MACDONALD GOVERNMENT DEFEATED

SHOWDOWN WITH VANCOUVER UNEMPLOYED IMPENDING

Issue Not Serious So Does Not Necessitate the Relinquishment of Office by Labor Administration

Division Came On Amendment to Education Bill—Vote Was 282 to 249 or Adverse Majority of 33—Very Unexpected

LONDON, Jan. 21.—The government of Premier Ramsay MacDonald was defeated in the House of Commons tonight on an amendment to the Education Bill by a majority of 33, the vote being 282 to 249. Premier MacDonald said that no vital principle was involved and thus the government will not be obliged to resign. The defeat came unexpectedly on the bill which had been moved by John Scurr, Roman Catholic Labor member, who previously had moved an amendment which would authorize the government to use funds to enable denominational schools to meet expenses incurred by the provision in the bill raising the school leaving age from 14 to 15 years. He said, in making the motion, that this provision meant that denominational schools would need $5,000,000 to enlarge their buildings.

REVISION FAVORED

Further Particulars of Washington Eighteenth Amendment Report

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The majority of President Hoover's enforcement commission appointed to investigate the Eighteenth Amendment are in favor of revision of the amendment, it was revealed yesterday. George W. Wickersham, chairman of the commission, favors further trial of the amendment with certain revisions. President Hoover is not entirely in accord with the report of the commission but recognizes it as a valuable contribution to legislative documents.

Frank Dorbandt and Alonzo Cope Were Not Missing

SEATTLE, Jan. 21.—The Seattle Times received a cable from Pilot Frank Dorbandt saying "neither Cope nor I missing at any time." The cable was sent from Anchorage.

A searching party was getting ready to seek Dorbandt, and Alonzo Cope, another pilot, when they returned. Cope had been unheard of since when his plane overturned as he landed near Susitna, Cook Inlet. When he failed to return, Dorbandt went to look for him.

LORD CROMER DECLINES GOVERNOR GENERALSHIP

LONDON, Jan. 21.—It was reported unofficially today that the Earl of Cromer, Rowland Thomas Baring, had been offered and had refused to accept the Governor Generalship of Canada. The report came, apparently, from a reliable source. Lord Cromer has been Lord Chamberlain since 1922 and is said to have been the King's favorite for the Canadian post.

WELL KNOWN COUPLE WED

Miss Margaret van Cooten Becomes Bride of Ian Fraser at Church Ceremony

A wedding of much interest, involving a well known and popular young couple, took place at two o'clock this afternoon in the Church of the Annunciation when Bishop E. M. Buno, O.M.I., united Miss Margaret Elaine van Cooten, daughter of Mrs. William Brass of this city, in marriage with Ian Elrick Fraser, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fraser of Wetaskiwin, Alberta. The church had been beautifully decorated for the occasion by Mrs. Sidney Batcher and Miss Rose Couture with pink and white chrysanthemums. There was a large congregation of well wishing friends in attendance to witness the ceremony.

The bride, who was beautifully gowned in delft blue D'Orsay crepe with silver hat and carried a shower bouquet of pink and white roses and carnations, was given in marriage by her stepfather, William Brass. Her bridesmaid was her sister, Miss Olive van Cooten, who was charming in pale pink D'Orsay crepe with hat of silver sequins carrying a bouquet of pink and white carnations. Wilfrid Appleyard was groomsmen. The wedding March from Lohengrin was played by Charles P. Balagno, organist of Annunciation Church. During the ceremony Miss Linnea Hanson sang "O Promise Me."

After the ceremony, there was a reception at the home of the (continued on page 5)

His friendliness of Several Years Ago Brought Him Fortune

LONDON, Jan. 21.—Granville Owen Sampson, one time page boy in White's Club, St. James' Street, London, at present superintendent, water at the Conservative Club's quarters in St. James' Street, has been bequeathed $100,000 by the late Sir Charles W. E. C. Hartopp who was first secretary of the British Legation in Persia. More than 15 years ago Sir Charles befriended the page boy at White's Club. Later Sampson served as Sir Charles' valet and accompanied him to Bucharest, Athens and Cairo, at the last named place nursing the knight back to health from a severe illness. "a service I can never repay," Sir Charles states in his will.

