Would Bond German Railways For Undetermined Amount and Publish Balance Sheet Showing Inability of That Nation to Pay

LAUSANNE, Switzerland, June 18:—In quarters close to the big powers associated in the conference on reparations and war debts it was said today that European statesmen are preparing for a final settlement without an American guarantee of cancellation or revision of war debts payments. Any notion such as a resolution proposing to ask Washington to cancel the debts has, apparently, been given up as likely to interfere with the presidential election.

BISHOP'S CHARGE

Inspiring Address to Synod of Caledonia By Rt. Rev. G. A. Rix

Progress Reviewed

Need of Return to God and Religion Stressed By His Lordship

The Bishop in his charge to the Anglican Synod, while in session here, welcomed the members who had arrived from most distant parts of this northern province.

He then referred to the passing of a number of valued workers in the diocese since the last Synod. Mention was made of the members of the clerical staff who had left the diocese and the new men who had come in.

The preferences that had been made included appointment of Rev. J. B. Gibson as Dean of St. Andrew's Cathedral, Rev. E. Hodson of Ocean Falls as Archdeacon of Caledonia, Rev. T. D. Proctor of Pouce Coupe as Canon of St. Andrew's Cathedral, rural dean and superintendent of the Peace River block; Rev. W. Sweetnam of Endako as Rural Dean of Hazelton and Rev. O. Thorne of Kincolth as Bishop's Chaplain.

The charge stated that the Bishop's visits to England in 1929 and 1930 had first of all been most inspirational through the Lambeth Conference which gave members some idea of the solidarity and world wide work of the church and also the tremendous earnestness and energy and sacrifice which was being put into the church by its leaders. The visit of the Bishop to England at that time had also resulted in the obtaining of considerable financial help and in the making of many friends for the diocese. He also stated that Rev. Canon Keen had undertaken the task of writing a history of the diocese. This he had completed up to the year 1913 at which time he had left the diocese.

The assuming of the responsibility of the Peace River part of the diocese by the Colonial & Continental Church Society of London, Eng., had made possible the establishing of the church in that area, a thing which could not have been done without the aid of this venerable society.

The work in that district has also been assisted by the Montreal Fellowship of the West which served the area north of the Peace River. Work had also been done there by a Sunday School van with two women workers and certain voluntary workers.

Large Attendance This Afternoon at Funeral of Late John L. Laursen

There was a large turn-out of ex-service men and personal friends in attendance at the chapel of the B. C. Undertakers this afternoon to pay final tributes of respect to the memory of the late John L. Laursen, road superintendent for the provincial government, whose death occurred suddenly earlier in the week.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Alfred Wilson, pastor of First United Church, and Charles P. Balagno presided at the organ to accompany the hymns.

The ritual of the Canadian Legion was carried out at Fairview Cemetery where interment was made. As ex-service men filed past, each dropped a poppy on the casket at the same time repeating: "In remembrance, lest we forget."

Pallbearers were William Wilson, David Borland, Alex Harvey, George Holmes, Henry Smith and J. S. Wilson.

There were a number of floral offerings.

Fine Big C.N.R. Ship Makes Initial Appearance Here Today on First Alaska Cruise of Season

Making her first appearance at this port, the fine big Canadian National Steamships steamer Prince Robert, sister ship of the Prince Henry, which operated on the Alaska route during the summers of 1930 and 1931 and which is now running on the Atlantic coast, arrived in port at 10:30 this morning from Vancouver and Ocean Falls and will sail at 3 o'clock this afternoon for Alaska points including Ketchikan, Juneau, Taku Glacier, Skagway and Wrangell whence she will return here next Wednesday morning southbound. She brought north ninety passengers, fifty of whom are making the round trip to Skagway.

This is the first of nine voyages the Prince Robert will make this summer on the Alaska route. Because of her great speed, she is scheduled to make a round trip between Vancouver and Skagway every week, calling at Prince Rupert both north and southbound. She is running opposite the steamers Prince Rupert and Prince George.

Most of Wheat Is In Shot Blade and Some Is Actually Coming Into Head—Alberta Growth Is Wonderful

WINNIPEG, June 18:—Crops are making splendid progress with the warm spells and frequent rains which have characterized the weather offering during the past week, according to the weekly crop report of the agricultural department, Canadian National Railways. Much of the wheat is in shot blade and some of it is actually coming in head. Coarse grains are stooling thickly and optimism prevails in all crop areas except those which are busy combatting the grasshopper plague.

