AGREEMENT NOW ON MATTER OF UNEMPLOYMENT RELIEF

Dominion, Provinces and Cities To Co-Operate in Scheme of Government, Says Robertson

Federal Powers Will Construct Dominion Buildings in Various Constituencies and Will Also Assist in Highways and Local Improvements

OTTAWA, Aug. 19:—Joint action by the Dominion, the provinces and the municipalities will be the basic principle of the unemployment relief scheme next fall and winter, according to announcement by Senator Gideon D. Robertson, minister of labor. The federal government will construct Dominion buildings in various constituencies and, in conjunction with the provinces, will build highways.

The Dominion and the provinces will also aid the municipalities in carrying on local improvements.

BACK GOV'T ON RELIEF

Olof Hanson M.P. Urges Citizens to Sink Political Feelings

Before leaving on today's train for Smithers and Kamloops, Olof Hanson M.P. stated that he had forwarded to Ottawa telegrams regarding Prince Rupert's request for public works for relief purposes and he sincerely hoped that results would follow.

Mr. Hanson urged that all citizens, regardless of politics, unite in backing the government on this relief work. He suggested to the Daily News that this was a time for everyone to sink political affiliations and unite on trying to secure for Northern British Columbia recognition of her claims. He said he believed that Premier Bennett was trying to solve the problem in the best interests of the country and he would receive his support in so doing as long as he carried out a policy that would include and benefit the riding of Skeena.

Mr. Hanson said he thought the suggestions which had been endorsed by the city council and chamber of commerce were reasonable and should receive the support of the federal government.

Mr. Hanson is likely to be away for two or three weeks. He will visit Kamloops in connection with the settlement of a brother's estate.

Revision of Entire Structure Of War Debts and Reparations Urged by Bankers' Committee

BASEL, Switzerland, Aug. 19:—Recommendation that the entire structure of intergovernmental war debts and German reparations be revised as a first step towards the return of world prosperity was made by the Wiggins bankers' committee which investigated Germany's credit needs.

The report criticized political differences between Germany and her European neighbors.

CRAIG IN VICTORIA

Local Man Finds Cairo Most Fascinating of All Cities He Visited

Morte Craig, noted Prince Rupert artist, has returned to Victoria from an around-the-world tour and is now staying with Mrs. D. D. McTavish, his daughter, and is renewing old acquaintances, says the Victoria Colonist.

The tour took Mr. Craig to many parts of the world and lasted nearly eleven months. Of London, he said "one stands spellbound at the very name of it. After having spent weeks in its streets, in its squares, in its large open spaces, one became charmed with the great vast whole of the City of London."

Month at Monte Carlo
"I will spend many a delightful hour going over my memories of a month at Monte Carlo. It is very easy to believe in fairy stories and the Arabian Nights after having visited there."

"In Paris one becomes largely disillusioned after a few weeks of strolling. A person's preconceived ideas of 9 a.m. Paris becomes very untenable after an actual visit there. The window shopping is a positive disappointment. I have spent far more enjoyable hours in London and New York."

"All of the lure of Paris was to me at any rate, in the ancient part of the city—Notre Dame, The Louvre, its museums, Bonaparte's Tomb and especially the Latin Quarter."

In British Isles

"My trip through the British Isles is too vast a subject for me to enter into. I made a leisurely run through England and thence to Edinburgh and Glasgow. I spent a day and a night on Loch Lomond, with the moon at its full. The trees were in full bloom and everything looked beautiful. Then I made the night run across the Irish Sea to Dublin, thence to Killarney's Lakes, the castle and its 'Barney Stone,' thence to Cork with its never-ending processions of red-headed girls, its cathedral chimneys and many other fascinating attractions."

"Of all the places I visited, Arabia, the Holy Land, Syria, Turkey, Greece and European countries, the one place that held me in its grip was Cairo on the Nile." Mr. Craig concluded.

FOUR DIE IN CRASH

FORT FRANCES, Ont., Aug. 19:—Four men were killed yesterday when an airplane crashed into the surf at Rainy Lake.

The dead men are:
P. A. Hutton, pilot, Toronto.
C. O. Greer, air engineer, Sault Ste. Marie.

A. J. Runciman, co-pilot, Stratford.

J. D. Stewart, district forester for the Ontario government here.

Miss Marcel Jabour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Jabour, is making a good recovery at the Prince Rupert General Hospital from the effects of head injuries sustained on Sunday last in an accident with her bicycle.

ALL ROADS IN INTERIOR LEAD TO PRINCE GEORGE; IS LIVELY METROPOLIS

Is Centre of Influence and Importance in Rich Central Interior—Highway System is Glory of Town

(By H. F. Pullen)

In England it is said that all roads lead to London but in Central British Columbia all roads lead to Prince George. It is the central pivotal point, the supply centre and the largest centre of population in the central interior of the province. While its population including the suburbs, is probably less than four thousand, the influence and importance of the city is out of all proportion to the number of people who live there for it caters to the needs of a district as large as several European countries put together.

While the financial depression is severely felt in Prince George, it has demonstrated one important fact. The city can carry on and her merchants can live without the help of her principal industry of lumbering. With almost all of the twenty mills idle, the people still buy and sell. They trade at the stores and most of them pay cash, for the hard time has driven most of the merchants to follow the example of Prince Rupert and put business very largely on a cash basis.

But the people of the country cannot for long be without lumber. They will soon be buying again and, when they do, Prince George will assume its old time prosperity. Every time it is reported that a mill has resumed cutting, we shall know that the lumber centre will receive an impetus from it. In the meantime, the people will carry on and do the best they can with the conditions as they are.

The glory of Prince George is the highway system. Roads extend to all four points of the compass, north, south, east and west. To the south by way of Quesnel and the famed Cariboo road connection is made with the rest of the world. Westward the highway extends to Hazelton and soon, it is hoped will reach through to Terrace and then Prince Rupert. Eastward cars drive to Aleza Lake and by connecting up (Continued On Page 3)

Provincial Cabinet and Federal Minister Have Conference in Victoria

Six-Hour Parley Yesterday Between Premier Tolmie and Colleagues and Hon. H. H. Stevens—Starting of Work Immediately is Assured

VICTORIA, Aug. 19:—Complete understanding between Hon. H. H. Stevens, minister of trade and commerce, representing the federal government, and the provincial government on the Dominion government's policy of assistance in unemployed relief was reached yesterday following a six-hour conference between the minister and the provincial cabinet. Immediate commencement of relief work on the basis of British Columbia government proposals is assured but details of the plans will not be available until confirmation of the negotiations is secured from Ottawa in a day or so.

CHINAMAN ASSAULTED

Charlie Wing of This City is a Victim of Murderous Attack In Vancouver

Word has been received in the city by Oriental friends that Charlie Wing, well-known local Chinese resident for many years, who went south last week, is in a dangerous condition in a Vancouver hospital suffering from the effects of a murderous assault which was inflicted upon him at midnight Monday in Vancouver.

Wing had gone into a restaurant to have a cup of coffee. As he emerged to the street after partaking of the refreshment, he was felled with a blow on the forehead from a hammer in the hands of an unknown assailant who escaped.

Wing's condition is critical, according to telegraphic advices received by local friends.

FLEW FROM NEW YORK

Prominent Metropolitan Doctor Lands at Jasper Park

JASPER PARK, Aug. 19:—Having completed the long airplane journey from New York City in 30 hours flying time, Dr. Robert S. Bickley, prominent New York physician, arrived at Jasper Park Lodge last night to join his wife and daughter who have been guests at the rustic hotel for the past two months. W. G. Holland, Edmonton, who piloted Dr. Bickley on the last lap of his long flight, guided the Western Canada Airways plane to a splendid landing on the sixth fairway of the golf course which adjoins the lodge, marking the second time this season an airplane has landed on the course.

Hal Roach, prominent Hollywood movie producer, landed here early in the season after a record daylight flight from Los Angeles.

