Retiring Governor-General is Grateful to Canada; Predicts a Great Future For This Country

Issues Direct and Simple Expression of Gratitude On Behalf of Himself and Viscountess—Basic Conditions Absolutely Sound, He Says

OTTAWA, Jan. 14:—Last night on the eve of his departure from the Dominion capital for Halifax whence he will embark for England en route to India to assume the Viceroyship there, His Excellency, the Governor General, gave out a farewell message to the people of Canada. It was a simple direct expression of gratitude on behalf of

CAME DOWN NEAR LAND

Mrs. Hart and W. S. MacLaren Believed to Have Nearly Reached Azores

HORTA, Azores, Jan. 14:—It is believed that Mrs. Beryl Hart and William S. MacLaren, attempting a day-load flight across the Atlantic Ocean in the monoplane Trade Wind, met their fate very close to these islands.

From one of the islands of the group came word yesterday that fishermen had seen an object, very possibly a plane, descend onto the ocean a few miles from shore. The sea was, however, very rough and the plane would have no chance to ride out the waves.

Mrs. Hart, a widow and licensed pilot, and MacLaren, her co-pilot, have not been reported since leaving Bermuda last Saturday.

Viscountess Willingdon and himself for "the constant kindness, courtesy and friendship which has always been shown us by all with whom we have been privileged to come in contact from the highest to the lowest in the land."

His Excellency declared: "I leave you with the profound conviction that the basic condition of Canada is absolutely sound."

After making brief reference to the present depressed conditions, Viscount Willingdon expressed certainty that difficulties confronting the Canadian people will soon be overcome and that the Dominion will move forward to still greater developments.

Store Entering Seattle City

SEATTLE, Jan. 14:—J. C. Penny Co., one of the largest chain store organizations in the United States, is coming into Seattle, it was announced last night. The company has secured a long time lease on the building on Second Avenue which was formerly occupied by the Bon Marche and will establish here the largest of its 1500 stores which are scattered all over the country.

progress beyond Cloyah Bay. When the Galloway Rapids bridge is completed in spring, there will be a fine new drive available for motorists on the mainland.

Fifty relief workers are kept steadily on the road construction, each group being given periods of two weeks' work at a time. The group of fifty that is now on will go off on Friday of this week to be replaced by another group which will work until the end of the month. The men now live in a winter camp which has been established at Cloyah Bay.

FRAUD ACT IS UPHELD

Measure Passed at Last Session of Legislature is Valid, Mr. Justice W. A. Macdonald Finds

VANCOUVER, Jan. 14:—Validity of the Security Frauds Prevention Act passed by the British Columbia legislature at its last session was upheld by Mr. Justice W. A. Macdonald yesterday in dismissing an action by Solloway, Mills firms for an injunction to restrain the attorney-general of the province and his representative, Mark Cosgrove, Vancouver barrister from examining the books and witnesses under provisions of the Act.

The proposed examination affects the books of Solloway, Mills & Co. Ltd. and employees of that firm.

SEARCH IS HAMPERED

Pilot Ansel Eckmann Held Up For Two Days By Storm

After having not been heard from for two days, Pilot Ansel Eckmann, searching for further wreckage of Pilot Robin Renahan's missing plane, reported from Ketchikan to the provincial police here last night that he had been stormbound since last Monday and had tied up off Annette Island between the provincial police cruiser P. M. L. 8 and the United States coastguard cutter Cygan. He was unable to do any further searching during the two days and there are no new developments to report today in the quest.

A Seattle radio station this morning broadcast a scare story about Eckmann being missing. Some alarm was felt which, happily, was unfounded.

Mrs. Robin Renahan, wife of the missing aviator, all hope for whose safety is now given up, is still here awaiting transportation to Ketchikan so she may be closer to the scene of search operations.

Although the morning was not very propitious, it was hoped that Eckmann would be able to resume his search today. He arrived here at 11:40 this morning from Ketchikan to confer with Mrs. Renahan in regard to the continuation of the search. She returned north with him about an hour later. Eckmann will be back here this evening to spend the night.

