Conditions In East Reviewed By J. Dybhavn

Low Prices at Calgary Noted By Recent Visitor to That City

At the Rotary luncheon yesterday John Dybhavn told the members about his recent trip to Ottawa and New York. He said that business conditions in the east were far from good and this was especially true on the American side of the boundary. The large number of bank failures had a bad effect on business and was the cause of great distrust. One of the big banks in Boston where the fishery interests banked had gone into liquidation and the men in business there had been involved.

In Saskatchewan Mr. Dybhavn ran into a blizzard when travelling from Saskatoon to Calgary. While there was no real discomfort on the train, the wind howled so that it was impossible to sleep.

In Calgary Mr. Dybhavn was struck by the low price of commodities. Fresh eggs were selling at ten to twelve cents a dozen in the stores, bacon, three half-pounds for 25c, beef from three and four cents a pound up. Trimmed pork loins fetched 15c a pound. Hogs on the hoof were bringing the farmers only three cents a pound.

Getting back to Vancouver, the speaker said he found snow eight inches deep on the streets and gangs of men at work shovelling it. He called on B. J. Mellish, formerly manager of the Bank of Commerce here, who asked about the people at home in Prince Rupert and sent his regards to them.

Ministers Agree That Colleagues Who Fail to See Eye-to-Eye With Them on Issue May Express Opinions Publicly—Issue Thrown Into Commons

LONDON, Jan. 22.—After a meeting of the British cabinet today, it was officially announced that it had been found impossible to reach a unanimous agreement on the report of a sub-committee which has been studying means to remedy the adverse trade balance. Today's announcement added that, since the ministers realized the importance of maintaining national unity, it had been decided that those ministers finding themselves unable to support the conclusion reached by the majority of their colleagues on the subject of tariffs and allied issues were at liberty to express their opinions by speech and vote.

Unprecedented in British constitutional proceedings, the cabinet's action throws the whole tariff question into the House of Commons for free vote.

DECIDE TO AFFILIATE

New Local Halibut Organization Here Desires Charter From Trades & Labor Congress

Halibut fishermen of Prince Rupert, following the recent closing by the Deep Sea Fishermen's Union of its branch at Prince Rupert, have decided to organize independently in affiliation with the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada. Decision to organize under Trades and Labor Congress charter in preference to the American Federation of Labor was reached by a vote of 62 to 54. A four day poll on the question closed last night with this result.

At a meeting of fishermen following the poll, it was decided to apply at once for a charter to the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada. All preliminary organization has been completed. Einar Larsen presided over the meeting.

Another meeting of the fishermen will be held next Tuesday.

The city council, on motion of Ald. Macdonald, seconded by Ald. McCutcheon, last night endorsed resolutions in regard to the unemployment situation passed at a recent mass meeting under the auspices of the Prince Rupert Unemployed Association. The general tenor of the resolutions which are being submitted to both the provincial and federal governments urges an immediate resumption of unemployment relief operations. The resolutions were published in full in the Daily News following the mass meeting two weeks ago.

One resolution the council refused to endorse. This was that (Continued on Page 3)

Salmon Being Sold at Low Prices Today

Major Motherwell Urges Co-operation of Cannerymen and Fishermen During Trying Period

Major J. A. Motherwell, chief supervisor of fisheries, who was a guest at the luncheon of the Rotary Club yesterday, mentioned that the light fishing of last season resulted in the spawning grounds of the salmon being well seeded and the promise was that there would be a good run when these fish returned at the end of the regular period.

Discussing the situation, Major Motherwell said the salmon were being sold today at a low figure, in most cases at a serious loss to the cannerymen. He did not think the packers could yet see daylight but most of them had decided to carry on, hoping for an improvement in conditions. Cannerymen were usually optimistic.

The major urged co-operation on the part of the fishermen and cannerymen. He suggested that the cannerymen should hesitate in cutting the price down to the fishermen until they had exhausted every other means of economizing and that fishermen should on their part consider the present conditions in connection with their demands.

