PREMIER GORDON HARRINGTON AND BUT TWO OF HIS COLLEAGUES SURVIVE VERDICT OF POLLS; ANGUS MACDONALD, YOUNG LIBERAL LEADER, AMONG ELECTED; STRAIGHT FIGHT.

HALIFAX, Aug. 23: (CP)—The final standing as a result of yesterday's provincial election in Nova Scotia was announced this afternoon as follows:

Liberals, 22 seats.
Conservatives, eight seats.
Cape Breton East, which had been tied, returned a Liberal and Victoria, which had been doubtful, a Conservative.

Angus Macdonald, aged 43, the Liberal leader, will be Canada's youngest Premier. He has never previously had a seat in the Legislature.

HALIFAX, Aug. 23: (CP)—The Conservative government of Premier Gordon S. Harrington was defeated in yesterday's provincial election and the Liberal party under Angus L. Macdonald scored a sweeping victory. Premier Harrington was personally re-elected in Cape Breton South by a small margin but all his cabinet colleagues with the exception of two, Hon. P. C. Black, minister of highways (Colchester), and Hon. Joseph Macdonald, minister without portfolio, were defeated. Six independent candidates were not a factor in the contest for a total of thirty seats.

Soon after the polls closed, it was evident that the government had been defeated, the earliest returns making the victory for the Liberal party apparent.

The latest standing today was as follows:
Liberals, 21 seats.
Conservatives, 8.
Doubtful, one (Victoria).

One seat, Cape Breton East, at first tied.
The Conservative government had been led by Premier Harrington for the last three years.

The sweeping Liberal victory saw five members of the executive council go down to defeat.

The Liberal leader won Halifax South from Dr. Murphy.
Two Co-operative Commonwealth Federation candidates polled less than two thousand votes between them.

MOISTURE IS NEEDED

Rainfall Would Be Appreciated by Nechako Valley Grain Growers

VANDERHOOF, Aug. 23.—While oat and wheat crops of the Nechako Valley have been making rapid growth during the past few weeks, a good rainfall would now be appreciated in bringing them to maturity. The extremely dry spell of the last three or four weeks has been acceptable for haying operations, which have been proceeding apace, but some moisture is now needed for the grains.

It is a question in the minds of many of the farmers of the valley as to whether, owing to the late and cold spring, frost will not interfere before the oats and wheat are properly matured.

Seattle Vessel Curlew Taken on West Coast, Illegal Fishing Charge

Is Towed Into Victoria by Patrol Steamer Givenchy After Being Taken Into Custody in Vicinity of San Josef Bay

VICTORIA, Aug. 23: (CP)—Taken into custody by the fisheries patrol steamer Givenchy, Capt. W. Redford, off the West Coast of Vancouver Island while allegedly fishing in Canadian waters, the American halibut vessel Curlew of Seattle, together with her crew of five men, was brought here yesterday. The seizure was made on Sunday morning in the vicinity of San Josef Bay. It is alleged that the Curlew had miles of ground gear out.

The Curlew is well known in Prince Rupert, having frequently called here in the past with catches from the northern halibut banks.

Salvage of the engine was effected recently by a seaplane of the Canadian Airways from Carcross piloted by Norman Forrester which flew into McConnell Creek from Stewart with Air Engineer Staines on board.

Ontario Pastor Shot His Wife

But It Was by Accident in Mistake For Rabbit

JACKSON'S POINT, Ont., Aug. 22 (C.P.)—Lake Simcoe cottagers were startled to hear a well-known minister had shot his wife at their summer home near here. The report spread abroad in the vicinity of the summer colony, and the spiritual adviser is now receiving a lot of advice from his friends.

He went out in his garden to shoot rabbits. He peppered one with bird shot. Not knowing that his wife was within range, she received one lead pellet in the calf of her leg. X-ray revealed the bullet, but it was too deep to bring out by probing. She now carries the evidence with her that her husband shot her.

Miss Florence Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Parker, returned home on the Prince John last night from Tjell, Queen Charlotte Islands, where she has been spending a holiday visiting with friends.

An Indian on shore reported seeing two men standing up as though they were going to rescue a third who may have fallen overboard. The river has been searched without success.

Fair Board's Carnival Has Good Opening Night With Upwards of Six Hundred Persons Attending

The carnival, which is being staged at the Exhibition Hall this year by the Fair Board in place of the annual exhibition, had a good opening night with a total attendance of between 600 and 700 persons, paid admissions last evening amounting to 364 adults and 170 children. The carnival continues this evening when it is hoped that there will be an even larger crowd in support of the worthy object of paying off the indebtedness of the Fair Association.