WHERE NATURE DWARFS MAN

Visitors to Jasper National Park, in the heart of the Canadian Rockies, stand close to the very act of creation. In this beautiful area, life once was cradled. Convulsion seized the land and reared rock upward to the skies. Out of the water came the glorious peaks to defy ice and time, their rugged beauty a magnetic attraction for thousands of sight-seers. Small wonder mere mortals stand by and drink in the grandeur of the peaks. Above is Maligne Lake, its shores framed by mountains. C.N.R. Photo.

WILL MEET SITUATION

Peace River Railway on Work Which Could Be Profitably Undertaken Now, Says Member

Importance of the Peace River railway link as a vital factor in meeting current economic conditions in British Columbia and in developing the province's future possibilities was emphasized by Col. Nelson Spencer, M.L.A. for Vancouver in a statement on the subject: "After a careful study of economic conditions prevailing in British Columbia I have come to the conclusion," said Col. Spencer, "that the one profitable outlet for the energies of the people of British Columbia at this time is to construct a railway to connect up the Peace River with the coast."

"That is the one major investment on which we can count for an assured return. "It means lifting the surplus of labor by providing large employment and it means a stimulation to production of all kinds, both during and after construction. It means the opening up of more wealth than any other conceivable undertaking can bring about."

"The economic situation at this time is such that some means of building for the future must be undertaken and this railway is the logical program."

Chief of Police Gives Warning to Leaders of Workless Meetings

Use of Public Grounds For Gatherings and Streets For Parades Is Banned—Order Is Defied Today

VANCOUVER, Jan. 21.—Warning that there must be no more meetings on public grounds or parades on city streets was given today by W. J. Bingham, chief of police, to leaders of the unemployed. Despite this, pamphlets were distributed today calling upon the unemployed to meet at the Powell Street grounds. The police will, it is understood, attend in force and there is likely to be a showdown. In view of the chief's warning, it is quite possible the leaders of the meeting, if it materializes, may be placed under arrest and charged with creating a disturbance.

RAILWAY OPENING

British Columbia Block Settlers Loudly Acclaim New Line

DAWSON CREEK, Jan. 21.—British Columbia's Peace River block settlers came here in their hundreds to celebrate the first step in the movement to link the agriculture empire with Pacific tidewater. From Grand Prairie in the southeast to Rolla in the north came settlers by the hundreds, business men and those adventurous pioneers who braved the hardships for many a season, to hear clanging of bells and sound of the whistle announcing the arrival into British Columbia of the first steam passenger train over the newly-laid track of the Northern Alberta Railways, 50 miles northwestward from Hythe, Alta.

Lieut. Governor Egbert of the Province of Alberta, the Hon. Vernon Smith, minister of railways and telegraphs for Alberta, representatives of the chamber of commerce, and prominent business men from Calgary and Edmonton, together with railway officials, among whom were A. A. Tisdale, general manager Canadian National Railways, Winnipeg; J. Callaghan, general manager Northern Alberta Railways, Edmonton, joined with the various committees to make this a memorable day for this section of the Peace River country.

The disadvantages commonly attributed to frontier districts, the complicated problems of the provision of railroads to tap and open up a Pacific outlet were forgotten about for the time being. The shock of the locomotive whistle, seemed to mean more to the frontiersmen who all have faith in the country they have made their own and believe that since the steel is here the district already well settled will take on a new lease of life and grow with characteristic western rapidity.

A banquet in the evening was presided over by one of the oldest pioneers, Fred Fraser Maked.

Premier Man Weds Vancouver Girl

Miss Jean Murray Becomes Bride of George Robertson

First United Church in Vancouver was the scene of a pretty wedding on January 5, when Jean, eldest daughter of Mrs. J. Murray and the late P. Murray, was united in marriage to George Robertson, Premier, second son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Robertson of Methil, Scotland.

The bride was given in marriage by H. Miller, and was charming in a gown of pale pink taffeta draped with shell pink net. Her hat was in matching tones and she carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and white carnations. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Betty Murray, who wore a gown of orchid Canton crepe with matching hat and carried pink carnations and maidenhair fern.

A reception was held later at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Miller, West Eighth, when Mrs. G. Murray, the bride's mother, and Mrs. G. Dempster, a sister of the bride, assisted in receiving the guests. The former wore a gown of blue georgette with panels ornamented with cut steel and the latter chose blue lace.

