Daring Girl Aviator Leaves London Suddenly For Trip To China Over Snowclad Eurasia

Astonishment Is Aroused In Britain By Departure—Is Considered Very Perilous Undertaking—Conflicting Reports As to Phases of Hop

LONDON, Jan. 2.—General astonishment has been aroused in Britain by the departure of Miss Amy Johnson on a long flight across snow-covered Northern Eurasia to Peiping, China. Leaving Hendon airdrome yesterday forenoon, Miss Johnson stopped at Lympe momentarily and proceeded to Liege, Belgium, for the night. She will proceed to Moscow where, after equipping her plane with skis, she will fly across Siberia and Mongolia to Peiping.

Death of Aged French Marshal Imminent As He Lapses Between Consciousness and Coma

PARIS, Jan. 2.—The death of Marshal Joffre, noted French general hero of the Marne and "Papa of the Army," is imminent. The 79-year old general is sinking rapidly and may not last another day. Infection which necessitated the amputation of a leg 10 days ago is gradually creeping upward. Joffre is losing his last battle, the one for life.

When the marshal sank into a four-hour coma yesterday, his secretary rushed from the chamber and announced that he was dead. The report was later denied by physicians attending the general. They admitted, however, that it would only be a matter of hours before he passed. The great soldier lapses between consciousness and long periods of unconsciousness in which he seldom moves.

With Joffre's death expected momentarily, France has already virtually started to mourn the loss of a great son.

Seven Persons Killed In One Week In Vancouver Traffic; Three Dead Over New Year

VANCOUVER, Jan. 2.—The toll of traffic fatalities in Vancouver during the past week mounted to seven on New Year's Day as a result of three accidents on New Year's Eve. Five year old Thomas Knipstrom was almost instantly killed early Wednesday night when he was struck as he attempted to cross a street. Richard A. Small and Stanley, aged two months, who were victims of accidents in widely separated parts of the city on Wednesday night, died in hospital on Thursday. Small was the victim of a hit-and-run driver who has not yet been apprehended.

Indian Gassed And Succumbs

Released From City Jail, Jack Campbell Was Dead When He Reached Port Simpson

Jack Campbell, 33-year old Port Simpson Indian, was released from the city jail on New Year's Eve at 5:30 after having served a term there for drunkenness. He left here at 8:30 that evening with a party of Indians for Port Simpson on a gas-boat. On arrival at Port Simpson, Campbell was found to be dead from carbon monoxide poisoning or gas from the engine.

Coroner C. L. Monroe visited Port Simpson yesterday and satisfied himself that the circumstances of Campbell's death had been accidental.

In addition to general fears for her safety in view of extreme hazards, her friends were represented as feeling considerable anxiety on account of her health which is said to be in no state for a test of such a sort.

Phases of the flight were the basis of conflicting reports in some of the London newspapers.

On Wednesday Miss Johnson was charged in a London police court with having left an automobile unattended in the street but she obtained dismissal of the charge by revealing a mysterious employment in the government service.

While the Daily Mail said that Amy's parents had been kept in ignorance of her intention to make the flight to China, the Daily Express quoted her mother as saying: "We approve of the flight because we must. After what she has gone through this adventure will be a relief and soothing influence for her. She has shown restlessness at home for months."

COLOGNE, Germany, Jan. 2.—Amy Johnson arrived here this afternoon from Liege. She plans to fly to Berlin tomorrow and thence to Moscow.

Midnight Matinee

Large Crowd Gathered at Capitol Theatre On Wednesday Night to See Old Year Out

In spite of other attractions, the midnight matinee at the Capitol Theatre on New Year's Eve drew a large crowd. The show began at 11:30 p.m. Harold Lloyd's great comedy, "Feet First," one of the funniest and at the same time ambitious pictures that has been seen for a long time, proved a mirthful delight to all. An enjoyable program of vaudeville including dancing numbers by Miss Nan Craig's pupils, specialty dancing by Mark Lee and step dancing by Sam Joy.

ECKMANN PREPARING TO LEAVE SEATTLE ON RENAHAN SEARCH
SEATTLE, Jan. 2.—It may be a few days before Pilot Ansel Eckmann is able to leave for the north to resume the search for his fellow pilot, Robin Renahan of the Alaska-Washington Airways, who has been missing since October 28 and for whose safety hope has been revived. Eckmann's Lockheed-Vega monoplane is being given a thorough check-up before he leaves. At the request of the British Columbia government, Eckmann's plane is to be fitted with radio.

