TORY SPLIT IN ISLANDS

Capt. MacIntosh, Unionist Candidate, Not Acceptable to Joe Merryfield

SIDNEY, June 20.—J. E. Merryfield, organizer of W. J. Bowser's non-partizan movement, has sent word that Capt. M. F. MacIntosh, Unionist nominee, is not an acceptable candidate for his endorsement and that a convention is to be held June 29 to name a Bowser candidate in the Islands. This action has proven quite a disappointment to the MacIntosh supporters who had expected to have a straight fight against the Liberal candidate.

SURVEY ON TRAIL OR ROAD ROUTE UP MOUNT OLDFIELD COMPLETED BY GOVERNMENT

Work on Project May be Undertaken This Year as Part of Relief Program—2.63 Miles in Length With Maximum of 12 Percent Grade

Final survey of a proposed route for the trail it is planned to build up Mount Oldfield from McClymont Park to the Prince Rupert Ski Club's skiing grounds and the site of a chalet which the joint committee of the Gyro and Rotary Clubs and Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce has under contemplation has just been completed by C. W. J. Ellison, locating engineer of the provincial department of public works. The route is one that it is believed will lend itself admirably to the ultimate construction of a highway up the mountain. Meantime, it is being rated as a project which might be undertaken under the 1933 arrangement between the provincial and federal governments for unemployment relief work and, if adopted as such, trail or road construction could be started this year. It is also planned to enter upon the necessary interdepartmental negotiations with a view to having the right-of-way turned over from the lands to the public works department so that the latter, if it is deemed advisable, may have the authority to dispose of the timber in order to help in financing the work.

Rehabilitation Measure of Senator Key Pittman Receives Large Measure of Support—French Talking About Calling For Adjournment of Parley

LONDON, June 20: (Canadian Press)—A sensational monetary resolution by Senator Key Pittman of the United States, the main purpose of which is the rehabilitation of silver, was the dominant issue before the world economic conference today and it received such support that both Secretary of State Cordell Hull and Senator Pittman later declared that they were very much encouraged. The proposal would reduce the traditional gold coverage to twenty-five percent with option of using one-fifth in silver. The American representatives made it clear that the resolution has the approval of the President of the United States and that the United States will not return to the gold standard until it is sure that the gold standard will work.

It was stated in high French quarters tonight that a proposal to adjourn the world economic conference would be brought before the steering committee of the conference tomorrow if there were no clearer indications that the stabilization of the dollar could be effected.

I am afraid we are now in a very arid period of culture.—Ignace Paderevski.

Stabilization Remote
 WASHINGTON, D.C., June 20: (Canadian Press)—No stabilization of currencies in the immediate future is foreseen by the United States government, it was officially stated today.

Russian and Japanese vessels have also joined in the search for the missing flyer.

While anxiety in regard to Mattern's safety becomes increased as time passes without any word of him, hopes are still entertained that he may have made a forced landing with his Lockheed-Vega plane on some lonely island and may yet be safe. On the basis of this theory, ships are thoroughly scouring the route he is believed to have taken but, up to last night, the search had been unavailing.

Up to last night, the provincial police, with the assistance of volunteer workers, had met with no success in their efforts to recover the bodies of Mildred Clarke, aged 18, Gerald Clarke, 12, and George Dobbie, 12, all of Copper City, who were drowned in the Skeena River at Copper City Sunday night in the plunge of an automobile from the government ferry which crosses the river at that point.

NO TRACE OF FLYER

Search For Captain James Mattern Continues But So Far is Unavailing

NOME, June 20.—Sunshine bathed the Aleutian Islands and Behring Sea as United States naval patrol vessels yesterday continued their search for trace of James J. Mattern, young Texas round the world flyer, who has been missing since he hopped off last Wednesday from Khabarovsk, Siberia, for Nome.

While anxiety in regard to Mattern's safety becomes increased as time passes without any word of him, hopes are still entertained that he may have made a forced landing with his Lockheed-Vega plane on some lonely island and may yet be safe. On the basis of this theory, ships are thoroughly scouring the route he is believed to have taken but, up to last night, the search had been unavailing.

Russian and Japanese vessels have also joined in the search for the missing flyer.

