SPORT CHAT

Elks will make their debut in the Senior Baseball League for the 1931 season this evening when they meet up with Sons of Canada, who trimmed the Millionaires on Monday night and who since then, have been telling around that there is not going to be much difficulty in coppin off the honors this summer. Nick up of Styles and Skattebol. Chenoski will, it is expected, do hurling duty for the Lodgemen while the Sons will rely again on Billy Bagshaw their old reliable Bill Lambie. No doubt, the baseball fans will give the game their usual patronage and turn out in goodly numbers to help the boys along.

Bagshaw has caught the eyes of Victoria promoters and, should he stay in the Capital. Neel says he is sure of being booked on many southern eards. His hard punching ability with the urge for continual action is proving a box-office attraction. Neel, himself, is matched with the young Winnipeg featherweight champion who gave him such a tough scrap to a draw three weeks ago.

It was pleasing, Neel continues in his letter, to have noted so many Prince Rupert visitors at the last fight in Victoria in which he and Bagshaw appeared. Neel will soon fill another engagement by fighting Young Jackson of the United States Navy for an American Legion convention in Port Townsend.

PULL OF THE CLASSIFIED PAGE IS VERY STRONG AS MANY KNOW

Those who wish to reach a very large number of readers at very small cost cannot do better than try classified advertising.

For those who have odd articles to sell, who wish to rent, buy or sell houses or any other kind of real estate, who wish to find lost property or to secure domestic help, there is scarcely any other method than to reach people through the classified column.

But there are others who might use this method of publicity. People in business in a small way who have things to sell or their services to dispose of get good results from the classified advertisements.

The pull of the classified page is strong. Those who have not tried it could not do better than give this method of publicity a trial or ask those who have already tried it. The rate is two cents a word or six times for the price of four. By the month the rate is one cent a word.
