MINISTER MAINTAINS IS CORRECT

Chairman of Unemployment Committee at Victoria Says They Had to Comply With Federal Order

That the Unemployment Relief committee at Victoria still maintains its stand in regard to the responsibility of the federal authorities for reducing the amount of relief money, is shown in a letter to the chamber of commerce read at its meeting last night. The minister of works also says the unemployed will be given an opportunity to perform a certain amount of work in return for necessary relief. The letter to the chamber from Hon. W. A. McKenzie follows: "I have to acknowledge with thanks your communication of February 10th and in reply to advise you that the specific amount for municipal undertakings set by the federal government has now all been allocated and at the present time we are not aware of the intentions of the federal authorities as to granting any further appropriations for municipal work. "It was a matter of great regret that many of these municipal allocations had to be reduced, but this government had no option but to comply with the instructions furnished by the Federal authorities. I am glad to say, however, that a certain amount of work on the provincial highways has now been recommended which should furnish a certain amount of employment for your destitute single men and transients and the rural men in unorganized territory. "You will also further be notified at an early date by the Honorable Provincial Secretary that destitute municipal people who are now receiving relief in the way of food and clothing will be given an opportunity to perform a certain amount of work in return for the necessary relief required."

ARREST IN KIDNAPPING

Friend of Nursemaid in Custody; Abduction Car is Found

TRENTON, N.J., March 5.—After conferring with police officials of ten states and the federal government, Governor A. Harry Moore of New Jersey announced today that it was expected the kidnapped baby boy of Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh would soon be restored unharmed to his parents.

TRENTON, N.J., March 5.—Police had found yesterday a car in which they believe the 19-month old son of Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh was taken away, following his kidnapping Tuesday night.

Another development in the case yesterday was the arrest on suspicion in connection with the kidnapping of Harry Johnson, friend of the Lindbergh nursemaid. He admitted having called at the Lindbergh home several times just prior to the abduction but denied knowing anything about the kidnapping.

A mysterious note received by Col. Lindbergh yesterday said the child was "still safe."

WENT TO MONTANA

City Treasurer D. J. Matheson and T. W. Brown Were Witnesses In Perjury Case

D. J. Matheson, city treasurer, and T. W. Brown, local barrister, after an absence from the city of two weeks, returned last night on the Princess Adelaide from Shelby, Montana, where they were called as witnesses in the case of a man named L. A. Miller, who was charged with perjury in the Montana city in connection with alleged illegal voting.

The purpose for which the local men were called was to prove that Miller was a member of the city police force in Prince Rupert in the early days and a Canadian citizen. Miller denied that he had ever been a member of the police force here. The charge against him failed.

Ernest Love of Stewart, who was also called to Shelby as a witness in the same connection, will be passing through here on the steamer Cardena tomorrow afternoon on his return to Stewart.

Mr. Matheson and Mr. Brown were delayed in returning to Vancouver from Shelby owing to troubles on the Washington railroads as a result of snowslides. They had to travel to Vancouver via Portland instead of by the northern Washington route.

Reasonable Rate For Carrying Cars to and From Hazelton is Asked by Chamber of Commerce

The Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce at its meeting last night endorsed a resolution forwarded from the Smithers Board of Trade asking for abolition of the present prohibitive rate for carrying automobiles between Prince Rupert and Hazelton and the institution of such a rate as will appeal to tourists and enable them to transport their cars on the regular trains each way during the summer months.

The resolution follows: Whereas, the construction of that portion of the main highway connecting Prince Rupert with the interior of the province is not making very rapid progress and will, at its best, take years to complete, and

Whereas the trunk roads from Hazelton to the east and southern parts of the province offer excellent opportunities for auto tourist travel and connect with the main highways throughout all parts of the continent; and

Whereas, the tourist traffic is proving to be one of British Columbia's greatest sources of revenue; and

Whereas, the many hundreds of car owners of the city of Prince Rupert are anxious to take advantage of this mode of travel, and hundreds of car owners who reside in the city of Ketchikan, Alaska, and other northern coast towns, complain that, while they are willing to transfer their cars to Prince Rupert via boat, they are still denied the privilege of travelling through this province in order to connect with the cities in the south; and

Whereas, a great many tourists from the south are anxious, after making the trip north by auto, to ship their cars to Prince Rupert, and thence via boat to Vancouver Island, thereby making the provincial round trip; and

Whereas, the present charge for the transportation of said automobiles from Prince Rupert to Hazelton, and from Hazelton to Prince Rupert, is prohibitive.

