Fishermen Disapprove of Howe Plans Regarding Arbitration; Convention is in Session Here

The Northern British Columbia Salmon Fishermen's Association, in annual convention here on Monday, strongly disapproved of the actions of Hon. S. L. Howe, commissioner of fisheries for the province, in connection with the arbitration on the matter of sockeye salmon prices.

The association dealt with a number of other matters of more or less local interest to the fisheries. A number of resolutions were passed. Permission to use the government radiophone at Langara Island light for commercial and emergency purposes of the North Island fishermen is being asked.

THEY LIVE! (For Remembrance Day)

In that deep hush before the Cenotaph A thousand hearts as one in homage mute; Above the Flag, half-lowered upon its staff, Droops gently in salute.

Operator Robert Quinn Brought to Local Hospital From Desolate Echo Lake

Good Flight

Feat is Testimonial to Courage and Skill of Pilot Desmond Murphy

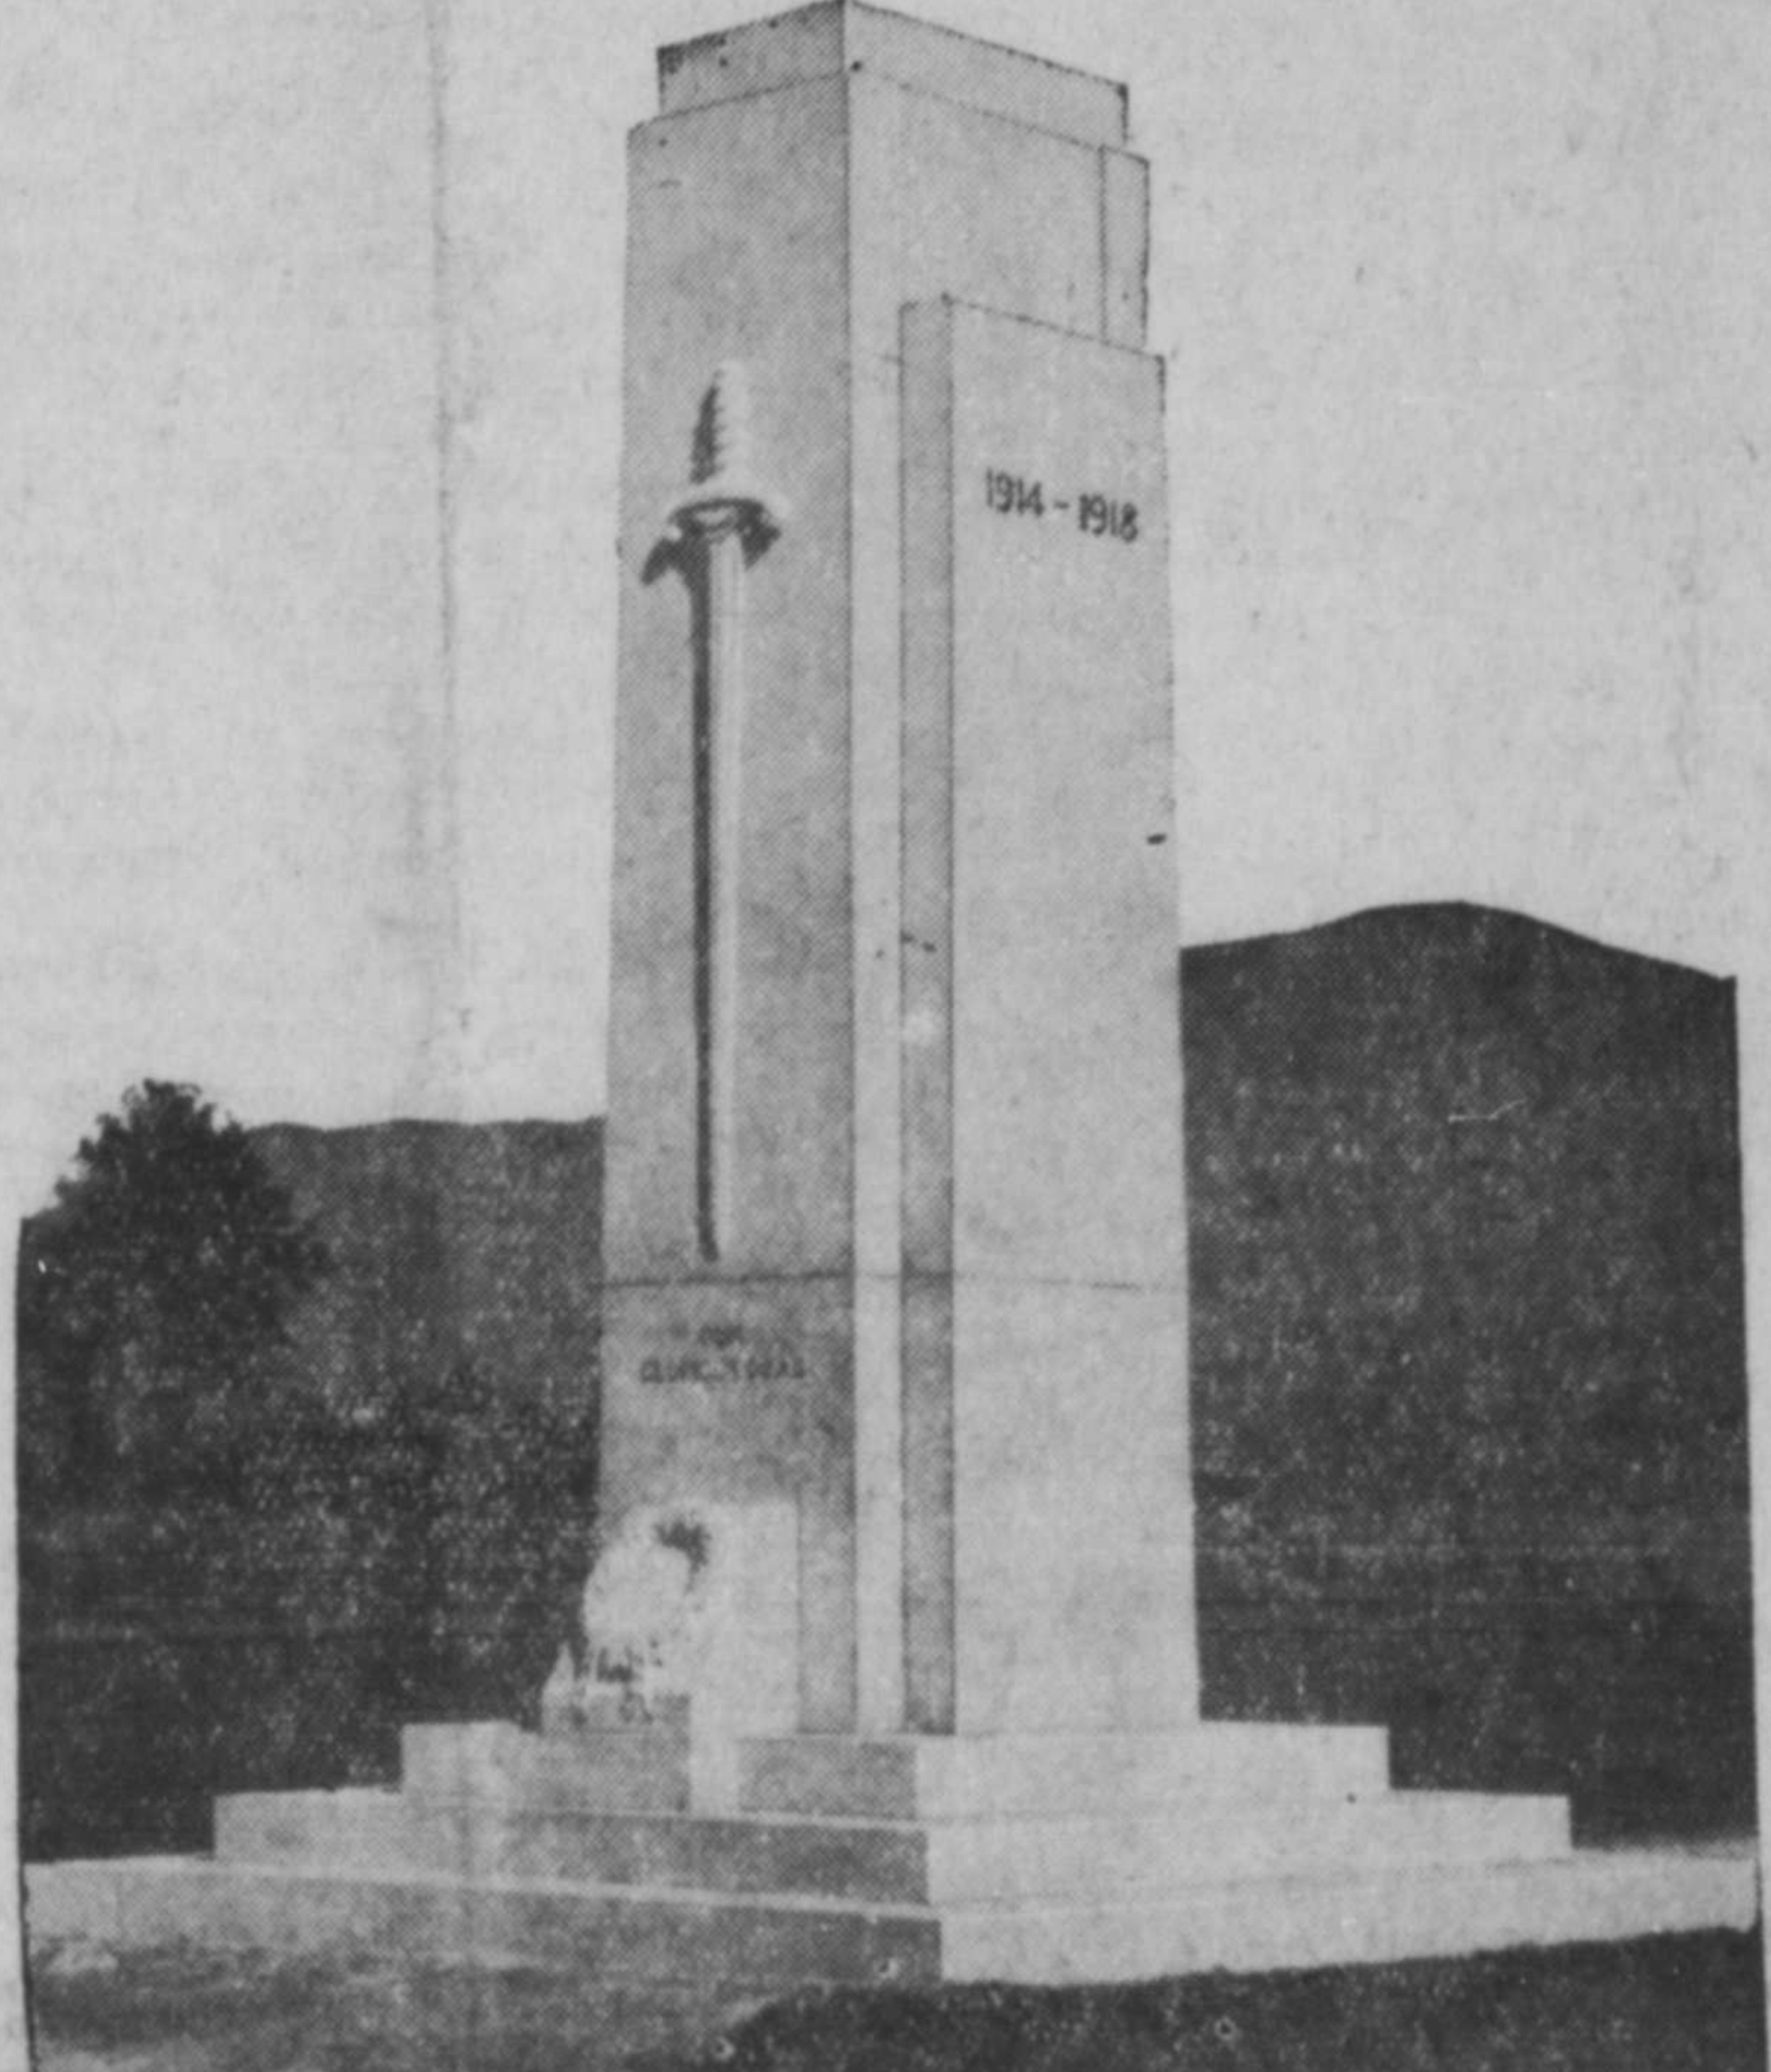

Late yesterday morning, Robert Quinn, operator at Echo Lake Cabin on the Yukon Telegraph trail, 100 miles north of Stewart, lay ill in his lonely cabin and in need of medical attention but facing the prospect of having to spend the winter at that desolate spot for lack of speedy enough transportation to hospital and doctor.