Mr. and Mrs. Robertson left later on a short trip to Victoria, when for travelling the bride donned a dress of navy flat crepe with a matching hat, and a black broadcloth coat trimmed with muskrat. Shortly after their return Mr. and Mrs. Robertson will take up residence at Stewart.

Bells Rang to Observe Report

Little New England Town Overjoyed at Recommendation That States Stay Dry

ROCHESTER, N.H., Jan. 21.—The people of this little New England town wondered what it was all about yesterday afternoon when the bells of all the churches in the place started to peal merrily. They wondered if it was another fashionable wedding or if a new industry was starting in the town. It turned out that the bells were ringing to celebrate the receipt in Washington of the Wickersham report on the Eighteenth Amendment. The church people of the town rejoiced at the recommendation that prohibition should continue in the United States.

POLITICAL FIGHT ON

It seems there will be a big political contest this spring in the English parliament. The suggestion of Premier Bennett of Canada that Britain should impose a tax on foodstuffs for the benefit of the Empire and of Canada in particular gave encouragement to the Conservatives of that country so that they are endeavoring to have the question decided by the people at an election.

Both the Liberal and Labor parties are opposed to protection of the kind suggested and the Liberals are supporting the Labor Government and preventing the Conservatives from turning them out.

In the meantime there is such a momentous question as the granting of a constitution to India being undertaken by the MacDonald Government, giving the Conservatives plenty of opening for attack.

It seems as if the MacDonald Government will carry the India measure through the House of Commons but there is doubt of its passing the House of Lords. Should their Lordships decide to refuse to make the India bill law, there is possibility of the government appealing to the people against them on that question, thus getting away from the Empire contest which promised them trouble.

An election seems to be anticipated in Britain within the year and it will be an intensely interesting one. The fact that Canada has taken a hand in it makes it more than ever interesting to people of this country.

GLAD TO HAVE WORK

Prince Rupert is glad to have the overhaul of the big steamers done at the local dry dock and it is to be hoped that the policy of giving work of this kind to their own dock will be continued by the Canadian National. It is hard to realize how any business concern could think of handing out work to outside yards when they have one of their own which seems to be managed efficiently and which does excellent work. No private company would hand out work to competing yards when it had a yard of its own. Yet we are told the Canadian National Railways is not in politics.

District News

SKIDEGATE

The slogan "Do the odd jobs now," has come to Skidegate Inlet. Many repair jobs are under way as lumber is now very cheap. Some are planning new buildings in the near future.

A new strike of copper ore has been located in the inlet close to Queen Charlotte City by Jack Beal. A little more stripping is required to determine just what the find will prove to be. Samples run high in Peacock copper.

Miss Agnes Mathers, school teacher for the Lawn Hill school, left for up coast after spending holidays with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. John Mathers of Sandspit, Miss Mathers has made quite a reputation at teaching. Her Christmas concert and dance was the talk of the islands. It is said that the singing by her pupils was the best ever heard on the islands.

Earthquake shocks were felt here at 11:10 p.m. January 10. There were slight rumbles with one hard par followed by a quiver lasting for only a few seconds.

Buster Molitor arrived home on the last boat from Prince Rupert where he was employed by S. E. Parker. He is glad to be home and on the islands again.

BURNS LAKE

The Burns Lake and District Board of Trade engaged in a lengthy discussion on the question of the Alaska-Yukon highway at its last meeting and, finally, a committee consisting of A. M. Ruddy, C. R. MacLeod and Sidney Godwin was appointed to draft a resolution embodying the wishes of the meeting. Rev. E. S. Fleming and Harry Little were elected members of the board.

Mrs. Nell Van de Veen and daughter returned last week after having visited for a few weeks in Saskatchewan.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown of Kamloops have rented the Hunt farm just west of Burns Lake.

Miss Annie Gowans has returned home after spending several months in Alberta. She expects to leave Gowanbank this week for Victoria.

STEWART

Merchants and other local citizens gathered last Wednesday afternoon to place the unemployment situation in this district before J. A. Anderson, Anyox, road superintendent for Atlin district.