MIKE GREGG IS LEAVING

Assistant District Forester Here Promoted to District Forester at Prince George

E. E. (Mike) Gregg, for four years assistant district forester here, is being transferred to Prince George as district forester, according to announcement made today. The transfer is in the nature of a distinct promotion for Mr. Gregg and comes in the face of an active campaign of retrenchment and economy in the service of the department. Mr. Gregg will take up his duties at Prince George on February 1, having left for there this afternoon to make arrangements for moving. He replaces District Forester Charles Haddon, who is being moved elsewhere in the service.

Mr. Gregg, during his stay here, has become known as a popular and efficient official. While his departure from here will be generally regretted, numerous friends will be gratified at the promotion. Mrs. Gregg has also become popular here and her departure will be regretted as well.

Successor to Mr. Gregg here will be R. B. Gregor, at present assistant district forester at Williams Lake.

K. C. McCanell, junior forester at Prince Rupert for the past few years, is also being moved from here and will be leaving soon for Kamloops in a similar capacity. He will not be replaced in the meantime.

HOLDING UP INDEMNITY

City Council Remuneration Bylaw Held Over at Ald. Casey's Suggestion

At the instance of Ald. George B. Casey, who held that the council should in no way commit itself in the matter of its own remuneration until the whole question of finances and possible expenditures had been gone into thoroughly, the city council last night laid on the table until next week the annual indemnity bylaw providing remuneration to be given mayor and aldermen for the year's services.

Ald. Casey suggested that the various committees should go into the whole situation with a view to making a report at an early meeting on the financial possibilities for the year. Until this had been done, Ald. Casey felt that the council should not even express intent of indemnifying its members.

While not expressing opposition to the spirit of Ald. Casey's suggestion, some of the other aldermen thought the indemnity bylaw might be allowed to go through its initial readings and amended, if deemed necessary, on coming up for reconsideration and adoption. Ald. Casey's views, however, prevailed and it was finally agreed to table the bylaw meantime.

In response to Ald. Casey's suggestion for an immediate survey of the year's possibilities so far as finances were concerned, Mayor Orme proposed that the situation could be gone into by the council in an informal way and that meetings of the committees could be held before the next regular meeting of the council which is to be held on Thursday evening of next week.

HAPPILY MARRIED

Miss Amelia Mazzei Became Bride of William Murray at Ceremony Last Night

A very pretty wedding took place at 7:15 last evening in First Presbyterian Church, Rev. W. D. Grant Hollingworth officiating, when Miss Amelia Mazzei, daughter of the late G. Mazzei and Mrs. Mazzei, Seventh Avenue West, became the bride of William Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Murray, Alfred Street.

The bride appeared charming in a wedding dress of pale pink crepe back satin fashioned on Princess lines with hat to match. Her bouquet was of pink and white carnations.

The bridesmaid was Miss Mary Mazzei, sister of the bride, who wore a pretty frock of pale green crepe back satin also made on Princess lines with hat to match and bouquet of pink carnations.

Spiro Gurvich was groomsman. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother where Mrs. Mazzei and Mrs. Murray assisted the bride in receiving many friends who tendered their congratulations and best wishes to the couple.

The toast to the bride was proposed by D. Zarelli and responded to by the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray are taking up residence on Alfred Street. Both bride and groom have resided in the city since childhood and are very well known.

SEEING BOTH SIDES

It's a good thing to look at both sides of any question. United States is often looked upon as the Shylock among nations because she made money during the war and loaned it out to the Allies and insists on collecting the interest. This week Shylock speaks up for himself after hearing from the dictator of Italy. The Post Intelligencer of Seattle says:

Premier Mussolini advises our European debtors to present a united front to America, their common creditor. The first step is to cancel reparations claims against Germany, then "with perfectly clear consciences," says Mussolini, they can ask the annulment of their debts by the government of the United States.

