PRESIDENT HOOVER IS AGAIN IN FIELD

WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan. 15.—President Herbert Hoover was formally registered yesterday as a candidate for the 1932 Republican presidential election. HOUSE WAS DESTROYED

Much Damage Done to Building on Eight Avenue East in Early Morning Blaze

A vacant house on Eighth Avenue East near the corner of Cotton Street owned by John Carroll and being prepared for occupancy by Mrs. Helen Macfie was practically destroyed by an early morning blaze today. Adjoining residences were also threatened for a while by the spectacular blaze but were saved by the efforts of the fire department.

It was at 5 a.m. that the fire department received the call from George Grosvenor, one of the neighbors. By the time the firemen arrived, the blaze had assumed considerable proportions and flames were issuing from all parts of the structure including the roof. The blaze could be seen for many blocks.

Two lines of hose were used and, finally, the blaze was brought under control. An adjoining house occupied by John Johansen caught fire two or three times but the flames were put out each time.

Damage to the house where the fire occurred may amount to two or three thousand dollars. There is insurance coverage. The house occupied by Johansen, also owned by Carroll, was scorched but was not seriously damaged.

Although the furnace had been lit in the burned house, it is believed the fire originated in the top part of the building. During the day kalsomining had been in progress in the house in preparation for the new tenant.

CONGRATULATIONS TO WINNERS

The Daily News offers its congratulations to the winners in the municipal election. While it indicates that the people are satisfied with the work of the council of last year it also indicates that the Labor members stood very high in favor. Alderman Rudderham, who headed the poll, was last year chairman of the board of works and gave a great deal of time to it. He undoubtedly did good work and had the large vote coming to him. Alderman James Black was an active member of the finance committee and proved very helpful in that capacity. Alderman Pillsbury, who was on the board of works with Alderman Rudderham, brought his engineering experience to the work with good results. He did not have a committee working for him or cars at his disposal yesterday as did the labor candidates. George Casey, the fourth alderman, has held the position many times before and will be a valuable addition to the council.

For the school board Arthur Brooksbank has not been to the fore much in public affairs except as secretary of the chamber of commerce. His vote was a very large one. W. O. Fulton has served on the board before. D. C. Schubert, who was elected for the one-year term, was the adopted candidate of the Trades & Labor Council and should prove an excellent member.

The people of the city should feel that their affairs are safe in the hands of the men chosen. Doubtless their watchword will be economy, for there will be little money to spend. We wish them every success.

ANOTHER RUMOR DENIED

It had been persistently rumored that Prince Rupert's member, T. D. Pattullo would not seek re-election in the city but would accept an offer from one of the constituencies in the south. Probably the wish was father to the thought for there are many in the city who would feel they had a better chance of winning the election for the opposite side if T. D. were out of the way. With him there the case seems hopeless.

Prince Rupert is not likely to forego the opportunity of being the constituency returning the Premier of the province, for it is generally rumored in the south that after next election T. D. will be the Premier. At any rate he has a pretty good running chance, judging by the results in Columbia recently.

T. D. Pattullo has been member for Prince Rupert for sixteen years and every indication points to his sitting for the same constituency for another term.

TARIFF IS CONSIDERED

Japan Is To Seriously Consider Protective Imports

TOKIO, Japan, Jan. 15—Japan is seriously considering the advisability of adopting a protective tariff policy, and sentiment in favor of such action has been greatly strengthened since the adoption of the new British Tariff enforcing an additional 50 per cent. duties on manufactured goods, including coke, iron and steel.

The world tendency is turning in the direction of protective tariffs and Japan is alive to this situation. An investigation has been started preparatory to general tariff revision, and the Japan Economic League has drafted a plan concerning the matter. Three leading Japanese capitalists and industrial leaders, Baron Goh, Baron Takama Dan and Kasuyate Kimura, have started a movement to increase the duties on iron and steel. Japan's two largest trading concerns, the Mitsui and Mitsubishi, as well as most other big business organizations, are now inclined in favor of protection.

Opinion of the government and private interests on the question of tariff agree that a protective policy should be adopted in favor of protection, the contention being that it will no longer be advantageous for Japan to continue as a free trade country against the universal trend to the contrary. The duties are likely to be increased on agricultural as well as manufactured articles.

Japan's exports to Britain in 1930 amounted to about $30,000,000 and the imports from Britain were slightly more than $45,000,000 in value. An excess of imports always features Japan's trade with Great Britain.

Japanese exports, such as raw silk, canned provisions, peas, vegetable oil, grease, fish oil, whale oil, rayon, waste silk, lumber, gelatine and others, all for Britain, have been excluded from the recent tariff revision in London. Those directly affected by the new British tariff are hosiery, silk textiles, brushes, toys, hats, buttons, porcelain and other refined and manufactured goods.

