CANADIANS MAKE GREAT SHOWING AT HENLEY

FOUR MEN DROP DEAD OF HEAT IN TORONTO

in That Was Welcomed to Allay the Intense Heat Has Created a Fatal Humidity Worse to Bear Than Dry Heat—Man Drops Dead While Carrying Dinner Pail to Work

(Canadian Press Despatch)
 Toronto, July 7.—Despite the showers of rain that fell yesterday to relieve the hot spell, Toronto again suffering terribly from heat and humidity. The rain on the hot ground caused so great humidity that at four o'clock yesterday afternoon the sun was shined.

cord was 90.5, but the humidity was 62. The oppressive combination proved fatal to many people.

Four Dropped Dead
 Among those who dropped dead with the heat were Charles Kinsey, electrician for the Globe Printing Co., David Smith, Alfred Hartley, and an unknown man who was found dead at the foot of Parliament street this morning with his dinner pail in his hand, as if on his way to work.

NEW TENDERS FOR BURNABY JAIL

Financial Executive will Modify the Plans and Invite New Tenders Now that the Prices are In.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
 Victoria, July 7.—Twelve tenders have been received and opened for the erection of the new provincial central prison at Burnaby. The prices range from $400,000 to $800,000. At a meeting of the financial executive it was decided to modify considerably the plans, and invite contractors to submit new tenders.

UP TO MEN!

Opportunity of Life Time to Get Bargains

A remarkable sale of gents' clothing, furnishings, boots and shoes, etc., is still on at Martin Kelly's, Second avenue. There are some really surprising bargains to be had. Scores of young men have availed themselves of the opportunity to get in a supply of clothing at prices less than the sale price.

It would be well worth any man's time to call at the store and look over the big stock of class goods.

BRING MEN FROM B.C. TO HARVEST WHEAT CROP

Harvesters and Millers Want Railways to Run a Harvesters' Excursion From Vancouver—Represent There Are From Six to Seven Thousand Men Wanting Work

(Canadian Press Despatch)
 Winnipeg, July 7.—For the first time in the history of Canada, there are to be brought this year to the Pacific coast to help harvest the great grain crop of the prairie provinces. It is reported that there are from six to seven thousand men available on the Pacific coast this season for harvest work, who would be glad to go to the harvesting.

The farmers and millers are anxious that the railways grant very low rates and run a harvesters' excursion from Vancouver, similar to the harvesters' excursions from Toronto and New Brunswick. No definite arrangement has yet been made but the railways will consider the matter.

FRENCH VALET WAS A HERO

Gave His Life to Save That of Two Young Women Who Were Burned.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
 Nantucket, Mass., July 7.—The fashionable colony of Nantucket is today ringing with praise for the heroism displayed by Ulysses Pahod, the young French valet, who died in an effort to save the lives of the two young women who were burned to death in Saturday night's boathouse fire.

Just before he died, Pahod, who had made a futile dash through the flames, turned to his master and murmured apologetically: "I am very sorry, sir, I was unable to find them. I did the best I could, sir."

The County Court will open on July 11th. Judge Young will preside. The list of cases will be announced later.

CANADIAN CREW BEAT BELGIANS AT HENLEY

Outrowed Them in Semi-final for the Grand Challenge Cup—Will now have to Meet the Magdalen Crew in the Final—Outlook is Good for Victory

(Canadian Press Despatch)
 Henley-on-Thames, July 7.—There is every prospect that the Ottawa heat may carry off the Grand Challenge Cup this year, though in meeting the Magdalen College eight in the final tomorrow, they will have to meet the acknowledged favorites.

Beat the Belgians
 Today the Ottawa eight men and vanquished the Belgians in the semi-final for the trophy, winning in grand style. Both crews got off together well, and it was a neck and neck race for half a mile, with both crews pulling a strong stroke. After going half a mile, the Canadians crawled up in front of their rivals, and from there to the end, their superiority was evident.

Outrowed Them
 The Belgians were well beaten, being outrowed completely by the Ottawa men, who finished in good condition. There is great interest in the final, in which the Ottawas meet the Magdalen College eight. The latter are a strong crew, and the betting is principally in their favor.

