CONSIDER NEW UNIT

Establishment of Maternity Building in Connection With Hospital Still Live Issue

The hospital board is still considering the possibility of establishing a new maternity unit in connection with the Prince Rupert General Hospital.

At last night's board meeting the house committee reported that it did not consider feasible the suggestion that a new nursery be put in by the addition of a storey above the classroom section of the building but recommended that sketches and plans be drawn up for a unit separate altogether from the present building, that advice be sought from the provincial architect's department and that Premier T. D. Pattullo be approached, through City Commissioner W. J. Alder, who is at present in Victoria, with a view to canvassing the possibility of obtaining government aid for such an undertaking. The Prince Rupert Medical Association is also to be asked for its endorsement.

Impressive Yet Simple Rites Solemnized For Sir Arthur Currie, Thousands Taking Part

Tributes General

Funeral in Montreal—Memorial at Westminster Abbey in London And Toronto

MONTREAL, Dec. 9. (CP)—There were cold winds and wintry skies around Christ Church Cathedral here as impressive yet simple rites marked the funeral of Sir Arthur Currie, principal of McGill University and commander-in-chief of the Canadian Army Corps in France during the last two years of the Great War. It was the fifty-eighth anniversary of the birth of the great Canadian soldier.

Following the service in the cathedral from which thousands were turned away and which was attended by the Earl of Bessborough representing the King, Prime Minister R. B. Bennett, W. D. Robbins, United States minister to Canada and many other prominent dignitaries and officials, the casket was borne on a flag-draped gun carriage through streets crowded with many more thousands to Mount Royal Cemetery where interment was made. Students of McGill University marched in a body as did also ex-service men while military bodies also participated.

There was a seventeen gun salute and "The Last Post" was sounded as the remains were lowered into the final resting place.

London and Toronto

LONDON, Dec. 9. (CP)—Simultaneously with the funeral service in Montreal, a memorial service was held in Westminster Abbey in honor of the memory of Sir Arthur Currie. There was a large attendance of prominent Britishers and Canadians.

TORONTO, Dec. 9. (CP)—Toronto joined the rest of the Dominion in national mourning for Sir Arthur Currie. Thousands attended a memorial service held here.

Another Test Run

The Secony-Vacuum Corporation of New York conducted a test run of many makes of cars on a route through the Peace River Country, Alberta, touching at Edmonton, Saskatoon, Moose Jaw, Regina, North Portal and down through the United States and on into Mexico. The leading car was a Ford V-8 Fordor, owned by the Secony-Vacuum and bringing up the rear was a V-8 Cabriolet which was driven by the Secretary of the Expedition.

Included in the tour were a Chevrolet, Buick, Oldsmobile, LaSalle, Cadillac, two Pierce Arrows, G. M. C. truck, Studebaker, Pontiac, and other makes, as well as two Fords.

It is interesting to note that it was reported on the arrival of the caravan at Edmonton from the Peace River Country that the V-8's were the only units which made the round trip through mud without having to be towed. On a close check we find one of the V-8's travelled ten continuous hours in low gear, the temperature never exceeded 140 degrees and gasoline consumption was one gallon to ten miles while running in low gear. All the other cars had boiling radiators and required repeated additions of water.

VIEWS OF FARMER'S WIFE

Editor, Daily News:—

May I ask for a little space in your paper on the subject of "Buying at Home." I lived for several years in the city of Prince Rupert and, while living there, learned to send for my needs to the mail order houses. In my opinion it is a lot the storekeepers' fault that the people send away for their goods. Some nine years ago, when I was new at Prince Rupert and had to buy my first pair of shoes I happened to be passing a store that had shoes in the window and there was one pair I thought would be my size. The price was $4.50. I wanted to buy them but I found they did not fit my feet. The storekeeper showed me another pair that were $6.50. Now I needed a pair so of course, I told the storekeeper that I wanted the $6.50 ones, but I only had $5 in my purse. The storekeeper was keen on making that sale so he asked me to give him the $5.00 and get the rest of the money, $1.50, and then he would give me the shoes.

