PASSING OF JAS. WHITE

Pioneer Settler of Queen Charlotte Islands is Dead

SKIDEGATE, June 28:—James White, better known among his many friends as "Jimmy," passed away a few days ago at the Queen Charlotte City Hospital. He was one of the first settlers to take up land on the east coast of Graham Island and was known as an authority on rifles, shotguns and game. He wrote many interesting articles and letters to rod and gun magazines.

The funeral took place at Port Clements with Rev. R. P. Graham, Anglican Church missionary, officiating. Numerous floral tributes testified to the esteem in which deceased was held by the pioneer residents of the Queen Charlotte Islands.

Miss Margaret Beattie arrived in the city on the Prince Rupert this morning from Vancouver, where she is attending school, to spend the summer vacation here with her mother, Mrs. A. M. Beattie.

Mrs. Blanche Macdonald, Mother of Mrs. L. W. Waugh, Died This Morning

The death took place this morning in St. Paul's Hospital, Vancouver, of Mrs. Blanche Macdonald, mother of Mrs. L. W. Waugh, and herself formerly of this city.

Mrs. Macdonald was born in Kent, England in 1858 and was educated in France, coming to Canada over sixty years ago. Her husband, the late Joseph R. Macdonald, of a prominent family of Prince Edward Island, predeceased her over thirty years ago.

Mrs. Macdonald had seven children, five of whom are living. Her eldest son, N. J. Macdonald of Edmonton, is a South African veteran. Two other sons served in the Great War, the late Lieut. Wilfred C. Macdonald of the Canadian Scottish and R. W. Macdonald of Vancouver. Another son, George F. Macdonald, is now in Winnipeg.

Two daughters are Mrs. William J. Bone of Vancouver and Mrs. L. W. Waugh of this city.

This lesson in martial spirit for the Japanese schoolboys is based on the famous "Three Human Bombs", the Japanese soldiers who sacrificed their lives to blow up Chinese barbed wire entanglements during the 1932 fighting at Shanghai. The soldiers carried the explosives to the scene and died when the blast ripped away the fortifications. The story is being told the primary students as they view the bronze tablet depicting the event. The scene is in Tokio.

Battle of Franc Said To Be Lost-- France Will Have To Devalorize-- Esthonia Is Off Gold Standard

Important Achievement For Return of Nations to International Monetary Standard Reported to Have Been Made at World Economic Conference

LONDON, June 28: (Canadian Press)—With the understanding prevalent in well informed quarters last evening that Great Britain had refused to commit herself to a new European gold bloc under which British and continental currencies would be stabilized irrespective of the United States, fresh overtures to the United States to stabilize its dollar with the British pound sterling and the French franc were understood authoritatively today to have been rejected. At the same time, the European gold bloc redoubled its efforts this afternoon to obtain British support for the gold standard.

Financial experts said today that the battle of the Franc had been lost and it was only a question of time until France would be obliged to devalorize. Esthonia, it was announced last night, had gone off the gold standard.

An important achievement for the eventual return of the nations to an international monetary standard, it is reported, was made in an agreement on Tuesday between the British, United States and French representatives now considering the technical banking aspects of the resolution of Senator Key Pittman of the United States on the monetary uses of gold and silver.

Ghastly Blunder of War Blamed For Depression; Early Return Of Prosperity Seen by Speaker

Gyro Club Hears Illuminating Address by Col. J. W. Nicholls on Subject of "Gold Basis and Inflation"

"The cause of our present economic troubles has been clouded in recent years but it seems to me quite easy to find. During the war we shot off the savings of centuries, we destroyed millions of tons of shipping, we took out of productive effort millions of men, we killed off millions of the flower of our youth. In spite of that ghastly blunder, in spite of the ten years of extravagance and jazz which followed, in spite of every country in the world raising tariff walls and foolishly trying to sell to all and buy from none, in spite of our huge debts and taxation, in spite of the extravagance and sensibility of some of our governmental leaders, in spite of all these mistakes, I say that the forces of recovery have been and are working and are too strong to be overcome. I am going to predict that within a year or so, possibly a little sooner, possibly a little later, we shall see a period of prosperity unequalled in this world's history and gold will contribute its share in the recovery and still be the medium of our exchange but, while human nature is what it is, while we are all born unequal and not equal, as Lincoln said, while some are strong and some are weak, while some are clever and some are foolish, the next period of prosperity will be followed by another period of depression and so on ad infinitum."