Flower Show and Bridge Opening

Two Important Events at Hazelton This Week, Tomorrow and Friday

The annual flower show at Hazelton takes place tomorrow, August 20, and the bridge will be opened the following day, August 21. Both these events are outstanding in the annals of the town and a number of visitors are expected for the occasion.

FISHING IS EASY

Sockeye Horde Sighted at Smithers

SMITHERS, Aug. 19:—A silver horde of sockeye salmon, plunging and leaping in thousands in a never-ending surge amidst heavy waves in the churning maelstrom of white water at Moricetown Falls on Bulkley River has amazed visitors near here.

So thick are the fish running that Indian women have little difficulty in scooping salmon out of the water with their hands; yet, expensive fishing tackle of tourists has proved of little use.

An unusual occurrence is reported by fishermen, that, contrary to the assumption that salmon never eat after leaving salt water, the fish show a readiness to take bait floated on the surface.

A fisherman is considered lucky if he lands his fish as "they make a mighty battle when caught with the hook in the raging waters."

Visitors report hundreds of fish were seen simultaneously making flying leaps to mount the falls in a single lunge, then "braking" desperately with their tails.

Tossed and bruised against rocky walls of the gorge, the salmon arc into quiet pools in side eddies, rest, then resume their upstream mecca. In a space of four square feet, scores of large salmon were sighted in side pools.

The movement of the fish to spawning grounds is declared a record by local pioneers.

THE REAL SYSTEM

The more the unemployment problem is discussed the more evident it becomes that the best method of dealing with it would be by instituting a number of important public works that would enable the large majority of the men to earn a living without making them feel that they were the recipients of public charity. The building of the western outlet to the Peace River country would be one such work and the letting of a large contract for the construction of the western and eastern ends of the Prince Rupert to Jasper highway would be others. These works would absorb most of the unemployed men in British Columbia and Alberta and other similar works might be carried out in the east.

The way things are shaping today it looks as if there would be much discontent in any case and that little value will be received by the country for the money expended. If contracts were let for the big construction jobs there would be a possibility of Prince Rupert people being able to drive out in their own cars to interior points within a reasonable time and there would also be a possibility of the western section of the C. N. R. being utilized for hauling grain and thus be made to pay within a reasonable period.

AN OBSTACLE IN WAY

It is said that one of the obstacles in the way of railway development is the threatened exodus of the farmers from the drought stricken areas to the Peace River country leaving the older settled areas neglected and the railway branch lines in those regions practically useless. Already this trek has commenced but if the new outlet were to be constructed, the movement would be increased until very few people would be left in Southern Saskatchewan. This would leave the railways with unremunerative branch lines on their hands while committing them to the expenditure for the new lines. It is said that is the reason the railways refuse to undertake the work.

AN IMPORTANT SECTION OF ROAD

One of the important sections of highway that needs completion is that connecting Usk with Skeena Crossing. Part of it is already completed but there is a difficult piece, said to be about ten miles long, that connects up the remainder and would enable Terrace people and the residents of Usk to connect with the main highway. Very little work has been done on this during the past few years.

Attractive English Rustic Home

ECONOMICAL AND ATTRACTIVE

HENRY J. CHOWN, Architect

HERE is an English rustic home with attractive features on both the exterior and interior. The verandah at the side leading from the living room is interesting because of the manner in which the roof is carried over it and also because of the shape of the arch at the gable end. Flower boxes are placed at both sides of the verandah.

The house is built of red tapestry brick with clapboard dormer and stucco gable with clapboard over the front entrance. Made interesting by side lights with tile set in underneath, the front entrance is very expressive and opens into an unusual vestibule. There is an impression of a duplex in this vestibule with the two doors opening into it. These lead to the living room and kitchen. It is not uncommon to see the kitchen thus placed in the house and when one considers the amount of time spent in this room by the housewife, it is only reasonable that this room should have a pleasant outlook. The kitchen is wired for an electric stove and refrigerator.

In the living room and dining room the ceilings are treated with buff stucco with a pulled and trowelled finish. The floors are of red oak with the exception of the vestibule where the floor is of red tile and the bathroom, whose floor is also tiled. The gumwood trim in the living room and dining room is stained walnut. In the kitchen, the trim is grey enamel and in the bedrooms it is ivory enamel.

