Liberal Party Records Decisive Victory In Provincial Election; C.C.F. Affords Main Opposition

GRITS ELECT THIRTY MEMBERS WHILE CO-OPERATIVE COMMONWEALTH CAPTURES SIX SEATS, INDEPENDENTS, THREE, LABOR, ONE, AND UNIONISTS, ONE.

Pooley is Sole Survivor Of Government; Premier Beaten

TOM UPHILL, VETERAN LABORITE, AGAIN IN HOUSE—MRS. PAUL SMITH IS ONLY SUCCESSFUL WOMAN—MANSON, BARROW, PEARSON AND MCGEER ARE ALL IN.

VICTORIA, Nov. 3: (CP)—The Liberal party, under T. D. Pattullo, re-elected member for Prince Rupert, who will undoubtedly be called upon to form the next government of British Columbia, recorded a decisive victory in yesterday's provincial election. The Liberals elected 30 members while the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation won six seats—two in Vancouver East and one each in Burnaby, Vancouver North, Mackenzie and Dewdney.

Hon. R. H. Pooley, attorney-general, in the traditional family seat in Esquimalt, was the sole survivor of the Tolmie government, winning by a small margin over his Liberal opponent, C. E. Whitney-Griffiths. Premier Tolmie went down to defeat in Saanich at the hands of N. W. Whittaker, Liberal, by more than three hundred of a majority. Hon. J. W. Jones, minister of finance, lost out in South Okanagan by a majority of 150 to Dr. J. A. Harris, the youthful Liberal candidate. Hon. W. M. Dennies, minister of labor, was defeated in Vancouver-Burrard, and Hon. William Savage, minister of public works, in Vancouver-Point Grey, both by large majorities.

Tom Uphill, veteran Labor member, whose candidature was endorsed by the C. C. F., was re-elected in Fernie with a substantial margin over Mayor H. E. Douglas, Liberal.

Hugh Savage, who announced himself as a follower of Oxford Group principles running as an Independent, was elected in Cowichan-Newcastle with a good majority over C. F. Davie, former Speaker of the House who sought reelection as an Independent-Non Partizan.

NORTHERN RIDINGS

Clive Planta, Independent Non-Partizan and member of a well known Nanaimo Conservative family, was apparently elected as the first member for the new Peace River riding.

Mayor L. D. Taylor polled only sixty odd votes in Omineca where A. M. Manson K.C. was re-elected by a large majority over A. E. Windle, C. C. F., and Sam Cocker, Independent Non-Partizan.

Scattered reports from Skeena riding indicated one of the largest proportionate majorities in the entire province for E. T. Kenney, Liberal, over Joseph Panter, C. C. F., and Dr. R. C. Bamford, Independent. Terrace, Hazelton, Smithers and Port Essington all went very heavily for Kenney.

In Fort George H. G. Perry, Liberal, also was heading for a big majority over the combined vote of four opponents with Alexander Sinclair, C. C. F., apparently second and Dr. R. W. Alward, third.

Atlin gave a clear-cut plurality to W. J. Asselstine, Liberal, with T. J. Shenton, C. C. F., second; H. F. Kergin, Independent Liberal, third, and T. W. Falconer and H. W. M. Rolston, Independents, neck and neck for fourth place. Latest figures to date: Asselstine, 382; Shenton, 277; Kergin, 205; Rolston, 125; Falconer, 119.

OUTSTANDING LIBERALS

Other outstanding Liberals to be elected were Dr. W. H. Sutherland, who doubled the vote of his C. C. F. opponent, Vincent Segur, in Revelstoke-Columbia; E. D. Barrow, who had a safe margin over a strong C. C. F. candidate, J. P. Wheeler, in Chilliwack; G. S. Pearson, who won over Dr. Lyle Telford, who made a strong race for the C. C. F., Dr. G. A. B. Hall, one of the Independent Non-Partizan leaders, hardly figuring in the contest, and G. G. McGeer, who headed the poll in Vancouver-Burrard. All these, with Mr. Manson, are considered probable cabinet material for Mr. Pattullo.