"Do you think the United States," he continues, "would have the courage still to claim payment by the European states which had made this concession to Germany?"

The Italian premier ignores the complete nonrelation of reparations and his country's borrowings from the United States. His evident desire is to put the repudiation of Italy's debt to us in the shape of an accomplished fact—"un fait accompli"—and then ask us what we propose to do about it.

Italy, with a debt to the United States of $2,042,000,000, has paid exactly $84,223,797. Even this payment has been made with the aid of our banking loans. The amount she has actually paid is far less than the amount for which she has been given credit.

The principal of her indebtedness to the United States has been voluntarily reduced by us to a figure which represents 24 per cent of the actual debt. She has asked more consideration and has received more lenient treatment than any other debtor of the United States. The debt of ravaged Belgium was funded at 46.5 per cent of its face amount; Poland, Great Britain, Finland, Estonia, Hungary, Latvia and Lithuania at 80 per cent.

We loaned Italy $250,000,000 to buy food for her people. We advanced her $16,000,000 for the direct relief of the needy and suffering among her population. For cotton and other supplies we advanced her $150,000,000. We loaned her the money to purchase from neutrals $19,000,000 worth of merchandise. All these advances, including an additional $56,000,000 for miscellaneous necessities, were distinct from what we loaned her for munitions and military uses.

This is Italy—the beneficiary of our sacrifices and generosity—which now expresses doubt that we will have "the courage" to ask the remnant of our claims, so hugely reduced already.

The United States has forgiven Italy more than three-fourths of her debt. To think that Italian voices are heard to say that the United States is "the only, the continual, the secular profiteer of the war!" Does Italy need to be reminded of her profiteering in accessions of territory and other national gains from the war, and that the United States refused to share in the spoils?

Mussolini may call us "Shylock." But he is steadying his nerves by asking the other nations of Europe to hold his hand as he repudiates the debts of Italy.

STATES AND NOT CITIES

Feeling Expressed That New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Etc. Should Have More Power

Should large cities such as New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and Detroit be separated from their respective states and set up as new commonwealths? asks a Christian Science Monitor editorial. A proposal by Prof. Charles E. Merriam, head of the political science department in the University of Chicago, to this effect calls attention to the lack of proper balance between the legislative representation of urban and rural populations.

Presumably, the main advantage of "city states" would be more autonomy in government for urban voters. Dr. Merriam points out how necessary this has become in Illinois, where Chicago's population has doubled since 1900 without the city's gaining any members in the legislature. It is possible, too, that a new responsibility of separate statehood would impress a city's voters with their obligation to take an active part in political affairs. One wonders, however, whether these advantages could not be obtained without changes which would affect the federal government. If one such state were formed, how large would other cities have to be before they could claim a right to the same status?

Chicago's present difficulties, as noted heretofore, seem attributable more to weaknesses of city and county administration than to lack of proper representation in the state legislature.

Overlapping Functions
Likewise, the recent administrative records in several large cities and counties are such as to discourage those who might be inclined to make states out of these urban centres in the hope that they would do better. Some of the waste of course is attributable to overlapping of city and county functions. In England, which has a generally excellent system of city government, boroughs of 50,000 or more inhabitants combine the powers of city and county.

Suppose that Chicago, for example, were a separate state. Is it reasonable to believe that the remainder of Illinois, shorn of support from that wealthy centre, would continue its efforts to build up the city? Business which heretofore has flown into Chicago would be diverted in many instances to points within Illinois where the wealth thus developed could be taxed. The city as a state probably would be far more closely hedged in than it is under the present system. As for the remainder of Illinois, the change would upset its whole plan of development of public works.

From a national viewpoint, such separations doubtless would accentuate the differences between rural and urban interests, pitting cities against the country and developing new blocs and new reasons for "logrolling" in Congress.