H. B. Morley, Penticton, Grand Master of the Masonic Lodge for British Columbia, after paying official visits here and at Anyox, sailed on the Prince Rupert last night for Vancouver enroute to his home in the Okanagan country.

Prince Rupert

THE FRONT DOOR OF THE PEACE RIVER COUNTRY

Economy is the keynote of all activities today. No money is expended unless it is looked upon as an absolute necessity.

It is at a time like this when the advantages of the Pacific outlet to the sea should be recognized by all Canadians. It is the hope of a very large section of the country, particularly of that new and rapidly growing young empire through which the Peace River flows.

PRINCE RUPERT WAS BUILT TO BE THE WESTERN OUTLET

the logical point from which the grain of the Peace should be shipped. There are other points which might be made available but the railway is already built into Prince Rupert from Edmonton by the best grade of any line on the continent. The port is already here and a fine elevator ready to receive the grain. No expense is necessary except for the piece of railway connecting the existing Peace River railways with the main line of the Canadian National at some point between Hansard and the coast. With that operated jointly by the two big railway companies and with the C. P. R. granted suitable running privileges over the C. N. R. to enable them to do business on an equality with their competitor, the business of hauling grain to the Pacific by the best possible route can commence.

While this is a time when strictest economy is being practised everywhere, it is a time when the employment of labor in a large way is eminently desirable. Men are out of work and must be fed. The reasonable thing would be to set them to work on big undertakings of a productive nature and this Peace River Pacific outlet is one that lends itself to the purpose, especially if one of the longer and more economical routes such as that to Hazelton should be adopted.

SETTLERS ARE STILL POURING INTO THE PEACE COUNTRY

The towns are growing into cities and the villages into towns. The people are a unit in demanding a western outlet and they have adopted the Prince Rupert attitude which is that it be built by the most feasible route to the coast.

The location of this route means everything to the country. If it should be built south instead of west and should go by a tortuous route with mountain grades instead of by way of a perfect water grade to the sea, it would mean that high freight rates would be set to enable the railways to earn dividends under the difficult circumstances. A case in point is that of the C. P. R. which was built through the difficult Kicking Horse Pass and as a result of which a mountain differential had to be established.

It would be little short of a crime to place a permanent embargo on all western shipments from the Peace River country, especially at a time when people are looking for the most economical way of carrying on the business of the country and enabling the farmers to compete with grain growers in other countries to the best advantage. The interests of the grain growers should be paramount. Any line that is built should be for the purpose of serving them and not to advantage any particular port or district.

PRINCE RUPERT IS THE PORT OF THE WESTERN ROUTE

for the products of Northern Alberta and British Columbia. The port has one of the finest harbors in the world, open all the year round and easily accessible from the ocean. It has one of the most up-to-date elevators suited for terminal shipping purposes. It has docks suited for deep sea shipping, a large dry dock and shipyard and other conveniences that go to the making of a port, such as a quarantine station, wireless and radio telephone stations. Nothing is lacking. The port is ready for business, the railway is ready to carry the grain and all that is needed is the western connection with it from the Peace country.

It would seem the part of statesmanship for any government to enable such modern facilities to be used for the benefit of the Peace River farmers and at the same time to provide employment for that army of men who today are clamoring for honest jobs to enable them to live as decent citizens of Canada.

HUGE ARENA NEAR READY

Lake Placid Getting Ready For Olympic Winter Games

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Jan. 15.—Nine miles of steel pipe are being laid on the floor of the new Olympic arena to carry the brine that will freeze the "great indoor ice sheet" on which the figure-skating and curling competitions and part of the hockey schedule of the III Olympic Winter Games here next February will be contested.

The pipes, an inch and a quarter in diameter, will be imbedded in a mixture of concrete and steel shavings. Over this the ice sheet will be frozen.

Construction of the arena began last August and is being pushed rapidly to completion. The building will be finished about the early part of January and will be formally dedicated on January 16 during the annual convention of the New York State Publisher's Association.

The Lake Placid arena represents an investment of approximately $225,000. It is 238 feet by 143 feet wide. Inside the ice sheet will measure approximately 83 by 197 feet. Over 3,000 spectators can be accommodated during the Olympic Games.

For the first time in the history of the Winter Games inclement weather cannot interrupt either the hockey schedule or the figure skating competitions.

Mr. Cromie spoke too of the connection with the Peace as the outstanding provincial undertaking, and urged co-operation of the people of the whole province in pressing for it.