In that short space of time, the 250 or so mile distance had been spanned and aviation once again demonstrated its necessity and importance in the great and desolate distances of the north country.

Engineer Reports

Says That Municipality is Getting Good Value

The city engineer informed the city council last night that, by Thursday of this week, he expected to have placed at work on municipal relief undertakings all men qualified for such work who had made application by tonight.

In giving relief work, the city engineer explained that he insisted on two principal qualifications—first, that the men should be registered as unemployed and in need of work and, second, that they are the support of one or more dependents actually living in the city, men having their dependents elsewhere than here being classed for the purposes of relief work as single men.

In answer to questions, Mr. Good stated that, with very few exceptions, men who had started on relief work were sticking at it. "Furthermore," declared Mr. Good, "ninety per cent of them are giving more than value for the wages they receive."

DAILY EDITION Tuesday, Nov. 10, 1931

REMEMBRANCE DAY

Tomorrow is the first official Remembrance Day, when all will pause from their work to let their minds dwell on the great sacrifices made by thousands of Canadians in a war which they believed to have been for the purpose of bringing about the triumph of democracy over a military autocracy.

It is thirteen years ago that the armistice was signed which brought peace once more, a peace that has been almost as difficult as war for many. Those who did not give their lives in the great fight, returned home to find their places were filled, that some who had remained at home had become rich from the spoils of war and became richer as a result of the vicissitudes of peace. The lot of the veteran was a hard one.

Today we are able to see these things in perspective and an abhorrence of the monstrosities of war is growing up in all countries. As we see Britain struggling under a tremendous load of debt as a result of the big conflict, her people no better off than those who lost the fight, we note the futility of war and turn our minds rather toward the cultivation of peace. Most countries of the world profess to desire peace, yet the acts of some belie their words. There are war clouds in Asia which loom. In Europe nations fear to trust each other. Did time intrigue permeates the minds of the people so that professions of peace are not believed, any more than were the professions of peace made just before the Great War.

While we turn our minds to the great conflict tomorrow, let us do so with a view to taking a lesson in the cultivation of peace, remembering that peace and war commence in the minds of men. If we think peace, there will be no war. If we think war, there can be no peace.

WHAT BRISBANE SAYS

Arthur Brisbane, the editorial writer for dozens of American and a few Canadian newspapers, when giving advice to newspaper writers says: "Read as much as you can of the best writers and read Shakespeare all through life. Compared to the rest of literature, he is like the Pacific Ocean compared to the chain of Great Lakes. The lakes are respectable but they are not the Pacific."

PLENTY OF MONEY

Yesterday the local brokers realized for the first time in a year or two that Prince Rupert people really had plenty of money and all that was needed was some special stimulus to start them buying. This came in the news that silver was going up, that all securities were destined to go to higher prices and that wheat was also due to be selling near the dollar mark soon.

There was a deluge of buying orders which continued all day and well on into the evening. While the chief demand was for silver stocks, standard eastern issues have been purchased and the very cheap local mining stocks.

Until yesterday many people had an idea that there was no money in the city. Now they know that the money is here and only the urge to spend is need to cause a break of the buyers' strike.

"Well, happy days." Jockeyess Waldron, who came second, congratulates Jockey Simpson, who loped in first in the Newmarket Town Plate race in England. Second will do.

In Agony from Sheer Weakness

Mrs. Spurgeon Dawson firmly believes she would not be here today if she had not taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills (tonic)

"When my children were small," writes Mrs. Spurgeon Dawson, Wolverton, Ont., "I was so weak and run down I could not walk across the floor without fainting. Even the slightest exertion was too much. Days were spent in agony from sheer weakness, and nights were made fearful through sleepless hours.
 "It seemed as if nothing whatever would help me... Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were recommended, and after taking twelve boxes I found strength returning and my stomach able to handle food again. I had not known what a meal was for months."
 "What would you give to be able to cast aside your weakness and substitute vigorous physical strength? That is exactly what many men and women have been enabled to do by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills (tonic).

