THE SALVATION ARMY FUND

We would also like to make another appeal on behalf of hardly fair to spend the money the Salvation Army Christmas Fund in connection with the raising of which the Daily News is once more co-operating with the Army. While interest is increasing and the donations during the past few days have been coming in more freely, much more cash and goods is needed if the full requirements among the needy are to be met. We can think of no gift that would be more appreciated than a donation to this fund to assist the Army in making things. a little happier for those, many of whom through no fault of their own, are facing a rather bleak Yuletide this year. We do not hesitate to urge our friends to give even if it hurts. Both the Army and this newspaper are hoping for a really generous response this week to the appeal.

IT'S QUALITY WE'RE AFTER

When a traveler shows us his samples the thing we most want to know is how good the articles are.

Of course we want our prices to be as low as anyone else's but we want to sell gifts which will never cause our customers or us any trouble in the future.

We would rather lose an odd sale than have people say our goods are not right.

People will always find us glad to do our best to make right any disappointing article as it is well known no store can help making a little mistake once in a while.

People will find our prices on the whole very reasonable this year even if silver has gone up a little for some of our goods were purchased before the raise and many of our gold articles were in before the advance.

The story, briefly, centres around a stolen Van Dyk painting secreted on the train by a gentleman-bandit who has double-crossed two associates who helped him accomplish the theft and who are also on the train enedavoring to retrieve the work of art. There is a whirlpool of mystery and intrigue which pulls into its vortex practically every passenger on board the train, a clever; denouement solving the amazing episodes just before the train reaches Rome.

The romantic interest is supplied by the charming personality of Esther Ralston, formerly well known on the English screen. Conrad Veidt, noted British actor, has the principal male role while Joan Barry is another well known member of the

C. P. Ashmore, general manager of the Granby Stores at Anyox, was a passenger aboard the Catala last evening returning to the smelter town after spending the past few weeks in Vancouver where he recently underwent a major operation from the effects of which he has made a good recovery. He was accompanied north by his sister, Mrs. Crawley, of Sunset Inn, Davis Bay, near Sechelt, who will pay a visit at Anyox, her husband already being there, having gone north a couple of weeks ago.
