GOSSIP OF ELECTION

Vancouver Province Dispatch Discusses Possibility of Contest at Early Date

Organizers Busy

Pattullo Government Lined Up—Tolmie Cabinet to Be Reorganized

The process of lining up candidates for the next provincial election is in full swing with an energy which is interpreted by the Liberal party, at least, as meaning that the government may decide after all to go to the country in the autumn.

Already the line-up in many of the constituencies is fairly clear as a result of secret missions by cabinet ministers, conferences between party managers and all those other mysterious preliminaries which are part of a pre-election or election year.

In the first place, it is taken for granted that the cabinet will be reorganized on the eve of the poll or earlier. The lines of reorganization are not clear and probably have not been considered definitely but it is taken for granted that some of the present cabinet will retire from politics during the next year or eighteen months.

Hon. William Atkinson, minister of agriculture, is said to desire the repose of public life and Hon. Joshua Hinchliffe, minister of education, has been suffering indifferent health for some time. It is safe to say that the cabinet will not be as large as it is now when it appeals for a second term of power.

Liberal Government

On the other side Liberal leaders are already building up a prospective Pattullo government which they are confident will be elected. With Mr. Pattullo himself running in Prince Rupert, J. W. deB. Farris, his right hand man and attorney general, will head the Liberal ticket in Vancouver, it is generally believed. Liberal managers also hope to nominate Dugald Donaghy as a potential cabinet minister. John Hart will seek nomination in his old constituency of Victoria and is evidently slated for a portfolio. A. M. Manson K.C. will run again in Omineca but, in the event of Mr. Farris' election and the success of the Liberal party, he would probably take some portfolio such as that of provincial secretary. Mr. Farris' position, as chief law officer of the crown, would be undisputed. Dr. W. H. Sutherland will run in the new constituency of Columbia-Revel stoke and would take his former public works portfolio again if his party were returned. The possibility of G. S. Pearson, now of Nanaimo, running in Vancouver with the authority of a prospective cabinet minister in the event of a party victory is being considered.

H. G. Perry can have the Liberal nomination in Fort George and probably will accept it to oppose Dr. R. W. Alward, the sitting member.

No news has come from other northern constituencies, according to the Province dispatch.

PRAIRIES CONFIDENT

Quebec M.L.C. Sees Signs of Prosperity in West

QUEBEC, June 2:—Travelling by easy stages, and bringing back with him an impression of dominant optimism which he found existent in Western Canada, Hon. Frank Carrel, M.L.C., has returned to the city from a trip which occupied nearly a month, in which he visited many of the larger cities in the golden west, and which took him to the Pacific Coast.

The journey was made in connection with a project which Mr. Carrel and a number of his associates have sponsored, to boost an "Intra-Empire Crusade," by the inauguration of an "Exchange Goods Week" in which Eastern and Western Canada are to co-operate in an interchange of their products.

"I found the west looking as fresh and fragrant as ever, and with its people imbued with the same optimistic spirit for the future, as they had when I passed over the same ground eight years ago," said Hon. Mr. Carrel. "Pessimism seemed to be non-existent and I found little or no signs of bolshevism among the Canadian-born, while the foreign element, or a large section of it, seems comparatively free from it. In fact the latter seemed to be more interested in the future of the Dominion than most of us realize."

Today's Train Away Late on Account of Slide Near Jasper

Due to a large slide and wash-out ten miles west of Red Pass Junction which carried out a small bridge, the regular train, due from the East at 10:40 this morning, is reported twenty hours and twenty minutes late which means that it will not arrive from the East until 7 a.m. tomorrow. Railway crews are at the scene of the slide rushing the clearing of the line.

Repudiation of Pact Cause of Not Having Conference Dealings

Negotiations Have Been Opened Already With All Other Dominions, Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas Informs Parliament Today

LONDON, June 2:—Because the Republican government of the Irish Free State has repudiated the Anglo-Irish agreement, Great Britain has not entered into any trade discussions with the Free State preparatory to the Imperial economic conference at Ottawa. Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas, Secretary for the Dominions, made this statement in the House of Commons today, adding that Britain has already discussed trade preparatory to the conference with Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Newfoundland, India and Southern Rhodesia.

RESERVES OF POWER

VICTORIA, June 2:—The British Columbia government has received a report from investigators entrusted with inquiries relative to water-power reserves the purport of which suggests that the province need not in future suffer from any lack of hydro-electric power. After 20 years of intermittent study of the areas comprising the headwaters of the Fraser River, as well as the catch-basins emptying into the Skeena River and other northern waterways, it is demonstrated that the Coast Range can be bored through at several places to release heads of water up to 3,000 feet for the development of hydro-electric power.

