LICENSE BOARD GRANTS TWO BOTTLE LICENSES

Commissioner Vernor Smith Judiciously Refrains From Taking Part in Proceedings Relating to the Application of His Brother, J. Arthur Smith, Who Obtains License With E. J. Maynard--Austin Brown Turned Down

Bottle licences were granted by the Board of Licensing Commissioners yesterday afternoon to two applicants, viz., Ed. J. Maynard, and J. Arthur Smith. Commissioner Vernor Smith requested Chairman Hilditch for permission to abstain entirely from taking any part in the proceedings in regard to the application of J. Arthur Smith on account of the relationship of the applicant to himself. J. A. Smith is Vernor Smith's brother. The application of Austin M. Brown for a bottle licence was refused.

Hilditch and Hotels
Before proceeding to the consideration of the bottle licence applications Chairman Hilditch endeavored to make his position clear regarding these licences and their relation to the existing hotel licences. He said, "If I thought that these bottle licences had any detrimental bearing on the hotel licences, then I would not favor the granting of one of them. But on consideration I am satisfied that these would not conflict with the hotel licences."

A. Manson's View
Appearing on behalf of certain citizens Mr. Manson spoke against the granting of the bottle licences. He argued that there was no mistaking the meaning of the Act, and that bottle licences were unquestionably retail licences within Section 205. For that reason he argued that the Commissioners could not grant any further licences of any description unless they considered the population of the city 6,500 or over. He suggested that not even the most sanguine real estate agent would venture the opinion that the population of the city was that much.

Chairman Hilditch remarked that for himself he was inclined to take a common sense view of the matter rather than follow the terms of the Statute. "Even a lawyer," he said, "might stumble over the complications of the Statute."

HAD A PICNIC ON THE BEACH

Young People of Presbyterian Church Went to Metlakatla--Ladies Made Outing Success. Happiness Bubbled Everywhere

Games from football to baseball on the sandy beach at Metlakatla, then supper spread on top of old upturned boats half buried in the sand, then more romping and scampering until after ten o'clock followed by a trip back to the city by moonlight in gasoline launches. These were just a few of the pleasures that made up the programme of fun last evening when about sixty of the young people of the Presbyterian Church went to Metlakatla for a picnic.

Three launches, supplied by Davis's boat house, took the party from here soon after six o'clock. Rev. F. W. Kerr was chaperon to the whole party and he arranged that the young men pay for the hire of the launches and the ladies supply the supper.

And that was some supper. There were as many varieties of sandwiches and cakes as there are certain pickles and as everybody was real hungry there were few fragments to gather up after the feast.

There was a tug of war between the ladies who played on rival teams in the football match and there's a lot of uncertainty about the winners. It's enough to know that "our side won."

The picnic was the first the church has arranged but as it was so successful there is talk of having several more this season.

DIES AT NINETY-FOUR

Venerable Father of Sir Donald and Alex. Mann

(Canadian Press Despatch)
Acton, Ont., June 16.—Hugh Mann, the father of Sir Donald Mann, the famous railway contractor, and of Alexander R. Mann of Victoria, died here today at the advanced age of ninety-four years.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
London, June 16.—The nationalization of the Atlantic cable and the complete governmental control of all cables embraced in the All Red Route was the most important topic of discussion at the Imperial Conference this morning. It was introduced and strongly advocated by Premier Fisher of Australia, who stated that in order to cheapen cable rates and render more effective the communication between Great Britain, Canada, Australia and New Zealand the nationalization of the Atlantic cable was a necessity. By this action the Imperial Government would be in complete control of all the cables and telegraph lines comprised in the proposed All Red route.

State-owned Wireless Also Premier Ward of New Zealand also advocated this nationalization project, arguing in favor of a state-owned cable between England and Canada and the reduction of cable rates throughout the Empire. In addition to this he was in favor of the establishment of a chain of British-owned wireless stations and moved a resolution to this effect.

New Cable Across Atlantic
Both resolutions passed after some discussion, but the subject was again brought on a question as to what force could be brought to bear upon the owners of Atlantic cables to induce them to make the needed reduction in rates. This ended with the passage of a further motion on the subject which was made by the Postmaster-General of Great Britain. It was to the effect that if owners of Atlantic cables could not see their way clear to reduce the rates from time to time as the growth and popularity of cabling increased, the several Dominion governments would consider the practicability of laying a new state-owned cable across the Atlantic. It is believed this resolution will aid in bringing the Atlantic cable owners to terms.

EIGHT ST. LOUIS BLOCKS NOW SMOULDERING RUINS

Flames Still Raging in Factory District Where Hundreds Have Lost Their Homes—Loss is Estimated At Over a Million.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
St. Louis, Mo., June 16.—This city was visited by a tremendous fire during the night, and the damage done was this morning estimated at over one million dollars. The flames swept over a district of eight blocks and at noon today, while it was reported the fire was under control, it was still raging in one part of the district.