Fine Quality Roof Obtainable By Use Of Wood Shingles

Edge Grain Superior

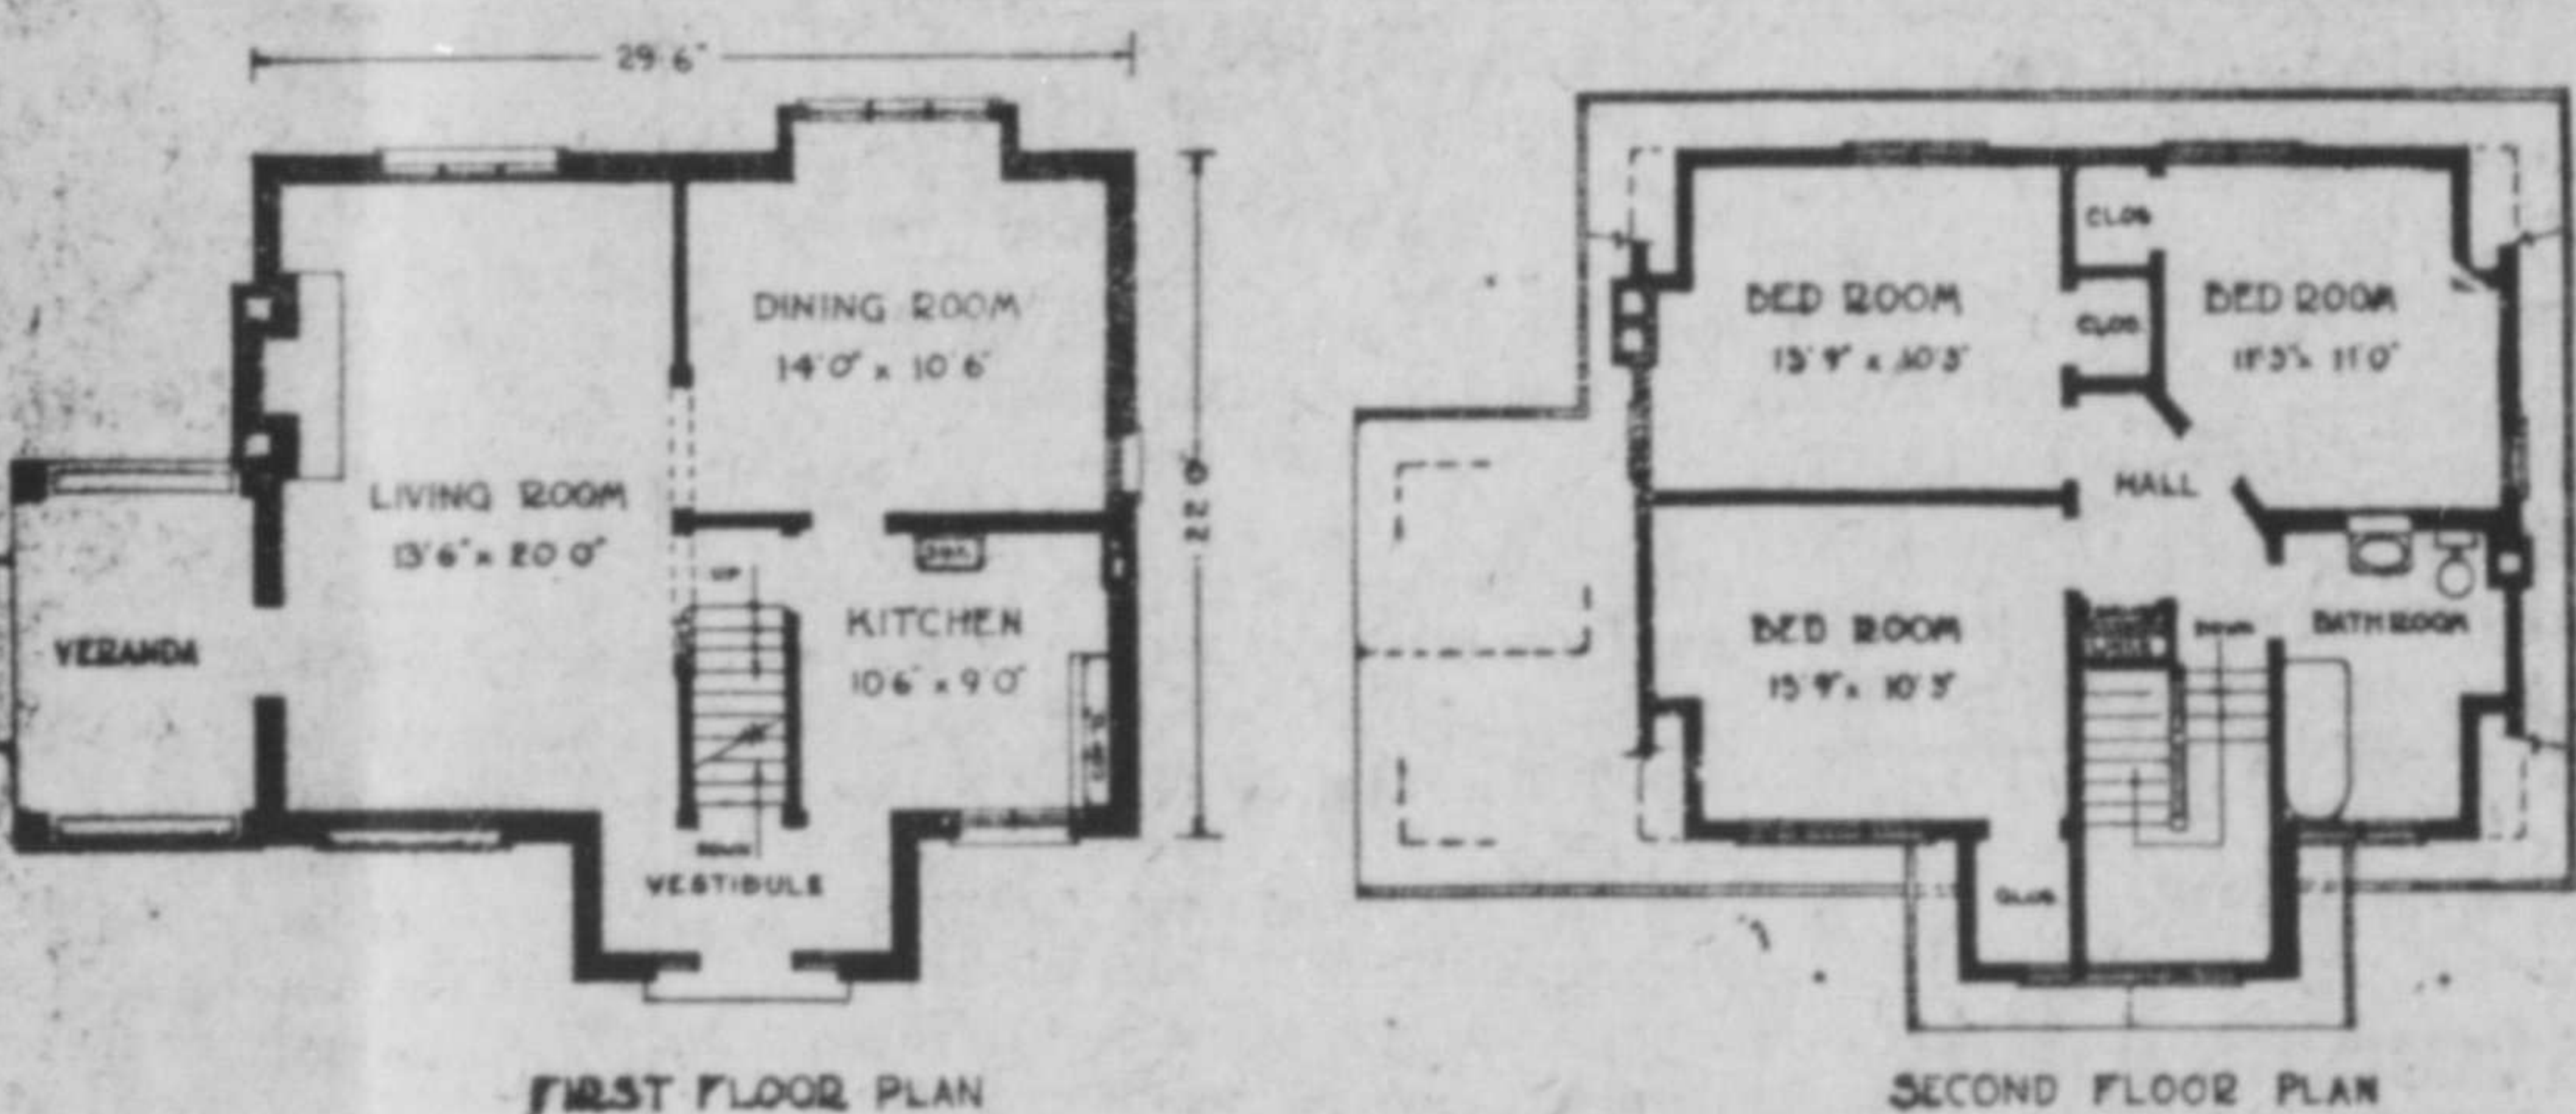

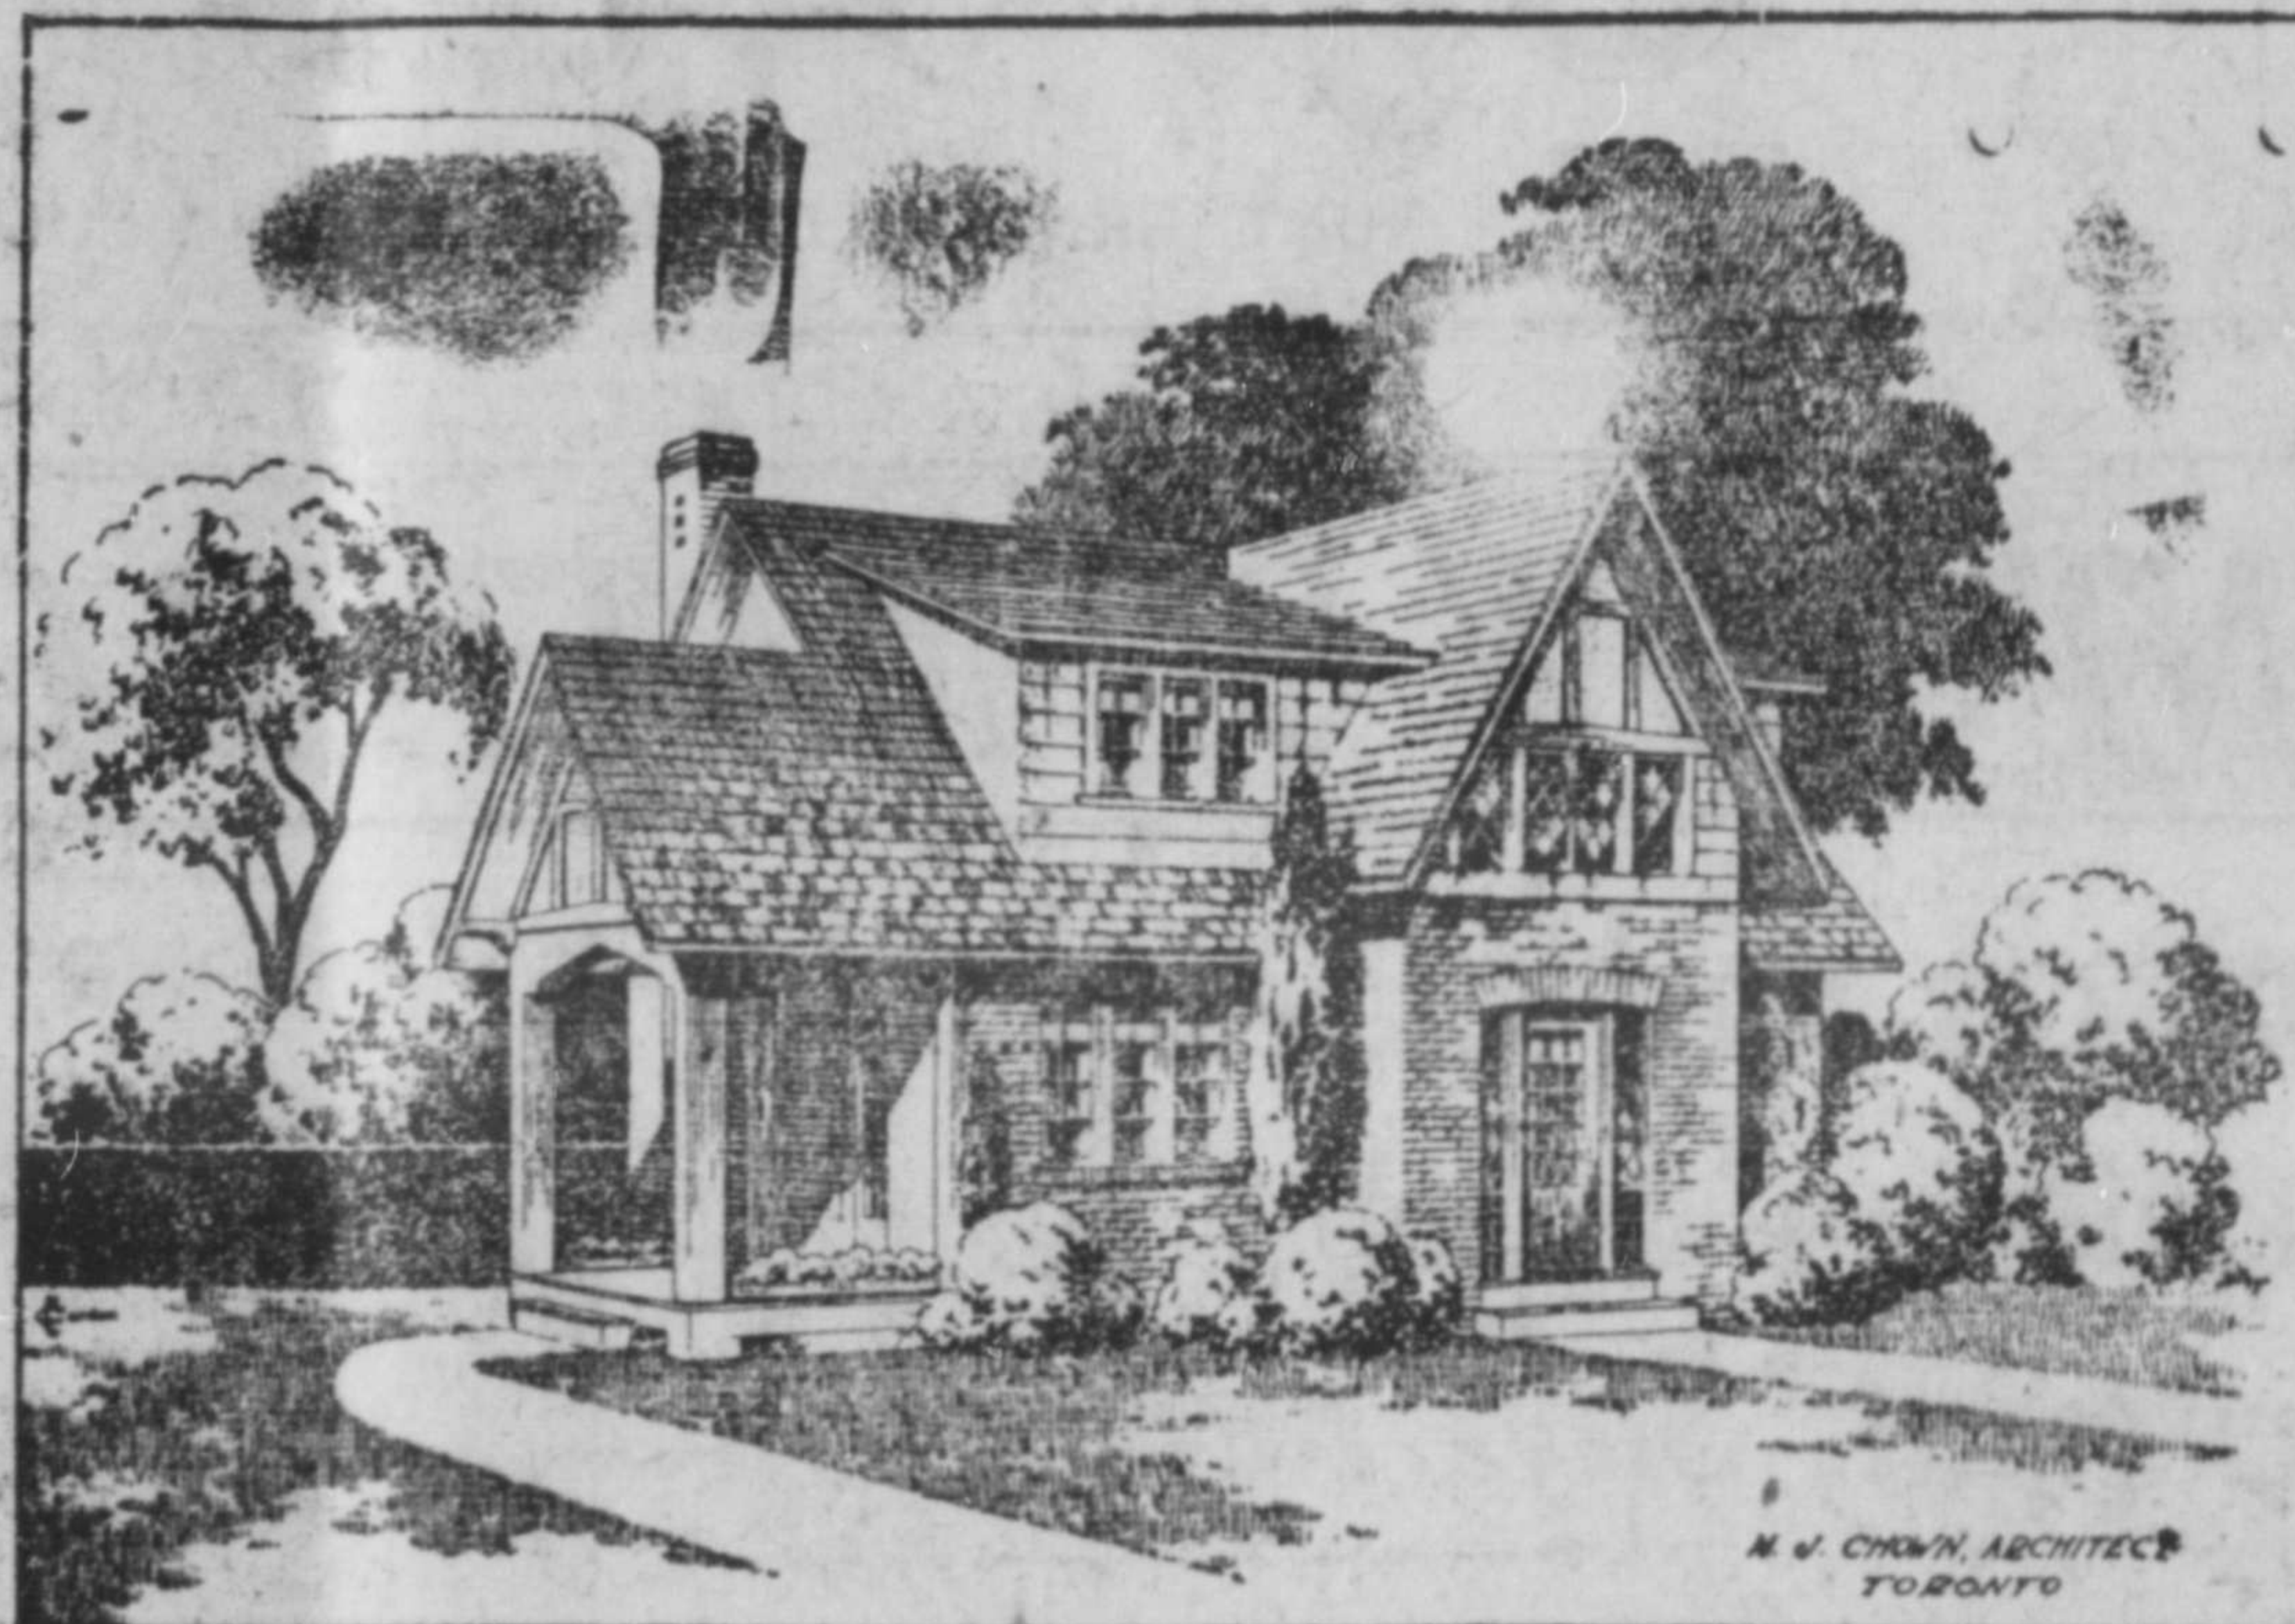

MEN cut thin slabs of wood and we put them on our roofs. Shingles, we call them; protection from weathering is what we expect. That confidence is well placed. We get protection if we recognize certain fundamental qualities of the material and a certain minimum of construction requirements that all good builders know.

Here they are. First, as to the material. Red cedar is the wood most commonly used, although cypress and redwood also serve well. More important than the material is the way it is cut. Look around you at the shingle roofs you see — those that have been good for a number of years. Some you will find lying flat, every shingle in its place. You will know that these are tight roofs. We can be sure they will remain that way long years. We know also that fire brands rarely lodge on such roofs, and that if they do the solid and close-fitting units do not kindle readily. Good shingle roofs rarely catch fire.

Now see others that are curled, that show shingles out of place or missing, a rough, splintery surface that cannot be tight, that cannot yield protection from weather and, more, that may be a fire hazard of the first order.

Why the difference? It began when the shingles were manufactured. Some are thin, some are thick. The thin ones curl. Some are flat sawed like common boards. Some are edge grain, the rings of growth making parallel lines from end to end of the shingle units. Again, it is the flat sawed shingles that curl. Some are protected — saturated with creosote. They need that protection.

You can forget a roof that is made of edge grain shingles measuring at least three-eighths of an inch thick and creosoted from end to end — if they are put on right. That's the second part. No shingle should be more than eight inches wide; a space of at least one fourth

Siam's Rulers Visit Canada

Canada's most illustrious guests for the present week are undoubtedly Their Majesties the King and Queen of Siam, who, with a party of relatives, officials and servants from their own land, are at present making their way across this country and missing few if any of the sights that should be seen by the intelligent tourist in our midst.

His Majesty King Prajadhipok, pronounced Pra-cha-ti-pok, with the accent on the second syllable, is the descendant of Buddha, and holder of half a dozen stirring Oriental titles, and furthermore, the unquestioned master of the destinies of ten million people.