Such was the conclusion of Col. J. W. Nicholls, comptroller of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co., to an address before the Prince Rupert Gyro Club yesterday afternoon in the Boston Cafe on the subject of "The Gold Basis and Inflation." Col. Nicholls' discussion of present economic problems with particular reference to the gold standard was one of the most illuminating of its kind which has been heard here and was listened to with rapt interest by the members of the service organization and their guests. In the absence on account of illness of President T. W. Brown, Past President William Cruickshank was in the chair.

In leading up to the adoption of gold as the medium of exchange in the world, Col. Nicholls briefly alluded to the early periods when trade had been carried on by barter. Down through the years various articles had been used in various parts of the world and by various peoples as mediums of exchange. As new countries became developed and settled, international trade had to adopt a universal money unit which would pass in all countries until, with the highly developed industrial, communication and transportation system of today, gold had been adopted although actually payments were usually made by telegraph without putting up an actual cent of gold.

Gold Efficacious
In the last 250 years coins were made, first from iron, then copper, then silver and now gold. Gold had been finally adopted as it was the best fitted in all ways. It was durable, could be converted from coin to bullion and vice versa without loss of weight, it was valuable although it bulked small and its annual production fluctuated very little.

Col. Nicholls gave many interesting sidelights of international banking with particular reference to the operation of the gold basis. He told how the gold standard had

SILVER IS DISCUSSED

Stewart Board of Trade Urges Action at London Conference

STEWART, June 28:—The re- monetization of silver was again the major topic of discussion at a meeting of the Stewart Board of Trade held last week. A resolution was passed ratifying and confirming the action of the executive in forwarding a strong motion to the Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett urging that silver be given a prominent place in the deliberations of the world economic conference. This action was in conformity with the suggestion made by the Smithers Board of Trade.

Considerable discussion was devoted to local public works needs but, before taking any action pressing for local works, it was decided to obtain full and authentic information as to what the Dominion-provincial unemployment agreement means in regard to wages and allowances.

As Stewart, B.C. and Hyder, Alaska, are so closely allied in sports and social matters and each celebrates the other's national holiday, the next regular meeting of the board, which would have fallen on July 4, was cancelled.

LARGE BUYING POWER

According to figures just made public it seems that the buying power of the people of Prince Rupert is very high compared with that of other sections of the country. According to the authority quoted the total sales in Prince Rupert for the year of 128 stores is $3,499,100. With a population of 6,350 the average amount expended by each person is $551.

The average amount spent by each person in British Columbia is $359; in the prairie provinces, $240; in Ontario, $324; in Quebec, $232, and in Prince Edward Island, only $201. These figures would seem to indicate that the standard of living in British Columbia is higher than in any other province of Canada and in Prince Rupert the standard is far above the average of British Columbia and twice as high as that of most of the people of the Dominion.

These figures seem to indicate that newspaper circulation in Prince Rupert is worth twice as much per capita to the advertiser as that of most of the cities of Canada.

INTERNATIONAL MONEY

The time is bound to come when the nations of the world will agree upon a stabilized currency system under which money issued by any nation will be good in any other, subject only to the difference in the cost of moving the money from one country to the other.

A few years ago France debased her currency to a point where she was relieved of a large part of her debt. Other countries have taken similar action but Britain and the United States held their currency firm or nearly so. Now that Britain and United States have adopted a policy of mild inflation, there is protest from France and her allies and an effort is being made to stop it.

Where the dollar and the pound will eventually be pegged we do not know. No one knows. Some day stability must be secured but whether it can be done at the present time or not remains to be seen. Probably it will not be achieved until world conditions are more settled than they are today.

worked perfectly prior to the present chaotic conditions.

