FALLACY EXPLODED

Beauharnois has been the means of casting a stigma on the men who had undertaken the work of financing the Liberal party during the past few years. Now it bids fair to cast a stigma on the Bennett Government and especially on its millionaire leader.

The finances of Beauharnois, largely as a result of the adverse publicity given the huge undertaking, have dwindled until today the concern faces bankruptcy and the Prime Minister suggests that the owners of the collateral trust bonds should foreclose, take over the concern and freeze out all the shareholders. In this event he suggests that his government might consider loaning them fifteen or sixteen million dollars of the people's money. That is the way in which we interpret the despatch which was sent out from Ottawa yesterday. If it is correct, we cannot let it pass without a protest.

The people in this section of Canada have been asking that money be expended on two large public works. One is the completion of the highway east from Prince Rupert and the other is the building of the western outlet of the Peace River country. We have been told that there is no money. The country is on the verge of bankruptcy and nothing can be done, even though there are thousands of men looking for work and cannot find any to do.

But Beauharnois is different. The bondholders in that huge corporation are the rich individuals and corporations in the east. In most cases the bonds are held by financial institutions or moneyed individuals, whereas the shares are sold around among the common people whose interests do not seem to count.

The suggestion of Premier Bennett that his government will under certain conditions loan money to Beauharnois to the extent of fifteen or sixteen million dollars explodes the idea that the government cannot get money for badly needed public works which would relieve unemployment.

New Share Transfer Tax Threatens Whole Market For Securities In States

Brokers Seriously Considering Advisability of Moving to Canada If Senate Approves Revenue Bill—Quarter-Point Tax Held Prohibitive

If the United States Senate passes the proposed one-quarter point stock transfer tax, the New York Stock Exchange may go out of business with transferring of trading to Montreal, in which case the Canadian metropolis would become the trading centre of the American continent. G. C. Walker of this city, who returned home yesterday after having spent the winter in New York, said last night that imposition of the one-quarter point tax would prove disastrous to the New York trading market. Brokers and others engaged in the business there are seriously considering moving to Montreal should the tax go through.

The new revenue bill, containing the stock transfer tax clause, has already passed the House of Representatives at Washington and is now before the Senate. Public hearings are at present being conducted and it is there that Richard Whitney, president of the New York Stock Exchange, is putting up a big fight with a view to having the stock tax thrown out.

New York traders are willing to have the stock transfer tax increased from 2c a share, as at present, to 4c but the quarter-point tax, which would mean 25c tax on a share selling at $1, would prohibit trading.

Since the House approved the tax, there has been a steady falling off in security values at New York. American Telephone, for instance, has dropped from $137, basking the dollar mark to sell at 99c yesterday.

Of course, if such a thing should happen as stock trading being moved from New York to Montreal, it would be a great boon to the city on the St. Lawrence and as great a blow to New York, Mr. Walker says. With unemployment conditions becoming worse rather than better, Mr. Walker is of the opinion that the United States has not reached the bottom of the depression yet. The country has been sliding so rapidly that it may take a long time to recover from the slump.

Much different is the situation today in United States as compared with Great Britain. In the Old Country there is a steady improvement in conditions generally while much the opposite is the case in the United States.

UNITY IS ASSURED

Grande Prairie Board Averts Division Over Outlet Routes

GRANDE PRAIRIE, April 20:—Danger that the united front of the whole Peace River area on the question of a coast outlet might be weakened by raising of the question of routes was dealt with promptly at an executive meeting of the Grande Prairie Board of Trade.

J. E. Thompson, chairman of the transportation committee, warned that various sections of the Peace area were being stirred to discussion of the various suggested routes. The following resolution was adopted unanimously:

"As there seems to be a move on foot to revive the old question of routes, which fact would further delay building of the coast outlet, we, the Grand Prairie Board of Trade, strongly advise that the matter of a route be left to the technical advisers of the government and the railway engineers."

Letter From Hinchliffe

Government Will Not Transfer Educational Costs Until After Full Consideration is Given

Before any move is made to transfer the entire cost of manual training, domestic science and commercial education from the province to the cities, careful consideration will be given the matter, Hon. Joshua Hinchliffe, minister of education, advised the local board of school trustees in a letter read at last night's meeting of the board. The letter from Mr. Hinchliffe was in answer to a letter sent by the board protesting against any such action.