WILL GO TO WORK

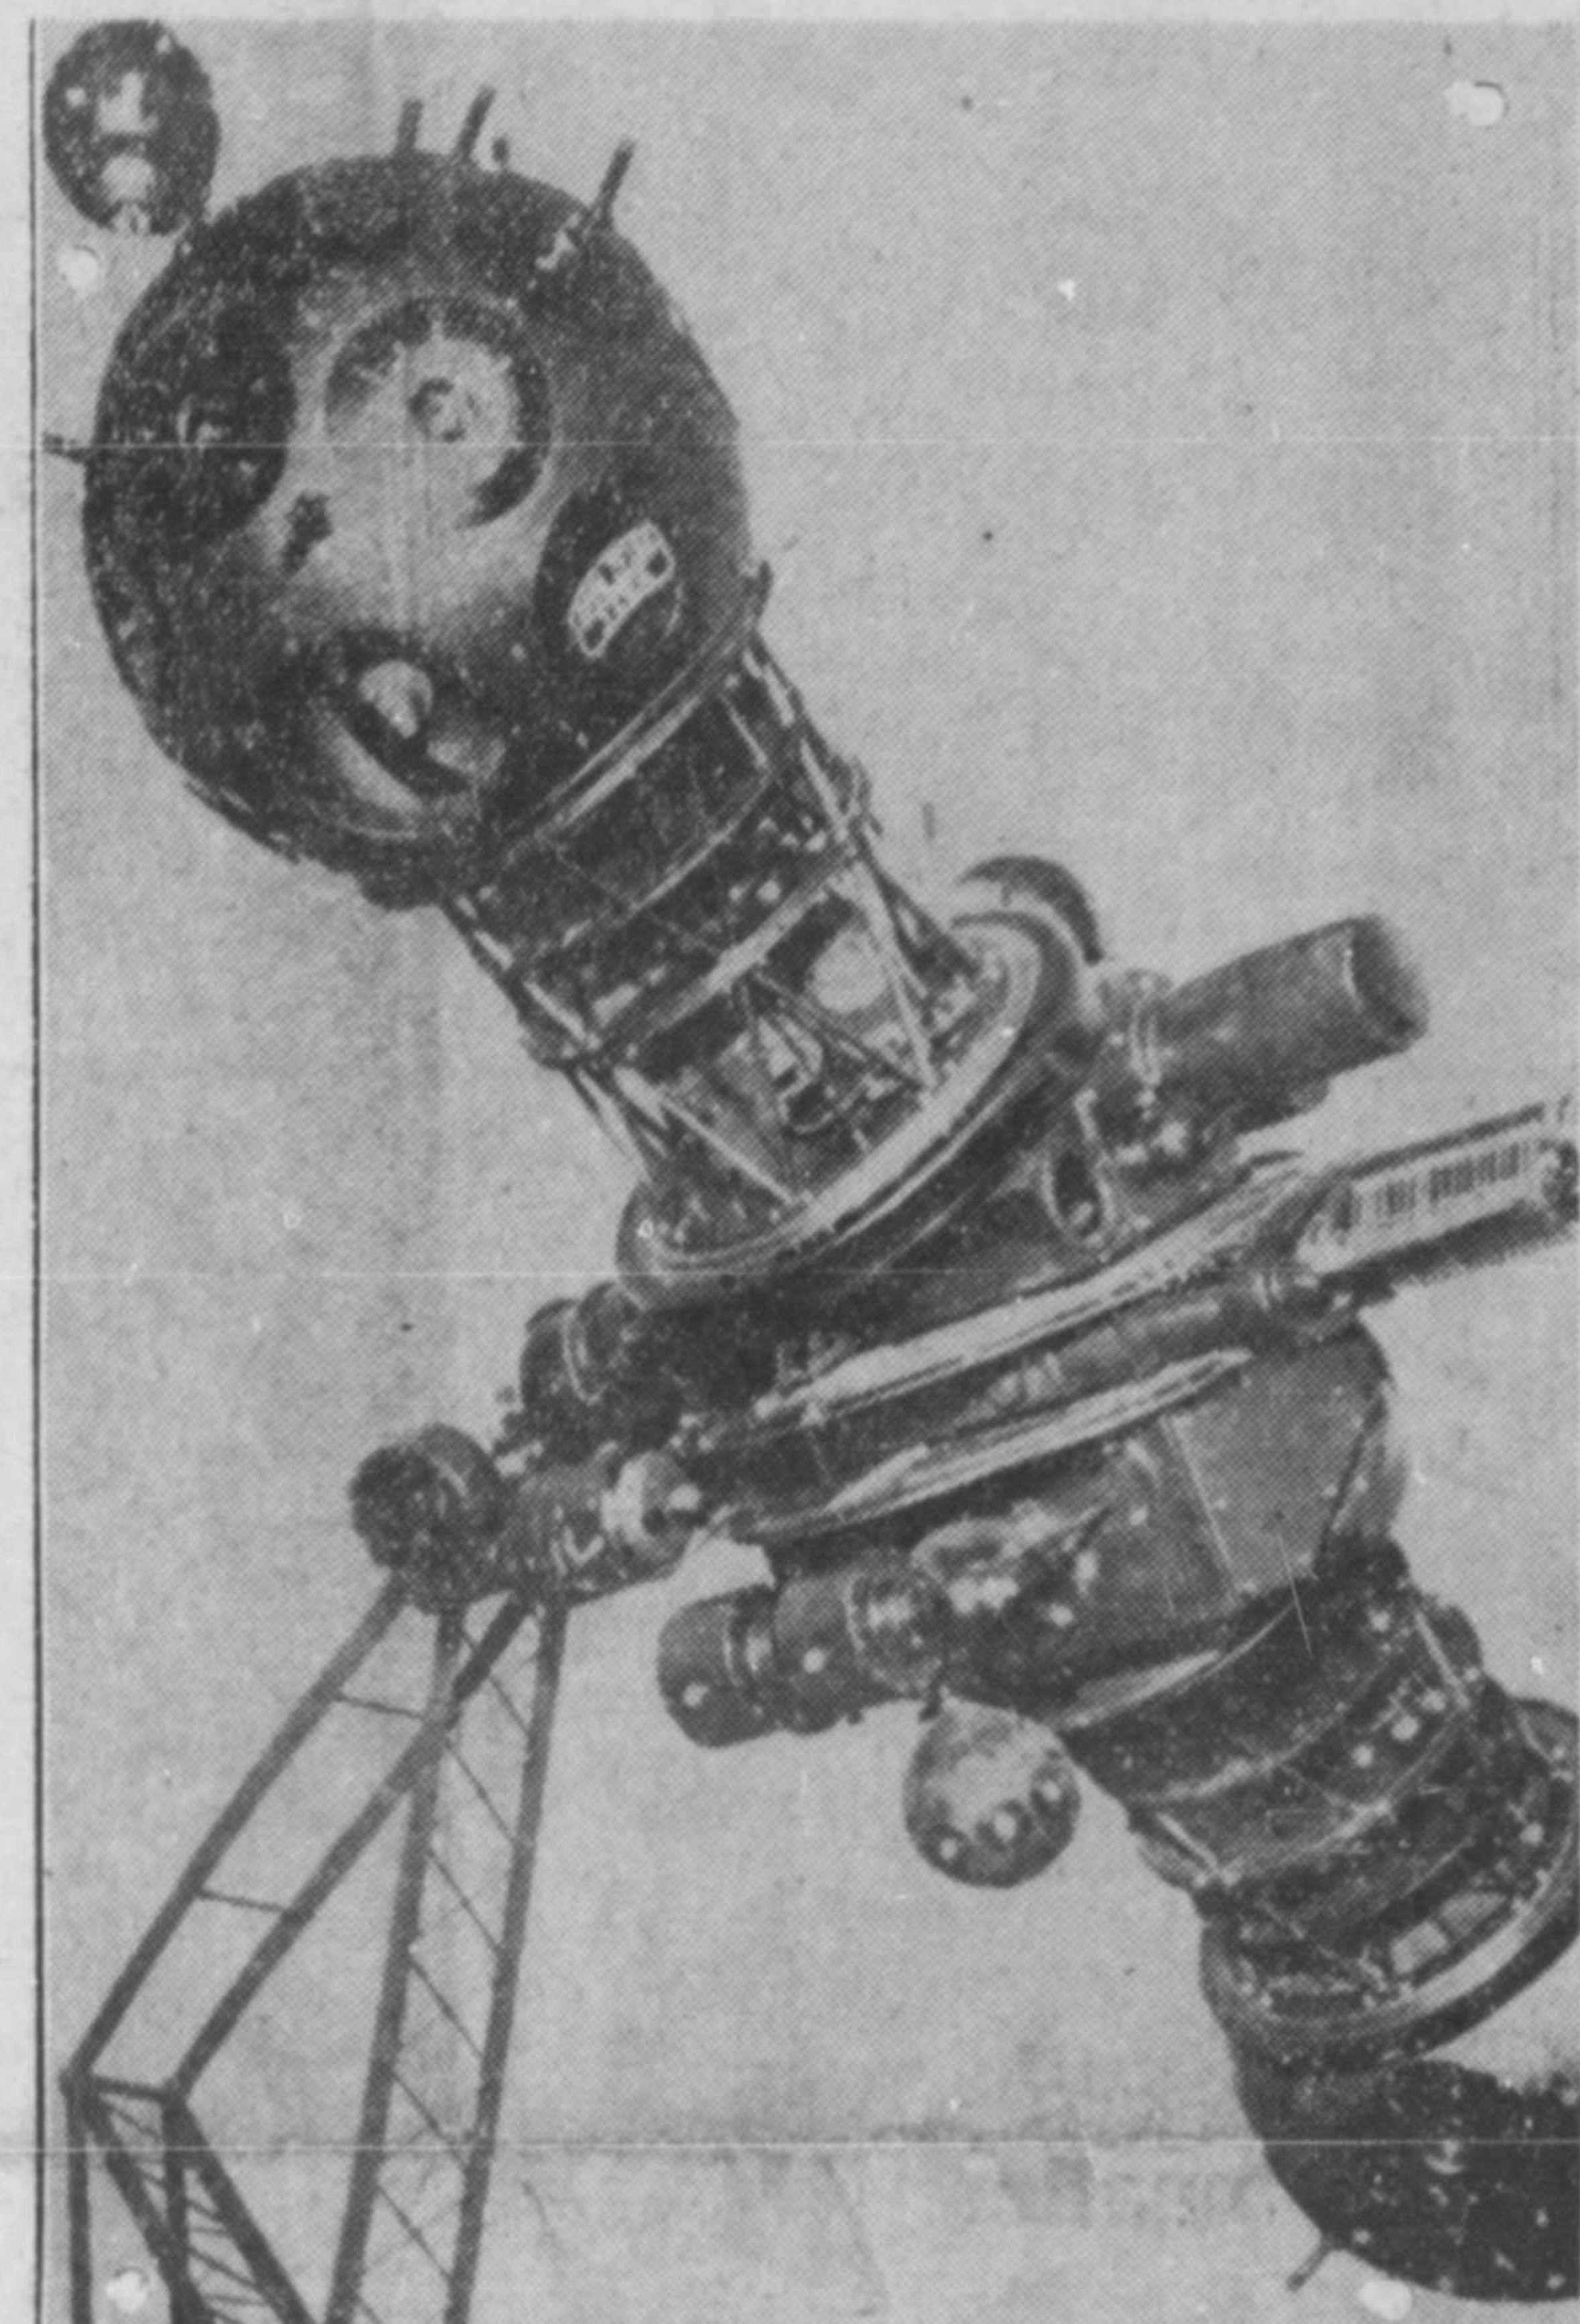

Settlement of Welsh Coal Strike Is Expected

LONDON, Jan. 2.—Optimistic expectations prevailed here today that differences between the miners and mine operators in South Wales would be ironed out tomorrow with a meeting of the conciliation board. At least temporary arrangements which would permit of something less than 150,000 men returning to work were looked for. These men walked out in protest at the reduction in their working hours and the lessening of their wages. At the same time, neither the miners nor the mine operators have shown the slightest sign of weakening. Quiet continues everywhere.

Sir Henry Thornton Is Full of Confidence Last Night In Dominion-Wide Radio Address

MONTREAL, Jan. 2.—Speaking to thousands of officers and employees in all parts of Canada and to a vast audience of the general public in five zones by means of a transcontinental radio hook-up, last night, Sir Henry W. Thornton, chairman and president of the Canadian National Railways, brought a New Year's greeting that was full of confidence for the coming year.

The world, he said, was passing through one of the inevitable periods of depression which it suffered from time to time but he declared that, difficult as the present situation was, it was vastly better than that of 1920, 1921 and 1922. "Are we downhearted?" he asked. "Certainly not, we are not downhearted with respect to anything. The troubles of today become the jokes of tomorrow. That is the indomitable Canadian National spirit and 'failure' is not found in our dictionary."

The occasion of Sir Henry's address was the program celebrating the seventh anniversary of Canadian National Railways broadcasting. It originated at CNRM, Montreal, and was carried by means of 16 national and associated stations across the Dominion from Halifax to Vancouver. W. Robb, vice-president, under whose jurisdiction radio comes, delivered a short address in French. The musical part of the broadcast consisted of solos by Joan Elwes, popular English soprano, and Henri Pontbriand, tenor, and instrumental numbers by an orchestra under the leadership of J. J. Gagnier.

The Canadian National Railway system, Sir Henry Thornton said, was in length of corporate life still an infant, which would not attain its completion for several decades. "Those who turn its wheels and give

Missing Plane Might Be Stranded in Snow Of Interior Country

Harry Blunt of Pacific International Airways Here On Way South—Machine Passed Over Dominion Telegraph Line On October 29

That there is still a good chance of Pilot Robin Renahan and his two companions, Frank Hatcher and Sam Clerf, who became missing on October 28 last while flying to Atlin to engage in the search for the party of the late Capt. E. J. A. Burke, still being alive, is believed by Harry Blunt, pilot of the Pacific International Airways, who passed through Prince Rupert yesterday afternoon aboard the steamer Princess Norah en route to Vancouver and thence to Frisco. Blunt believes it to be quite possible that Renahan may have strayed up Portland Canal in the dusk on the evening of October 23 and, landing that evening, continued the next day with the idea of flying overland to Atlin. It is pointed out that Renahan, having loaded up at Butedale, would have had five or six hours gas supply with which he might have attempted to reach Atlin, possibly being forced down somewhere on the way. Had he come down around the headwaters of the Naas River, or further north, the party would probably have been unable to mush out owing to the deep and soft snow of an unusually mild winter. The missing plane was well provisioned and armed and, barring injury or sickness, its occupants might well be still safe.

