VICTORIA, March 29: (CP)—Premier S. F. Tolmie communicated with T. D. Dr. Mandy is Heard at Tox H Gathering

The Tox H held a very enjoyable social evening last night in their club rooms for members and friends, there being about fifty persons present.

Dr. J. T. Mandy, resident mining engineer, gave a very interesting lantern lecture on British Columbia. He illustrated by pictures the country before the white man came when it was only inhabited by Indians and showed the great development and progress that has been made during the years.

Following the lecture cards and shuffle board were played and refreshments were served. The tables were very daintily decorated by Mrs. W. Brass.

G. P. Lyons was chairman of the meeting and the committee in charge consisted of Dr. W. C. Aspinall, T. Andrews, L. Squires and B. Lamb.

Representative for Omineca Charges Tolmie With Seeking Sympathy in His Appeal For Union at This Time

VICTORIA, March 29: (CP)—Claiming that the Tolmie government was seeking sympathy and appealing for union government after five years of incompetent administration, A. M. Manson K.C., member of the Legislature for Omineca, appealed to the House yesterday to "do a British thing" and "let us close the Legislature and go to the people to decide."

The word "union," Mr. Manson said, had no virtue in itself. What was needed was a strong, fearless government that would take hold and show the way out.

Detroit Red Wings and New York Rangers Advance

BOSTON, March 29: (CP)—Despite their weakness owing to some of their star players being off the ice on account of injuries, the world champion Toronto Maple Leafs staged a come-back following their defeat Saturday and conquered the Boston Bruins one to nil here last night to tie up the count in the first place play-off for the National Hockey League championship one game each. The series is to be the best three out of five games. The Bruins had won the first game 2 to 1. The teams now move to Toronto where the conflict will be resumed on Saturday.

Detroit Red Wings, playing on their home ice, defeated Montreal Maroons, this time by a score of 3 to 2, and won the second place round 5 to 2.

New York Rangers played a 3-all draw at Montreal with the Canadiens but, by virtue of their victory in the first game, won the third place round 8 to 5.

Red Wings and Rangers will now participate in another brace of two games, total points to count, on Thursday and Saturday to decide final second bracket honors and the right to meet the winners of the Maple Leaf-Bruins series in the final for the Stanley Cup.

CORRESPONDENCE REGARDING UNION

Today we are glad to be able to publish the full correspondence between Premier Tolmie and T. D. Pattullo in regard to the proposed union of forces prior to the coming general election. It will be noticed that the invitation by Premier Tolmie is that Mr. Pattullo shall join him. There is no suggestion that Dr. Tolmie would join Mr. Pattullo's union government.

Under the British Constitution the Prime Minister has wide powers. He has the right to dismiss members of his cabinet or to appoint others. He is the official executive head and the others are there more or less in an advisory capacity. Members of the cabinet cannot act over the head of the Prime Minister but he may act over theirs.

If Mr. Pattullo should agree to join the Tolmie administration he would place himself in the hands of the Premier and could be dismissed at any time after the election. He would then be helpless unless he could persuade a majority of the members of the Legislature to support him. He might have to sacrifice his Liberal principles and would have no recourse.

Today we do not think the people of the province have faith in Dr. Tolmie as a leader who could pull them out of the present morass. He might be helpful in a Pattullo administration as minister of agriculture or he might be useful in London as agent-general for the province. We can see no other place for him in connection with the public affairs of the province.

APPEAL TO PEOPLE

With the work of the Legislative session dragging out while nothing is done to cope with the present situation, Premier Tolmie is still sitting tight to office. Unfortunately he is far from well, and this is greatly to be deplored for, whatever our political views, we all like our genial premier and wish him every success as long as he does not hold up the business of the province. He has asked the leader of the opposition to co-operate with him and that leader has advised an immediate election as the best means of clearing the air. The sooner the election takes place, the sooner the present doubt and unrest will be ended.

IMMEDIATE LEGISLATIVE ACTION MUCH PREFERRED

"Such a union, I feel, would do much to meet the present unrest. With the many groups in the field, there is a risk that no party would secure a working majority and this is most desirable in order that British Columbia would be assured of stable government which is more than ever necessary under present conditions. Such a combination could more safely be made now than after an election, if the party with the bare majority found it necessary to make an arrangement which would perhaps prove incompatible. I think this is one time when we should forget partisanship for the present and associate ourselves for the benefit of the province and the people."