A reply was also received from T. D. Pattullo, leader of the opposition and member of the Legislature for Prince Rupert, with whom a protest has been lodged as well by the board.

Fulton was delegated to make a final investigation of the possibilities of further retrenchments and report to the board at an early date when the estimates for the year will be finally passed upon.

The board conferred in private last evening with Inspector T. W. Hall on the question of economy with regard to maintenance of efficiency.

TO DEFINE AREAS SOON

Ottawa to Name Envoy to Fix Boundaries in Railway Belt and Peace River

OTTAWA, April 9:—Declaring that it was essential at the earliest possible date to have a clear understanding between the Province of British Columbia and the Dominion as to the location and boundaries of the several parcels of land in British Columbia, some of which are declared to be very valuable, Hon. Thomas Murphy, Minister of the Interior, told the House, answering a question by Thomas Reid, that the $3000 in the estimates was for the expenses of a commissioner to be named under the Act of 1930, which transferred the railway belt and Peace River block to British Columbia, who will be accompanied by a departmental expert, to investigate the titles of the ordinance and admiralty lands within and without the railway belt.

Mr. Reid asked the minister if the department of interior had taken over Garibaldi Park from British Columbia, and the minister answered: "No."

Asked by Mr. Reid if there was any limit to the area of a land that the Dominion might take over for a National park, the minister said that while generally there was no limit the department was not willing to accept an area which might be too small for that purpose.

VICTORIA, April 20:—Open abuse of pre-emption privileges in British Columbia confined to parts of the Peace River area will be stopped. The government is removing all pre-emption facilities in that area until further notice.

It was explained that, apart from genuine and satisfactory settlement in the Peace River district by farmers from the Saskatchewan drought areas, many so-called settlers arrived last year for no other purpose than to secure unemployment relief.

BRITISH BUDGET BALANCED

The British budget has been balanced. The pound is advancing in value and the country is on the road to prosperity. The bottom has been touched and the people have felt all the throes of enormous taxation and of national depression. Now Britain is a country of hopefulness.

Huge quantities of gold have poured into the country. Not only was there imported from India something like $250,000,000 in the yellow metal but the people at home have melted their jewellery and dug up their stored sovereigns.

The rise in the price of sterling has not been generally acceptable. The people in that country did not want it to rise. They were enjoying the depression of the currency and thriving on it. It is said that the depression of the American dollar and the consequent rise in sterling caused as much disquiet in London as it did in Washington.

BRITAIN PREPARING FOR CONFERENCE

Great Britain is preparing for the Ottawa conference by collecting data and formulating proposals, none of which will probably be known until the conference meets although it is possible that informal discussions will take place between the governments interested on various points that may possibly cause difference of opinion.

The great feature of the conference it is expected will be some sort of proposal for a general Empire preference over every other country. Today in Britain people are asking for Empire goods and demanding that they be supplied with them. In Canada public feeling is not so advanced, but even here Empire goods are given preference and serious complaint is made that goods from foreign countries are a drug on the market.

British Columbia will be particularly interested in the timber trade and also in the canned salmon business. Timber and salmon are exported to Britain in large quantities and they come into competition with similar goods from Russia and other countries. Canadian wheat is also used in large quantities in Britain, and as wheat is shipped through British Columbia ports it has a considerable interest for people living here.

Doubtless Premier Bennett will have definite proposals to make, just as he did at the previous Empire conference and his proposals will be looked for with great interest by the Canadian people.

LOOKING FOR RESULTS

Many people in Prince Rupert are looking for great results from the Ottawa Empire conference. If it has the result of stabilizing the salmon fishing industry it will be well worth while.

Whether steps will be taken at this conference to protect British nations from the dumping of Russian goods has not been intimated. At present Britain has a trade agreement with Russia which requires six months for its abrogation. In view of all the circumstances it is probable that any protective step will be of a general character and will apply to every foreign nation although it may be so arranged as to meet particular conditions which have arisen of late.

