Mr. Shelly, during his speech, expressed regret that the Leader of the Opposition had been unable to accept the invitation of Premier Tolmie but he did not think that this ended chances of union. One method had been tried and failed. Another must now be tried.

"Speaking as one who owes no great obligation to anyone in this House," Mr. Shelly proceeded, "who is free to speak exactly as he thinks and who has no political ambitions whatever, I say that no man's personality, no man's personal interests and no man's personal future is big enough to wreck this union."

Pattullo Tells B. C. Legislature $11,000 For Public Works in His Constituency is Inadequate

Charges Northern Development Restricted on Account of Extravagance in South—Wrinch and Manson Also Dissatisfied—Kergin on Strike

VICTORIA, March 30: (CP)—T. D. WHOSE UNION?

Prince Rupert's member has made it clear that he will not join with the Tolmie union government. That does not mean that he would not consider a reasonable proposal. He has announced that he is willing to unite with progressive elements along constructive lines but apparently he does not consider the present administration progressive or constructive.

Yesterday we published in full the correspondence between Premier Tolmie and T. D. Pattullo. This would prove particularly interesting to any student of provincial affairs and would indicate pretty clearly the stand of Prince Rupert's member in provincial affairs. If these letters are read in connection with other announcements made this week, we believe it is clear that Mr. Pattullo is favorable to union but only union with those who look for action rather than inaction. Apparently he does not believe in sitting tight and letting nature take its course.

BE BRITISH

A good many people have suggested that this province should follow the British lead in the matter of union government. The action of the British is no precedent. When union was formed in that country they chose a progressive man to lead them, a man who was outstanding in international affairs. The reactionaries had come to a position where it was necessary that a man of progressive thought should lead them and they rallied behind him.

Follow that precedent here. Let the powers at Victoria choose Pattullo as leader and fall in behind him and they will do something to pull the province out of the present morass. As A. M. Manson said in the House "Do the British thing. Let the people decide."

WHY SHOULD THERE BE WAR?

Several prominent British statesmen and soldiers are prophesying that there will be war in Europe before long, but the recent campaign of Premier Ramsay MacDonald against it seems to have been beneficial. Every ruler in Europe must realize how awful a war would be today and how useless to settle anything. Judging by results it seems that Germany won the Great War because her people have come out of it with lower taxes than the opposing countries.

In every country today there is an increasing number who declare they will not fight in any war, but when the tocsin is sounded and the drums beat they are among the first to fall in and do their bit.

Basketball Buzz

Brick Skinner's threatening finger was surely working overtime in the championship play-off games on Tuesday night. Although the play was not unusually rough, Brick was keeping the boys in their places all the time. On Friday night, when the visiting Port Simpson team plays the C. N. R. A. for the championship of Northern B. C., if Brick calls them like he did Tuesday night, both teams will need to have plenty of spares.

Good refereeing is essential to good basketball and Brick Skinner certainly knows his basketball when it comes to refereeing.

The ladies and the intermediates play-off the last game of the chamampionship series Friday night and, if the first games were any indication of the brand of ball that is to be kept up in championship games, Friday's card should be of excellent calibre.

This has been the biggest season for basketball in Prince Rupert for many a year despite the depression. Negotiations with Anyox have been completed and a team will leave Easter week to engage in a series of games with the smelter town team. The same week the Grotto will be going to Stewart and Premier to play and that is not all for high school teams from Smithers are expected the same week from the interior to engage in a series with the local high school.

Prosperity will return in spite of anything which governments and bankers can do to prevent it.—Roger W. Babson.

CITRUS IS DISCUSSED

S. C. Thomson Gives Interesting Address at Luncheon of Rotary Club

"Citrus Fruits" was the subject of an interesting address this afternoon at the luncheon of the Prince Rupert Rotary Club by S. C. Thomson. He explained that sweet oranges originated in Southern China. Today the varieties chiefly consumed were valencias, navels, Japanese, tangarines, Sevilles and from the Island of Malta came the blood oranges.

On the continent practically all the oranges were grown in California and Florida. Australian oranges had not, so far, proved a great success. Florida oranges were not sold here on account of the cost of transportation.

The famous Washington Orange originated in Riverside, Calif. Some trees were imported into the United States from Brazil and grafted on to strong seedlings. Two trees were planted by Mrs. Elizabeth Tibbetts in front of her home at Riverside and it was soon found that the product of these trees was superior to any heretofore grown. They were named after the former president of the United States and people came from all over California to get buds for their own stock. Today it was estimated that there were ten million trees grown from these two trees, one of which is still alive in its original location.

Mr. Thomson told how the fruit

Serve Very Hot

Using up the left-overs is a real means of economizing on the food budget. Here's a recipe for a truly delectable left-over dish, easy to prepare and very economical. Costs about 10c a serving—50c for a family of five.

Cut slices of cold meat 1 inch thick, then mix 2 level teaspoons Colman's Mustard, 4 teaspoons olive oil, 2 teaspoons vinegar, cayenne to taste. Score the meat slices and spread the mixture in the incisions. Broil over a hot fire. Place on heated platter and season with salt, pepper and butter. Serve it very hot.

Delicious! Surprise Grill will be a credit to your cooking ingenuity, the kind of dish your family will ask you to prepare again and again. But—in the interest of fine flavour and real success don't forget the 2 teaspoons of Colman's Mustard.

very special this way!

A cold night—a fragrant, steaming dish of luscious, tender macaroni and cheese. What a combination! Try it. Really—there is no more appetizing dish than Macaroni and Cheese prepared according to the recipe given here, using Nestlé's Evaporated Milk. Smooth creamy sauce is the result of using this doubly rich, concentrated milk—and this tasty, rich sauce poured over the macaroni seems to seep into each little bit of it, making it tender and deliciously flavoured. And there is such a lot of nourishment in Macaroni and Cheese when Nestlé's Evaporated Milk is used—for you include almost twice the usual milk content, in this concentrated form.

½ lb. macaroni
2 quarts boiling water
2 teaspoons salt
1½ tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon salt
Dash pepper, if desired
Break macaroni into 3-inch pieces and drop into boiling water to which salt has been added. Boil until tender, about 25 minutes. Drain and run cold water over it. In the meantime prepare a thin white sauce of the butter, flour, seasonings and diluted Nestlé's Evaporated Milk. Put a layer of macaroni in a buttered baking dish, then a layer of cheese and sauce. Repeat. Cover with bread crumbs that have been moistened with melted butter. Bake in a moderate oven (375°F.) until crumbs are brown. Yield: 6 servings.

WORKLESS CANDIDATE

Unemployed to Consider Entering Provincial Election Field

The weekly meeting of the local unemployed council held in the Canadian Labor Defence League Hall last night was well attended. It was decided that application would be made to the authorities to parade on April 4 and increase of relief will be one of the demands. The next meeting on April 5 will be devoted to the selection of a candidate to contest this constituency at the forthcoming provincial election and all labor organizations in the city will be invited to send delegates.