Mrs. Paul Smith, Liberal, in Vancouver-Burrard, was the only woman elected, although there were ten women candidates in all. She is the second woman to sit in the Legislature of British Columbia, Mrs. Ralph (Mary Ellen) Smith, who died recently, having been the first.

In the most of districts the Liberals had their hardest

Great Personal Victory For Pattullo One of Features Of Provincial General Election

One of the greatest personal victories in the entire British Columbia general election yesterday was that of T. D. Pattullo, member-re-elect for Prince Rupert and Premier-designate of British Columbia, for whom a vote of almost two to one over the combined polling strength of his two opponents—G. W. Rudderham, C. C. F., and Charles Chapman, United Front, was rolled up.

Prince Rupert city gave Mr. Pattullo a total of 1406 votes, Mr. Rudderham, 464, and Mr. Chapman, 231. With the most of the Queen Charlotte Islands returns in and only a few small polls yet to report, the total up to noon today was Pattullo, 1632; Rudderham, 625; Chapman, 248.

Polls so far reporting have been as follows:

	Pat-	Rudder-	Chap-
	tullo	ham	man
Absentee	29	18	5
Prince Rupert	1406	464	231
Sunnyside	1	1	0
Lawn Hill	5	6	0
Masset	59	28	4
Port Clements	38	26	1
Q. C. City	28	38	0
Skidegate	14	16	0
Flewin's Float	3	1	1
Haysport	6	1	1
Inverness	1	7	4
Osland	16	6	0
Port Simpson	12	3	0
Sandspit	7	6	1
Squadree	0	2	0
Lockeport	3	2	0

There were some 200 more votes cast in Prince Rupert riding in this election than in 1928.

Pattullo Extends Appreciation To People of Prince Rupert For Re-Election in Riding Yesterday

VICTOR AND VANQUISHED

Pattullo Appreciates Responsibility—Tolmie Regretful

VICTORIA, Nov. 3: (CP)—"The people have spoken and I think I fully appreciate their decision," stated T. D. Pattullo today in commenting upon yesterday's election result. "I am deeply grateful for the confidence expressed. I realize the responsibilities involved and I am sure all our people will render sympathetic assistance."

Premier S. F. Tolmie extended congratulations to his successful opponent and said: "I want to congratulate the leader of the Liberal party on his success in Prince Rupert and generally throughout the province. Let me thank the people of Saanich from the bottom of my heart for the confidence reposed in me in the past. One of the most painful things of my experience has been my inability to give work to our people."

SERVICE IS IMPRESSIVE

First Presbyterian Church Crowded For Obsequies For Late Mrs. Norman Watt

First Presbyterian Church was filled to capacity last night by those desirous of paying their final tributes of respect and esteem to the memory of the late Mrs. Norman A. Watt, who passed away with tragic suddenness last Monday night, and to express their expression of sympathy for the sorely bereaved. An impressive service was conducted by Rev. W. D. Grant Hollingworth following which the remains were placed aboard the steamer Prince George by which they are being transported to Victoria where interment will take place next Monday afternoon.

Mr. Hollingworth, in his funeral address, referred to the high esteem in which deceased was held by all who had been favored with her friendship and acquaintanceship during life. He also voiced suitable words of comfort for the bereaved. Hymns were "Son of My Soul" and "Come Let Us Sing of a Wonderful Love," these having been favorites of Mrs. Watt. The choir was in attendance and Mrs. E. J. Smith presided at the organ during the service as well as for an hour before during the viewing of the remains.

Ushers were Samuel Massey, John T. Davey and W. W. C. O'Neill. Deceased having served overseas as a nurse, forty members of the Canadian Legion, under President Jack Preece, attended the service in a body, formed a guard of honor at the church, headed the procession from church to wharf and formed a guard of honor at the pier.

Pallbearers were C. H. Orne, J. H. Pillsbury, Hubert Ward, R. E. Moore, Lieut. Col. S. P. McMordie D.S.O. and A. R. Nichols.