One possibility is the development of 1,430,000 h.p. by the diversion of waters in the area of Chilco Lake and Homathko River through a tunnel bore of nine and one half miles. This would create a head of 3,000 feet, which could be utilized for power development at a plant situated at Dean Channel. Transmission lines could carry the enormous power developed over an area of nearly one-third of the Province of British Columbia. A choice of alternative routes northerly from a point on the mainland opposite Queen Charlotte Island, with bores through the range not more than ten miles in length, would permit of the development of 2,500,000 h.p. in the aggregate, ranging from 657,000 h.p. to 800,000 h.p.

Kimsquit River

Another 800,000 h.p. could be developed from a head of 2,000 feet on the Kimsquit River on the mainland opposite to Graham Island by driving tunnels between nine and one half to nine and three quarters miles in length through the Coast Range and tapping the headwaters of the Skeena and Nechako Rivers with Eutsuk and Whitesall Lakes. The available waterpowers in British Columbia are now calculated at slightly under 2,000,000 h.p. at "ordinary minimum flow." The magnitude of the reserve of energy which could be tapped by the execution of the engineering projects mentioned is therefore obvious. Transmission lines could carry the power great distances for the operation of light, power and industrial enterprises. The distance from one of the outlets mentioned to Greater Vancouver is 150 miles. The withdrawal of water from the headwaters of the Fraser River would affect the flow of that stream by six to ten percent. The cost of development would, it is contended, permit of the production of electrical energy at not more than $100 per horsepower.

CAPTAIN IS CASTIGATED

Finding of Court of Inquiry is Very Critical of Navigation of Steamer Prince David

The full text of the finding of the marine board of inquiry at St. George's, Bermuda, on the recent stranding of the Canadian National Steamships steamer Prince David has been received on this coast and the document has proven to be very critical of the navigation of Capt. Charles Wallace McKay and the officers under him at the time of the wreck. The concluding paragraph of the finding reads as follows:

"After giving the fullest consideration to all the facts and circumstances which have been laid before us, we unhesitatingly come to the conclusion that the captain, under the existing conditions, failed to navigate his ship in a proper and seamanlike manner, that the second and third officers kept a negligent watch and that, owing to such failure and neglect, the ship was stranded on the reefs." The Prince David was recently salvaged and is now receiving repairs in the Maritimes.

ONE EUROPEAN DANGER

Life is full of dangers and pitfalls and so is national and political life. To act as an insurance to national life the League of Nations was formed but the outcome of the Manchurian embroglio indicates that the league is not a wholly effective instrument.

The Manchurian demonstration has so weakened the League morally that some people are considering that what has happened in Asia may also happen in Europe. The Treaty of Versailles is too recent an event to be considered a final settlement of many outstanding irritations. The pruning of German ambitions at such tremendous cost to the world has left a good many matters unsettled financially and territorially with the result that today, fourteen years after the war, there are still murmurings and rumblings that may or may not cause future international trouble.

One of the danger spots lies in the Polish Corridor with Dantzig as the pivotal point. This piece of territory was taken away from Germany under the treaty and is claimed by both Germany and Poland today. The Hitlerites have been arousing German sentiment there and it is quite possible that there may be military demonstrations there unless the situation is handled very carefully by the other powers of Europe, all of whom claim to be anxious to avoid conflicts of any kind.

FLOWERING SHRUBS

Just now the flowering shrubs are at their best in some gardens. Lilacs are in bloom and so are the mountain ash, the broom, the laburnum and the rhododendron and the hawthorn will be showing color directly. These add very greatly to the beauty of any garden that is large enough to accommodate them. With a background of local evergreens they are doubly valuable. Any of these trees have decorative value both before and after blooming and they all seem to do well in Prince Rupert.

One thing that is difficult to understand is why people here should import evergreens. The local trees are so beautiful and do so well here that it seems like a waste to bring in others. Either the hemlock, cedar, spruce or pine, when growing alone, forms a splendid ornamental tree.

