Hunt's Ship Chandlery Premises
Again Broken Into—Small Sum of Cash and Goods Taken

Late Saturday night the ship chandlery store of F. E. Hunt Ltd. on the local waterfront was broken into and $2.25 in silver taken from the cash register as well as 1200 cigarettes and three woollen jumper coats. Apparently, the office and safe were not tampered with and a considerable amount of cash which had been left in a drawer was not touched. The matter was reported to the police at 11 o'clock yesterday morning and investigation is proceeding.

Entry was made by an upstairs window by the prowler who had, evidently, climbed up the Albert & McCaffery gravel bunker adjoining the building, smashing the window with a rock and getting in through the attic and down a trapdoor. The burglar is believed to have been wearing cotton gloves.

Development of Free Gold Mine On Dome Mountain Near Telkwa Continuing With Good Results

Possibly the most promising new mining operation in the central interior at the present time is that on the Free Gold property on the northeast slope of Dome Mountain, thirty miles east of Telkwa, which is under rather extensive development by the Babine Gold Mines Limited N. P. L. with a crew of ten men employed. Work on the property was commenced last July, has continued steadily throughout the winter and is proceeding with results that are reported to be most gratifying. R. W. Wilson of Vancouver of W. R. Wilson & Sons is in personal charge and a few days ago returned to the property after a business trip to Vancouver in connection with the financing.

Reporting that sanitary conditions in the vicinity of the intersection of Fourth and Fifth Avenues and Hays Cove Circle were far from satisfactory, Dr. J. P. The recommendation was passed on to the commissioner.

German Vice-Chancellor Likens Present Situation to That of 1914, Urging Mothers of Country to Bear Sons to Fall on Battlefields

LONDON, May 15: (Canadian Press)—Efforts were being made in Downing Street today to calm the sensation over the week-end in the press concerning the general European crisis. It was stated that anxiety was being felt in official circles regarding developments of the past week. Several morning papers spoke of increased tension viewing as the main danger the renewed German war spirit.

Vice-Chancellor Franz von Papen of Germany, in a speech Saturday night, compared the present German situation to that of 1914 demanding that mothers bear sons to fall on the battlefields, asserting that war is for man what motherhood is for woman.

Some of the developments of the past week in the European crisis were as follows:

Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin, British Lord President of the Council, in an address here, declared that startling changes in Germany "have filled every foreign office with anxiety."

Foreign Minister Joseph Paul Boncour of France declared that the Versailles treaty will continue to operate even if German transgression causes the disarmament conference to fail.

The German Reichstag was called into session for Wednesday of this week to discuss the deadlock at the world disarmament conference.

through Alex Chisholm, well known district prospector, the property is owned by the Babine Gold Mines Ltd. in which the principals are the Wilsons and Chisholm, development of the property has been financed by the Wilsons. Surface work was carried out last fall when a shallow shaft was driven with several drifts. Since November 500 feet of tunnel has been driven with cross-cuts under the surface showings, some drifting being carried out as well. Values consist of high grade free-milling gold in quartz, strong veins of gold ore having been opened up.

The Free Gold immediately adjoins the property of the Dome Mountain Gold Mines Limited, a Guggenheim property, on which a large block of ore was developed during extensive work carried out in 1923 and 1924.

LAST MEET OF COUNCIL

Mayor Stephens Reviews Work of
1933 Council Which He Feels
Was Not All in Vain

Help Commissioner

Urges Co-operation For Mr. Alder
—Ald. Black Bitter to End

On the eve of the advent of the commissioner in the city, mayor and aldermen bade farewell to civic cares at the final meeting of the city council on Saturday night, it being a special session to clean up certain outstanding items of business. Mayor M. M. Stephens was the principal valedictorian.

Just before adjournment, His Worship stated that he would like to express his appreciation of the co-operation and assistance that had been accorded him by members of the council during his term of office since mid-January. The efforts of the 1933 council, the mayor felt, had not been all in vain. The financial standing of the city might not be all that might be wished for, it was true, but it was far from being hopeless. This year's council, he believed, had been able to do some substantial work which would probably be to the lasting good of the city.

Briefly reviewing some of the accomplishments of the 1933 council, His Worship referred to the plebiscite which had been passed by the ratepayers at the January election favoring legislation to provide local option for municipalities in the matter of one or two year terms for councils. This had been presented to the convention of the Union of B. C. Municipalities by which it had been approved and had now been incorporated in the Municipal Act. While Prince Rupert might not be able to exercise the legislation for some time, other municipalities might benefit from it.

This year's council had made some departmental changes and had been able to institute economies in some of the departments, His Worship continued. He wished to thank the library board which had cut its estimates for the year by one-third, the reading room committee which had been able to make a similar reduction and the school board which had pared its budget for the year considerably. As a result of various economies which had been effected, a reduction amounting to some $30,000 annually had been made.

