Chinese Threaten to Attack International Settlement Unless Aliens Take Steps to End Occupation—Assurance Received From Japanese Authorities

SHANGHAI, Jan. 29:—Fire swept through the Chinese quarter of Chapei, a section of Shanghai, tonight and nobody knew how many hundreds were killed in the fire and fighting which began when Japanese marines marched in at midnight Thursday. The fighting is continuing. Never has there been before a night of such horror in Shanghai. The Japanese were pushing through the twisted streets, clearing their way with machine gun fire. Airplanes added to the carnage, swooping down every twenty minutes like clockwork and dropping cargoes of bombs.

Chinese military authorities warned foreign officials in the international settlement of Shanghai today (Saturday) that, unless they use their influence to put an end to the Japanese occupation of Chinese territory, the Chinese will be forced to attack the settlement.

JAPANESE ASSURANCE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29:—Upon receiving representations from the United States and British governments, Japan has given assurance that, as far as she is concerned, foreign rights in the international settlement of Shanghai will be respected.

ECONOMY PROGRAM

Retrenchment Discussed at Private Session Following Regular Meeting Last Night

Coming Up Monday

Plans of City Council to be Revealed to Public Next Week

After regular business had been transacted, the city council went into a private committee of the whole session last night to consider retrenchment possibilities in municipal expenditures. Preliminary reports of committees on the matter are understood to have been discussed at the session in which only the mayor and aldermen took part.

City Hall executives were called into conference with the mayor in his office this morning. It is understood that the council's retrenchment plans were formally placed before the officials by the mayor.

It was learned this morning that the whole retrenchment program would probably be ready for formal adoption by the council at its meeting next Monday evening, the possibility being that there would be another private session of the council in the meantime.

Other than to confirm the statement that the retrenchment program would be brought down at next Monday night's meeting, Mayor Orme had little comment to make on the whole question when interviewed late this morning. Meantime heads of city departments were being advised of the council's plans with a view to effecting such adjustments as may be necessary before the whole plan is brought up for the council's formal approval.

DIRECTORS RE-ELECTED

No Change in Hospital Board Membership Made at Annual Meeting

G. P. Tinker, W. M. Brown, Frank Dibb, G. V. Wilkinson and Robert Gordon were re-elected members of the board of directors at the annual meeting last night of the Prince Rupert General Hospital Association. Other members of the board are appointed to represent the city council, provincial government and Prince Rupert Medical Association.

George Rorie was re-elected auditor.

Nothing New on Relief Work Is Heard By City

In answer to a question by Ald. Linzey, Mayor Orme intimated at last night's meeting of the city council that no further word had been received from the government in regard to the unemployment relief situation. The mayor intimated that he was expecting to hear momentarily.

MOTION IS HELD OVER

Discussion of Policing is Delayed by City Council at Request of Ald. Casey

A large crowd which assembled at last night's council meeting undoubtedly in anticipation of witnessing some fireworks in a discussion of the matter of city policing was due for disappointment. When this item on the agenda was reached, Ald. Casey, who had given notice of motion for reversion to the system of city policing, announced that he wished to change the date when this motion should come up from January 28 to "the date of the meeting when a policy of retrenchment in civic affairs is acted upon." Ald. Casey also intimated that the date for which he proposed reversion to city policing to become effective would be changed from May 1 to June 1.

There was no discussion of the matter.

THREE FISHERMEN SAFE AT MASSETT

The provincial police have been advised that James Marshall, Albert Barton and Chris Carlson, crab fishermen, who left Naden Harbor on January 22 for Prince Rupert in the net boats Two Bits and Shannon Bay, are safe at Massett. The trio will be coming to Prince Rupert on the steamer Prince John next week.

BOND DEAL APPROVED

City Council Embraces Opportunity To Convert Securities and Save Exchange

After considerable discussion of the matter, the city council last night accepted a bond trading proposal made by McDermid, Miller & McDermid, Vancouver bond dealers, whereby a considerable sum of money is expected to be saved the city in exchange on bond redemption from sinking funds. Briefly, the proposal of the bond firm was for the city to sell at the present premium $40,000 of C.N.R. bonds maturing in 1940 and payable in Canada and London, using the proceeds derived thereby to purchase $47,000 of Province of Saskatchewan bonds bearing 4 percent interest, maturing in 1935 and payable in New York.