Placer Gold Possibilities Near Portland Canal—Annual Report of Granby—Off to Bridge River

An active resumption of placer gold mining throughout the province has directed attention to the possibilities of the Portland Canal district which in past years produced considerable gold, mainly from the Unuk River during low water, some gold also being obtained from the upper Iskut River and the upper Naas. The placer miners of 50 years ago contented themselves with rich, shallow diggings and, so far as is known, no attempt was made to prospect benches or to search for gold other than in creek beds and it is possible that considerable virgin ground remains to be exploited. Good pay was obtained from the Unuk River with nuggets up to $10 in value being found, it being stated that during the few weeks of low water when mining in creek beds was possible miners averaged from 46 to 60 ounces per man. Ball Creek, a tributary of the Iskut, also produced gold for a number of years from its more easily worked sections and considerable ground is reported to be worth investigation in that area. An unnamed tributary of the Naas River was worked for several seasons by two men who returned each summer until the spring of 1901 when a slide buried their tools and workings and they were unable to continue. This creek is supposed to be on the east bank of the Bell-Irvine branch of the Naas River. About forty years ago good prospects were found on a creek draining into Bowser River, the location of this creek being in the neighborhood of the big bend in the Bowser River north of Tide Lake. The discoverer stated that this creek was good for $5 a day with a rocker. The bars of the Upper Naas may also be well worth investigation today with better gold saving appliances. There are still vast tracts of country that have never yet been explored and many sections only casually prospected. The Unuk-Naas region has all the earmarks of a placer country from its extensive plateau area and the quartz veins that traverse it.

COMFORT for COLICKY BABIES

... THROUGH CASTORIA'S GENTLE REGULATION

The best way to prevent colic, doctors say, is to avoid gas in stomach and bowels by keeping the entire intestinal tract open, free from waste. But remember this: a tiny baby's tender little organs cannot stand harsh treatment. They must be gently urged. This is just the time Castoria can help most. Castoria, you know, is made specially for babies and children. It is a pure vegetable preparation, perfectly harmless. It contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics. For years it has helped mothers through trying times with colicky babies and children suffering with digestive upsets, colds and fever. Keep genuine Castoria on hand, with the name:

Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.

Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication.

Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.

In the National League, the world champion St. Louis Cardinals won a one-run game from the leading Chicago Cubs, the Cardinals advancing to seventh place. The Phillies defeated the New York Giants to move into sixth place while the Giants were again relegated to the cellar.

FIGURES IN SPORT

FRANK PATRICK, SPORTSMAN

Frank Patrick of Vancouver has been many years a powerful influence in Canada's great native winter sport—ice hockey. Directly associated with the game for more than a quarter of a century as player, referee, manager and magnate, his mind has originated many of the rules which give the present-day hockey its universal appeal. It was he who introduced the forward pass which has now been universally adopted. His personality has been behind the organization of ice hockey leagues on the Pacific Coast during the past twenty years.

Reputed to be one of the most effective defence players in his younger days, Patrick did not confine his athletic activities to hockey but his powerful physique and mental qualities also brought him prominence in football and on the track although he competed in these two sports only during his college days.

Patrick was born at Ottawa December 1, 1885, and, at an early age, moved to Montreal with his family. He learned to skate while a small boy and, with his father and brother, Lester, picked up his hockey rudiments on the ponds of Montreal.

A fine record in public and high school preceded his graduation in arts from McGill University. His prowess in football, hockey and on the track made him one of the first three-letter men to be produced by McGill.

After his college career closed,

Patrick was in demand as a hockey referee at Montreal until his father transferred his lumber interests to Nelson, British Columbia, and the family came west. There young Patrick continued his hockey career and in 1910 he signed a professional contract and joined Lester on the line-up of the famous Renfrew Millionaires team.

A year later the two Patricks conceived the idea of a Pacific Coast Hockey League. Artificial ice arenas were built in Vancouver and Victoria, the first of their kind in Canada and the East was raided for players. The Pacific Coast circuit loomed large in the hockey world and teams from the loop won the Stanley Cup and world title in 1915 (Vancouver), 1917 (Seattle) and 1925 (Victoria.) Originally the coast circuit, of which Frank Patrick was president, comprised Vancouver, New Westminster and Victoria. Later Seattle, Portland, Tacoma and Spokane had teams but never was the league larger than a four-team affair.

In 1926 Patrick turned the largest player deal in the history of the game when he negotiated the sale of the Pacific Coast players to the National Hockey League for $300,000. With the break-up of the circuit Lester moved east to assume management of the New York Rangers.

Two years later Frank organized another Pacific Coast League which ended its activities in 1931 owing to the depression.