Sam Deschamps has definitely announced that he will be a candidate for the village commission at the municipal elections here later in the month. Others who are expected to be candidates are H. P. Gibson, W. L. Newell and H. C. Bennett.

Word has been received here that Gerald Service, who was for some time a member of the staff of the local branch of the Bank of Montreal, has been promoted to the post of accountant in the Kimberley branch of the bank.

As a measure of relief for the unemployment situation and, incidentally, to secure additional flood protection for the town, the Hyder Chamber of Commerce is appealing to Washington for a congressional appropriation for flood protection work on the Salmon River. Immediate action in the matter is being urged.

Miss Irene Gladstone, sister of Mrs. W. R. Reid, left here last week for a visit in Vancouver.

Good Ore Opened Up On B. C. Silver—Something About the Taku Country—Scheelite and Molybdenum Reported Found In Interior

The report of development work on the B. C. Silver mine for the month of November last has been issued by the offices of the Selukwe Co. in London. All work during the month was confined to No. 3 and No. 6 levels. On No. 3 level, two upraises northeast of No. 1 shaft advanced 23 and 25 feet during the month. These exposed favorable ground and sampling indicated some appreciable widths of commercial ore in the raises and also in test holes into the walls of the raises. One four-foot sample assayed $41.25. On No. 6 level, a raise southwest of No. 2 shaft was driven 42 feet in a heavy metallized zone throughout. The average of the face samples taken from this heading was $39 with an average width of five feet six inches. The best sample went $96. Test holes off the raise showed an additional width of commercial ore of six feet. The high grade ore from this raise has been stored in suitable drifts and crosscuts on No. 6 levels for milling will be made at a later date. A total of 80 feet of raising was done during the month.

Taku River, mineral deposit zone which has attracted considerable attention during the past year or so, is about forty miles long, being formed by the confluence of the Nakina and Inklin Rivers. With Taku Inlet, which is about 25 miles long, it occupies a large and fairly straight valley which trends north-east directly across the Coast

Range. About 36 miles of the valley, including all the inlet and about eleven miles of river, lies in Alaska and the remainder in British Columbia. The area of most concern at the present time consists of relatively narrow strips of accessible country along the Taku from the international boundary to the head of the river along the various tributaries that join the Taku in this stretch, a small area east of the confluence of the Nakina and Inklin and, possibly, a fairly extensive area stretching northwest of this toward Atlin Lake and also south-east.

Important discoveries of scheelite, an ore of tungsten, are reported to have been made near Hazelton and have aroused considerable interest among firms in the United States manufacturing high speed tool steel. A discovery is also reported to have been made of a large medium grade molybdenite near Endako and it is being investigated by the same interests. It may lead to the establishment of reduction furnaces, it is said.

Hon. William Templeman, M.P. for Comox-Alberni, has been enquiring into the mail service from Prince Rupert to Hazelton and now announces that there is no excuse for mail accumulating unduly here. Towards the end of the month, it is possible that the trains may begin carrying mail from Prince Rupert to points within one hundred or so miles up the line.

J. D. Wells says that he has enough ore in sight on the Golden Crown property near Kitselas to insure a 15-ton capacity cyanide plant being operated for a year.

Mrs. J. S. Macdonald, who has been on a trip to Vancouver, returned to the city from the south on the Prince Rupert this morning.

Charles Woodward, former M.L.A. for Vancouver, has again gone on record as favoring the completion of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway as the Pacific Outlet for the Peace River country.

S. Wallstedt, organizer for the Moose Lodge, disembarked here from the steamer Prince Rupert this morning after a trip to Vancouver and Seattle and will spend a few days here before proceeding to his home in Juneau.

A. R. Holtby, B. and B. master for the Canadian National Railways, who returned to the city on yesterday afternoon's train from a trip to the interior on official duties, reports that there was a small fall of snow at Prince George which the sun rapidly melted. At Terrace yesterday there was a virtual blizzard and west of there torrential rain.

SCHMELING TOUR PLAN

Heavyweight Champion to Take Trip Through United States

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Details of Max Schmeling's forthcoming tour of the United States were announced here yesterday. The trip will take ten weeks and is expected to net the Teuton some $150,000.

The heavyweight champion will start his trip at Baltimore on February 10 and will box three-round exhibitions with a sparring partner in 45 cities before starting intensive training for his title bout in June with Young Stribling.