Along the Goose Lake and other divisions in Southern Alberta excellent growing weather has prevailed and crops are showing wonderful progress. No damage is reported from any source although this is the territory which anticipated a disastrous outbreak of cutworms. Farmers have commenced summer fallowing and soil for fallow work is in excellent shape.

From Central Alberta and the Peace River territory come reports that weather has been clear and warm and crops are making splendid progress with fields already showing in the shot blade.

BUSINESS OF SYNOD

Canons and Constitutions of Diocese Were Under Discussion Yesterday

Salaries Reduced

Canons and constitutions, or rules and regulations for the carrying on of the work of the Anglican Church in the Diocese of Caledonia, were formulated and passed by the synod in session here yesterday. Much time was given to discussion on various canon clause by clause. One of the most important matters under discussion was the financial condition of the diocese and means of balancing the budget by the end of the year, eliminating the huge deficit which is now shown.

It was proposed by the clergy in session that a ten per cent. cut be made in all salaries from the top of the ladder to the bottom, this proposal being accepted unanimously. The understanding is that salaries will be reduced to the present normal after existing financial difficulties have been overcome.

Other important matters to be dealt with by the synod were the report and canon dealing with the Ridley Home and the report of the committee on means of perpetuating the memory of those who have finished their course and entered into rest since the last synod assembled. Memorable mention was made of and a history of the work accomplished during the lives of the following: Canon T. J. Marsh, Terrace; Rev. E. A. Priece, Kitwanga; Mrs. F. H. DuVernet, Prince Rupert; Miss West, Prince Rupert; Mrs. William Hogan, Hazelton; Mrs. Keen, Metlakatla, and Peter Venn, Metlakatla.

A report was received from the registrar of the diocese, R. L. McIntosh, on the question of fire insurance and the blanket system for covering all properties of the Church within the diocese, urging all congregations to, as far as possible, meet their apportionments of this insurance and thus help to reduce the present debt.