Resolved that this chamber of Commerce do therefore earnestly urge that immediate steps be taken by the provincial government in conjunction with the Canadian National Railways to put into immediate effect by subsidy or otherwise such a rate that will appeal to, and enable the tourists to transport their cars to and from Prince Rupert and Hazelton on the regular train service during the summer months.

REFINERY OF SUGAR PROPOSED

Vancouver Man Wishes to Organize Company to Operate at Prince Rupert

An interesting proposal was made to the chamber of commerce last night, the scheme being outlined in a letter from Vancouver from G. de la Giroday. This gentleman points out the need for a sugar refinery and the advantages of Prince Rupert as a possible site. The only fly in the ointment was a suggestion that a preliminary stock subscription of $10,000 was needed to enable the organizers to float the company, that a return fare be forwarded for the organizer, to visit Prince Rupert and look over the ground and that a free waterfront site be granted the industry.

A suitable reply will be made to the writer of the letter.

Defeated Sons of Canada in Senior Basketball Last Night

Hectic Girls' Game

Overtime Required To Settle Issue For Cardinals Over Amazons

Fast basketball was displayed at the Auditorium last night; the C. N. R. A., playing a clocklike passing game, defeated the Sons of Canada 46-31.

The Merchants trimmed the Tuxis in a fast stepping contest 25-14.

In one of the best girls' games displayed this year, the Cardinals managed to defeat the Amazons in a match that went into an overtime period 14-10.

In the Junior contest the Japanese Young People easily defeated the Boy Scouts 23-10.

Senior Game

The first half of this contest started with a great deal of pep, both sides being determined to win. The Sons put up a fighting game but the C.N.R. was out for victory and used fast short passes which were very effective. The Sons were a little ragged but fought. For a time in the second half it looked like anybody's game for the Sons began to sink in a few. But again the C.N.R. retaliated with their short passes slipping the ball to either Johnson or Styles who were equally good in sinking these clutch shots. Winning last night's game gives the C.N.R. a two-point lead over the Panthers.

C.N.R.A.—Styles 12; Johnson 14; Morrison 10; Stalker 1; Lambie 9.
 Sons—D. Stalker 5; Ratchford 3; Menzies 6; Wingham 8; Currie 4; Wendie; Hunt.

Intermediate Game

The first half was real fast and there was tense excitement among the spectators. Scoring was impossible for either side, due to heavy checking. Time after time the ball was brought under the basket but the boys were checked before they got the chance to shoot. Tuxis boys were using nice combination and Merchants were using their weight to advantage in a fierce aggressive play. The half-time whistle stopped the boys with the score standing 6-6.

The second half started with the same pep but the boys were out for baskets and consequently, the play opened up a little more. For the first ten minutes the play was even but in the latter the Merchants started a scoring spree and sank every shot they took, while the Tuxis, who had plenty of shots could not locate the hoop. But it is the baskets that count so at the whistle ending the game the Tuxis found themselves on the tail end of a 25-14 score.

Merchants—E. Dingwell 4; F. Dingwell 6; Pierce 4; Comandina 2; Hunt 6; McNulty 3.
 Tuxis—J. Morrison 7; R. Morrison 1; Nakamoto 2; Thurber 3; Smith 1.

Girls' Game

The girls gave their best last night and put up the best exhibition they have displayed this year. The Cardinals were determined to win and were not going to let the Amazons walk all over them as they have in previous games. Play was fast and close all the way through, both teams playing combination and checking hard. The score easily indicates the closeness of play. At half time score stood 6-6 and at full time 10-10, making it necessary for a five-minute overtime period. In this period the Cardinals had it all over the Amazons and did not give them a chance to shoot. However, the Cards sank two for themselves and thus captured the game 14-10.

Cardinals—Lowe 2; Irvine 8; Krikevsky 4; Stone; Gilchrist.
 Amazons—Pritchard 5; Boddie 5; Tite; Morgan; MeLeod 2; Ritcheil.