In five Texas cities where he is barred from boxing, Schmeling will make his public appearance by refereeing wrestling bouts, thus emulating Jack Dempsey.

The German will visit 14 states, mostly in the south. He will visit Havana, Cuba, on February 22. This will be the high light of his tour.

HAMBURG, Germany, Jan. 21.—Max Schmeling, world's heavyweight champion, sailed from here on the Europa today for the United States. Just before leaving, Schmeling said: "I will show them that I am not merely a paper champion and that I have not turned yellow."

DOC SNELL TO FIGHT

Popular Lightweight to Appear in Ring at Wenatchee to Help Out Sport Interest

WENATCHEE, Jan. 21.—Not for the purpose of staging a personal come-back but rather in an attempt to build up new interest in sports here, Doc Snell, popular lightweight, announced yesterday his intention of returning to the ring here on February 2. He does not intend to box in Seattle, Portland or any of the coast cities but will confine his activities to this, his home town. His first opponent has not yet been named.

Snell first took up professional boxing in 1921 and during his career became very popular.

DEMPSEY TRAINING

Speculation Rife As to Whether He Will Meet Sharkey

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Old John Dempsey has started daily workouts again and speculation is, therefore, rife as to whether or not he intends to take up Jack Sharkey's challenge and return to the ring in the attempt to make at least one more financial killing.

While he weighs 203 pounds, about eight pounds above his best weight, and is carrying a little excess flesh around the waist, the former champion appeared yesterday to be in great shape. There was the same old zip and dash of former years.

Dempsey would say nothing definite yesterday as regards his future intentions. He expressed the opinion that $2,000,000 fight gates in United States had died with Tex Rickard.

It is the opinion of boxing experts in this country that a Dempsey-Sharkey match would be the most attractive fight affair that could be staged in the United States today and would draw the largest gate.

CANADIENS WIN AGAIN

Flying Frenchmen Increase Their Hockey Lead—Bruins Also Stretch Their Margin

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—The Canadiens increased their lead at the top of the Canadian section of the National Hockey League last night by defeating the Rangers in overtime. Rivers, the young forward, scored the winning goal for the "Flying Frenchmen."

The Rangers' defeat, coupled with Detroit Falcons' victory over the lowly Philadelphia Quakers, created a tie for third place in the American division between the Rangers and Detroit.

At Boston, the Bruins increased their leading margin over the Chicago Black Hawks by defeating Ottawa Senators in a wide open game.

SPORT CHAT

Is King Levinsky, the new fistie sensation of the middle west, destined to attain even greater fame than the former ring celebrity whose name he has adopted, or is he to burn out quickly as did "Shuffle" Callahan, an earlier Chicago clouter? Of course one must remember the meteoric rise and fall of the hard punching Shuffle. He stepped down from the driver's seat of a motor moving van about five years ago and became an overnight sensation in the Windy City by virtue of a powerful left arm and fist. He hit like the Hammer of Thor. Anyone he tagged went down and never got up until after the count of ten. He tagged Johnny Mendiesohn, a seasoned and capable campaigner; he tagged Morrie Schlaifer, rugged Omaha welterweight contender who had never been stopped; and he tagged Bobby Barrett, the hard punching if rather frail Philadelphian. Chicago felt sure that "Shuffle" would lift the 147-pound crown then worn by Mickey Walker. How could he miss? Who could stand up under that withering wallop? Chicago admitted he was crude but insisted that anyone who packed his punch could win without a jab.

Shortly after the fight with Barrett, Callahan went east to Cleveland to tackle Tommy Freeman, the current welterweight champion but then a comparatively unknown "contender." Most of Chicago's fistie elite went along with "Shuffle" and backed him with their coin. Freeman, however, proved that a rugged boxer must not necessarily concede defeat to a murderous puncher. Callahan was slaughtered, knocked out in the eleventh round, and he never got over the licking. Waleott Langford, a dusky second-rater, stopped him shortly after. So did Jock Malone. Within a year he was passe, and for a time thought to be punch-drunk, although several doctors recently declared he was physically and mentally sound. Thus did "Shuffle" go up and down the ladder like a rookie fireman at a three-alarm blaze. That is why we wonder if King Levinsky will ever really be a king.