Blunt bases his belief that the party may still be safe on reports that a plane was seen on October 29, the day after Renahan became missing, flying northward over the Yukon telegraph line. Blunt learned in the north that the Government Telegraphs lineman at Sixth Cabin, 180 miles north of Hazelton and 120 miles south of Telegraph Creek, saw a plane circle twice over his cabin as if assaying a landing and then continued north. This was on the afternoon of October 29. About the same time two Indian trappers are reported to have seen a plane flying north in the same country. There could have been no other plane there than Renahan's. Immediately on arrival in the south, Blunt will go into conference with Ansel Eckmann, chief pilot of the Alaska-Washington Airways, who is to start a new search from the air for Renahan.

Blunt reported, in conversation with a Daily News representative, that the body of the late Capt. E. J. A. Burke was taken last Saturday

In an address before the Rotary Club Wednesday, Mayor C. H. Orme stated that the total value of the assessable land in Prince Rupert last year was $3,027,383 and for this year it would be $2,742,580, a reduction in the assessment of $284,803. This is roughly a ten per cent reduction made by the new assessor this year.

Mrs. Renahan Asks London To Help Her

Her request for co-operation in the resumption of the search for her missing flyer husband having been denied by the federal government, Mrs. Robin Renahan of Vancouver has now cabled the air department of the British government for assistance.

With the provincial government having signified its willingness of co-operating in resumption of the search, it is expected that the quest will soon be actively under way.

DOES NOT WANT WAR

ROME, Jan. 2.—"Italy will never take the initiative in starting a war," declared Premier Benito Mussolini in a New Year message to the United States which was broadcast over the air throughout the North American continent yesterday. Neither he or his people wanted war, Il Duce declared. Referring to his own experiences in the trenches in the Great War, Mussolini asked who could wish for a repetition of such horrors as those between 1914 and 1918?

Mussolini referred to the continued loyalty of Italians to the Fascist cause.

to it industrial life and spirit can only see to it that the foundations in our day are well and truly laid. "Eight years ago," he went on, "our first and urgent problem was to create a homogeneous railway system out of a number of unrelated properties. This demanded co-ordination, the provision of modern appliances and facilities and, what was more important, the establishment of an efficient organization of enthusiastic officers and men to the end that the transportation responsibilities of the enterprise might be effectively performed and a way opened to increased earning capacity."

"It must be remembered that until the year 1922 the Canadian National Railways system as a whole never earned its operating expenses and even in that year barely broke even by a small amount. It will be interesting to observe that in the year 1920 the deficit, after interest due to the public was paid, amounted to sixty and a half million dollars; in 1921, it was nearly fifty-three million dollars, and in 1922, thirty-three millions, figures which, in subsequent years, are happily not encountered."

The railway president referred to the ill-equipment of the railway in the early days for economical operation, the lack of homogeneity and pride of undertaking. Today, however, the Canadian National Railways represented a "reasonably modern effective transportation machine." "It is in a position," he said, "to serve the country satisfactorily in the movement of freight and passengers, comparing favorably with the best railways in the world, contributing its share to National development, and in many technical achievements leading the way in the art of transport. "Happily," said Sir Henry, "our major and more important expenditures in capital account are fairly well behind us. Our task is now the display of prudence and judgment, together with the continued consolidation of our position in the effective and economical employment of the machinery we now possess. I feel sure that the skill, industry, pride and enthusiasm of all the people which have led us thus far on our way may be relied upon for the effective accomplishment of that immediate objective."