Naturally, then, one looks toward seeing him with keen interest, and all unprepared for the shock when a well-groomed gentleman steps from his train and with smiling courtesy and in English speech quite undistinguishable from that spoken by cultured Canadians greets those who await him. Later we understand it. An Oxford education and a term or two at a French military school as well as visits of study to the United States and other occidental countries have had their effect upon a naturally active mind of an outstandingly intelligent nature.

Siam is fortunate in her King. Under his enlightened guidance she is moving slowly out of Oriental medievalism into such modernism as is good for the country's welfare and happiness, not by revolution or the sudden casting away of long-tried things that have proved their use, but by the gradual assimilation of the things that are found good among the modern.

This ruler of men takes his

The beautiful Wat Po temple, at Bangkok, capital of Siam, gives a splendid example of the country's architecture. Inset: Their Majesties King Prajadhipok and Queen Rambai Barni, landing from the Canadian Government steamer "Lady Grey", at Montreal, where they were accorded an enthusiastic welcome.

ingship seriously. You see it in his every move, in his grave, thoughtful air, and in the serious respectful manner in which the members of his suite approach him. More than all it is seen in what he has done for Siam. Of his Queen, Rambai Barni, columns might be written. Her charm of manner and captivating smile have captured all who have met her ever since she first set foot on Canadian soil at Quebec. As modern as her husband, and speaking as excellent English, as indeed do all sixteen members of their suite, Her Majesty seems to enjoy every moment of her stay in Canada.

It is astonishing how interested the party are in Canadian history, and historic scenes. When at Quebec the battlefields of the Plains of Abraham were gone over most carefully and every interesting relic in and about the city was duly visited. The party occupied a complete upper floor in the tower of the Chateau Frontenac from where they had a view of the whole theatre of the struggle that ended in the fall of the French regime. His Majesty did not come to Canada as a stranger.

He was here six years ago on his way to Europe and he already knew something of our history. In that fact lies the explanation of the exceedingly interesting statement he issued to the people of Canada upon his arrival at Quebec. It was as follows:

"In landing upon this continent in British Columbia last April I expressed the hope that I might have an opportunity of seeing more of this great and growing member of the British Commonwealth of Nations. That hope is about to be realized. We shall remain for a time here in 'Old Canada' where the sturdy characteristics of French and British forbears have blended in a culture as admirable as it is unique. After meeting officials of the Government, and visiting the Capital of the Dominion, we shall travel west through Canada, remaining for a time in the Canadian Rockies before embarking at Vancouver. I look forward to the opportunity of seeing at closer range the people and the institutions of this nation whose vigor and progressiveness are so happily apparent."