Dr. Merriam offered his plan as an interesting and valuable political experiment. The practical difficulties in the way of such a change, even if everyone favored it, he surely recognizes. The goal of fair representation should be obtainable with less risky experimentation under the existing system.

Twenty Years Ago

In Prince Rupert

January 22, 1912

Chief Dudoward and his people at Port Simpson are confident that construction will have started by the coming spring of a railway to connect Port Simpson with Prince Rupert. Surveys were made last summer and, under the charter granted the company, construction of the line must start by April 15 this year.

Dovercourt Road Baptist Church of Toronto is taking a keen interest in the progress of the Baptist Church here and may assist with the building of the proposed church here.

A deal involving a consideration of $125,000 has been completed under which E. L. Morgan, representative of a Winnipeg syndicate, acquires six valuable gold-copper claims about one and a half miles from Lockeport from D. R. Bell and Joe Davis of this city. It is expected that a great copper producer will be established.

NOISE DOES NOT DRIVE AWAY FISH

John Dybhavn Tells of Some of the Findings of Members of Biological Station

A few rather interesting matters had been recently investigated by the Biological Board of Canada and reported at its recent meeting in the East, according to John Dybhavn, who was the speaker at the weekly luncheon of the Rotary Club yesterday. The reason for the almost total absence of fish in some of the inlets on the B.C. coast had puzzled a great many people. The reason for this it seems is that there is often a shallow ridge across the mouth of the harbours and the result is that the deeper waters inside are almost stagnant and fish do not like stagnant water. Only the surface waters are disturbed by the tides.

Another interesting fact discovered is that fish are not driven away from a place by noise. At first they are a little timid but after a time noise attracts rather than repels them. This does away with a common belief in some quarters that the presence of motorboats tends to drive away the fish.

An interesting fact established by investigators is that shrimps change their sex. While it is strongly suspected that crabs do the same, the fact that the crab sheds its shell every season makes it almost impossible to tag it in such a way that it can be traced from one season to another.

While the present tendency is to cut down expenditures on the work of the local experimental station, the board has been assured that all the principal investigations being carried out there will so far as possible be continued.

A letter from the Provincial Bureau of Information, read at last night's meeting of the city council, announced that on July 1 for one hour a party of members of the staff of the British Columbia Agent-General's office in London will visit Prince Rupert in the course of a tour of Canada. The matter of reception of the party was left in the hands of Mayor Orme, the feeling being that little could be done owing to the brevity of the stay here.

REPORT ON FIRE LOSS

Damage in City Last Year $10,998, Practically All of Which Covered By Insurance

Damage by fire in Prince Rupert during the year 1932 amounted to $10,998.78 of which $10,975 was covered by insurance, leaving a net loss of $23.78, the city council was informed last night in the annual report of Fire Chief D. The most serious fire of the year was one in the Big Bay Lumber Co. sawmill property at Seal Cove when damage of $7000 was done. Value of property involved in the year's fires was $500,000. Expenditure of the department for the year was $15,474 including salaries. The fire chief urged the city, if possible, to lay down certain new water mains this year. In conclusion the chief thanked the city council for co-operation and assistance extended and acknowledged faithful service given by members of the department in per-

ROB TRAPS BY PLANE

Special Game Wardens Named to Comb James Bay District in Manitoba

TORONTO, Jan. 22.—Active steps to combat the depredations of trappers who rob the traps of Cree Indians in the James Bay district are being taken by the Provincial Department of Game and Fisheries. It was learned at Queen's Park.

An order-in-council appointing Constable E. C. Covell of the Northwest Mounted Police game warden for the James Bay Valley basin district is announced, and it is further learned that airplanes will be used to effectively comb out the robbers, who are said to be using planes in which to carry out their ill-gotten haul of furs from the Indians' traps.

Recently John Fletcher, chief of the Cree tribe, complained to the Northwest Mounted Police that white trappers, believed to be Finlanders, were robbing their traps and spoiling their hunting grounds. The complaint was sent on to Queen's Park. Hunting by traps is the sole means of livelihood for the Indians and both the provincial and federal governments are determined to stamp out any attempt to rob them of their goods.

