Prince Rupert Owes Fishing Industry to Fact That Halibut Keeps So Well, Declares Finn

Difficulties of Marketing Flounder, Cod and Other Species Described By Gyro Speaker

"Prince Rupert really owes its fishing industry to the fact that the halibut is a fish which will keep remarkably well," declared D. B. Finn, director of the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station, at yesterday's luncheon of the Prince Rupert Gyro Club on discussing some of the economic aspects of the halibut fishery of Prince Rupert.

"When you think about Prince Rupert in relation to the fishing industry, these thoughts come to one's mind: "First, it is the nearest port with railway facilities to the large halibut fishing grounds.

"Second, it is 3,000 miles away from its principal markets.

"Third, its fishery is a seasonal one.

"Fourth, halibut is a fish which keeps remarkably well. "If halibut were like the cod or the haddock, it is quite probable that Prince Rupert would not be the centre of the large industry that we have. Halibut is a fish which can be shipped in ice to far-distant markets without becoming (Continued on Page Four)

Pound Sterling Skyrockets and Silver Price Has Most Spectacular Advance in History of Trading in New York—Stock Market Leaps Forward

WASHINGTON, D.C., April 19: (CP)—President Franklin D. Roosevelt today announced the immediate restoration of the gold embargo as a move to improve domestic commodity prices. This is the first step in a campaign the President has undertaken to establish a controlled price level and controlled credit to counteract deflation.

The President hopes to get the world back on the gold standard but this standard may be on a different gold ratio than in the past.

Giving up of further attempt to support the American dollar in foreign exchange is regarded as serving the dual purpose of increasing American commodity prices and putting the President in a strategic position for economic bargainings.

NEW YORK, April 19: (CP)—Stock and commodity markets leaped forward today inspired by President Roosevelt's decision to halt gold exports.

In Chicago wheat prices rose more than one cent to nearly three cents to set a new high for the season with September delivery quoted at 68 1/2c.

On the New York Exchange prices surged from $1 to more than $3 per share.

Silver futures had the most spectacular rise in the history of trading in New York with gains of three cents per ounce.

Cotton at New York rose about $1 per bale while sugar, coffee, hides, flour, rubber and a number of other staples were firm.

Sterling Bound Upward

Sterling was quoted in mid-afternoon on the New York foreign exchange market at $3.81 for cables, shooting up more than twenty points since noon. It was the highest quotation since April, 1931.

The stock market soared from one to eleven points before meeting profit-taking in late trading.

LIFE INSURANCE WEEK

This is life insurance week and, all over the country, people are bringing prominently before the people the value of insurance to the insured and to the nation as a whole. It is pointed out that during the depression from which we are now emerging two-thirds of the payments made by the companies have been to living policyholders and not to heirs or beneficiaries. Loans have been made against policies for the purpose of helping the insured to carry through the troublous times. In some cases policies have been surrendered and the cash value of the policies utilized. Nothing has helped to stabilize business to the extent that life insurance has done.

Brand New Vessel Shoshone Cuts Quite a Figure on Waterfront of Northern Port

KETCHIKAN, April 19:—Enroute to the Behring Sea where she will be operated in patrol work during the coming summer, the new coast-guard cutter Shoshone was a visitor in Ketchikan, yesterday, making an imposing figure on the local waterfront. Two hundred and fifty feet long and carrying a personnel of 108 officers and men, the Shoshone is the very last word in the line of coastguard vessels.

Accompanied by the Alert, another coastguard vessel, the Shoshone sailed this morning for the westwards.

Mr. Young went to school in Prince Rupert years ago before the war and has been renewing old acquaintances in the city.

Noteworthy Gold Developments—Properties Near Production Now

VANDERHOOF, April 19:—Developments in the northeastern mineral survey district in 1932 in connection with lode gold were noteworthy in a high degree, according to Douglas Lay, resident mining engineer for that district, in speaking recently at Vanderhoof.

In connection with what might be termed the renaissance of the Manson Creek section, Germanooh Placers Ltd. had, reached the production stage at the close of the hydraulic season and the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co. was engaged in road construction and hauling equipment to its holdings on Slate Creek.

Many new discoveries were made in the placer field at several different points, some of which hold out promise of assuming commercial importance.

Colunario Gold Mines at Usk had, apparently, passed beyond the prospect stage and activities of W. R. Wilson & Sons at Dome Mountain, near Telkwa, and the Silver Lake group on Hudson Bay Mountain and of the Jessie Gold Mines Ltd. on Hudson Bay Mountain had been most gratifying.

Mr. Lay expressed the belief that there was every reason to feel highly confident as to the future.

FISHERMEN FOR NORTH

TOFINO, April 19:—Owing to the run of spring salmon on the banks off Kyuquot Sound being so poor this season, the majority of the Kyuquot trolling fleet has moved north to the west coast of the Queen Charlotte Islands, where a good run occurs every year at this time. On account of its great distance from the Seattle markets, it has been fished very little in past years.

The Kyuquot Trollers' Co-operative Association has established a fish buying station at the northern point, and its fleet of packers, chartered from Nelson Bros., of New Westminster, including the Western Chief, Western Spirit and Mary Taylor, will convey the catch to the Sound City.

Just how long the run at the Queen Charlottes will last is a matter of conjecture, but it is expected the fleet will be there for a month or six weeks. In the meantime, only half a dozen or so trollers remain fishing at Kyuquot, being mostly the smaller boats unable to make the long run to the new grounds. This is the first time the trollers of the West Coast, as an organized body, have invaded the salmon trolling grounds off the Queen Charlotte coast.