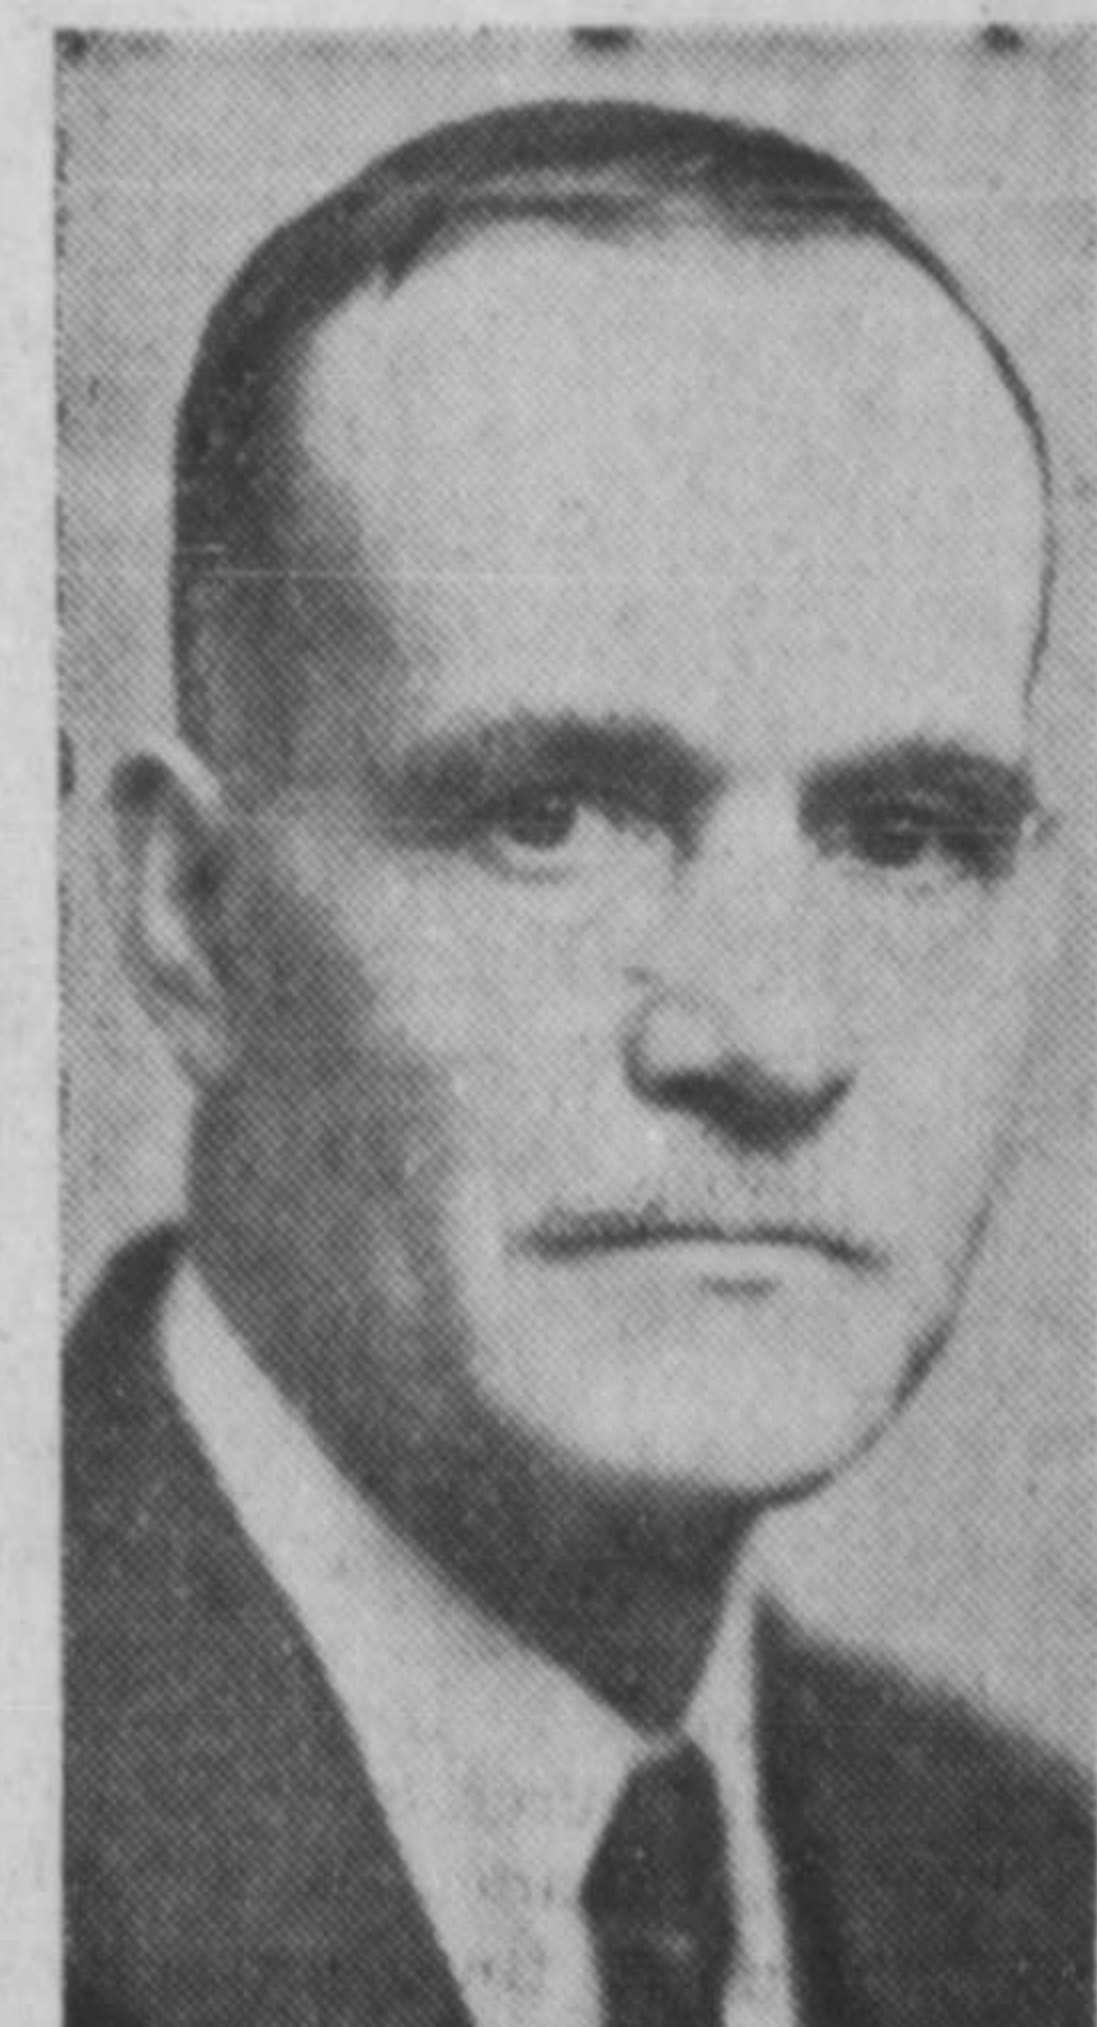

Meet Obligations

All parishes were also urged to meet their obligations to the diocese by forwarding as promptly as possible the amounts set to be raised by the several parishes for the carrying on of the great missionary work.