Junior Game

In the Junior match the Japanese had it all over the Boy Scouts and played superior basketball all the way through. The Japanese are playing a good game and it looks as if they will give the leading Rovers a run for the league lead yet.

Japanese—Obata 12; Kanaya 8; Kishimoto 2; Nakamoto 1; Suehiro.
 Boy Scouts—Wilson; Santarbane 3; Miller; Viereck 7; Nelson; Lindsay; Smith; Naylor.

Federal Authorities Insist That Gave No Consent or Approval to the Work

Interesting letters were read at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night from the Dominion Director of Unemployment Relief in which he makes it plain that the $100,000 program of work authorized by the provincial government for Prince Rupert was never authorized by the federal government as stated in letters to the Prince Rupert city council. The letter from the Dominion Director makes it clear that there was no such authority given.

A SATURDAY SERMON

Relying Upon God

(By Captain Ruby Steele, Salvation Army)

II. Chronicles 14:11, text: "And Asa cried unto the Lord his God and said 'Lord it is nothing with thee to help whether with many or with them that hath no power. Help us, O Lord our God.'"

How sad it is that so often it takes, calamity, distress, sickness or famine to cause men to cry unto God for help.

The goodness of God ought to lead sinners to repentance and saints to a sweet reliance upon Him. Oh, the goodness of men to respond to God's great love! Man needs God. Nations need God. Homes need God. What a sad thought indeed that too often men, as individuals, and people, as nations, are contented to go along without calling upon God when the sun shines and prosperity favors and things are running smoothly.

We find Asa at this time crying upon God who graciously heard and wrought a complete deliverance. It seems as though Asa would have learned the lesson of relying completely upon God. Yet later on, when another was to be threatening, we find that Asa turned to the king of Assyria and trusted in him for help instead of relying upon the Lord his God. At this time he went down to defeat and the Lord sent a prophet who told him that his defeat was the result of his reliance on the king of Assyria.

How slow we, as the children of God, are to trust the loving care and Father heart of our God. A little girl of six had a problem facing her which was too great to master. Suddenly she thought of her father and said joyfully: "I'll go and get Daddy. He will solve this difficulty." She ran and told her father and came back praising and saying: "My father is coming. He will do this for me." Her joy was supreme because she relied upon her father. What a rebuke is a child's simple faith in an earthly father to us as children of God. Oh, that in our distress, calamities and perplexities of times when we are at "Wits end corner" when perhaps prosperity is but job is gone, the cupboard is bare, sickness or death has come

"THESE HARD TIMES"

"The hard times and scarcity of money makes it more important than ever to economize. One way I save on clothes is by renewing the color of faded or out-of-style dresses, coats, stockings, and underwear. For dyeing, or tinting, I always use Diamond Dyes. They are the most economical ones by far because they never fail to produce results that make you proud. Why, things look better than new when redyed with Diamond Dyes. They never spot, streak, or run. They go on smoothly and evenly, when in the hands of even a ten year old child. Another thing, Diamond Dyes never take the life out of cloth or leave it limp as some dyes do. They deserve to be called 'the world's finest dyes!'" S.B.G., Quebec

R. M. Benson, who arrived in the city earlier in the week on the Prince John from Queen Charlotte City, sailed last night on the ss. Princess Adelaide for Vancouver.

A request from the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada to the local Chamber of Commerce last night asking for support urging the making of issuing N.S.F. checks a criminal offense, was referred to the Legislative Committee.

More information in regard to the lead line controversy was brought out at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night and the committee having the matter in hand was asked to continue its campaign for a change which would do justice to Prince Rupert.

The Chamber of Commerce, at its meeting last night, was almost evenly divided as to whether it should again ask for the dredging of Metlakatla Bar. A resolution favoring action being taken was passed with one majority. The motion was by Paul Armour seconded by M. F. McCaffery and the chief opponent of the move was W. O. Fulton.

Mate Simunovich of Vrononic, Dalamatian, Jugo-Slavia, who is on a globe-trotting tour of the world, arrived in the city on the steamer Prince George Thursday night after spending several days at Stewart and will leave here next Wednesday on the Princess Norah to Alaska and Yukon whence he will proceed to Asia. He has already travelled 41,000 miles.