The speaker outlined the events which had led up to England suspending backing its notes with gold payments. Canada had later taken similar action and just recently United States had followed suit. This, however, did not mean, as a lot of people thought, that these countries had abandoned the gold basis. Gold was still the basis although the yardstick had been elasticized.

Through the suspension of payments in gold, Great Britain had actually benefited. People in the United States could get a pound's worth of goods in England for $3.90 instead of $4.25. Consequently, they commenced to buy in England, the exports of which country started to increase, making more employment.

The United States had suspended gold payments in the effort to raise the prices of commodities and thus reduce unemployment. Policies of inflation such as had recently been adopted by the President of the United States had proven dangerous in the past but conditions today were different than they had been in the past. United States today had it in its power to suspend the policy of inflation once it showed signs of threatening economic trouble.

Col. Nicholls was doubtful as to the efficacy of a system of bi-metalism which was now being seriously considered. Experts had found that there was ample gold in circulation to support the world's currency. Silver could be enhanced in value, however, and this would be a good thing.

At the conclusion of his address, Col. Nicholls was thanked on behalf of the club by the acting president. Guests at the luncheon were Dr. C. H. Hankinson, W. M. Blackstock and C. W. Dawson.

A Little Brown Bird

O little brown bird winging Out of the blue, to pour The glory of the seasons In songs around my door; What is your inspiration? The urge to minstrelsy? Who dreamed of your creation Full-throated ecstasy? O little brown bird singing With overflowing mirth; With gladness ever bringing A bit of heaven to earth. Master of gloom and sadness, Teach this poor heart of mine, To sing with half your gladness, The praise of the Divine. O little brown bird winging Home to your hidden nest; You leave my glad heart singing My life forever blessed, Again in some far dawning I'll hear your melody; For such exquisite gladness Must live eternally. REGIMENT WON GAME

Defeated C. L. D. L. Last Night in Dominion Day Cup Series

The Dominion Day Cup football game between Regiment and the Canadian Labor Defence League last night resulted in a win for the Regiment by two goals to one. Both teams played ten men all through but the game was interesting with the Regiment definitely the superior team.

Kicking downhill, the Regiment attacked and Christison put past. Norrington was dangerous but Moe cleared and then Gurvich caught and cleared. Dickens and Bye made headway but Blake cleared. Thurber was in good form and, with Wingham and Hill, made a fast halfback line. Greer saved well from Chenoski. Then Vance centred well but Wingham shot past. Christison hit the bar. Gomez made a strong clearance. DeJong put the Regiment a goal up from close in and then Norrington's terrific drive just missed the upright.

The Regiment continued to have the better of the second half. Bye, Chenoski and Maguire were rarely able to develop a dangerous attack. Blake was always safe. Norrington made a fine run but Moe cleared. Gurvich was lucky to clear. From a corner well taken by Vance, Christison headed a second goal for the Regiment. The game slackened up somewhat. Davies cleared well and Greer put a grand shot over the bar, a fine save. Following some loose play Comadina scored for the C. L. D. L. full time coming shortly after with the Regiment winning deservedly.

SPORT CHAT

Steve Bright of the Naas River, who meets Nina Gurvich on July 1 in the main event of the fight card at the Empress Club, looked like the champion that he is as he went six fast rounds with three sparring partners last night. He declined Pen Norvan and beat Jack Johnson via the knockout route to win the championship he now holds. Nina Gurvich, the well known local welterweight, is also in the peak of condition. He is the slugger type that likes to mix it. When he meets Bright he will have an opponent of similar disposition so there is sure to be plenty of action.

The semi-wind-up, has all the earmarks of a grudge fight. One known as "Banana" Robertson, while viewing Bronson Hunt sparring with Gurvich, made a remark that he could take the aforementioned Mr. Hunt. When this news was transmitted to Mr. Hunt he naturally took objection to same. They were immediately matched for Saturday night. These middleweights will put on a real show. Johnny McLeod will mix it with H. Warfield and there will be three other interesting bouts which will round out the card.

