MANY FISH IN SKEENA

Boats Have Been Making Large Catches Toward Week-End—Naas Fishing Poor

Fishing on the Skeena River picked up wonderfully toward the end of the week, the boats all making good catches of sockeye, all of which are being taken care of by the canneries. Even at the low prices paid, the fishermen are making fairly good money.

On the Naas River there is a different story to tell. The catches there have not been half as large as on the Skeena and unless there is a decided change soon the season there will be a failure. Trollers have been taking fair catches, varying a good deal at the different points.

MAGAZINE DUTY DOWN

Cut in Proposed Increases Announced by Premier in House Yesterday

OTTAWA, July 18—Reductions in the proposed duties on magazines entering Canada were announced by Right Hon. R. B. Bennett in the House of Commons yesterday.

He reports being very successful in both salmon and trout-fishing in Alaska and is looking forward to the sport in British Columbia.

Mr. Barrymore says the movie business is all shot to pieces and he has pulled out, at least temporarily, and he is very strongly inclined to return to the legitimate stage. His sister had a successful season last winter and he sees greatly renewed interest in the theatre. People he claims are tiring of the talkies.

Mr. Barrymore is accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Barrymore, formerly Dolores Costello, and her sixteen-months old daughter.

The Infanta is a steel twin screw yacht 120 feet in length and with a cruising speed of eleven and a half knots. In command of Capt. Otto Matthies and a crew of twelve men.

John was not at home when the Daily News representative called this morning but was seen on the street later and he chatted pleasantly in regard to the theatre and the sport he was having. He is taking about a dozen barrels of salted salmon home with him to Los Angeles, fish that he caught himself. He says they are very good salted.

Nick Guvrich accompanied by his son Nina and his daughter Milie arrived home this morning on the Prince Henry. While away he visited the Mayo Clinic at Rochester and also tried one of the southern hot springs but without any good results. He is still ill.

BENNETT'S WEAKENING

Premier Bennett's weakening will scarcely appeal to his followers as a course to be commended. We have often spoken highly of Mr. Bennett and his work and we take particular pride just now in pointing to the Australian treaty which his government negotiated and which should prove of great benefit to British Columbia. Here, however, is a different case.

After proper thought and consultation the finance minister announces deliberately and with proper political éclat that the revenue of the country is to be raised in a certain manner, partly from income tax. One provision of this tax is that the old time Liberal graduated tax be modified and that after reaching 25 per cent the increases stop, thus allowing those few who have huge incomes to escape more lightly than in the past.

The Liberals at once declared it was a rich man's budget and as Mr. Bennett is himself reputed to be many times a millionaire, it was said that he and his rich friends would particularly be the ones who would benefit from the change.

The goading continued and as a result Mr. Bennett declared that the change would not be made but that the last year's schedules would remain with the exception of the tax on corporations.