HIGH WINS IN SOCCER

Borden Street Defeated By Score of 7 to 1 Yesterday

High School took no chances in the regular Junior League football game yesterday with Borden Street School and fielded a full team to win by a score of 7 to 1. Borden, as usual, began well and Fisher and Faw had to defend against stubborn attacks of the Borden forwards led by Shrubbsall, Lindsay and Campbell. Ivarson, Santurbane and Christison cleverly combined and Annesley skillfully saved two hard shots in succession. Currie handled the ball in the penalty area but Ivarson shot over the bar. Shrubbsall made two splendid runs but was prevented on each occasion from scoring by Nakamoto. Wilson now broke away and scored for High. O'Neill and McGuire played nice football and placed the ball well and Veitch shot hard but Morgan saved. Shrubbsall was again near scoring for Borden but again Nakamoto stopped him. From a well placed centre, Ivarson scored High's second goal. Shortly after this, the Borden defence gave Santurbane an opportunity to add a third goal and, just before half-time, a fourth goal was added.

During the second half, High School forwards combined better. Cromp was clever and Kirkendall and Dungate played well. Veitch was always active in defence and in feeding the Borden forwards. Currie and Hong defended well. Shrubbsall was finally rewarded for his clever offensive play by scoring for Borden. Houston and Naylor were doing good work but the speedy High School forwards were hard to stop and Ivarson scored again. A series of speedy runs by Wilson resulted in Christison adding another goal for High. The full time whistle went leaving High School winners by the score of seven to one.

Borden players are much improved but are handicapped by lack of strength in shooting.

Borden—Annesley, Hong, Currie, Naylor, Veitch, Houston, Lindsay, O'Neill, Campbell, Shrubbsall, McGuire.

High—Morgan, Nakamoto, Fisher, Faw, Cromp, Kirkendall, Christison, Ivarson, Santurbane, Dungate, Wilson.

Referee—J. Hutchinson.

COME-BACK BY GIANTS

In the High School Softball League, the Giants defeated the Falcons by a narrow margin of 6-5 yesterday afternoon. The Giants, after having lost the first two games, made a brilliant come-back. This was due to the much better game they played. In the first of the fifth the score stood 5-4 in favor of Falcons. When the Giants came to bat, Smith and Nakamoto scored on Dominato's two-bagger, thus making the score 6-5.

SPORT NOTES

FOOTBALL REGIMENT vs. MERCHANTS TONIGHT, 6:30

The Finn is dead, maybe; long live the Finn! If Paavo Nurmi's disqualification sticks and the Flying Finn can't run at Los Angeles at the Olympic Games, three other Finns as good or better will more than fill his shoes. They are Lauri Lehtinen, Iso-Hollo and Lauri Virtanen. Nurmi himself declared categorically that Lehtinen will win the 5,000-metre race. The only question is how far the others will be behind, said Nurmi. Iso-Hollo and Virtanen are almost as good.

Lehtinen's rapid development has been a great surprise to the Finns because such a career as his is rare in the north. He is a country boy from a town called Kerkkoo, about 50 miles from Helsingfors. He is 23 and has just become engaged. He plans to put a wedding ring on his sweetheart's finger when he has obtained the necessary gold for it from the medal for the 5,000-metre race at Los Angeles. At 17 Lehtinen took part in his first running race and won over a cross-country route of two miles. Nobody paid any attention to him until 1928 when he competed against Nurmi and Ritola at 5,000 metres. Unknown, he dared to run in front of the masters for nearly two miles. Then of course he was left far behind.

A year later Lehtinen's running career was broken when he contracted rheumatism of the joints. But in 1930, after taking the baths, he appeared again on the cinder tracks, fresh and determined. The year 1931 saw Lehtinen break through. He started all alone to try for a 5,000-metre record one fine summer evening in Helsingfors and he did the distance in 14:31.7, only 3.5 seconds behind Nurmi's world record.

The result brought about the summer's famous two-mile race, which Nurmi won in world's record time of 8:59.5 and in which Lehtinen was second with 9:00.5 and Virtanen third in 9:01.1. All three thus ran under the former world's record time. Lehtinen's achievements and his vigorous spirit have given the Finns faith that he will smash the world's record for the 5,000 metres at Los Angeles. The Finnish trainer of Olympic athletes, Hugo Lahtinen, believes further that Lehtinen may even manage to win the 1,500-metre race in the Olympics. Lehtinen's best time for the 1,500 metres was last summer, a 3:55.5 mark, which means about 4:13 or 4:14 for the mile.