Discussing the trade situation with Russia recently Lord Lovat said:

"Our delegates to Ottawa will not only have in their possession full information of what the Empire can produce, but that both on the score of humanity and self-interest they will do what is possible to support any arrangement to increase the trade of those who trade with us and limit, so far as is commercially possible, trade with a nation that neither buys our goods nor competes in our markets on fair terms."

TAXES NOW POURING IN

"Magnificent" Results in England Are Recorded

LONDON (By Mail).—Although the financial year does not end till the last day of this month, Somerset House has already reached a verdict on the efforts of the income tax payers to meet the greatly increased demands of the past few months.

It is a one word verdict—"Magnificent!" The amount paid is already almost up to the estimate, while summonses for non-payment of tax are fewer than usual.

The latest figures available show that on March 12 the amount paid in income tax was only a little more than $3,000,000 short of the budget estimate of $272,000,000. By now the estimate must have been exceeded, and when final figures are available there is likely to be a surplus.

At the corresponding date last year the amount paid was $31,000,000 below the estimate, which was then $260,000,000, so that this year's payments show an increase of about $40,000,000.

"The small man has come up to scratch remarkably well," an official of the Inland Revenue said. "Our scheme for granting 'gentlemen's agreements' has worked very satisfactorily, and the agreements have been splendidly honored. The figures show that a gigantic effort has been made by taxpayers to balance the budget."

Effort Praiseworthy

"The effort is the more praiseworthy when it is remembered that this time, owing to Easter coming just at the end of the financial year, we are practically a week short. Summonses for non-payment are, if anything, below normal in numbers."

Defaulters, however, must not try to trespass on Somerset House's joy. To them the Inland Revenue will still turn the sternest countenances.

"Even though the estimate may be exceeded, the tax collectors will not relax towards those who have not yet paid—it would not be fair to those who have," said the official.

Surplus payers, though they have hardly done as well as income tax payers, have responded much better than last year. Their payments on March 12 amounted to $66,120,000 against an estimate of $73,000,000. At the corresponding date last year they had paid $54,900,000 out of $64,500,000.

Man in the Moon

For some time past I have been planning to take part in the Limerick competition for the five dollar Supreme coffee prize. Last night I went to sleep on my left side and courted the muse with the result that my pen unconsciously wrote the following, which I think should get the prize:

Consider the fate of Miss Garey
Who wanted to look like a fairy,
She good coffee discarded,
Her growth was retarded,
And now she is ugly and hairy.
Of quite different stamp is Miss Ream.

Who each morning drinks her Supreme,
She has skin that you love,
And a voice like a dove,
She and I'd make a wonderful team.

A seamstress was asked how was business and she replied: "Just sew, sew."

They were teaching the 23rd Psalm in Sunday School and the little modern girl on her return home informed her parents she had been memorizing it. She repeated, "The Lord is my chaffeur, I shall not walk."

An electrician's daughter should know waits wait.

"Yes, I'll buy a ticket," said Mr. Newrich, when asked if he would attend a whist drive. "I don't know anything about whist, but I shall enjoy the drive."

"What is the name of your car?" "I call her 'Shasta'."

"Because she's a 'daisy'?"

"No, because she has to have gas, she has to have oil, she has to have air, she has to have something all the time."

NEWS OF THE MINES

AROUND PRINCE RUPERT

To Resume Work on Unicorn—Atlin-Ruffner Looks Like Proven Mine—Still Hope For Big Missouri

John Hoyland, who returned recently to Stewart after a three months' visit in Seattle and Vancouver, states that he and his associates intend resuming development work on the Unicorn property, near the Premier, as soon as weather conditions permit. The work to be undertaken will consist of extending No. 3 tunnel and some surface prospecting. The work last year disclosed a very interesting condition that well warrants further work and greatly stimulated confidence in the property which is considered very promising.