Yesterday evening's session was given over to consideration of the canon dealing with the Church Army work among the natives of the diocese.

At the conclusion of the Synod last night, votes of thanks were passed and the Bishop instructed to transmit the same to the following: Missionary Society of the Canadian Church, Society for Propagation of the Gospel, Colonial and Continental Church Society, British Columbia and Yukon Church Aid Society, Caledonia Missionary Union, Council for Social Service, General Board of Religious Education, Dominion Woman's Auxiliary, Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary, St. Andrew's Woman's Auxiliary, hosts and hostesses, the press, the secretary-treasurer of the diocese, honorary clerical and lay secretary, Canon Keen, Sunday School Van Workers, Miss Storrs and workers north of the Peace, secretaries of the Sunday-School by mail, Dr. Gisborne, Fellowship of the West, Ridley Home Workers, Prof. Trumppour and the vestry of St. Andrew's Cathedral.

Returns to Coast

T. Loudon, who has returned to Vancouver where he has been appointed general superintendent, Canadian National Steamships. He will have jurisdiction over his department in Vancouver and Prince Rupert, including the Prince Rupert drydock.

Condolences Passed By Club

At the Rotary Club gathering this week the secretary was instructed to forward a letter of condolence to Mrs. Rorie on behalf of the members of the club expressing their sorrow at the loss of her husband, the late George Rorie.

The resolution was moved by S. D. Johnston, who spoke of the loss the club had sustained in one of its best members.

President G. H. Munro mentioned the regret the whole community would feel in the death of a citizen who stood so high in public esteem.

MANITOBA ELECTION

The result of the Manitoba election was a surprise in that no one seemed to expect so great a victory for the Liberal-Farmer administration. Evidently Premier Bracken had felt that it might be difficult to secure re-election as a straight Farmer administration so had made an alliance with the Liberals, taking several into his cabinet. This seems to have strengthened the government to such an extent that it has been endorsed by an overwhelming majority.

One feature of the election that is rather surprising is the failure of the Laborites to secure more than a foothold in the legislature. It indicates that at a time like this people are not turning to Labor to lead back to a better condition, as some local people allege, neither are they turning to the intensely Conservative to help them but are choosing the moderate course and endorsing the Liberal policies, which are favorable to Labor but which at the same time recognize the value of each industrial group in the working out of its policies.

As the Canadian Press dispatch stated yesterday, "hard times failed to defeat the administration," the people evidently feeling that the Manitoba government had done its best under difficult conditions. This was in strong contrast to the election in Newfoundland where the capitalistic administration of Sir Richard Squires was practically wiped out because of its failure to live up to its opportunities for public service.

BRITISH COLUMBIA NEXT

It seems likely that the British Columbia elections will be the next to take place. People will then have an opportunity to say whether they consider Premier Tolmie and his cabinet have administered the affairs of the province in the best possible manner under the difficult conditions that have obtained during the past few years. Their record will be carefully examined and the people will be the judges, passing sentence by their votes. We are not suggesting what will happen then. The people will be the arbiters of their fate. If it is considered that the Conservatives have carried out their duties well, administering affairs so that all the people may benefit to the greatest possible extent, doubtless they will be returned. If the electors consider that they have failed to live up to their opportunities and that the province has suffered as a result of their administration they will vote them out of office. Most people do not care what party carries on the administration as long as it is the best possible to be secured. The name means nothing; it is the record that counts.

TARZAN IS ON SCREEN

Notable Picture Starring Johnny Weissmuller is Feature Offering This Week-End at Capitol

Breath-taking adventures contained in the famous story of Edgar Rice Burroughs are brought to the screen in the thrilling jungle picture, "Tarzan, the Ape Man," which is showing this week-end at the Capitol Theatre here.

Johnny Weissmuller, world champion swimmer, of tremendous physical build and standing six feet three inches in his stocking feet, personifies Tarzan swinging among the trees and in hazardous encounters with jungle beasts. Swimming sequences in the production give an interesting demonstration of the technique which enabled this aquatic star to win and hold for years most of the world's records for speed in the water.