By means of this deal, it is pointed out in a communication from McDermid, Miller & McDermid and by E. B. McDermid, jr., who was present in person at the meeting, there would be an actual profit to the city of $3,324 in addition to which par value of sinking fund would be run up $7,000. In 1934 the city would perforce have to dispose of some of its securities to meet obligations accruing at that time. While no forecast could be made as to what exchange conditions might be in future, if conditions remained as at present the city would stand to save a very considerable amount of money in exchange charges by having the Saskatchewan bonds payable in New York funds.

The exchange, the letter from the bond dealers stated, was subject to confirmation by them and if the city failed to take the proposition up by February 1, the transaction would be void.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 29:—An assassin crept into the home of Martin Sitar at Elma, Man., about fifty miles south of here early this morning and stabbed eight persons to death. The dead are Sitar, his wife and six children. Two other Sitar children are in a serious condition with knife wounds. They were rescued from their beds by their uncle, John Sitar, who lives nearby when he rushed to the house which was set afire by the killer. WORK OF HOSPITAL

Activities of Institution in 1931 Reported Upon By Lady Superintendent

The following report on the year's work at the Prince Rupert General Hospital was presented by the lady superintendent, Miss Jean Harrison R.N., at the annual meeting of the Prince Rupert General Hospital Association last night:

"A general review of the work of the hospital for the year 1931 shows that 1044 patients were treated during the year, the total number of days' treatment being 19951, or an average of 19.1 days per patient.

"One hundred and twenty-one births and 33 deaths took place during the year.

"Three hundred and forty-seven general anaesthetics were given.

Six hundred and forty-five x-ray examinations were made.

One hundred and nineteen major and 286 minor operations were performed.

"A number of changes occurred on the staff. Six probationers were admitted, two staff nurses, one pupil nurse, and one probationer resigned. Five pupil nurses were graduated and four completed their training. A total of 285 days were lost through illness, or leave of absence because of illness.

"Two affiliations with outside schools were started, one with Tranquille Sanatorium whereby each student nurse gets two months' training in the care of tubercular patients, the other with Vancouver General Hospital giving each student nurse two months' training in diet in disease. This has made for a fuller and more satisfactory training for our student nurses, and consequently improved the quality of the nursing care given our patients.

"I desire to take this opportunity to thank the president and members of the board, the doctors, nurses, and the secretary of the hospital for the splendid co-operation we have had during the year. Especially would I like to thank the doctors and those gentlemen outside the hospital who have lectured to the nurses, and Dr. Hankinson for his faithful and untiring care of our sick nurses."

Billy the Jap of Porcher Island is paying a visit to the city and is a guest at the Royal Hotel.

Clever Work of Local Young Man

Verne Fossum Climbed 73-Foot Pole to Repair Radio Telephone Aerial

When the rope holding the antennae for the Northwest Telephone Co.'s radio telephone transmission station broke this week, the management feared they would have to take the 73-foot pole down. It is only a slim pole five inches in diameter at the base and two inches at the top.

After some search B. R. Tupper, the local radio engineer in charge, found Verne Fossum, a 16-year old lad, who is a clever climber. He volunteered to shinny up the pole and connect the rope. As he neared the rope the slim pole swayed but the boy persisted and completed the work after being up the pole over half an hour. The top 35 feet was the worst part of the climb, the part beyond the main guy ropes.

Temporary Funds For Engineer's Dep't. Granted

A recommendation from the Board of Works that the city engineer be authorized to spend up to $500 for necessary maintenance work pending the passing of the year's estimates was adopted by the city council at last night's meeting. The amount will be included in the annual departmental estimates.

HALIBUT FISHERMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS

Editor, Daily News:—
Considerable controversy appears to be rampant in the city, in relation to the merits or otherwise of proposed unions or associations for the members of the halibut fleet. It apparently is considered necessary by the parties involved that some form of association or union be in existence, and upon the imminent demise of the local branch of the Deep Sea Fishermen's Union, the Northern B. C. Fishermen's Association were approached with a view to having initiated an independent halibut branch.

