon doing such excellent work under somewhat unfavorable conditions. I'm sure no other library in the province issues books at such a low cost, which in itself proves how efficiently your library is managed."

OVER 7,000 BOOKS READ

Library Was Busy During November According to Report of Librarian

November was the third month in the year when the distribution of books at the Prince Rupert public library went beyond the seven thousand mark, the number being 7,267 during the 21 days the library was open to the public, the average per day being 346, according to the report of the librarian submitted to the Library Board at its meeting last night.

The books were made up of fiction 4,458; duplicate pay 133, non-fiction 884 and juvenile 1,792. It will be noted from this that the demand for juvenile books is very great. During the month there were 79 new borrowers making the number now registered 3,474.

New books were placed on the shelves, four being received by gift and 121 by purchase while 40 volumes were discarded as no longer fit for distribution. This leaves approximately 8,155 books in the collection.

STARTED LONG AGO

was 659,000,000 bushels, as against 569,000,000 bushels on July 1, 1930. "World production of wheat this year will be less than last year's, but the difference will not make a large cut in the carry-over into next year. As now estimated, world wheat production for 1931 is reckoned at from 200,000,000 to 300,000,000 bushels less than the output in 1930. This country's crop shows an increase (884,280,000 bushels estimated on Oct. 1, as against 863,430,000 bushels harvested in 1930); but the production is lower in Canada, Russia, Argentina, Australia, and parts of Europe. The Northern Hemisphere (outside Russia and China) has an indicated output of 3,250,000,000 bushels, as against a harvested production of 3,314,000,000 bushels in the same area last year. Relative to the reduced demand by importing countries, the world's wheat surpluses this year have thus far been more burdensome than they were last year.

Prices Are Low

"Many farm commodities are low in price just now because demand has fallen. The demand for wheat has fallen too, because importing countries lack the purchasing power to maintain their imports at the usual level. But wheat consumption has not declined as much as the consumption of some other farm commodities. In hard times poor people eat relatively more cereals, and cut down on other things. World consumption of wheat has grown steadily in the last ten years. In the 1930-1931 season, total apparent disappearance of wheat outside Russia and China (for China consumption statistics are not available) was 3,900,000 bushels, as compared with only 3,200,000,000 bushels in 1921-22, and also in 1922-23. The consumption in 1930-31, a depression year, was well above that of the preceding year, and about equal to that of the highly prosperous season 1928-29.

"The main trouble with wheat has not been a declining consumption but a too rapidly mounting production. The conclusion is not set aside by the fact that the world's output this year will be somewhat less than it was in 1930-31. It is the trend that counts. Wheat growers are suffering from the maladjustments of two decades. The burden falls heaviest on the wheat-exporting countries. Wheat-deficit countries can protect their wheat growers by tariffs, embargoes, and milling restrictions.

"In the years of industrial expansion and thriving trade that preceded 1930, the weakness of the world's wheat industry was masked. Prices were high enough to keep poor land in production, and to make good land profitable. In the seven years ended July 1, 1930, No. 2 hard wheat at Kansas City averaged $1.28 a bushel. Despite warnings, farmers thought they were safe in expanding their production. They attached insufficient importance to world-wide increases in wheat acreage and in wheat carry-overs, and to the import-restriction policies that be-tokened distress in wheat-deficit countries. Economic depression brought the underlying trouble to a head. The combination of world overproduction and business depression resulted in extremely low prices. For the United States as a whole, the farm price of wheat as of October 5, 1931, was only 36.1 cents a bushel, as compared with 95.6 on October 15, 1930. There was some recovery in October and early in November. In the pre-war period 1910-1914, the average farm price of wheat was 84.4 cents. Farm expenses of production and living costs are much higher than they were before the war. Debt and taxes are much greater. Hence prevailing wheat prices are literally ruinous."