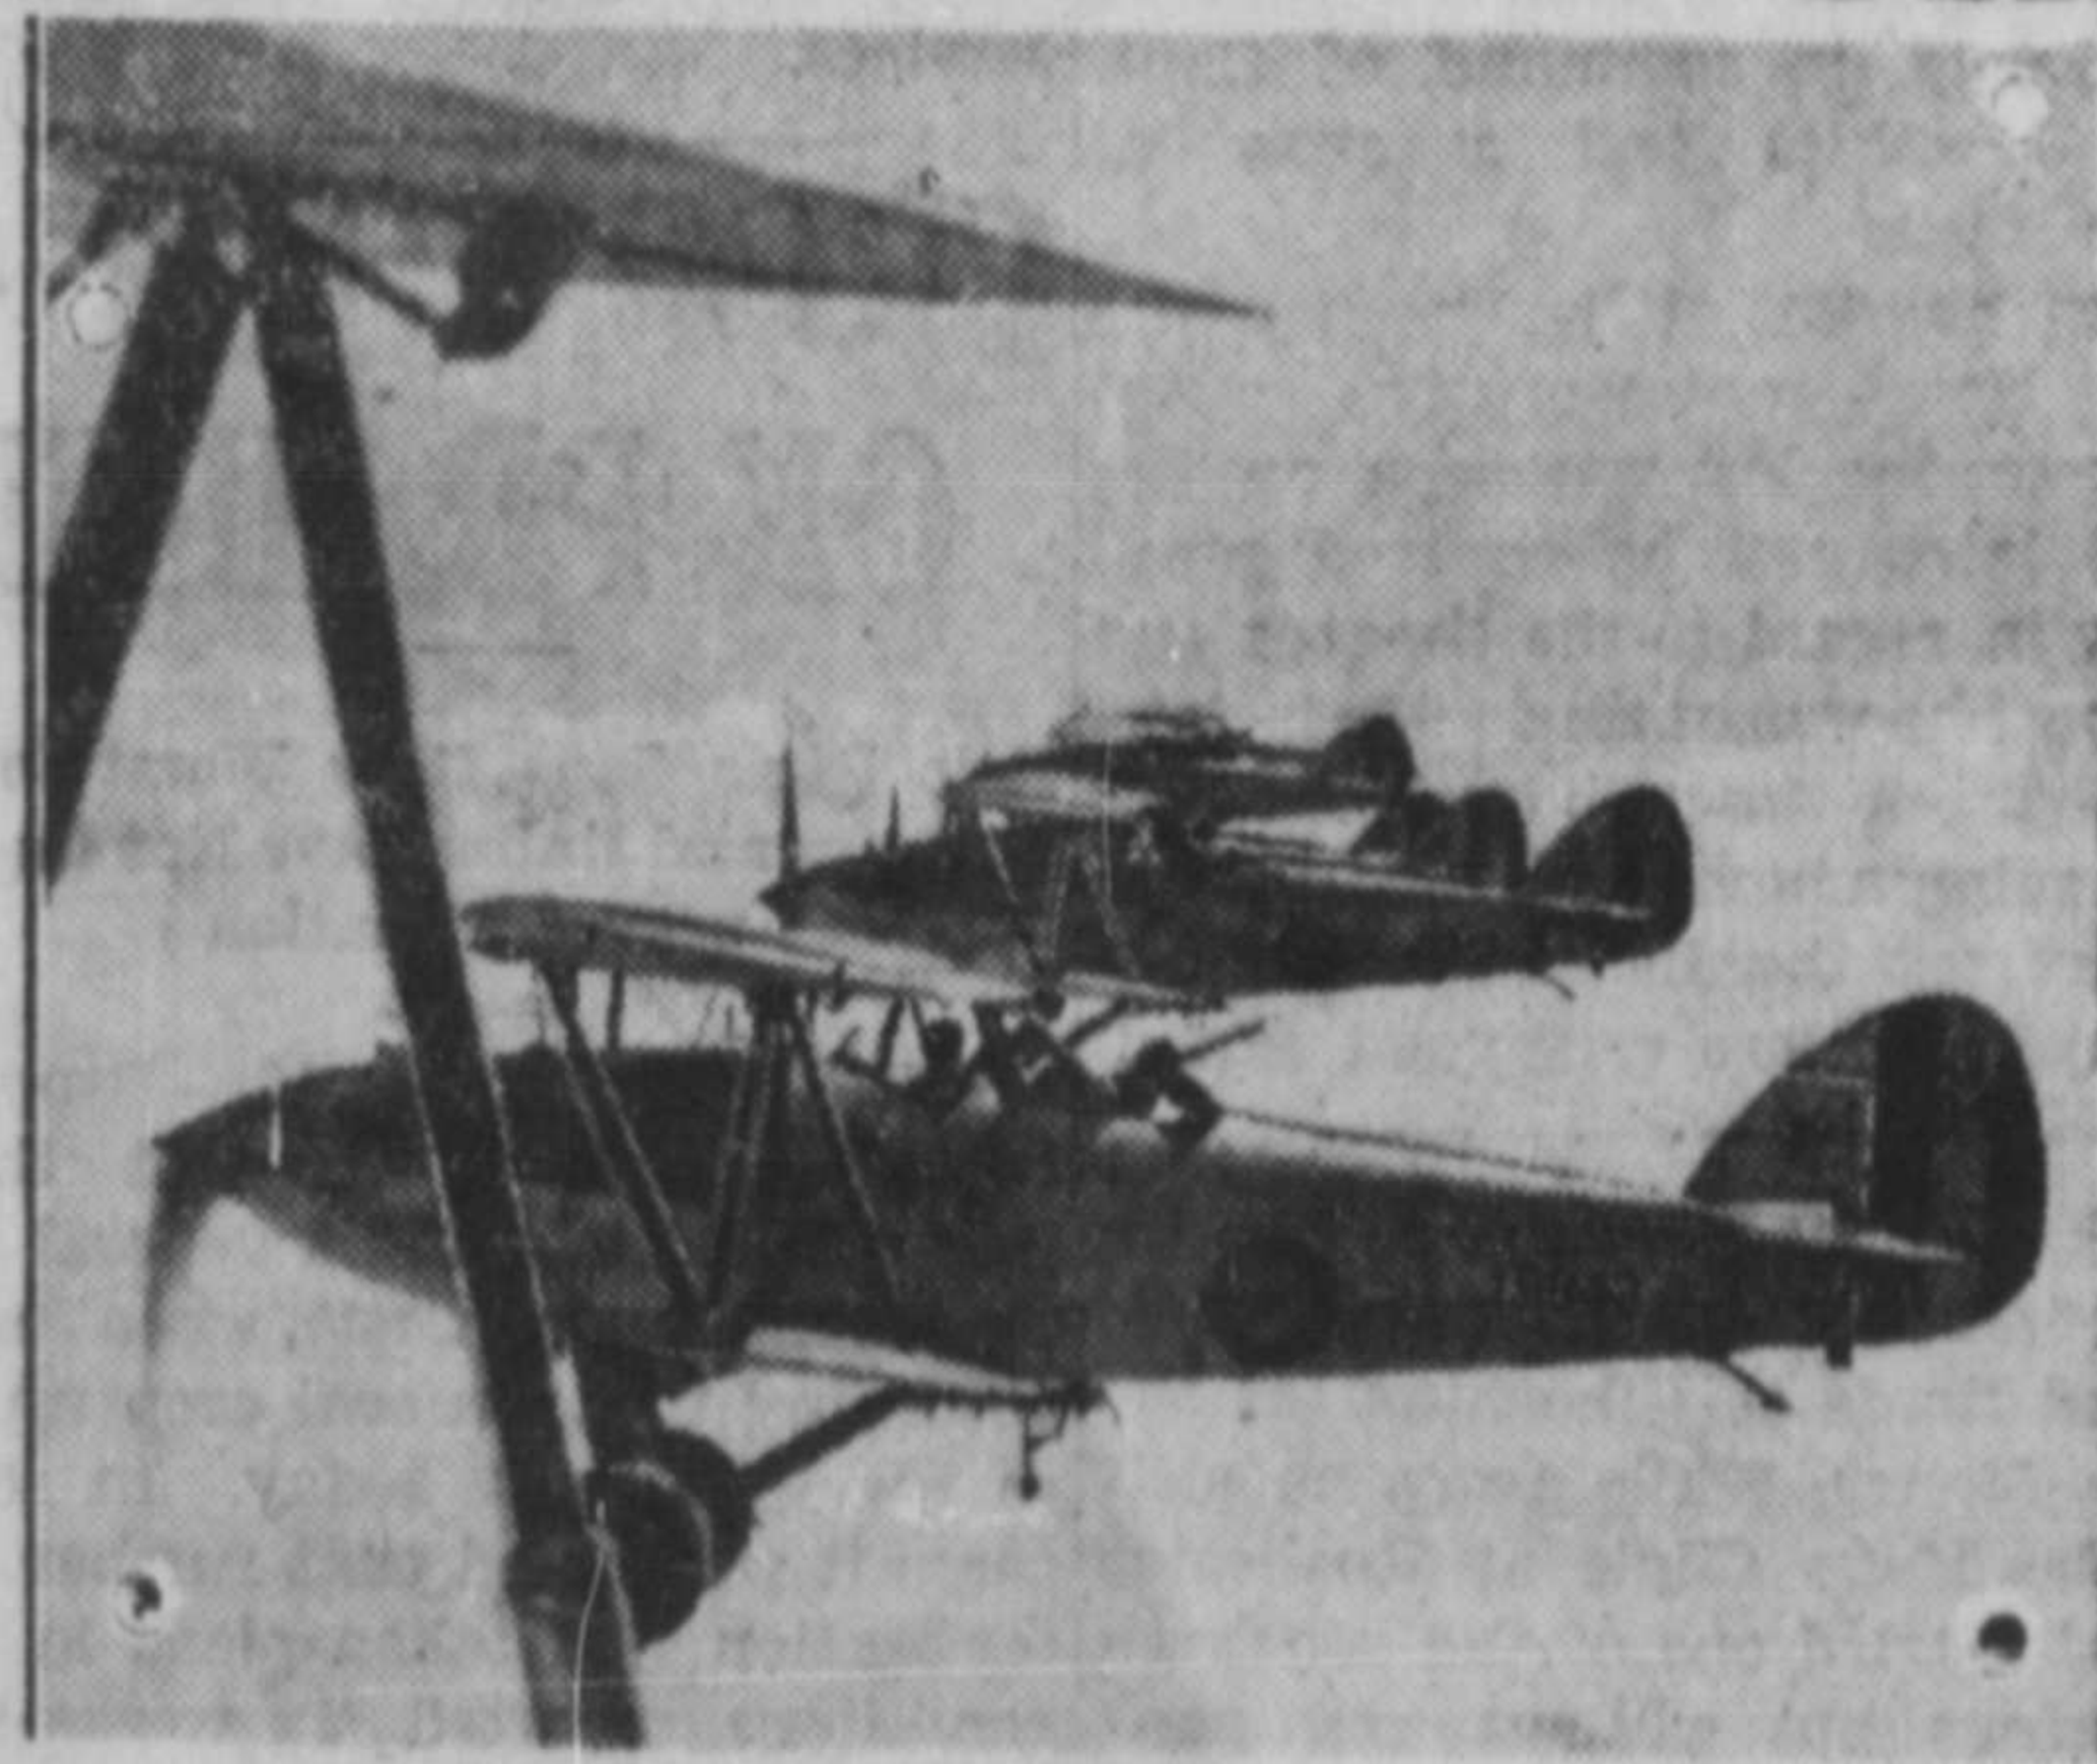

Now, Mr. Bennett was either right or wrong when he first enunciated his policy. It must have been a well-considered policy for the budget is something that is always looked upon as a vital document considered and reconsidered by the administration in all its hearings. Also Mr. Bennett still maintains that it was the correct policy and may be reintroduced next year.

If the policy was right Mr. Bennett was weak in giving it up just because he was criticized. If it was wrong it should never have been included in the budget changes. It is our opinion that right or wrong, Mr. Bennett would have made a better public appearance by sticking to his guns and ignoring the personal criticisms. If he gives up this, what will he give up next? Will he give up the tariff, if it can be shown that the change benefitted him personally?

CAMPAIGN FUNDS

The announcement that huge funds were contributed to the political parties for campaign purposes will startle a good many but it is no new thing. It is being done every year, else how could the parties carry on. People must have known that. They know here that in some recent elections