Sir William Leishman and other Canadian notables at Wellesley hospital. The noted British army surgeon, Sir William Leishman, honorary physician to the King, met a number of Toronto doctors and other well known people. In the picture are shown, from left to right, Dr. Bruce, Dr. Cavan, Col. Jones, Dr. Aikens, Sir William Leishman, Dr. Abbey, and Sir William Mulock, former postmaster-general of Canada.

Clark, the second man who attempted to swim the Seattle harbor on Sunday, failed.

Gunboat Smith is performing at Pantages theatre, Vancouver.

A Cincinnati paper says Bob Ingersoll looks like Christy Mathewson. They mean his photograph—not his pitching.

Negotiations for the sale of the Victoria franchise of the Northwestern League to Bellingham men have been started, but owing to a disagreement as to terms it is not likely that the deal will go through. President Wattleit of the Victoria Club now states that he will hold the stock for Victoria capitalists.

The Allan cup, carrying with it the hockey championship of the world, after a sojourn in Winnipeg for the past four years, takes a trip farther west. The Regina Victorias did the trick when they nosed out the defending Monarchs by the score of five to four after one of the most sensational finishes seen in Winnipeg for a long time.

A special cable from London states that Winnipeg O'Brien and Abe Mantell, both of Winnipeg, have been selected to appear in a special bout before King George at Windsor, on Wednesday, April 1. Mantell is better known as "Young Abe Attell," under which name he was fighting before making his trip to England with O'Brien.

Once more report has it that G. B. Taylor, of the Toronto university and Trinity, has been taken out of the Oxford crew for the university boat race. His place has been taken by a New South Wales man. Experts expect the crew to develop more life and greater pace as a result of the change.

Willie Ritchie has started off his 1914 campaign by pulling down a good-sized purse for trimming Ad Wolgast. The surprise was not Ritchie's victory but Wolgast's remarkable showing, and now that it has developed that the Cadillac boy was fouled in the seventh, there are many fans who believe that over a longer route the former champion might cause the Californian a lot of worry.

The Chicago White Sox have two teams playing in California. The Georgia State league has adopted a schedule calling for a split season, the first to open April 16 and the second June 18.

When the Pirates and the Tigers meet in an exhibition game in Pittsburg on May 11 it will be their first clash since the world's series of 1909.

Secretary Cave-Brown-Cave of the Northwestern International Lawn Tennis association, announces the schedule for the coming season's tournaments as follows: Spokane, first or second week in July; Portland July 13; Vancouver, July 20; Victoria, July 27; Tacoma, August 3; Seattle, August 10; Everett, August 17.

Glasgow, March 16.—The following players have been selected to represent the Scottish league against the English league on Saturday, March 21: Goal, Shaw (Celtic); backs, McNair (Celtic), J. Dodds (Celtic); half-backs, Gordon (Glasgow Rangers), Mercer and Nellies (Hearts of Midlothian); forwards, McAtee and MacMenemy (Celtic), Reid (Glasgow Rangers), Croal (Falkirk), Smith (Hibernians).

"Geordie" Drummond, one of the famous old Preston North End invincibles, has passed away at the age of forty-nine. "Geordie" was one of the finest winners Scotland ever produced. J. W. Crabtree, the famous Villa halfback and international, once said that he had never seen a forward line to compare with Gordon, Ross, Goodall, Newhurst and Drummond.

Sheffield Wednesday have been endeavoring to secure Blair, the Clyde back, but would not give the £2,500 which the Glasgow club asked. They have also approached the Edinburgh Hibernians for Templeton, but the "Hibs" regard that player as priceless, and would not discuss the question.

Here is what Billy Meredith considers to be the best men at the disposal of the English selectors: Hardy (Aston Villa), Crompton (Blackburn Rovers), Taylor (Burnley), Cuggy (Sunderland), Roberts (Oldham), Barber (Aston Villa), Walden (Spurs), Halse (Chelsea), or Buchan (Sunderland), Cantrell (Spurs), or Lillycrop (Bolton), Barnes (Derby County), and Wall (Manchester United).

Harry Cowan, who has just returned from the old country with Con Jones, has been taken for almost everything up to the time that Winnipeg Irishmen hailed him as Erin's distinguished politician.