The question of pulp export was again discussed at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night and was finally left in the hands of the executive for action should such action be deemed advisable. The Chamber had already at a previous meeting endorsed the scheme and had sent a delegation to Victoria to try to induce the Government to give it consideration.

BABY FRETFUL, RESTLESS? Look to this cause

When your baby fusses, tosses and seems unable to sleep restfully, look for one common cause, doctors say. Constipation. To get rid quickly of the accumulated wastes which cause restlessness and discomfort, give a cleansing dose of Castoria. Castoria, you know, is made specially for children's delicate needs. It is a pure vegetable preparation; contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics. It is so mild and gentle you can give it to a young infant to relieve colic. Yet it is as effective for older children. Castoria's regulative help will bring relaxed comfort and restful sleep to your baby. Keep a bottle on hand. Genuine Castoria always has the name:

Mrs. B. E. Morgan of Billmor arrived in the city on this morning's train from the mill for a brief visit to town.

WATER IS DISCUSSED

J. E. Boddie Interesting Speaker Before St. Peter's Young People Last Night

"Water" was the subject last night for a very interesting discourse of nearly three-quarters of an hour by J. E. Boddie, chief engineer for the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co., before the Young People's Society of St. Peter's (Seal Cove) Anglican Church. Mr. Boddie, in the course of his talk, gave many enlightening facts about water. He described some of the different formations of snow, hail and rain and told his listeners that, if the earth should be straightened out to become perfectly level, its entire surface would be covered with water to the depth of about two miles.

The popularity of the speaker and the interest which was taken in his talk was attested to by the vote of thanks, three hearty cheers and tiger which were accorded him at the conclusion of his remarks. For the remainder of the evening the young people, numbering some forty in all, were the guests of the president, S. E. Sunbury, and Mrs. Sunbury. Games, dancing and music were enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served. Mike Colussi gave some very entertaining accordion solos, Tom Birrell, the club captain, was master of ceremonies.

LOCAL STORE VERY BUSY

H. S. Wallace & Company's Sale is Going Strong and Patrons Pleased

The dissolution sale at Wallace's is still going strong and numbers of pleased patrons are returning again and again.

Today a Daily News representative visited the store and found everyone busy serving customers. Mr. Minns was very optimistic and expressed himself as well pleased with the business he is doing. He states that despite the rush, which has been very gratifying, the stock is large enough to keep the sale going for some time but that directly the volume aimed at has been attained the sale will be called off.

Next week, Mr. Minns says, he will have further announcements to make which should be of great interest to the ladies of this city.

Bring Back Prosperity By Eating More Fish

PRINCE RUPERT PEOPLE URGED TO SUPPORT THE BIGGEST INDUSTRY THE CITY HAS BY KEEPING EVERY FRIDAY A FISH DAY AND USING THE LOCAL PRODUCT OFTEN

Prince Rupert's biggest industry is fishing. A large section of the local people are engaged directly in the industry and all others depend on the success of the fishing to keep their businesses going or to provide their salaries. For that reason it is desirable that as much fish as possible be consumed locally.

Who can help in this? Nearly every person can do something.

FISH BUYERS AND WHOLESALE DEALERS can help by making fish easily accessible to local merchants at the lowest possible price consistent with the price paid to the fishermen.

LOCAL STORE KEEPERS can help by displaying fish in their windows periodically—at least once a week—and including fish in their advertising.

HOTELS AND RESTAURANTS can help by keeping local fish well to the fore in their daily menus.

ALL HOUSEHOLDERS can help by providing a fish meal as often as possible, at least twice a week and by insuring that it be cooked and served in the most appetizing manner possible.

CITIZENS WHO ARE NOT HOUSEHOLDERS can do their part by asking for fish whenever possible and making suggestions as to methods of cooking and serving.

If Prince people lead the way, others will follow. Every pound of fish consumed locally is a help to the fishing fleet on which the city depends.

Fish produced and marketed at Prince Rupert includes Halibut, Salmon, Cod, various varieties of Flat Fish, Crabs, Shrimps, Oolachan, Herring and Kippers.

Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.
 Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication.
 Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.

