NEWS OF THE MINES AROUND PRINCE RUPERT

Development of Whitewater Property In Taku River Country Suspended For Winter—Greater Progress In Interior Expected

According to word received here, development work on the Whitewater property in the Taku River district which has been carried out for Noah Timmins and associates has been closed down owing to freezing of diamond drills. The crew employed on the work has left for the south. It is understood that operations will be resumed on the property in the spring on a rather large scale.

Donald C. Simpson of Smithers, in a lengthy letter in the Interior News, discusses the purchasing power of the Orient in connection with the low price of silver. Mr. Simpson replies to certain statements on the matter which were recently made by Prof. H. F. Angus of the Department of Economics at the University of British Columbia.

L. S. McGill of Smithers thinks it particularly striking that capital has failed to take up many opportunities in gold-bearing deposits in the Omineca Mining Division. Where capital has been supplied points out Mr. McGill, outstanding success has been achieved during the year notably in the silver-lead mines such as Cronin's in the Babine Range and Silver Lake on Hudson Bay Mountain. Much greater progress in these is now assured for 1932.

O. B. Bush, one of the original owners of the Premier mine in the Portland Canal district, is now engaged in developing three groups of gold mining claims on Texada Island on the lower coast. Before undertaking development of these properties, Mr. Bush made an electro-magnetic survey of the ground and this disclosed what is believed to be the true vein system of the area. Mr. Bush believes that a real gold producing area will be established on the island. He recently closed down work for the winter.

'God' Is Subject Science Church Service Sunday

The subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches and societies on Sunday was "God." Among the Bible texts included in the lesson-sermon was the following from Isaiah 51:4: "Hearken unto me, my people; and give ear unto me, O my nation; for a law shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgment to rest for a light of the people."

The lesson-sermon also included the reading of citations from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, one passage being as follows: "God is the lawmaker, but He is not the author of barbarous codes. In infinite Life and Love there is no sickness, sin nor death, and the Scriptures declare that we live, move, and have our being in the infinite God."

NEW HAZELTON

J. E. Terry, provincial poultry inspector, who is well known here, declares that one of the benefits of the depression has been that it has impelled poultrymen to sell off their weaker and inferior birds as a result of which they have gone through the present winter in better shape than at any time within the past twenty years.

People of the interior are beginning to agitate for the completion of the road from Smithers into the Babine district via Cronin mine. Building of such a road would bring a great deal of new business into Smithers.

The funeral took place from St. James Anglican Church and under the auspices of the Elks last Monday afternoon of Robert Heddle, well known district blacksmith who died suddenly in the Smithers Hospital on Christmas Eve. The late Mr. Heddle was 55 years of age and first came to this district in 1911 when he located at Hazelton.

Aided by several falls of snow, ski jumps in this district are rapidly getting into good, safe shape and this popular winter sport will soon be under way here as well as elsewhere in the district.

Sons of Canada are now leading the local hockey league with seven points. The Elks have five points and the Canadian Legion two.

Canadian Legion and Canadian National Recreation Association teams are tied for second place in the local cribbage league. Native Sons of Canada are of top and Elks remain in the cellar.

This company has received a contract for 10,000 ties to be sublet out in the Palling and Decker Lake districts.

The RECORD SPEAKS for ITSELF

In opening the Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto on Friday, August 28, Earl Jellicoe said: "Over a period of 52 years, the population of Canada has increased by 6,900,000; the revenue of the Government from $22,000,000 to $160,000,000 and the value of her trade from $169,000,000 to $2,400,000,000. In the same time, her manufactures have increased ten-fold and her crop acreage three-fold. This remarkable record encourages a feeling of optimism for the future."

Earl Jellicoe also made the following reference: "Canada's record growth constitutes an achievement of world importance and stands as a challenge to future progress. This phenomenal growth is the direct result of that splendid courage and determination which the people of Canada showed so strikingly from 1914-1918".

The record for public favour which is held by Turret Cigarettes is the natural outcome of quality consistently maintained throughout the years. After all, nothing can replace good, honest tobacco; grown and ripened right out in the field under nature's own sunlight—nothing artificial about that—and the high quality is "inbred".

WAS GREAT MILITARIST

General Paul Pau Had Long Career As Soldier of France

Lost One Arm

Was Prominent in Franco-Prussian and Great War

PARIS, Jan. 4.—When the crushed and beaten armies of France returned to what was left of their dismembered country after the Franco-Prussian war of 1870, there was among them a young officer—Paul Gerald Pau—who had entered the service as a cadet and fought his way through to a captaincy. The then young man who was destined to become one of France's greatest soldiers, died here yesterday.

If there was one man with those retreating defenders whose spirit was unconquered, his name was Captain Pau. Maimed and saddened though he was, he could not feel for a moment that his beloved France was vanquished. Her ultimate triumph, he believed, had merely been postponed, and the day would yet come when he could face again those powerful invaders from the North.

Through the long years that intervened between 1870 and 1914, he took his place as one of the most patient and confident of the architects who planned and prepared for a return match with the victors. During this period he had advanced at a steady pace until he became, in 1911, a Brigadier-General and a member of the Supreme War Council of France. At this point he was retired because of his age.

Then came the great day for which he had waited so long. As all Europe became a vast mobilization camp, the old fire flamed out again in General Pau, and by popular demand he reentered the Supreme Council of War to accept command of the Army of Alsace. It was there that his right forearm had been shot away in the battle of Froeschwiller, back in 1870.