Mr. Hershman arrived at Atlin recently with diamond drilling and other equipment which will be employed extensively during the coming season in further development of the Atlin-Ruffner property. The annual report of Atlin-Ruffner states that the surface showings on No. 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 veins have been prospected by means of a series of tunnels, open cuts, test pits and one shaft between elevations 4550 and 6400. The indicated lengths explored by these workings are No. 2 vein, 9000 feet and No. 4 vein, 6000 feet. The veins are mineralized with lead, zinc, copper, carrying values in gold and silver in widths of from four to 11 feet. Lenses of massive lead ore from one inch to seven feet in width occur in these structures. The ore body from the surface to the 4300-foot level shows 104,000 tons of positive ore. The development program for 1932 includes continuation of the main tunnel from No. 2 vein to prospect intermediate possibilities and cross-cut No. 4 vein series, continuation of drifting east and west on No. 2 vein. Drifting east and west on this structure is expected to outline the limits of the present ore body. No. 4 vein has been prospected along the strike by a series of tunnels, trenches and open cuts for a length of 6,000 feet. The ore showings in these veins indicate that this vein should be uniform in values and mineralization. The main tunnel is expected to cross-cut this vein at 1100 feet below the outcrop. Present positive ore reserves are declared to establish the property as a mine. Results to date indicate the possibility of the property developing into a large tonnage producer.

The following is quoted from the annual report of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co. in regard to the Big Missouri mine in the Portland Canal district: "While the results of the experimental mill do not indicate the presence of a commercial ore deposit in the workings so far opened up, they have demonstrated the existence of a gold-bearing zone in which very little greater concentration of values would spell success. This may be found in other sections of the property or on a lower level." In 1932 Consolidated spent $175,397 in developing Big Missouri.

The president of the Woman's Auxiliary, Mrs. W. J. Greer, received the guests, being assisted by Mrs. J. B. Gibson, wife of the Dean. The tea room was in charge of Mrs. E. W. Tucker, convener. Mrs. Thomas Andrew and Mrs. George Rorie poured and those assisting in serving were Mrs. Bert West, Mrs. W. A. McLean, Mrs. G. J. Dawes, Mrs. C. E. Cullin, Mrs. C. W. Homer, Mrs. C. Ellison, Mrs. W. H. Smeaton, Mrs. A. H. Waddington, Mrs. George Grosvenor and Miss Beagley. Acting as cashier for the afternoon was Mrs. F. A. MacCallum.

Ladies in charge of the various tables were as follows: Fancy Work and Aprons—Mrs. P. M. Rayner and Mrs. S. V. Cox. Plants—Mrs. R. L. McIntosh, convener. Mrs. W. C. Aspinall and Miss Aileen Gibson.

Home Cooking—Mrs. J. G. Johns and Mrs. A. R. Nichols. Candy—Mrs. C. V. Evitt and Mrs. G. O. Treleven.

During the afternoon a brief but delightful musical program was offered. Mrs. S. A. Kielback played piano selections and there were vocal solos by Mrs. F. W. Allen and Mrs. Ernest Anderson with Mrs. E. J. Smith and Mrs. C. E. Cullin as accompanists.

SPENDING TO SAVE.. THROUGH

Advertising

Not many of us, these days, are troubled with so much money that we cannot spend it. But we are interested in spending the money we have, to get the most out of it.

One way—and not a new way, either—is to make a budget. Put down, week by week, the money that comes in. Put down beside it, week by week, the money that goes out. So much for food, so much for clothing, so much for rent. So much for giving, and for luxuries.

Where Advertising Helps

It won't always be easy, of course, to stay within the budget. That's where advertising helps you. Advertisements in this newspaper tell you how much rugs, butter, breakfast foods, dishes, homes, automobiles will cost, before you go shopping! They point out ways to save money. They show you how to cut a little here, a little there. And each day, they tell about new inventions, new products, new ways of doing things, that help make this life of ours very much worth living!

The School Boy

Persistent study consumes an enormous quantity of nerve force and indoor life is not conducive to the formation of rich blood from which nerve force is made.

Many boys, and many girls, fail at examinations, because their nervous systems play out. Some suffer from complete nervous break down.

There is nothing like Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to form rich, red blood and restore the nervous system. Young people respond quickly to this treatment.