DRY DOCK, SHIP YARDS AND WHARVES IN SIGHT

Today Sees All Buildings and Wharves Laid Out by Resident Engineer's Party---Boring Now for Foundations---Wharves to go Ahead First Using Thousands of Creosoted Piles---Drive Test Piles in a Few Days

Steadily the preliminary work in connection with the Grand Trunk Pacific Floating Dry Dock and shipbuilding and repairing yards is progressing. J. H. Pillsbury, resident engineer in charge of the work has had his survey party at work since Mr. Donnelly was here with Mr. Hays and Mr. Chamberlin, and today sees the sites of all the wharves and buildings staked out, while the party is going ahead rapidly with the work of taking borings to determine the character of the ground where the foundations of the buildings are to go. So far a good deal of silt has been encountered, and extensive piling will be necessary for the foundations.

Test Piles to be Driven
 In about ten days a pile-driver will be at work driving test piles at various points on the building and wharf sites. After this has been done the engineers will be able to calculate exactly the amount of piling required. At present it is estimated that upwards of four to five thousand creosoted piles will be required for the wharf work alone.

Concrete and Cement
 A good deal of concrete work will be done on the foundations of the buildings. All the structures will be set on concrete piers. The amount of cement and gravel which will be needed for the concrete cannot as yet be exactly estimated, but will certainly be large. Quite extensive grading operations have also to be carried out on the sites of the buildings and approaches to the wharves, etc., and altogether before long several hundred men will be busy there when the work gets into full swing.

Build Wharves First
 First in the order of operations is the construction of the wharves. Citizens of Prince Rupert are already familiar with this class of work, having seen the construction of the G. T. P. wharves, and their re-construction later with creosoted piles last fall. Operations on the dry-dock will of course, be more extensive, and the most up-to-date methods and appliances will be used in the work. After the test piles have been driven, and as soon as the materials can be ordered and delivered work is to go ahead on the wharves. To baffle the destructive toredo worm it is probable that foundation wooden piles will be driven and cuffed off just below the mud line. The toredo does not work below the mudline, and by using toredo proof material above this point the devastator will be effectually dodged. Below the mudline wood piles last as long as solid rock.

The Dock Itself
 Just how much and what particular materials are to be used in the construction of the dry dock itself is not yet entirely calculated. The three sections of the dock divided into twelve pontoons are self docking for repair, painting, etc., and can be used apart from one another to accommodate two vessels separately. The two end sections which are smaller than the centre section can be linked up. Thus two small dry docks are made. Painting and attending to the keeping of the dock in order will employ men periodically year by year, while the shipbuilding yard, which is to be the most-up-to-date on the Pacific Coast will probably keep a large staff busy and growing ever busier as Prince Rupert forges ahead.

rescued. Many of the unfortunate victims received broken limbs, and the doctors are busy attending them. The party had returned from a day's picnic, and were waiting for their steamer when the wharf collapsed. An investigation is to be held into the matter.

FLOWERS AND FRUIT FROM PORCHER ISLAND

Prince Rupert's Market Garden Shows What it Can Produce---Rancher Arrives With Consignment of Chickens, Flowers, Hay Samples and Strawberry Plants

With a steam launch laden with his latest consignment of succulent garden grown green stuff for the Prince Rupert market Mr. Walter Warner arrived from Porcher Island yesterday afternoon. The consignment was an interesting one and included fresh rhubarb, lettuce, radishes, a new and delicate variety of silver turnip delicious in soup, and a crate of thriving young chickens. Part of the consignment was grown by Mr. H. S. Gilbert on the next ranch.

Strawberry Plant Too
 In a large flower-pot Mr. Warner had a splendid strawberry plant in bloom, and with the fruit already forming. This he has transplanted for exhibition. The strawberries in his garden patch will ripen in about a week or ten days now. By bringing the lettuce heads over rooted in some of the loam in which they grew, Mr. Warner was able to show its quality. It is manured with seaweed, and lightened with sand, the result being a splendid mould fit to grow anything.

Incubator Chicks
 Popping their lively little heads up through the wire netting on the crate which imprisoned them for the journey were some two dozen healthy spring chickens. Though only hatched this spring these little chicks were fully fledged active and bright-eyed with red combs developing fast. They will begin to lay early, and Mr. Warner is able to get a good price for them

IS FOUND GUILTY THEN INNOCENT

Second Case Does not Nullify the First—Strange Plight of Rev. George M. Atlas.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
 Toronto, July 7.—An interesting case has arisen in the Ontario courts. Rev. G. M. Atlas, a Presbyterian missionary, was recently sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary for perjury and theft. He was convicted on the evidence of a Macedonian who swore that Atlas had bribed him to commit the perjury. On a trial for subornation of perjury, a second jury has found Atlas innocent. The man whose testimony sent Atlas to the penitentiary, has been declared untrustworthy by the jury at the second trial.

