Made Forced Landing and Smashed Plane at Bridgeport, Connecticut, Sixty Miles Short of New York Last Evening

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., July 24: (Canadian Press)—After conquering the Atlantic Ocean and flying non-stop from Wales to within sixty miles of their goal at New York, Capt. and Mrs. James A. Mollison crashed as they were landing here at 9 o'clock Sunday night and were both taken to hospital for treatment for abrasions on heads, legs and arms. Their injuries, it is stated, are not serious. Their cabin biplane, the Seafarer, was quite badly damaged. Mrs. Mollison is the former Amy Johnson, famous British aviatrix.

Passed Halifax

cause of the couple having to alight. They had flown for thirty-nine hours. The crash Mollison attributed to fatigue and the strange field. They circled the field five times in the attempt to land and, on the sixth, attempt, overran the field and nosed over in marshland. The couple, by their flight, set two records. He is the first man to fly across the Atlantic Ocean westward twice. She is the first woman to make the westward crossing.

PASSING OF DAN JABOUR

Prominent Local Business Man Died Saturday Night Following Lengthy Illness

Death, which came peacefully at 11 o'clock Saturday night at his home, 500 Taylor Street, removed Daniel Jabour, one of Prince Rupert's best known pioneer business men and head of Jabour Bros. Ltd., at the age of 48 years. Mr. Jabour had been a sufferer for the past year or so from pernicious anaemia and, during the last few months, had been almost constantly confined to his home. A trip to the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minn., a few months ago proved unavailing. He retained consciousness up to the end and was surrounded by members of his family as he passed quietly away. For the past few days it had been realized that death was not far removed.

The late Mr. Jabour, who was born in Syria on February 14, 1885, and had lived in Canada 30 years, was a resident of Prince Rupert since 1910 when, with his brother, James, he came here from Whitney, Ont., where he had been in business for some years previous. They invested extensively in real estate here and erected a number of buildings, also founding the dry goods business of Jabour Bros. Ltd. James Jabour left some years ago for California while Daniel remained here as head of the business.

In addition to his widow, the late Mr. Jabour is survived by two daughters, Marcelle and Lorraine, and three brothers, Rev. J. Jabour in Syria; James Jabour, now living in Los Angeles, and Samuel Jabour of this city. To the bereaved widespread sympathy is being expressed by numerous friends.

Fred Perry was awarded the victory over Ellsworth Vines of the United States 1-6, 6-0, 4-6, 7-5, 7-6 by default, Vines having collapsed after the fifth set and being unable to finish. The tall Californian youth after reaching the limit of his endurance, fell face down in the dust, a victim of nervous exhaustion.

England won four matches to America's one.

PEACE RIVER GRAIN

Last week we published a dispatch from Ottawa in regard to division of the grain business from Northern Alberta between the two big railway companies. According to Commissioner Fullerton, the Northern Alberta lines are obligated to divide their traffic destined to competitive points between the Canadian National and the Canadian Pacific Railways. He stated that the C. P. R. had refused to file a through tariff on export wheat to Victoria so that port could not be considered a competitive point with Vancouver. Prince Rupert was also excluded, apparently because the C. P. R. could not ship grain here. Had these ports been considered competitive points with Vancouver the C. P. R. would have been entitled to handle half the Peace River grain shipped west, the C. N. R. half including all the grain shipped to Victoria and Prince Rupert and enough of the Vancouver shipments to make up their 50%. As it stands today the grain going from Northern Alberta to Vancouver is divided between the two railway companies and the national railway gets the Victoria and Prince Rupert shipments extra.

From the ruling of the Railway Board it would seem that it would pay the C. N. R. to induce Peace River grain to go to Prince Rupert because, no matter how much came here, it would still handle half of the remainder to Vancouver.

PROHIBITION REPUDIATED

Oregon is Emphatic in Favor of Repeal—Tennessee Shows Considerable Dryness, But Not Enough

WASHINGTON, July 24: (Canadian Press)—Voting on Friday, Oregon became the twentieth state of the Union to ratify repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, the national prohibition law. The city of Portland voted four to one for repeal.