The following is from the Twenty Years Ago column of the Vancouver Province: "The new garden of Western Canada will be found in the Nechako and Bulkley Valleys," said R. W. Lett, colonization agent of the G.T.P., who returned to Vancouver today from the north. The Bulkley Valley is ideal for mixed farming."

One of the attractive garden spots in the city of the present summer has been a flower patch of Fred Scadden's on Fraser Street near Grenville Place.

PARKING ON HIGHWAY

Editor Daily News:

I wish to call attention of the public through your paper to Clause B of the Highway Act,
wherein it states:

"It shall be unlawful for any person to stop or park any vehicle at any curve or at or near the summit of any hill on the travelled portion of any highway, unless such vehicle is mechanically disabled to the extent that it cannot be moved."

I wish to warn the public that this section of the Act will be strictly enforced after Saturday, August 22nd.

I have on many occasions, noticed cars that have been parked in very dangerous positions. On several Sundays I noticed cars immediately east of what is the most dangerous curve on the Kaler Island Highway, close to the Grassy Bay Trail.

It is not my intention to cause unnecessary inconvenience to those who are using cars and vehicles, but rather to prevent accidents before they happen.

I wish again to give fair warning that the road will be inspected frequently, and any offenders will be summonsed. This also applies to those who are in the habit of piling wood or placing any other obstruction upon the travelled portion of the Highway.

W. K. DWYER,
District Engineer.

with McBride it is planned to push through to the Alberta boundary.
Waterway System

While the highway northward ends today at Summit Lake, the system of waterways from that place carries a limited number of passengers and considerable freight to the great north and away to Peace River. With all this system of communication in addition to the railways, is it any wonder that Prince George continues to be the business and social centre of such a large section of the country?

It is not known what is the present population of Prince George, but we shall all know soon when the report of the census enumerators is given to the public. What we do know is that it is the only incorporated city east of Prince Rupert in the great empire of the north.