FASHION HINT

"How to make my old short skirts conform to the new length was a problem to me until I hit on this plan. I dropped the hems; and as the part that had been turned under was darker than the rest, I redyed the entire dress, after having bleached the goods, following directions in the Diamond Dyes package."

"I used Diamond Dyes for the redyeing, of course. I have dyed many things with these wonderful colors. They have saved me many dollars and have never failed to give perfect results—smooth, even colors—fast to wear and washing. Friends think my things are new when I redye or tint them with Diamond Dyes. They do give the most gorgeous colors!"

SOUR stomach

If fear of what will follow over-shadows the enjoyment of your meals, your system may be too acid.

Those pangs of indigestion right after eating and that lump you feel in your stomach for hours after, the flatulence and sourness, are the symptoms of over-acidity. Take an anti-acid and neutralize the excess acid. You won't be comfortable until you do.

Phillips' Milk of Magnesia will always check that condition of over-acidity. It acts pleasantly, but promptly and most effectively. It supplies needed alkali to neutralize excess acids of the stomach and bowels. Headaches, flatulence, and nausea are promptly relieved. Your digestion will speedily improve. Your appetite will be sharpened. Constipation quickly yields to the gentle laxative effect of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

Many make a practice of taking a spoonful or two before meals one or two days weekly. It is a delightful way to keep the system always sweet; and to keep the bowels from growing sluggish; also to guard against auto-intoxication.

Phillips' Milk of Magnesia will check a cold in a hurry. Just take a spoonful at three-hour intervals until that weak, achy, feverish condition is gone and your head is all clear.

Get a bottle today; read the directions and learn Phillips' Milk of Magnesia's many important uses. For you and the whole family. 50c bottles at drug stores everywhere in the dominion. (Made in Canada.)

Miss S. A. Mills, principal of Borden Street School, reported that the total attendance at the school was decreased by 26 since last September.

Early in March lectures had been given before the pupils of the schools by Dr. Harry S. Thomson of the Canadian Dental Hygiene Council, keen interest having been taken in the discourses.

The fire marshal paid a visit during the month to Booth School and held a fire drill with which he was well pleased.

Miss Mills thanked the board for installing a radiator in the principal's room at Borden Street School. Repairs to the roof had been made at Seal Cove School.

School savings for the month were reported as follows: Booth School, $30.67; Borden Street, $29; Seal Cove, $7.15; Westview, $5.12.

A total enrolment of 317 girls in the domestic science department was reported by Miss E. Roe, the supervisor. Of these 230 were taking home economics and 87 health courses.

SPORT CHAT

An attempted raid on British soccer players seems imminent now that the French Football Association has decided to recognize professionalism in France. H. Gallacher and T. Law, two well known Scottish internationals who play for Chelsea, have accepted offers which are creating a great deal of interest in England. Enquiries, however, show that the activities of the French clubs who are negotiating for British stars are not regarded with undue anxiety among clubs in the English league.

Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.

Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication.

Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.

IN FAVOR OF 'FRILLS'

At last night's meeting of the board of school trustees a letter was read from Miss Jessie McLennan, director of home economics for the Department of Education, in which the value of home economics, manual training and commercial classes as education adjuncts was stressed, the board being urged to devise some other ways and means to meet the interests of economy without resorting to the discontinuation or serious curtailments of these departments.

Miss McLennan expressed the hope that education, particularly such valuable branches as home economics, manual training and commercial training, would not have to bear the whole burden of economies. In making its choice of what should be retained, Miss McLennan urged the board, as far as possible, to select subjects which were giving the greatest value to the greatest number. Possibly, such subjects as manual training and domestic science might prove more valuable in after life than such subjects as Latin, algebra and geometry.

Miss McLennan referred in her letter to the most efficient manner in which the domestic science department was being conducted in the local schools.

NATIONALIZE RAILROADS

Move Is On Foot In Australia As Result Of Probe

SYDNEY, N. S. W. April 19.—Organization of a national railways corporation to take over the railroads of Australia, manage them with unified control and reduce the mounting burden of deficits now being amassed has been recommended by the Commonwealth transportation department which recently undertook a sweeping investigation into the position of the railroad industry.