The mayor also had a kindly word to say for the press. In this connection—

The action arose out of a long series of negotiations over automobiles between 1928 and 1932 in which plaintiff was purchaser and defendants vendors.

On her present voyage inward across the Pacific Ocean from the Orient, the steamer Empress of Japan brought no less than 900 tons of beer from Japan for thirsty Honolulu following the coming into effect of legalization of consumption of beer in United States and its possessions.

Honolulu was unable to get beer from the United States owing to the supply there still being far below the demand. Owing to the poor water, beer cannot be manufactured on the Hawaiian Islands.

The Empress of Japan arrived in Vancouver last week from the Orient.

NEW PHASE IN PRINCE RUPERT'S CIVIC LIFE IS ENTERED UPON TODAY

Commissioner W. J. Alder Assumes Office Today and City Council Goes Out of Existence—Has Faith in Future

With W. J. Alder of Victoria arriving here this morning on the Princess Norah from the south to assume his appointment as commissioner of the Corporation of the City of Prince Rupert, an important new phase in affairs of the municipality commences.

Since its incorporation in 1910, the city has been governed by a mayor and council, school board affairs being in charge of a board of trustees. Both these bodies now go out of existence and the commissioner, with wider powers than either enjoyed, takes sole charge of the city's business in all its phases. The general object of the commissioner's duties is to restore the city as soon as possible to a sound financial basis after which, at the discretion of the provincial government, it may again resume self-government. In the most of instances in the past, it has taken the commissioner several years to accomplish his object.

Several other municipalities in British Columbia have recently had commissioners appointed to take over administration of their affairs, these including North Vancouver City, North Vancouver district, Burnaby municipality and Burnaby city.

Mr. Alder takes up his headquarters at the City Hall immediately.

Mr. Alder lived for many years in Prince Rupert in the early days and, as one of the largest property owners here, has a considerable interest in the welfare of the town.

Discussing some aspects of the duties facing him, Mr. Alder expresses abiding faith in the future of the city which has the essential elements of virility and growth once it emerges from its present difficulties to support a population of twice its present size.

To get this population, Mr. Alder declares the citizens will have to cooperate in the fight to obtain the business of the district that is its due. Mr. Alder believes Prince Rupert will have to place its business on a basis fairly comparable with that of other coast ports, cultivate its rail connection with the rest of the country and unite all forces in a common effort to make the best of its present-day facilities.

"To organize along these lines I consider one of my most important duties as commissioner," declared Mr. Alder this morning. "It is my hope to have in my work the co-operation of every man, woman and child in the community. Given that I am confident we will be able to put the city and port on its feet. Had I not been confident of it I would not have assumed the commissioner's office."

As one who spent years in the area, and has large holdings here Mr. Alder is a consistent believer in the future of the city.

Business Administration
"I can promise you a business administration," declared Mr. Alder in commenting more specifically along the lines of municipal business. He would have to spend a time surveying the situation at the City Hall generally before he would be able to make any announcements regarding civic administration, said the commissioner, who added, however, that he already had some ideas in mind.

Mr. Alder, soon after his arrival,

HOUSING REPORT

City Council Receives Details of How Payments Stand in Respect to Soldiers' Property

In compliance with a recent request of the city council, City Treasurer D. J. Matheson submitted to the council at its meeting Saturday night a report showing particulars of the status of forty-four houses under the Soldiers' Housing Scheme payments on which to the city have not yet been completed.

"I might state," said Mr. Matheson's report, "that the agreement holders are in most cases making strong efforts to keep up their payments and show a decided improvement in that respect since the last report."

Mayor Stephens intimated that the housing committee had been able to effect permanent settlement for arrears in a number of cases under which the agreement holders had undertaken to keep up regular payments in addition to a porportion of the arrears.

The report, which was referred to the commissioner, revealed individual balances due the city as at January 1 last varying from $622.54 to $2517.01. Amounts in arrears as at January 1 ranged in individual cases from $22 to $1232.75 with thirteen properties showing no arrears. Payments made since January 1 had varied from $20 to $320 while, in twelve cases, no payments whatever had been made since the first of the year. Monthly payment rates range from $9.40 to $25.

City Council Hears How Rentals Stand—Explanation is Made by Mayor

At the final meeting of the city council on Saturday night, a report was presented by D. J. Matheson, city treasurer, in regard to rentals paid by tenants of the McIntyre Block for the period since October 1 last when the property reverted to the city for taxes. In all $440 had been paid, there being six tenants. This amount had been credited by the agent to fire and automobile policies delivered to the city.