The writer considers that there was justification for such a desire, because of two very significant facts, namely, the continuous pacific policy of the existing local halibut union, coupled with the high amount of dues demanded, and the aggressive and progressive policy exhibited by the Northern B. C. Fishermen's Association.

It is not suggested that the achievements of the Northern B. C. Fishermen's Ass'n. have been spectacular, but it is claimed that locally, successful or otherwise, that association has stood solely for the betterment of the conditions of the fishing fraternity and as an association have fearlessly besieged the ramparts of capitalism.

This association have formed a local Fishermen's Co-operative Association, providing a venue for a distinct improvement in the economic status of all fishermen.

To provide a venue is insufficient, and this venue to be effective needs the support of every class-conscious fisherman of Prince Rupert, and realizing the need of the complete co-operation of the fishing fleet of Prince Rupert, careless of the branch of fishing a fisherman may be engaged, the formation of a halibut branch of the Northern B. C. Fishermen's Ass'n. was doubly welcome.

Certain far-seeing individuals have observed the ultimate goal to which active and energetic fishermen are striving, and because of personal advantage, have endeavored to dissuade the fishermen of this city to collectively assist themselves.

As a result we have the fishermen of the halibut fleet divided into two factions, probably both of which factions are inspired with a pure desire to achieve some benefit, with the probable consequence that all efforts at collective action may be wasted, and the negative result of providing a wage for some person may be experienced.

The writer claims to be an ardent union worker, and has, to personal disadvantage (not regretted) endeavored systematically to be of service to the fishermen of Prince Rupert, and is at present in the unfortunate position of being a leader of one of these opposing factions. His supporters are desirous of maintaining their stand, and it appears as if the warring conditions must continue.

This is to be deplored, and it is considered advisable to call upon all who favor the continuance of the halibut branch of the Northern B. C. Fishermen's Ass'n. to attend a meeting in the City Hall on Saturday night first at 8 p.m. to determine what course to pursue, realizing the seriousness of the situation.

Personally the writer recognizes the need for a local union, but the objective emanating from such a union, to him is a definite co-operation of the fishermen of this town and district. The boat owners, and when I say boat owners, I mean the fishermen boat owners, have as much need of collective and co-operative action as the fishermen themselves.

Simple craft unionism relative to the fishing industry is necessary, but to rest content with such action, is merely paddling in the ocean of their labor problems. They produce and should procure. The power lies within them, and they are permitting themselves to be fettered ere they stretch their limbs.

Fishermen Awake to your possibilities, realizing that it is impossible to reach economic freedom at one step, but realizing that a start upon this road must be made, or rest content to hand over to countless middlemen the fruits of your labors, who do nought for you, that you are unable to perform for yourselves.

Yours sincerely,
CHARLES LORD.

WIPING OUT GRIT SEATS

P. W. Luce Writes Satire in Vancouver Province on Re-distribution

Difficulties face our government in its worthy effort to reduce the membership of the B. C. Legislature from 48 to 39, writes P. W. Luce in the Vancouver Province. Everybody agrees that it should be done, but there is some difference of opinion as to which electoral districts ought to be sacrificed. There is hardly a member who is not convinced that some other fellow should step out.

Prominent among those doing considerable worrying must be mentioned Premier Tolmie. Let us listen in as he discusses the outlook with his confidential adviser.

"We could start with Vancouver," suggests the Premier. "Cut their six seats to three. There was a time when that city had only three members, and they got on very well."

"Did they?" asks the confidential adviser, who has a long memory. "Which three seats will we wipe out?"

"I guess we'll have to call for volunteers," says Dr. Tolmie, after some deep thinking. "I hope they won't all quit on me."

"Never fear!" the confidential adviser knows his Vancouver members.

On his Revised List of Electoral Ridings he marks down: "Vancouver, 6 seats. No change."

"Well, that's settled," declares the Premier. "Next: New Westminster. Who represents that city now?"

"A man named Gray. I rather fancy he's a Liberal."