Halibut Prices Drop to Discouraging Levels—Young Fur Seal Appear on the Queen Charlotte Islands—General News of Industry

With a total of only 189,900 pounds being landed, halibut prices at Prince Rupert sank to a discouragingly low level during the week ending yesterday and many of the Canadian boat owners are talking of tying their craft up until market conditions for their product should improve somewhat. However, most of the boats have decided to make one more trip before taking such action.

The week's landings included 103,400 pounds of Canadian fish and 86,500 pounds of American. Total landings for the season up to and including yesterday amounted to 330,450 pounds of which 210,950 pounds had been brought in by Canadian vessels and 119,500 pounds by American.

High price of the week for Canadian fish was 5.5c and 3c and the low, 4c and 2c. The top price of the week for American fish was 7.6c and 3c and the low, 4c and 2c. The fleet can hardly profit at such prices.

Seattle Halibut Prices

During the first week of the present halibut season only a very small amount of halibut was landed at Seattle but fancy prices were paid for it. In all 9290 pounds was brought in to the Puget Sound port and the prices ranged from 18c and 15c to 21c and 16.5c.

A 36-foot fishing boat, built by E. Hansen and J. Hagberg at Massett, was launched there last week. The vessel is to be equipped with a Bolinder diesel engine.

A young fur seal is reported to have been captured by some native hunters on the west coast of Graham Island last week. This is considered very unusual as fur seal do not ordinarily bear their young until early in the summer on the fur seal rookeries among the Aleutian and other far north islands. The young fur seal seems to be quite contented with its new home. As a rule the fur seal do not show up around the Queen Charlotte Islands until May or June. This makes the second young fur seal caught recently on the Queen Charlotte Islands.

The small volume of canning operations and, therefore, light fishing of the 1931 season, while it seriously affected the earnings of the fishermen and helped to accentuate the generally hard times, may have been a mixed blessing after all. As a result of the light fishing and consequent satisfactory escapement to the spawning grounds, heavier runs may result in the cycle years ensuing, departmental experts and fisheries experts confidently anticipate. Possibly, the industry in later years may reap benefits accruing from the trying times through which we have been recently passing. Anyway, it is a happy idea and makes folk feel better.

The Nootka Packing Co. with its plant at Massett the single operator in the field, cut its pack of razor clams in 1931 by 3,187 cases, or 37.4% less than 1930. The output in 1931 was 5,319 cases as compared with 8,606 cases in the year previous.

Casualties in 1931

The first halibut vessel lost during the 1931 season was the Nordlund, run down and sunk in Malaspina Channel March 10 by an unidentified steamer, says the annual statistical number of the Pacific Fisherman in reviewing halibut fleet casualties in 1931. The fish vessel apparently was never seen by the steamer, being struck and rolled under without warning. Capt. S. Nordhus and his crew of two men succeeded in reaching shore with difficulty.

Immediately upon returning to Vancouver after the accident, Capt. Nordhus purchased the 43-foot halibutter Rap I and left for the fishing banks again.

The Prince Rupert halibut boat A. J., formerly the White Lily, owned by Capt. A. Johnson, struck a rock off Klewugget in an early March fog and sank in deep water with 3,500 pounds of halibut aboard. The men escaped in a dory.

The Monroe, a Juneau halibut boat commanded by Capt. O. P. Brown, was wrecked and became a total loss on a reef off Wingham Island March 21. Her company got off safely and found shelter at a fox ranch. It was not until April 10 that they were able to get word of their safety to Juneau. The vessel had been missing for weeks at that time and grave fears had been felt for the safety of her men.

Fires and Explosions

The 40-foot Seattle halibut boat White Star, took fire and burned to the water's edge off Tatoosh Island, south of Cape Flattery, April 23. Capt. John Haines and his crew of four men were taken off the burning boat by the Rosario, Capt. Ivar Knutsen.

Another boat lost by fire was the

Driven Ashore During Gale

Ye gods and little fishes took a hand in this one. The fishing smack, loaded with several tons of sardines, was blown ashore at Pidgeon Point, Calif., and left high and dry when tide went out.

Emblem I of Prince Rupert, Capt. Martin Johansen, which burned and sank off Graham Island June 12. Her crew of five took to a dory and were picked up by the tender Chief Seegay of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co.