Secretary of State Exercises Power to Have Probe Started

Over-Issuance of Stock and Mismanagement Alleged Against Consolidated Gold Corporation By Shareholders In Old Country

OTTAWA, Jan. 14:—Hon. C. H. Cahan, Secretary of State, yesterday appointed G. T. Clarkson of Toronto to investigate the affairs of the Yukon Consolidated Gold Corporation Ltd., a $6,000,000 company with vast mining interests in the Klondyke. Upon application of a large group of English shareholders, the Secretary of State invoked for the first time the power given him by statute passed in 1922 and appointed the investigator.

Application to the minister for an investigation claimed that too much stock had been issued and that a state of general mismanagement existed. The application named A. N. C. Treadgold, president of the company since 1925, in this connection.

It is understood that, after the report of the investigator has been received, it will be a matter for the courts to straighten out the company's affairs. The Secretary of State possesses no further power than to order a probe.

GOVERNOR SAYS ADIEU

Their Excellencies Wave Good-bye to Friends In Ottawa As Train Pulls Out

OTTAWA, Dec. 14:—From the rear platform of their special train while the notes of the National Anthem played by the band of the Governor General's Footguards crashed out in the frosty air, their Excellencies Viscount and Viscountess Willingdon waved farewell to the people of Ottawa at noon today.

His Excellency stood with hat off, an erect, white haired figure with a kindly smile on his face. By his side Viscountess Willingdon, her hands full of violets, smiled and waved to the crowd. Their Excellencies will sail from St. John, N.B., on Friday.

given him by statute passed in 1922 and appointed the investigator.

It is understood that, after the report of the investigator has been received, it will be a matter for the courts to straighten out the company's affairs. The Secretary of State possesses no further power than to order a probe.

Search Instituted In Stikine River District For Al Farrow and L. C. Davis

PETERSBURG, Alaska, Jan. 14:—A boat and party of four persons left here yesterday for the Stikine River district to search for Al Farrow and L. C. Davis last November to prepare for the trapping season and have not been heard of since. Trappers found their loose boat containing clothing and some provisions. The men failed to arrive at their destination.

Motorship Northland Beached In Johnstone Straits After Going On Reef Last Evening

VICTORIA, Jan. 14:—With a hole in her starboard bow as a result of crashing on a reef off Helmcken Island in Johnstone Straits, the Northland Navigation Co.'s motorship liner Northland, bound from Seattle to Ketchikan and other Alaska points with thirty-one passengers and a crew of thirty, was beached off Salmon River near Say-ward late last night. The Pacific Salvage Co.'s steamer Salvage King left here at midnight and was due alongside at noon today.

The Northland left Seattle Monday night. As soon as the vessel was shaken clear of the reef, Capt. Leonard Williams turned the ship and raced for a sloping beach off the mouth of the Salmon River, two miles distant, and drove her on the silt.

SEATTLE, Jan. 14:—Thirty-one passengers aboard the motorship Northland ashore near Salmon River Flats on the east side of Vancouver Island with a hole in her starboard bow, are in no danger, William Semar, manager of the Northland Transportation Company, said today. He explained that the vessel had been beached in mud and silt in protected waters.

"We decided the passengers would be more comfortable on the ship than ashore," Mr. Semar said. "We are sending gasboats for them and they will be taken to a hotel at Campbell River until their transportation to Alaska or back to Seattle can be arranged. The Salvage King will tow the vessel to Seattle for repairs."

The motorship Northland is well

Premier Tolmie Throws Light In Vancouver on Pacific Great Eastern Negotiations

A few days ago radio advices from New York said that American interests had turned down a proposition for the taking over of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway in this province. Little had been heard about negotiations to this effect but some light was thrown on the matter when Premier S. F. Tolmie, addressing a meeting in Vancouver recently, stated that groups in London and New York were bidding for the privilege of building the line into the Peace River and were ready to go to work if the government's conditions were right. Evidently, the negotiations, as far as New York at least was concerned, broke down.

DAILY EDITION  Wednesday, Jan. 14, 1931

PEACE RIVER RAILWAY

It is to be hoped and expected that Premier Bennett will bring before Parliament at the coming session a comprehensive measure providing for the building of the western outlet to the Peace River. This measure would tend more than any other imaginable to bring back prosperity to Canada and especially to the west. It is the most important immediate problem for the present government and one that affects Prince Rupert very materially.