"Gray? Gray? Oh, yes. Not a bad sort, but I could bear to lose him from the House. Suppose we merge New Westminster with South Vancouver."

"It's not very convenient, sir, unless we throw in Burnaby for good measure."

"You forget Burnaby is a valuable asset just now," frowns Dr. Tolmie. "Adding one Liberal to two Conservatives to make on Conservative isn't good political arithmetic. It would be better to cut Gray's stronghold into two. There must be some way of cutting it up so that it will yield dividends. Mark down two for New Westminster."

Now For Esquimalt
"Quite so," agrees the confidential adviser. "Now for Esquimalt. That's traditionally Tory, but we need those votes elsewhere. Do you suppose Mr. Pooley will like the idea of wiping out his pocket borough?"

"He won't roar any more over that than he did over the Game Board reduction proposals," sighs the Premier. "However, we can always try. Meanwhile, we can always try. Meanwhile, we can always try. Meanwhile, we can always try."

"I did that long ago," admits the confidential adviser. "Now Victoria. Four members. Shall we cut it to one, or would two be better?"

"Leave it as it is for the moment," requests Dr. Tolmie. "Those members are right on the spot where they can get at me every hour of the day, and I'd rather not have them worried. What's next in line for the axe?"

"Saanich." This is said softly, with a discreet cough.

"Saa—" The Premier's rubicund countenance assumes a ruddier hue. "Saanich! Who has dared— You weren't thinking of wiping out MY seat, by any chance?"

"Not at all. Not at all," he hastily assured. "In fact, there has been talk of doubling the representation for the district, the idea being that a second member could attend to the local details—road foremen, game wardens, agricultural fair grants, and so on—and leave you free to devote all your time to your duties as Premier."

"A very good idea," agrees Dr. Tolmie. "In fact, I think we should have a second member for every constituency represented by a member of the cabinet. Make a note of that, please. What's next?"

"Prince Rupert."

"Oh, yes. Who is the sitting member for Rupe now?"

"A man by the name of Thomas Pattullo," answers the confidential adviser, after consulting his records. "A lawyer, I believe."

"I seem to remember him," says the Premier, scratching his head. "Didn't he make a speech last session, or was it only an interruption? We could get along nicely without him. Wipe out Prince Rupert and give two seats to the Queen Charlotte Islands instead."

In the North
"Now for the north," says the confidential adviser. "There is strong sentiment in favor of making Athl, Omineca and Skeena into two districts. Some think one district would be even better. I need hardly remind you, sir, that those three places don't know any better than to elect Liberals."

"They're not likely to repeat that mistake," chuckles Dr. Tolmie. "I have it on unimpeachable authority that we'll win there next time, hands down. It would never do to reduce the three districts to two. Better reverse the process and increase them to five."

And so it goes on. In a few hours the Premier and his confidential adviser have the province divided to their satisfaction, and all that remains is to have the changes approved by the caucus. Some concessions may have to be made after free and frank discussion, but in the end everybody will be more or less satisfied if all safe Liberal seats are wiped out, and all safe Conservative seats are doubled.

Theoretically, assuming that the next Parliament is "reduced" from 48 to 39, this should mean a division of: Conservatives, 63; Liberals, 0; Labor, 0.

Actually, however—electors being notoriously unreliable—the Conservatives do not expect to get more than 62 seats, leaving one to be split between the Liberals and the Laborites."

Dr. Wood's The Children's Coughs Worry The Mother

Mrs. C. W. Harper, Silver Water, Ont., writes:—"I was very much worried over the nasty cough my two children had, and I had tried several remedies to no effect.

One day my husband was in the drug store and overheard a lady and the druggist discussing remedies, and she seemed very thankful to Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup for relieving her children, so he came home with a bottle and in two days both the children were well."

There was a fair attendance at the annual meeting of the Prince Rupert General Hospital Association which was held last night in the city police court. Vice-President W. M. Brown was in the chair in place of President G. P. Tinker, who is a patient in the hospital suffering from a broken leg.

C. F. Davis, chief engineer of the steamer Prince George, which is in the local dry dock for annual overhauling, was operated on last night at the Prince Rupert General Hospital for acute appendicitis and complications. Mr. Davis, who was taken violently ill on Wednesday, was reported this morning to be progressing as favorably as could be expected.