In these days of pessimism it is satisfactory to hear that the ratepayers of Prince George like those of Prince Rupert, have paid their taxes. Like Prince Rupert there is no tax on improvements in this central metropolis, although the system has its strong advocates and there seems a possibility that a small tax on improvements may be imposed in the near future, judging from what one hears. The present 35 mills on the dollars is said to bear unduly hard on the owners of unimproved property.

The city government is administered admirably by Mayor Patterson and a group of aldermen consisting of T. A. Griffith, C. C. Reid, W. Bexon, F. D. Taylor, D. G. Fraser
and J. M. Keller. There are critics, of course, but where are there not critics in these days of stress?

The city owns its power, light and water systems and it seems doubtful if there will be any change at present. Later when a big hydroelectric development becomes necessary a change may be made to corporation ownership.

The telephone is not owned by the city but is in the hands of a private company with extensions beyond the city proceeding apace.

Three Large Schools

Prince George has three large schools, one of which is a high school, giving the best possible opportunities to the lads and lasses of the city. S. C. Saunders is the chairman of the board, other members being W. H. Crocker, W. J. Pitman and Mrs. Julia Abbott. Also religious, moral and social development is in good hands, there being opportunities to follow individual inclinations in this respect.

A feature of every progressive community is its newspaper. Prince George is well served by an excellent weekly. The Citizen, edited by R. A. Renwick has a wide circulation and carries considerable world news, differing in this respect from the other interior papers, which are mostly local in character.

One feature of life in Prince George is that nearly everyone has a car and that there is always some place to go. Lakes and streams abound, providing delightful summer resorts. Probably the most popular of these is Summit Lake, about forty miles north of the city.

There are many islands in the lake and on these or on the lake shore are summer homes of varied character and proportions.

It is impossible to speak of Summit Lake without mention of Mrs.
Josephine Mitchell, the California lady, who has bought up much of the property near the end of the road. She spends her summers at a cottage there and operates a store and provides boats for visitors. She is very popular with the people of the city and is often hostess to many of them at her hospitable summer home. She also has started a summer lodge for rich visitors and she operates a large farm not far away.
All this makes for development and is bound to popularize the resort and Prince George as a tourist centre for both Canadians and Americans.

The development of Prince George, as of other Central B.C. towns, has not been rapid but it is sound development and will undoubtedly continue until a city of large proportions is found necessary to cater to the needs of a rich and delightful countryside.

the city on the Prince Rupert this morning from Vancouver, being here on business.

Comadina Still Leads Big Six

Stephens Back Into Second Place With Harold and Arseneau Close Behind

There were no new names in the Big Six standing following last evening's fixture between Sons of Canada and Old Empress, but those who were already in were juggled around a bit. Johnny Comadina is still topping the list although he dropped a few points. Hibbard, who went hitless in three attempts, dropped from second to sixth place as Arseneau and Redman, his team mates each raised their percentage with one safety in two times at bat. Fred Stephens and Bill Harold now occupy second and third places with but one point between them while Arseneau is but one point behind Harold. Following is the standing:

SPORT CHAT

The importance of goal-average is being recognized by local football supporters with the Mobley Cup series in such a crucial standing at present. The most remarkable instance of the value of a superior goal average was the case in the English League a few years ago when Manchester United won their promotion from the second division to the first division of the league by a fraction of a goal, actually it was .001, that is to say by the one-thousandth of a goal!

The Mobley Cup standing is as follows:

Legion	2	4	9	17	4

Merchants—A. Dickens (5), S. Dickens (4), Russell (2), Amor (1), McKay (1), Chenoski (1), and three goals scored by their opponents, Skinner (2), and Norrington (1).
Legion—Baptie (4), W. Murray (3), J. Murray (2).

League Race Close As Sons of Canada Beat Old Empress

Eddie Smith Pitches For Sons and Silences Heavy Guns of Hotelmen to Tighten Race

After having won five games in succession from the Sons of Canada, Old Empress weakened last evening as Eddie Smith held them to three runs and five hits while his team mates were collecting eight runs and as many hits off Nelson and Wendle. It was a crucial contest as far as league honors are concerned, for, had the Hotelmen been able to cop, they would have been assured of at least a tie for first place, while now it is quite possible for any team to win or at least make a tie of it.

Smith pitched fine ball for the first three innings no one reaching first. With two out in the fourth Arseneau hit a screaming triple to right but Wendle struck out. After two were out in the fifth, Menzie hit what should have been a single to right but slow fielding allowed it to go for a triple. Redman poked one out to centre as Menzie tried to steal home and made third on it as Comadina misjudged the bounce. However, the next batter whiffed. As it was getting dark during the sixth it looked as though Old Empress might run in a flock of runs when Kenny, first man up, singled. Nelson singled and Kenny scored. Arseneau walked. Arseneau was forced at second on Wendle's roller to Bury and Nelson scored. Eldridge fled out to Stalker and Hibbard was thrown out at first.

Sons of Canada scattered their eight runs over four innings. They collected one in the opening stanza on singles by Smith and Comadina. An error, a stolen base and a single contributed one more in the third. They made four in the fifth. Stalker struck out. Johnson singled over third base and stole second. Bury was hit by a pitched ball. Eddie Smith laid down a bunt which Nelson fielded all right but didn't know what to do with it after he got it and the bases were full. Morankes singled to left and Johnson scored. Comadina struck out on a called third strike that looked very low. Styles, with two strikes on him, cracked out a triple to right, cleaning the paths. Wendle went into the box and Frizzell bounced one down to Nelson at short who made a nice stop and threw him out.

They got two more in the sixth. Roberts walked. Stalker hit to Eldridge who forced Roberts at second but Kenny threw wild to first and Stalker went to second. Johnson drove one between Kenny's legs behind second and Stalker scored. Johnson going to third. He scored as Kenny tossed out Bury. Smith rolled another down to Kenny who threw him out at first.

The Sons of Canada were without the services of Lambie who is suffering from a cold in the back.

The game was called on account of darkness at the end of the sixth. Although it is quite probable that it wouldn't have made any difference to the final outcome had they played the extra inning, it seemed queer that the game should have been called when one night about a month ago, the game was allowed to continue when the fog was right on the field and it was much harder to see the ball than it was when time was called last night.

