AS ALBERTA SEES PEACE OUTLET

Alberta is equally interested in the Peace River outlet with British Columbia because a large section, possibly the largest of that fine wheat growing area, is within that province. Here is how the Edmonton Journal sees it:

"It is hard to see how anyone could have expected the B. C. government to undertake the completion of the P. G. E. to Peace River at this time. As Premier Tolmie made clear in announcing that it has no such intention the project would be beyond the province's financial ability. That it ever set out to build that railway, with Peace River as its ultimate objective, has always been a source of wonderment and can only be explained by the reckless optimism that then prevailed. The hope of securing direct rail connection between the Pacific Coast and the territory in question rests with the federal government, acting in cooperation with one or both of the transcontinental companies or possibly a new transportation body.

"Both the B. C. government and all concerned in the establishment of the outlet are entitled to bank heavily on Mr. Bennett's pledge at the opening campaign last summer. He repeated it in his speech at Regina the other day. Speaking in Edmonton on June 13 he declared that 'we must provide a Peace River outlet.' 'We owe that,' he added, 'to Edmonton, we owe that to the Peace River country, we owe that to the Pacific itself.'

"Financial conditions that have since arisen have made it much more difficult to carry out his promise in the immediate future. But just as soon as this is at all possible and it has been determined definitely what is the best course to pursue in implementing the pledge, he must make it good. There is no reason for thinking that he will break faith."

Had Two Weeks Campaign Here

Large Attendance at Lutheran Church to Hear Rev. F. M. Fosse

Rev. F. M. Fosse of Bellingham closed a two weeks' revival campaign in St. Paul's Lutheran Church last night.

He has had two meetings each day which have been well attended.

The meeting last night was unusually well attended. Mr. Fosse spoke on "Jesus Asking After Three Times: 'Lovest Thou Me?'" He sang two solos. The Varden Singers gave two splendid selections.

The pastor made some remarks in the English language. A good subscription was taken up for the Lutheran boat mission. Money is coming in from U. S. and Canada.

Rev. Mr. Fosse left today for Camrose. He will have a week's meetings at Camrose College and then at Camrose Lutheran Church. He has a number of invitations to other churches.

Mr. Fosse is expected back here about March 1, when he will leave with Rev. J. H. Hanson to inspect the seaman's home at Ketchikan.

When the Lutheran boat is built Rev. Fosse and Rev. Hanson will then try to erect a seaman's home here as they feel the need for one.

The First Inklings of New Spring Styles

by Letitia Chaffee

"Know thyself" seems to be the first commandment for spring smartness... which suggests that French designers no longer believe the old fallacy that all women are created equal—or can by dieting achieve equality. Waistlines... instead of being where fashion says they must, regardless of ruinous results... are where they look most flattering. So, if the empire (or actually normal) waistline is most becoming... Molyneux is your authority. If the hip-bone line suits you best... follow Chanel. If you prefer the "in-between"... follow your own inclinations. The same leeway is allowed in skirt lengths. Proportion is the thing... and we may vary our hemlines inches one way or the other to suit our own particular vagaries of height and build. Of course it goes without saying that knees remain invisible... no one must suspect we have them. Beyond that... write your own length ticket... adding extra inches as the sun sinks lower and the evening star appears. Evening gloves may take either the high road or the low... or may be dispensed with entirely.

... black and white... associate themselves with the less formal woollens for general town wear. Woollens for sports show the new "Algerian" colors... brilliant blues, vivid greens, rich orange and flaming red. Cotton in mesh weaves of varying sheerness are pronounced good.