Chief items listed under expenditure were $28,187.50 in bad and doubtful debts, $21,538.01 in salaries and $16,894.16 for food supplies and laundry.

Explaining the deficit, Frank Dibb, chairman of the finance committee, stated in his report that it had been deemed advisable under present conditions to make full allowance for bad and doubtful debts and take the loss now rather than postpone it to future years. The usual charges for depreciation had been made amounting to $2,346.68 in all. The deficit in 1931 was compared with a surplus in 1930 of $2900. The industrial and financial depression was held responsible for the deficit of the past year. No special grants had been asked for or received from either the city council or the provincial government.

The report held that it would be false economy to disregard such essential matters of repairs and maintenance as the painting of the nurses' Home, etc.

The x-ray department had been busy during the year, revenue amounting to $1333.49 or an increase of $203 over the previous year.

The number of hospital days for the year had been 19,951 with a revenue of $27,427.15. This was 510 hospital days less than in 1930 with the resultant loss in revenue of $1,892.20.

Mr. Dibb pointed to the fact that, when Mr. Birch had assumed office as managing secretary, the hospital had a deficit of $10,000. This had all been wiped out and the financial position of the local hospital was an enviable one when compared with that of other hospitals in the province and district.

TRAVELING MAN ENDORSES ALL-BRAN

Says It Brought Relief From Constipation

"I want to take this unsolicited means to tell you what ALL-BRAN has done for me.

"I am on the road all the time, and this has a tendency to constipate me, or any one who travels all the time. I used to suffer a great deal from constipation, until some one told me about Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Since I have been eating this cereal, I have been cured of constipation. I heartily endorse it to any one suffering as I did."

—Mr. B. F. Pollard. (Address on request.)

Constipation is caused by lack of two things in the diet: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines. Vitamin B to tone the intestinal tract. Laboratory tests show ALL-BRAN provides both. At the same time, it supplies iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is similar to that of lettuce. Within the body, it forms a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes. Being a natural corrective ALL-BRAN is not habit-forming.

How much better than risking pills and drugs—so often harmful. Two tablespoonfuls daily will overcome most types of constipation—serious cases, with every meal. If you have intestinal trouble not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Serve ALL-BRAN as a cereal with milk or cream, or use in cooking. At all grocers in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

Presentation at Tea Yesterday

Mrs. Malcolm Campbell Honored By Anglican Woman's Auxiliary

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral held a very enjoyable tea at the home of Mrs. Chris Perry yesterday afternoon, the occasion being a presentation to Mrs. Malcolm Campbell, who has been an active member of the Auxiliary for some years, and who is leaving town this week.

The president, Mrs. W. J. Greer, received the guests with Mrs. Perry after which tea was served and a social time spent. There were vocal solos by Mrs. C. E. Cullin and Mrs. F. N. Good, and pianoforte solos by Mrs. Robert Bartlett.

Mrs. Greer made the presentation with words of regret at Mrs. Campbell's departure, wishing her luck in her new home. Mrs. Campbell replied suitably, thanking the members for their gift and good wishes.

Those assisting were Mrs. Thomas Andrew, who poured, and Mrs. E. W. Tucker, Mrs. W. A. McLean, Mrs. West, Mrs. Waddington and Mrs. C. V. Evelt as serviteurs.

ODD GIFT FOR CITY

Family Beneficiary Society Refuses to Accept Exchange Premium and Returns It

A rather unusual communication came before the city council at its meeting last night in the form of a letter from the Family Beneficiary Society which sent to the city a remittance of $3.75, being the premium which had been paid the Society in connection with the sale of a Prince Rupert bond payable in New York under present exchange rates. The letter stated that the Society had no desire to penalize the city by accepting an exchange premium which had not been counted upon and which had been derived through circumstances over which neither the city nor the society had control. Therefore the amount of the premium—$3.75—was being returned to the city.

On motion of Ald. Collart and Ald. Black, instructions were issued to write a letter of appreciation to the society.