Explosion destroyed the halibut schooner Northern in Summer Strait July 8 as she was running to port with a fare of 45,000 pounds of halibut. Capt. Claus Ramberg was severely burned by the blast and the crew had difficulty in launching two dories. The schooner Akutan, Capt. O. S. Bjerke, picked up the dories and succeeded in towing the burning Northern into a cove, where the vessel burned to the water's edge. After landing the rescued men at Ketchikan, the Akutan herself had trouble, going aground at that town and suffering some bottom damage.

Sunset Run Down

The Sunset, Capt. John Hansen, was run down in a fog off Marrowstone Point, Puget Sound, July 19 by the tanker Frank G. Drum. The fishing boat was nearly cut in two, but all of her crew of 10 escaped injury. The badly damaged craft was worked to Port Townsend, where she was beached, later being taken to Seattle for repair.

A severe storm which struck Clarence Strait July 3 drove the Ketchikan boat Little Venus ashore near Union Bay. The vessel was owned by Thor Hendrickson, agent for the Fishing Vessel Owners' Association at Ketchikan, and was commanded by Capt. Carl Benswick. With his two men, he succeeded in making shore, where they spent two days without food or shelter before being picked up by a passing boat.

The Prince Rupert halibut boat W. T. took fire and burned to the water's edge off Stephen's Island during July. Capt. Charles Edwards and his men got off safely and later were picked up by another fishing craft.

Two Seattle halibut boats were lost in the vicinity of Kodiak Island in two successive days, August 11 and 12. On the first day the 56-foot Democrat, Capt. Knute Pedersen, struck a reef and was seriously damaged. A valiant effort was made to beach her but she sank in 90 fathoms near the entrance to Cook Inlet, the men escaping in dories to the San Juan Fishing & Packing Co. cannery at Tutka Bay.

The following day the Marmot took fire at sea off Kodiak Island and was destroyed. Capt. Arne Larsen and his crew of seven men escaped in dories, but one man, Harry Venema, died before they made Kodiak.

Fire destroyed the Seattle boat Volunteer near Alert Bay, B.C., early in September. The boat was running south to Seattle with only Capt. Louis Hanken and Andrew Sather aboard, the other members of the crew having been discharged at Ketchikan. Capt. Sather was already suffering from a burn received earlier from the boat's exhaust pipe. The dory was lost, but the two men succeeded in making a raft of buoy kegs on which they kept afloat until they were picked up. The boat was a total loss.

The halibutter Kalart was wrecked and lost on a fox island in the Gulf of Alaska in October. Capt. Chris F. Aune and his two men barely making shore. They secured shelter at the fox ranch for a fortnight until their signals were picked up by the halibut boat Spray. The Prince Rupert halibut boat Cape Swain, was totally destroyed by fire which broke out while the vessel was in Tuck's Inlet October 7. Capt. Hugh Miller and his men made shore safely.

The Vancouver halibut boat Canuck, Capt. Sam Peterson, struck an iceberg while running in a snow storm at night in Cross Sound shortly after the middle of April. She was damaged rather badly about the bow and made water rapidly, but her pumps enabled her to reach Vancouver for repairs.

The Ketchikan halibut boat Eastern Point was disabled by engine trouble near Cape Muzon during July. The vessel, with 10 men on board, was missing for several days and grave fears were felt for her safety until she was discovered at anchor by a coast guard cutter which had gone in search of her.

Having been delayed for eight hours in Dean Channel by snow, C.P.R. steamer Princess Adelaide Capt. S. K. Gray, arrived in port at 10 o'clock last night from the south and sailed at 2:30 this morning on her return to Vancouver and way points.

PICTURE IS THRILLING

Edmund Lowe is Excellent in "The Spider" at Capital Theatre This Week-end

Except for some effects which it is impossible to duplicate on the screen, the story of "The Spider" week-end offering at the Capitol Theatre here, follows the stage thriller, which was both original and popular, quite closely.

During a theatrical performance by a magician and hypnotist, a man in the audience is shot. The theatre is surrounded by police who endeavor to find the criminal while holding the audience as witnesses. The magician turns detective and, himself, solves the mystery.

The virile Edward Lowe, as the magician, is excellent. The role of mystery makes him all the more fascinating. The others in the cast are capable.

The suspense is well sustained and the picture very entertaining.