Sport Items of the Ring

What has become of the old-timer of the ring? Here is a little dope that will be of interest to those who have followed the boxing game for the past decade:

Jake Kilrain, well fixed in earthly goods, owes much to his old rival, John L., who used Jake as his stage partner for many years.

Jack Root doubled his ring earnings by clever theatrical investments. Has retired from active business.

Jake McAuliffe, still on the vaudeville stage. Looks good for twenty years more of stage life.

Billy Papke, following a business career in Illinois. He saved every dollar of his earnings, and is independent for life.

"Young Corbett," lives in New York. Is practically penniless.

Bob Fitzsimmons, trying to induce the eastern promoters to allow him to box. Declares he will starve unless allowed to re-enter the ring.

Jim Corbett, in vaudeville. It is his proud boast that he earns $800 a week as an entertainer, and will command this salary for years to come.

Jim Jeffries, Los Angeles cafe owner. The richest of all the veterans. It is estimated that Jeff is safely over the $200,000 mark. Spends most of his time hunting and fishing.

Abe Attell, although one of the shrewdest boxers of his day, is reported to have less than one-tenth of the money he earned in the ring. Is living in New York, where he is an inveterate poker player.

Jimmy Britt, still following the theatrical game. Here is another man who will never ask for a "benefit." James Edward has earned several fortunes. He has them all.

Tom Sharkey runs a cafe in New York. It is an open scandal that the sailor cuts his own hair to save the barber fee.

The Royal Cafe gives the best meals and the best service in the city. Visitors to the city are advised to make this restaurant their selection. 52tf

The Tale The Wagons Tell

My office window faces a street, close to the railway freight sheds.

All day long a steady stream of trucks and lorries lumber by—loaded with boxes, barrels and bales.

One truck I noticed the other afternoon was particularly interesting. No two boxes were the same, and stencilled on the end of each was the name of some well-known product—soap, tobacco, socks, breakfast food, cocoa, port, tea, chocolates, perfumery and baking powder.

Gathered there in prosaic wooden boxes were the results of thousands of hand's labor in all parts of the world.

The cocoa had been grown in Brazil, shipped to Bristol, transhipped to Montreal and finally distributed from Toronto.

The tea was gathered by swart-skinned natives of the romantic island of Ceylon; from sunny Portugal the luscious, big grapes had been gathered years ago, fermented, bottled and branded with a famous name; from Egypt had come the cotton and from South America the dyes that entered into the product finally stamped with the brand of a well-known hosiery.

There, behind that obviously prosaic truck-load of freight was the whole romance of modern commerce—the skilled production, the universal demand for food, drink and raiment, and the world-wide distribution of the things we use every day.

And then I speculated why we use these things every day, instead of some other things; and that brought me plump back to my own job of advertising.

The names of some of the boxes on the lorry were known everywhere to-day, but had been unknown a few years ago; and I saw then more clearly than ever before that Advertising is really a great channel digger. It is like the Panama Canal. You can sail from Montreal to Vancouver now, around the Horn. You can get there, but it is going to take months. A year or so from now you will sail through the Panama Canal and chop the journey to less than half. A new channel will have been dug.

The great names in commerce to-day are those of the manufacturers who have let modern advertising steam-shovel a channel across the isthmus of distributing difficulties.

The great names in the commerce of to-morrow will be those of men who widen and dredge this channel so that the greater traffic may pass smoothly and quickly from the source of production to the homes of the consumer.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper. If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.

for Prince Rupert and Northern B.C.

The Daily News goes into nearly every home in Prince Rupert. It is the popular newspaper of the city because it is clean and reliable. It has all the news of the city, and keeps in touch with events and topics interesting to Northern British Columbia. It treats these subjects with moderate optimism and reliability. The Daily News is the most valuable paper to advertisers because it is read by the buying public. It has a bigger circulation than any other paper in the city. It is read by the class of people the advertisers want to talk to.

COST of living high? Why should I care when I can make more use of my oven? Who ever heard anybody complain that home-made biscuits, muffins and things appeared on the table too often? Bob—he's a chemist—says that ten cents' worth of wheat supplies far more food value and real energy than a round steak. No indeed, I don't buy much meat, and we're all the better for it. But don't imagine that ordinary biscuits will do. Look to the flour they are made from. Make it ROYAL STANDARD (your grocer sells it) and your oven will be a veritable treasure chest for goodies light and feathery, wholesome, digestible.