SMOKER IS ENJOYABLE

Splendid Program of Boxing Bouts and Music Presented Last Night By Eagles' Lodge

The local Eagles' Lodge staged a fine smoking concert before a fair-sized audience in the Aerie Hall last night. George Brooke presided over the program which included boxing bouts and musical numbers. Throughout the evening there were selections by Charlie Balagno and his Venetian Orchestra.

The boxing bouts were all declared draws, being as follows: Wendle vs. Hickey; Parent vs. Healy; Hickey vs. Chenoski.

The bout of the evening was a strenuous three-round contest between Paul Armour and Bill Stone. At the conclusion Referee Doug Frizzell declared it a fair draw.

Slim Linstead regained the barrel boxing championship of the city from Bill Stone in a spirited and amusing bout.

The musical program of the evening included bagpipe selections by James Sturgeon and Alex McDonald; accordion solos by Mike Colussi; cornet solos by Emil Hudema; vocal solos by Gills Couture and community singing. The feature of the program was a comedy sketch by Harry Astori and Joe Cook.

Smokes and refreshments were served in abundance.

The committee in charge of the evening's entertainment consisted of F. Ellison, Leonard Brewerton, J. Christoff, Henry Smith, F. Fitzgerald, R. B. Peacock and Paul Baykin. Presiding at the door were James Brown and Peter Gamula.

Sound Picture Value Tested

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 28.—The Harvard University graduate school of education has commenced an experiment in the use of talking pictures in education in junior high schools in Greater Boston. The tests to discover the value of films as a supplementary aid in teaching science will be made in the junior high schools of Lynn, Quincy and Revere and will continue for six weeks.

Three hundred students will be instructed with films and textbooks and a larger "control group" will be instructed with text books alone. At the end of the period both groups will be given tests. The films deal with physiology and biology, each unit consisting of a chapter of text together with a talking film presenting the fundamentals of the subject.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Silveraides, who have been on a month's holiday visit to Victoria, are expected to return to the city on the Cardena this evening.

SPORT NOTES

A rumor of the severance of the 20-year old partnership between Ed "Strangler" Lewis, former world's heavyweight wrestling champion, and his manager, Billy Sandow, has been confirmed by Sandow. Sandow refuses to discuss the reason for the break, but it is rumored that Lewis has been offered $50,000 to join the Curley sporting interests in New York. Lewis was discovered by Sandow while he was working his way through the University of Kentucky and acting as assistant wrestling coach. Sandow taught him the headlock, which was largely instrumental in winning the world's championship and his successful defence of it for nearly eight years. The earnings of the partnership have been estimated at $500,000.

Jack Dempsey will make his appearance in a Chicago ring, February 18, for the first time since his famous 14-count battle with Gene Tunney four years ago. The "Manassa Mauler" has been signed for a four-round exhibition in the Chicago Stadium, with the probability that King Levinsky will be his opponent, provided the Kingfish will accept the financial inducements. Levinsky, with recent victories over Tommy Loughran and Paolino Uzcudun, is the man Dempsey wants to meet. Dempsey, regarded as a ring idol in Chicago, figures to draw one of the biggest crowds that ever witnessed a boxing show in the Stadium.

Sabre Champion

John Huffman of New Jersey, present national sabre champion, will likely represent the U. S. in the Olympic tournaments.

action would be considered cancelled.

Invited to address the council, Mr. McDermid pointed out that during the past four or five years, his company had been instrumental in placing some $400,000 of Prince Rupert securities. To protect the company's investors and at the same time help the city, this transaction was being offered. Mr. McDermid suggested that, in view of exchange conditions, it would seem advisable for the city to consider getting as much of its sinking funds as possible into American funds. This might go a long way towards offsetting exchange losses.

Local Bonds Satisfactory

His company, Mr. McDermid stated, had handled a large amount of Prince Rupert bonds. None of the company's clients were dissatisfied with Prince Rupert bonds. Indeed, there were other municipalities close to Vancouver which were far worse off than Prince Rupert. On the whole the transaction as offered appeared to be an advantageous one for the city.

Ald. Collart, chairman of the finance committee, pointed out that the matter had been gone into during the afternoon. The conclusion had been reached that this transaction was very similar to two others that had already been entered into by the city. As there was a need for United States funds in order to meet exchange, the deal would appear to be beneficial to the city and he moved that it be accepted.