 The iron and other elements in these tonic pills increase the amount of haemoglobin or oxygen-carrying agent in the blood. The increased supply of oxygen kindles life in all your tissues just as a draft of fresh air kindles a fire. The result is a better appetite, a feeling of well-being, restful sleep, and ability to do your work happily.
 Get a supply of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Take them faithfully. Don't look for immediate results. Sometimes the beneficial results come almost at once—but not always. Give this tonic a fair trial and you will be rewarded—just as other Canadian men and women have been rewarded. 50 cents a package. 22

CONTRIBUTE FOR NEEDY

Mayor and Aldermen Give 20% of Stipends—City Employees 4% of Wages

After being advised that the mayor had voluntarily agreed to give over 20% of his salary and the city employees, also voluntarily, 4% of their wages, members of the city council, by vote at last night's meeting, agreed also to give 20% of their stipends as contributions to the unemployment relief fund.

In a report from the city treasurer, the following figures for contributions of the city departments to the fund were disclosed: public works, $82.76; telephone department $76.70; fire department, $40.16; treasurer's department, $25.44; mayor, $25; city clerk's department, $13.40; making a total of $263.16 monthly.

The suggestion that the aldermen should give 20% of their stipends was made by Ald. Pullen and was implemented through a motion made by Ald. Black and Ald. Macdonald and carried unanimously.

In the course of discussion, opinions were expressed that there might be some employees who received such small remuneration that they could hardly be expected to contribute to the fund. Opinion was also expressed that, while the contributions were entirely voluntary, all employees who could afford it should do their share. The whole matter will come up for further review at the council's next meeting.

Fishermen's Floats Are Now Illuminated

Mayor Orme informed the city council at its meeting last night that the new fishermen's floats just east of the dry dock were at last lighted with electricity. The department of public works made the necessary connection and installations and the city will now pay the cost of the electricity.

DEATH OF INVENTOR

Col. Isaac Lewis, Who Devised Lewis Gun, Drops Dead in Hoboken Station

HOBOKEN, N.J., Nov. 10.—Col. Isaac Newton Lewis of Montclair, inventor of the Lewis machine gun, fell dead in the Lackawanna Railroad Terminal here yesterday.

Choosing two fields from which to carve his brilliant career, Colonel Lewis, achieved pre-eminence both as a soldier and as a scientist, although his attainments in the realm of invention were closely bound to his first love—the army.

More than 100,000 Lewis machine guns were used by the Allies in the World War, and at one time the British government detached 500,000 men from field service in order to train them in the use of this weapon.

The quick adoption of the Lewis gun by British military authorities was in sharp contrast to the difficulty Mr. Lewis experienced in obtaining recognition for his invention from the United States government. He is said to have spent 15 years trying to induce the war department to adopt his weapon, but met with rebuff at every turn. Finally the air forces decided to give the model a thorough test, and found it so satisfactory that it won a place on the line.

The gun returned him millions of dollars in royalties. Colonel Lewis had contributed many devices to the army before his machine gun was brought out.

Colonel Lewis was born in New Salem, Penn., October 12, 1858. He married on October 21, 1886 Mary Wheatley, daughter of the Rev. Richard Wheatley, of New York. Four children were born to them, Robert W., Laura, George E., and Margaret Lewis.

Mr. Lewis was a member of the American Association for the Advancement of Science; an associate of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, and a member of the Union League and Lawyers' Clubs of New York.

OPENING OF BASKETBALL

Four Fast Games Will Inaugurate Start of Season

During the past week the Auditorium has been in the throes of a great change. Once again the old familiar trappings of a basketball gym have been hammered into place. Everything is in readiness for a gala opening of the Basketball Season tonight when four fast games are scheduled for the League opening. The teams went through their final workouts yesterday. They are all showing mid-season form and are just eager for combat.

In the first game the League of Nations Juniors are all set to shatter the peace with their opponents the Rovers. In the second game, billed for 7, Tuxis and Merchants will fight it out in what should be a closely contested game. They come the ladies—Amazons and the Bluebirds, eager for action. Finally will come the torrid senior battle with C.N.R. and Panthers in dispute.

The line-ups are as follows:

Junior League
League of Nations—Dominate, Gillis, Arney, Allen, Antonello, Yager, Hill.
Rovers—McRae, McMeekin, Williams, Bremner, Davies, Palmer, McKinley.

Intermediate League
Tuxis—R. Morrison, Thurber, J. Morrison, Nakamoto, C. Smith, Allen, Hanson.
Merchants—Birrell, E. Dingwell, F. Dingwell, Bacon, Currie, Comadina, Wicks.