"Prussians," he said on that day "I have but one arm, but it shall be bronze."

There was dramatic grandeur in the spectacle of that brave old veteran engaged once again, after nearly half-a-century, on the same battlefield and against the same foe, and this time turning the defeats and sorrows of his youth into brilliant victories to glorify his advancing years.

To the Germans of Alsace, the French general was known as "Von Pau." This was not so much from their habit of attributing nobility to officers as out of respect for the power of that "arm of bronze."

In World War When the World War began General Pau was regarded in a military sense as ranking with Generals Joffre and Gallene, but in popular favor he far outstripped any figure in the French army. It was only because of his age and his none too robust health that he was not made a Field Marshal early in the conflict.

Upon several occasions General Pau was the object of national movements to do him honor. Once a sword was purchased by popular subscription and offered to him by a committee of his admirers. General Pau refused it politely but firmly, declaring:

"Such recompense must be reserved for the one who shall lead our victorious armies beyond Metz and Strasburg, beyond the Rhine, to the very heart of the German Empire."

At another time the whole of France joined in a movement to have him created Commander of the Army of the Republic. When this failed because of a change of government, he was tendered the newly-made post of Inspector-General. His letter refusing this offer was characteristic.

"My one arm," he wrote, "is always at the service of my country but in times of peace I need it for the support of my family."

General Paul, Mary Cesar Pau was born at Montellimar, November 29, 1848. After obtaining a common school education, he entered the Saint Cyr military academy, the West Point of France, from which he was graduated just before the Franco-Prussian War.

General Pau visited the United States for a few days in 1919, coming to New York after a tour of Canada.

SERVICES IN CAMPS

The need of religious work being carried on in the unemployment relief camps in British Columbia was discussed at the regular monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert Ministerial Association this morning and some means of having this work accomplished were devised and will be presented to the proper authorities.

Carrying on of winter relief activities were also discussed and certain plans for preventing overlapping, etc. next year were made. Members of the association were assigned to Sunday services in the Prince Rupert General Hospital and to the weekly sermons for publication.

Rev. W. D. Grant Hollingworth, president of the association, was in the chair, and there was a good attendance of members.

If I went upstairs I would have to sit down when I reached the top. Finally a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I took them, and had the color come

United States Navy and Army Meet in Sport

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—Announcement is expected momentarily of a resumption of athletic relations between the Army and Navy. A football game will probably be played on December 3.

John Willman, well known mining and lumber man of Usk, returned to the interior on this afternoon's train following a business visit of a few days to town.

WAS VERY UNPOPULAR

Nina Curvich Said to Have Been Given Raw Deal in Fight With Freddie Mack at Juneau

It was a very unfair decision which was given against Nina Curvich of Prince Rupert in his fight with Freddie Mack at Juneau on New Year's Eve, according to word which has been received here from the Alaska Capital.

In the third round Nina was sent down for a three count but sprang right up again only to find the referee raising Mack's arm as being the winner of the bout. Mack was staggering himself at this juncture, having been saved from a knock-out only by the bell at the end of the second round.

So unpopular was the action of the referee in giving the fight to Mack that a veritable riot ensued. For a while it looked like serious trouble but police intervention finally settled things down.

Arrangements have already been made for Nina to fight again at Juneau either in February or July. His opponent will be either Mack or Miles Murphy. It was the latter whom Nina was originally signed to meet in the New Year's Eve bout.

PR. DAVID AT HALIFAX

Holiday Ship Reached Nova Scotia Port Last Night Following Cruise

HALIFAX, Jan. 4.—The cruise ship Prince David of the Canadian National Steamship fleet, with Capt. A. J. Gilbert, native of North Devon, N.B., in command, arrived in Halifax last night after having had a most delightful trip from Vancouver via the Panama Canal.

Christmas Day saw the ship passing through the Canal with Santa Claus on board who distributes gifts to all the passengers from a brilliantly decorated Christmas Tree.

New Year's Day was a gala occasion with a piper piping in the Haggis which was borne aloft behind the pipes. All the passengers joined heartily in the festivity and it will be a day long remembered by them.

Among those on board were R. G. Cunningham and Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Woodland of Prince Rupert.

The Prince David will sail from Halifax about Wednesday next for Boston where she will go into service in a series of seven cruises from Boston to Havana, Cuba via Kingston, Jamaica, calling at Cristobal, Panama Canal, the first cruise, leaving Boston on Saturday January 9. These cruises will cover over four thousand miles and should prove very popular.

The Prince David is a finely appointed ship and a wonderful sea boat and has been dubbed "The Canadian National Flyer" on account of her great speed. She is capable of about twenty-five knots.

Percy Tinker Has Another Severe Fall

While leaving the Parkin home on Borden Street, where he resides, for his office this morning, G. P. Tinker had another fall and it is feared that his knee has been broken again in the same place where it was fractured last summer. Mr. Tinker is to enter the Prince Rupert General Hospital this afternoon for x-ray examination and treatment. Friends will regret to hear of Mr. Tinker's accident and will hope that it is not as serious as feared.

Capt. E. Morrison, well known skipper of Yukon and White Pass Co. river boats, and Mrs. Morrison were passengers aboard the Princess Mary yesterday afternoon going through to Vancouver. They will spend three or four months in the south.

Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.
 Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication.
 Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.