One of the most notable thrills in the picture is an elephant chase in which an entire native village is destroyed and an area of several acres trampled down. The animal pictures are most unusual.

The odd plot of the Burroughs story is more or less familiar to the most of people.

Weissmuller's supporting cast includes such well known screen players as Neil Hamilton, Maureen O'Sullivan and C. Aubrey Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Beattie and Miss E. M. Campbell, who left the city on this afternoon's train for a trip to Scotland, will sail on the steamer Laurentic on June 25 for the Old Country.

ELKS DEFEAT EMPRESS 8-6

Extra Inning Necessary to Decide Heavy Hitting Contest Last Evening—25 Hits

It took eight innings for the Elks to defeat Empress in last night's Senior Baseball League fixture by a score of 8-6. It was a hectic battle all the way with both teams hitting the apple hard for a total of 25 hits, Chenoski allowing 13 while Walsh for Empress allowed a dozen.

Elks went right out in the first inning and collected four runs before the Empress players seemed to realize that it was a ball game. However, Empress scored two in the third and then went into the lead with four runs scored in the fifth. Elks managed to shove one man across in each of the sixth and seventh stanzas to knot the count.

In the eighth, Arseneau, first man up for Elks, met one on the nose and it would have been a home run except that it hit a post in the centre field fence and it was held to a triple. Windle fooled Arseneau on George Mitchell's grounder and caught him off third. However, the Elks managed to score two runs before they were retired. Ray Commons started what might have been a rally in the eighth for Empress with a single but Hibbard and Nelson both hit out to end the game.

The victory for the Lodgements makes the league race much more interesting. There are 12 games each in the first half and now, with half the games played, only one game separates each team in the standing which is as follows:

TITLE WON BY TIGERS

High School Softball Concludes With Cubs Losing Out

The Tigers won the High School Softball League championship Friday afternoon by defeating the Cubs 3 to 2 in the second game of the play-off series. It was a close game from start to finish.

In the first two innings both teams got men in scoring position but had them die on bases as the third man went out on first. Then in the third the Cubs scored two men on a sizzling grounder past second but were retired without further tally. The Tigers came right back on a long line drive to centre that scored two. A two-bagger by the next batter scored another. The fourth was uneventful but in the fifth the Cubs got men on second and third with only one down. The runner on third went out for interfering with the baseman while he was fielding a grounder but the runners advanced and second and third were still occupied. However, the next man was thrown out at first and the game ended 3 to 2 for the Tigers.

This completes the season's play. Tigers—W. Tobey (capt.) p. R. Tobey c., J. Gillis lb., H. Morgan ss., L. Wilson 2b., Wilson lf., T. Marshall 3b., J. McRae ss., J. Greer p. R. Emmelman cf.

Station Beats Dry Dock In C. N. Softball

In the regular league fixture of the C. N. R. A. Softball League last night, the Station defeated the Dry Dock by a score of 8-2. The Dock team was rather erratic at times, especially in the last of the eighth inning when the Station got away with four runs. The Station played a fairly airtight game throughout and didn't give its opponents any openings whatever.

For the Station, Tobey and McIntosh made shoeing catches while, for the Dry Dock, Armstrong played a sterling game on second base.

Church Army Work

The work of the Church Army was commended and reference made to the work among the Japanese. The Ridley Home also came in for most favorable mention. Ten new churches or church halls have been erected in the diocese since the last Synod, also a bishop's residence and the new Northern Cross has been built for mission work along the coast. Besides this material progress, there had been evidences of spiritual growth which was the real test of usefulness.

"The financial depression has affected the church as it has the commercial world," declared the Bishop, "and, if we are ever going to maintain the work now in existence, there will have to be much increased support obtained from its friends and particularly church people of our own diocese who will have to give more freely and make greater sacrifices than heretofore."

The Bishop mentioned that some time ago he wrote to one of Caledonia's friends in England and said: "We are at our wit's ends," and in reply, he was referred to Psalm 107, 27th verse in which he found much consolation. This psalm clearly states the case. "We are at Our Lord's End. And We Cry Unto the Lord in Our Distress."

But it also says: "He delivered them out of their distress, and gave them quiet and brought them to their desired haven. Oh that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men."

"It would appear that as a diocese," continued the Bishop, "we should put every ounce of wisdom and energy and sacrifice of which we are capable, into our plans and activities and having done so, to not only call on God but believe that he will bring just our desired haven. There should be no doubt left as to the accessibility to the divine storehouse. Doing only those things which are in accordance with His will we should, with confidence rely upon His help in carrying out that will."