PEERS' WIVES WANT NO RIVALS

Do Not Wish to See Five Hundred Liberal Peers Created—New Force in Politics.

London, July 6.—It is reported that the wives of the British peers are trying hard to induce their husbands to vote for the British Parliament bill, because they dread the imminent creation of several hundred new peers, with whose wives they would then have to associate. The loss of the veto power is less terrible to these ladies than the idea of recognizing the "wives of common tradesmen" as their equals in social rank.

THEY LOOKED GOOD

Last night the Baptist Brotherhood, that fine healthy aggregation of well known young men, had their pictures taken on the steps of the Government Buildings.

But the judgment in the second case does not reverse the judgment in the first case, so Atlas has been taken back to the penitentiary. Mr. Justice Riddell, who heard the second trial will bring the matter before the Minister of Justice, and ask for a pardon for the prisoner.

PICNIC PARTY AT AYLNER THROWN INTO THE WATER

Steamboat Wharf Collapsed While Two Hundred Sunday School Picnicers Were on It—Fifty-three Were Thrown Into the Water and Injured—One Woman Drowned

(Canadian Press Despatch)
 Ottawa, July 7.—Fifty-three Sunday School children and teachers were thrown struggling into the river at Aylmer last night, when the wharf at that place gave way with the strain of two hundred people on it. Great excitement prevailed and fears were felt that a large number would be drowned before help could come.

One woman, Mrs. Davis of Torbolton, was drowned before help could reach her, but the remainder, principally children who clung to the wreckage were rescued. Many of the unfortunate victims received broken limbs, and the doctors are busy attending them. The party had returned from a day's picnic, and were waiting for their steamer when the wharf collapsed. An investigation is to be held into the matter.

FRIDAY, JULY 7

THE NEWSPAPER AND THE HOME

A young English mining engineer who recently completed a survey of the mineral districts of the Pacific coast from Peru to the head of the Portland Canal, thus having excellent opportunities for observing the social life of the peoples among whom he lived, has given expression to his observations in a book.

He saw much to comment on, and much to admire in every nation. But, he says, he never realised before how different the social life and ideals of two neighbouring nations can be till he reached British Columbia and read its newspapers. In very warm words he praised the standard of the British Columbian press in refraining from the sensational, crime-parading and private-life-investigating methods of the press in the coast cities to the south of the international boundary.

The praise is gratifying, for however much abused the Canadian press may be, there is a serious effort made to keep close to facts, to discriminate between what is public and what is private in a man's life, and to present the news of the day in as orderly and well-selected manner as possible.

Not long ago, the newspapers of one big Canadian city, entered into an agreement not to divulge the past history of a notorious criminal. The object of the conspiracy was to save a young woman with a brilliant career before her, from ever learning that the man was her father. She was happy in the belief that her father, whom she had never known, had died when she was an infant.

The secret is one that was confined to a detective chief, four newspaper editors, the girl's mother and the unfortunate man. All entered into a conspiracy of silence—and sacrificed a day's sensation for the sake of a young girl's lifetime of happiness. Any experienced newspaperman could multiply instances where, sometimes to save the feelings of innocent relatives, at other times to prevent the public mind from being needlessly outraged, stories have been emasculated of gruesome and horrifying details. Always an effort is made in the best newspaper offices to produce a paper that may be read aloud in the home.

These observations are stimulated by the scanning of the front page of the "Home Edition" of a well-known Seattle paper. The items which in the opinion of the Seattle editors are especially suitable for fireside reading, are of a rather startling character.

On the front page, just underneath the two big captions which proclaim the particular edition to be the "Home Edition" is a row of black letters two inches deep, telling of a suicide. The right hand column is devoted to the story of the suicide. "Find body in club room" are the main head lines.

The left hand column is topped with a story "Stab man on Street" telling how half an hour after he had given evidence against gamblers Joe Pan was stabbed in the neck and left breast by a stiletto in the hands of Joe Bizzari. Next to it is a two column story of the Groh murder case, with pictures of the murdered man's wife, and the alleged murderer. The principal story, which is given a three column space is entitled "Alleged badger girl breaks down in court." The story deals without any restraint, with the doings of a group of underworld denizens. There are pictures of the girl, her husband, the victim, and other principals in the alleged badger game.