Senior League
C.N.R.—Johnson, D. Morrison, Lambie, B. Stalker, Nelson, Styles, Smith.
Panthers—Cross, Irvine, Kelsey, Lyons, Macdonald, A. Mitchell, Stewart.

C. N. TRAIN

For the East—

Mondays, Wednesday and Saturdays, 11:30 a.m.

Pile Borers to Be Investigated

Biological Board of Canada to Look Into Question of Parasites

The Biological Board of Canada is making preparations for investigations into the breeding habits of the native ship or pile borer. Owing to the large amounts invested on this coast in vessels and wharves, this matter is of great economic importance.

A series of test blocks will be operated at selected points on the coast.

The various factors bearing on the subject will be investigated and, as it is generally presumed, that the danger of borers is greater at certain seasons of the year, such danger periods will be determined.

Make This Test of the HEART

To gauge the condition of the heart, there is a simple test which anyone can make. Medical men agree that it is unrivalled as a means of finding out if the heart is in health or doing its work under difficulties.

"Are you short of breath when going up stairs?"
The extent to which you are inconvenienced under this strain will tell you how serious may be the condition of your heart.

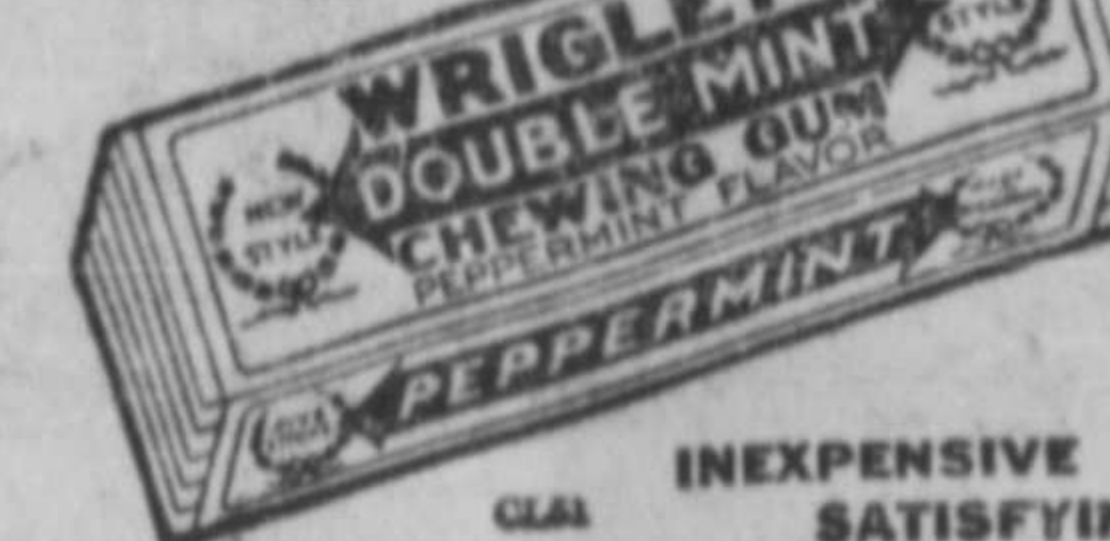

In most cases, the trouble is caused by a weakness of the blood and a run down condition of the nervous system. The logical prescription is Dr. Chase's Nerve Food because this treatment enriches the blood and strengthens the nerves of the heart, as well as those of the other vital organs.

This reconstructive treatment has proven effective over such a long period that you can use it with the fullest confidence that the results will be most satisfactory.

Cash Box in Disused Well Sends Woman Before Jury

Finger Prints said "I Did It"

The proprietor of a prosperous grocery store in Kewanee, Ill., was in the habit of keeping the day's receipts in a tin box and depositing the money next morning when the banks opened. On August 29th last, after a big day there was $300 in the box. During the night it was stolen. There were no broken doors or windows. It looked like an inside job.

Suspicion fell on John Schultz, a clerk who had lately been taken on and he was arrested. A large sum of money was found in his room. He said it was his savings but things looked dark for him. The detectives were puzzled at not finding the tin box and in their search they uncovered an old disused well across from the store and found the box. Handling it carefully they had experts examine it for finger prints and prints were found of two persons.

Prints of the store employees were quickly taken. The prints on the box were found to correspond with the Proprietor's—he alone was supposed to handle the box—and those of a woman employee who had not been suspected. She was arrested and confessed to the theft. She had wanted to buy a fur coat but her finger prints sent her up for trial for robbery instead.