The feature of last night's proceedings were the contests for best-dressed girls and dolls, the winners in which by popular vote were:

Best Dressed Girl and Doll with Carriage—1. Joyce Morin; 2. Mary Margaret Bulger.

Best Dressed Girl and Doll—1. Anne Stevens; 2. Ella Dahl.

The evening was very enjoyably spent by the large crowd in dancing with music by Charlie Balagno's orchestra.

Refreshments were sold by members of Toc H who donated their services to the Fair Board for the occasion.

Carnival attractions operated from booths also proved popular. Officers and men from H. M. S.

Dragon were prominent among those present and it is expected there will be another large representation from the personnel of the warship tonight.

REFINING U. S. GOLD

It is quite possible that the Canadian refineries may make a lot of money from refining gold concentrates or precipitates produced in the United States. The big mine at Juneau is planning to ship its ore to a Canadian refinery, possibly at Trail. This would give business to Canadian railroads and Canadian labor. Many other mines will do the same if export to Canada is not stopped by the U. S. government.

STRONG CANDIDATE

The nomination of Professor Weir of the education department of the University of British Columbia for Vancouver-Point Grey will add prestige to the Liberal party in British Columbia. At first he was ruled out by the government who tried to prohibit university men taking part in politics. The pressure became so strong and the ruling was found to be so unpopular that it was modified and it was explained that it was only in case a candidate was elected that the government would consider his position adversely. Presumably if the Liberals are elected and Professor Weir among them, the position at the University will be kept open for the member unless he should be made minister of education, in which case he would not need the professorship.

WELCOME THE BLUE-JACKETS

The blue-jackets were the centre of attraction on the streets yesterday afternoon. They looked familiar as they marched along with a swinging stride, reminding many people of the old days when they were often seen on the streets of Victoria or Esquimalt during the time when there was a British naval base at the latter place.

These are days when people are looking and hoping for peace but when attacked it is a great thing to be in a position to defend ourselves. We have no navy of our own worth mentioning and we still look to the British navy for our defence, by sea. For this we do not pay. The visit of the war vessels from time to time reminds us of our debt to the Old Land and of the value of being a part of the British Empire.

Seattle Chamber of Commerce Urges City Council to Repeal Measure It Instituted

SEATTLE, August 23.—The Seattle Chamber of Commerce, which sponsored the movement for daylight saving here this year, yesterday requested the city council to repeal same before re-opening of schools for the fall term. Unless the council orders its abandonment in the meantime, daylight saving would here continue until September 24.

Other Washington cities and towns some time ago returned to standard time.

ADDRESS TO TOCH GROUP

Captain Wake-Walker Tells Gathering About British Navy

Capt. W. F. Wake-Walker, O.B.E., commander of H.M.S. Dragon, addressed the Prince Rupert Group ToC H last evening. The hall was filled to capacity, upwards of 100 being present, every chair in the hall being occupied.

Capt. Wake-Walker gave a very interesting outline of the career of the British Tar from the time he first joins at the age of 15 years to the completion of his term of service. It was a very pleasing insight into the "family" life of a British battleship, while on one of their long cruises such as the Dragon is now making.

The Commander also explained some of the many duties the Navy is called upon to perform while stationed in this part of the world.

There have been many "Dragons" in the history of the British navy, the first one was built in the reign of Henry Eighth. Sir Francis Drake sailed on a ship named the Dragon on one of his many expeditions. In fact a "Dragon" has taken part in nearly every important naval event in British History since the time of Henry Eighth. The present "Dragon" was built at the close of the World War.

Capt. Wake-Walker was given a splendid ovation at the close of the meeting. Everyone present enjoyed his address immensely.

Man in the Moon

Nova Scotia did pretty well in providing 66 candidates for 30 seats in the Legislature but that is as nothing to what British Columbia will do. Already there are over one hundred lined up for the 47 seats to be filled and the election date is not yet set.

Nova Scotia also did pretty well for the Liberal party but did nothing for the C. C. F. What will B. C. do?

Way down in Nova Scotia, They had a good old scrap, They banged each other up and down, And hit both front and back.

But now it all is over, Good friends they are again, Until election comes once more, And they begin to train.

It's a nuisance if a guest gets up too early but a calamity if she gets up too late.

American history will tell of hundreds of young men who started out in the world with nothing of their own but a two-cent stamp with which to write home to mother and who after much trial and tribulation and hard work became so rich they did not have to pay income tax.