I paid the $5.00 down as he wanted me to and got my shoes after going home and back again with the rest of the money but it was the first and the last pair of shoes I bought there. Having to pay down the $5.00 was too much for me. After that I started to send away for my shoes and I know what I get for my money. Yes, I send the money with the order so pay in advance but I can send any goods back and get the money back. Would I have got my five dollars back had I decided not to buy those shoes? I might have but it might have been an unpleasant job.

Then I think the storekeepers do wrong in having their sales. It would be better to have things at a reasonable price all the time. I have seen dress goods in the spring marked $1.75 per yard and the same goods in a mail order catalogue for $1.25. Later in the season the Prince Rupert store sold below the price of the mail order house. So why not set the price at the start lower and have everybody buy then and there?

Prints for housedresses are advertised on certain days at four yards for $1.00. That is 25c per yard. I have bought better goods four years before for 23c per yard at the mail order house. People can buy only on certain days for that price. Other days it would be 30c or maybe more per yard. Would it not be better to set the price at 25c a yard instead of sometimes four yards for a dollar and have people buy whenever they want and let them buy one, two or three or as many yards as they need as one can buy from the mail order house.

One Saturday night I went down town to buy a certain garment that used to be advertised at $1.00. It was a dollar day but this garment was not in the window. Thinking it might be on a table inside I went in but I could not see it. The storekeeper asked me what I wanted and I told him. Well, I bought that garment for $1.00. Did I get it at that price because there was a dollar day at that store or was the garment's price $1.00 at all times? At the mail order house it was 95c. I am sure if people would know they get it at $1.00 at all times they would not send away for the sake of five cents and wait for the parcel 10 days. The same applies to many other things.

I am living now in the interior and am trying to make a living with farming but I find it hard as Prince Rupert people buy too much farm products from the south. The farmers were advised this fall to send their goods to McMeekin, the wholesaler but, in shipping to him, we do not know what we get, as it seems he has to sell at any price to compete with other wholesalers who get their vegetables from the south. If he can sell, he gets his 10%. If he can't sell on account of the southern products where do the farmers up here come off? Now a lot of the farmers buy their groceries at Prince Rupert but do the farmers around Vancouver do that?

Two days ago there was a train with special rate and only 96 persons took advantage of it. Very few were farmers. If the farmers had any money I am sure the number would have been much larger. Many a farmer's wife who does not get away from the farm often would sure have liked to use that special rate and visit Prince Rupert. Everybody knows how women like to shop but, as there is no money or very little, well the most necessary shopping is done by mail order and not at a visit at Prince Rupert.

AFFAIR WAS SUCCESSFUL

Fine Event Staged Last Night By Toc H in Aid of Library

The bridge and whist drive and dance which the Toc H group staged in the Moose Hall last night came up to full expectations and proved an unqualified success in every way. The spirit of social fellowship pervaded the whole affair and the merry company did not disperse until about 2:30 in the morning. Sixty-four tables were all occupied for the card games and at 11 o'clock the dancers arrived making a crowd of about four hundred people.

The Boys' Band played selections on Third Avenue and gave the company more entertainment in the hall during the evening. After the card playing, Dr. Mandy, president of Toc H, paid a glowing tribute to Bandmaster Greenfield and his boys, urging the citizens to support the band in every way possible and claiming that it was one of the best Boys' Bands in B.C.

great talent in some clever tap dancing much to the delight of the assembly.

During the evening, the announcer, Harold Ponder, called for three cheers for William Lamb to whom much of the success of organizing the affair was due. Modest Mr. Lamb tried to escape but was promptly hauled to the platform and suitably repaid in a few words. Mrs. Mandy, in presenting the prizes, gave each recipient some good advice and her witticisms evoked much laughter. Mention should be made of Mrs. Black's orchestra which so ably set and kept the feet of all dancing in rhythmic time. The members of Toc H were all on deck working like Trojans, some in the kitchen, some acting as waiters, doorkeepers, dishwashers, etc.