During the meeting, Mayor M. M. Stephens informed the council that, since the meeting of Monday night last, he had found that he had been mistaken in informing the council at that time that he had received but $100 from one of the tenants in back rent since October. On looking up his books he had found that actually $200 had been paid by this tenant who still owed $350 for back rent prior to October 1. This, of course, had been credited to the original owner. Incidentally, it had been collected before Mr. Stephens had become mayor or had even thought of running for office.

SOFTBALL UNDER WAY

C. N. R. A. Defeats Grotto and Navy Wins Over Kaiens in Openers

The City Softball League got away to a fine start yesterday afternoon when the first two games of the schedule were played off before a fair-sized crowd despite the unsettled weather.

In the first game, the Canadian National Recreation Association managed to keep the Grotto nine down to a 7-5 score. The Grotto started the scoring in the first half of the first inning by bringing in two men. No scoring was registered from then until the last half of the fourth when Raby, for the C. N. R. A., clouted a home run to right field with two men in front of him. The Grotto gained three more runs and the Canadian National two up to the sixth inning making the score five all. Everything was even from then until the last of the ninth inning when Horton for the C. N. R. A., landed a three-bagger in right field scoring two men.

The second game, between the Kaiens and the R. C. N. V. R., resulted in a win for the latter. In the tenth inning, 5 to 4. The Navy boys drew first blood in the last of the third inning, only to have the Kaiens overtake them with two runs. The Navy then repeated the performance for themselves and the Kaiens scored again making the score three-all at the end of the eighth. Each team registered one run in the ninth making everything even again. However, after holding their opponents down in the first of the tenth, the Navy managed to bring in the winning run in the last half of the same inning.

Both games were fast considering they were the first of the season and the fans were treated to a good brand of ball. As the season progresses and the teams get down to business, these softball game will be well worth watching.

The next game will be on Tuesday night between the Grotto and the Navy.

On these lots were two small buildings, one of which was occupied by a Japanese who was on relief and the other by a Chinaman who stated that he would try to pay $5 per month but, if he were charged more, he would move out. The buildings were both practically worthless, being in a bad state of repair. The report was referred to the commissioner.

Mrs. F. C. Freeman of Port Simpson, who has been on a trip to Vancouver, was a passenger aboard the Catala last evening returning north.

L. S. McGill, Smithers barrister, who acted as crown prosecutor at the recent Assizes here, leaves by tonight's train on his return to the interior.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. A. E. Dickson, arrived in port at 5:15 yesterday afternoon from the south and sailed at 8 p.m. for Anyox, Stewart and other northern points whence she will return here tomorrow morning and sail at 1:30 p.m. for Vancouver and waypoints.

J. R. McWilliams has taken over duty as wireless operator on the steamer Catala on its present voyage north. He is one of the best known Marconi men on the coast and at one time was located at Buckley Bay on the Queen Charlotte Islands as well as having served in the past on many other coasting vessels.

As a result of some adjustments which had been made, Ald. Rochester, chairman of the finance committee, informed the city council at its meeting Saturday night that instead of the city owing the Workmen's Compensation Board some $640, as had at first been understood, it was now found there was actually an amount to the credit of the city from the Board of $46. This was due largely to reduced salaries and expenses.

During discussion at Saturday night's council meeting of rental properties in possession of the city, the McPhee estate, which was willed to the city by the late Joseph N. McPhee, the proceeds to be used for children's playground purposes, was referred to. As far as this property was concerned, Mayor Stephens expressed the view that, the sooner the city forgot it, the better as it would cost more to liquidate the estate than could be got out of it. Some mining claims, which were included, were practically worthless. His Worship informed the council.

You Can't Fool a BLOOD Test

On November 14, 1932, a pale, thin girl walked into a physician's office and had her blood tested. The reason for her condition was at once evident. The haemoglobin content of her blood was only 68 per cent. Red corpuscle count only 4,640,000. She just had to be pale. And her weight was but 91½ pounds.

The physician, who knew the formula of the remedy, told her to take two of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills after each meal and to come back in a month for another test. She followed instructions and took no other medicine.

On December 14 her blood showed 88 per cent. haemoglobin

Mrs. Joshua Kingham of Victoria arrived in the city on the Catala yesterday afternoon from the south to pay a visit with her daughter, Mrs. S. D. Johnston, Graham Avenue, Westview.

Harry Langley, official stenographer of the Supreme Court, who was in attendance at the Assize here last week in his official capacity, leaves on tonight's train for Prince George to attend the Assize opening there this week. Mr. Langley makes his home in Victoria.

and 5,024,000 red corpuscles. Her weight was 100½ pounds, a gain of nine pounds in thirty days! She had gained color and attractiveness. The doctor noticed for the first time that she was positively pretty. Blood tests scientifically prove the real value of a blood-building remedy. If you are anaemic, pale and underweight; if you lack ambition and energy, get a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from your druggist and begin the treatment today. Revitalize your blood stream and build up new resources of strength and vigor. You are taking no chances. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are clinically tested.

