Spartan Athletic Club Makes Plans For Season's Activities

The chief business of the meeting was to make final arrangements for a tryout in August in preparation for the Junior Olympic meet to be held in Vancouver on August 29. The club was asked to make arrangements for the track events to be held on July 1. A committee headed by Archie Thompson was named to prepare the grounds and to make all other arrangements for starting and timing the events.

The secretary was instructed to write to the Y. P. E. A. of Port Simpson urging it to enter the races and, in particular, to enter a relay team. No One Agrees With Sharkey Verdict-Sports Writers Caustic in Remarks-To Be Reviewed

NEW YORK, June 23:-Sports writers who sat in on the Sharkey-Shemeling garden party on Tuesday night when the Boston gob was awarded the German's heavyweight boxing crown called the decision in favor of the American anything but the fair finding. Some described it as a "patriotic gesture" while by others it was termed "another example of American sportsmanship," "fantastic" and "incredible."

The New York Boxing Commission yesterday announced its intention of reviewing the decision of the judges and referee which was two to one for Sharkey on a fight in which it is generally admitted that Schmeling should have been awarded the call on a comfortable margin of points. There was no indication, however, that the decision would be rever-

The heart-broken Schmeling is preparing to sail for home as his manager, Joe Jacobs, raises the indignant cry of "robbery."