The fire broke out in the Nutting and Door factory, and owing to the immense amount of combustible material there the fire, fed by a brisk wind, was rapidly spread to the other buildings. One of the largest factories of the West are in the district over which the roaring flames were wildly driven and all of them were quickly a mass of ruins. The streets were filled for hours with a surging crowd of the residents, thousands of them carrying what they could to places of safety. Many homes were destroyed and there were many fatalities have so far been reported but a number of people injured by falling buildings were taken to the hospitals. The fire insurance companies will be very heavy.

SAILORS' STRIKE MAY SOON END

Canadian Pacific Companies and White Star Line Concede Their Employees an Advance in Wages.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
London, June 16.—The most important development in the general shipping strike today was the concession of an advance of $3.50 per month in wages to all employees involved by the White Star and the Canadian Pacific companies, an example which was followed later by the Holt and other lines of Liverpool. The outlook now is that the strike will come to a speedy end.

SIX RENEWALS LIKE PRUDHOMME'S GRANTED

Peculiar Position of the Licensing Commissioners Revealed by Examination of Renewal Applications—Other Hotel Men Besides Prudhomme Applied For Renewal to Commence Before Existing License Expires.

Mention was made of the Prudhomme case at yesterday's adjourned meeting of the License Board. Mr. Alex Manson desired to make clear to the Board that the application for renewal of Mr. Prudhomme's licence was intended to be for licence from the termination of the existing licence which is at midnight on July 15th. "We are applying," said Mr. Manson, "for a renewal of the licence which Mr. Prudhomme has now got."

Position of the Board
"You have got the great objection against you," said City Solicitor Peters, "that you apply for a licence on a specific date. Of course the Board can grant a licence from any date, but if it is granted on the 15th of June, it expires under the Statute on July 15th anyway."

To this Mr. Manson replied that he would like the matter left over in order that an amicable settlement might be come to. On behalf of Mr. Prudhomme he was prepared to do what the City Solicitor suggested was the proper course.

Peculiar Situation
The Chairman of the Licensing Board yesterday declared that all applications for renewal were public documents open to examination by anybody. An examination of the various applications for renewal of hotel licences reveals the interesting fact that of the seven applications for renewal which were granted on Wednesday, six definitely ask for licence "to commence on the 15th day of July" mentioning the specific date 15th July which as a matter of fact, is the date on which their existing licences expire. One application only, that of George Sweet for the Prince Rupert Inn, asks for renewal of licence "to commence on 16th July."

Prudhomme's Position
Messrs. Corley & Burgess, Peter Black, Olier Besner, Maurice Bondeaux, J. E. Gilmore (for Fred Henning) and Y. J. Rochester have

all asked for renewal to commence twenty-four hours before their existing licence expires. They have been granted renewal. A. J. Prudhomme's application asked for renewal commencing also on a date previous to the actual expiring of his existing licence. His application was refused. Mr. George Sweet of course applied for renewal to commence immediately on the expiring of his existing licence.

IS MISREPRESENTATION WILFUL OR AN ERROR?

New's Report Edited by City Alderman Makes Judge Murphy's Censure of Civic Authorities Read That He "Commended" Them—A Transparently Incorrect Report

The value of an independent newspaper, devoted only to the public welfare and the interests of the truth has been strikingly exemplified of late on many occasions in Prince Rupert. The recent attempts to prevent Mr. A. J. Prudhomme from securing a renewal of his license for the Savoy Hotel have been prolific of opportunities.

Our readers will remember that efforts were made—efforts repeated nightly for several nights—to give to the public an incorrect version of Mr. Justice Clement's judgment. Only the printing of the words of the mandamus of the learned judge put an end to the campaign of misrepresentation.

Yesterday, our despatches from Victoria gave the words of Mr. Justice Murphy's censure of the civic authorities of Prince Rupert for their negligence in not having the Riot Act read at the outbreak of hostilities on the day of the riot.

A contemporary, owned and edited by a member of the city council printed the story but instead of printing the Judge's censure, stated that the learned Judge commended the civic authorities for reading the Riot Act on the first intimation of trouble.

The statement carries its own denial, for it is household knowledge that the Riot Act was not read then, nor at any other time during the strike. It was the Mayor's neglect to read the Riot Act that started the jest that the Mayor was under the bed.

The News is loth to believe that any member of the most useful profession in the world would wilfully distort and misrepresent well-known facts to deceive the public. Had it been an isolated instance a charitable construction might have been placed on it. In the present case it looks like a deliberate act by one of the civic authorities referred to be the Judge, to mislead the people of Prince Rupert.

Fortunately the matter is easily capable of correction.