Depend Upon God

"It is remarkably evident in these difficult times that among the many minds which are seeking for a solution of our problems that a large number are coming to the conclusion that God and religion must no longer be left out in our efforts to get back to the normal prosperous conditions."

The Bishop mentioned two personal experiences of this trend that came before him just recently. In one case it was a letter from a business man in Toronto in which more than half of it was taken up with the argument that the solution of present day problems must come through Christian principles being interjected into everyday life. The second was that he had travelled west recently with one of the leading business men of the western provinces—a man with commercial interests which are almost world wide, and he did not hesitate to say that the great factor in the re-establishment of proper conditions in life would be the incorporating in all business and social activities the principles of Christ.

LECTURES HELPFUL

Rev. Prof. Trumppour Gave Refresher Course at Synod of Caledonia

One of the most inspiring and helpful things during the session of the Anglican Synod here this week was a refresher course of three theological lectures given by Rev. Prof. H. R. Trumppour of the Anglican Theological College in Vancouver.

The first lecture was on preparation for the New Testament in which Prof. Trumppour traced many changes in Jewish life and thought in the various eras before Christ. He showed how Christianity could become a personal and universal religion because the crisis of the exile revealed the worth of the individual and the inferiority of merely national hopes. The Persian period evolved the synagogue and, so, the congregational type of worship. The Greek period added cultural and human emphasis to the Jewish sacrificial ideal. The Roman dominance affected the interpretation of many parts of the New Testament.

The second lecture was on the Epistle to the Hebrews in which the speaker sketched the spiritual lapse in some unknown early Jewish Christian community and showed how, in Christ, and Christianity, ultimate and satisfying truth and reality are found. In this Epistle platonic mysticism and the philosophy of the relation of the seen and the unseen were used in the quest of truth.

The third lecture outlined the attempts in ancient and modern times to understand Christ's personality and gave a modern attempt to express the doctrine of the Incarnation. Asserting the essential likeness of the divine and human and showing how God indwells all life in different degrees and how human lives dwell in each other, the lecture substituted modern psychological terms and ideas for the ancient, unintelligible Greek ones still used in official definitions and showed how the human personality of Christ was a complete expression of God. In Christ man sees what God is like.

"One thing should be learned and I believe in many cases is being learned, that is that a much simpler life will provide all that is necessary for comfort and happiness.

"Perforce many of the luxuries have had to be discarded, and people have found, that they have been missed little."

A business man of Montreal stated to His Lordship during his recent visit east that his income had been reduced two-thirds but, in the simpler life he was compelled to live, he was happier than he had been for years. "When we think of the happiness of our earlier years, when conditions were simple in the extreme, we cannot help but think that the artificialities of life today have added little to the real enjoyment."

Reliance Upon God

"Our reliance upon God can only be justified when our prayer does not go beyond the prayer which Jesus taught us to use: 'Give us this day our daily bread.'"

"Paul could be content even when going through such difficulties as few men today endure and it should be in our own lives and in our teachings that our demands should be limited, our needs modest. The church has the great duty to perform of lifting up Christ, lifting him up as the savior of the world and lifting him up as the example for the world."

"If that Savior is accepted and His example followed by even those who in word acknowledge Him, the world's problems would be solved and we would be brought to our desired haven."

"That God's richest blessing may rest upon the church everywhere, and especially on the Diocese of Caledonia, and that His guidance and wisdom will be bestowed upon this Synod is the very sincere prayer of your friend and bishop."

Local woman was unable to keep her eyes open and see well, so consequently she would always have her eyes half closed. Had been wearing glasses but still her eyes were always partly closed. A thorough examination by G. F. Davey, Registered Optometrist in charge of the Optical Dept. of Max Heilbronner, Jeweler, revealed a very bad case of astigmatism, the proper glasses made especially to suit this particular case immediately corrected the error and she has no trouble keeping her eyes open now and reading is a pleasure.

You Can Kick All You Like The Fact Remains--- that you can't send money out of town—money that might as well be spent here—and expect Prince Rupert to be busy! Send your business away—then local merchants, both wholesale and retail cannot find employment for your sons and daughters. And your out-of-town merchant will not employ them.

Send your business away—and you help pay taxes in some other town, to our own town's loss.

Keep on sending your business away—your own taxes will increase still further than they are now.