City Finances Are Discussed

City Council Has Conference With School Board Members and Officials

After adjournment last night, the city council went into round-table conference with members of the board of school trustees, City Treasurer D. J. Matheson, City Engineer F. N. Good, City Auditor George Rorie and F. E. Robertson, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada, on municipal financial matters. The whole situation was gone into during a free and frank discussion. All members of the school board were present.

In a statement following last night's conference, Mayor Orme remarked that, with the observance of the strictest economy in every department of municipal service, the council believed it could carry on in good shape and get through the year.

It is understood the mayor may reveal the nature of some of the city's economy plans when he addresses a meeting tonight under the auspices of the Prince Rupert Ratepayers' Association.

The school board will have a meeting in committee next Monday night to go into the matter of the year's estimates. At that time it is also expected that a chairman for the year will be chosen.

Boy's Eye Straightened When Proper Glasses Were Fitted

Young boy suffered from severe headaches, could not see in school and one eye was turned up. Thanks to a friend, who advised bringing the boy to Geo. F. Davey, Reg. Optometrist, in charge of the Optical Dept. of Max Heilbronner, Jeweler, the proper glasses were fitted and, with a few treatments, the eye was straightened. BIG LOAN OPERATION

How $2,000,000,000 United States Construction Bill Works Is Explained

WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan. 22.—Here is how the vast reconstruction finance corporation, passed last week by the senate, would work:

Out of the Federal Treasury comes $500,000,000 to form the capital.

At the wheel is placed a bipartisan board of seven directors, comprising the Secretary of the Treasury or Undersecretary, governor of the Federal Reserve Board and four others named by the President with the Senate's consent.

The corporation then starts to work. It borrows $1,500,000,000 by issuing bonds unconditionally guaranteed by the Federal Treasury and exempt from all federal taxes except inheritance and gift. It lends as much of the $2,000,000,000 as is needed, being careful to scan each applicant closely and get good security.

Loans against foreign bonds are specifically barred.

Interest rates are not designated; but the corporation's sponsors estimate it would borrow at 4 1/2% and lend at from 5 to 6.

Those eligible for loans, besides railroads and exporters, are banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, agricultural or livestock credit corporations, federal or joint stock land banks, and mortgage loan companies. Closed banks are eligible if their assets "are adequate to permit restoration of solvency." Direct loans to farmers by the Agricultural Department are made possible out of a $50,000,000 appropriation added to the bill in a Senate "rider."

Loans are repayable in three years with extension to give possible aid by special permission.

Strictly an emergency creation, the corporation must stop making loans a year after enactment unless the President extends it the maximum of one more year. It is to be liquidated preferably in five years and absolutely in 10.

Government coin, flowing into the credit institutions in return for good but slow paper, is calculated to permit new loans by the banks to agriculture and industry and get business wheels turning more rapidly.

RELIEF IS DEMANDED

which demanded the resignation of the provincial government because of its failure to meet the situation of unemployment. Ald. Macdonald expressed the view that nothing was to be gained by playing politics in the matter. Indeed, the desired result might be lost by so doing. Other members of the council agreed with this view.

Also on motion of Ald. Macdonald and Ald. McCutcheon, the mayor was authorized to again demand of the authorities some immediate action in the end of providing relief work. If no satisfaction can be derived from the provincial government, the mayor was authorized to go direct to Ottawa. It was mentioned that no reply had been received to two messages already sent to Premier Bennett.

The urgency of the situation was again stressed and members of the aldermanic board expressed favor for a policy of getting some work done in return for relief disbursements as against a policy of direct relief or dole.

BIG LOAN OPERATION

Mr. Kwapil described in some detail the organization which had been tentatively formed to engage in this business and declared that affairs were in much better shape than last year when lack of finances and lack of organization handicapped the effort to market halibut co-operatively.