In conclusion, Sir Henry wished the invisible audience a happy and prosperous New Year on behalf of the administration and staff of the system and added a warm personal greeting. He thanked the public of Canada for confidence and good will and said: "By prudence, industry and enthusiasm we shall endeavor to earn during the oncoming year, a continuance of the amiable relations which have existed between the people's railway and its proprietors." Mr. Robb brought a special greeting to the French speaking citizens of Canada. In discussing present conditions, he said: "In this difficult period Canada is suffering less than probably any other country," and declared that the difficulties were but a challenge to the best in individuals and nations. He congratulated the French speaking citizens on their example of thrift, industry and cheerfulness. Thrift, he thought, would help the world, suffering from a top-heavy financial structure, more quickly than anything else.

MAYOR IS SPEAKER

City in Good Shape Financially—Some Interesting Facts Revealed in Address

While a great many lots have reverted to the city for non-payment of taxes, these constitute only 12.7 of the total assessed value of them all. This statement was made by Mayor Orme Wednesday afternoon at the Rotary Club luncheon when he gave a short talk on civic matters. He spoke optimistically of the financial condition of the city and remarked that, with careful administration, everything should carry on without difficulty. In speaking of the work of the past year, Mayor Orme referred to the spirit of co-operation that had been in evidence throughout the year among the members of the council. Work had been carried out conscientiously and he believed in the interests of the city. The chief idea had been to carry on as economically as possible. In connection with the unemployment work which had come under some criticism, Mayor Orme said the city council had been disappointed in the amount of help they had received, but the work was being done as economically as possible and he believed the city was getting 100 per cent. for every dollar expended. "In conclusion," he said, "I concur with Mr. Rorie in believing that the city is in sound financial condition and there is no reason why the old ship should not be kept on the same even keel," declared the mayor. He then quoted some figures to show the financial condition. The total assessment for the year 1930 was $3,027,383 and for this year it had had been dropped to $2,742,580, a reduction of $284,803. The reversion of the Duthie property had meant $93,000 and in other parts of the city there were reverted lots amounting to $87,000. While the total number of reverted lots was 11,600, the value of these was not large. At the conclusion Mayor Orme was thanked by Chairman Geo. Munro for his interesting and informative address.

DANCE WAS SUCCESSFUL

One of the most successful of the New Year's Eve events in Prince Rupert was the dance staged in their hall by the Moose Lodge. At times during the evening, there were upwards of four hundred persons in attendance. The affair started at 10 p.m. and did not conclude until 4 a.m. Splendid music was furnished by the Premier Orchestra.

Refreshments took the form of hot dogs and coffee and the stall where these were served did a rushing business, being at times almost unable to cope with the demands. Gillis Royer was master of ceremonies and J. M. Morrison and Ted Rorvik presided at the door. Others who took part in connection with the staging of the dance were B. J. Bacon, W. Logan, Joe Ratchford, P. O. Peterson, Pete Thompson, N. S. K. Brewer, Richard Long, Fred Scadden, Pete Peterson, Charlie Lemon and W. B. McCallum.