The remains are being accompanied to Victoria by the widow, Joan, eldest daughter, and A. M. Acheson of Vegreville, Alta., brother of deceased.

A GLORIOUS VICTORY

The people of Prince Rupert are to be congratulated on the result of the election yesterday. They showed their confidence in T. D. Pattullo, the man who has represented them since 1916, and on this occasion they had the privilege of electing the man who in a few days will be Premier of the province.

While the Liberal vote was large there was a large vote also given to the local member by Conservatives and Laborites who appreciate the man and his work and the peculiar position in which the city is placed. They rose to the occasion splendidly and great credit is due them for placing the good of the community before party.

A few former Liberals supported the C. C. F. candidate but nothing like as many as it was supposed would do so. Doubtless they did so conscientiously so everybody is happy.

The outstanding feature of the election generally was the almost total defeat of the independents who got their just deserts for deserting their chief at the last moment after receiving all possible benefits from their association with him. The catchword "the people are tired of the old parties," did not work. It was a political slogan coined for the purpose of trying to defeat the Liberals and it failed.

There are six more members to be elected, four in Victoria and two in Vancouver Centre. On the result of this deferred election will rest the decision as to what is to be the official opposition group and who is to be leader of the opposition. Possibly the position of leader of the opposition will be abolished.

Mr. Bruhn, who aspired to be Premier finds himself almost alone in the new House and Attorney General Pooley is absolutely alone, the sole survivor of a party that went into power five years ago under such auspicious circumstances and with such a large majority. It is the end of a political tragedy.

GREAT TASK AHEAD

The new administration will have a great task ahead of it. The general financial condition of the province will have to be surveyed and dealt with and plans made for increasing employment so that the unemployed can be put to work. It is a Herculean task but we have faith in our leader that he will tackle it with courage. We feel sure we can speak for many who voted against him that they, as well as his supporters, will be behind him in his efforts to better conditions and bring order out of chaos.

BORDEN ST. IS WINNER

The Junior League football game postponed from last Saturday between Booth Memorial and Borden Street Schools was played yesterday afternoon and a splendid match resulted in a win for Borden by two goals to one.

With the sun and hill in its favor, Borden had the best of the opening exchanges and O'Neill beat Krause with a high shot that the goalie handled but could not clear. Booth forwards made headway with nice combination but Dybhavn and Willisroft cleared. Monckley was dangerous but put behind. Barton went close and then Husoy tested Postuk with a fine drive. A long drive from Monckley beat Krause and put Borden two goals up.

The second half was in favor of Booth which shot poorly. Cameron was high and Carlyle shot over.

Ritchie had hard luck. Mah took a free kick splendidly but Krause cleared. Then, when Currie shot from close in, Krause brought off a magnificent one-handed save. Booth returned to the attack and Dybhavn stopped Cameron on the line. Husoy at last got through for Booth. Cameron had another try and Holkestad and Davie shot but Postuk cleared. Cameron was nearly through again but Dybhavn blocked the shot and Borden held the lead.

Booth—Krause; Rice, Eastman; Clausen, Cameron, Bob Willisroft; Husoy, Carlyle, Ritchie, Davie, Holkestad.

Borden—Postuk; F. Willisroft, Dybhavn; Ormiston, Mah, Fitch; Monckley, Barton, O'Neill, Gulick, Currie.

W. W. C. O'Neill refereed and F. Eby and J. Currie were linesmen.

IT'S LIVER THAT MAKES YOU FEEL SO WRETCHED

Wake up your Liver Bile—No Calomel necessary
For you to feel healthy and happy, your liver must pour two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels every day. Without that bile, trouble starts. Your digestion slows down. Poisons in the body. General weakness.
How can you expect to clear up a situation like this completely with mere bowel-moving salts, oil, mineral water, laxative candy or chewing gum, or roughage? They don't wake up your liver.
You need Carter's Little Liver Pills. Purely vegetable. Safe. Quick and sure results. Ask for them by name. Refuse substitution. 25c. at all druggists.