Mr. Kwapil answered a number of questions put to him by the audience.

It was decided to hold another meeting tonight when it is possible some decision, may be made one way or another by the boat owners and fishermen.

W. E. Drake, local manager of Edward Lipset Ltd., presided over yesterday afternoon's meeting.

SPORT NOTES

A record entry is assured for the annual Ontario Provincial Badminton Championships which will be decided on the courts of the Badminton and Racquet Club, Toronto, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, February 4, 5, and 6. Out of Toronto players will not be required to play until Thursday, but local competitors will certainly be called upon for preliminary rounds on the Wednesday; while in the event of a very large entry, some of the matches may be drawn for Tuesday.

It's got to be good to be ADVERTISED

READ THE GROCERY ADS TODAY

All the king's horses . . . and all the king's men can't make a success out of a bad product. No amount of advertising will create a market for it. The more it's advertised, the more its defects become known.

A Good Product Well Advertised

grows as swiftly and naturally as a healthy plant. People try it and like it. They tell others. They like it. Soon that product is found everywhere . . . and its name, spread abroad by advertising, is on every tongue.

When you see something widely and consistently advertised, you can be pretty sure it's well worth having. If it weren't . . . if it didn't represent an honest and worthy value . . . the maker couldn't afford to advertise it.

Look Over the Advertisements in this Paper

Some of these names you know. Others, perhaps, are newcomers, all are entitled to your trust . . . all are here because they have potential friends bringing some new comfort or convenience. But something real to contribute to your advantage . . . your service . . . your happiness.

SCIENCE FINDS NEW MERITS IN ALL-BRAN

Has "Bulk" and Vitamin B for Constipation, and Iron for Blood

In the past ten years millions have found Kellogg's ALL-BRAN the safe "cereal way" to overcome common constipation—with the headaches, backaches, loss of appetite and energy, that so often result. Behind this success is the proved effectiveness of ALL-BRAN. Laboratory tests show ALL-BRAN brings two things needed to overcome common constipation: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines. Vitamin B to tone the intestinal tract. ALL-BRAN also contains twice as much blood-building iron, by weight, as beef liver.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like the bulk in lettuce. Inside the body it forms a soft mass. Gently it clears the intestines of wastes. How much more pleasant it is to use this delicious cereal than to abuse your system with pills and drugs—so often habit-forming. Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily with milk or cream—sufficient to overcome most types of constipation—in serious cases, with every meal. If you have intestinal trouble not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Special cooking processes make ALL-BRAN finer, softer, more palatable. It is not habit-forming. Appetizing recipes on the red-and-green package. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

AREAS OF INTERIOR

Agricultural Possibilities of Various Northern Districts Described in Article

Prince George has perhaps the largest and most accessible area of suitable land (free and purchase) in British Columbia either for group or individual settlement declares an article entitled "Back to the Land in B. C." by Louis Lebourdais in the magazine section of a recent Vancouver Sunday Province. The central interior is extensively referred to in the article.

The article continues in part as follows: Additional good land is available for a considerable distance eastward from Prince George. . . The Nechako Valley contains some of the finest grain and mixed farms in the interior and there is room for hundreds of others. South of Burns Lake is another section known as the Lakes District where there is ample opportunity for those who are land-minded. . . The fertile valleys of the Bulkley and Skeena, being less extensive than those to the east and south, have no great vacant areas but, nevertheless, there is room on the land for several times the number already there. For the man who craves real pioneering, far off the beaten track, there are few places left. The Cheslatta Lake section, just south of Ootsa, is as yet a safe sanctuary for the old time cattleman and others of his type who seek the solitude of the silent places. In this area there is accommodation without crowding for perhaps 300 families. . . These, together with the northeastern section of the province beyond Fort St. James, including certain parts of the Peace River Block and certain sections of the Cariboo, comprise the last remaining large tracts of open land in the west.