The steamer Prince John, Capt. Dan McKinnon, will continue as at present on a fortnightly service between here and Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands on a fortnightly schedule.

C.P.R. steamer Princess Norah, Capt. Albert Rippon, arrived in port at 10 o'clock this morning from Vancouver and sailed an hour later on a regular voyage to Skagway and other northern points. The vessel had on board 110 passengers of whom three disembarked here, six persons leaving on the vessel for the north from here. The through passenger list included many members of the crews of White Pass and Yukon steamers going north for the season.

TWO FILMS FEATURED

"Red Headed Woman" and "Mischief" at Capitol Theatre

"Red Headed Woman," character study of a woman who stops at nothing to gain her unscrupulous ends, and "Mischief," an uproarious British comedy, are the features of a double bill picture program being offered at the Capitol Theatre here the first of this week. Principal actors in the former include Jean Harlow, Chester Morris, Lewis Stone, Leila Hyams, Una Merkel and May Robson. Ralph Lynn, British comedian, dominates the latter.

Starting out as a stenographer, with her only weapons a generous supply of sex-appeal and an overwhelming ambition for wealth and social prestige, Miss Harlow, in "Red Headed Woman," ends up with her hands on a title and its accompanying millions. In her wake, however, she leaves a trail of broken hearts, disrupted homes and disillusioned men.

Ralph Lynn takes hold of "Mischief" from the very beginning. He is the silly ass with the serious face and that certain sense of dignity which always rescues him from vulgarity. He finds himself in many difficult situations and he invariably succeeds in making them rather worse and drawing a lot of trouble upon his own head, through his well-meaning though, unfortunately, clumsy intervention. Trying to calm down an enraged husband and wife, his pacific attempts leave them angrier than before. And his efforts to extinguish a chimney on fire result in his own sudden and unpremeditated descent from the roof into the water butt.

MONDAY & TUESDAY TWO SHOWS—7 & 9 p.m. Admission — 15c & 50c

Wednesday & Thursday "LUXURY LINER" Two Grand Pictures in a Double Bill Gorgeous JEAN HARLOW and CHESTER MORRIS in "Red Headed Woman" With Lewis Stone, Leila Hyams. A M-G-M Picture. LAST MEET OF COUNCIL

nection, he thought that the general sentiment of the council was appreciative of the full and fair reports that had been given the meetings by the papers which had had no financial benefit to derive.

The Commissioner

As for the commissionership, the mayor stated that he wanted to ask the members of this city council and the citizens as a whole to give Mr. Alder all the operation possible after he assumed office. The commissioner would have a big job on his hands and he would require the sympathy and co-operation of the people generally. If this was forthcoming, his duties would be much less onerous and it would be to the lasting good of the city.

His Worship thanked the Chamber of Commerce for its co-operation, particularly in connection with the taking up of the matter of the repair of the steamer Prince Rupert. In this connection he also thanked the Trades and Labor Council and the Retail Merchants' Association.

The mayor also had a few special remarks for Ald. Casey. "For Ald. Casey, who has been my principal critic," His Worship stated, "I have nothing but the best of goodwill. We have had our rough and tumbles. If he has had something to say, he has not been afraid to say it. Let me say that is the kind of a man I like to get along with."

"Move we adjourn," from Ald. Casey gruffly.

"I suppose we might say we are all being 'fired' on the fifteenth," remarked Ald. Rochester. "For me it will be the first time to be 'fired' in thirty years." Ald. Rochester had no regrets at having been a member of a council which had not been harmonious at all times. Little disputes, he felt, tended to bring out the best in people who were all the better for them. The chairman of the finance committee recalled the old school day adage: "Be flat, be sharp, but always be natural."

Ald. Black Sarcastic

Ald. Black was not content to have the final session end with peace and harmony prevailing. He had a few special remarks reserved for Mayor Stephens and they were not exactly appreciative. "I have never seen the mayor in a more sympathetic mood than he appears to be in tonight," said Ald. Black. "Let me say that as far as some of us on this council have been concerned he has opposed us at every turn. Never has he had a word of sympathy to say for the 960 or so poor people of this city who have been trying and struggling to get along on relief. As far as the laboring people, whom I am supposed to represent, are concerned, I think they would just as soon have a dictator as Mayor Stephens and, let me assure him that, if labor ever comes back in Prince Rupert, it will remember him with loving kindness."

"The meeting is adjourned," declared the mayor without further comment, but smiling.

It was the end of city councils in Prince Rupert for possibly several years.