Levinsky stepped down from a fish peddler's delivery wagon to take up the so-called "manly art." He started as an amateur and as far as we can learn only won one fight. That one was won by a knockout and, in his enthusiasm, he turned "pro." Strange to say, although awkward and devoid of boxing skill he continued to win by knockouts and captured 36 of his last 41 fights in that manner. Just as Callahan suddenly stepped into the spotlight by stopping Mendiesohn and Schlaifer, so did Levinsky become a sensation by stopping Leo Lonski and Tom Kirby. Lonski had met the best of them without having heard the bardies sing. Kirby knows every trick about clinching and stalling that was ever set down in the book. So it must be admitted that Levinsky can slug.

Whether he can slug fast enough to whip a high class boxer who will not fold up from a punch on the elbow is a question. He was not impressive in a recent bout with the clever Jimmy Slattery, but those behind him point out that he is still young and inexperienced. Well, we shall see. If he knocks out a few more headliners he will be well on the way to making more than the original Levinsky ever made and the original made plenty. Which would be funny. "Battling" Levinsky was one of the smartest boxers to ever pull on a glove. King Levinsky thinks a hook is only used to catch those fish he used to peddle.

CHANGING OF RINGS

New York Commission to Eliminate Further Heeney-Baer Fiascos

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—The New York State Boxing Commission is taking steps to prevent a repetition of the fiasco which took place last Friday evening at Madison Square Garden when Tom Heeney, veteran New Zealand heavyweight, was technically counted out in favor of Max Baer, the big Californian, after he had been pushed back through the ropes from the press seats into which he had stumbled. Heeney got back in the ring and was resting on his knee when the count of eight came. Referee Jack Dempsey, however, continued to count him out.

DO YOU TAKE AN INTEREST IN THE FASHIONS OF 1931?

WITH which we make bold to remind The Men there are fashions in radios, razors, automobiles and fountain pens as well as wearing apparel.

Most women appreciate the authenticity of the fashion news—in regard to silhouettes, coming frills, passing fancies, and the colorful details of the mode—to be found daily in the advertisements. . . . Fashions these days are not confined to clothes. Automobiles, interior decorations, table service, vacations, even breakfasts are more satisfying, if, to use the word of the thirties, they are SMART.

Advertisements are continually chronicling the fashions that are smartest. Advertisements keep you informed of the mode in merchandise of all kinds. Advertisements are full of information about the new ideas that make Canadian life what it is today.

If you are interested in better living, you are bound to find the advertisements worth while!

MENTAL HEALING

Diseased Mind Not Now Regarded As Disgrace—London Experts On Brain Illness

LONDON, Jan. 21.—The need of mental healers for diseases of the mind was stressed at a recent conference here of the Central Association for Mental Welfare, and the difference between the present-day attitude of the people toward these afflicted with diseased minds and the former idea of disgrace attaching to such was pointed out.

Dr. A. W. T. Forrester, Medical Superintendent at Warwick County Mental Hospital, declared: "There is far less disgrace in some mental diseases than in gout." Mental diseases hitherto had been looked upon as a disgrace, to be associated with high walls and locked doors and spoken about in a whisper, Dr. Forrester said.

Rt. hon. Arthur Greenwood, Minister of Health, said: "We are at the beginning of a new stage in dealing with this problem. The public are beginning to realize that mental disease is a disease with which the human mind and human care ought to be able to grapple."

Dr. Coulson Williams said a large class of the community was suffering from sick minds for which medicine could do lamentably little. There must be developed in the medical profession people with a knowledge of psychiatry and human nature, and endowed with vigorous and robust personalities, who would have to develop into mind healers, Dr. Williams said.

bride's parents, 733 Sixth Avenue West. Relatives and friends of the contracting couple gathered to offer their congratulations and best wishes. The bride was assisted in receiving the guests by her mother who wore a smart costume of brown D'Orsay crepe with hat to match, and by Mrs. Thomas Andrew, aunt of the groom, who was attractively gowned in brown flowered georgette with hat to match.

A beautiful three-tier wedding cake, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew, was cut by the bride.

Mrs. S. D. Macdonald, poured coffee, Mrs. Andrew poured tea and Mrs. G. Couture cut the ices. Serviteurs were Misses Winnie Hill, May Macdonald, Mary Astori and Rosé Couture.

