GOSSIP

Gossip, plain devil-tongued talking about other people is an outstanding social curse of our day, says the Rotarian. More homes are broken, more happiness ruined, more careers are downcast, more banks are closed by the careless repetition of guesses, rumors, scandals, half-truths, and untruths than by any other one cause.

Men used to repeat a bluff that only women gossiped. It would be foolish to pretend that today. Women know better. The worst of it is that gossip now assumes a cloak of respectability. True conversation has become povertystricken. We have become afraid to admit that we know anything. We speak nothings. We gossip.

Gossip does not reguire sustained mental effort. Gossip is not a product of mental processes, but only proves a vocal agility and a morbid attic. Gossip is chatter. Gossip | The Letter Box

Gossip proceeds from jealousy, grows heavy on guesses, thrives on hurried whispers, and waxes juicy on "I told vou so's." Gossip deals in dirt.

Gossip is a leech. It sucks the lifeblood of happy human relationships.

Gossip lurks. In sunlight gossip would wither like mould. To classify as 'spurious' the Gossip rattles the skeleton in the closet; does not tread the statement of Thomas Hobbes on open street.

Gossip is a coward. Confronted by truth, it slinks away like any masquerading cur.

Gossip is a traitor. It sticks like pitch and tar to the one who traffics in it.