Other stories on the front page, which according to the editors are specially suited for "home" reading tell of a fight and robbery in a lodging house, elopement and subsequent drowning of a young hospital nurse and her lover; the details of the pursuit of a band of bank robbers in the Sierras who were out dynamiting country banks; the poisoning of fifty children at a Sunday School picnic; an alleged attempt by a United States senator to corrupt voters with money bribes, and the story of a degenerate or lunatic, who under the guise of religious teaching had debauched a number of young girls.

No reasonable person expects that a newspaper which purports to give the news of the world can succeed in the guise of a Sunday School leaflet. Neither is there any solid argument for that "mirror of normal life" ideal that some theorists hold for the press. It is the abnormal, not the normal that is "news." That a saw mill is sawing logs is not news, though it is the normal function of a saw mill to saw logs. A saw mill on fire is news because being on fire is not the normal function of a saw mill. That a bank cashier is at his desk paying out checks every day is not news. That is his normal work. But if he skips out of town with a portion of the bank's funds, it is news, because it is an unusual or abnormal proceeding to do so.

The recording of criminal deeds must always be a large portion of a newspaper's work, for people are interested in learning of unusual happenings. But cannot our contemporary across the border find a more palatable feast for home consumption than such a highly seasoned dish of horrors.

SHERLOCK HOLMES

The Greatest Fiction Character of the Century Come to Life Again

A Great Chance

FOR

Daily News Readers

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle will write two new adventures of the famous detective for the Daily News.

The Daily News has joined a syndicate of leading newspapers of United States and Canada to induce Sir Arthur Conan Doyle the author of the famous Sherlock Holmes stories—the greatest detective stories ever written—to give to the world two more of his entrancing tales of the great detective's skill.

All arrangements are now completed, the stories are delivered, and at an early date to be mutually agreed upon, the stories will be printed. They are called:

The Adventure of the Devil's Foot

—AND—

The Adventure of the Red Circle

We have read these stories in the proof, and they are up to the high standard of skill that the earlier stories set. We can say no more.

The Daily News has secured the sole right of publication for the whole of Northern B. C. These stories can only be obtained in the DAILY NEWS.

They will appear in both the daily and weekly edition. They will start in a few days time.

THE COSY CORNER

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

DAINTY SUMMER DRESS

One of the pretty styles of the season is the white linen dress, made with a simple collar and cuffs of some dainty color. A little dress designed in this way is illustrated in the sketch, and shows a development of white linen with collar and cuffs of green linen overlaid with a heavy white linen lace. The effect is unusually dainty, and the idea would develop in any number of color combinations. A hat faced with the color introduced in the dress and a girdle also of the same tint would prove effective.

LINEN COSTUMES

Summer Fashions in Cool and Pretty Materials

A suit that is very effective, but which every woman cannot wear, is one of grey, or grey and white striped crash. White linen is of course always used, though it soils very easily, and there has been this season quite a revival of pique in white and in plain colors. Prime favorite, however, is the suit of deep tan linen, the reason being that it suits nearly every face and figure. Even if the color be not exactly becoming to one's complexion, it can be easily offset by a collar bow of red, black or king's blue. The tan suits are shown practically all made according to the same patterns. The skirts are moderately narrow, with a three-inch hem finished with a row of stitching. The waist line is extended slightly above the normal, and the place of fastening is usually the left front, tan or pearl buttons being used. One may have white buttons if one cares for the contrast. The coat is made a little looser about the hips than we have seen for some time, the lines, however, being perfectly straight. Some of the coats are finished smartly with a two-inch patent leather belt, which runs through a small strap in the middle of the back, and finishes in front with a plain large buckle.

Ice Cream

Try ice cream with cake instead of pudding when the days are hottest.

Strawberry Ice Cream.—Mash 1 quart strawberries, and add to plain ice cream when it is nearly solid. Beat vigorously for a minute or two after adding the fruit. The foundation for any fruit-cream may be 1 quart rich milk and a pint of cream, sweetened rather more than for plain ice cream.

A Simple Ice Cream.—To 1 pint rich cream and 1 pint milk, allow a scanty cup sugar, the white of 1 egg and a tablespoonful vanilla extract. Scald the milk and cream, stir in the sugar, and set away to cool. When cold, add the vanilla and pour into the freezer. Add the well-beaten white of the egg and freeze.

IF YOU LIKE MUSHROOMS

Cut Out and Keep This List of Ways to Cook Them

Mushrooms Stewed—Peel and trim a pint of small mushrooms, pour a pint of fresh milk into a saucepan, add a tablespoonful of butter, a little pepper and salt, and the mushrooms. Boil gently 10 minutes, then add half a cupful of rich cream. Serve on buttered toast.

