Various Proposals For Betterment of Conditions in Province Included Under Fourteen Point Program—Aid From Ottawa in Municipal Financing

VICTORIA, June 7: (Canadian Press)—Premier S. F. Tolmie last night announced the platform of the new Unionist party under fourteen headings bearing largely on the creation of work, extension of markets and return to the land of many men now idle. The platform advocates national state health and contributory unemployment insurance, creation of a marketing board, survey into industrial openings for labor and an aggressive campaign to advertise the resources of the province. The manifesto also advocates revision of interest rates, a revised curriculum in the schools, orderly marketing of farm products, better control of municipal borrowings, improved labor laws, adherence to work rather than the dole for relief and continued operation of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway.

The Premier declared that the party should urge upon the federal government the appointment of a royal commission to inquire into the subject of better terms, recognizing that the financial stability of the municipalities is an integral part of the financial stability of the province.

"The party will as far as possible protect the public against the inflation of capital of companies by means of watered stock," adds the manifesto.

Oklahoma Aviator Prepares to Take to Air in Event of Losing Record

OMSK, Russia, June 7:—Having fallen considerably behind the record of Wiley Post and Harold Gatty as he slept here last night, James J. Mattern, young American aviator, hopped off from here this morning at 4:10 (2:10 p.m. Tuesday, Pacific Standard Time) in continuation of his projected record-breaking flight around the world. His proposed destination on today's hop was Chita, a distance of 1700 miles at which point, if he was able to cover the ground in twelve hours as he had planned, he would again be well ahead of the previous record. Mattern had at first planned to fly today to Irkutsk, a distance of 1200 miles, but, shortly before leaving, announced that he would try the longer hop. His machine was functioning excellently and he was in splendid health and spirits.

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 7:—With Jimmy Mattern, young Texas flyer, bidding fair to eclipse his record of two years ago, Wiley Post, one-eyed Oklahoma aviator, was tuning up his plane Winnie Mae yesterday with a view to setting out in pursuit of Mattern and beating his time. Post, who made the flight in 1931 with Harold Gatty, instead of taking along a mechanic this time plans on using an 80-pound robot as a flying partner.

these experimental plantings, it might be discovered that it would pay to plant certain of these species commercially in the future.

Internal Organization

Mr. Parlow opened his address with a brief description of the internal organization of the Forest Branch which came under the Department of Lands with a chief forester in charge, the province being divided into five forest districts.

The district forester then proceeded to outline some of the wide variety of duties coming within the purview of the Forest Branch. These included the collection of revenue which was largely made up of stumpage and royalty collections.

The Forest Branch staff had also to carry out the field work of the Lands Department including the inspection of every pre-emption once a year until crown granted, and the examinations of land in connection with leasing applications for all manner of purposes including mill sites, cannery sites, foreshore for booming grounds, summer resorts and even such things as oyster beds and cemeteries.

Administration of crown range grazing lands also came under the Forest Branch but was not an active duty as far as Prince Rupert district was concerned.

Research work carried on by the Forest Branch included mapping of timber, recording the quantities, species, age classes and location. Experimental stations were maintained at Cowichan Lake, Aleza Lake and Green Timbers.

Trade Extension

In connection with trade extension, Mr. Parlow explained that the Forest Branch maintained lumber commissioners in Toronto and London and had sent trade missions to Australia, New Zealand, China and Japan.

Mr. Parlow referred to the $4 per thousand duty of the United States which had cut off that market for another year so far as British Columbia lumber was concerned.

It had been suggested from time to time, Mr. Parlow stated, that the Forest Branch might take over the administration of the game laws.

Born in Lochinver, Sutherlandshire, Scotland, thirty-seven years ago, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William McRae, both deceased, the late Mr. McRae came to the city from the Old Country with his family when about thirteen years old.

He attended the schools of the city as a boy and served in France during the Great War with the Royal Field Artillery.

Returning here after the war, he became identified with the utilities department of the city service and transferred to the Northern British Columbia Power Co. when that concern took over the local electric light utility a few years ago.

The Canadian Legion continued its winning way in Senior football last evening by scoring a decisive victory over the Regiment by four goals to one in the opener of the Stuart Benefit Shield series.

Play was even at the start, the Regiment players showing lots of speed but the Legion playing better position and with better results. Norrington saved from Murray and then Morrison put a good shot from Wicks over the bar.