The matter is now before the railway commissioners of Australia, but it is being said that for the commissioners to approve this recommendation would be the same as politicians voting to abolish legislatures. Real action is not anticipated until the whole question is submitted to the premiers' conference in the near future. Meanwhile, A. E. Heath, a Sydney accountant, has been asked by the commonwealth government to take the chairmanship of a special committee representing the railway commissioners and the railway executives which will report to the premiers' conference.

Australia is urged in certain quarters to follow the example of Canada in appointing a non-partisan commission of experts to inquire into the situation. As the situation now stands, it is feared that the railway interests will dominate the discussions being planned and that the motor industry, for instance, will have a negligible voice.

"Australia's railways," remarks the Melbourne Herald, "are operating at ruinous loss, and their only known solution is the elimination of competition and the writing down of capital. The railways should be held accountable for the present deplorable financial condition of the transport business and they should be asked to show cause why they should continue to lose money on a colossal scale. Their place is not in the judgment seat but in the witness box."

For the year ended June 30 1930, railway losses aggregated $19,000,000—more than the total deficits of all the Australian states for that year. For the year ended June 30, 1931, losses had advanced to $22,000,000.

The amount of capital invested in Australian railways is more than $1,500,000,000, and of this amount $500,000,000 has been spent in the last ten years, the invasion period of the motor vehicle.

ALICE ARM

The final card party of the season to be held by the Alice Arm Athletic Association took place last Friday evening in the Club House and proved to be a very enjoyable affair.

The snow is rapidly disappearing here now and patches of bare ground are to be seen. Last Thursday the first auto of the season was driven from town to the wharf.

STEWART

Stewart is clearly defined as the outlet for the Peace River district on a statistical map compiled and published by the National Development Bureau of the Department of the Interior at Ottawa, copies of which have been received here.

Richard Gaskell of the Government Telegraph service here last week received news of the death of his father at his home at Willow Point near Nelson.

Mrs. Frank Bowler, H. A. Stewart, H. C. Bennett and E. T. Applewhite were members of a bowling team which last week won a bowling tournament held among members of the Canadian Legion club. A cup was put up for the event by S. G. Lawrence.

Members of the Canadian Legion and Stewart Badminton Clubs held a tournament Saturday night in Carolan's Hall here. Great interest has been taken in badminton here during the past season.

Rabbits Are to Be Exterminated

Proclamation Is Issued In Commonwealth By Government

Melbourne, Australia, April 19.—Rabbits have officially been declared outlaws in Australia as a result of the issuance of a proclamation compelling land holders to exterminate the animals with out compunction.

Throughout the commonwealth, wherever the rabbit breeds in such abundance as to become a pest, farmers have opened the offensive. Most of the farmers use poison as their chief line of attack. Shot guns and traps are also used.

Furrows are made by the farmers to the places where the rabbits are thickest. For two or three nights the rabbits are given a free and wholesome feed of chopped up apples or other similar delicacies. On the first night only a little of the food is taken. But rabbits must have some means of communication, for by the third night rabbits have come for miles to attend the banquets in the furrows. Discretion is thrown to the winds while the feed is on. It is then that the farmers are able to make their attack effective.

Twenty Years Ago

With more settlers steadily arriving and more ground getting under cultivation, people of Porcher Island are clamoring for more roads. During the past month one plank road of great utility has been constructed between Jap Inlet and Sand Beach where the school house is located.

TO ENTER BUSINESS

Arthur Halleran Resigns as Member of Staff of Booth Memorial School

Arthur Halleran, for the last few years a member of the teaching staff of Booth Memorial School, is taking over a business in town on May 1 and last night he tendered his resignation to the board of school trustees. Mr. Halleran informed the board that, while he would be able and willing to carry on his teaching duties until the end of the term, he had considered it possibly better, in view of employment conditions, to present his resignation to become effective May 1.

After brief discussion, the board decided to accept Mr. Halleran's resignation as from May 1 providing a substitute suitable to the principal of the school can be obtained.

The school board has been conducting negotiations with a view to having a reduction made in the cost of lighting for the schools but it was stated at last night's meeting that there was little hope of any reductions being obtained at this time.