large sums of money were expended in and around Prince Rupert in carrying on the various campaigns. No poor man could conduct a campaign such as those waged here, hire boats, cars, halls, advertise in the newspapers, stop at the best hotels and all from the few local contributions that are made to the political funds. It simply could not be done. Where then did the money come from? Possibly people thought it came from the clouds.

We are not condoning the giving of large sums for campaign purposes. All we wish to mention is that if people who take part in politics are glad to get outside help to fight their political battles they may be sure that the money is put up by someone with an axe to grind. It is unfortunately part of the present system and as long as it costs a lot of money to conduct an election, the money will have to be secured from someone who has a good deal of it and who is willing to contribute.

"Any luck?" asked the curious individual looking over the rail of the bridge.

"Any luck?" asked the fisherman below. "Why, I caught 40 bass out of here yesterday."

"Say, do you know who I am?" asked the man on the bridge.

The fisherman replied that he did not.

"Well I am the fish and game warden"

The fisherman, after a moment's thought, said: "Say, do you know who I am?"

"No," replied the officer.

"Well I am the biggest liar in the country."

Albert W. Burton farmer of the Sherbrooke district of the eastern townships of Quebec, was working in his field during the recent heat wave. It was the hottest weather he had experienced in his thirty years on the farm but he did not mind that. He heard a sizzling sound from his nearby gooseberry patch. Fearing the worst he went to investigate and sure enough, the gooseberries were merrily cooking on the bushes. That was too much. Farmer Burton retired to the shade of his roof-tree to meditate on the possibilities of a market for gooseberries—cooked on the bush. Next!

Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.

Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication.

Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.

LEGION WON AT SOCCER

Score of Four to One in Mobley Cup League Game Last Night

The Legion took the Regiment football team into camp last evening in the regular Mobley Cup league fixture winning by four goals to one.