Pastor of First Baptist Church Gives Interesting Address on Subject of "Redemption"

"Redemption" was the subject of an interesting address given by Rev. Dr. F. W. Dafoe, pastor of First Baptist Church, at a well attended meeting of the local branch of the British-Israel Association in the Toc H rooms. J. D. Allen was in the chair. Much interest is being taken in the British-Israel movement in Prince Rupert following the recent visit here of Rev. Dr. E. J. Springett of Toronto and the local branch is building up an increasing and enthusiastic membership.

Robert Erskine, who has been superannuated from his position as accountant for the marine department at Digby Island, and Mrs. Erskine will sail next Tuesday afternoon on the Catala for Vancouver where it is their intention to take up residence for the time being at least.

PLAY VERY DELIGHTFUL

Young People of First United Church Score Hit With Presentation of "The Little Clodhopper"

A very delightful entertainment was the three-act sketch "The Little Clodhopper" presented before a well-filled auditorium in First United Church last night by a clever cast of young people under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid with Mrs. John Manson as director. Every character was well taken, leaving little to be desired, and Miss Cathie Irvine, who virtually made the audience alternately laugh and cry with her depiction of the title role, was outstanding. Members of the supporting cast also did splendidly while the extras, in their old-fashioned costumes, were particularly amusing. The story itself proved interesting and provided a great deal of humor.

The complete cast consisted of Miss Cathie Irvine, Miss Victoria Krikevsky, Miss M. Feero, Miss E. M. Earl, Earl Gordon, Elmer Thompson and Ralph Moore. The "country folks" extras were Mrs. Ralph Moore, Mrs. Elmer Thompson, Miss Geraldine Feero, Mrs. G. V. Wilkison, Bert Cameron and Phil Edgecombe.

Pretty stage decorations were a feature. Much favorable comment was also heard in regard to the selections rendered by the Junior Symphony Orchestra under direction of Bert Cameron. Rev. C. D. Clarke was stage manager and M. J. Dougherty was in charge of make-up. Usherettes were Miss Mona Yates and Miss Elizabeth Wilson.

Following the entertainment, refreshments were served to those taking part by the Ladies' Aid. The play will be repeated this evening.

POPPY DAY

People of Prince Rupert Asked To Observe It In Practical Way

The usual sale of poppies in connection with Remembrance Day will take place tomorrow, Saturday, when the Poppy Tag Day will be observed. The City Commissioner has given his consent and, under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion with the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, street sales will be conducted as in the past. The poppies themselves are made in the Vetract workshops at Victoria by disabled soldiers. These are bought by the local branch which remits the cost to the workshops at Victoria. The surplus is then expended among local needy returned men and their dependents.

The wreaths which are available to various organizations and the general public are also made by disabled veterans so that the purchasers are helping the living while at the same time paying in a small way a tribute to the memory of the 68,000 Canadians who make of Flanders Fields a spot that is for ever Canada. And there are 170,000 who in 1933 still bear the marks and scars of war.

NAVAL FILM IS SHOWING

"Hell Below" Feature Offering at Capitol Theatre Here This Week-End

Robert Montgomery, Walter Huston, Madge Evans, Jimmy Durante, Eugene Pallette and Robert Young head an outstanding cast in "Hell Below," sensational drama of submarine warfare, which is to be the feature picture on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here this week-end. With thrills of submarine adventure, action under the surface of the ocean, torpedoing of destroyers, the destruction of an Italian fortress and harrowing escapes from depth bombs and mine layers as a vivid background, the story depicts the romance between a naval lieutenant, played by Montgomery, and the daughter of his commander, Miss Evans being the daughter and Huston, the commander.

A stirring emotional conflict in the plot is lightened by the antics of Durante, and Pallette also has an important lighter role. Robert Young plays a poignant part in the tragic romance.

It is said to be one of the most "thrilling marine spectacles that has ever reached the talkies. Much of the action was filmed at the Honolulu naval base.

Address Was Postponed By Rotary Club

A fish lunch was served yesterday to the members of the Rotary Club in recognition of National Fish Week but the address on the fisheries was postponed out of respect to Mrs. Norman Watt, whose husband is a member of the club.