The Letter Box

THE POLITICAL SITUATION

Editor, Daily News:—

The pending appeal to the electors will, beyond any doubt, be one of the most decisive in the history of B. C. The grim realities confronting us are really perplexing. Unemployment is increasing and the governments have decided to continue in their blind policy of the dole system, thinking that eventually providence will find a solution.

The provincial and municipal credits are non-existent. Outstanding obligations cannot be met. Taxes cannot be paid because the average source of income has dried, particularly the one of labor. Hundreds of homes throughout the province are in danger of being sold for taxes that cannot be paid.

The whole life of every community is hanging under a shadow of gloom and despair as to the outcome of all this. Three long years have gone by and the governments have so far done nothing to remedy the situation. Here in B. C. the important Tomlin administration cannot even decide to die decently.

Another political leader is touring the southern part of the province in a vain crusade to try to perpetuate a dead political school, prompted only by selfishness and greed.

It is remarkable how certain elements cannot read the signs of the time. The election in the great Republic to the south of us has failed. Only a policy of constructive aggressiveness, doing away with all undue privileges, and the restoration of the function of money and credit, in providing work for the masses, will solve the pressing problems.

It is imperative that political power be concentrated in the hands of men imbued with a sense of duty to serve humanity and not special interests, of men fired with the spirit to serve the nation and not a few classes of plutocrats. The first and foremost consideration of men in office is to provide for the people a chance to make a living in the old usual way—that has been familiar through the ages—work.

T. D. Pattullo, our future premier, has all the requisites. His main object after assuming office is to bring down the wages of money on a par with the wages of labor, to cut down the excessive rate of interest that is unbearable under present conditions, and to provide work by mobilizing the resources of the nation, thus breaking the vicious circle of unemployment which is oppressing every community. Mr. Pattullo has the stamina, the vision and the will-power to curb the elements that, in their blindness, have ruined the economy of Canada and even now persist in being busy doing nothing to remedy the situation.

It is time that the people of this province rise in their might and finally drove out of politics the incompetent, unwilling and out-of-date forces, unable to understand the present necessities.

What LIFE INSURANCE Has Done During Three Depression Years

Here are the actual facts concerning the performance of Life Insurance during the three most critical years of the century. What did the Life Insurance Companies pay out in Canada and the United States?

1. To Living Policyholders:
Matured encumbrances	$ 230,948,000
Dividends	212,583,000
Policy loans	2,048,678,000
Surrender values	1,414,252,000
Other payments	337,882,000
Total benefits to living policyholders	4,244,343,000
2. To estates or beneficiaries of policyholders	1,924,666,000
The combined total of the two groups	$6,169,009,000

- The above brings out forcibly the following facts:
1. That Life Insurance is a great economic stabilizer and that the depression would have been more severe if it were not for the payment of over six billion dollars by these companies.
 2. That living policyholders get the lion's share and that you do not have to die to win.
 3. That these huge sums were paid when they were most needed and without hesitation.

"What the Sun Life of Canada has done during three depression years" will appear tomorrow in this paper.

MAY USE ASPHALT

STEWART, April 19:—The village council has been securing some information from the city engineer at Prince Rupert as to the possibility of laying asphalt surfaced gravel sidewalks instead of plank. Several walks will have to be laid this summer and it is the opinion of the municipal council that the work would be cheaper and more lasting than that done in the past.

Dog Tax is Put On at Stewart

STEWART, April 19:—Owners of dogs are contributing to the revenue to the village of Stewart. There are half a hundred of them and they pay a tax of three dollars each for males and five for females. Many have already paid the tax and those unable to do so are arranging to work out the tax on the roads as soon as the snow is all gone and the work can be got under way. This was decided at the meeting of the village council held this week.

FISHERIES ECONOMICS

so putrid as to prevent its being eaten.

Smaller Fish

"People very often ask us why it is that we do not take advantage of the multitude of smaller fish, such as flounder, red cod and black cod, and so forth, that teem along our coasts.

"In the first place, it is open to doubt as to whether this class of fish would stand up against the intensive fishing which large commercial operations would bring about. In the second place, it is most probable that, if the fish were shipped away from here in ice, it would be unfit for human consumption when it reached the east. In the third place the terrific expense of transporting the fish would make us completely unable to meet eastern competition."

Mr. Finn alluded to a situation which was developing on the eastern markets whereby the public, in these times of depression, was turning to the cheaper varieties of fish, and had found that they liked strictly fresh cod and haddock better, or just as well, as the Pacific Coast halibut which, after all, was anything but an actually fresh fish by the time it reached the east. If conditions in the Pacific Coast halibut fishery did not change, he looked for a gradual decline in the consumption of halibut until it was maintained by the relatively few people who could afford halibut and felt they must have it. It was along the lines of meeting this newly developing situation that the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station and its staff was devoting efforts towards bringing about improvements and economies in freezing, storage and transportation of fish.

NEW ROGERS FILM HERE

Famous Comedian Supported by Marian Nixon and Dick Powell in "Too Busy to Work"

Will Rogers comes to the Capital Theatre this week-end in "Too Busy To Work," in which he plays the role of a philosophical, happy-go-lucky ne'er-do-well, who, after a search of fifteen years, finds his lost daughter and then decides not to reveal himself to her. Rogers is said never to have enjoyed a better role than the one he now plays.

Marian Nixon, playing the leading feminine role as the daughter, and Dick Powell furnish the romantic interest in "Too Busy To Work. Miss Nixon recently scored successfully in "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" and Powell has won acclaim for his performance in "Blessed Event," a good picture which has not yet been seen here.