Legion won the toss but the Regiment playing uphill were soon attacking and Smith had to save from Fong and Colussi. Baptie got away and Laidler brought off a fine save from his shot. The Regiment again took up the attack and Norrington crossed a dangerous centre but Jack cleared. The Regiment inside forwards were holding the ball too close and the Legion defence were equal to all demands. From a corner kick Fong headed just past. The Legion now held the balance of play and Baptie and J. Murray were clever and dangerous. Laidler brought off a fine save from Baptie at the expense of a corner. Woodside took the kick and when the ball was cleared he lobbed it back into goal where W. Murray headed the first goal for the Legion. DeJong, Wingham and Edgecumbe kept feeding their forwards but Hadden, Skinner and Jack prevented much shooting and halftime found the Legion leading one goal to nil.

The Regiment now had the hill in their favor and Colussi and Norrington made ground but Bussanich cleared. Wilson lost a good chance and Edgecumbe shot just wide. Baptie got away again and his shot beat Laidler to put the Legion two goals up. W. Murray made headway but Watson cleared. Thurber stopped J. Murray and then Woodside forced a corner, after apparently handling the ball. From the kick W. Murray gave Laidler no chance with a header and the Legion were three goals up. The Regiment were doing the major part of the pressing but they were slow to shoot. Following a scramble Lyons at last gave them their first goal. Then another shot hit the upright and Smith saved well twice. Norrington's corners were cleared with difficulty but the Regiment could not score. J. Murray got through and beat Laidler with a fine cross-shot and then Baptie hit the crossbar but the ball was scrambled away. Full time came with the Legion winning by four goals to one.

Referee — Laidler; Watson, Thurber; Edgecumbe, DeJong, Wingham; Wilson, Lyons, Fong, Colussi, Norrington.

Legion—J. Smith; Skinner, Jack; Bussanich, Hadden, Woods; Woodside, J. Murray, Baptie, Erskine, W. Murray.

Referee, J. Thompson; linesmen, C. Barker, G. Blake.

Mark of Respect

Prior to the start of the game the teams lined up in centre field and with the members of the executive and spectators stood in silence as a mark of respect to the late Harvey Fraser.

The game was an interesting one all the way through with the Regiment having rather the better of the game territorially but failing in shooting. The inside forwards played nice football but they should learn that square passes make no headway. A pass ahead and a quick shot is what gets goals. Laidler brought off several splendid saves. Watson and Thurber played well at back but in the second half they got little support from DeJong who lay too far up the field. At that DeJong played a fine game. Wingham seems to have found his proper place at left half. Edgecumbe got annoyed at W. Murray holding him by the sweater but soon settled down to his usual strong game. Norrington took many corners and was speedy and always dangerous. Colussi again turned in a fine game. Lyons was good and got the goal but Fong still lacks that ability to shoot quickly. He is clever. Wilson was weak.

Johnston Smith kept a fine goal and Jack and Skinner gave nothing away though severely taxed in the second half. Hadden was clever and Bob Woods was a good spoiler. Bussanich was a useful half though up against the best wing, Baptie and J. Murray supplied the danger in the forward line. Both got away with tactics that are not football however, and such may spoil their chances for being selected on a representative team. Baptie is the best centre in town. W. Murray got two good goals with his head but Woodside was not very dangerous.

The refereeing was somewhat below standard and some of the experienced players took advantage. J. Murray again pulled off one of his handballs to get the ball under control. Such tactics reflect no credit on the player and do the team no good. Why do it?

There was a good sized crowd in attendance who were treated to an interesting exhibition of football, the game being keenly fought out to the very end.

SPORT CHAT

Baseball players and fans will feel keenly the loss to their sport as well as to the city generally in the tragic death of Harvey Fraser. No one realized that anything really serious had happened when the unfortunate man collapsed on the field when watching his own team get near to victory. Had they known they would not have continued the game. As it was they played through to the end and Harvey's team won.

Harvey Fraser was a good sport. He could win or lose with equal good humor. His happy disposition kept everyone else happy and he was always ready to bandy words with anyone and could do so without losing his temper. A few more such men would raise the tone of the game here and elsewhere.

PIPE TESTED by a NEWSPAPER MAN

"I am a newspaper man and, like the majority of the boys, I smoke Turret pipe tobacco. Why shouldn't I? With a story to catch the street editions, barely a few minutes to go till 'deadline', there's no time to fuss with a pipe... and with Turret pipe tobacco one match is enough for the pipeful. It gives a cool inspiring smoke, that helps a speeding brain put punch in a story, and steady pipe enjoyment down to the last tiny golden thread... I like that about Turret pipe tobacco; also, it is as economical as it is popular.