Ald. Casey stated that, not understanding the situation, he was not ready to vote on the proposal at this time. He asked why more members of the council had not been taken into the conference.

Mayor Orme replied that the offer had only been made by wire from Vancouver the same afternoon. Mr. McDermid was anxious to have the matter settled in order that he might return to Vancouver.

Mr. McDermid pointed out that the bond market was in a very unstable condition and could not be depended upon. At present the transaction appeared to be one of much benefit to the city in the saving of exchange charges. The deal appeared to be an advantageous one to Ald. Pillsbury who seconded the matter that it be accepted.

To Ald. Collart the whole matter appeared very simple. The city had the opportunity of selling $40,000 of bonds and getting $47,000 in place of them. The city needed securities in United States funds in order to save exchange losses and he believed it was up to the council to embrace the opportunity of avoiding loss.

The mayor stated that the treasurer was of the opinion that the deal was a good one for the city.

If it was good business, Ald. MacCuthen said he was agreeable to it. After satisfactory explanations had been made for Ald. MacDonald and Ald. Black, the council voted to approve the deal.

Jewelers Lead In Billiards

Only Two of Five Games in Last Night's Fixture Were Played; Rest Tonight

Two of five games played in last night's Junior Billiard League fixture between Hawks and Jewelers gave the latter an aggregate lead of 400 to 326. Individual scores were as follows:

William Murray (Hawks), 145; William Stuart (Jewelers), 200; William Hudson, 181; L. Raabe, 200.

Games of John May (Hawks) vs. John Bulger (Jewelers); Chris Perry vs. Johnny Saunders and Roy Wicks vs. A. Strachan will be played tonight.

Making Will Is Necessary

Judge Robertson Talks Informally on Subject at Rotary Club Luncheon

The desirability of everyone having any property of any kind made a will was stressed by Judge Robertson in an address to the members of the Rotary Club at their luncheon yesterday afternoon at Commodore Cafe. George H. president.

The judge gave a number of reasons why it was desirable to have a will, among the most important being the cost of administering the estate and the speed of settling up the affairs. When executors are appointed the executor under will at once took possession of the estate and the speed of settling up the affairs. When executors are appointed the executor under will at once took possession of the estate and the speed of settling up the affairs.

It was necessary, the speaker said, that the will should be signed by two witnesses, both present at the time, and that the testator should have absolute power to dispose of the estate subject to provision for the wife and family. The will was provided for under the Family Maintenance Act.

The English government has legislated to provide for widows 1837 but it was not until 1883 that a woman was allowed by law to dispose of her own property as she wished.

At request of Ald. MacDonald, city council last night laid on a table until next Monday's meeting the annual report of the Fire Commission in which certain expenditures for water main extensions have been recommended.

why the Daily News had such a large circulation in the city. It was easy to answer. The reason is because those responsible for the production of the paper put the very best they can afford into its make-up and sometimes more than they can afford. They give the people the best possible for the money.

It's worth ten cents a week to get the Waterfront Whiffs on Saturday. It's worth something to have the topics of the day discussed in an impartial and interesting manner. It's worth something to follow the adventures of Tillie the Toiler every evening. It's worth a good deal to be able to read the local advertising and to know where to buy and what price to pay.

JUBILEE IS CELEBRATED

Arrival of Christianity Among Natives of Valley is Observed

BELLA COOLA, Jan. 29.—The Golden Jubilee of this United Church Indian Mission which was celebrated for a week has come to a close. Both natives and whites were deeply interested and it was a great success.

The comparison of native lives, habits and surroundings at the present time, as compared with their heathen life of fifty years ago, was a revelation. Instead of the old heathen houses which they occupied then, they now enjoy living in good homes lit with gasoline lights, and, instead of occupying their time with their old heathen rites, they are busy cultivating their land—growing all kinds of vegetables and small fruits.

At their own expense the natives have built a large hall which will accommodate five hundred people. There are also a good day school and church. They can boast, too, of a fine brass band, instruments of which cost $4,000. Through the valley there are good roads and they enjoy the comfortable rides. The canoe has been entirely forgotten. The gasoline boat now takes its place.