Guide to Correspondents

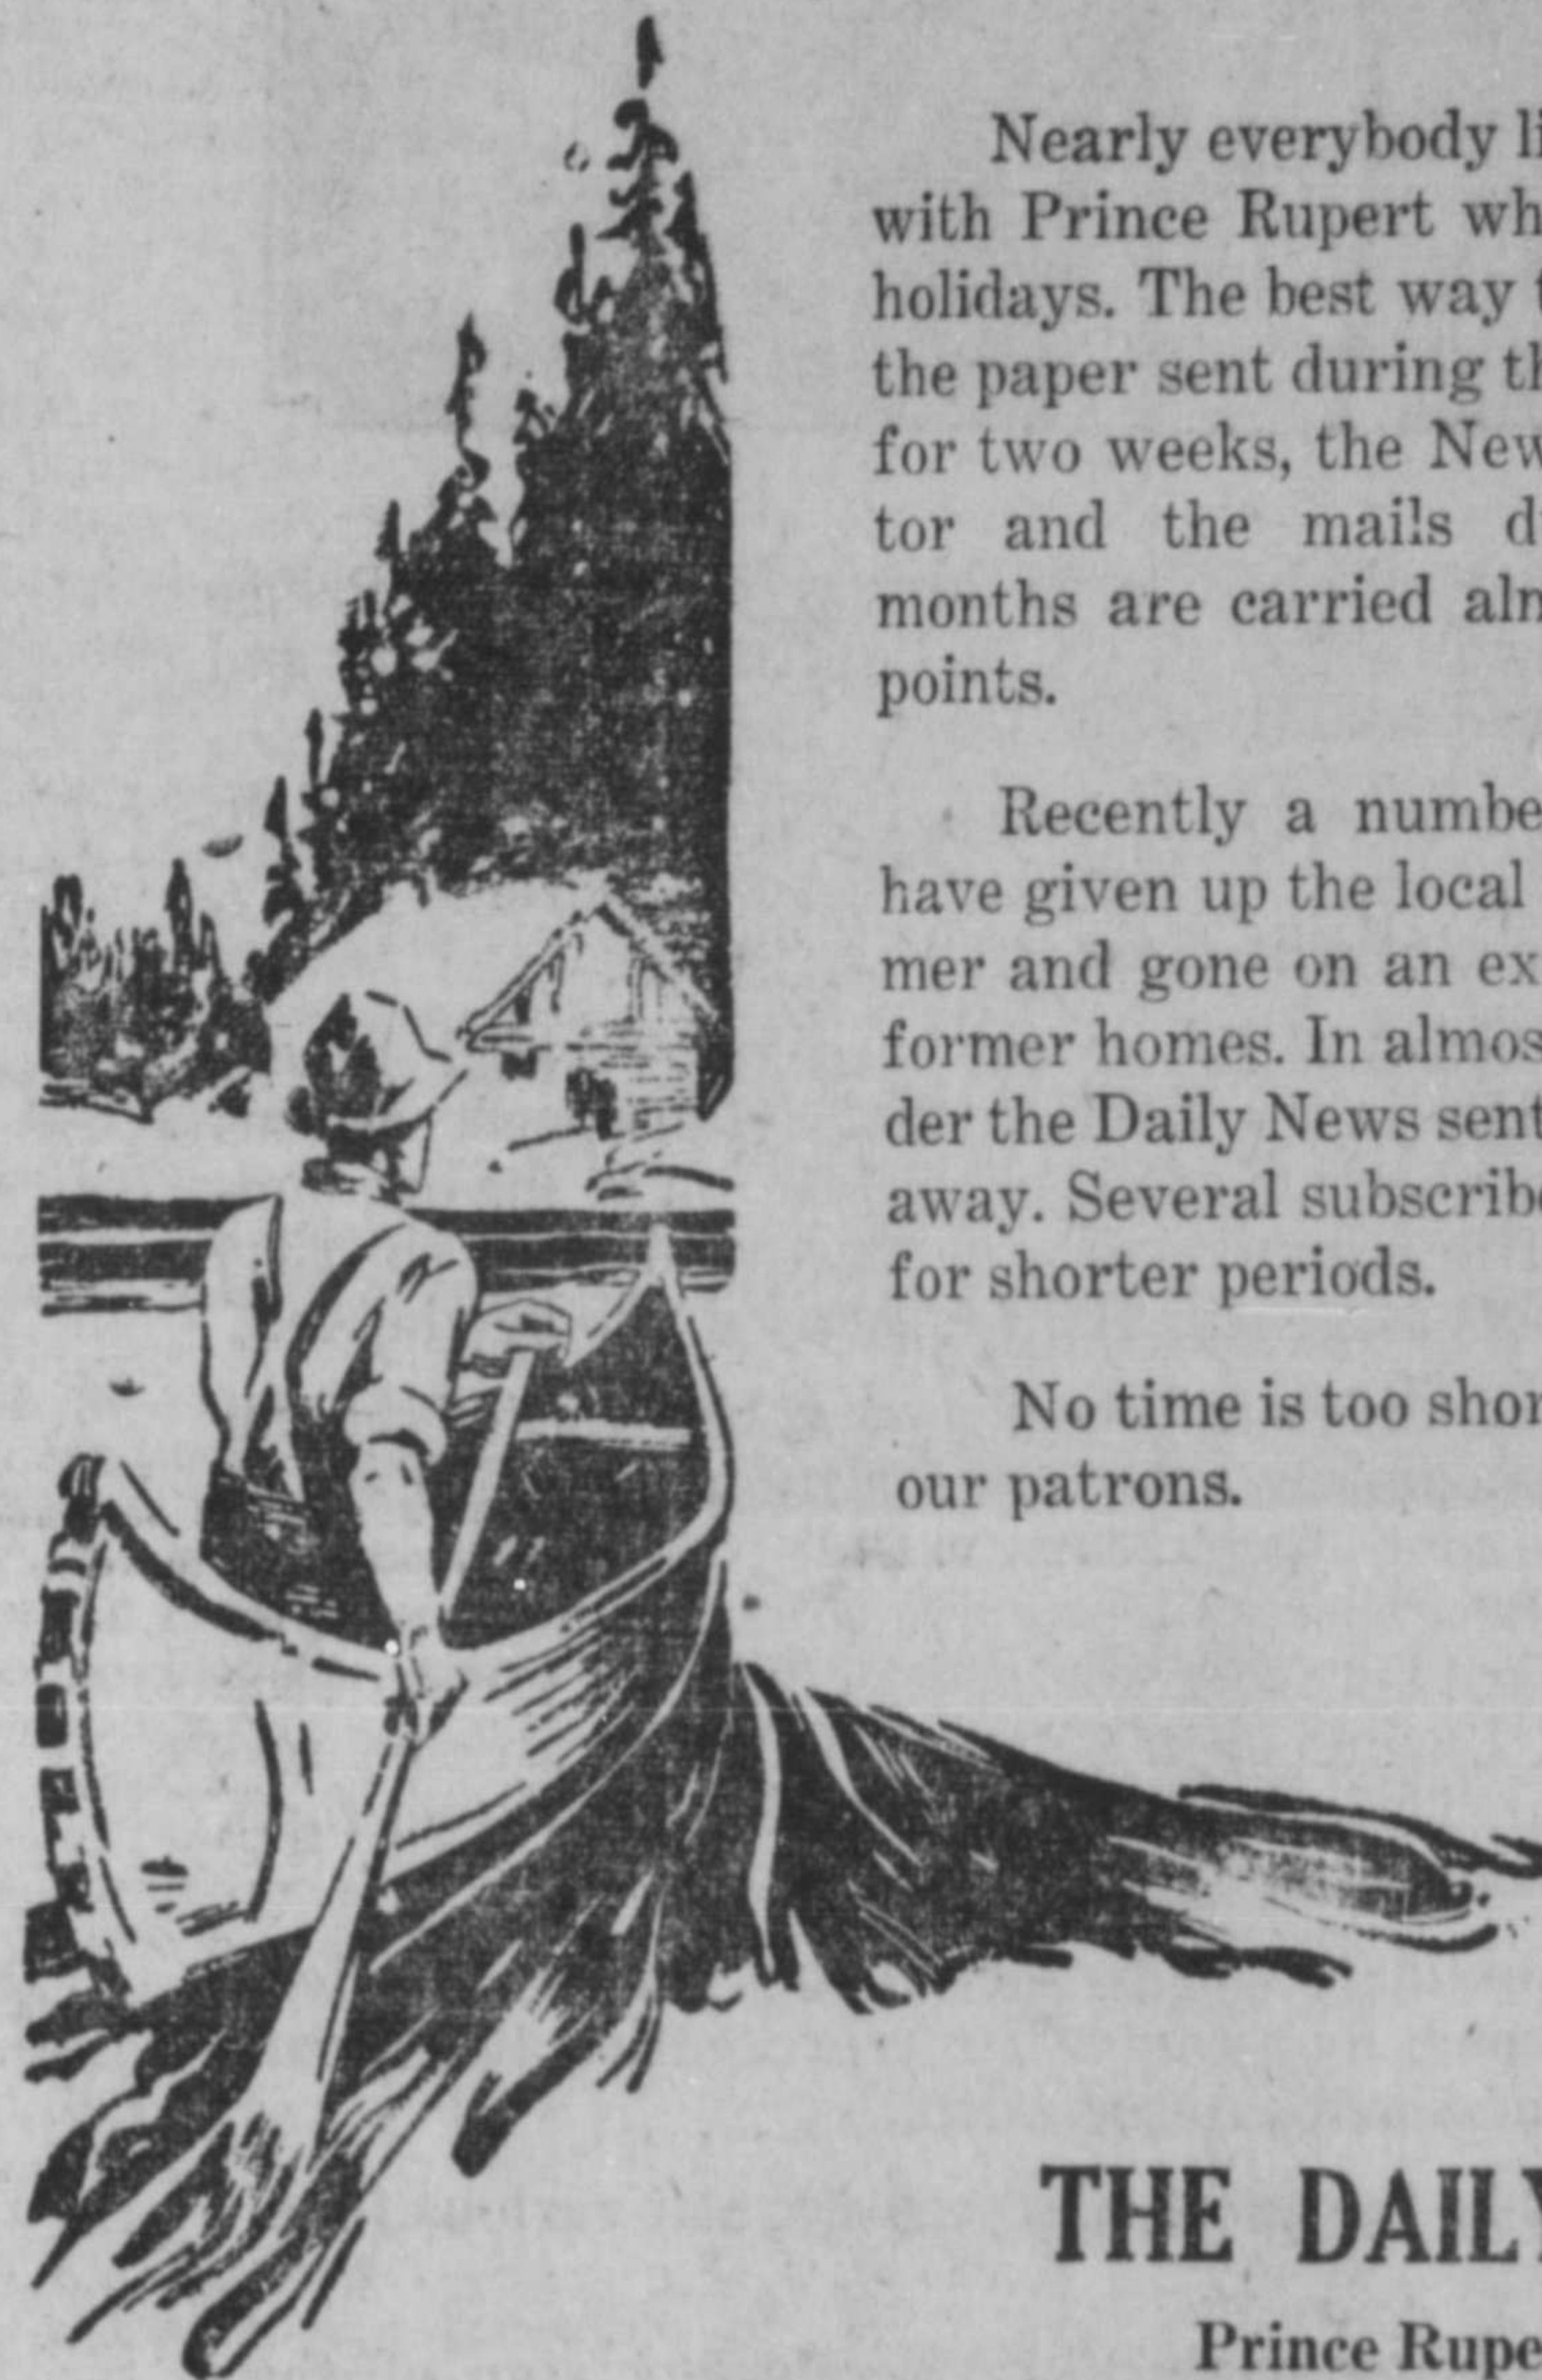

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.

Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication.

Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.

Off for Vacation

Take The DAILY NEWS with you When Going on Summer Holidays

Nearly everybody likes to keep in touch with Prince Rupert when away for their holidays. The best way to do this is to order the paper sent during that time. If it is only for two weeks, the News is a welcome visitor and the mails during the summer months are carried almost daily to most points.

Recently a number of Scandinavians have given up the local fishing for the summer and gone on an extended visit to their former homes. In almost every case they order the Daily News sent them while they are away. Several subscribed for a year, others for shorter periods.

No time is too short for us to look after our patrons.

GIRLS WANTED

To enter Contest for America's Most Beautiful Girl

The winner will be chosen during fair week in Prince Rupert and will get a free trip to Los Angeles and back and be entertained lavishly while there.

Entrants must sell 50 tickets to the Big Coronation Ball, the last day of the fair. Nothing else to do but look pretty. It's the chance of a lifetime.

The fair board at its recent meeting decided to enter a candidate in the International Beatequest at Los Angeles in connection with the celebration of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the city, when the most beautiful girl in America will be chosen.

The local candidate will be chosen at the time of the fall fair and immediately after her selection she will have to leave for the south to get there in time for the big California event. Her expenses going and coming will be paid by the Fair Board but while there she will be the guest of the Ocean Park Businessmen's Association, who are sponsoring the event. The attraction for the candidate is set forth in the following letter from the south.

"Your candidate will be met at the railway station, dock or airport by a committee representing the Ocean Park Businessmen's Association.

"She will be the guest of screen stars at various functions.

"She will be entertained by a reigning star of the screen at her home.

"She will be included in all parties listed as part of the program of the International Beatequest and La Fiesta de Los Angeles.

"She will occupy a position of honor in all gatherings including pageants, parades, spectacles, receptions and, in fact, all events planned for the International Beatequest and Los Angeles' great reception."

Candidates must be between the ages of 16 and 30, unmarried and of good character and the one going from Prince Rupert will be chosen in the following manner:

She or her sponsors must sell 50 tickets at $1 each for the big coronation ball to be staged on the last day of the fair in the exhibition building. For the one selling the most tickets a prize of $50 will be awarded.

She may enter without sponsors if she wishes but she must sell the tickets.

The candidates must attend the Exhibition every evening while it is in progress here. On the first night one selection will be made by competent judges. On the second night a second candidate will be chosen by another set of judges and on the third night a third candidate will be chosen by a third set of judges.

These three candidates will attend the coronation ball accompanied by the other candidates and at 9 o'clock, the final selection will be made. Two hours later the coronation will take place here and the following day the winner will be required to leave and travel as rapidly as possible by steamship, airplane and rail to Los Angeles.