The toast to the bride was proposed by C. G. Minns and responded to by the groom. The toast to the bridesmaid was proposed by Mr. Appleyard and responded to by the bridesmaid's stepfather.

The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome overnight bag with fittings, to the bridesmaid a beautiful brooch and to the groomsmen, a sapphire scarf pin. The bride's gift to the groom was a signet ring. Many beautiful gifts which were on display testified to the popularity of the couple.

After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Fraser sailed on the ss. Prince Rupert to make the round trip to Anyox and Stewart for a honeymoon. On their return to the city tomorrow evening, they will take up residence at 229 Third Avenue West.

The bride has lived here since girlhood and, after attending the city schools, became a member of the city treasurer's staff. The groom is manager of Rose, Cowan & Latta's stationery store.

"TRADE BOOMS AND SLUMPS"

(By William G. Hamilton, Prince Rupert)

Many of our eminent writers and business men are prophesying a change for the better in this present trade depression. Each of them seem sure that the coming spring will mark the beginning of a great revival. Why should we common, working people always look to these men for advice? Can't we think for ourselves? Here at least is one who dares express his opinion.

There have been many trade depressions and booms in the past and, judging from those, I'd say there are two factors which are bound to prove that we will have a better business year in 1931.

The first is—that these slumps in the past have invariably gone in cycles and then have been followed by a period of great activity.

The second is that there is a growing tendency on the part of the people to loosen up with their cash and pay more attention to the financing of the industries of the country.

The last movement on the part of the public, to my mind, is a more promising one than has been shown for some time. It will lead not only to a boom in trade but to a prosperity that will outlast those of former periods.

The average speculator today is much wiser and knows more readily the danger signs, it is unfortunate in a way, otherwise, instead of holding on to his money afraid of the depression, he might put it into circulation, thereby increasing trade. However, experience gained in former depressions, coupled with the knowledge that city, provincial government and Dominion government are doing all they possibly can to build up trade and commerce to its former standard, will give him the necessary confidence to support the real industries of the country which are in need of enabling them to go ahead as never before.

Playing On Imagination

Whenever there is a great discovery, as in gold or silver mines or even oil, there is a tendency to use money and hand it over to those companies which are being formed to exploit those concerns. This would otherwise be used in the financing of trade. Generally at that time a number of oil drillers and gold diggers make their appearance with no other asset than self-assurance and ability to play on the imagination of the public.

Take in the silver boom, one or two good companies were formed along with a dozen dud companies. Then the crash came and enormous sums of money were lost by both the public and financiers, instead of taking advantages offered by legitimate trading in our own country.

Then followed the rubber boom. When rubber went up to $3 per pound, the usual thing happened. The public invested their cash in innumerable rubber production companies, which sooner or later collapsed, creating a general distrust and hoarding craze.

The result was that when people again became trustful they turned to industry to invest their money and from 1928 to 1929 industry was reconditioned. Thousands of small capitalists who had received money from the government after the war and many others were eager to use that capital without which no trade can ever boom.

As far as I can make out, this last great boom was no good to the trade of the country, only with its pleasures. All the money went into radios, phonographs, autos and so on, not increasing the wealth of the country, and consequently was bound to lead to nothing.

The present depression is due mainly to the orgie of speculation in New York followed by the crash, also due to the problem of overproduction.

Since then we have had a change of government. A new set of men with new ideas have come to the front. They are doing their utmost to create a change for the better. They have the support of the whole country behind them, so one would think the turn in the cycle is inevitable.

That is why I expect to see a new boom well on the way by spring.

My words may not carry as much weight as those personages who make a habit of airing their opinions in public but I know some of the working class will take heart when they read that one of themselves has faith in the future.

Stock Highly Speculative

Financial News of Vancouver Comments on Georgia River Gold

Georgia River Gold Mines Ltd. stock must be regarded as quite speculative, comments Financial News of Vancouver. There have been some promising showings, the management stating that work to date indicates that a considerable tonnage of mill feed running from $8 to $35 may be expected. Not sufficient ore has yet been exposed, however, to justify mill construction. Work stopped for the winter early in October. From an authorized capitalization of 3,000,000 shares 2,648,688 have been issued and further financing will eventually be necessary.