Mr. Pattullo's Reply

"Your letter makes no reference to your telephonic communication of Saturday last at which time, at your request, I met Hon. Mr. Pooley and Hon. Mr. Howe. The proposals in your letter above quoted do not convey in full the representations made to me by Mr. Pooley and Mr. Howe. They suggested that an appeal should be made to the electorate conjointly by yourself and myself, under your leadership and that, following the election, you and I should conjointly select a cabinet. I informed your representatives that I could not consider such a proposal and expressed the further opinion that such a union would insure and deserve defeat.

"In your letter and repeatedly in public statements you have enjoined everybody to forget partisanship and selfish interests and to act solely for the welfare of the province. In view of the fact that you have twice asked me to join your government, I assume that you believe me to be capable of disinterested action.

"At your time of life and in your condition of health—I do not like to speak harshly—yet it seems that this is a time when one should speak bluntly and frankly. During nearly five years of office you have had in your government men of experience in public affairs and men who had been looked upon as leading businessmen and you have also had a three-to-one majority in the house. Your supporters in the house were looked upon as leading citizens in their respective districts, yet you must go afield looking for other leading men to join you in government.

"I stated in the house a few days ago that, if you had any proposals having to do either with administration or public policy which you desire to put into effect, the opposition would support you if these measures were in the public interest, without any union. The house is now in session and, if you have any such measures, the opportunity is there to present them.

"Instead of dealing with the immediate present you appear to be concerned as to the possible outcome of the approaching election. I do not share your alarm. In any event, it is the business of the people to express their wishes. I am not questioning the sincerity of your intentions when I tell you frankly that the man in the street looks upon your proposals as a means to hang onto office. There are groups and individuals who agree with neither you nor me and I do not think that it would be in the public interest for you and me to join in an attempt to exclude legitimate minority interests from having representation in the Legislature.

"British Columbia, financially, is in a perilous position as you must know—more perilous than one cares to state publicly. I respectfully suggest to you that the best service that you can render this province at the present time is to immediately call a general election and have the issue settled.

"Faithfully yours,

"T. D. Pattullo."

Close Verdicts Last Night in Basketball Play-offs; Railway Boys Defeated Grotto in Senior

A fair-sized crowd of spectators witnessed the first games of the championship basketball play-off series in the Auditorium last night. All the games were close and the winning teams had not very big margins to go on. The Canadian National Recreation Association won from the Grotto 44-36, the Warriors beat the Merchants 27-24 and the Amazons defeated the Comets 9-8.

The boys in the senior game had to play real clean basketball for referee Brick Skinner was calling them very close with 15 personal fouls in the first 8 minutes of play. As the game progressed six players found themselves on the bench on personal fouls. No less than 42 personal fouls were called during the game. This, however, does not mean that it was an unusually rough game. The play was fast right from the start with both teams trying to get a slim advantage. Players were soon finding themselves on the bench and intermediate players had to take their places on the floor. The Grotto had a lead of five points in the first half but, in the second half, went down under the sharpshooters of the CNRA. To the tune of 44-36, in the second half the game was still fast with lots of good play on either side. None of the boys, however, were able to sink many of their free throws.

Intermediate Game

The intermediate game between the Warriors and the Merchants was probably the best game of the evening. The Merchants surprised everybody by putting up the fight they did after trailing all the second half of the league. In the first few minutes of play, they got a good lead and, with heavy checking, managed to keep it in the first half 13-6. In the second half Warriors started their nice fast corner play that won for them the second half honors. Both teams were checking hard and fighting for all they got. However, Johnny Comadina had an on-night from the corners and sank long shots time after time to put his team in the lead 27-24 at the final whistle blow.

Arney, from one of the junior teams, played a very commendable game for the Merchants. Pierce was noticeably missed on the side of the Merchants when he was put off on personal fouls early in the second half.

Ladies' Game

In the ladies' fixture the Amazons put a little pep in their team and played point for point with the Comets. The game was good and closed a great deal of excitement. The girls must have had an excess of energy or the fact that they were playing for the cup may have given them the speed, etc., that they displayed last evening more than any other girls' game this year. The Comets had a lead of 6-4 in the first half but, as the second half progressed, the Amazons climbed into the lead and, with but a few minutes to go, were the leaders with a one-point margin. The Comets, then playing desperately, scored a nice long shot that put them in the lead but the Amazons retallied directly afterwards with an identical shot to give them their victory.