In return for such an advance, he intimates that he will pay over to the person who sends him the money one-third of a fortune of $360,000 which it is impossible for him at present to touch. WILL SHOW IMPROVEMENT

The increased price of fish will benefit everyone in and around Prince Rupert. The halibut fishermen are doing considerably better than last season as a result of better average prices and of increased catches. Salmon also is higher in price for both springs and sockeye and, at the close of the season, all gillnetters and trollers should have balances on the right side. This is the result of improved conditions in the Eastern States, where the prices of commodities are advancing. In the west also there is a very considerable improvement and it affects the sales on the coast.

Everyone will be glad to know that fishermen are no longer having to operate at a loss and will hope that they soon get a price for their product that will make them independent. If they are prosperous they spend their money and everybody gets a little. Fishermen pay their bills and help to re-establish that spirit of confidence which is necessary in order to bring back a better condition of affairs.

Through the fish business, Prince Rupert is linked up directly with the centres of the United States and the condition of business there is reflected in the prices here. Should the world economic conference be successful, greater increases of price may be looked for, not only for fish but for metals and lumber.

FORTY YEARS AGO

The Financial Post of Toronto publishes an extract from Coin's Financial Series published in June, 1894 as follows:

"Hard times are with us; the country is distracted; very few things are marketable at a price above the cost of production; tens of thousands are out of employment; the jails, penitentiaries, workhouses and insane asylums are full; the gold reserve at Washington is sinking; the government is running at a loss with a deficit in every department; a huge debts hangs like an appalling cloud over the country; taxes have assumed the importance of a mortgage, and 50 percent of the public revenues are likely to go delinquent; hungered and half-starved men are banding into armies and marching towards Washington; the cry of distress is heard on every hand; business is paralyzed; commerce is at a standstill; riots and strikes prevail throughout the land; schemes to remedy our ills when put into execution are smashed like boxcars in a railroad wreck, and Wall Street looks in vain for an excuse to account for the failure of prosperity to return since the repeal of the silver purchase act."

The Letter Box

CONDITIONS REASONABLE

Editor, Daily News:—
The interview of a veteran cannery operator which appeared in yesterday's issue of your paper had reference to a United Front Fishermen's meeting held at Port Essington on Saturday and characterized same as likely to stir up trouble which was very misleading. The object of this meeting was to discuss prices obtaining for fish, gear, commodities and other grievances that crop up during a fishing season. The Fishermen's Industrial Union do not want a strike, never have wanted a strike and the only reason that will make them strike is conditions getting so bad they cannot operate successfully. Owing to agreements on the side between the cannery operators and the native and Oriental fishermen, the so-called "white man" has to stand on his rights by himself, especially if he be Canadian-born.

The fact that several of the men who had taken an active part in the activities of the Fishermen's Industrial Union would not recognize the delegates who went to the meeting was evidence that there was no occasion to call a meeting. If the prevailing conditions are good enough to satisfy an Oriental or native brotherhood man and the average fisherman does not protest at his plane of living being put on the same par, there is no reason for the Fishermen's Industrial Union to enter protest on his behalf.

However, conditions offered by the cannery operators at present are very reasonable but the future will tell if the fishermen are wise in leaving things to chance.

WM. ROSS,
for Fishermen's Industrial Union.
(Note—Although obtained from a reliable source, the reference made to the "United Front" meeting at Port Essington was not part of the interview with the veteran cannery operator as was clearly stated in the article referred to. Mr. Ross is either mistaken or is endeavoring to confuse the matter.—Ed.)

UPSETS IN SOFTBALL

C. N. R. A. and Grotto Defeated By Navy and Kaiens

The Canadian National Recreation Association and the Grotto softball teams both received upsets on Sunday afternoon when they were defeated by the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve and the Kaiens respectively in the City League.

In the first game, the C. N. R. A. and the Navy both started even by scoring one run each in the first inning and then everything was a tight until the first of the sixth when the C. N. R. A. managed to get a second counter. The Navy overcame that by scoring three men in the seventh and the C. N. R. A. again evened up in the eighth with two runs. This left everything even at the first of the ninth and, after shutting the Ruffronders out for the first half of the inning, the seagoing boys managed to score the winning run when they came to bat, the final score being 5-4.

The second game was rather one-sided, the Grotto losing to the Kaiens by a score of 13-4. The Grotto came to bat first and immediately scored two runs but, when the Kaiens came up, they brought in five. Then they repeated in the second inning with four and again in the fourth with another four. The Grotto got another counter in the sixth and their fourth run in the eighth.

