The only Stewart passengers coming in on the Catala from the south last night was G. McHugo.

Sisters Mary Julian, Mary Contantine and Mary Hildegarde, Jueau nuns, were passengers on board the Princess Charlotte Saturday afternoon going through to Victoria on vacation.

The steamer Catala did not arrive last night from Vancouver unil nine o'clock. She remained bout an hour and after a call at the Imperial Oil Dock and the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage dock sailed for Portland Canal and Naas River points. Captain Dickson was on the bridge.