GURVICH IS VICTORIOUS

Local Boxer Knocks Out Sailor in Little Over a Minute of Fighting Last Night

Good Card

Plenty of Excitement Caused by Pugilistic Display at Moose Hall

Nina Gurvich, making a different fight than of yore, took one and a fraction minutes to dispose of Able Seaman Thurston of H. M. S. Dragon in the headline event of last night's boxing card in the Moose Hall. It surprised the fans when the sailor, seemingly in good shape and with his aggressive style taking none the worst of it, went to the floor and rolled on his back from three hard blows to the head—first a right, then a left and finally a short punch, glancing off the chin, cutting a gash over his right eye and was counted out. He will probably go about for the next few days seeing the world through a very dark optic on the starboard side.

The main go was held up for a while when Gurvich was made to take tape bandages off his hands through a misunderstanding of his second, Roi Barnes, of the service rules which call for thin cloth wraps.

Other Bouts

The rest of the card had its exciting moments. Dan Parent, who looked like a midget beside Able Seaman Powell, his opponent, mixed freely but the boy from the warship used his long left like a piston dropping it with regularity on Parent's beak to win a unanimous decision.

Referee Skinner probably got the biggest hand in the fight from the customers as he did in a previous bout when a wild swing from one of the antagonists caught him on the side of one cheek, knocking him solidly on the mat, to promptly bounce up again before the count of one.

Chuck Hickey took the worst of it from Boy Atherley of H. M. S. Dragon when, coasting along in the third round he was dropped for the count of eight but managed to weather the storm of blows for the rest of the round and hold his own in the final canto, losing a three-way call of the referee and judges to his more aggressive opponent.

A no-decision three-round bout was staged by Marines Hadlow and Kent of the Dragon who gave the customers an enjoyable exhibition of Old Country style of boxing.

Johnny McLeod, matched against Marine McManus in four rounds, took the first two and dropped the others when he seemed to become winded but stood up well to his much older and stronger rival to gain a popular draw.

Tiger Dahl chased Battling Peacock around the ring for the three-round opener and when catching up to him which was quite often, received a straight left on the nose to the delight of the crowd which rewarded the boys with a shower of silver.

Brick Skinner refereed all bouts with Lieutenant Green of the H. M. S. Dragon and Bert Morgan as judges. Max Hellbroner was time-keeper and Gillis Royer announcer. There was a near capacity crowd, few of the choice seats being vacant in the spacious hall.

Before the main event, the mascot from the H. M. S. Dragon was called upon to draw a ticket for the round trip to Vancouver, in connection with the Moose bazaar. Frank Stevens of the Knox Hotel was the winner.

The Rhythm Vendors' four-piece orchestra played selections between fights.

Mrs. A. H. Bailey, formerly of this city and for the past several years residing in Victoria, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Moya Bailey, and Master Stephen Bremner, arrived in the city on the Prince Rupert this morning from the south and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Bremner, Fifth Avenue East. They will be here until next week.

Boston Moves Into Second Place in National League—Was 14-11 Inning Game

BOSTON, Aug. 23.—Boston Braves, who have not finished in the first division since 1921, won their fourteenth victory in the last seventeen starts yesterday by defeating Pittsburgh in a fourteen-inning struggle and replaced the Pirates in second place in the National League, seven games behind the first place New York Giants. Wallie Berger's home run in the fourteenth gave the Braves the victory. The Pirates and Chicago Cubs, who were idle yesterday, are now tied for third place. In the American League, the New York Yankees won over the Cleveland Indians to pare to seven and a half games the lead of the Washington Senators who were losing to Detroit Tigers.

C. N. R. WINS SOFTBALL

Defeated Old Empress Last Night to Capture Second Half of Season

The Canadian National Recreation Association softball team last night clinched the second half of the league by defeating the Old Empress by a score of 6-3.

The game was not very exciting, the final decision not being in doubt at any time. The C. N. R. A. team played good ball from the start and had counted five runs to nothing by the fourth inning. However, they made a few errors in the fifth inning and the Empress scored two men. They were in a tight place again in the eighth inning when the Empress had the bases loaded with no men down but managed to pull through with only one run scored.

The play-off games between the Elks and the C. N. R. A. will probably take place next Sunday.

George Arliss in "Working Man" At the Capitol

George Arliss comes to the Capitol Theatre this mid-week in "The Working Man," a delightfully entertaining comedy drama which presents Mr. Arliss in the type of picture with which he has had his greatest successes on the screen. "The Working Man" is of similar pattern to "The Millionaire," although it is entirely different in plot.