The standing to date:

	W.	L.	Pct.
C. N. R. A.	6	2	.750
Elks	4	3	.571
Grotto	4	4	.500

with a grade averaging from seven to twelve percent to one chalet site at an elevation of 930 feet, one-quarter of a mile this side of the present ski camp. This chalet site is on the edge of the sking ground which lies actually upon the city watershed of Oldfield Creek. From this chalet site there is a commanding view of the city, the coast and ocean for many miles around and on a clear day, Rose Spit on the Queen Charlotte Islands can be clearly seen.

Location has also been made of an alternate route on the upper end to an optional chalet site at an elevation of 975 feet. This route involves a grade of 17½ percent for some 400 feet which might be considered excessive for motor travel.

The route crosses city property for from one-quarter to one-half a mile at this end. Near the city dam about half way up the mountain are six switchbacks which will eliminate crossings of Oldfield Creek as well as modifying the grade. The ground traversed is largely made up of shale rock covered by loose soil. While the route is quite heavily timbered with hemlock and balsam predominating the trail or road construction will be comparatively easy and involves very little rock work. On the entire route there will be only three small bridges, one of these crossing the city pipe line.

The favored chalet site is on an exact tangent from Dunsmuir Street. The commanding view, it is believed, will be a great attraction from a scenic and tourist standpoint. Incidentally, the Mount Oldfield ski field is declared by those who know the sport to be unrivalled anywhere in the country and, once it is opened up by a trail or road such as proposed and equipped with suitable accommodation, would be a highly popular venue for this popular winter sport with possibilities in the way of attracting important meets to Prince Rupert.

Mike Tugen was fined $5, with option of five days' imprisonment, by Magistrate McClymont in city police court this morning on a charge of creating a disturbance by swearing. The fine was paid.

DON'T LET COMMON CONSTIPATION DULL THE JOY OF LIVING

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Brings Relief

Constipation takes the sunshine out of your days. It may bring headaches, loss of appetite and energy, sleeplessness, sallow skins, pimples. If neglected, it can seriously impair health.

Fortunately, you can avoid this condition by eating a delicious cereal. Laboratory tests show that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides two things needed to overcome common constipation: "bulk" and vitamin B. ALL-BRAN is also a rich source of blood-building iron.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of leafy vegetables. Within the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently, it clears out the intestinal wastes.

How much better than doing yourself with patent medicines. Two tablespoonsfuls of ALL-BRAN daily are usually sufficient. With each meal in chronic cases. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

Death of Huge Sea Lion Causes Some Excitement on Board Halibut Boat Atli on Recent Trip to West

While a fisherman's life is apt to be rather monotonous, there are times when he has some diversion and the last trip of the Atli to the west coast of Queen Charlotte Islands was one of these. It seems that Skipper William Bussey and his crew of three men had their skates of gear out on the banks not far from North Island when a huge sea lion began to feed on the halibut, taking them from the hooks at a safe distance from the boat. He would come up with the halibut in his mouth, snap it in two and swallow one of the pieces, then diving rapidly would get the other piece before it got far below the surface and come up and eat it. Two halibut were taken from the long line in this way and the creature disappeared.

WHIFFLETS From the Waterfront

Capt. W. P. Armour, head of the Armour Salvage Co., returned to port yesterday with the Salvage Princess from a ten day trip to Vancouver, having delivered to the southern port for resale two donkey engines which were recently purchased at the sale of effects of the defunct National Airplane Lumber Co. as well as the 75 h.p. Fairbanks-Morse full diesel engine from the wrecked halibut boat Livingstone II. The voyage was favored by good weather conditions and was speedy and uneventful. Capt. Armour reports. Making the round trip as guests of Capt. Armour were W. O. Fulton and son, Rupert, and Capt. J. R. Elfert. The Princess had a four-day stay in Vancouver, and made the trip back in 62 hours including a stop at Red Bluff for trout fishing. Also coming north were Capt. Pete Jensen, formerly of the local halibut boat Lysekill, and crew who are taking the vessel over for a pichard packing charter to the Nootka Packing Co. on the West Coast of Vancouver Island, the charter starting July 4.

The service boat Qualls from Surf Point mine was in port yesterday afternoon, bringing the engineer in charge of the mine, R. E. Legg, for a brief business visit to town. Returning home on the Qualls was Lyman H. Hinton B. C. L. S. who has been working at the Surf Point mine for the past several months.