Talk with Victoria

W. J. Raymond spoke then with J. Tait, business manager of the Victoria Colonist, who invited him to be present at a meeting of pressmen to be held in the south soon. While unable to accept the invitation, Mr. Raymond expressed pleasure at being able to talk to Victoria and at the excellent facilities for it. O. H. Nelson of the same newspaper also spoke to Mr. Raymond and said he could recognize the local voices quite clearly.

Colonel J. W. Nicholls, talking to Mr. Halse, president of the Northwest Telephone Co., said this little ceremony was giving every satisfaction. He congratulated him and Mr. Hamilton on the success of their efforts.

Mr. Halse remarked on the number of isolated points that could be served by this means. It had at first been looked upon as a dream and it was a great satisfaction to have it materialize. He wanted to give every credit to C. H. McLean, who had been in charge at first and whose work had brought it about. He was also pleased with the co-operation received from the northern part of the country.

Mr. Nicholls expressed heartiest congratulations to Mr. Halse on his new baby. So far as the fishing industry was concerned he was sure they would benefit. He told Mr. Halse of the wonderful weather here with the sun shining.

Mr. Hamilton thanked all who had participated after which Thomas McClymont called up his sister-in-law and talked to her in Vancouver and some other messages went through.

HUNTER HAS FREAK DEER

Dwarf Animal Captured In Cowichan District Ideal Playmate For Children

DUNCAN, Jan. 15.—When Albert Holman, cougar hunter, saw an apparently fully developed deer, only two feet high, bounding across his path the other day, he blinked, imagining his eyes were playing pranks on him.

However, he soon convinced himself of the reality of the spectacle and set off in pursuit. A few minutes later he was carrying home the little animal he calls Rosie—for no special reason—and veteran hunters throughout the Cowichan country say they have never seen a creature just like Rosie before. Just as there are dwarfs among human beings, there are occasionally similar freaks among wild animals. Rosie proves it. As she stands this deer is about two feet six inches from head to tail and only fourteen inches tall at the shoulders. Her head is fawn-like, but her body has a more mature appearance. Experts say she is about eighteen months old and she will never grow any bigger. Her weight is about twenty pounds.

That Rosie must have had a good mother and that it is a wonder the little animal is alive today, is the belief of woodsmen, who wonder how Rosie managed to get along in the woods or being killed by cougars. The miniature deer—Rosie says she makes an ideal playmate for the children—has a good now, and a few hours after the capture was quite tame.

Rosie can run about the speed of a man. Not one of her legs is alike. The front legs are long and thin, but those elongated, bow-legged hind legs.

This year it was reported that a deer was shot near Cowichan that two Nanaime hunters shot a deer with only legs, but which was of great growth.

 The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.
 Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication.
 Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.

Splendid Progress Reported at Annual Vestry Meeting of St. Peter's Last Night

The annual vestry meeting of St. Peter's Anglican Church was held in the church building last night. There was a large attendance and much enthusiasm was displayed by the congregational gathering.

The report of the rector showed a satisfactory increase in every department of church work, particularly the Sunday School.

The report of the secretary-treasurer was highly encouraging. In spite of depression, it was revealed that every financial obligation of the church had been met. This satisfactory situation prevailed also in the face of extra financial strain occasioned through the building during the past year of the new church hall.

The report of the Women's Auxiliary was greeted with hearty applause. It revealed remarkable efforts that had been made and outstanding results which had been achieved. Among other things, the Women's Auxiliary had assumed the responsibility for the paying off of $500 which had been borrowed in connection with the erection of the new hall. As a result the outstanding indebtedness for which the hall committee was responsible amounted to only $150.

In spite of greatly increased enrollment and additional expenses occasioned thereby, the Sunday School report also showed a small financial balance.

The young people's societies and various clubs now come under the supervision of the hall committee.

New Vestry Members
The election of vestry members resulted as follows:

People's Warden and Secretary Treasurer, W. O. Vigar.
Clergyman's Warden, J. E. Boddie.
Lay delegate to general synod, Robert Blance.

Sidesmen, C. J. Norrington and W. B. Skinner.

Following the vestry meeting, there was a meeting of the hall committee. The resignation of the building committee, which had completed its purpose within a year after it had been formed, was accepted and a hearty vote of thanks was tendered for its splendid work, which had resulted in the erection of the new church hall.

The new hall committee consists of J. E. Boddie, chairman; C. J. Norrington, secretary-treasurer; rector and wardens ex-officio, a member appointed by the Woman's Auxiliary, and members elected by each of the senior associations of the church.

The hall is said to be the chameleon of the sea. It changes its color to suit the background against which it is moving.