Styles That Wing South

Perhaps it is to remind the lucky ones who loll in the southern sunshine of the northern snows they are missing... that white is so prevalent in modes for all types of resort wear. Entire white costumes... or white with a touch of color... should be the backbone of the southbound wardrobe. Bright red, too, is very important, alone or combined with white. It makes the background, too, for brilliant prints destined for beach pajamas, for afternoon costumes, for evening wear. Flannels stage a come-back in southern fashions this year... not only in the beautiful pastel shades for sports, but in navy and other dark colors for street wear. The pajama goes formal, and makes its appearance at simpler evening functions... though often out, a keen eye could discern that it really is a pajama... so skirt-like and full are the trousers. The "grande dame" mode still prevails in the formal mode for the south... with flowers, fur and embroidery appearing frequently. Printed chiffons again are seen on the horizon for those who side-step winter... but they are a very luxurious edition this season... jacquard in effect. "Double-warp" chiffons and "faconne" chiffons they are sometimes called... and they have self-colored figures woven into their grounds. The figures may be large or small. The hats that go south will carry the stiffened brims that Paris is showing... wire around the edges so that they may be turned and curved, and remain stiffly in place.

Shoes Show a Dual Nature

Bicolored shoes are the latest note in footwear from Paris. Contrasting heels... such as a pastel shoe with a navy heel... a jade slipper with a darker green heel... a white slipper with back and heel of green are important examples. Two-toned shoes, showing two shades of the same color of strongly contrasting colors, are also going smart places. As to materials... pebbly silks, heavy flat crepe, marocain and flamanga are chosen for evening. For next spring, kid is predicted as the leader for daytime shoes... in the new dull finish now available in brown as well as black. Crocodile and frog register smartness for fashionable mornings. Lizard as a trimming appears on evening slippers. There is little change in the general lines... the vamp remaining fairly well rounded.

Fabrics That Fashion Headlines for Spring

"It's smart to be dull and plain," say the new silks... dull in finish, not shade... plain in color, not weave. Weavers of all fabrics tend toward the intricate... with jacquards assuming a tremendous importance in woollens, chiffons, flat crepes, and even linens. Of course, it wouldn't be spring without prints. Toward fall each year, I for one feel that I never want to see another print... so tired do I become with their omnipresence. But each spring I gladly "print" myself again... as do the rest of womankind, it seems. This year diamond prints are threatening to replace the dots we have loved so long. One house is showing them in every size for sports and town wear... from tiny pin-head sizes to diamonds of playing card size or larger. Pastels combined with one, two or three shades of gray are decidedly new in prints for the coming season. Floral patterns of the "sweet" type appear in silk organdies and warp-printed mousselines (a crisp, taffeta-like silk) to carry on the romantic fashions of the winter and extend them into the southern resort and summer season. Woollens still continue to boom, on the style exchange... and are insinuating themselves into luncheon and tea parties and other dressy resort daytime functions. Of course they dress themselves up in luxurious new weaves... very sheer grounds in nets, leno laces, marquises, wool gauzes. Delicate tints, too, add to the summer formality of woollens—pale pastels, especially blue, being preferred, with pink, eggshell and water green also good. Checks and plaids, in navy and white... brown and white

Lief Erikson Ladies' Banquet

Delightful Affair Saturday Evening
The annual banquet of the Lief Erikson Ladies' Club took place on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Moen, Tenth Avenue East, and proved to be a most enjoyable affair indeed. Johnson, there was the singing of a song especially composed for the occasion and honoring B. M. Simpson, who organized the Lief Erikson Society here. There was another song also especially composed for the occasion and touching upon the work of the organization.

A whist drive followed the banquet, prize winners being: ladies first, Mrs. Nels Luth; second, Mrs. G. Johnson; third, Mrs. R. Johnson; men's first, N. Jorstad; second, Erikstad; third, B. M. Simpson. After cards, community singing, vocal solos and instrumental numbers were enjoyed. There were also addresses by B. M. Simpson and Mr. Erikstad, the vice-president of the Lief Erikson Society.

From the letter of a lady living in Victoria we take the following: "Pacific Milk is so creamy, it is economical. Nothing is better when cream is desired for desserts. It adds a flavor all its own. It makes delicious cheese. In cakes and candies it gives all the richness of fresh cream without the cost. I like the idea that it is made in British Columbia."