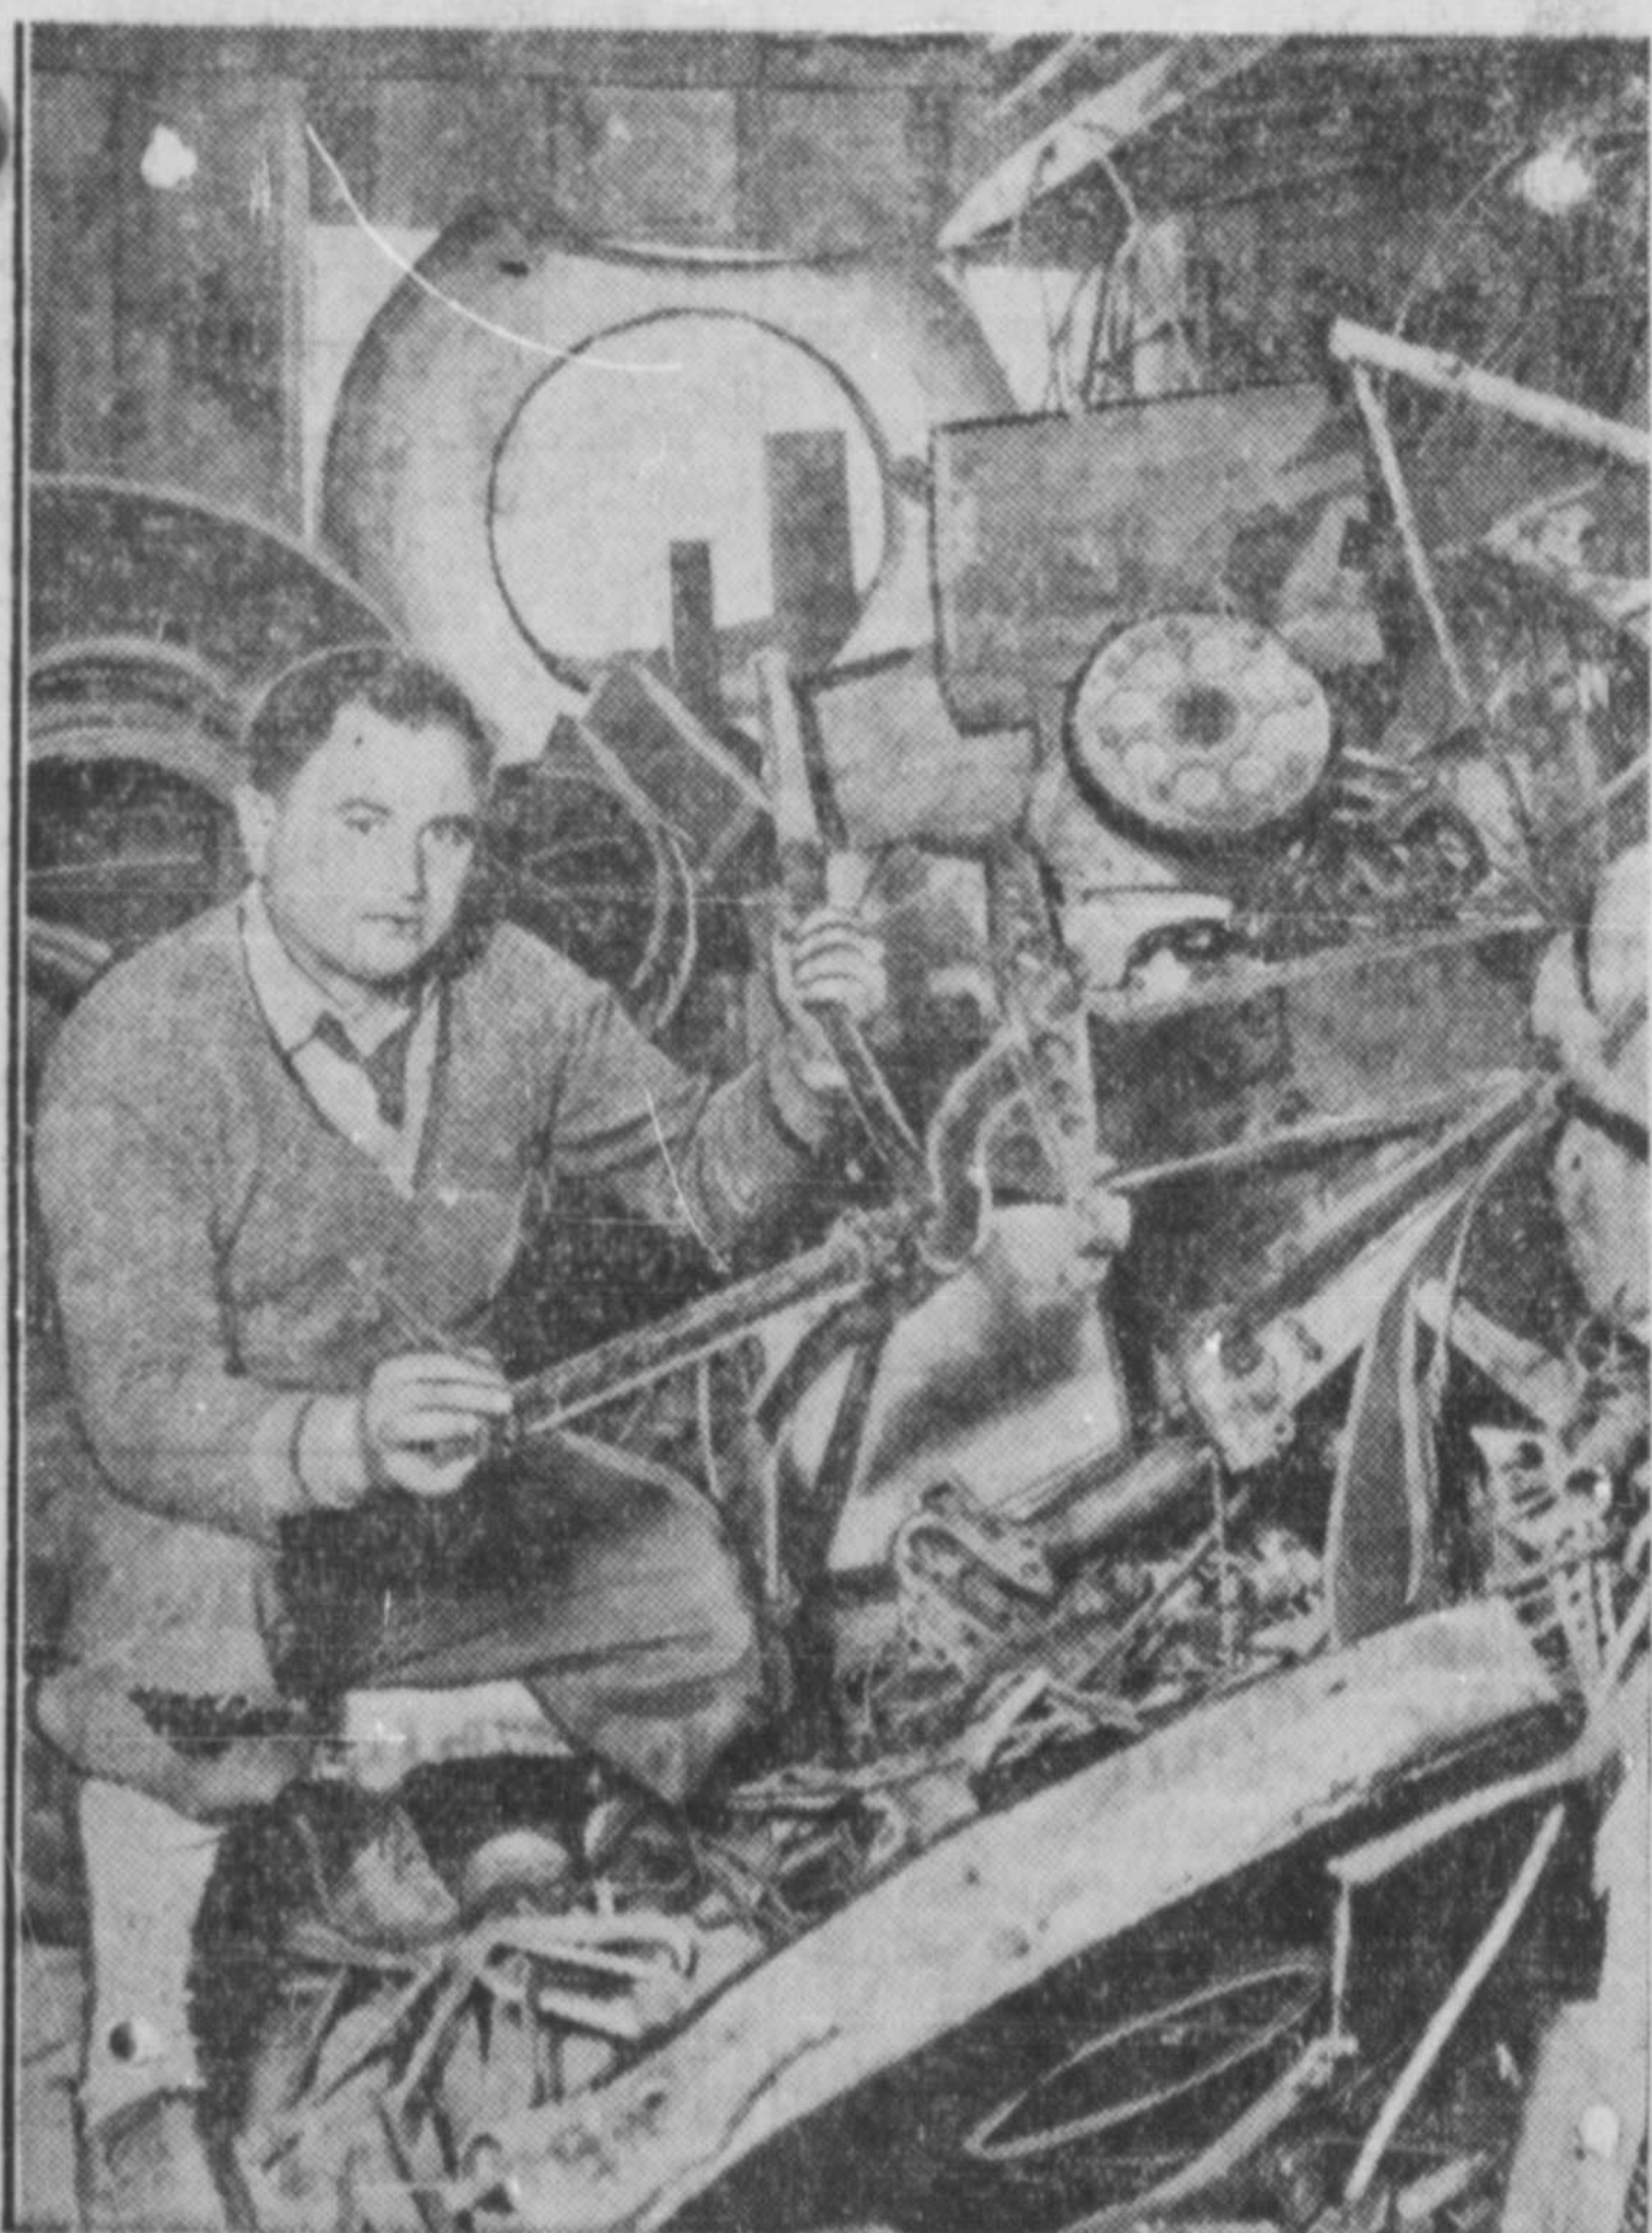

SCOTCH DANCE BIG SUCCESS

Advent of New Year Celebrated in Right Good Style

About one hundred and fifty ladies and gentlemen gathered in the I. O. E. Hall on Wednesday evening to "trip the light fantastic toe" during the remaining hours of the Old Year and to welcome the New Year in right good style. Scotch and Canadian dances were taken part in with great gusto. Jas. Hadden and Dave Ritchie acting as masters of ceremonies. The Scotch orchestra consisted of J. Lee, J. Bremner, J. Mackay and J. Watt, provided excellent Scotch dance music while the young lads, Messrs. Colussi, Bussanich brothers and W. Murray, played snappy music for Canadian dances and earned for themselves well merited praise. Delicious refreshments were served at 11:30 p.m. after which the Old Year was piped out and 1931 welcomed by stirring bagpipe strains, with Piper Gunn in full regalia and Drummer Kelly leading a grand march. All joined heartily in the fine New Year's song, "A Guid New Year," after which dancing was resumed till 2:30 a.m. Happy folk danced with right good will. Practically all remained to join in the closing "Auld Lang Syne" followed by cheers of thanks to the orchestra. All agreed the Hogmanay Dance was a great social as well as financial success. Those in charge were Mr. and Mrs. J. Watt (convener of committee) Mr. and Mrs. D. Ritchie, Mr. and Mrs. R. Murray and Mr. and Mrs. J. Hadden (secretary-treasurer). Funds are to be devoted to relief purposes.