Your Prints are Dangerous too—on Food

You do not rob cash boxes nor commit crimes but your finger prints are even more dangerous to you than her's were to the women in the above incident. Several times a day your prints may be exposing you to great danger from disease germs. Strange? No—because germs are everywhere, on door knobs, books, money—things you are constantly touching. Then your germ laden fingers touch something you wish to eat—a biscuit, fruit, chocolates, and the germs enter your mouth. Once there, the warmth causes them to multiply and penetrate all through your system and if you are susceptible to disease you fall ill. Life Extension Institute names 27 germ diseases, some very deadly, which may be transmitted by the hands.

Safety with Lifebuoy

There is a way to be safe from this danger. You must wash your hands many times a day, and always before a meal—not with just any good soap but with Lifebuoy. It contains a germicide. Children especially should be

LIGHTING DEFERRED

City Decides Not to Embark on Ornamental Standard Program

A recommendation from the utilities committee that owing to the existing financial committee, no further extension of its ornamental street lighting system be undertaken at the present time was adopted by the city council at last night's meeting.

Speaking to the recommendation, Ald. Macdonald, chairman of the utilities committee, stated that the report had been brought in as a result of the requests of some ratepayers for light and also in answer to a question by Ald. Colbart at last meeting of the council. The committee felt that another extensive ornamental street lighting project was unwarranted at present time. The Power Corporation would agree to provide the new lights free for one year and, furthermore, was not agreeable to making an installation at any single time of less than fifty standards whereas not nearly that number were being asked by ratepayers. If the new installation were made it might run the city into an added expenditure of $2,000 or $3,000 within a year and, in view of this, the committee did not feel justified in recommending the installation.

Ald. Macdonald moved adoption of the request. In seconding the motion, Ald. Pullen agreed that this was no time for large expansions.

Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.

Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication.

Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.

CHEVALIER ON SCREEN

French Singing Comedian Scores Again in "The Smiling Lieutenant"

"The Smiling Lieutenant," Maurice Chevalier's latest picture and current attraction at the Capitol Theatre, is a film for sophisticated adults to enjoy. The sentimental comic opera story is handled with a deft touch and it is considered by many the best Chevalier picture to date.

The part of "The Smiling Lieutenant" suits the French star to perfection and gives him full opportunity to exploit his smile, his wink, his noted straw hat and attractive personality.

Claudette Colbert, who was with Chevalier in "The Big Pond," and Miriam Hopkins, new star and personal selection of the singing comedian from France for the part, share major honors. They are pleasing young women and prove themselves very adept at light comedy.

AGREEMENT FOR PHONE

City Council Provides For Execution of Pact on Radiotelephone Service

The city council last night gave preliminary readings to a bylaw authorizing the execution of an agreement between the city and the Northwest Telephone Co. providing for the hooking up of this city with a radiotelephone service connecting Prince Rupert with the south. The agreement provides, among principal features, for the installation of a radiotelephone station by the Northwest Telephone Co. at a point in or near the city to which the municipal telephone system will be connected, the entire expense of the installation, including such extensions to the city system as may be necessary, being borne by the company. Under the agreement, the city will act as commercial agent for the company in handling of messages. It is proposed that the agreement shall take effect on December 31, 1931, and continue in force for a period of ten years.

There was a little by-play between Ald. Pillsbury and City Solicitor Jones after a report had been made by the latter regarding the agreement between the city and the telephone company. Ald. Pillsbury questioned the opinion of the solicitor that it was necessary or advisable under the Municipal Act that the proposed agreement should be approved by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-council.

After some discussion, in which there was a direct clash of opinion between Ald. Pillsbury and Mr. Jones, other members of the council expressed the opinion that the city solicitor was employed to give his legal opinions and that it was advisable to accept them. The report on this matter from Mr. Jones was then adopted without dissenting vote.

In the course of his report, Mr. Jones advised the council that it had the authority to execute the agreement without recourse to a vote of the ratepayers.

Tony Christian to Put In Excavation

The city council, on recommendation of the Board of Works, gave permission last night to Tony Christian to excavate under the sidewalk allowance in front of his property at the northeast corner of Third Avenue and Market Place. While Mr. Christian agreed to place a fence around the excavation while it was being made as a safeguard against possible accident members of the council felt that he should not be permitted to leave the hole open any longer than was reasonably necessary.