Tommy Sherman Doing Stunts

Former Local Boy Rides Tricycle On Trail Street

Tommy Sherman of Prince Rupert is now living in Trail and he is about as well known there as he was here. About him the Trail newspaper has the following: Everybody laughed. Depression was forgotten. One person caused all the fun.

It was Saturday afternoon. Things were rather quiet on Bay Avenue. Suddenly merchants began coming out of their stores, pedestrians stopped, cars halted and everybody laughed.

Tommy Sherman was the cause of it all. Astride a boy's tricycle, with a derby hat sitting jauntily on his head, Tommy was creating a riot. He followed bicycles, tried to keep up with a horse and made trouble for people who got in his way. The excitement didn't last long but everyone enjoyed it. And Tommy had as much fun of it as anyone did.

Was So Short of Breath Could Not Lie Down to Sleep

Mrs. P. J. Chernoff, Shoresacra, B.C., writes: "I had been so troubled with shortness of breath I could not lie down to sleep. I couldn't do any hard work, or climb the stairs, and had nervous and smothering feelings, and became very weak. I tried all kinds of medicine, but could get no relief until after I had taken three boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and since then I have felt better in every way."

MISSIONARY IS SPEAKER

Toc H Heads Interesting Talk By Rev. W. H. Pierce

The members of the Prince Rupert Group Toc H were given a very interesting address last evening by Rev. W. H. Pierce, late of Port Eslington. He dealt with his work as a missionary among the coast Indians, covering the territory from Bella Coola to Alaska. In the very early days when the only white people here were the Hudson Bay officials. He gave very vivid word pictures of some of the gruesome rites practiced by the heathen Indian sixty years or more ago, which the Rev. Pierce himself had witnessed. He also described in a very interesting manner laws and customs prevailing among the coast Indians at that time.

There was a very good attendance, to hear the address, several visitors being present.

'Sunshine Susie' Is Here Again

Renate Muller Leads Cast of "Marry Me" at Capitol Theatre

Those who have been hoping for another "Sunshine Susie," will find their wishes met in "Marry Me," the new Renate Muller picture, coming this mid-week to the local Capitol Theatre.

It is an engaging story which "Marry Me" tells, with the expert assistance of the three British monarchs of laughter, Harry Green, George Robey and Billy Caryl.

It is the story of a pretty gramophone recordist who is in love with a fellow employee. The young gentleman, head of a bachelor household of three-brothers, is slow to realize Renate's affection for him, and hankers after "a rich marriage." He is unaware that Renate has determined to "get her man" and that, having sought the advice of her "boss," she is about to bring football strategy to bear upon her matrimonial aspirations. How she secures the elusive young gentleman at last; how she enlists the services of a matrimonial agency in bringing Romeo to heel, makes up a story that is as melodious as it is funny.

G. A. McNicholl, general passenger agent for the Canadian National Railways with headquarters in Vancouver, is making the round trip north aboard the steamer Prince Rupert which is in port today bound for Skagway. He will be here again next Monday south-bound.

District News TERRACE

A fire threatened to destroy J. W. Durran's house a few days ago. The day was hot and dry and a chimney fire set the roof alight. Fortunately, a passing cyclist gave the alarm and, in a few minutes, many helpers arrived on the scene. A large patch of the roof was damaged.

Lakelse Lake is beginning to assume its summer aspect with the arrival there of camping parties. The Misses Little had some of their girl friends for the week-end at the lakeside cottage which is the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. George Little. The Fulton and Armour families arrived Friday from Prince Rupert.

Mrs. Wilby is spending a holiday at Mrs. Sherwood's.

SKIDEGATE

So far this summer, the weather on the Queen Charlotte Islands has not been nearly as good as usual. The growing season has been backward and very wet.

A large number of bear and deer are reported as having been seen on the Queen Charlotte Islands recently. Some of the bear are said to be as large as grizzlies.