World's Wheat Champion Given World Tour

WINNER of the world's wheat championship at Chicago's International Livestock Fair for the second time Herman Trelle, Wembley, Pease River District, has been singularly honored by E. W. Beatty, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, at whose invitation he will make a trip around the world. Trelle, though elated at his outstanding success, attained with hard red spring, was even more pleased with the third he was awarded for hard red winter, which, he maintains, demonstrates the feasibility of raising it in Western Canada and also that he has moved the winter wheat line just 700 miles further north. Insert shows Mr. Trelle and Mr. Beatty.

DEPARTMENT OF TRADE AND COMMERCE
OTTAWA, CANADA

December 27th, 1930.

To My Fellow Citizens,
Everywhere in Canada.

Ring Out the Old, Ring in the New!

Another few days and 1930, with whatever it has brought us of success or of failure, will have passed into history, and our thoughts will be centred on a new year, and on the better times we sincerely hope it has in store for us.

While the opportunities of the past are gone beyond recall, the future is ours to make of it what we will. And we can make it a far brighter, a far more prosperous future, for ourselves individually and for Canada as a whole, if we all resolve to profit by the lessons our experience has taught us.

Among those lessons, surely we have learned how dependent each of us is for his own opportunities and his own advancement upon the well-being of Canadian producers as a class, and how much better it would be for every one of us if in our daily buying we were all to favour Canadian products.

If you believe that "Produced-in-Canada" doctrine is sound common sense, that it points the logical way not only to relieve unemployment but to lay broader and deeper the foundations of our national prosperity, why not make the practice of it one of your foremost resolutions for 1931?

Celebrate the new year by ringing out old habits of carelessness in buying, and ringing in the new resolve henceforth to be studiously careful. For 1931 let this be your creed:

"I believe in Canada.

"I love her as my home. I honour her institutions. I rejoice in the abundance of her resources.

"I glory in the record of her achievements. I have unbounded confidence in the ability of her people to excel in whatsoever they undertake. I cherish exalted ideals of her destiny as a leader among world nations.

"To her I pledge my loyalty. To the promotion of her best interests I pledge my support. To her products I pledge my patronage. And to the cause of her producers I pledge my devotion."

If you are willing to embrace this creed, a copy of same artistically executed in colours, and on heavy stock suitable for use as a wall hanger or for framing, is yours for the asking. Just tip and fill in the coupon herewith. Address your envelope as shown on the coupon. Mail it without affixing stamp, for this particular letter will be carried free.

IS FLYING TO MOSCOW

Miss Amy Johnson on Another Long Distance Flight, Radio Advice State

News despatches broadcast by radio this morning stated that Miss Amy Johnson, aviatrix, niece of T. H. Johnson of this city, who gained fame last summer when she flew from England to Australia, is now on another long distance flight. It was stated that Miss Johnson had arrived in Belgium from Hendon, England, on a flight to Moscow and possibly further. Miss Johnson's next stop will be in Berlin.

from Whitehorse to Atlin for burial. The remains were transported to the burial place by Pilot Everett L. Wasson, hero of the Burke search. In the same plane, Bob Martin and Emil Kading, Burke's companions on the tragic flight, went to Atlin where they are at present. They expect to come south before long.

Commenting on the circumstances which attended the death of Capt. Burke, Blunt expressed the belief that he might have been still alive had he stayed with his plane. Indeed, it is felt by some that Burke might have been able to fly his plane off the Liard River had the men stayed with it.

Pilot Wasson will be here in February en route to the United States to take delivery of a new plane for service of the Treadwell-Yukon Exploration Co. in the Yukon, Blunt stated.

Blunt had some very interesting snapshots to show of the two crashes at Telegraph Creek when his plane flew into a tree while another was partly submerged through shell ice on Sawmill Lake. All that could be salvaged of Blunt's plane was the engine.

ENGINEER IS DEAD

William Herne, Who Passed Away On New Year's Eve, Held One of First Steam Tickets

William Herne, pioneer steam engineer of British Columbia, who had one of the earliest tickets issued in the province, passed away Wednesday evening at the Prince Rupert General Hospital after a brief illness. The late Mr. Herne had been employed recently as watchman of the B. C. Packers' cannery at Tucks Inlet and had been a patient in the hospital for only two or three days before he died. Before coming to town, Mr. Herne had been engineer in a sawmill on Porcher Island and in other such milling plants in the district, also for a time at the Somerville cannery here.

Deceased was a native of England and about 74 years of age. No relatives, as far as can be learned, live in this country. Deceased was unmarried.

The funeral takes place Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the Operating Engineers' Union of which deceased was a member.

DROP OUT OF LEAGUE

Tacoma Tigers Quit Because They Have No Rink

VANCOUVER, January 2.—Tacoma Tigers dropped out of the Pacific Coast Hockey League following last night's double-header against the Lions here. Lack of a rink in Tacoma was the cause of dropping the franchise. The players will be sold with other clubs of the league getting first call. The league will finish the season with the three remaining teams—Vancouver, Portland and Seattle.

Vancouver went into first place as a result of defeating and tying Tacoma. The score of the first game was one to nothing and of the second three to one.

SPORT CHAT

Feminine basketball teams will have to look to their sartorial honors, says Phyllis Griffiths in the Toronto Telegram. West End "Y" seniors appeared for their opening game in all the glory of gold-colored sweat suits with new-fangled "zippers" to make them fit tightly at the ankles—and when these were removed for the start of the game, pure white uniforms were disclosed. The Lizzies' sweat suits are bright red, with a white "lightning streak" across the tops, and the uniforms are of the same lurid hue with white trimmings. Both are male teams.

There has certainly been a big change in girls' sports fashions during the last half dozen years. Long stockings, full bloomers and bulky blouses or sweaters have given way to ankle-high socks, abbreviated "shorts" or tight-fitting bloomers, and trim jerseys. And who shall say the change has not been for the better? The players have greater freedom of movement, and undoubtedly present a smarter appearance.

Back in 1924 the Varsity women's intercollegiate team did battle against McGill and Queen's in ordinary navy blue middies (with sleeves rolled above the elbows if you wished), voluminous navy blue serge bloomers hanging well below the knee, and full length black silk stockings. The Blue and White girls (the white was accounted for by white silk middie ties and white headbands) won the title, too, and repeated the next year—in the same outfits.

The Varsity took a radical step, and sent the team into staid old McGill equipped with blue and white socks reaching only to the knee, short blue bloomers of some silk material with white stripes down the sides and short-sleeved blue blouses also trimmed with white. The Montreal papers devoted a column to describing the outfits, which contrasted greatly with the tunics worn by the McGill and Queen's teams. Now the Varsity girls are even more modern, with blue and white jerseys, short white-striped blue bloomers, and ankle socks. Things do move.