It is good business to trade at home—good for you in the long run and good for your fellow citizens—good for your home town and good for your sons and daughters. Don't be penny-wise and pound-foolish! Money circulated in Prince Rupert gives employment to Prince Rupert people. Money sent out of town creates unemployment here. Any supposititious saving you imagine, by artful description from the big town, you may make at the time, you don't, in the end. And the whole town loses when your money goes away. Prince Rupert has been good to you. Be good to yourself!

Salmon Packing Starts Next Week—Many Boats Get on Fishery Patrol—Power Cruiser Argo Changes Hands

Fishing for sockeye salmon in District No. 2, of which Prince Rupert is the centre, will get under way at midnight tomorrow after which time canning of fish will become general on the Skeena and Naas Rivers. There will be nine canneries operating on the Skeena River this summer as compared with eight last year while, on the Naas River, three canneries will be in operation whereas there was but one in 1931. In the central area two canneries will be in operation this year which is the same number as in 1931.

The packers will concentrate this summer on the choice and higher-priced sockeye variety of salmon and there is still some doubt as to just how extensive will be the production of the lower-priced seine-fish of the fall.

Canneries in operation on the Skeena River this year will be Porcher Island, Claxton, Carlisle, B. A. (Port Essington), Balmoral, Haysport, Cassiar, Sunnyside and Inverness. The plant which did not operate last year was Balmoral.

On the Naas River Arrandale, which operated last year, Mill Bay and Wales Island will be packing this year.

In the central area, Butedale and Namu canneries are to be in operation. There is still some doubt as to which canneries will operate in the Bella Coola, Rivers Inlet and Smith's Inlet seining areas where fall varieties will be largely put up and where canning does not usually start until later in the season. Canning plans for the Queen Charlotte Islands are also uncertain as yet but it is expected Langara at New Massett will be the only plant to operate and it will be on a limited scale.

Between 900 and 1000 licences have been issued for the Skeena River this year which figure is about the same as in 1931.

Among Prince Rupert vessels, most of them fishing boats, which have been successful in getting charters from the Fisheries Department for fisheries patrol work this summer are the halibut boats Joe Baker (Capt. Clarence Campbell), Ringleader (Capt. Thomas D. bound from North Island to Butedale in the Edenshaw.

Several of the Seattle halibut boats which are engaged in fishing in Hecate Straits waters have called at Prince Rupert for bait during the past week. These included the Wireless, Westford, Maddock, Summer and Restitution most of which are making regular deliveries of their catches at Seattle.

A bulletin issued by the United States Bureau of Fisheries shows that there has been more than double the halibut landed at Seattle this year than last. Up to the end of April halibut landings at Seattle totalled 5,324,379 pounds as compared with 2,126,924 pounds in the same period of last year. At Prince Rupert American landings up to the end of April this year are placed at 1,631,900 pounds and Canadian at 1,325,000. Last year there had been no halibut landed here up to the end of April. Alaska landings for this year up to April 30 totalled 2,875,677 pounds as against 3,574,558 in the corresponding period last year. At Vancouver landings for this year up to the end of April totalled 217,700 pounds as against 384,000 pounds last year while Vancouver Island landings up to the date in question this year amounted to 55,800 pounds as against 39,800 pounds last year.

Argo Changes Hands

One of the trimmest and best known vessels of the Prince Rupert pleasure boat fleet changed hands recently when Norman Kinslor purchased the power cruiser Argo from Mrs. G. G. Bushby. The Argo, which was acquired by the late G. G. Bushby from J. D. Lawrence several years ago, had been used as a service boat between Prince Rupert in Tucks Inlet. The vessel is 26 feet long and is equipped with a 20 h.p. Kermath gasoline engine. The new owner plans on making a number of improvements.

A good-sized Indian power cruiser, which was paying a visit to port, anchored at the mouth of Cow Bay just west of the Prince Rupert Rowing & Yacht Club's floats on Wednesday night and, early in the morning, filled and sank after having become stranded on a rock which had, apparently, not been noticed by the native navigators when they hoove to. There were several

Back To Sweden? natives sleeping on board the vessel and they had a narrow escape. Later in the day, the sunken vessel was towed into shore and beached near the floats where it is now being dried out. The craft suffered little damage as a result of the immersion which was complete.

Having in tow a scow of box lumber from the Billmor Spruce Mills plant at Porpoise Harbor for delivery to Vancouver, Pacific Salvage Co.'s power tug Salvage Princess, Capt. Frank Tyler, left at 11 o'clock on Thursday morning of this week for the south. It is expected the vessel will be away for about two weeks.

The Fisheries Department is now using the floats of the Pacific Salvage Co. for the mooring of its patrol vessels while in port. The department's own float on the local waterfront was wrecked by a gale last winter after which it was towed to Digby Island.