Take The DAILY NEWS with you When Going on Summer Holidays

Nearly everybody likes to keep in touch with Prince Rupert when away for their holidays. The best way to do this is to order the paper sent during that time. If it is only for two weeks, the News is a welcome visitor and the mails during the summer months are carried almost daily to most points.

Recently a number of Scandinavians have given up the local fishing for the summer and gone on an extended visit to their former homes. In almost every case they order the Daily News sent them while they are away. Several subscribed for a year, others for shorter periods.

No time is too short for us to look after our patrons.

Movement to Open Up the Unuk Country

KETCHIKAN, July 17:—The recent visit of the federal and territorial mining inspector was the occasion of a conference with local mining and commercial men with a view to having the Unuk River road development become a real issue.

Dr. Mandy of Prince Rupert has been active in promoting the enterprise with a view to opening up the Unuk as a mining district. Part of the mineral showings are on the Alaska side and part on the British Columbia side. If the country is to be developed there will have to be co-operation of the two countries.

WATERFRONT WHIFFS

Busy Time at Experimental Station—Vera Beatrice In Trouble—Weighty Mariners and Their New Boats

Just now the Fisheries Experimental Station is one of the busiest places in the city. It matters not to the 14 members of the scientific staff working at their respective investigations, whether salmon sells at a high price or low or if there is a glut of halibut or a crop failure on the prairies. They have their jobs and are doing them to the best of their ability. Most of them are in shirt sleeves or wearing professional looking white coats. As they manipulate test tubes and vials, and watch eagerly for the result of their experiments they become oblivious to lay visitors and careless of time. Results are what they are seeking.

The upper storey of the new building is now almost completed and Dr. Young expects to move in before the end of the month. Then the real work will commence in that department. Just now they are overhauling the apparatus and getting ready for operation.

Dr. W. H. Martin of the University of Toronto is at the station investigating the cause of the mud which on occasion has caused the loss of nets at the mouth of the Skeena River. So far the mud has not been reported this year but as soon as it appears this man will be on the job. Until it appears he is analyzing the samples taken last year and preparing data.

Captain Jud Thurber had a fire recently aboard the Vera Beatrice when about off Rose Spit. Reports state that he suffered burns but that not much damage was done to the boat. He proceeded to the banks near North Island and plans to bring in a catch just to show that it takes more than a little fire to put a good fisherman out of business. The fire was caused by a broken oil pipe.

The Anna S. arrived in port recently from a herring seining expedition. A few herring were found and disposed of to the fishermen as live bait but not enough to be profitable.

Another boat to go out after herring was the Zenard, Capt. Bob Gammon. This boat is reported to have made one good haul and then the fish disappeared and no more could be found.

Waterfront habitués are framing a race between two famous speed boats and a prize of a special reducing course is to be offered for the winner. The race is to take place between Frank Stevens on his newly required "On Time" and M. P. McCaffery with the "Kiy" which he has just put into commission. Until the race comes off the owners of these fine boats content themselves with telling how long it takes to cross the harbor to the Salt Lakes.

The On Time formerly belonged to Jack Boddie and was purchased just now from Verge Moore. She has been renamed the Gladys M. A new Chevrolet engine has been installed and the upperworks rebuilt at the Suga yards. The Kiy is the product of the Kiy yards.

"No smoking" is a prominent sign on the newly christened Gladys M. Steve sees danger in the fragrant weed, especially aboard a more or less fragile speed craft so he will have none of it. He has a picture of a boat afire clipped from a recent copy of the Daily News posted in a prominent place as a solemn warning against striking matches to see how full the gas tank is.

Joe Howe has taken over the old Field premises and has about ten thousand dollars worth of junk and new material there which he is sorting out and planning to sell. All he needs today is a market for his stuff. If he does not get it soon he will polish up the stock and sell it for new. At any rate many people will be glad to know that Joe is in business at the waterfront and will give him the once over when they need anything.

The Don Q from Klemtu has been in for extensive repairs at the Suga yards.

Hair seal hunting seems to have replaced fishing for some of the natives of the coast. One boat is said to have taken 250 seals and cashed in on the bounty to the profit of the hunter and the benefit of the fishing industry.

They tell a story on the waterfront about sea lions. It seems that these animals are very intelligent. Like a crow they know if the fisherman has a gun. When the fishermen are hauling in halibut the sea