Eczema On Hands Couldn't Put Them In Water

Mrs. Solomon Bekkopf, R.R. No. 1, Neustadt, Ont., writes:—"I was troubled with eczema for four years, and it was so bad I could not put my hands in water. I found Burdock Blood Bitters, the only medicine that would give me any relief, and after taking four bottles the eczema had all left me. I can now do my own washing, and wish to give thanks to B.B.B. for what it has done for me."

BASKETBALL AT TERRACE

League Schedule Opened Saturday Night With Three Excellent Matches

TERRACE, Feb. 2.—In the opening games of the basketball schedule recently drawn up comprising four teams in the league, the High School Saturday night, defeated the Town 26-25 in an overtime struggle. Vanarsdol outscored the Native Sons 22-7. A girls' game was played between the two men's games resulting in a 33-26 win for the Dubs over the Dumbells in the best exhibition so far this season.

In the first senior game the score was tied at 23-23 at full time, requiring overtime play. In overtime McCulloch scored first for town but this was equalized a moment later by Bewering. The final point was scored by the school team on a technical foul. McCulloch was the best man on the floor, his shooting being very accurate. Thomas also played well for the Town while Michael, at guard, was the most effective man on the School team. In the Native Sons-Vanarsdol game the latter team took an early lead and coasted in to victory. The entire Vanarsdol team played a good passing game. Will Kean stood out for the losers.

Lineups and Scores:

Town—McCulloch 13, Burneth 2, Nelson 0, Thomas 7, Moore 3, Penney 0—25.

High School—McLeod 6, Bowering 10, Kerr 2, Little 9, Michael 0, Wallace 0—26.

SPORT CHAT

Substantial assurances are forthcoming that Britain will send strong representative teams to the Olympic Games at Los Angeles in 1932. Any belief that might have been held regarding the effect upon the Olympic Games of the newly instituted British Empire Games, opened at Hamilton, Ont., last August and scheduled for every four years, is largely unfounded. Lord Rochdale, leader of the British Olympic Games movement, says Britain will be adequately represented at Los Angeles. Lord Rochdale spoke strongly on the matter at a recent meeting in London of the Olympic council, says Sporting Life. He pointed out that since the first Olympiad at Athens in 1896 the United States had loyally supported the games, no matter where they took place, to the utmost of their resources, "and it would be base ingratitude on our part not to do all in our power to help them to make those at Los Angeles as big a success as those in London in 1908."

There is no question that the 1932 Games will be on a different scale altogether to those in 1904 at St. Louis. The Olympic movement at that time was, as it were, in its infancy, and many nations which now regularly participate had then not the least idea as to the value of athletics towards national efficiency. This had the result of making the St. Louis Games practically an all-American affair, for the European nations were practically unrepresented, and the consequence was that with the exception of the 56-pound weight secured by a Canadian, all the track and field events were competed for and won by U. S. athletes. Two of the victors on that occasion, Rose and Sheridan, repeated their successes in throwing the discs and putting the shot at the London Games four years later.

"While it is not necessary for us to attempt to send to Los Angeles the vast number of athletes and officials who represented us in post-war days at Antwerp, Paris, and Amsterdam, it is all the more necessary that Great Britain should make an impressive appearance, inasmuch that already no fewer than 28 nations have accepted the invitation of the United States to compete, while others have intimated their intention of doing so if at all possible," Sporting Life added. "The Americans are hoping that the Tenth Olympiad will surpass all its predecessors in every possible way. If enthusiasm and superb organization can accomplish this they will doubtless attain to their ambition.

Taku Like Stikine and Iskut—Emerald to Resume in Spring—Usk Looks Like Busy Camp

The lower Taku, although considerably smaller, resembles the lower Stikine and, from information gathered, it would appear that the upper part of the river is more like Iskut, it is said in a government report. The ice usually goes out the latter part of April and the navigation season opens some time after the first of May. The freeze-up may occur in October or November.