A SMART STREET COSTUME

quickly it falls just as quickly. A very homely but a very sure test of the oven is to feel the handle or steel. If you cannot hold it comfortably it is the right temperature; if it burns you when you touch it it is too hot. Do not be guided to the minute by the time given in cookery books—use your judgment, and practice soon teaches you. A cake may one day take a quarter of an hour longer than another day; the heat won't always bake quite the same. Dry out your cakes before removing them from the oven; that is to say, when they are cooked turn off the gas and leave them for ten minutes in the hot oven. Measures—American, 2 level tablespoons go to 1 ounce; English, 1 heaped tablespoon goes to 1 ounce.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

A tea given by the members of the Ladies' Aid of the General Hospital, at the residence of Mrs. W. Stewart Benson, was an unqualified success both socially and financially. The table was beautifully decorated with a centerpiece of white tulle over pink, surmounted by a bowl of pale pink hare-bells and berries. The hostess received in a pretty gown of cream net relieved with touches of blue, and was assisted by Mrs. Arnold in a smart costume of golden brown peau-de-soie, with large white hat with rose trimming, and Mrs. Eggert in a handsome black gown and hat. Mrs. William Manson in a smart costume of gray silk and tuscany hat with large black plume and handsome trimming, presided at the tea table and was assisted by a bevy of pretty young girls in nurses' costume: Madeline Nelson, Esther Naden and Muriel Patmore. Little Miss Lenore Benson, the small daughter of the house, ushered in the guests. The following is a partial list of those present: Mrs. Tremayne, Mrs. Pillsbury, Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Young, Mrs. Alex. The model here shown is of old blue pongee and linen lace dyed to match. The combination is very rich and distinctive in style. The sleeves and edge of the jacket and lower edge of the band of lace on the skirt are bordered with a narrow band of blue silk and finished with silk gretots in a shade of blue to match. The hat is a graceful shape of black crin, trimmed with large flat loops of soft silk in old blue, and a wreath of pink roses.

ITALIAN'S WAGE BILL Difficulty Between Joseph Carissi and His Man Stanio Before Magistrate Carrs this morning a wage problem which has arisen between Joseph Carissi of the Grandview Hotel, and a countryman of his named Stanio was discussed this morning. It appears that Stanio was working for Carissi on some vague understanding that he should receive, part or whole payment in board and lodging. Stanio requires wages in currency also, and the question was what agreement had been made. The Magistrate unravelled the tangle, and Stanio will receive wages.

ITEMS OF SPORT Mr. Sylvanus Gregg, the young Cleveland pitcher, has about everything a genuine big league shooter should have. Bill Bergen is catching good ball for Brooklyn. The way the veteran shoots the ball around the diamond is as fine scenery as the Yosemite Valley. The pennant-winning New Bedford team is at the bottom of the heap, being held down by seven husky New England League teams. The British Columbia Lacrosse Association has more trouble on its hands, and this time it is the old one of referees. Ald. Wells Gray of New Westminster, one of the two official referees selected by the association at the annual meeting, has decided that he has had enough of the game and the other day he tendered his resignation to the league secretary. "Young Cy" Young, who has travelled from the minors to the majors, from the majors back to the bushes and returned once more to fast society, is pitching the winning kind for the White Sox. The Columbus team has been a big surprise in the American Association. The Senators were not considered very strong, but they have been strangling the A. A. teams as fast as they could to get them. South Bend of the Central League, has signed a 15-year-old lad to play the infield. The boy is Howard Ellis, and he is said to be one of the most promising looking youngsters ever seen by Manager Smith, himself a veteran ball tosser. Ellis will be forced to oust Kohler, a veteran, to make the second base position. In case he falls a little shy of the mark he will be farmed out somewhere, so that Manager Smith can keep a close watch on him. All Pittsburg race track precedents were shattered when Jay Joffe, a trotting horse owned by Benjamin Bowers, trotted home in a mile heat and won a race in 2 minutes 16 seconds. The remarkable feature of Jay Joffe's performance was that six months ago he lay prostrate on the track with a broken neck. At that time he was not shot, as he was not thought to be suffering because of paralysis. The horse, however, began to mend and has gradually grown better until he was today entered in a race. Freddie Welsh wired Milton T. Clark the other day that he was already on his way to San Francisco for the purpose of meeting Matty Baldwin in a 20-round go some time this month. Welsh wants the promoter to secure training quarters for him, and get him a vegetarian cook. He has been a vegetarian ever since he found that Kid Broad got a lot of advertising out of it. He gets more ferocity out of a cabbage more science out of a young onion and more stamina out of a flock of asparagus than those beef-eaters can assimilate from a whole side of beef. Leave it to Freddie. He knows that all strength comes out of the ground, and he wants it firsthand.