The following is the program which was carried out during the week:

that evening. A basketball tournament in lower Bella Coola Hall took place where the Women's Association of Mackenzie United Church sold hot dogs and coffee and took in $40. The people met old friends there.

January 15
Reception for Rev. W. H. Pierce held in the church at 8 p.m. Chiefs Joshua Moody, Samuel King, Reuben Schooner and James Pollard spoke words of greeting and welcome on behalf of the Bella Coola people. A very fine spirit prevailed in the meeting.

Indian Agent Ivor Fougner and his wife were present. The Missionary, Rev. Peter Kelly presided.

January 17
Golden Jubilee services at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. At the morning service Mr. Pierce spoke on "God, a Consuming Fire." The sermon was listened to with great interest and appreciation. Dr. Darby read the lesson from Hebrews 12th chapter. The Indian choir sang two anthems. At 1 p.m. in the Mackenzie United Church on the townsite, a service was held for the white people. Dr. Darby led in prayer. Rev. Mr. Pierce gave an inspiring missionary address. At 7:30 p.m. a service, which proved to be a fitting climax to the day's worship, was held in the Indian church. Dr. McLean led in prayer. Dr. Darby read the lesson from John 1st chapter and spoke on the beginning of medical work among the Indians on the coast. Rev. Pierce gave an earnest address on the beginning of the work. Decisions were made for Christ. The choir sang anthems.

January 18
At 6 p.m. 250 persons sat down to a fine banquet. Chief Joshua Moody killed a steer and donated it for the occasion, while Chief Samuel King provided the other necessities. The following interesting program was enjoyed by all:

- Songs, by the school children and choir.
- Song, Chief James Pollard.
- Speech, Rev. Sangeng of the Lutheran Church.
- Speeches, Dr. Darby, Mr. Fougner, Mr. Brynildson and Chief Samuel King.

At the close, an interesting pageant by some of the friends, representing the arrival of Mr. Pierce by canoe—the first missionary in Bella Coola 50 years ago. The crew consisted of four men and two women along with the missionary, who entered the hall with their packs and paddles equipped for winter travelling. After they marched up to the platform they sang the same hymn that their missionary had sung at their first Sunday service fifty years before.

At a special gathering on one of the days Mr. Pierce introduced to the natives the temperance subject. All were deeply interested and 132 signed and received a pledge card.

City accounts for the two weeks ending January 22 totalling $16,973 were passed for payment at last night's council meeting.

REPORT OF PRESIDENT

Good Work of Hospital Training School Acknowledged—New Building Off Meantime

"The training school over which Miss Jean Harrison R.N., lady superintendent, presides is doing excellent work and in this connection I would point out that one of our students in the 1931 Registered Nurses' examinations ranked third in the province," said the report of President G. P. Tinker presented last night at the annual meeting of the Prince Rupert General Hospital Association.

"The matter of the building of a new hospital has not been lost sight of but, owing to the existing depression, it is felt that the time is not yet opportune to approach the provincial government, the city or the public. In the meantime, in spite of the fact that additional expense is required each year for maintenance and repairs, we must make do with our present premises."

The presidential report thanked members of the medical profession who had assisted in the work of the school by means of lectures and in other ways and expressed appreciation to all persons who had in any way promoted the welfare of the hospital. Personal thanks were expressed to members of the board for their support during the year and also to Miss Harrison and her staff for loyal co-operation.

House Committee Report
The report of the chairman of the house committee, W. M. Brown, referred also to the question of a new building along similar lines and expressed appreciation for the services of all members of the hospital staff.

During the past year, in addition to ordinary maintenance, the report pointed out, a new lighting system had been installed in the operating room, roof, evertroughs fire escapes and elevator motor had been repaired, new skylight built on the roof of the operating room, new heater power line for the nursery and new sterilizer filter in the operating room installed.

At the annual meeting of the Prince Rupert General Hospital Association last night votes of thanks were tendered to the Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, all societies, the press and any organizations or persons who had assisted in any way in the work of the Prince Rupert General Hospital during the past year.
