MONTREAL, December 22.—Failure to count the number of EASTERN MAIL C. P. R. passenger specials from the liner "Empress of France" which docked at St. John, by the engineer of the eastbound freight train is apparently the direct cause of the collision which took place at Onaway, Maine, on Saturday, when twenty-three persons were killed and thirty-four injured. Nearly all of the 150 Sacks Came in on Saturday casualties were bound for points in Western Canada. The freight engineer allowed three of the passenger specials to pass, but did not wait for the fourth one, which was carrying the third class passengers from the liner, and this last passenger train crashed FIRST TRAIN MAY CROSS into the freight. Owing to the tremendous nature of the damage done to the cars of the passenger special, most of those who were killed died instantly. The temperature at Onaway at the time of the accident was twenty degrees below zero.

Only Two Hundred per Month Permitted to be Issued by Each Doctor in Province.

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.) VICTORIA, Dec. 22.—In the eight months from March to October inclusive, doctors in British Columbia issued 188,120 prescriptions for liquor. Of this total 113,273 were issued by Vancouver doctors, 27,204 came from Victoria, and 47,643 from the remainder of the province. These figures are supplied by the attorney-general.

For October, 135 persons were classed by the government vendor as druggists. The doctors of the province are limited to two hundred liquor prescriptions each month. Before this regulation was put into effect, one doctor had prescribed for four thousand cases in one month.

Community Club

Formed at Anyox.

The formation of a community club at Anyox is a most interesting event. The plans as published on Saturday show that the new institution is to be recreational and educational. There is nothing religious or denominational about the plan and it included everything that can be of benefit to the place.

There is now just one thing needed. That is energy and adm determination in the carrying out of the scheme. No matter how good the plans are, they become valueless if the members do not ing date the 28th day of November, 1917 work hard and in harmony to bring about the desired end.

In Prince Rupert there is too little community spirit. There is little effort to work for the common good. While Anyox and Prince Rupert are dissimilar in many respects, there are also many things in feet common, and an organization such as that mentioned might be carried out here with advantage.

Literary or Debating Clubs are Absent.

There is no general literary or debating society in Prince Rupert. The young men and young women have little opportunity to cultivate their talents along the line of public speaking. At Anyox they intend to remedy that condition. Why not in Prince Rupert? The men here are just as intelligent as elsewhere. They have just as much ability. Why then are there no opportunities to improve. This is something that is worth thinking about.

The role is presented by Robert VANCOUVER, Dec. 20 .- John Harron, whose friends won't be son than they have known, a real comedian and athlete.

The character Mr. Harron portrays is one of the most vivid in dence and apparent uselessness, yet drawn after all from the fine. fabric of true citizenship. One of Pioneer Boats of Dultonnonin Vancouver Island Before Coming Here.

With only the stub of a gaily decorated bowsprit to identify her to those who knew her in the past, the notable old sloop 'Annie' lies in Cow Bay, being practically rebuilt by her owner, Capt. Kohrt, who is well known here.

Early in September Capt. Kohrt come north from Victoria with the old boat which had been lying up the West Coast of Voncouver; Island for some years, having been seized for debt. The Prince Rupert man went south and took the vessel to Victoria where he bought her. Coming up the coast Capt. Kohrt had trouble with the engine and was forced to put into Nanaimo. He then returned to have occurred each season in the Vancouver where he made the north. needed repairs and started out again. Constant engine trouble to handle all the business offering worried him all the way north, from the canneries. the trip being made in two weeks.

She sailed up the West Coast of the Island when Victoria was young, and her rapid voyages with sealing supplies to the stores of In Mad Orgy of Death and Deher owner, Charles Spring, made her well known in the port. ## SILVER STANDARD TO BE DEVELOPED AT GREATER DEPTH

After visiting the Silver Standard mine it was stated by General J. W. Stewart, who is one of the chief owners and who returned from active service in France only a few months ago, that development at greater depth will be undertaken without delay. He says that there is no doubt that he and his associates have a mine, and, if expectations are confirmed by the work proposed, it will become one of the largest producers of the province.

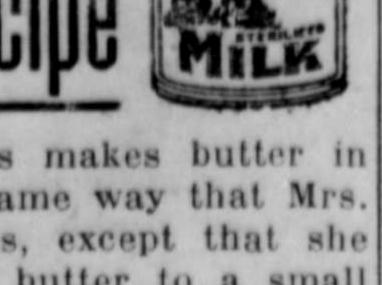

The Silver Standard Mine has been opened up and proven to a depth of 250 feet on what was previously known as the main vein, and to a depth of 125 feet on No. 4 vein. The ore as a rule is high grade, but of a somewhat complex nature, requiring a little different treatment from the usual run of silver-lead ores. The proper treatment, however, after considerable research, has been es-

General Stewart states that it has been realized that development at greater depth is necessary, and plans have been considered to carry on further work.

CUTTER BEAR MAY BE PURCHASED FOR SALMON CARRYING

The announcement that the Grand Trunk Pacific is now looking for a vessel to aid the Tillamook in the northern salmon trade has brought on speculation as to what boat will be procured. It is understood that a number have been already looked at, and the latest information picked up points to the purchase of the American revenue cutter Bear. This steamer has made a name for herself as patrol ship of the far northern waters, and has successfully withstood many seasons of battle with the ice and terrific storms of the Bering Sea. It has been the Bear that has steamed to the rescue of the survivors from the various wrecks which