Now that the price of wheat has dropped the huge Peace River area cannot develop without a railway that will ease the burden of railway rates. The farmers of that district are the primary consideration and the line that will help them most is the one that should be constructed.

In any event Prince Rupert stands to benefit from the work. Even should it be built to Vancouver, it must cross the railway of the line to Prince Rupert and this port would get an even break. However, we expect that the two railways will be great factors in determining what is to be done.

Because of the probability of the Peace railway being a subject for legislation, the next session of Parliament will be one of the most interesting to Prince Rupert that has ever been held.

A SOUTHERN OPINION

Here is the opinion of the editor of the Financial News of Vancouver:

"The time is drawing near when some pronouncement of the policy as to the development of the Peace River district should be forthcoming from Ottawa.

"In four separate quarters the subject of railway construction from Peace River to the Pacific Coast is vital: At Ottawa, the offices of the two railway companies, and Victoria.

"Ottawa must be interested for Peace River development has been lifted from the category of sectional subjects to one of national significance. Construction of a railway outlet to the Pacific Coast has been urged by no less an organization than the Canadian Chamber of Commerce. And the commencement of such a project would go far toward dissipating the clouds of depression in Western Canada and giving new hope for continued Western Canadian supremacy in the grain markets of the world. The present administration, when campaigning at the recent election, was understood to have committed itself to active support of the Peace River direct outlet plan.

"It will be realized in Canada that both railway companies are struggling with a problem of making their lines show reasonable returns in years of unusual traffic adversity. There will be no public disposition to ask the impossible of them or to prejudice their positions financially. It may be necessary for the Federal Government to relieve the railways of the immediate necessity of an expenditure on Peace River railway construction, out of ordinary railway funds. A long-term loan to a separate unit formed to own and operate a Peace River-to-the-Coast railway line might meet the requirements of the time. It would suppose that the two railways were acting jointly in provision of a line to the Pacific.

"Victoria is interested for only by extension of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway to be linked up with the Peace or with another line leading to the Peace area can that costly enterprise be made to serve its original purpose and be converted from a heavy burden to an active asset.

"Developments are being watched not only in the areas concerned but throughout Canada."

ARMY AT KISPIOX

Church Organization Completed Following Opening of New Hall

KISPIOX, Jan. 14.—On Sunday afternoon and evening last, Rev. T. H. Wright B.A., of Hazelton, who has charge of the Indian Mission at Kispiox, organized a United Church Army which is in reality a resurrection of the former Epworth League which had lapsed, and had been dead for some years.

At the afternoon service, four native babies were baptized in the church and a fifth baby was baptized in the home owing to illness. This was followed by a roll call of officers, who responded to their names. The president elected was Joshua Johnson with 17 other officers, captains, sergeants, secretaries and banner bearers.

Mr. Wright urged all to a spirit of loyalty and service in the church and community. All promised to do their best for the work of the church, and people amongst whom they were called to labor. At the conclusion of this service a procession was formed when all marched to the church hall where a service was held in the evening.

The hall was crowded at the evening service with old and young. Spirited addresses were given by eloquent native talent. Mr. Wright closed the service with an address and the benediction.

This organization coming at the time of the opening of a large new hall, speaks well for the natives of Kispiox. Only a week ago, with flags flying from a number of residences and in the light of the silvery moon, hundreds of Indians with the Kispiox Band assembled in front of the most modern public hall in Northern British Columbia waiting for the opening ceremonies.

Captain Mortimer, Indian Agent, called upon the Rev. T. H. Wright, minister of the Indian Church, to cut the silk ribbon in front of the hall when the door was unlocked by a key which was held with a blue and white silk ribbon.

A procession was formed led by the Indian Agent and the minister of the native church, followed by the chiefs from Kitwanga, Kitze-gucla, Hazelton, Babine, Kispiox, the band, and the Indians from the surrounding tribes.

"Ain-spey-yuk" was the name given the new hall by Capt. Mortimer. The name means "hiding place."

Kispiox was for many years the hiding place of fugitives from justice. The natives could hide in the mountains and caves and their hiding places could not be discovered by the officers of the law.

A brighter and better day has dawned on the natives. They are a credit to themselves. The seed sown by the early missionaries and teachers has resulted in a great harvest. Happier homes, more unity, greater comforts are the order of day. A number own their own cars, and do business in Hazelton and other places.