The Regiment attacked strongly in the second half and Morrison was lucky to clear. In a scramble round him a few minutes later, Christison scored for the Regiment.

Referee—J. Johnston. Linesmen—Gilker and Kelly. The Legion players were superior in positional play and in shooting.

TWO PLANES CALL HERE

A big Junkers ship with W. R. McCluskey as pilot, arrived yesterday afternoon from the Queen Charlotte Islands, having on board W. S. (Duke) Harris, who has been looking over mining properties for Col. Victor Spencer and associates of Vancouver, and left at 8 o'clock this morning for Porcher Island where a visit was paid by Mr. Harris to the Surf Point mine.

The other machine, a Boeing boat, with W. G. Holland as pilot, arrived at 8 o'clock last night from Juneau. This machine, which took a party of passengers north, was to have flown E. O. McDonnell and son, who have been big game hunting at Admiralty, south but McDonnell has decided to remain in the north a week or so longer and now plans to proceed east from here by rail.

The Elks defeated the Navy 16 to 1 in City League Softball last evening. The Elks scored nine runs in the sixth inning, making the score 16 to 1, so the Navy decided not to complete the game.

The Elks were in fine form although they seemed to get all the "breaks" from the umpires. In the second game the Navy took their second defeat from the Empress with a score of 6 to 7, playing only six innings on account of the weather.

Two postponed games will be played this evening, weather permitting.

TWO PLAY BILL HERE

Drama "The Unwritten Law" and Comedy "Chance of a Night Time," at Capitol

"The Unwritten Law," a strong problem drama, with Greta Nissen, Skeets Gallagher, Mary Brian, Louise Fazenda, Hedda Hopper and Purnell Pratt in the leading roles, and "The Chance of a Night Time," an uproarious British comedy starring Ralph Lynn, Robert English and Winnifred Shutter, are the feature pictures on an attractive double bill being offered at the Capitol Theatre here for the middle of this week.

A vital problem presents itself to Purnell Pratt in "The Unwritten Law." Early in his married life, he was attacked and left to die by his wife's lover, who fled from Africa, the scene of the crime, with the faithless spouse.

For twenty years, this man searched for his former friend. Finally, he found him, a successful motion picture producer, in a Hollywood studio. When Pratt arrives on the scene, he learns that his quarry, Lew Cody, is about to marry his daughter.

"The Chance of a Night Time" gives Ralph Lynn a chance to be his charming, diffidently chivalrous, hesitant self, and thus provides a succession of pure fun. He appears as a bachelor solicitor who meets a dancer in a railway station and falls heavily for her charms. Later he meets her at a private house, and under the influence of Cupid and champagne, he undertakes to deputise as her missing partner. When the real dancer appears he has a hectic time in escaping the wrath of the master of the house, but in his cavalierly fashion he succeeds in doing so and departs with the girl.

PRIZE FOR BUSINESS

Power Company at Stewart Wins Merchandising Award

STEWART, June 7.—Business is not so bad in the north. The Stewart branch of the Northern British Columbia Power Company has just been advised that it has won Class III (smaller centres only) of the Canadian Electrical Manufacturers Merchandise sales contest. This contest is Dominion-wide and is based on the average sales of electrical merchandise over a year's period in proportion to the number of consumers of electricity in the district. The Stewart office not only won in its own class but also had the best average sales figure in all classes.

W. D. Smith, manager, and John Thompson, salesman, are in receipt of numerous congratulations from their friends in Stewart and elsewhere.

PROBE IS CONTINUING

WASHINGTON, D.C., June 7.—The finance committee of the Senate decided yesterday to postpone the probe into the business methods of the great American banking concern.

Congress was asked yesterday to vote another $150,000 to finance continuation of the investigation.

Senator Robinson, Republican Indiana, yesterday demanded in the Senate the resignation or impeachment of Secretary of the Treasury Woodin as a result of disclosures which have been made during the investigation. It was revealed that Woodin was one of those on the "preferred list" of clients of the House of Morgan.

No Blame Attached to Anyone in Connection With Fatality At Premier

STEWART, June 7.—The jury empanelled under Dr. J. W. Vossburgh, coroner, to inquire into the death of Joseph Bialo of Premier, who died on May 25 as a result of injuries received underground on May 22, completed its hearing last week and the verdict was that deceased came to his death as the result of accident and that no blame was attached to anyone. The jury also brought in a strong recommendation that forcible instructions be given to every man working underground in the use of the safety rope.