GIFT MADE TO TOC H

Birthplace of Gladstone in Liverpool Presented to Organization

LIVERPOOL, Jan. 15.—The house in Rodney Street, Liverpool, which was the birth-place of W. E. Gladstone, the most famous statesman-orator of the Victorian era, has been presented to Toc H by his son Henry Neville Gladstone. Rodney Street, although nowadays in the down-town quarter of the Mersey City, still retains much of the atmosphere of an upper class residential area of the early Nineteenth Century. Many medical and surgical specialists of Liverpool have long been established there. Rodney Street, in fact, is the Harley Street of Liverpool.

Lord Derby, who performed the opening ceremony, remarked that he came from a family where Gladstone's name was revered, although he could not honestly say it was loved. As an illustration of Gladstone's knowledge on an immense variety of matters Lord Derby recalled that at the age of 20, when he had just joined the Grenadiers, he met Mr. Gladstone at tea at his uncle's house. He found out that Mr. Gladstone knew much more about the history of the Grenadiers than he did himself.

CLOYAH BAY AGAIN

Editor, Daily News:

Being asked specifically, and instructed by the meeting of citizens held recently, to reply to the public statement, by the resident engineer of the Public Works Dept. of this city I now comply with this request.

The questions were respectfully submitted to the gentleman in question, because of allegations of mal-administration of his Dept. in the matter of relief purchases. His answer, while couched in gentlemanly terms, reveals the nature of the writer, and it is unhesitatingly stated he is, intentionally or otherwise, "His Masters' Voice."

Had Mr. Gwyer simply answered the questions submitted, or referred the Unemployed Assn. to his superiors, all would have been well, but to permit himself to be led into personal opinionated statements was folly in the extreme.

Mr. Gwyer states he is one of these fortunate individuals who has never taken a meal as charity which however implies, that he has always had an opportunity of earning his sustenance, a more fortunate position than the majority of the workers of today. He states his contempt for the workless workers at Cloyah Bay, in that they have never offered to work for the board that is dispensed to them.

I note that another has taken up the question, and showed that the workers have produced all there is available, and proved that the acceptance of board without compensatory work, is not charity, but rather a belated percentage of their former production, and will not inflict upon your readers a similar treatise, but will dwell on Mr. Gwyer's contempt for the workless workers at Cloyah Bay.

It is acknowledged that there is no work to be performed, in fact it is lamented, but Mr. Editor, if there is no work being performed then the services of Mr. Gwyer himself are non-essential, or in other words, he himself is doing nothing. It is presumed that Mr. Gwyer draws a salary of possibly over $200.00 monthly, which according to the previous deduction is something for nothing, while the worker for whom he holds contempt, is getting away with a mere $20.00 per month. In other words the worker is a mere piker in his eyes, and is worthy of contempt. Personally if I could obtain such a pre-eminence of graft over my fellow men, I might feel constrained to hold such pickers in contempt.

Then Mr. Gwyer refers to his activities during 45 years and would appear to have a desire to set the clock back for that period, or attempt to be a modern Joshua, and have the sun stand still.

It is to be hoped that the sun of the present of the system, Production for profit, may hasten into the west, and Sun of righteousness and equality appear in the east, and the day of Production for use dawn upon long-suffering humanity. When such a day dawns, Mr. Gwyer and the rest of us, will be assured of equal responsibility in production, and a certainty of the means of existence.

Yours sincerely,
Secretary of the Unemployed Assn. of Prince Rupert, B.C.

ASSESSMENTS

Editor, Daily News:

Re: Your Assessment Editorial of the 13th

The City has made a false assessment every year since 1913. The Municipal Act directs that property be assessed for its "actual value." If you can find 20 bona fide sales of City lots since 1913 at or above the assessed value of that year in which the sale was made, I will buy you a new hat.

Here are some of the results of the false assessment:—
45% of City lots reverted to City for non-payment of taxes.

Arrears of taxes and accrued interest on them now amounts to $328,753. Is it worth ten cents on the dollar?

The City cannot sell its bonds, nor can it borrow from any source. It has destroyed its own credit.

Why does not the City try telling the truth for a change? It might bring us better luck.

Your very truly,
G. H. ARNOLD.

G. P. Tinker, who underwent an operation a few days ago following the breaking of his leg, continues to progress satisfactorily at the Prince Rupert General Hospital although it will probably be some time before he is able to leave the institution.

Cheapest Way of Reaching the People

The cheapest way of reaching practically all the people of Prince Rupert and district is by means of the classified columns of the Daily News.

Nearly everyone has something they could turn into cash through the "For Sale" column. Perhaps they have a house to rent. Here is the chance. Spend 50c on a classified advertisement and secure a tenant rather than have it idle.

If a girl wishes a position or a housewife wishes help, the best means of getting supplied is through a want ad.

Dressmakers sometimes want work; small store-keepers want to move their goods; or maybe you need an article that has been used rather than pay the price for new. Give the Daily News classified columns a trial. Many have been very pleased at the result.