Cost $9,000

George Williams is the architect of the building which cost $9,000. The hall was artistically decorated with artificial floral designs which gave a very colorful appearance on the evening of the official opening.

Refreshments were served in abundance after which the leading officials of the various tribes gave addresses in which they congratulated the people of Kispiox on their great achievement.

Stephen Morrison and Silas Johnson acted as secretaries. One hundred and fifty dollars was subscribed towards the hall and the expenses of the evening.

The Kispiox Brass Band gave a number of musical selections during the evening.

The proceedings closed with the National Anthem.

IMPROVEMENT TAX

Editor, Daily News:— I note by the changed attitude of the retiring members of the city council that they have taken notice of the revivication of the Ratepayers' Association, and that body's objection to an improvement tax at this time. So far so good. But the voters should remember that these same retiring members may again change their minds.

I am of opinion that with due economy the necessary expenditures of our city can be met without resorting to an improvement tax for many years to come.

Thanking you for your valuable space.

Body of Youth Is Said Found

Rumor Received From Peace River Country Regarding Young Englishman

Edmonton dispatches to Vancouver papers tell of a rumor in the Peace River district that the body of John Patch Bennett, youthful English adventurer, has been found. The youth, the son of wealthy and distinguished English parents, was attempting to hike out overland from Pouce Coupe to the coast. He was last seen at Finlay Forks carrying a rifle and light pack. Since then he had not been seen and it was feared he may have been trapped in the heavy snows in the mountains and perished.

DEPARTMENT OF TRADE AND COMMERCE
OTTAWA, CANADA

December 27th, 1930.

To My Fellow Citizens,
Everywhere in Canada.

Ring Out the Old, Ring in the New!

Another few days and 1930, with whatever it has brought us of success or of failure, will have passed into history, and our thoughts will be centred on a new year, and on the better times we sincerely hope it has in store for us.

While the opportunities of the past are gone beyond recall, the future is ours to make of it what we will. And we can make it a far brighter, a far more prosperous future, for ourselves individually and for Canada as a whole, if we all resolve to profit by the lessons our experience has taught us.

Among those lessons, surely we have learned how dependent each of us is for his own opportunities and his own advancement upon the well-being of Canadian producers as a class, and how much better it would be for every one of us if in our daily buying we were all to favour Canadian products.

If you believe that "Produced-in-Canada" doctrine is sound common sense, that it points the logical way not only to relieve unemployment but to lay broader and deeper the foundations of our national prosperity, why not make the practice of it one of your foremost resolutions for 1931?

Celebrate the new year by ringing out old habits of carelessness in buying, and ringing in the new resolve henceforth to be studiously careful. For 1931 let this be your creed:

"I believe in Canada.

"I love her as my home. I honour her institutions. I rejoice in the abundance of her resources.

"I glory in the record of her achievements. I have unbounded confidence in the ability of her people to excel in whatsoever they undertake. I cherish exalted ideals of her destiny as a leader among world nations.

"To her I pledge my loyalty. To the promotion of her best interests I pledge my support. To her products I pledge my patronage. And to the cause of her producers I pledge my devotion."

If you are willing to embrace this creed, a copy of same artistically executed in colours, and on heavy stock suitable for use as a wall hanger or for framing, is yours for the asking. Just clip and fill in the coupon herewith. Address your envelope as shown on the coupon. Mail it without affixing stamp, for this particular letter will be carried free.

Very sincerely yours,

FARMER'S WIFE GETS STRENGTH

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Wilton, Ont.—"I am taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound through the Change of Life. It helps me and I cannot praise it too highly. I was troubled with heat flashes and my limbs were heavy so I could hardly walk to do my farm work. I saw in the newspapers your ad about the Vegetable Compound and thought to give it a trial. The first bottle gave me relief and I have told others what it does for me. I am willing for you to use my letter if you choose."—MRS. D. B. PETERS, Wilton, Ontario. Ask Your Neighbor

CHALLENGE TO DEMPSEY

Jack Sharkey, Finding No One Else to Fight, Would Take Former Champ on Within Six Weeks

BOSTON, Jan. 14.—Completely excluded from arrangements which have been made involving Max Schmeling, the champion, Young Stribling and Primo Camera in bouts during the coming season for the heavyweight crown, Jack Sharkey, recognized by the New York Boxing Commission as the outstanding contender for the championship, finding himself with nobody to fight, yesterday issued a challenge by telegram to Jack Dempsey, former world's champion to meet him within six weeks in a bout for the benefit of the unemployed and disabled war veterans.