Mushrooms au Parmesan—Peel and trim the mushrooms, and soak them for about an hour in oil, lemon juice, salt and pepper, then fry them and broil a little. Have ready a nicely flavored white sauce, pour this over them, sprinkle thickly with grated Parmesan cheese and brown in the oven; serve very hot.

Mushroom Salad—Chop the mushrooms into dice and put them into a saucepan with a little butter and two slices of peeled lemon; let them simmer in this until done, then set them aside to cool. Serve with a mayonnaise dressing and saltines.

Mushroom Patties—Make the shells of puff paste in the regular way. For the filling, cut raw mushrooms into squares, fry them in butter, add a little cream, thicken with the yolk of an egg, season and add a little minced parsley.

Mushrooms and Eggs—Peel, and mince them fine, cook in rich gravy until well flavored and thick, then add five eggs well beaten, stirring all the time, season with pepper and salt and serve on fried bread.

Mushrooms a la Bourgeoise—Peel and trim some nice firm mushrooms, place a few slices of nicely streaked bacon on the fire in a

ITEMS OF SPORT

The Leafs appear to have been well pleased with their recent toboggan ride. They are back on it again. Let all hands hope that the slide will not be so long or so steep.

Five pitchers and three infielders have been added to the St. Thomas team of the Canadian League. The men were dug up by Smith, the scout of the Railroad City team, who was formerly a Canadian League umpire.

"Andy" Coakley, formerly of the pitching staff of the Philadelphia Athletics, and who was recently reinstated after being debarred from major league baseball, has signed to play with the New York Americans.

Charley Arbogast, who caught for Seattle in 1907 and 1908, is a new member of the Omaha club of the Western league. Charley has been a member of the Columbus American Association club.

Harry Lombard is hard after Lauder and is making the Calgary boy many tempting offers to meet him in Fernie or Cranbrook. No doubt Billy will take Harry on when the time comes. Lauder has met him several times and always had the best of the Chicagoan.

Brandon is disappointing the fans terribly. It is pretty nearly time that Brandon got wise to the value or lack of value of Bill Morrow, who says more and does less than any other man on the circuit. Under any other man, the Brandon team should be making good. With Bill Morrow in command, it will continue to be very much of a bluff.

"Do you like grape fruit?" a baseball reporter asked Larry Lajoie, who seldom talks to newspapermen. "I don't know," was the characteristic reply. "Ask Manager McGuire."

Although McGraw's New York Giants have a lead of only one game in a season which is less than one-third over the scrappy manager now declares his bunch will win the flag. "We have them all beaten when it comes to stick work," he said. "In base running we are also easily the best team in the league, which I consider to be one of the most valuable assets the team has. The records will show that the Giants have stolen almost twice as many bases this year as any other team in the league."

Taken all around, the Islanders seem to be in better shape at present than they have been for some time. With DeVogt and Dashwood both filling the position behind the bat in fine style, and Ward on first, there are only two noticeable weak spots on the team, at short and in left field. It must be said on Kellar's behalf, however, that his fielding has been neater and snappier lately than it has been for some time but his stick work is still weak.

LADIES RAISED CHURCH MONEY

Held a Successful "Strawberry Social" without the Strawberries—And Gave a Good Time.

Right in line with the age of smokeless powder and horseless carriages the ladies of the Presbyterian Church last night held a most successful strawberry social without strawberries. The consignment of luscious berries arrived too late for admission to the tables, but a trifle like that was not allowed to interfere with the success of the festival. Cakes and ice cream and cups of tea, served by dainty hands in the prettily decorated church building helped to entertain the callers, while stalls of homemade candies of guaranteed quality lured on the way out, all those they had failed to ensnare on the way in.

For the success of the entertainment, credit is due to Mrs. John McRae and the ladies assisting her, who included among others Mrs. Carmichael, Mrs. Neher, Mrs. McD. Hunter, Mrs. D. H. Morrison and Mrs. Marks.

A splendid Victor gramophone which reproduced the songs of famous singers during the evening was generously loaned by McRae Brothers. A sum of nearly fifty dollars was raised for church purposes by the enterprising promoters of the affair.

ROYAL CHILDREN BEGGED BUTTONS

Young Princes Wanted Souvenirs from the Canadian Officers and Got Them.