The individual scoring was as follows:

Senior League

CNRA—Stiles 17, E. Smith 2, Johnston 15, Lambie 6, D. Morrison 1, C. Smith 1, J. Morrison 2, Nelson.

Grotto—Ratchford 13, Gurvich 8, Hunt 6, Menzies, Stalker 1, Currie, Morrison 7, McNulty, Gillis.

Intermediate League

Warriors—Comadina 12, Gillis 5, Forbes 4, Steffensrud 6, Fitzpatrick, Davies, Christinson, Hickey 1.

Merchants—E. Dingwell 5, Pierce 6, F. Dingwell 8, Bury, Antonelli 2, Arney 1, Ross 2.

Ladies' League

Amazons—Morris 6, Ritchie 2, Johnston, Davies, Furness 1, Dickens, Vance.

Comets—Irvine 5, Steen, Tite 3, Smith, Morgan.

W. J. Larkworth, of New Hazelton arrived in the city on the Prince Rupert this morning from the south enroute home after a trip to Ontario.

APPRECIATION

Editor, Daily News:—

We wish to express our sincere appreciation for the wonderful treatment which we received during our brief stay in Prince Rupert, especially to the Canadian National Recreation Association, Prince Rupert branch. The hospitality shown us passed all our expectations and it was with the deepest regret that we took our departure.

The sympathy shown by everyone for Vic Brett, our captain, who met with a slight accident during the first game, is greatly appreciated. We might state that Vic is getting along very well, thanks to the care of Dr. Hankinson. (He is now back at his work).

This trip will always have a very favorable impression on each player who is looking forward to an opportunity to return for another game in your city.

Once again thanking you for all the kindness shown to us, we remain,

VICTOR BRETT, WILF BOURQUE, RALPH ALPEN, ROSS NICHOLSON, LES WILSON, HAROLD MUNCEY, MAURICE IRVING, On Board ss. Prince Rupert.

SPORT NOTES

Keeping fit is one way of covering a number of important things with two words. But it is impossible to make an estimate of the value of the things which come under that heading, for keeping fit is one of the priceless things of life and is something no person should neglect. However, most persons, when they think of keeping fit, have visions of extensive and expensive gymnasium apparatus which they feel will be necessary before they can exercise in a proper and effective manner. Banish that vision. A chair or two and a couple of books will do for a series of exercises which will work wonders for you. But there are some exercises which do not even require that much apparatus. Just a pushball and a floor bare of any furniture in your immediate vicinity will suffice.

The game of pushball is played with a ball three feet in diameter. There are, of course, two teams or two persons needed. The players lie flat on their backs with their hands on the floor and their feet in the air. The ball may not be touched with the hands, and the first person or team shooting the ball beyond reach of an opponent scores a point. Let's see what this does for us. It exercises the feet, calves and thighs of the leg, the hips (and it's one of the best forms of hip reducing), and the lower half of the back. Also sharing in the general benefit are the muscles of the abdomen.

Jig-Saw Puzzle Is Blessing

MONTREAL, March 29: (CP)—The jig-saw puzzle is a blessing, believes Rev. A. It is also another factor in promoting the simpler life, the minister told the American Women's Club here.

TALKS ON LOTTERIES

W. M. Blackstock is Entertaining Speaker at Gyro Luncheon

A humorous talk on the subject of sweepstakes or lotteries was delivered before the Gyro Club at its regular weekly luncheon yesterday by W. M. Blackstock, manager of the local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. Mr. Blackstock told how lotteries had first been held in the ancient days of Greece and Assyria, the drawing of lots having frequently been mentioned in the Bible. In more recent times, there had been state-operated lotteries in France and other western countries and they had been finally introduced in England where they had been used by the government as a means of raising public revenue with strong banks of the country operating. Last century, state or bank-operated lotteries had been discontinued in England and since then the now popular horse sweepstakes had become a popular form of gambling. In some countries these had been legalized for charitable or public funds and the government of Canada was now considering legislation which would legalize the holding of sweepstakes to aid hospitals in the raising of funds.

T. W. Brown, president of the Gyro Club, was in the chair and, on behalf of the members, thanked Mr. Blackstock for his entertaining talk. W. O. Fulton was a luncheon guest.

After the luncheon, members of the club assisted in removing books from Ormes Drug Store, where they had been assembled during the recent campaign for the public library, to the library.