Harry Scott, he of Baker Inlet hand logging fame, having come to the conclusion that his labors of the past winter and spring had warranted and earned him a well-merited vacation, suited the thought with action, and arrived in port on Monday aboard his gasboat Lila and has since been a prominent figure in his automobile on the streets of our fair city. Harry is not certain as to how long he will be able to stand vacationing but, if things get tiresome here, he may take a jaunt south. Before leaving Baker Inlet, he made a shipment of logs to the Big Bay Lumber Co.'s sawmill here.

Changes Boats

D. S. Cameron, fisheries inspector for the central division with headquarters at Swanson Bay, arrived in port on Thursday afternoon with the patrol cruiser Onerka II, which he has been using of late, and transferred here to his regular boat, the Senepa, on which he left on his return down the coast yesterday. The Onerka II will leave soon for the Queen Charlotte Islands, her regular station.

Minor repairs are being made on the fish floor of the Royal Fish Co. fish handling plant on the local waterfront.

Jim Hunter, well known local blacksmith, has joined Capt. Tom Smith as a member of the crew of the halibut boat Ringleader which is to be engaged in fisheries patrol work this summer.

Ron Pitcher and Jack Macfie, employees of the woodworking department at the local dry dock, are at present at Esquimalt taking their annual courses of training as members of the local unit of the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve.

The lighthouse tender Birnie has been undergoing annual overhaul at the local dry dock, incidentally having a new tailshaft installed. Other boats which have recently been on dry dock for cleaning and painting have included the halibut-tenders Livingstone, Southend and P. Dorreen and the Indian Department's cruiser Naskeena.

A 10-foot rowboat has been built at the local dry dock for A. J. Squire.

Halibut Landings

Halibut landings at the port of Prince Rupert for the 1932 season up to and including yesterday had reached a total of 5,496,090 pounds as compared with 6,386,540 pounds at a similar date last year. Landings of American fish so far this season have totalled 3,542,000 pounds as against 3,585,340 pounds so far last year while this year's Canadian landings to date total 1,953,750 pounds in comparison with 2,801,200 pounds up to the same date in 1932.

During the week ending yesterday landings totalled 402,500 pounds of which American vessels brought in 364,000 pounds and Canadian 38,500 pounds. The price situation saw little change from the preceding week with Canadian boats receiving a high of 5.2c and 2c which the Gibson received for 7,000 pounds and American a high price of 6.8c and 2c which the Ethel received for 4,500 pounds. The low Canadian price of the week was 4.5c and 2c and the low American, 4c and 2c.

Shef Thomson, caretaker of the Prince Rupert Rowing & Yacht Club floats, who is enjoying a month's vacation, will leave this evening on the Prince Rupert for Vancouver. He intends to go through to Soap Lake, Wash., for a visit to the hot springs at that point.

Back To Sweden?

A charming new portrait of the film siren, Greta Garbo, who recently announced that she would pass up her weekly $12,500 contract and return to Sweden.

Choir Picnic Is Enjoyable

Presbyterian Church Singers Had Outing on Digby Island

The choir of First Presbyterian Church had its annual picnic last evening on the sandy shores of Digby Island, about thirty persons being present at the outing which was very enjoyable to all.

Games were played, there was singing around the campfire and delicious refreshments were provided.

The picnickers made the trip across the harbor in Charlie Currie's power vessel C. R. C., leaving at 7:15 p.m. and returning home just before midnight. J. A. Teng and S. J. Hunter were in charge of arrangements for the outing.

Rev. Canon and Mrs. T. D. Proctor, who have been attending the synod of Caledonia diocese here during the past week, will leave on Monday's train on their return to Pouce Coupe via Edmonton. En route they will pay brief visits to Kitwanga and Hazelton.

DOES YOUR BUSINESS NEED A DOCTOR?

Now, Mr. Businessman, have you ever tried to diagnose the reason for that sudden drop in profit over the figures of "last month?" If the temperature of your business alarms you there is no need for you to lose any sleep—the remedy is simple.

ADVERTISE

"Ah!" you say, "But that's all very well. I'm only a small man and can't afford it." That's the reason the small man remains a small man. The big men in business today did not become big by hiding their light under a bushel, they advertised, and Advertised, and ADVERTISED. Advertising is as necessary to a "sick" business as the doctor's services are to a sick person. And it will find the money to pay its own bills, if done judiciously, from the increased volume of increased profits. Start with a small appropriation