The fact that the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co. closed down development work a few days ago on the Emerald mine in the Sibola district in the central interior, is not taken as any indication that the management has any lack of confidence in the value of this property. Indeed, there is assurance that development work will be even more active with the first opening up of navigation this coming spring. As is well known, the property is very isolated and winter operations are carried on only with much difficulty.

Harry Jones, formerly well known in Legate Creek mining circles, was drowned recently while prospecting in Northern Ontario, according to word received in this district. Word of Jones' death was conveyed to Thomas McCubbin of Pacific in a letter from Karl Whitmore, formerly associated with Mack Orr on Legate Creek, who intends this summer to prospect in the Coppermine River district of Northern Ontario, using a plane to make the 2500-mile trip north of Sioux Lookout. If he does as well as he anticipates, Whitmore expects to be able to revisit the Pacific district next year.

Albert Neuman, who for two years was located at Smithers as foreman there for the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co., is now stationed at Kimberley in the service of the big mining company.

Capt. John Willman of Usk is at present in Toronto consulting with the directors of the Columario Gold Mining Co. in regard to operations on the property during the coming season. Three men are at the mine at present and it is expected a much larger force will be put on in a short time than has ever worked on the mine before.

From present indications, it looks as if Usk will be one of the chief mining centres in this part of the country during the coming summer. Not only is the Columario to be worked but the Diadem will employ quite a crew and it is reported that Mr. Doane will be back in the spring to undertake development of a group of claims just across the river from Usk.

In accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, the Kitlas Mountain Copper Co. Ltd. and the New Hazelton Gold Cobalt Mines Ltd. have been struck off the register of joint stock companies in British Columbia.

Representative on Provincial Executive: A. C. Garde, M.E., Vancouver, B.C.

The manager, in his annual report, told of the Chamber's activities during the year.

Resolution Considered

The following resolutions on mining laws were considered at the meeting:

1. Proposed by Stewart Board of Trade: that recording fees be reduced where prospectors record assessment work on more than one claim at one time, a suggestion being made that the fees be 25c per claim with a maximum of $2.50 where more claims are included in the one recording.

After considerable discussion in which some doubt was expressed as to the practicability of such a radical departure from the mining laws as they have stood for many years, this was laid over for further consideration at some future date.

2. Proposed by Stewart Board of Trade: that companies not owning the properties upon which they are working be made to deposit sufficient cash with the Mining Recorder to cover all operative costs for one month ahead, to protect merchants and freighters, as is now being done to protect workmen.

After full discussion this was unanimously rejected as being against the development of the mining industry.

3. Proposed by Stewart Board of Trade: that prospectors be made eligible to take advantage of the Workmen's Compensation Act.

After full discussion this was unanimously endorsed as being a necessary amendment.

4. Proposed by Stewart Board of Trade: that cabins, trails and other work done to improve a claim be allowed to be applied as assessment work.

After discussion, this was laid over for further discussion at some future date.

5. Proposed by Stewart Board of Trade: that when a location is recorded a sketch of the ground be filed with the Recorder so that composite maps may be made up, showing roughly what ground has been staked and what ground is open.

After full discussion a motion to endorse this was declared lost on a majority of one in favor of the negative.

6. Proposed by Stewart Board of Trade: that provision be made by statute to stop the practice of those men (commonly known as "Fraction Hounds") who stake small fractions inside the boundaries of other bona fide locations—and that such small fractions, when discovered as the result of a survey, should become the property of the surrounding claims.

After full discussion this was endorsed with proviso that limit should be fixed to have this apply only to small fractions.

Love Was Subject of Christian Scientists In Sunday Services

The subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches and societies on Sunday was "Love," and the golden text was from Jeremiah 31:3, "The Lord hath appeared of old unto me, saying, 'Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love; therefore with loving kindness have I drawn thee.'"

Among the Bible texts included in the lesson-sermon was the following from Romans 13:8: "Owe no man anything, but to love one another; for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law."

The lesson-sermon also included the reading of citations from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, one passage being as follows: "Universal Love is the divine way in Christian Science." (page 266).