Health Official Recommends Fish

Valuable in Preventing Rickets and Goitre

OTTAWA, March 29: (CP)—"Fish is one of our most valuable foods, and the consumption of greater quantities than are now in use is advisable from the standpoint of nutrition and the prevention of rickets and goitre," states Dr. J. A. Amyot, Deputy Minister, Department of Pensions and National Health.

"Fish and meat," says Dr. Amyot, contain the same nutritive constituents, namely, protein and fats. The protein of fish is essentially the same as that of meats, and is equally nutritious. As the muscle fibre of fish is shorter than that of meat, fish is more easily masticated and digested. Fish, in addition, contains vitamins and is especially rich in vitamin D, which is necessary for the development of bone. The use of vitamin D prevents rickets. The existence of vitamin D in fish oils suggests the importance of fish as a diet for the young.

Chemical Plants Proving Popular

"Depression Flowers," Grown From Coal, Bloom in Many Homes

HALIFAX, March 29: (CP)—"Depression flowers," they are called, those peculiar many-hued growths which are just now proving popular in many parts of Nova Scotia.

A few lumps of coal, water and various requisites easily found in any household are all that is needed to cultivate a whole conservatory of "plants," for they are formed by mixing salt, ammonia, bluing, dye and coal.

Within a half hour, a colored growth begins to shoot out of the mixture. The chemical formations are quite pleasing to the eye and appear in a multitude of fantastic designs. If kept in a warm place and diligently watered, they reach a height of several feet, spreading out in a profusion of color that would delight the heart of a botanist.

DESTROYERS WIN HONORS

Saguenay and Champlain Made Good Showing in Manoeuvres On Southern Cruise

KINGSTON, Jamaica, March 29: (CP)—Canadian destroyers Saguenay and Champlain made a splendid showing during the cruise of the British West Indies Squadron from Trinidad to Jamaica.

Competitive firing was carried out by the destroyers in a full-calibre shoot at an old hulk towed to sea for that purpose by H. M. S. Dragon. The Champlain won the shot with almost 30 percent more points than the Saguenay. H. M. S. Norfolk also took part in the firing, and while official records were not kept of her scores, it was definitely conceded that both destroyers were well in advance of her.

The scheme of attack on the old hulk, which represented an enemy cruiser, included long range firing by Saguenay, Champlain and Norfolk, consecutively, with practice ammunition, followed with bombing by Norfolk's seaplane and then a further attack using high explosive ammunition.

The Canadian ships made a number of hits in vulnerable points, which resulted in the sinking of the hulk while the attack was little more than begun. When it is pointed out that this was done with practice projectiles only, containing no explosive whatever, great credit was given to the fleet gunnery officer, Lieutenant-Commander A. M. Hope, R. C. N., and those under his command.

There was no target left for the rest of the warfare. The seaplane dropped its bombs, but while they were still whirling down from the clouds the old ship lurched quietly to starboard and sank gracefully below the surface, just before they struck the spot she had left.

The four cruisers and destroyers exercised almost continuously at firing, torpedo running, manoeuvring, and general drill, day and night, during the four-day run to Jamaica.

One of nature's more uncommon phenomena was experienced during this trip. In tropical waters on rather rare occasions, when the last bit of the "upper limb" of the sun is sinking below the horizon of the sea, a very brilliant green glow appears just for an instant. Just why it happens, very few, if any, can explain. One evening "the green flash" as it is called here, showed itself very brightly.

And many more such thrills are in store for the Canadian tars before they return to home ports in May.

CLEANING UP LITERATURE

Church Seathes Indecent Press—Canadian Press Backed Up

ST. JOHN, N.B., March 28: (CP)—His Excellency Mgr. Edouard A. Leblanc, Bishop of St. John, approves in principle the suggestion recently put forth by M. E. Nichols, president of the Canadian Press, that measures should be taken to prevent publication in and entry to Canada of various kinds of obscene and immoral literature.

The distinguished prelate was high in his commendation of Mr. Nichols' view and declared the Catholic Church in Canada had at all times exercised—with a view to prohibiting immoral literature—the greatest vigilance towards books published.

The point was brought up by His Excellency that precautions were taken against disease and other maladies but no barriers existed against editors without scruple who might publish all kinds of brochures and immoral papers.