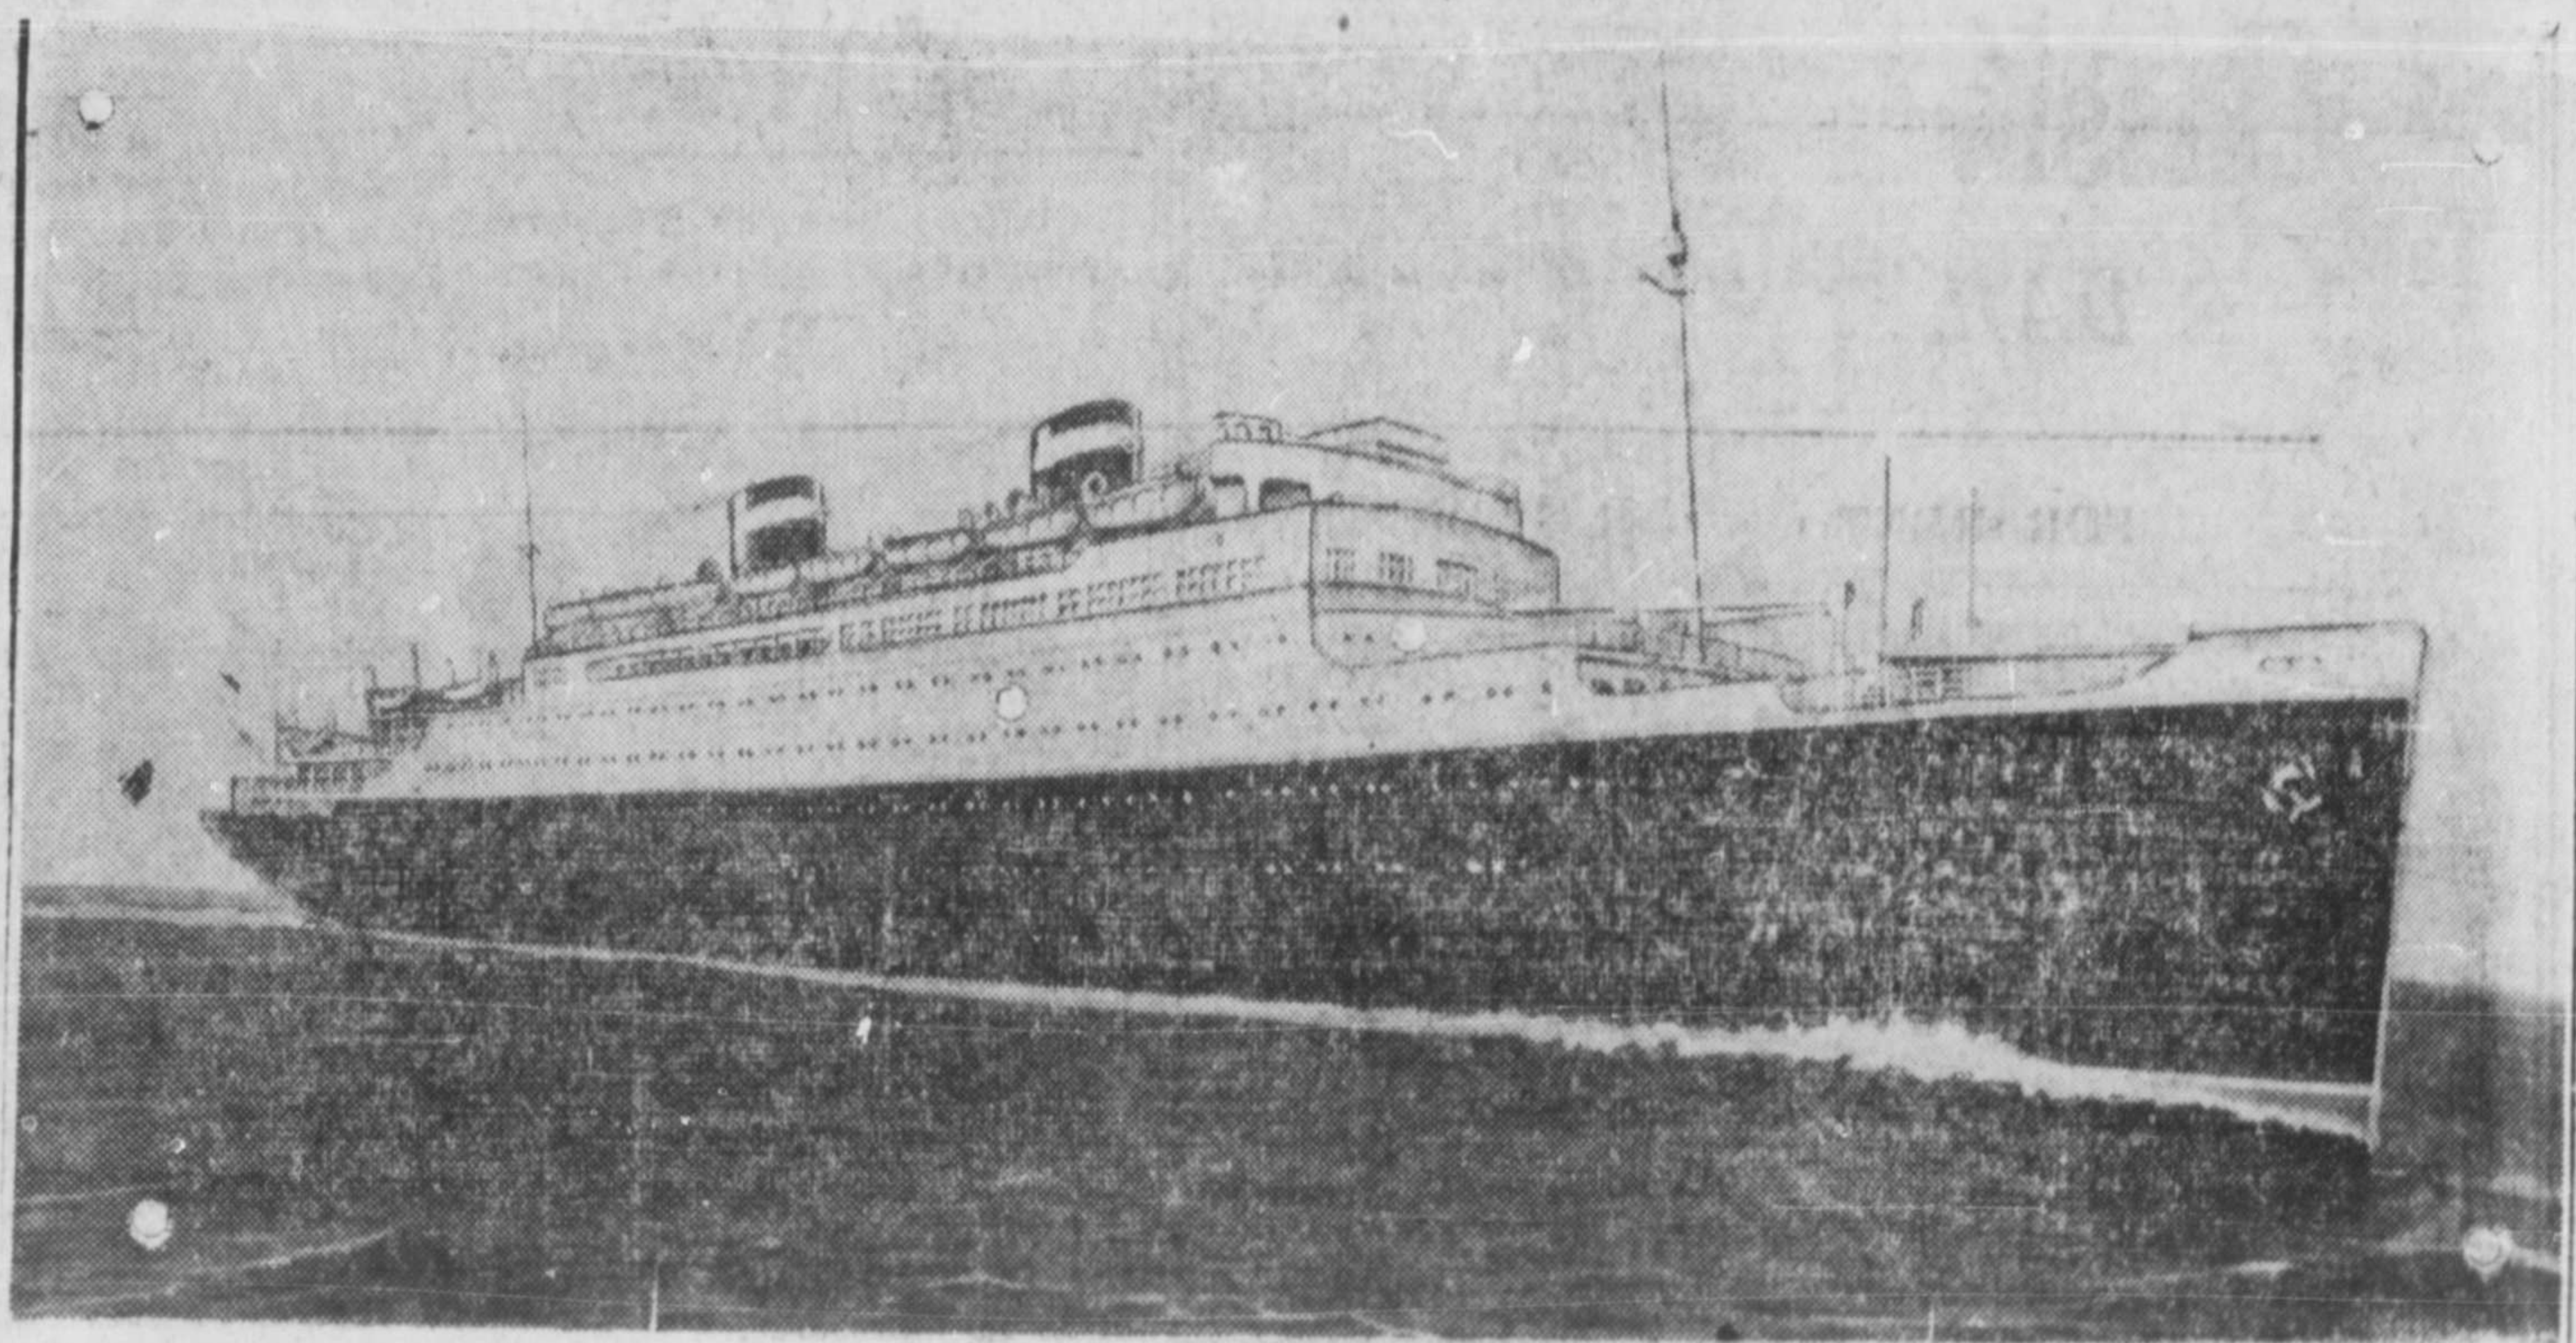

Bagshaw-Wendle Bout Arranged

Local Boys Signed up For Important Match This Month

Prince Rupert fight fans will be greatly interested in the announcement of a ten-round boxing match between Billy Bagshaw and Benny Wendle to be held this month at the Empress Social Club Boxing Arena.

Wendle and Bagshaw, who are considered two of the classiest performers in the city, will undoubtedly put up a wonderful exhibition and the scrap may prove to be the local "sport classic" of 1931.

The boys have already commenced training and further details of the match will be announced shortly.

One by one her adviser takes out the temptingly engraved certificates and examines them. One by one he lays them down with a sorrowful shake of the head—

Slowly the truth dawns upon her. Those wonderful purchases that were to make them rich . . . independent. These speculations that were to lead them

But at the bottom of the box there lies an unpretentious document, which suddenly she recollects. It cannot have depreciated. It must still be safe and sure . . .

NEW YEAR WELCOMED

Prince Rupert Club Ball Wednesday Night Was As Usual Delightful Affair

As usual, the annual New Year's Eve ball at the Prince Rupert Club was a great success. About 115 persons gathered Wednesday evening in the beautifully decorated club-rooms for the affair which commenced at 9:30 p.m. and concluded at 4 a.m. when it was voted unanimously a most delightful party.

Fine music was provided for the occasion by Walter Howarth's six-piece orchestra and at midnight Piper James Sturgeon appeared on the scene to help the gathering to usher in the New Year in a most enthusiastic manner. Noise makers helped to contribute to the brief pandemonium. During the midnight interval, Miss Nan Craig entertained with a delightful exhibition dance.

Refreshments were delicious, indeed, and played no unimportant part in the general enjoyment of the occasion.

G. P. Tinker was master of ceremonies and chairman of the general committee for the dance. Paul Armour was chairman of the decoration committee which did such good work. Ald. J. H. Pillsbury and P. M. Ray were in charge of refreshments. A. L. Holtby handled the issuing of invitations.

C. C. Mills, vice-president of the club, and Mrs. Mills received the guests in the absence of John Dybhavn, president.

ACCEPT THESE GIFTS WITH OUR COMPLIMENTS