In view of the fact that the Manassa Mauler is reported to have made the crack that he could knock out Sharkey if he had the chance, the latter felt that he (Dempsey) should accept the challenge and thus avail himself of the opportunity. Sharkey thought it would be a good chance for Dempsey to make good on his assertion that he regretted he had not served in the war thus helping the men who suffered in that way. Sharkey himself was in service for four years and during the Great War.

It is two years since Dempsey has appeared in the ring and there is considered to be little likelihood of his accepting Sharkey's challenge. Sharkey's proposal that the fight should take place within six weeks is considered by most boxing observers to be rather unfair, to say the least of it, to Dempsey.

DO YOU TAKE AN INTEREST IN THE FASHIONS OF 1931?

WITH which we make bold to remind The Men there are fashions in radios, razors, automobiles and fountain pens as well as wearing apparel.

Most women appreciate the authenticity of the fashion news—in regard to silhouettes, coming frills, passing fancies, and the colorful details of the mode—to be found daily in the advertisements. . . . Fashions these days are not confined to clothes. Automobiles, interior decorations, table service, vacations, even breakfasts are more satisfying, if, to use the word of the thirties, they are SMART.

Advertisements are continually chronicling the fashions that are smartest. Advertisements keep you informed of the mode in merchandise of all kinds. Advertisements are full of information about the new ideas that make Canadian life what it is today.

If you are interested in better living, you are bound to find the advertisements worth while!

Squadron Leader MacLeod Marries

Miss Flora MacKechnie Becomes Bride of Well Known Air Force Flyer at Toronto

At a quiet wedding solemnized in the Metropolitan Church in Toronto on December 29, Flora, eldest daughter of Mrs. L. N. MacKechnie and the late Dr. Lachlan Neil MacKechnie of Vancouver, was united in marriage to Squadron Leader Earl Leslie MacLeod, son of Mr. John A. MacLeod of Chilliwack, Dr. W. G. Sedgewick officiating.

Both bride and groom are well known to a large circle of friends on this coast. The former is a graduate of the University of British Columbia, where she took the nursing course, and a member of Delta Gamma Fraternity.

The groom is particularly well known among flying circles here, as he was formerly in command of the station at Jericho Beach and often visited Prince Rupert on fishery patrol work.

Vancouver Is After Outlet

Mayor Louis D. Taylor of Vancouver, in his inaugural address a few days ago, announced that one of his chief efforts during the coming year would be toward having a Pacific Coast outlet provided for the Peace River country. Mayor Taylor proposes to give active and generous civic assistance to such a drive.

DR. MANDY IN DEMAND

Stewart Wants Him If Mining District Is Split Up

One of the nice things arising among mining men this last month was the graceful tribute paid to Dr. Mandy, resident government engineer, for District No. 1. The prospectors of Stewart are requesting that their huge district be divided, as it is too much for one engineer to cover in the ordinary course of his duties. If and when divided, however, the Stewart people wish to retain Dr. Mandy in their portion. This simple request speaks louder than columns of eulogies would, in showing how the people of Stewart appreciate Dr. Mandy and the work he has accomplished among them.—Mining and Industrial Record.

CHILD BIRTH DEATHS HIGH

Efforts Being Made In England to Improve Situation

MANCHESTER, Jan. 13.—The circular letter which is being sent out by the ministry of health to the local authorities on the subject of maternal mortality marks the latest and most promising attempt to reduce the disturbing number of deaths in childbirth, says the Manchester Guardian. There are 2,000 births daily in this country, and eight of the mothers die every day in childbed, or 3,000 every year.

No wonder Bernard Shaw should have made one of his characters say that it requires more heroism to be a mother than to engage in battle, or the minister of health should imply today that the miners' occupation, dangerous as it is, is infinitely less risky by comparison.