As the head of a large business, Mr. Arliss masquerades as a lowly fisherman in order to save the children of his one-time most formidable business rival from moral and financial ruin. It is said to be the most human character he has yet portrayed.

As usual in an Arliss picture there is an unusually strong supporting cast including Bette Davis, Hardie Albright, Theodore Newton and Gordon Westcott.

MALADY IS DISCUSSED

Chance of Getting Tuberculosis Less Today and Recovery Possibility Greater

"The possibility of contracting tuberculosis is much less today than it was twenty years ago and the chance of recovery, if one does contract it, is much greater than it was then," Dr. A. S. Lamb, travelling provincial health officer and chest specialist, assured the Prince Rupert Gyro Club at yesterday's regular weekly luncheon of the local service club. Dr. Lamb gave the club an interesting talk in which he disclosed some of the excellent results which had been achieved as a result of the application of modern methods to the prevention and treatment of this once dread malady.

In the prevention of the disease Dr. Lamb stressed the importance of tracing contacts and spreaders. This had become an important part of public health service. Where previously tuberculosis had been regarded largely as a hereditary disease, it was now recognized as being more essentially infectious, Dr. Lamb explained. After this had been established, more efficacious methods of prevention and treatment had been developed. Responsibility of preventing infection was now felt, early diagnosis materially assisted the chance of curing the disease and preventing spread and the importance of isolation to a certain extent was recognized. These factors, together with improved living and housing conditions, better food preparation and public education, had played their part in bringing about the condition where today the possibility of contracting the disease was much less and the chance of recovery much greater.

Fresh air and rest had become recognized as essential factors in the treatment of the disease, the speaker declared. The importance of sanitarium treatment was alluded to although the disease could now be readily cured in the homes. Climate was not such an important factor as had formerly been believed and, even in Prince Rupert with all its wetness, some nice recoveries had been recorded.

Referring to the matter of "sun cure," Dr. Lamb described this as a powerful instrument which should be applied reasonably. Under well-regulated conditions, it was valuable but cases were known where excessive sunshine had done harm instead of good.

A vote of thanks was tendered by President T. W. Brown, on behalf of the club, to Dr. Lamb for his illuminating talk.

Coming north on the steamer Prince John this trip from Vancouver were three miners for Gold Harbor. They left the vessel at Queen Charlotte City.

NAVY BOND OF EMPIRE

Capt. W. F. Wake-Walker of H. M. S. Dragon Interesting Speaker At Gyro Club Luncheon

"The British Navy is an important factor in binding the wide-spread parts of the Empire together and plays an essential part in protection of trade not only of the far flung Dominions and colonies but of the homeland to which 50,000 tons of food must be delivered weekly by water," Captain W. F. Wake-Walker O. B. E., commanding officer of H. M. S. Dragon, declared in an interesting talk before the Prince Rupert Gyro Club at luncheon yesterday.

Capt. Wake-Walker was describing some of the peace time functions of ships of His Majesty's Navy. Such cruises as that on which the Dragon was now engaged served, among other useful purposes, the permitting of the personnel of the naval vessels to meet the people of other lands and other parts of the Empire and learn what they were doing and how they lived. It also gave them the opportunity of seeing the country. Entertainment that might or might not be accorded the officers and men at the points they might visit was an inconsequential matter, Capt. Wake-Walker assured his listeners, and, while courtesies that might be extended were always appreciated, the matter of entertainment was not considered in the arranging of the cruises.

Capt. Wake-Walker told of how such vessels as the Dragon from the American-West Indies station made two major "showing the flag" cruises each year, one along the Pacific Coast and one along the Atlantic. Cruises were also made along the South American coasts. Once in every two and a half years, vessels of the American-West Indies station returned to England for recommissioning, the personnel being usually changed almost entirely at such times.

T. W. Brown, president of the club, was in the chair and, on behalf of the members, expressed appreciation to Capt. Wake-Walker for his very interesting talk. Other guests of the day were Commander Fitzroy, Surgeon Lieutenant-Commander Quinn, Capt. Reiss-Smith R. M. and Sub-Lieutenant M. J. W. Bartelott, all of H. M. S. Dragon; Dr. A. S. Lamb, Vancouver, and H. W. Birch and J. E. Wickett of Prince Rupert.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. A. E. The most of these cannery workers were going through to Vancouver where they will spend the winter.