DO YOU think of your newspaper merely as a means of finding out what the famous people in the world are doing, saying, thinking? As an impersonal record of events which do not concern you at all? We have something more than that to offer you. For instance:

Please accept today with our compliments these things as a gift throughout the coming year, which you'll find in our pages: New and better ways of performing old household tasks . . . means of savings steps, time, effort . . . labor-saving devices . . . short-cuts to efficiency . . . money-saving. "Why," you say, "you're probably talking about the advertisements!" Just so—we are.

Think of the advertisements—and read them—as news. News of the world of goods and things . . . news of scientific achievement accomplished for your benefit . . . news that concerns you far more directly than an account of boundary disputes in Baluchistan can ever concern you.

Read the advertisements regularly, and use them as millions of other people are doing—to save you time, effort, money, trouble, when it comes to buying the things that make life a little easier . . . a little brighter. Reading the advertisements will keep you in step with the rapidly advancing standard of living in Canada today.

Every day there's something new in the advertisements as well as on the front page. Be informed on all sides!

HAVE BIG ENGINES

Monster Locomotives Are Placed On Kamloops- Jasper Run

VANCOUVER, Jan. 2.—Announcement is made here by B. T. Chappell, general superintendent, Canadian National Railways, that two new passenger engines have just been placed in service between Kamloops and Jasper. They are of the 6000 class and are the largest passenger engines of the Mountain type operating in British Columbia. They will operate over two divisions, a distance of 275 miles, in handling the Continental Limited, crossing the summits of both the Albrede and Rocky Mountain ranges.

These engines are 92 feet in length over all and weigh 627,000 pounds, in working order. They operate on a steam pressure of 250 pounds to the square inch. They have four pair of drivers with 73-inch drivers.

This type of engine is now used for company passenger trains from Kamloops to Montreal. From Winnipeg to Edmonton, a distance of 300 miles, it is also used on a straight run, the crews changing at divisional points. This is believed to be the longest locomotive run in Canada.