The nineteenth state to vote for prohibition repeal was Tennessee which last week expressed itself as being opposed to continuation of operation of the Eighteenth Amendment. With only a comparatively few rural precincts to be heard from, the latest count in that state was 134,000 for repeal and 115,000 against. Five out of nine congressional districts favored repeal. As a result of the popular vote, 63 delegates will meet in convention on August 11 to vote en bloc for repeal.

HALIBUT FISHING ON THIS PART OF COAST EXPECTED TO CLOSE BY SEPTEMBER 1

ment and, unless those interested in this area themselves immediately take hold of the situation, the limit will probably be reached by September 1 and Area No. 2 closed.

The members of the commission would regret exceedingly to see any distress among the fishermen and hope that steps will promptly be taken for such curtailment as will prolong the season.

Up to June 30, this year, a total of 14,283,288 pounds of halibut had been taken from Area No. 2 as compared with 11,154,174 pounds at a similar date last year. Of the total quantity taken this year, 9,558,321 pounds was by United States fleet and 4,724,967 pounds by Canadian fleet as compared with figures of 8,332,621 pounds and 2,821,553 pounds last year.

While the commission has made no prediction concerning the likelihood of when fishing may be closed in the No. 3 area this season owing to the quota being reached there, it is expected that this will not take place, if fishing continues at the present rate, before November 15. Up to June 30 this year 10,621,298 pounds in all, 9,860,128 pounds by the United States fleet and 221,170 pounds by the Canadian fleet, had been taken from Area No. 3 as against 10,889,158 pounds, including 10,613,421 pounds by American vessels and 275,737 pounds by Canadian, at the corresponding date last year. In the event of fishing being closed in Area No. 2 at such an early date as September 1, it is possible that a few of the larger Canadian boats would operate in Area No. 3 which includes the more remote northwestern banks. These and the American vessels regularly fishing therein would continue to land their catches at Prince Rupert.

False Report Corrected

Regarding erroneous reports that were recently published that the commission had definitely decided to close the season on November 15, Dr. Thomson explained that the commission had been given power to close down fishing after November 15 if it deemed such action advisable, irrespective of whether or not the quotas had been reached, but no action along this line had yet been taken nor did it appear likely that it would be necessary to do so.

Dr. Thomson, in the course of an interview, mentioned that the commission's conservation measures in connection with the halibut fishery during the past few years were already resulting in an apparent restoration and building up of the fishery which, previous to the commission taking hold, was commencing to show alarming signs of depletion.

During his conference with the boat owners, Dr. Thomson discussed a number of other problems of interest to the industry. The usual public hearings will probably be held by the commission at various points on the coast in the fall although no dates for same have yet been set.

SPORT CHAT

Nina Gurvich, Dan Parent, Chuck Hickey, Johnny McLeod, Jack Annesley and a newcomer named Henry Knapple are among local boxers who are now engaging in regular work-outs under tutelage of Tommy Morgan at the Moose Club in anticipation of being matched with opponents from H. M. S. Dragoon on a boxing card which will be staged during the visit of the British light cruiser to this port next month. Local boxing fans will be impressed with the performance of this imposing array of Prince Rupert pugilistic talent which it is confidently believed will give an excellent account of itself against the naval lads who are always known as stout fighters. Morgan promises that all his boys will be in tip-top shape by the middle of next month when the warship arrives.

The Moose Club gymnasium is being conducted under the auspices of the local Moose Lodge which has undertaken to take charge of the entertainment program in connection with the visit of the warship to this port. The Moose athletic organization intends to remain active in the pugilistic field during the coming winter season and is planning to bring into Prince Rupert to meet local boys some of the best athletic talent it is possible to get. The Moose gymnasium committee consists of Jack Prece, Ted Rorvik, Andy Macdonald, Jim Bacon, Dick Long and Tommy Morgan.

Vacuum Did It

"Vacuum packing brought a change to Pacific Milk, made it noticeably better," writes Mrs. James; "a single test of the old and new packing shows the difference plainly. I have had both milks together and thought Pacific as it was could not be improved, but the vacuum packed milk has proved otherwise, very much so."