GRADING IS DISCUSSED

New Salmon Regulations of Province Favor Crook, Francis Miller Asserts

Francis Miller, of Vancouver, whose company was taken over by British Columbia Packers in 1928 on the occasion of the merger of British Columbia Fishing & Packing Co., Gosse Packing and Miller Packing Co., expresses the opinion that the new salmon grading regulations "favor the crook rather than the honest man" and must be changed if full benefit from proper grading is to be gained by the industry.

Asked to elaborate his ideas further Mr. Miller said:

"The government proposes to have a board of inspection pass on the salmon and to have Grade 'A' placed on cans of salmon which in the board's opinion are fresh, firm, well packed and in good merchantable condition and to have the words 'Second Quality' on salmon that is sound, wholesome and fit for human consumption although not up to the quality of Grade 'A.' Salmon below these two grades was to be destroyed, and that is all to the good as far as it goes. The definitions are vague and confusing and might almost be substituted without loss of sense.

"The difficulty comes in merchandising the salmon. It may seem enough to most eastern buyers to know that a can of salmon he is buying is 'Sockeye, Grade A' but those in the industry know that from the standpoint of edibility there are various kinds of sockeye, that the Skeena Grade 'A' sockeye, for instance will be better than sockeye from the creeks although the latter sockeye would be eligible for Grade 'A.' The result would be in eastern cities or in the export markets that one merchant paying $2 a case more for Skeena sockeye and charging a legitimate profit to boot would find a merchant nearby filling his window with Creeks sockeye at lower prices. The public would only see that both are Grade 'A' sockeye and the merchant offering the best sockeye would be getting a black eye with his customers who would think he was overcharging them."

AIRPLANES AT JASPER

Fishermen Have New Facility at Popular Mountain Resort

JASPER PARK, June 2.—Clipping the clouds along the snow clad ridges of the Athabaska Valley, a Puss Moth yesterday buzzed a noisy and impertinent celebration of the opening of fishing for the first time in the major lakes of Jasper National Park. Mountain barnstorming threatens to develop into a new mode of sightseeing in this mountain resort and the old timers with their packs and saddles gaze aloft in disgust. Instead of hitting the trail to fish the leaping, lunging dynamite, all the indolent need do now is troll from their aeroplane. That is their verdict anyway.

An ex-air mail pilot volplaned down near town two weeks ago and has done a thriving business over the green mantled peaks ever since. With fishing developing into a big attraction, he now plans on bringing in an amphibian machine and having his passengers in and out with their legal limit of fish in the space of a morning.

Aeroplanes or no aeroplanes, the outfitters are not worrying. They are taking canoes in daily to the waters that have nurtured fish for three years now before the public opening. Maybe there are still enough old fashioned people to keep them busy. They think so anyhow, for two parties went into Maligne Lake yesterday, caught their limit of brook and rainbow trout and came out by canoe last night.

Twenty Years Ago

In Prince Rupert

June 2, 1912
Ald. D. W. Morrissey was on the warpath at a council meeting in connection with a motion censuring the mayor and finance committee for having cancelled an order for a team of horses without consulting the council. "You tried to bulldoze me," cried the mayor. "I deny it," replied Ald. Morrissey with some heat. There was considerable merriment among the spectators as the wordy duel proceeded.

Capt. John McLeod of the steamer Princess May, in port enroute to Skagway, reports the rescue in Queen Charlotte Sound on the present voyage north of T. Nash of Vancouver and companion from the power boat Olie Olligan which was adrift with engine broken in a storm. The two men had nearly perished by the time they were rescued.

Victoria Day was celebrated with many picnics and outings. Except for children's races, there was no special form of celebration within the city itself. The weather was very fine.

SEED TEST BEING MADE

Market May Be Found in Fraser Valley For 20 Cars From Central Interior Districts

A test is being made this year in the lower Fraser Valley with six hundred pounds of garden pea seed supplied from the Smithers, Vanderhoof and Prince George districts. The experiment is being followed with much interest in agricultural quarters as in the past all seed peas used in the Fraser Valley have been imported from Great Britain or the United States. If the experiment proves a success, it is believed that a market can be created within the province for upwards of twenty cars of pea seed from the central interior.

Harry Bowman, agricultural representative of the Canadian National Railways at Prince George, was largely instrumental in having the experiment made.

C.N.R. steamer Prince George, which is scheduled to sail at 10 o'clock tonight for the south, is being held until after arrival of the late train from the East tomorrow morning and will not be leaving until 7 a.m. There are a number of passengers for Vancouver coming in on the train.