(Canadian Press Despatch) London, July 6.—Today the Prince of Wales, Princess Mary, and Prince George visited the overseas soldiers' camp at Chelsea and inspected the different contingents. The Prince of Wales specially asked where the different companies of Canadians came from and begged a button from Colonel H. H. Maclean's tunic, a request promptly complied with. All the commandants gave him their badges, whereupon Prince George demanded similar gifts. The South African soldiers gave their peculiar lion's roar, and the Canadians gave the Royal children three cheers, with a tiger, and sang "O Canada."

LLOYD GEORGE'S GREAT SPEECH

Nearly a Hundred Thousand Applications to Hear the Great Little Chancellor.

Birmingham, July 6.—Mr. Lloyd George's great speech on the National Insurance Bill at the Birmingham Town Hall last Saturday was remarkable for the enormous number of applications for seats that poured in. It outrivalled as a measure of public interest Mr. John Bright's famous address at Bingley Hall.

The demand for tickets was such that the Liberal Association offices had to be closed on Thursday. Up to noon that day the number of tickets applied for, despite the fact that the meeting had not been advertised, reached the total of 70,000. This was at the Liberal Association headquarters alone. At the federation offices several thousand other applications had been received.

As the town hall, when packed to its utmost limits, will not accommodate 3,000 people, the difficulties of those who had the duty of allotting the tickets will be realised.

It was the first public speech made by the Chancellor outside the walls of Parliament since the General Election, and marked the complete recovery of his voice.

Mr. Arthur Brampton presided in the absence of Sir Arthur Nicholson, the president of the Midland Liberal Federation.

HAVE BOUGHT FIFTY REINDEER

Government Buys Them from Dr. Grenfell for Far Northwest.

Ottawa, July 6.—The Government of Canada has made addition to the transportation facilities of the country in the form of fifty reindeer. The purchase was made from Dr. Grenfell, of Labrador, who is being paid fifty-one dollars each for the animals. They will be taken from Labrador by boat to Quebec in September, and will go by train to Edmonton or to Athabaska Landing, if the Canadian Northern has rails down to that point, early in the autumn. Scows will be built to complete the journey down the Athabaska River to Fort Smith which is the destination of the herd.

The reindeer have proved a great success in Labrador. The conditions have been found entirely suitable for them, and the original herd of three hundred have grown by natural increase to some twelve hundred. They have proved to be as good for travel as in Lapland, and their flesh and milk have proved a boon on more than one occasion.

It is believed that they will prove (Canadian Press Despatch) Toronto, July 7.—Manager R. J. Fleming of the Toronto Street Railway has given instructions that in the summer months all boys carrying lacrosse sticks and on their way to and from a lacrosse field shall be allowed to ride free on the street cars. He has also decided that the Scarborough Beach athletic field shall be thrown open for all boys to practice on, except on Saturday afternoon, when the field is being used for other purposes, or in the evening when the N. L. U. team are practicing.

It's just possible that the wise small boy will carry a lacrosse stick with him whenever he wants a free car ride.

TWO YOUNG GERMAN BOYS STARTED OUT AS PIRATES

Their Heads Turned by Reading Trashy Stories They Seized a Fishing Smack, Killed the Captain, Threw Man Overboard, and Wounded Five Men Before Being Captured

Berlin, Germany, July 5.—As a consequence of reading stories of the exploits of pirates, two young German boys from Bremen have turned pirates on the Elbe with deadly consequences.

They are a ship's apprentice named Ernest Voigt, a lad of seventeen, and George Tiem, a chemist's assistant, of the same age. First of all they seized a fishing smack, run up the black flag, killed the captain, and held at bay a fleet of pursuers, wounding five seamen.

They boarded the fishing smack as she lay at anchor, and found one hand on duty. Him they overpowered and threw into the river. The seaman, who was a good swimmer, succeeded in reaching the shore.

After hoisting the black flag at the vessel's mainmast, the boys set out for sea, Voigt acting as navigator. Captain Schoemer, the skipper of the smack, missed her when he came down to the quay desiring to go aboard, and, on learning that she had gone down the river, he hired a motor-

SHARP WARNING

Don't Send the Youngsters for Beer. Severe Penalty

A very severe warning was expressed by Magistrate Cars on the subject of the case reported in yesterday's News referring to the serving of liquor to a young boy who had been sent for it for his father. The Magistrate desired the press to emphasize to the public of Prince Rupert the fact that it is against the law in Canada for minors to be allowed inside a bar-room at all. The penalty to which the barkeeper is liable for allowing a minor in the bar-room is at least $100 and may be as much as $500. "It is bad enough to have the fathers going into bars, let alone the young boys," declared Magistrate Cars.