Strict supervision over motion pictures was also urged by Mgr. Leblanc. He cited three things which, he said, were demoralizing the youth of the country, obscene and immoral motion pictures and literature; laxity on the part of parents in seeing their children were properly occupying their time, and absence of religious instruction in the home and at school.

The address to which His Excellency referred was delivered to the Canadian Club of Montreal by the president of the Canadian Press who recommended a department of censorship at Ottawa to "put its foot down on the wanton, planned and cunningly cultivated indecency offered for sale in printed word and picture by certain newspaper groups that have the entry to Canada."

N. SCOTIA ELECTION

Tory Government Must Go to Province This Year—Changes Since Liberals Ousted

HALIFAX, March 29: (CP)—The fifth session of the current Nova Scotia Legislature is now on. Some time this summer the election call will go out.

A glance at the roster gives striking evidence of the changes a few years can make in the political life of a province. Of the 43 legislators who sat in the house at the last session prior to the 1925 general election, just eight are numbered among the 36 members of the present assembly.

The eight survivors are evenly divided as regards political affiliations. Hon. D. G. McKenzie, who was first elected in 1920 as a farmer labor candidate, occupies the speaker's chair, Hon. Albert Parsons, minister without portfolio and former speaker; R. H. Butts, K.C., and Arch Terris sit on the government side of the house. Mr. Parsons is the veteran of the lot, having been elected first in 1909. Mr. Butts came down from Cape Breton in 1911, and his droll wit has enlivened the federal house, the Nova Scotia Legislative Council, now extinct, and the local assembly. Arch Terris is a Labor-Conservative from Springhill, running mate of the speaker.

On the opposition front benches sits William Chisholm, Antigonish sage who went to the Ottawa house in 1905 and stayed there until 1916 when he first came to the legislature, later to become minister of highways and minister of mines in the Armstrong administration. On his right hand is A. S. MacMillan, house leader, who held the ministry of highways as a member of the legislative council in 1924. He did not become a member of the elected branch of the government until 1928. Besides Mr. MacMillan is J. Willie Comeau, Acadian from Digby, who came to the assembly in 1907.

The other old time front benches on the Liberal side of the house is Clarence W. Anderson, who represented Guysboro County from 1920 to 1925 and from 1928 to the present.

Several of these veterans will be back in the lists before polling day.

Mercury Fails To Find Zero

Halifax Enjoys Freak Weather Conditions With Little Snow

HALIFAX, March 29: (CP)—Yachting in the harbor was not the only unusual incident of this freak winter in Halifax. For the first time since weather records were first begun in this city, about 60 years ago, the mercury failed to drop to zero during the months of December, January and February.

Mean temperature during February was 29.3 degrees, or nearly six degrees higher than the mean mark of 23.69 established during the last 29 years, according to figures compiled by Frederick P. Ronnan, Dominion meteorologist here.

The coldest day of the winter was February 11, when the temperature was seven degrees above zero.

Absence of snow was another unusual feature of the winter. For instance, the total of snow and rain combined in February was 5.31 inches. During the same month last year the total was 17 inches.

There's no report yet of a reduction in the wages of sin.—It's Said and Done.

TWO PLAYS FEATURED

Excellent Double Bill at Capitol Theatre This Mid-Week

"Chandu, the Magician," featuring Edmund Lowe and Bela Lugosi, and "Rackety Rax," starring Victor McLaglen and Greta Nissen, are to be seen in an especially attractive double moving picture bill which is being presented at the Capitol Theatre here at the middle of the week.

Romance and intrigue are the central notes touched by Edmund Lowe in his characterization of "Chandu, The Magician," mystery drama based on the original radio broadcasts. Princess Nadji is played by beautiful Irene Ware; the sinister and scheming Roxor, enacted by Bela Lugosi, provides the thrills. Every character in the popular radio serial is seen in the screen version, including Regent, the inventor, taken by the popular screen veteran, Henry B. Walthall.

In "Rackety Rax," satire on sports racketeers trying to muscle in on college football, Victor McLaglen has the role of "Knucks" McGloin, who "founds a college, stocks it with champion prizefighters and wrestlers and then enters upon a series of adventures with rival gorillas and terrific gridiron battles in the bowls and stadia of many of the most famous colleges in the country. Greta Nissen, Nell O'Day and Marjorie Beebe have featured roles.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Gordon were passengers arriving on the Prince Rupert this morning enroute to their home in Terrace after a trip to Southern California.