Candidates from points around Prince Rupert may enter, such as Anyox, Ocean Falls, Smithers, Terrace, Stewart, Hazelton or other points and they will be required to sell 25 tickets to the coronation ball in order to qualify.

Candidates either in the city or out may be sponsored by organizations who may help them in disposing of tickets or otherwise in connection with the event.

Candidates or their sponsors should notify Secretary Vance of the Fair Association at as early a date as possible and as soon as the tickets are ready may commence disposing of them.

Telkwa Coal Mine Lands Big C. N. R. Order—Developing Group of Claims on Hudson Bay Mountain—Activity in Whitesail Lake Country

The situation so far as the Telkwa coal mine being operated by F. M. Dockrill of Telkwa is concerned was never more healthy than it is today and, with new orders piling up, there is prospect for an unusually busy season at this mine. From the Canadian National Railways, Mr. Dockrill has received an order for 750 tons of coal to be supplied to section houses along the line between Prince Rupert and Prince George. Work on this order will commence

TERRACE

The Rev. and Mrs. E. A. McCarthy are holidaying at Kalum Lake.

Lumbering is slow here just now, both Giggey's and Pohle's mills being shut down. Operations are largely restricted to getting out poles for an unsatisfactory market.

The school trustees contemplate the provision of fire escapes at the public school, a convenience long overdue.

The Farmers' Institute is arranging to build a meat market shop on Lakeside Avenue for the disposal of locally produced stock. The supply of livestock in the district has been steadily increasing of late years and marketing difficulties have led the farmers to take this step.

A little flutter was occasioned by the arrest just on train time of two ladies who were charged with attempting to "beat it" without paying their board. The ladies in question fooled quite a few people but in the end got it "in the neck." They had laid plans to institute a nursing home at Lakeside hot springs but their financial arrangements did not pan out right. In the end they produced the necessary money and were allowed to go vowing to put Terrace "on the map" as an undesirable place for adventurers.

Is Fined on Charge Of Smithers Theft

Cecil Marsh, on a charge of theft emanating from Smithers, was fined $20 and costs in provincial police court yesterday.

ELKS SHOW ENTHUSIASM

Are Keen on Putting Over Candidate in Beatequest Contest

Called together at the request of Exalted Ruler Geo. Mitchell, the Elks Beatequest committee last evening heartily agreed to give their utmost support to their fair candidate, Miss Vivian Hickey.

Sam Joy was selected to make arrangements for a dance next week in honor of Miss Hickey. This is expected to be enthusiastically attended as the Elks are very keen over their standard-bearer.

Past Exalted Ruler, Fred H. Stephens has been delegated to arrange the annual game of baseball between the married and single Elks which this year will be played in honor of Miss Hickey. Last year this game drew a tremendous attendance and this year ought to break all records.

The committee has taken another hundred of the qualifying tickets and these can be purchased from all members.

S. N. Boyle, accountant here for the Canadian National Telegraphs returned to the city on the Prince Rupert this morning from a holiday visit to his home in New Westminster.