The departmental committee on maternal mortality came to the conclusion that 48% of the deaths in childbirth are preventable, but a good deal of expert opinion inclines to the view that the percentage of preventable death is considerably higher than that. As the ministry of health are pointing out, there is enormously more data to proceed upon today, and the present action of the ministry is prompted largely by the knowledge acquired from the analysis of 2,000 fatal cases. The new knowledge has convinced the ministry that the deaths can be halved if only the local authorities, using their existing powers, will develop services for ante-natal supervision for mothers. It is the lack of this supervision for many women which is the main contributory cause of the present high deathrate.

Young Tony, a Venetian, is without doubt the happiest youngster of his immediate community. Tony's garments are a bit patched, we admit, but what's a patch more or less among congenial friends. Take a good look at Tony without smiling yourself—if you can.

Changes In Old Country Customs Are Observed

VANCOUVER, Jan. 13.—A Vancouver lady, recently returned from a long stay in England writes in the local press some of her observations.

The "head of the house" no longer exists in the Old Country. Many of us remember that all play ceased as soon as father came in. "Run and get father's slippers." "Has anyone seen father's glasses?" "Now run off to bed and let father have peace." Fortunately, the mother did not realize that her lot was hard. Lord Dewar had the right idea of marriage when he wittily described it as a committee of two with power to add to their number. The family committee idea is growing.

The women's institutes have done a wonderful work, thanks first to Mrs. Watt, O.B.E. of British Columbia. I suppose the three greatest blessings of the age to the rural dwellers have been the wireless, the bus services connecting them up with the smaller towns and the women's institutes. Townswomen's guilds are, perhaps, the most recent successful innovation, and are organized all over England in towns with a population of 4000 and over. Their program embraces the home crafts of the institute work and the citizenship (local and parliamentary) of the women citizens of the larger communities. These have proved very successful and have now started in Scotland.

Deceased, who had been a resident of Langley for the past 26 years, is survived by her husband and one son and three daughters. ## MAN CAN'T SLEEP GETS NERVOUS, HATES PEOPLE

"I could not sleep and got so nervous I hated everybody. Since taking Vinol, I can sleep 10 hours and feel full of pep all day."—Julius Bender.

For 30 years doctors have prescribed Vinol because it contains important mineral elements of iron, calcium and cod liver peptone. The very FIRST bottle brings sound sleep and a BIG appetite. Nervous, wornout people are surprised how QUICK Vinol gives new life and pep! Tastes delicious.—Ormes Ltd., Drugs.

Premier Mine Cuts Dividend

Silver Situation Largely Responsible For Company's Action

As was foreshadowed three months ago by the directorate, the announcement of a further reduction in the dividend rate on the share capital of Premier Gold Mining Co. has taken no one by surprise, says the Mining and Engineering Record. Three cents a share is payable in January 3, 1931, which is half the rate maintained since July, 1928, while before that time the rate was eight cents quarterly.

The increasing proportion of silver being produced by this company and its subsidiaries is the one factor responsible and an improvement in the market price for the metal will be of material importance to the fortunes of Premier.

In addition to the Premier mine itself, the company has other interests, and in bringing the Prosperity mine into production, Premier acquires additional revenue. While Prosperity can make money at present silver prices, it would not be surprising to hear of the further activity of the Premier company in other directions.

A Daily News want-ad will bring results.

Louis Wolheim Was Here Last Summer

Louis Wolheim, noted screen star, who plays the part of "Kat," grizzled old warrior in "All Quiet on the Western Front," remarkable German version of the Great War which is now being shown at the Capitol Theatre, was a visitor in Prince Rupert last summer. He spent a day here on his way back to Los Angeles from Ketchikan where, with Evelyn Brent and party, he had been on location in the production of a Rex Beach picture. Local people who saw Wolheim in the person will be particularly interested to see him again on the screen. It is the first picture in which he has been seen here since he visited Prince Rupert.

SMELTER SHIPMENTS

Two scowloads of 90 tons each have been recently sent from the Surf Inlet mine on Porcher Island, a few miles from Prince Rupert, to the smelter at Anyox. This interesting property is owned by Noah Timmins and J. B. Woodworth and a considerable amount of development work has been accomplished, including the building of a dock and a mile and a half of light railway.

Good gold values have been found in auriferous pyrite and there are possibilities of a good tonnage being developed.