Halibut Handled at Butedale—
Sockeye Production Down—
Yacht Pays Visit

The port of Butedale, some fifty or sixty miles down the coast from Prince Rupert where the Canadian Fishing Co. operates a cold storage plant as well as a large salmon cannery and mild curing plant, has been handling a good deal more halibut than usual this season. Many of the halibut boats have been landing their catches there although the most of them come on to Prince Rupert to outfit before proceeding to the banks again. The company has been shipping a good deal of fresh and frozen halibut from Butedale to the Vancouver market during the past few weeks and such large coasting vessels as the Princess Louise, Prince Rupert and Prince George, which rarely stop there under ordinary circumstances, have been making practically regular calls there of late to load out halibut for Vancouver. Regular service is, of course, being maintained to Butedale by the Union steamers Cardena and Catala and the Princess Adelaide.

Officially compiled figures reveal that the pack of sockeye salmon on the Skeena River up to July 15 this year amounted to but 8,652 cases, being by far the lightest production up to that date in the last five years. This condition has, of course, been brought about by the fact that, whereas this had been due to be a fairly heavy cycle year for this variety of fish, unfavorable weather has been seriously hampering fishing operations. The 8,652 cases on the Skeena River for this year up to July 15 compared with 14,202 cases in 1932, 61,612 cases in 1931, 53,027 cases and 20,829 cases in 1929 up to the corresponding date.

The Naas River sockeye pack for 1933 up to July 15 amounting to 4,349 cases was slightly ahead of last year's pack of 4,155 cases at a corresponding date and the 1931 pack but was a far cry from the 15,737 cases of 1930 and 7,441 cases in 1929.

The Rivers Inlet pack of sockeye up to the date referred to this year was 16,651 cases as compared with 17,182 cases in 1932, 38,427 cases in 1931, 49,713 cases in 1930 and 19,613 cases in 1929. The Smith's Inlet pack was 16,120 cases of sockeye this year in comparison with 10,735 cases last year, 9,538 cases in 1931, 25,267 cases in 1930 and 5,186 cases in 1929. The sockeye pack for the central area this year was 13,365 cases as against 11,473 cases last year, 14,241 cases in 1931, 24,606 cases in 1930 and 5,186 cases in 1929. The Fraser River pack of sockeye for 1933 was 10,533 cases as compared with 9,307 cases in 1932, 6,607 cases in 1931, 3,402 cases in 1930 and 11,037 cases in 1929.

The total sockeye pack for the British Columbia coast this year up to July 15 was 79,865 cases as compared with 77,742 cases in 1932, 143,596 cases in 1931, 185,127 cases in 1930 and 64,126 cases in 1929. Pack of other species besides sockeye up to July 15 had not amounted to any appreciable quantity.

Aboard the Vancouver power cruiser Tulasita, Capt. LePage, D. C. Pack of Washington, D. C., publisher of "Nature" magazine, is making another cruise of the British Columbia and Alaska coast and was a caller here at the end of the week. The Sueja III will also visit Anyox, Stewart and Ketchikan during its cruise. It is moored while here at the floats of the Pacific Salvage Co.

Fine Double Bill Is Presented Here

"Story of Temple Drake" and "Say It With Music" Are Capital Theatre Features

"The Story of Temple Drake," a dramatic tale of present-day youth, and "Say It With Music," a delightful British musical comedy featuring Jack Payne and His Orchestra, comprise the two ends of a special first of the week double bill at the Capitol Theatre here.

In "The Story of Temple Drake," Miriam Hopkins is cast as a wild young aristocratic girl who refuses the offer of William Gargan, a young attorney, with whom she is really in love; and becomes compromised with Jack LaRue, a big city gangster, the film reaching its climax in the situations which involve the various characters. William Collier jr., as a drunken college boy and Irving Pichel are among other prominent members of the cast.

"Say It With Music" is said to be one of those screen novelties which picturegoers delight in and which are presented seldom enough. This clever musician, Jack Payne, and his band have long charmed British radio listeners. The story presents a delightful piece of mystery.