The winners were as follows:

Bridge—Men's first, W. McLean; ladies' first, Mrs. T. Krievsky; second, N. McKay; ladies' second, Mrs. Jones.
Whist—Men's first, P. Wingham; ladies' first, Mrs. T. Elliott; men's second, H. Foroy; ladies' second, Mrs. A. E. Evans.

WATERFRONT WHIFFS

Shocking News From West Coast—Director of Experimental Station Leaving—New Machine Shop Opens

The local waterfront was shocked to learn from news dispatches this week of the evident loss of Ole Johanson, Helge Jacobsen, Einar Oksvik and Soren Knutsen, well known salmon trollers, some of whom made their headquarters in Prince Rupert, who are feared to have perished in the destruction of the boats Bella, E. O. 1629 and S. K. near Clo-oose off the West Coast of Vancouver Island in a fierce storm on Tuesday morning of this week. The wrecks of the Bella and E. O. 1629, which actually hailed from New Westminster, have been found, while the S. K. is still missing. The four men who are believed to be lost did not by any means make their permanent homes here but, like many of the trollers, were more or less itinerant, moving from place to place according to fishing conditions. All were well known at this port and some of them were reported to be enroute here at the time their boats came to grief.

Two coastal liners were in port last evening in the course of regular northern voyages. The Princess Adelaide, Capt. S. K. Gray, arrived at 3:15 p.m. from the south and the Cardena at 8:30 p.m., the former sailing at 10 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints and the latter at 12 p.m.

The local halibut boat Ingrid H. Capt. Charlie Lundquist, sailed at midnight Wednesday for Anyox having on board Andy Macdonald of the Moose Lodge gym and his boxing proteges, Billy Bagshaw and Johnny McLeod, who were to meet Benny Windle and Pete Chenoski respectively in the principal events of a boxing card at the smelter town last night. A party of fans, about a dozen, is also making the trip and they expect to return home late this afternoon or evening.

Capt. Dave Ritchie brought in his halibut boat Unome Thursday morning from the mouth of the Skeena River with another load of flat-fish which was offered for retail sale direct from the boat. Many local people are well aware of the fine quality of the fine fresh fish and avail themselves of any opportunity to obtain them. A word to others would be to give them a trial. The Unome has been following this line of fishing for the past six weeks.

The Bytown Machine Works, Bill Richards, proprietor, is the latest new business enterprise to make its debut on the local waterfront. Bill has opened up his shop at Cow Bay in the premises formerly occupied by Charlie Nelson and is ready and anxious to receive all business offering in his line including welding, general machine work, engine installation, etc. He has been associated with many local shops for years and is well known and popular. Undoubtedly, he will do well in the new undertaking. Billy has named his shop after "Bytown" the old name for Ottawa, the capital of Canada where he himself was born and which is his ancestral home as his mother, grandfather and great grandfather before him all were born there, the last-mentioned 138 years ago. Billy, it can be readily seen, can qualify as a true blue Canadian citizen if there ever was one.

D. B. Finn, director of the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station since its inception with the exception of a lapse of a year or so, will leave Prince Rupert on Thursday of next week. He will leave Mrs. Finn and child at Chilliwack in the Fraser Valley and remain there himself until Christmas when he will proceed to Ottawa to attend the annual meeting of the Biological Board of Canada after which he will sail on January 5 from New York aboard the steamer Berengaria for England to take up three months of post-graduate study at Cambridge University. On his return to Canada he will assume new duties as director of the Halifax Experimental Station of the Biological Board of Canada. Mr. Finn's departure from Prince Rupert is a matter of regret among many friends not only in the fishing industry but generally in the community in the life of which he has taken an active and prominent part.

The fire department had a call at 7:15 last evening to a chimney fire at King Edward High School.
